Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall ſell anie pins aboue the rate or prices, that they heretofore within two yéeres haue bene commonlie ſould at, vpon paine to forfeite, vi. s. viii. d for euerie M. ſould contrarie to this prouiſion, the moitie of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie ſhall be to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by action bill information or other ſuite in anie the kings courte of recorde, in the which none eſſoine protection or wager of lawe ſhalbe admitted or allowed. An acte to auctoriſe certaine of the kings maieſties counſaile, to ſet priſes vpon wines to be ſould by retaile.

Chap. 7.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen to the kings maieſtie the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, the vinteners being onelie ſellers and retailers of wine in all the cities, borouges, and all other townes where repaire of people is, and to the which the kings ſubiectes doo daylie reſorte within this realme of England, that where, in the xxviii. yeere of the kings maieſties moſt gratious reigne, at the parliament holden at Weſtminſter: It was amongſt other good ſtatutes enacted, that no maner of perſons ſhould ſell by retaile anie Gaſcoine, Guion, or French wines, aboue eight pence the gallon, that is to ſay, a penie the pinte, two pence the quarte, foure pence the pottle, and eight pence the gallon, vpon paine to forfeite for euerie pinte ſould contrarie to the act foure pence, euerie quarte eight pence, euerie pottle twelue pence, & euerie gallon two ſhillings. And that malmeſeis, romneis, ſackes, nor other ſweete wines ſhould be ſould by retaile aboue xii. pence the gallon vi. pence the pottle, three pence the quarte, three halfepence the pinte, vpon paine to forfeite for euerie gallon ſould contrarie to this acte three ſhillings foure pence for euerie pottle, xx. pence, for euerie quarte xii. pence, and for euerie pinte ſixe pence, as in the ſame acte more plainelie is declared. Neuertheleſſe it was prouided in the ſaide acte that the lord chauncellour, lord treſurer, lord preſident of the kings counſaile, lord priuie ſeale, and the two chiefe iuſtices, fiue, foure, or three of them, ſhall haue auctoritie and power, by their diſcretion, to ſet the prices of all kind of wines, that is to ſay, the butte, tunne, pipe, hoggeſhead, punchion, teers, barrell or rundlet, when it ſhall be ſould in groſſe: So that the ſame priſes limited, be written and openlie proclaimed as in the ſaid acte it is likewiſe contained. Sith the making of which acte ſuch perſons as did retaile wines within the ſaide cities, boroughes, townes, and other places within this realme, bought of the beſt wines of Gaſcoine for foure poundes foureteene ſhillings foure pence, the tunne at the moſt, of the beſt french wines iii. li. the tune, malmeſeis for iiii. li. the butte, baſtardes, iii. li. vi. s. viii pence the pipe, ſackes & romneis for fiue markes the butte at the moſt, the caſkes or veſſels containing the ſame wines, being full gauged ſo that vpon the retailing thereof againe, they might ſell the ſame wine at the prices limited in the ſaid acte, and had competent liuings for them, their wiues, children, familie & houſhold. Sith which time the ſaid retailours of wines cannot buie anie good Gaſcoine wines, vnleſſe they doo paie to the marchant for the ſame after the rate of vii. or viii. li. ſterling the tunne at the leaſt, and euerie tunne of french wine ſixe poundes ſterling at the leaſt, malmeſeis for v. li. the butte, ſackes and romneis foure pounds ten ſhillings the butte, baſtards fiue pounds the pipe, or fiue poundes ſixe ſhillings eight pence. And where the pipe of baſtard ſhould containe as much as dooth the ſacke butte, the ſame pipe dooth want of the ſame content twentie gallons at the leaſt, and yeerelie wantes more and more. And alſo where the malmeſeie butte ſhould containe as much as the butte of ſacke ſhould doo, the malmeſeie butte likewiſe wanteth of his true content twelue or ſixteene gallons. And all be it the buiers of the ſaid wines may by the ſaid acte of parliament allow themſelues vpon the paiment of their moneie for the ſame, yet the marchant in no wiſe will ſell his wines, vnleſſe the buiers doo indent, promiſe, and couenant with the ſaide marchant or otherwiſe buind them ſelfe, that they ſhall take none aduantage of the ſaide acte of gauging. For all which cauſes your ſuppliants can not ſell and retaile the ſaid kindes of wine, at ſuch price & prices, as is in the ſaide acte expreſſed, and liue vpon the ſame, but be thereby vtterlie impoueriſhed & vndoone, vnleſſe other remedie by this high courte be for the reformation thereof ſpeedelie prouided. In tender conſideration whereof the premiſſes conſidering, and alſo for that the wines called muſkadels is reputed & taken for ſweete wine, and ought to be retailed at ſuch price as other wines, called ſweete wines, be mentioned in the ſaid acte, the ſaid retailour can not buie that kinde of wine, vnder fifteene, or ſixteene poundes the tunne. For reformation whereof it may pleaſe the kings highnes, and the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that ſuch lordes, as by the ſaid former acte, haue auctoritie & power to ſet prices of wine in groſſe, ſhall by vertue and force of this acte, haue the ſame auctoritie to mitigate, & enhaunce the price of wines, hereafter to be ſould by retaile as often as time and occaſion ſhall require: anie thing in the ſaid former acte contained to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And their ſaid priſes, ordinances, after proclamation thereof made, to be obſerued and kept, vpon paine or penaltie in the ſame proclamations contained. The moitie of all which penalties to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courtes of recorde by bill, plaint, or information: in the which no wager of lawe, eſſoine, or protection, ſhall be allowed. This acte to endure to the end of the next parliament.

Proclamation.

An acte that perſons being no common ſurgions may miniſter outward medicines.

Chap. 8.

WEre in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yeere of the kings moſt gratious reigne, amongſt other thinges for the auoiding of ſorceries, witchcrafte, and other inconueniences, it was enacted, that no perſon within the citie of London, nor within ſeuen miles of the ſame, ſhould take vpon him to exerciſe and occupie as phiſitian or ſurgion except he be firſt examined approued and admitted by the biſhop of London and other, vnder and vpon certaine paines and penalties in the ſame acte mentioned. Sithens the making of which ſaide acte, the companie and felowſhip of ſurgions of London, minding onelie their owne lucers, and nothing the profite or eaſe of the diſeaſed or patient, haue ſued troubled and vexed, diuers honeſt perſons as well men as women, whome God hath endued with the knowledge of the nature, kinde, and operation of certaine herbes, rootes, and waters, and the vſing and miniſtring of them,to ſuch as bene pained with cuſtomable diſeaſes : as womens breſts being ſore, apin and the web in the eie, vncomes of hands,ſcaldings, burnings, ſore mouthes, the ſtone, ſtrangurie, ſaucelim,and morfew, and ſuch other like diſeaſes . And yet the ſaide perſons haue not taken anie thing for their paines or cunning , but haue miniſtred the ſame to the poore people onelie for neighbourhood & Gods ſake, and of pitie & charitie. And it is now well knowen, that the ſurgeons admitted will doo no cure to anie perſon , but where they ſhall knowe to be rewarded with a greater ſum or rewarde then the cure extendeth vnto , for in caſe they would miniſter their cunning to ſore people vnrewarded, there ſhould not ſo manie rotte , and periſh to death for lacke of helpe of ſurgerie as dailie doo : but the great parte of ſurgions admitted bene much more to be blamed, than thoſe perſons that they trouble . For although the moſt parte of the perſons of the ſaid craft of ſurgions haue ſmall cunning , yet they will take great ſummes of moneie , and doo little therefore and by reaſon thereof they doo often times impaire and hurt their patients,rather then doo them good. In conſideration whereof,and for the eaſe, comfort, ſuccour, helpe, reliefe, and health of the kings poore ſubiects,inhabitants of this his realme now pained or diſeaſed, or that hereafter ſhall be pained or diſeaſed : Be it ordained eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the auctoritie of this preſent parliament that at all time henceforth it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon being the kings ſubiecte , hauing knowledge and experience of the nature of herbes,rootes, and waters,or of the operation of the ſame,by ſpeculation or practiſe within anie parte of the realme of England,or within anie other the kings dominions, to practiſe, vſe and miniſter in and to anie outward ſore, vncom, wound,apoſtemations,outward ſwelling or diſeaſe, anie herbe or herbes, ointments, bathes, pultes and emplaſters , accordingto their cuninnge, experience, and knowledge in anie of the diſeaſes ſores & maladies before ſaid, and all other like to the ſame,or drinkes of the ſtone & ſtrangurie or agues,without ſute,vexation,trouble,penaltie , or loſſe of their goods, the foreſaid ſtatute in the foreſaid third yéere of the kings moſt gratious reigne,or anie other acte ordinance or ſtatute to the contrarie hereof,heretofore made , in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Licence to practiſe ſurgerie.

An acte for the preſeruation of the riuer of Seuerne.

Chap.9.

WHere diuers perſons, as well inhabitants fermers & dwellers next vnto the ſtreame of Seuerne, & vnto the crikes and pilles of the ſame from Kingrode vpward toward the citie and towne of Glouceſter, conueieth and carieth graine and corne out of the realme of England,vnto the parties beyond the ſea , where graines are verie déere , and now of late time haue made picardes and other great botes, with fore maſtes, of the burden of fiftéene tunne & ſo to xxxvi. tunne. And by reaſon thereof,wheate,rie,beanes,barlie,malt,& other kinde of graines by ſtealth are conueied into the vtter parties beyond yͤ ſea, ſo that thereby the kings maieſtie is not onelie deceiued of his ſubſidie and cuſtome for the ſame , but it cauſeth at ſuch times wheate graine & other kinde of corne,as is aforeſaid,to be at high prices . And by yͤ ſame meanes the inhabitants within the ſaid citie or towne of Briſtoll, are often & ſundrie times deſtitute and ſcant may haue graine or corne to ſerue the kings obedient ſubiects there dwelling & inhabiting . And alſo by reaſon of hauing of the ſaid great botes and veſſels oftentimes diuers ſhips,aſwell of the parties beyond the ſea as other of Engliſh ſhips,lieng in Kingrode & Hungerode,being ports or hauens of the citie or towne of Briſtoll, aforeſaide, diſtant fiue miles or thereaboute from the ſaid towne of Briſtoll,awaiting & tarieng there the comming of the ſaid great botes with corne & graine downe Seuerne,who there diſchargeth the graine & corne abord the ſaid ſhips at Kingrod. By reaſon whereof the ſaid ſhips & other veſſels,there tarieng for the receite of the ſaid graine and corne , doo then caſt out their balaſt of ſtones and other robull of balaſt of their ſaid ſhips & veſſels, into the ſaid rodes and hauens of Hungrode and Kingrode , & there lodeth the ſaid graine or corne in the ſhips & veſſels to the great deſtruction, and in continuance to the vtter vndoing of the ſaide rodes and hauens. So that the mouth and whole channell of the ſaid hauen is ſo heaped and quarred with ſtones and robull of balaſtes of the ſhips & botes there arriuing , that great ſhips, which vſeth the courſe of marchandiſe to yͤ ſaid towne of Briſtoll from the parties beyond the ſea,& from the ſaid towne laden with marchandiſe vnto yͤ vtter parties, may ſcantlie or ſafelie come vnto yͤ kings ſaide portes and towne of Briſtoll and the riuer of the ſame , and ſo from the ſaide porte & towne of Briſtoll vnto the ſaid Seuerne,without great daunger and perill . And by that meanes ſhips of great burden are like to be deſtroied and vtterlie caſt away , and if redreſſe be not the ſooner had therein , it will be to the vtter deſtruction of the hauen and porte of the ſaide towne of Briſtoll, which ſaid towne of Briſtoll is chiefelie maintained by courſe of marchandiſe. An act for the true making of couerlets in Yorke.

Chap.10

Whereas the citie of Yorke, being one of the antient and greateſt cities within this realme of England, afore this time hath bene mainteined and vpholden by diuers and ſundry handy crafts there vſed, and moſt principally by making and weauing of couerlets and couerings for beds, and thereby a great number of the inhabitantes and poore people of the ſaid citie and ſuburbes thereof and other places within the countie of Yorke, haue bene daylie ſet on worke in ſpinning, carding, dying, weauing, and otherwiſe concerning yͤ making of them:

them to the great commoditie of the inhabitants and poore people of the ſaid citie, hauing thereby honeſt liuinges and not made elſwhere in anie part of the ſame countie. For the true ſubſtantiall and perfect making thereof many good and beneficiall ordinances and orders haue bene deuiſed and made, aſwell for the good ſtuffe concerning the ſaid couerlets and coueringes, as alſo for the length and bredth of them and otherwiſe: of the which couerlets and couerings the beſt ſort ſhoulde and ought by the ſame ordinances, to conteine in length iii. yards, and in bredth two yards and a quarter at the leaſt. The ſecond ſort to conteine in length three yardes, and in bredth two yardes. And the loweſt or third ſort ſhould conteine two yards and a half in length, and in bredth one yard and three quarters vnder paine of forfeiture of the ſame, the one halfe and moitie of the ſaid forfeiture to be to the maior and commonaltie of the ſaid citie, and the other moitie to be to the wardens and companie of the ſaid handie craft, of couerlet makers. And foraſmuch as the ſame couerlets and couerings, were well and ſubſtanciallie made and wrought, the kings ſubiects of diuers parties of this realme, and alſo ſtrangers of other forren realmes knowing the goodneſſe of them, were verie deſirous to haue ⁊ buie the ſaide couerlets and couerings. And nowe of late diuers and ſundrie euill diſpoſed perſons apprentiſes not expert in the ſame occupation, withdrawing themſelues out of the ſaid citie of Yorke into the countie of Yorke, and other places thereabouts, and alſo diuers other perſons, inhabiting in villages and townes within the ſaid countie, and nigh to the ſame, intermedling with the ſame craft or occupation, hauing little experience therein, not being bound to the ſaid rules and ordinances, do dayly make couerlets ⁊ couerings, neither of good ſtuffe nor of good aſſiſe length or bredth and for the vtterance of the ſame, vſe dailie the craft and ſubtletie of hawking abroad in ẏ countrie, to villages and to mens houſes, putting the ſame naughtie ware to ſale ſecretly, not onely to the great impoueriſhing of the inhabitants of the ſaid citie, and alſo to the great deceipt of the kings true and faithfull ſubiects, buying the ſaid couerlets, to the great defaming and ſclander of the ſaid handy craft, but alſo to the impoueriſhing of the inhabitants of the ſaid citie, and vtter decaie of the ſame, if remedie the ſoner herein be not prouided. It may therefore pleaſe our ſouereigne lord the king, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall and of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that it may be enacted, by the auctoritie of the ſame, that no maner of perſon or perſons, dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid countie of Yorke, or nigh vnto the ſame, ſhall after the feaſt of ſaint Mighell the archangell next comming, make anie couerlets or couerings, to be put to ſale, vnleſſe ſuche perſon or perſons, after the ſaide feaſt, be inhabiting or dwelling within the citie of Yorke, or within the ſuburbes of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch couerlet or couering, made wrought and put to ſale, contrarie to the tenour of this eſtatute, or the value therof.

And be it further enacted, by the ſaid auctoritie, that no maner of perſon or perſons, of the occupation of handicrafts men of couerings or couerlet makers dwelling within the ſaide citie of Yorke, or ẏ ſuburbs of the ſame or elſwhere within the ſaid countie, ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt, vſe the ſaide craft of hawking, or go as hawkers, or put to ſale any couerlets in anie other place or places, out of the ſaid citie and liberties therof, but onelie in the open markets and faires, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame couerlets and couerings or the value thereof: the one halfe of the ſaid forfeitures, if it be in anie citie, borough or towne corporat, to be to the maior and commonaltie, bailife, gouernor or other ruler, and commonaltie of euery ſuch citie borough or towne corporat, auctorized to haue the ſame by grant or preſcription, or otherwiſe lawfullie: and the other halfe thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame by bill plaint action information or otherwiſe in anie court of record, wherein no wager of law dilatorie plea or protection ſhalbe allowed or admitted. And if the ſaide forfeiture happen to be taken or found out of any the ſaid cities townes or boroughs, hauing no ſuch auctoritie: then the one moity of the ſaid forfeiture to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors: and the other moitie to ſuch perſon and perſons, as will ſue for the ſame, in any of the kings courts in forme aforeſaid.

Wardens, Serchers.

And be it alſo enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the wardens and ſearchers of the ſaid occupation and handie craft of couerlets and couerings makers, within the ſaid citie of Yorke, for the time being, and their ſucceſſors ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of S. Mighell haue full power and auctoritie, by vertue of this act, to make ſearch in al faires and markets, fro Trent northward within this realme of England, for all ſuch couerlets and couerings, as ſhall be put to ſale, not being well and ſufficientlie wrought, ⁊ made of ſufficient ſtuffe, or not containing ẏ aſſiſes before limited and expreſſed, according to the tenor of this act, and ſo ſeize and take the ſame as forfeited. The one moity ⁊ halfe of ſuch forfeiture if any ſuch ſhalbe out of the ſaid cities boroughs or towns corporat, to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other moitie therof to the ſaid ſearchers ⁊ wardens, ẏ ſhal ſeize and take ẏ ſame: to be had ⁊ recouered in like maner ⁊ form, as is afore reherſed.

Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, dwelling within the countie of Yorke, at their free will and pleaſure at all times hereafter, to make couerlets, of what aſſiſe, or of what ſoeuer ſtuffe they will for their owne vſe or ſtore of their houſholds, or for their lords, to whome they be tenantes: So alwaies that the ſame couerlets ſo made ſhall not be put to ſale. And alſo ẏ when and as often as the ſaid ſearchers or wardens of the occupation of couerlet makers of the ſaid citie of Yorke ſhall make ſearch in any liberties or franchiſes within the ſaide county, for any the cauſes in the ſaid act mencioned: that then and ſo oft they ſhall require the head officer of ẏ ſame liberties and franchiſes, or his deputie to be aiding and aſſiſting, ⁊ alſo to go with them to make the ſaid ſearch. And if the ſame officer or his deputie, vpon requeſt ſo made refuſe or will not ſo do, that then vpon ſuch deniall and refuſall, the ſame ſearchers or wardens, to make ſearch themſelues: any thing in this act contained to the contrarie notwithſtaning.

Prouided alſo, that the lordes of the ſaide liberties and franchiſes, where anie ſuch ſearches ſhalbe made by the auctoritie of this act, ſhall haue ſuche fines and forfeitures, as of right they ought to haue, by reaſon of anie ſuch ſearches, in as large and ample manner, as they ought to haue had the ſame before the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer bene had nor made.

Cap. 13.

IN moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your moſt excellent maieſtie, the inhabitants of your graces countie Palantine of Cheſter, that where the ſaid countie Palantine of Cheſter is and hath bene alwaies hitherto exempt, excluded, and ſeperated out and from your high court of parliament, to haue anie knightes and burgeſſes within the ſaid court: By reaſon whereof the ſaid inhabitants haue hitherto ſuſtained manifold diſheriſons loſſes and damages, aſwell in their landes goodes and bodies, as in the good ciuill and politike gouernance and maintenance of the common wealth of their ſaid countrie. And for as much as the ſaide inhabitantes haue alwaies hitherto bene bound by the acts and ſtatutes made and ordeined by your ſaid highneſſe, and your moſt noble progenitors, and auctoritie of the ſaid court, as farforth as other counties cities and boroughs haue bene, that haue had their knights and burgeſſes within your ſaide court of parliament, and yet haue had neither knight ne burgeſſe there for the ſaid countie Palantine, the ſaide inhabitants for lacke therof, haue bene oftentimes touched and greeued with acts ⁊ ſtatutes made within the ſaid court, aſwell derogatiue vnto the moſt ancient iuriſdictions liberties and priuileges of your ſaid countie Palantine, as preiudiciall vnto yͤ common wealth, quietneſſe, reſt, and peace of your graces moſt bounden ſubiects, inhabiting within the ſame. For remedie whereof it may pleaſe your ſaid highneſſe that it be enacted, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall ⁊ temporal, ⁊ the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that from the end of this preſent ſeſſion, yͤ ſaid county palantine of Cheſter ſhall haue two knights for yͤ ſaid countie palantine, and likewiſe two citizens to be burgeſſes for the citie of Cheſter, to be elect and choſen by proceſſe, to be awarded by the chancellor of England, vnto the chamberlaine of Cheſter, his lieuetenant or deputie for the time being. And ſo like proceſſe to be made by the ſaide chamberlaine, his lieuetenant or deputie to the ſhiriffe of the ſaide countie of Cheſter: And the ſame election to be made vnder the maner and forme, to all intents conſtruction and purpoſes, as is vſed within the countie palantine of Lancaſter, or anie other countie and citie within this realme of England, which ſaid knights and burgeſſes, and euerie of them ſo elected and choſen, ſhall be returned by the ſaid ſhiriffe into the chancerie of England in due forme, and vpon like paines as it is ordeined, that the ſhiriffe or ſhiriffes of anie other countie within this realme, ſhould make their returne in caſe like. And which ſaid knights and burgeſſes, and euery of them ſo elected and returned, ſhall be knights and burgeſſes of the court of parliament, and haue like voyce and auctoritie, to all intents ⁊ purpoſes, as anie other the knights and burgeſſes of the ſaid court of parliament, haue, vſe, and inioy. And in likewiſe ſhall and may take all and euerie ſuch like liberties, aduantages, dignities, priuiledges, wages, fees, and commodities, concerning this ſaid court of parliament, to all intents conſtructions and purpoſes, as any other the knights and burgeſſes of the ſaid court, ſhall maie or ought to haue, take or inioy. Cheſter. Knights. Citizens. Election.

And alſo where it is, and hath bene vſed within the ſaid countie Palantine, that vpon the ſuggeſtion of anie perſon, that is or hath bene indebted to anie perſon or perſons, comming to the eſcheker within the ſaide countie Palantine, and there taking a corporall othe, that he or they ſhall paie his or their creditors at ſuch time as he or they ſhall be able thereto the officers of the ſaid eſcheker haue vſed without warrant, to grant out of yͤ ſame eſcheker a writ in nature of a protection, whereby the ſaid creditors haue bene and be greatlie delaied, and in manner defrauded of Protectiõ.

their ſaid debts, to the great impoueriſhment and vndoing of the ſaid creditors. For reformation whereof it maie alſo pleaſe your ſaid highneſſe that it be enacted, by the auctoritie aforeſaid that no ſuch writ of courſe, without a ſpeciall warrant from your ſaid highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, conteining any ſuch protection, be from the firſt day of October, which ſhall be in the yeare of our lord God, 1543. granted. But that all and euery ſuch writs of courſe, after the ſaide day to be granted, to be void and of none effect: anie cuſtome vſe or priuiledge, to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the certificat of conuicts to be made into the kings bench.

Cap.14.

Where before this time diuers perſons haue bene indited, arrained, and attainted, and ſome of them clerks conuict, and ſome of them clerks atteinted, and ſome of them outlawed for murder, burglarie, robberie, and other felonies, before iuſtices of the peace, iuſtices of gaole deliuery, and iuſtices of Oier & determiner, within diuers cities, counties, franchiſes, and liberties within this realme. The recordes of which attaindors, outlawrie, and conuictions often and many times by negligence of the clerke of the crowne, clerks of peace, clerkes of aſſiſe and ſuch other, as haue had the order, rule, keeping, and gouernance of the ſame recordes, haue bene imbeſeled, and not readie to be obiected againſt ſuche perſons, as haue bene newly arrained before our ſouereigne lord the king in his bench, or before other the kings iuſtices for like and other ſuch offences by them committed or done. And for that it hath not bene known certeinlie whither to reſort for the ſame recordes, becauſe they were not certified into anie place certaine. By reaſon whereof ſometime ſuch perſons and like offenders which haue bene newlie arrained, as is aforeſaid, haue had the benefits of his or their clergie, where they ought not ne ſhould haue had the ſame, if the ſaid recordes had bene preſent in the ſame place, where ſuche perſon or perſons were ſo newly arraigned, or els certified, into ſome other place certaine, where the ſame recordes mought haue bene ſeene, ſent for, or written for to haue bene obiected againſt ſuch perſon or perſons ſo newly arraigned. Whereby aſwell yͤ king our ſouereigne lord, as alſo all other perſons, haue many times loſt their eſchetes and other aduantages, and forfeitures that they ſhould haue had by meanes of the ſaid attaindors, to the great loſſes, both of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and other perſons, and alſo the ſame offendors haue had their clergie, where they ought not ſo to haue had, to the great bouldneſſe and incouraging of like offendors. In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall ⁊ temporall, and the commons in this parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that the clerke of the crowne, clerks of the peace, and clerkes of aſſiſe for the time being where anie ſuch attaindor, outlawrie, or conuiction ſhall be had, ſhall from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, not onelie certifie a tranſcript, brieflie and in fewe wordes, conteining the tenour and effect of euerie ſuch inditement, outlawrie, or conuiction, and clerke atteinted, before them ſo to be had, made, or pronounced, that is to ſay, the name, ſurname, and addition of euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall be ſo indited, and therevpon outlawed, conuicted or clerke attainted, and the certaintie of the ſaid fellonie or other offence, wherevpon he or they ſhall be ſo outlawed, conuicted, or clerke attainted, and the date and place of his outlawrie, conuiction, and attaindor, and the date and place, where and when the ſaide fellonie, or other offence, wherevpon the ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall be ſo indited, outlawed, conuicted, or clerke attainted, ſhall be made and done, before the king our ſouereigne lord in his bench at Weſtminſter in the countie of Mydd. there to remaine of recorde for euer among other the kinges recordes there, within fortie daies next after anie ſuche atteindor, conuiction, or outlawrie ſhall be had, made or pronounced if the terme be then, and if not, then within twentie daies next after the beginning of the terme next following the ſaide fortie dayes, but alſo ſhall deliuer a tranſcript of euerie ſuch inditement, wherevpon the ſaid perſon and perſons ſhall fortune hereafter ſo to be conuicted, or clerks attainted, to yͤ ordinary, to whome the bodie of yͤ ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall be committed, at yͤ time that yͤ ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall be ſo committed. The ſaid ordinary paieng to euerie ſuch clerke, as ſhall write the ſaid tranſcript, for euerie copie of ſuch inditement, twelue pence, for his paines, vpon paine, that euery clerke of yͤ crowne, clerke of the peace, and clerke of aſſiſe for the time being before whome ſuch inditement, atteindor, outlawrie or conuiction ſhall be ſo had made pronounced or remaine for the non certifieng of euerie ſuch record, and deliuering of the copie of ſuch inditementes to the ſaide ordinaries according to this eſtatute, to loſe and forfeit fortie ſhillinges, the one moitie thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other moitie to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill information or otherwiſe in anie of the kings courtes of recorde, wherein no wager of lawe eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed. And the clerkes of the crowne, in the kinges bench ſhall receiue the ſaid certificats and tranſcripts at ſuch time as they ſhall be tendered and profered vnto them by the ſaide clerkes of the crowne, clerkes of the peace, and clerkes of aſſiſe, or by their deputie or deputies, without taking anie thing for the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſumme of fortie ſhillings for euerie certificat by him refuſed.

An act touching the Deane and chapiter of Welles, to be one ſole chapiter of it ſelfe.

Cap. 15.

WHere before this time the chapiter vnto the ſes and biſhopricke of Bathe & Welles was the Deane and chapiter of the cathedrall church of ſaint Andrew of Welles in the countie of Somerſet, and the late prior and couent of the late priorie or monaſterie of the apoſtles ſaint Peter and Paule of Bathe, in the ſaid countie of Somerſet: by reaſon wherof all feoffements, leaſes, grants, and eſtates, made of anie the manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, fées, offices, or any other thing belonging or appertaining vnto the ſaid ſée and biſhopricke, or wherof the biſhop of the ſaid ſée of Bathe and Welles for the time being, was ſeaſed in the right of the ſaid biſhoprike, or going out of the ſaid manors, landes, tenementes or hereditaments, belonging vnto the ſaid biſhoprike, which ſhould be good or of effect in the law, to binde his ſucceſſors, in ſucceſſion after the death of yͤ ſaid biſhop of the ſaid biſhoprike for yͤ time being grantor leſſor, or giuer of anie of the premiſſes, as is aforeſaid, ought to be made in writing by the ſame biſhop vnder his ſeale: and to be alſo by writing ſealed, as well with the common ſeale of the prior and couent for the time being of the ſaide late priorie or monaſterie of Bathe, as alſo with the chapiter ſeale of the Deane and chapiter of Welles for the time being ratified confirmed and aſſented vnto, which ſaid priorie or monaſterie of Bathe diuers yeares nowe paſt, was and nowe is lawfully diſſolued extincted and determined. And whereas diuers and ſundrie gifts feoffements, grants, leaſes, writings, and other things haue bene made in writing ſithen the diſſolution of the ſaid late priorie or monaſterie of Bathe, of and in parcell of the premiſſes, or going out, or to be perceiued or taken of and in the ſame, by the nowe biſhop of the ſaid ſée, and biſhoprike, which ſaid gifts, feoffements, grants, leaſes, writinges and other thinges the ſaide Deane and chapiter of Welles, hath ſith the making therof ratified and confirmed vnder their common ſeale, in due forme after the law. And yet notwithſtanding there is and remaineth great doubt and queſtion among diuers perſons, whether the confirmation or aſſent of the ſaid deane or chapiter of Welles, had and made by writing vnder their chapiter ſeale, ſithens the diſſolution of the ſaide late priorie or monaſterie be ſufficient in the lawe, to make perfect and good the ſame giftes, feoffementes, grants, leaſes writings, and other things heretofore made by the ſaid now biſhop, to bind him and his ſucceſſors in ſucceſſion or not: and alſo whether all gifts, feoffements, grants, leaſes, writings, déedes, acts, and other things hereafter lawfullie to be made in writing, by the ſaide nowe biſhop or anie his ſucceſſors, and ſealed with the ſeale of the biſhop of the ſaide ſée, or biſhoprike for the time being, and confirmed ratified or aſſented vnto by the ſaid Deane or chapiter of Welles, vnder or with their chapiter ſeale, ſhall be good and auaileable in the lawe, to binde the ſaide biſhop of the ſaid ſée, or biſhoprike for the time being in ſucceſſion, In conſideration whereof, and to the intent to auoid all ambiguities doubtes and queſtions, that may growe, come, riſe, or be in that behalfe: Be it enacted ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that all giftes feoffementes, grauntes, leaſes, writinges, déedes, and actes, made in writing by the ſaide nowe biſhop of the ſaid ſée or biſhopprike, vnder the ſeale of the ſame biſhop, ſithen the diſſolution of the ſaid late priorie, or monaſterie of Bathe or at anie time ſithen the diſſolution of the ſame late monaſterie, and alſo all gifts, feoffementes, grants, leaſes, déedes, writings and acts hereafter to be made in writing by the biſhop of Bathe and Welles for the time being, of any manours, lands, tenementes, hereditaments, offices, fées, or anie other thing belonging to the ſaid biſhoprike, or going out of the ſame, or in any wiſe touching or concerning the ſame biſhoprike or ſée, and the ſame ſealed by the ſaid biſhop for the time being, and which at anie time ſithen yͤ diſſolution of the ſaid late monaſterie, haue bene, or at anie time hereafter ſhalbe ratified, confirmed, and aſſented vnto by the Deane and chapiter of Wells for the time being, in writing vnder the chapiter ſeale, ſhalbe góod and effectuall in the lawe to all intents and purpoſes, to bind in ſucceſſion, the ſucceſſors of the ſaid biſhop for the time being according to the tenor purport, and effect of the ſame gifts, feoffements, grantes, leaſes and other writings déedes, and acts ſo made or hereafter to be made in writing: anie law cuſtome or vſage heretofore vſed or had to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And further be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the Deane and chapiter of Welles aforeſaid and their ſucceſſor for the time being, ſhalbe from henſeforth for euer accepted taken reputed and adiudged, to be the full, entier and ſole chapiter of the biſhoprike of Bathe and Welles, and belonging to the ſame biſhoprike, in full name, nature, and auctoritie, power, and qualitie, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as the ſole chapiter of the ſame biſhoprike.

Prouided alwaies, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, do not extend to binde anie founder or giuer of anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the ſaide ſée and biſhoprike, or thereunto belonging, of for or concerning all ſuch actions and ſutes, as they or anie of them may, ſhould, or ought to haue, by reaſon of anie alienation in fée ſimple or fée taile, hereafter to be made of anie the manours, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the ſaid ſea and biſhoprike, or of anie part thereof.

Cap.16. IN moſt humble wiſe beſéechen the kings maieſtie his true and faithfull ſubiects, the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where the ſhirifes for the moſte part of the counties within this realme of England, ſtand and be charged and chargeabls toward his highneſſe, by reaſon of their ſaid offices of ſhirifewike, with diuers ancient fermes annexed vnto the corpes of the ſame counties, that is to ſay, with one ferme demanded of the ſhirife of euerie of the ſaide counties for the time being, in one whole ſumme vnder this title, De Vic. de rem. firm. com. poſt terr. dat. which ferme did, and yet partly doth growe and accrue, aſwell of the iſſues and profits of ſuch landes and tenementes, as from the conqueſt vnto the xi. yeare of the reigne of king Edward the firſt, did remaine in the handes of the kinges moſt noble progenitors, and ſome of them do alſo yet remaine in the hands of the kings maieſtie, vnder the charge and cuſtodie of the ſhirifes of the ſame counties for the time being, as parcell of the ancient demeanes and inheritances of the crowne of England, not granted nor giuen awaie as alſo rents of aſſiſe, rents called common fines, ſhirifes aides, and of other rents certaine, belonging to the ſame ferme. And the other ferme demanded likewiſe in anie other whole ſum. Videlicet de vic. de firmo proficuo com. which ferme did and yet partly doth riſe and grow of the perquiſite and profits of the courts holden by yͤ ſhirifes at the countie daies, ſhiriffes turnes and hundreds, and of diuers other caſualties and profites, yearelie happening and falling, within the hundreds and wapentakes of yͤ ſaide ſeuerall counties, parcell of the corps of the ſame counties of old time annexed to the ſaid crowne of England. And alſo ſtand and be charged and chargeable by reaſon of their ſaide offices, with diuers ſummes of monie demanded of them ſeuerallie for the fermes of diuers purpreſtures, aſſertes ſergeantes, and minute rents, and other fermes exacted and demanded of the ſhiriffe vnder the title or name of the ſhiriffe, as in the rolles, and Memorand. of the kings court of his eſcheker more plainly it may appeare: which fermes and other ſummes of monie before rehearſed, be not, nor of long time haue bene wholie leuied or gathered by any of the ſaid ſhirifes: but part of them haue bene yéerelie loſt and not collected, partly becauſe of the ſaid ſhirifes in times paſt, haue forborne to aſke or demand yͤ ſame, or for to deſtreine therefore: ſo that it is now not certainlie knowne what lands or perſons ſhould be charged or chargeable therewith. And partly becauſe great part of the landes and tenements, hundreds and wapentakes, out whereof part of the rents and profits, belonging to the ſaid ſeuerall fermes, did iſſue and grow, haue bene giuen by the kings highneſſe, or his noble progenitors, to ſundrie perſons, diſcharged of the ſame rents and profits, and yet none allowance or deduction hath bene required nor made thereof.

And now of late diuers manors landes, tenementes, rentes, ſutes, ſeruices, hundred, wapentakes, lathes, and rapes which were alſo chargeable with certaine rents, fermes and profits, parcell of the ſaid fermes before rehearſed, bene commen to the poſſeſſion of the kinges maieſtie, by the gift grant diſſolution ſurrender or attainder of diuers late monaſteries or houſes of religion, late ſurrendered diſſolued, or otherwiſe commen to his maieſties hands: by occaſion whereof the ſaid rents, fermes and profits, which did come and growe out of the ſame, bene nowe cléerelie extinguiſhed and determined. By reaſon whereof the ſaid ſhirifes haue heretofore ſuſteined, & from henſeforth bene like to ſuſtaine much more loſſe and damage in yͤ ſaid fermes, and charges before rehearſed, vpon the determination of their accounts in the kings court of his eſchequer, then they were wont to do vnleſſe ſome good remedie be the ſoner prouided for them in this behalfe.

It may therefore pleaſe the kings moſt excellent highnes, that it be enacted, ordeined & eſtabliſhed by his maieſtie, whith the aduiſe & aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that from henceforth all and euerie perſon, which nowe is, or hereafter ſhall be ſhirife or ſhirifes of anie countie or counties accountable or anſwerable in the ſaide eſchequer, ſhall at his day of prefiction, immediatly after he is ſworne to account of the iſſues & profits of his office of ſhiriſwike, and euery other perſon, which of late haue bene ſhirife or ſhirifes of any of the ſaide counties, and haue no taile of rewarde, nor haue not yet determined his or their account, or otherwiſe be diſcharged or pardoned thereof, ſhall in the ſame terme, that he taketh his oth to account, be ſworne by himſelfe, or by his atturneie or deputie ſworne for him, when he ſhall anſwere before the lord treaſurer, chamberleines, chaunceller and barons of the ſaid eſchequer, or in the abſence of the ſaid lorde treaſurer, chamberleines, or chanceller, or any of them, then before ſuch of the ſaid lord treaſurer, chamberleines, chanceller, & of the ſaid barons, as then ſhal happen to be preſent in the ſaid court, to bring in & deliuer into the ſaid court rolles, or cedules of parchment, conteining in them truely without omiſſion or concelement, all ſuch particular ſummes of mony, which he hath leuied or lawfully might haue leuied to his wyting or knowledge within his baliwike, as part or parcell of the ſaid ancient fermes, and the other fermes before reherſed, making expreſſe & diſtinct menſion in the ſame rolles or cedules, as nie as he or they can or may, of what perſon, and in what lands & tenements, and for what cauſe the ſame particular ſummes & euery of them be leuied or leuiable toward the making of the ſame ferme or anie of them. And that after the ſame rolles or cedules ſo deliuered, & the particuler ſummes of mony in them conteined, appertaining to their proper fermes, caſt & rated before yͤ ſaid lord treaſurer, chamberlaines, chanceller & barons or before the ſaid barons, in the abſence of the lorde treaſurer, chamberlaines, or chaunceller for the time being, or any of them. The ſame lorde treaſurer, chamberlaines, chaunceller and the ſaid barons: or the ſaid barons, in the abſence of the ſaid treaſurer, chamberleines, or chaunceller, or of any of them for the time being, ſhal haue full power and auctoritie by this act, to make allowance, exoneration, and deduction in the ſaide open court, from time to time by their diſcrecions, to euery ſuch perſon, in euery of the ſaide fermes, of ſo much money as the ſaid fermes ſhalbe more then the ſaid particulers, ſo apporcioned & conteined in the ſaide rolles or cedules, do amount vnto. And to the intent, that euerie of the ſaide ſhirifes, for the time being, may and ſhall hereafter be more able diligentlie to ſerue the king in his or their ſaide offices, without taking anie unlawfull exactions of the kinges ſubiectes, and alſo better to make prouiſion for the ſaide iuſtices, and their companie in their circuites, hauing ayde of the king towardes their ſaide charges and expences: The kinges highneſſe, of his liberalitie, in conſideration of the ſame charges, ſo to be ſuſteined by the ſaid ſhirifes, is contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by his highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that euerie of the ſaide ſhirifes, comming to his accountes in the ſayde eſchequer, ſhewing a bill ſubſcribed with the handes of the ſaide iuſtices or of ſuch of them as ſhall bee preſent at the ſayd aſſiſes and ſeſſions, making plaine mencion of the daies and time, that the ſaide iuſtices did abide or remaine in the ſame countie at the coſtes of the ſayde ſhirifes, in or about the kinges ſaide affaires and buſineſſes, ſhall haue allowance as well hereof, as for other his ſaide reaſonable coſtes, upon his or their accountes in the ſaide eſchequer, by the diſcretion of the ſayde lorde treaſurer, chamberleines, chauncellers and barons, and in the abſence of the ſayde lorde treaſurer, chamberleines, chaunceller or anie of them, by the ſayde barons, and by as manie of the ſayde lorde treaſurer, chamberleines and chaunceller, as them ſhall happen to be there preſent by auctoritie of this preſent act, without other warrant, or anie further ſuite to be had or made in this behalfe: ſo that all the allowaunces for the coſtes aboue ſayde, to all the ſhirifes do not amount in anie one yeere aboue the ſumme of three hundred fourtie and two poundes ſixe ſhillinges and eight pence: this act to continue and endure onelie to the ende of the next parliament.

Cap.17.

Where in the parliament begunne and holden at London, the thirde daie of Nouember in the xxi. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lorde king Henrie the eight, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers prorogations, untill the diſſolution thereof: it was among others thinges eſtabliſhed and enacted that the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors for the augmentation and maintenance of the roial eſtate of his imperial crowne and dignitie, of ſupreme head of the church of England, ſhould yerely haue, take, enioy and receiue, united and knit unto his imperial crowne for euer, one yerely rent or pencion, amounting to the ualue of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, fermes tithes, offerings, emoluments, and of all other profits, as well called ſpiritual as temporal, then appertaining or belonging, or that afterwarde from thence forth ſhoulde belong to any archbiſhopricke, biſhopricke, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeaconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, colegde, houſe, collegiate, prebende, cathedrall church, collegiate church, conuentuall church, perſonage, vicarage, chaunterie, free chapell or other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of what name, nature, or qualitie ſoeuer they were, within anie dioces of this realme, or in Wales, the ſaid pencion or annuall rent, to be yeerely paide for euer, to our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde, to his heires and ſucceſſors kinges of this realme, at the feaſt of the natiuitie of our lord God, as by the ſame act among diuers other thinges therein conteined, more plainelie is ſhewed and may appeare. And where alſo at the parliament, begunne at Weſtminſter, the twentie eight daie of Aprill, in the thirtie one yeere of our ſayde ſoueraigne lorde the kinges moſt gracious reigne: and afterwarde continued by diuerſe and ſundrie prorogations, untill the diſſolution thereof, there was by auctoritie of the ſaide parliament, erected and eſtabliſhed a certeine courte, called the courte of firſt fruites and tenth. And it was further enacted by the auctoritie of the ſaide parliament, that the ſaide firſt fruites and tenths, and all the reuenues and profites thereof, which then were or hereafter from henceforth ſhoulde growe or be, by anie maner of meanes, ſhoulde be from henceforth in the order ſuruey and gouernaunce of the ſaide courte of the firſt fruites and tenth, and miniſters of the ſame, as by the ſame act among diuerſe other thinges therein conteined, plainelie appeareth. Sithen the making of which ſaide act, our ſoueraigne lorde of his moſt gracious and bleſſed diſpoſicion, by his moſt gracious ſeuerall letters patentes, hath made erected, incorporate, and eſtabliſhed, within this his realme, diuerſe and ſundrie biſhoppes and ſeas of biſhoppes, that is to ſaie, John nowe biſhop of Cheſter, John nowe biſhop of Glouceſter, John nowe biſhop of Peterborough, Paul nowe biſhop of Briſtoll, and Robert nowe biſhop of Oxenforde: and by the ſame his ſeuerall and ſundrie letters patentes, hath ſunderlie and ſeuerallie giuen and graunted unto the ſayde biſhops diuerſe and ſundrie manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments. In which ſaide ſeuerall letters patentes there bene reſerued unto his highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſours, certaine yeerelie rentes and pencions, amounting to the tenth of the ſame manors landes tenementes and hereditamentes, ſo ſeuerallie giuen to the ſayde ſeuerall biſhops, to be payde and payable yeerelie in our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde the kinges courte of augmentations of the reuenue of his crowne, as in the ſaide ſeuerall letters patentes more plainelie appeareth. And for as much as by the ſayde former eſtatutes, the ſaide biſhops bene compellable euerie one of them to paie the tenthes of his or their poſſeſſions, annexed to their ſeuerall biſhoprickes, in our ſayde ſouereigne lorde the kings courte of firſt fruites and tenthes, the ſaide biſhoppes be and ſhall be double charged and chargeable, with the paiments of the ſaide rents and pencions, reſerued and to be paide, as is aboueſaide, for that that the paiments thereof in one of the ſaide courtes, is no diſcharge in the other contrary to the true intent and meaning of the kings highnes, and to the great hurt and decaie of the ſaide biſhops, and their ſucceſſors, if ſpeedie remedie be not therefore prouided. For reformation wherof be it enacted and ordeined by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that all the yeerely rents tenths and pencions, as is or be aboue rehearſed, reſerued in & by all and ſinguler the kings highnes ſaid ſeueral letters patents, made of any manors lands tenements perſonages appropriat, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, ſithen the xxviii. day of Aprill, in the ſaid xxxi. yere of the reigne of our ſaide ſouereigne lorde, to anie the ſaide ſeuerall biſhops, ſhall from the firſt daie of Maie next comming, be in the rule gouernaunce and ſuruey of the ſaid court of firſt fruites and tenthes. And that all ſuch & the ſame rents pencions and tenthes, ſhall be from the ſaid firſt day of Maie, paiable and alwaies paide in the ſaide court of firſt fruites and tenthes, and not els where, nor in anie other court or place, anie thing reherſed in the ſaide ſeuerall letters patentes, or in anie of them, or anie act ſtatute or lawe had made or vſed to the contrarie thereof not withſtanding.

Rents. Tenths.

Surueie. Courtes of firſt fruits.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaid biſhops nor their ſucceſſors, ne anie of them, ſhall at anie time hereafter be impeached or ſued in the ſaid courte of firſt fruites and tenthes, of or for any tenth yerelie rent or pencion, reſerued in or by anie of the ſaide ſeuerall letters patentes which nowe is, or before the ſaid firſt daie of Maie next comming ſhall be due vnto the kings highnes. And that all and ſinguler proces and ſuites nowe had and purſued, or hereafter on this ſide the ſaid firſt daie of Maie to be had or ſued out of the ſaide court of firſt fruites and tenth, againſt anie of the ſaid biſhops newly erected & made, as is aforeſaide, of for or concerning onelie anie yerely rent pencion or tenthes, reſerued vpon or by anie of the ſaide letters patentes, ſhall ceaſe and be clearlie voyde to all intents and purpoſes.

An act for Canterburie concerning the priuiledges of the ſame.

Chap.18

WHere the citie of Canterburie is, and of ancient time hath bene a citie incorporate, and endued with diuerſe and many ample priuiledges and franchiſes, by diuerſe and ſundrie charters and grauntes heretofore made by the kinges noble progenitors as well in the time of the prince of famous memorie king Henrie the ſixth, as in the time of other his noble progenitors: whereby the ſame citie ought to haue vſe and enioy all the ſaide libertie priuiledges and fraunchiſes, according to the tenour force purport and effect of all ſuch of the ſayd charters and grauntes heretofore graunted and made vnto the maior and citizens of the ſayde citie, as remaine and ſtande yet in full ſtrength and force: yet diuerſe ambiguous queſtions and varietie in opinions of diuerſe perſons learned in the lawes of the realme, be of late riſen and growen, of the validitie purport and force of diuerſe articles conteined in the ſayde charters and grauntes, becauſe that ſome wordes compriſed in the ſame, ſeeme to them obſcure ambiguous and doubtfull where in deede the true intent and meaning thereof, to the moſt part of men, learned in the lawes of the realme, doth right well appeare to be plaine, by reaſon whereof not onelie the good ciuile policie of the ſaide citie is much decaide, but alſo the welthie occupieng, the populous inhabiting, and the beautifull building thereof be like to come in great ruine depopulacion and decaie, not a litle to the extenuacion of that part of this realme, as well in the eies of all ſtraungers, as in the eies of ſuch great perſonages as ſhall happen to haue repaire to the kinges maieſtie in amballage or otherwiſe. In conſideration whereof be it enacted, by the kings highnes, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that the maior and aldermen, or the more part of them, of the ſaide citie, and their ſucceſſors, by ſuch name or names as they be incorporate, ſhall haue vſe and enioy all ſuch liberties franchiſes and priuileges, within the liberties precinct and iuriſdiction of the ſaide citie, which they or their predeceſſors maiors and aldermen of the ſaid citie, haue had to them granted by the kings highnes, or any of his noble progenitors, by his or their letters patentes, vnder the great ſeale of England, nowe remaining in full ſtrength and force according to the true purport and effect of the ſame letters patentes and grantes heretofore had and made vnto the ſaide maior and aldermen of the ſaide citie, as is aforeſaide, notwithſtanding they haue not bene of late time vſed nor put in execution accordinglie.

Maior. Fraunchiſes.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie perſon and perſons, citizens and inhabiting within the ſaide citie or liberties, or the precint thereof to take a prentiſe or prentiſes, by indentures interchangeable, ſealed with the ſeales of ſuch parties, for the terme of ſeuen yeeres or leſſe, as both the parties can agree; albeit ſuch apprentiſe or apprentiſes be within the age of twentie one yeeres: and that the ſame indentures of apprentiſehode, ſhall comprehende like couenantes and be made written and enrolled, in like maner and forme, as is commonlie vſed in ſuch caſes within the citie of London: and the ſame indentures, compriſing ſuch couenants, made written & inrolled as is aforeſaid, ſhall be from henceforth good and effectuall in the lawe, againſt euerie ſuch apprentiſe, to all intentes conſtructions and purpoſes: the minoritie of ſuch apprentiſes, the ſtatute made in the vii. yere of the noble prince king Henrie the fourth, concerning apprentiſes, or anie other ſtatute lawe cuſtome or vſage, concerning taking of apprentiſes, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Foreines. Forfaite. Diſtreſſe.

Be it alſo enacted, by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that no perſon or perſons being foreines, and not being free citizens of the ſaide citie of Canterburie ſhall not from henceforth, contrarie to the libertie and grauntes, heretofore had and made vnto the maior and aldermen of the ſaid citie, buie or ſell anie maner of marchandiſe, to or with anie maner of perſon or perſons foreines, and not being free citizens of the ſaide citie, nor keepe anie open ſhop, nor vſe anie myſterie or handie craft, within the ſame citie liberties and precinct thereof, without the ſpeciall licence of the ſaide maior and aldermen, or the more part of them, in writing vnder their ſeale, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie ſuch offence, to the ſaide maior and aldermen, to the vſe of the ſaide citie ſixe ſhillings eight pence, of lawfull monie of Englande. And that the maior and aldermen of the ſame citie, and their ſucceſſors for the time being, from time to time, ſhall haue power and auctoritie, to demaunde and aſke, againſt euerie ſuch offendour, in the courte hall of the ſaide citie, by action or plaint of debt, the ſayde forfaiture, or at their liberties ſhall take leuie and perceiue by diſtreſſe the ſaide penalties or forfaitures, to the vſe of the ſaide citie by and according to the courſe of the common lawe.

Prouided alwaies that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extende or be preiudiciall to the kinges maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, but that it ſhall bee lawfull to our ſaide ſoureigne lorde his heires and ſucceſſors from time to time, to ſeiſe or reſume anie of the ſaide fraunchiſes liberties or priuileges, heretofore graunted by any of his progenitours, and confirmed by this preſent act, for any ſufficient cauſe of forfaiture by the lawe of this realme: any clauſe or article in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extende to the palace of the moſt reuerende father in God, Thomas nowe archbiſhop of Canterburie, or to the hamlet of Staplegate, or to the ſcite and precinct of the cathedrall and metropolitane Church of Chriſt in Canterburie aforeſayde: nor to anie other place whatſoeuer, immediatelie before the making of this act, being out of the libertie of the ſaide citie of Canterburie: Nor in any wiſe ſhall be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the ſayde archbiſhop, or any of his ſucceſſors: or to the deane and chapiter of the ſaid cathedrall and metropolitane church of Chriſt in Canterbury or to any of their ſucceſſors, anie thing in the ſame act not withſtanding.

Boucher. Fiſhmonger.

Prouided alſo that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extende to anie boucher, fiſhmonger, or anie other perſon what ſoeuer, inhabiting out of the libertie of the ſaide citie of Canterburie, for or concerning the ſelling or buieng of anie maner of fleſh fiſh or other vitaile, in the ſame citie, or precinct of the ſame, or the ſuburbes of the ſame: but that all maner of vitaile may for euer be freelie bought and ſolde, in the ſaid citie precinct and ſuburbes of the ſame, as though this act had neuer bene made, any thing in the ſame to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for paiment of pencions and portions, graunted out of the late abbeis.

Chap.19

WHere the archbiſhops biſhops archdeacons and other eccleſiaſticall perſons, of both prouinces of Canterburie and Yorke within this realme of Englande, haue heretofore in the right of their churches had and receiued out of the late monaſteries abbathies priories nunries colleges hoſpitals houſes of friers and other religious & eccleſiaſticall houſes and places nowe diſſolued, and out of the manors lands tenements and hereditamentes belonging to the ſame, diuers pencions, porcions, corodies indemnities, ſinodies prories and other profits. And yet notwithſtanding the ſayde generall ſauing, conteined in the ſaide act, the ſayde archbiſhoppes, biſhoppes, archdeacons, and other eccleſiaſticall perſons, of both the ſayde prouinces, of Canterburie and Yorke, bee, and ſithen the making of the ſayde act haue bene diſturbed and denied of the hauing, receiuing, gathering of the ſayde pencions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, and proxies, with other profites belonging vnto them by diuerſe of the fermours and occupiers of great part and parcell of the ſayde manours, landes, tenementes and hereditamentes of the ſayde late monaſteries, and other eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, or being parcell of the poſſeſſions of them, and haue no direct meane to obtaine recouer or come to the ſame, not onely to their great hurt and damages, but alſo like to growe & be to the great loſſe and diſheriſon of the kinges maieſtie concerning his firſt fruites & tenth. For reformation whereof be it ordeined eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the kings highnes with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporal and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame that if anie perſon or perſons, being fermour or occupier of anie manors, lands, tenements, perſonages, benefices or other hereditaments, of anie of the ſaid late monaſteries or eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, belonging to them or anie of them by the kings highnes gift graunt ſale exchaunge or otherwiſe, out of which premiſſes anie ſuch portions pencions corrodies, indempnities ſinodies, or proxies, or anie other profites, haue bene heretofore lawfullie going out, anſwered or paide to anie of the archbiſhops biſhops archdeacons and other eccleſiaſticall perſons aboue ſaide, doe at anie time after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, wilfullie denie the paiment thereof, at the daies of paiment heretofore accuſtomed, of anie of the ſaide pencions, porcions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, proxies, or anie other profites, whereof the ſaide archbiſhops biſhops archdeacons or other eccleſiaſticall perſons were in poſſeſſion, at or within ten yeeres next before the time of the diſſolution of anie ſuch monaſteries, or other eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, that then it ſhall be lawfull for the ſame archbiſhops biſhops archdeacons or other eccleſiaſticall perſons aforeſaide, being ſo denied to be ſatiſfied and paied thereof, and hauing right to the ſame thing in demaunde, to make ſuch proces, as well againſt euerie ſuch perſon & perſons, as ſhall ſo deny paiment of the ſame pencions portions corrodies proxies indemnities ſinodies, or any other profites, which of right ought to be paied, as is aforeſaide, as againſt the church or churches, charged with the ſame, as heretofore they haue lawfullie done, and as by and according to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme they may nowe lawfullie doe for the true paiment and recouerie thereof. And if the partie defendant be lawfullie conuict in any ſuch ſuite cauſe or matter, according to the eccleaſiaſticall lawes: then the partie plaintife ſhall haue and recouer againſt the partie defendant the thing in demande, and the value thereof in damages, with his coſtes for his ſuite.

Cap.23.

WHere in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxvii. daie of Aprill, in the xxxi. yéere of the kings moſt gratious reigne that now is, & there continued till the xxviii. daie of Iune then next enſuing, it was enacted among other things by the kings maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in the ſaide parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame parliament, that the king, for the time being, with the aduiſe of his honorable councell, whoſe names be mentioned in the ſame act, or with the aduiſe of the more part of them, might ſet foorth at all times, by the authoritie of the ſame acte, his proclamations, vnder ſuch penalties and paines, and of ſuch ſort, as to his highnes and his ſaide honorable councell, or the more part of them, ſhould ſéeme neceſſary and requiſite: and that the ſame ſhould be obeyed, obſerued and kept, as though they were made by act of parliament, for the time in them limitted, vnleſſe the king diſpence with them or anie of them, vnder his great ſeale. And it was then further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée or condition ſo euer he or they be, which at anie time from thencefoorth, did wilfully offende and breake, or obſtinately not obſerue and kéepe anie ſuch proclamation, or anie article therein conteined, which ſhoulde procéede from the kings maieſtie by the aduiſe of his councell, as is aforeſaide: that then all and euery ſuch offender or offenders, being thereof within one halfe yéere next after their or his offence committed, accuſed, and thereof within xviii. monethes next after the ſame conuicted, by confeſſion or lawful witnes and proofes, before the archebiſhop of Canterburie Metropolitane, the Chauncellor of Englande, the lorde Treaſurer of England, the Preſident of the kinges moſt honourable councell, the lorde priuie ſeale, the great Chamberlaine of Englande, the Lorde Admirall, the lorde Stewarde or graund maiſter, the lorde Chamberlaine of the kinges moſt honorable houſeholde, two other biſhops, being of the kinges

Sithens the making of which ſaide act, the kinges highnes, with the aduiſe of his ſaide counſaile and according to the tenor and purport of the ſame act, hath for the wealth, profite & commoditie of this his realme, cauſed diuers good and godly proclamations to be made, which diuers euil diſpoſed perſons haue wilfully and obſtinately broken and not obſerued or kept, and thereupon diuers and ſundry informations haue béene giuen and had for the king againſt the ſame offenders, before the ſaid honorable councell mentioned in the ſaide act, according to the tenor and effect of the ſame act, and the ſame informations, after iſſue ioyned, and witneſſes publiſhed, haue taken no effect, ende or perfect determination, within the time limitted by the ſame acte, for and in default that there hath not béene preſent ſo many of the kings ſaide moſt honourable councell, as be limitted and appointed by the ſame act, and ſo thereby offenders haue béene and be like hereafter to be vnpuniſhed, to the great encouraging of all ſuch like offenders. An act concerning the eſtabliſhment of the kinges maieſties ſucceſſion in the imperiall crowne of this realme.

The firſt chapter.

Where in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the viii. daie of Iune, in the xxviii yeare of the reigne of our moſte dread ſouereigne lord king Henry the viii. an act was had and made for the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the imperiall crown of this realme of England by which act amongſt diuers other things, it was enacted, that the imperiall crowne of this realm, with all dignities, honors, preeminences, prerogatiues, auctorities, & iuriſdictions to the ſame annexed, or belonging, ſhould be to the kings maieſty and his heires of his bodie lawfully begotten: that is to ſaie, to the firſt ſonne of his body betweene his highneſſe and his then lawfull wife queene Iane now deceaſed begotten, and to the heires of the bodie of the ſame firſt ſonne lawfullie begotten. And for default of ſuch heires, then to the ſecond ſonne of his highneſſe bodie, and of the bodie of the ſaid queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the bodie of ẏ ſame ſecond ſon begotten, with diuers other limitations of ẏ eſtates, conueiance, and remaindors of the ſaid imperiall crowne, and other the premiſes. And it was alſo enacted further by the ſaid ſtatute, that for lacke of iſſue of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kinges bodie lawfullie begotten. That then his highneſſe ſhould and might giue, will, limit, aſſigne, appoint, or diſpoſe the ſaide imperiall crowne, and other the premiſſes, to what perſon or perſons, and giue the ſame perſon or perſons ſuch eſtate in the ſame, as it ſhould pleaſe his maieſtie: by his gratious letters patents vnder the great ſeale, or by his laſt will in writing, ſigned with his moſt gratious hand, as by the ſame act amongſt diuers other things therein contained more at large it doth appeare. Sithen the making of which act the kinges maieſtie hath onelie iſſue of his bodie lawfullie begotten betwixt his highneſſe and his ſaid late wife queene Iane, the noble and excellent prince, prince Edward, whom almightie God long preſerue. And alſo his maieſtie hath now of late ſithen the death of the ſaid queene Iane, take to his wife the moſte vertuous and gratious ladie Katherine, nowe queene of England, late wife of Iohn Neuill, knight, lord Latimer deceaſed, by whom as yet his maieſtie hath none iſſue, but may haue full well, when it ſhall pleaſe God. And Foraſmuch as our ſaid moſt dread ſouereigne lord the king, vpon good & iuſt grounds & cauſes, intendeth by Gods grace, to make a voyage royall in his moſt royall perſon, into the realme of France againſt his antient enemie the French king: his highneſſe moſt prudently and wiſely conſidering and calling to his remembrance, how this realme ſtandeth at this preſent time in the caſe of ſucceſſion, and paiſing and waying further with himſelfe, the great truſt and confidence that his louing ſubiects haue had, and haue in him, putting in his hands whollie the order and declaration of the ſucceſſion of this realm: Recogniſing and knowledging alſo, that it is in ẏ onelie pleaſure and will of almightie God, how long his highneſſe or his ſaid intirely beloued ſon prince Edward ſhall liue, and whether the ſaid prince ſhall haue heires of his body lawfullie begotten or not, or whether his highneſſe ſhall haue heires begotten and procreated betweene his maieſtie and his ſaid moſt deare and intirelie beloued wife queene Katherine that nowe is, or any lawfull heires & iſſues hereafter of his own body begotten by any other his lawfull wife. And albeit that the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, for default of ſuch heires as be inheritable by the ſaid act, might by the auctoritie of the ſaid act giue and diſpoſe the ſaid imperiall crown, and other the premiſſes, by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, or by his laſt will in writing ſigned with his moſte gratious hand, to any perſon or perſons, of ſuch eſtate therein, as ſhould pleaſe his highneſſe to limit and appoint: yet to the intent that his maieſties diſpoſition and mind therein ſhould be openly declared and manifeſtly known, and notified aſwell to the lords ſpirituall and temporall, as to all other his louing and obedient ſubiects of this his realme, to the intent that their aſſent and conſent might appeare to concurre with thus farre as followeth of his maieſties declaration in this behalfe: His maieſtie therefore thinketh conuenient, afore his departure beyond the ſeas, that it be enacted by his highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, and therefore be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, ẏ in caſe it ſhall happen the kinges maieſtie, & the ſaid excellent prince his yet onely ſonne prince Edward & heire apparant, to deceaſe without heire of either of their bodies lawfully begotten (as God defend) ſo that there be no ſuch heire male or female of any of their two bodies, to haue and inherit the ſaid imperiall crowne and other his dominions, according & in ſuch maner and forme as in the foreſaid act, and now in this is declared: That then the ſaid imperiall crowne, and all other the premiſſes,ſhalbe to the ladie Marie, the kings highneſſe daughter, and to the heires of the bodie of the ſame ladie Mary lawfullie begotten, with ſuch conditions, as by his highneſſe ſhalbe limitted by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, or by his maieſties laſt will in writing ſigned with his gratious hand,And for default of ſuch iſſue, yͤ ſaid imperial crown and other the premiſſes,ſhalbe to the ladie Elizabeth, yͤ kings ſecond daughter, and to the heires of the bodie of the ſaid ladie Elizabeth lawfullie begotten, with ſuch conditions, as by his highneſſe ſhalbe limited by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, or by his maieſties laſt will in writing, ſigned with his gratious hand,anie thing in the ſaid act made in the ſaid xxviii. yeare of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord,to the contrarie of this act,notwithſtanding.

Conditiõ.

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſaid ladie Marie do not kéepe and performe ſuch conditions, which the kinges maieſtie ſhall hereafter by his graces letters patents, ſealed vnder his great ſeale, or by his maieſties laſt will in writing, ſigned with his highneſſe hand,declare and limit to her ſaid eſtate,in the ſaid imperiall crowne, and other the premiſſes: That then and from thenſeforth,for lacke of heires of the ſeuerall bodies of the kinges maieſtie and the ſaid prince Edward lawfullie begotten,the ſaid imperiall crowne, and other the premiſſes,ſhall be and come to the ſaid ladie Elizabeth, and to the heires of her bodie lawfullie begotten, in ſuch like maner and forme,as though yͤ ſaid ladie Mary were then dead without any heire of her bodie begotten,anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſaid ladie Marie do kéepe and performe ſuche conditions, which the kinges maieſtie ſhall hereafter by his graces letters patentes,ſealed vnder his great ſeale, or by his maieſties laſt will in writing, ſigned with his highneſſe hand, declare and limit to her ſaide eſtate, as is aforeſaid.And that the ſaid ladie Elizabeth, for her part,do not kéepe and performe ſuch conditions,which yͤ kings maieſtie ſhall hereafter by his graces letters patents, ſealed vnder his great ſeale, or by his highneſſe laſt will in writing, ſigned with his moſt gratious hand,declare ⁊ limit to her ſaid eſtate in form aforeſaid:that then ⁊ from thenſeforth, for lacke of heires of the ſeuerall bodies of the kinges maieſtie, the ſaide lorde prince,and of the ſaid ladie Mary lawfullie begotten, the ſaid imperiall crowne and other the premiſſes, ſhalbe and come to ſuch perſon and perſons, and of ſuch eſtate and eſtates, as the kinges highneſſe by his letters patents, ſealed vnder his great ſeale,or by his laſt will in writing,ſigned with his maieſties hand,ſhall limit and appoint.

Prouided alwaie that if the ſaid ladie Marie do not kéep and performe ſuch conditions,which ſhalbe limited and appointed to her ſaid eſtate in the ſaid imperiall crowne, and other the premiſſes,as is aforeſaid: and the ſaid ladie Elizabeth being then dead without anie heire of her bodie lawfullie begotten: That then and from thenſeforth, for lacke of heires of the ſeuerall bodies of the kings maieſtie, and the ſaid lord prince, lawfullie begotten, the ſaide imperiall crowne,and other the premiſſes,ſhalbe,come,and remaine,to ſuch perſon and perſons,of ſuch eſtate and eſtates, as the kings highneſſe by his letters patents, ſealed vnder his great ſeale, or by his laſt will in writing, ſigned with his maieſties hand,ſhall limit and appoint.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe the kinges maieſtie do not declare and limit by his letters patents, or by his laſt will, in forme as is aforeſaid, anie condition to the eſtates and intereſts afore limited to the ſaide ladie Marie and ladie Elizabeth, nor to the ſtate or intereſt of anie of them: That then euerie ſuch of the ſaid ladie Marie and ladie Elizabeth,to whoſe eſtate or intereſt no condition ſhalbe limited by the kinges maieſtie in forme aforeſaid, ſhall haue and inioy ſuch intereſt eſtate and remainder in the ſaid imperiall crowne, and other the premiſſes,as is before limited by this act,without maner of condition:Any thing in this preſent act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Remainder.

And forasmuch as it ſtandeth in the onely pleaſure and will of almightie God, whether the kings maieſtie ſhall haue any heires begotten and procreated betwéene his highneſſe,⁊ his ſaide moſt entirely beloued wife quéene Katherin,or by any other his lawfull wife,or whether the ſaid prince Edward ſhall haue iſſue of his bodie lawfully begotten,or whether the ladie Mary, ⁊ ladie Elizabeth,or any of them,ſhall haue anie iſſue of anie their ſeueral bodies lawfullie begotten,⁊ if ſuch heires ſhould faile (which God defend) and no prouiſion made in the kinges life,who ſhould rule and gouerne this realme, for lacke of ſuch heries, as in this preſent act is afore mencioned: That then this realme, after the kings tranſitorie life,and for lacke of ſuch heires,ſhould be deſtitute of a lawfull gouernor,to order,rule and gouerne the ſame. Be it therefore enacted by the auctoritie of this peſent parliament,that the kings highneſſe ſhall haue full power and auctoritie,to giue,diſpoſe,appoint,aſſigne,declare ⁊ limit by his gratious letters patents vnder his great ſeale or els by his highneſſe laſt wil made in writing,⁊ ſigned with his moſt gratious hand,at his onely pleaſure from time to time hereafter, yͤ imperial crown of this realme,⁊ all other the premiſſes, to be, remaine, ſuccéede, and come after his deceaſe, ⁊ for lacke of lawfull heires of either of the bodies of the kings highneſſe ⁊ prince Edward begotten,⁊ alſo for the lack of lawfull heires of the bodies of the ſaid lady Mary,⁊ lady Elizabeth to be procreated and begotten, as is afore limited in this act,to ſuch perſon or perſons in remaindor or reuerſion,as ſhal pleaſe his highneſſe ⁊ according to ſuch eſtate,⁊ after ſuch maner ⁊ forme faſhion order or condition, as ſhalbe expreſed declared named and limited in his highneſſe letters patents,or by his laſt will in writing ſigned with his moſt gracious hand, as is aforeſaid: Any thing conteined in this preſent act, or in the ſaide former act to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And for further corroboration of this preſent act, and of the ſaid act made in the ſaid xxviii. yeare of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, & alſo vtterlie to exclude the long vſurped power auctoritie & iuriſdiction of the biſhops of Rome, where in the ſaid act made for the eſtabliſhment of the kings ſucceſſion, at the ſaid parliament holden at Weſtminſter the eight daie of June, in the eight and twentie yeare of the kings maieſties reigne, there is one oth limited in the ſaid act, as in the ſaid act amongſt other things appeareth. And where alſo at the ſaid parliament, there was an other ſtatute made and ordained againſt ſuch as would both extoll and ſtand to the iuriſdiction power and auctoritie of the ſée and biſhop of Rome, in which ſtatute there is compriſed an other oth in ſuch wiſe, as in the ſame ſtatute amongſt other things is mencioned. Foraſmuch as in both the ſaid othes, mencioned in the ſaid ſeuerall acts, there lacketh full and ſufficient wordes, whereby ſome doubtes might ariſe: Therefore be it enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that from and after the laſt daie of this ſeſſion, all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which be ordered and limited by the ſaid ſeuerall acts, to take the ſaid othes mencioned in the ſame acts, ſhall from thenſeforth, in lieu and place of thoſe two othes, take and ſweare this corporall oth, according to the tenor enſuing. And that they, which haue already ſworne the other foreſaid othes or anie of them, ſhall take and eſtéeme it of the ſame effect & force, as though they had ſworne this. Which former othes notwithſtanding, becauſe they be not ſo pithie to all effects, nor ſo plainly ſet forth, as were conuenient. Therefore be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that after this preſent ſeſſion, the ſaid othes, ſpecified in the ſaid ſeuerall acts, ſhall not hereafter be miniſtred, nor any perſon hereafter be compelled to accept the ſame, and this oth hereafter mencioned this act, to ſtand in force and place of the ſaid two othes.

Oth. I A.B. hauing now the vaile of darkeneſſe of the vſurped power, auctoritie and iuriſdiction of the ſée and biſhops of Rome clearelie taken awaie from mine eyes, do vtterlie teſtifie and declare in my conſcience, that neither the ſée nor the biſhop of Rome, nor anie forren poteſtate, hath nor ought to haue anie iuriſdiction power or auctoritie within this realme, neither by gods law, nor by anie other iuſt lawe or meanes. And though by ſufferance and abuſions in times paſſed, they aforeſaid haue vſurped, and vendicated a fained and an vnlawfull power & iuriſdiction within this realme, which hath bene ſupported till few yeares paſſed, therefore becauſe it might be déemed and thought thereby, that I tooke or take it for iuſt and good, I therefore now do clearely and frankely renounce, refuſe, relinquiſh and forſake that pretended auctoritie, power and iuriſdiction, both of the ſée and biſhop of Rome, and of all other forren powers: And that I ſhall neuer conſent, nor agrée, that the foreſaid ſée or biſhop of Rome, or anie of their ſucceſſors, ſhall practiſe, exerciſe, or haue anie maner of auctoritie, iuriſdiction, or power, within this realme, or any other the kings realmes or dominions, nor any forren poteſtate, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſo euer he be, but that I ſhall reſiſt the ſame at all times, to the vttermoſt of my power: And that I ſhall beare faith truth and true allegiance to the kinges maieſtie, and to his heires and ſucceſſors declared or hereafter to be declared by auctoritie of the act made in the ſeſſion of the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xiiii. day of Januarie, in the xxxv. yeare & in the ſaid act made in the xxviii. yeare of the kings maieſties reigne: And that I ſhall accept, repute, and take the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, when they or anie of them ſhall inioy his place, to be the onelie ſupreme head in earth vnder God of the church of England and Ireland, and of all other his highneſſes dominions: And that with my bodie cunning, witte, and vttermoſt of my power, without guile, fraud, or other vndue meane, I ſhall obſerue, kéepe, maintaine, and defend all the kinges maieſties ſtiles, titles, and rights, with the whole effects and contents of the acts prouided for the ſame, and all other acts and ſtatutes made or to be made within this realme, in and for that purpoſe, and the derogation, extirpation, and extinguiſhment of the vſurped and pretended auctoritie, power, and iuriſdiction of the ſée and biſhop of Rome, and all other forren poteſtates, as afore: And alſo aſwell the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid eight and twentie yeare, as the ſtatute made in the ſaid ſeſſion of the parliament, holden the xxxv. yeare of the kings maieſties reigne, for eſtabliſhment and declaration of his highneſſe ſucceſſion, and all acts and ſtatutes made and to be made in confirmation and corrobation of the kings maieſties power, and ſupremacie in earth of the church of England, and of Ireland, and other his graces dominions, I ſhall alſo defend and maintaine with my bodie and goods, and with all my wit and power, and this I ſhall do againſt all maner of perſons, of what eſtate dignitie, degrée, or condition they be, and in no wiſe do nor attempt, nor to my power ſuffer, or know to be done or attempted, directlie or indirectlie, anie thing or things priuilie or apertlie to the let, hinderance, damage, or derogation of anie of the ſaid ſtatutes, or of anie part of them, by anie maner of meanes, or for or by any maner of pretence. And in caſe any oth hath bene made by me to any perſon or perſons, in maintenance, defence, or fauour of the ſée and biſhop of Rome, or his auctoritie, iuriſdiction, or power, or againſt any the ſtatutes aforeſaid, I repute the ſame as vaine and adnihilate, and ſhall whollie and truely obſerue and kéepe this oth, ſo helpe me God, all ſaints, and the holy Euangeliſts.

Liuerie. Ouſterle-maine. And it is alſo enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons, ſpirituall and temporall, ſuing liuery reſtitution or ouſtre le mayne, out of the kinges his heires or ſucceſſors hands, or doing any fealtie to his highneſſe his heires or ſucceſſors, or which ſhalbe ſworne to the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, or that ſhall haue anie office, fee, or rowme of the moſt gratious gift of the kinges maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, or ſhalbe receiued in ſeruice with his grace, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall make take or receiue the ſaid oth. And that alſo all and euerie other eccleſiaſticall perſon, at the time of his taking of orders, And all and euerie other perſon, which ſhal be promoted or preferred to any degree of learning, in any vniuerſitie within this his realme or other the kings dominions, at the time of his or their promotion or preferment, or euerie of them, ſhall make, take, and receiue the ſaid oth, by this act ſet forth and declared, as is aforeſaid, before his or their ordinarie, or the commiſſarie of ſuch vniuerſitie. And that all and ſinguler other the kinges maieſties ſubiectes and reſiantes within this his graces realme, and others his maieſties dominions, at his highneſſes will and pleaſure ſhall accept and take the ſame othe, before ſuch commiſſioner or commiſſioners, as his highneſſe ſhall appoint for the ſame. Oth.

And it is alſo enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, limited or commanded by the auctoritie of this act, to make and take the ſaid oth, or commanded by anie other perſon or perſons, auctoriſed by the kinges highneſſe commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, to make the ſaid oth, obſtinatlie refuſe that to do: that then euery ſuch offence and contempt ſhall be high treaſon, and the offendors thereof, being lawfullie conuicted, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and other forfeitures, penalties, and loſſes, as is limited and accuſtomed in caſes of high treaſon, by any lawes or ſtatutes of this realme, heretofore had or made in any wiſe concerning the ſame. Refuſe. Treaſon.

And be it further enacted by auctority aforeſaide, that if any perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, dignitie, or condicion ſo euer they be, at any time hereafter, by wordes, writing, imprinting, or by anie exterior act or deede, malicioullie or willinglie procure or do, or cauſe to be procured or done directly or indirectlie, any thing or things: to or for the interruption repell or adnullation of this act, or of any thing therein conteined, or of any thing that ſhalbe done by the kings highneſſe, in the limitation and diſpoſition of his maieſties crowne, & other the premiſſes, by auctoritie of the ſame: or to the perill ſlander or diſinheriſon of anie the iſſues and heires of yͤ kings maieſtie, being limited by this act, to inherit and to be inheritable to the crowne of this realme, in ſuch form as is aforeſaid, or to yͤ interruption or diſinheriſon of any perſon or perſons, to whom the imperiall crowne of this realme, and other the premiſſes, is aſſigned limited and appointed by this act, or ſhalbe by the kings maieſties letters patents vnder his highneſſe great ſeale, or by his laſt will in writing, ſigned with his moſte gratious hand limited and diſpoſed by the auctoritie of this act, as is aforeſaid, wherby any ſuch iſſues or heires of the kings maieſtie, or ſuch other perſon or perſons, might be deſtroied diſturbed or interrupted, in body or title of yͤ inheritance of yͤ crown of this realme, as to them is limited in this act in forme aboue rehearſed, or as to them ſhall be limited and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, by vertue and auctoritie of this act: yͤ then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, of what eſtate degree or condition ſo euer he or they be, and their aidors counſellors maintainors & abbettors and euery of them, for euery ſuch offence afore declared, ſhalbe adiudged high traitors, and that euerie ſuch offence afore ſpecified, ſhalbe adiudged high treaſon, and the offendors therin, their aidors counſellors maintainors and abbettors, and euery of them, being lawfullie conuict of any ſuch offence, after the lawes and cuſtomes of this realme, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſſes and forfeitures, as in caſes of high treaſon. Sauing alway to euerie perſon and perſons and bodies politike, to their heires aſſignes & ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, other than ſuch perſons, as ſhalbe ſo conuict or attained, & their heires and ſucceſſors, and all other claiming to their vſes, all ſuch right title vſe intereſt poſſeſſion condition rents fees offices annuities and commons, which they or anie of them ſhall haue, in or vpon any ſuch manors lands tenements rents annuities or hereditaments, that ſhall ſo happen to be loſt and forfeit, by reaſon of anie conuiction or attaindor for any the treaſons and offences aboue rehearſed, at any time before the ſaid treaſons and offences committed. It may therefore be enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons of this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that if any perſon or perſons or bodies politike, being owners or poſſeſſioners of any ſuch deſolat or voyd grounds, that at any time within fiue and fortie yeares next before the making of this act, haue bene builded for houſes of habitation, or for any houſe or houſes of habitation now or hereafter being in decay and not fullie fallen downe, within the liberties and precincts of anie of the ſaid boroughs townes and places, do not ſufficientlie reedifie build and repaire, or cauſe to be reedified builded and repaired the ſaid deſolate void grounds and decaied houſes, conuenient for habitation and dwelling, within two yeares next after proclamation to be made in or vpon the ſame voyd ground or grounds, decaied houſe or houſes, by the maiors, aldermen bailifes and burgeſſes or other head officers, within the precinct of their owne auctorities: that then it ſhalbe lawfull for the chiefe lord or lords immediat, of whome ſuch deſolat and void grounds, decaied and ruinous houſes be holden, after the ſaid two yeares be expired, to enter into the ſame, and to haue the ſame grounds or houſes with the curtilage, backeſide, gardeine, and orchard adioyning to the ſame, if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decaied houſe or ground, and exceed not one acre of ground, to them and to their heires or ſucceſſors, or to their owne proper vſe for euer: ſo that the ſaid lord or lordes immediat, entring by the auctoritie of this act, do ſufficientlie reedifie, build or repaire the ſame voyd ground or decaied houſes, within two years and a halfe next & immediatly following the determination of the foreſaid firſt two yeares. An act concerning the qualification of the ſtatute of the ſix articles.

Chap. 5.

Where by the good and godlie act and ſtatute, concerning the ſix articles, made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxviii. day of Aprill, in the xxxi. yeare of the kings maieſties moſt noble reigne, it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed amongſt other things, that for certaine kindes of hereſies and other offences, expreſſed in the ſame ſtatute, the offendors therein being of them conuicted, ſhould ſuffer paines of death, or other ſuch paines as for euerie of the offences in the ſame ſtatute expreſſed, is in the ſame ſpeciallie and ſeuerallie mencioned: And where alſo by force of the ſame ſtatute diuers ſecret and vntrue accuſations and preſentments may be maliciouſlie conſpired againſt the kings ſubiectes, and kept ſecret vnreueled, that ſuch as be accuſed ſhould not haue knowledge thereof to come to their declaration, vntill a time may be eſpied to haue them thereof by malice conuicted, to the great perill and danger of the kinges maieſties ſubiects, if the ſame ſtatute ſhould not in ſome part thereof be tempered qualified or reformed. And to the intent that all preſentments and inditements of ſuch offences as be conteined in the ſaid ſtatute, concerning the ſaid ſix articles, whereunto anie perſon ſhalbe put to anſwere, ſhould be taken in open and manifeſt courtes by the othes of xii. indifferent perſons, according to good equitie and conſcience, and as other preſentmentes haue bene vſed to be taken within this realme in ſuch waightie cauſes, according to the lawdable cuſtome and vſage of the ſame. And that alſo the inquiries and trials of and vpon the ſaid preſentmentes and inditementes may iuſtly and charitablie proceed without corruption or malice accordingly. Be it therefore enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that no perſon or perſons from henſeforth ſhall be arrained or put to his or their triall, of for or vpon any accuſation information or preſentment concerning any of the offences compriſed within the ſaid former act, but onely vpon ſuch preſentments and inditements as be or ſhalbe found and made by the othes of xii. men or mo, afore ſuche commiſſioners as be or ſhalbe ſpeciallie auctorized to inquire of the offences conteined in the ſaid former ſtatute by the kings maieſties commiſſion, or three of them at the leaſt ſitting in their ſeſſions, or before the iuſtices of the peace ſitting in their ſeſſions, or three of them at the leaſt, or before the iuſtices of Oier & terminer, or three of them at the leaſt: And that the preſentmentes or inditements hereafter to be made, be taken within one yeare next after the ſaid offences therein conteined, be or ſhalbe committed or done: And that all accuſations concerning any of yͤ offences aforeſaid, made or to be made in any other forme then as is afore mencioned in this preſent act, ſhalbe void in the law to any other reſpect or purpoſe, but onely as an euidence to be giuen and declared to the inqueſts of inquirie and deliuerie before the ſaid iuſtices, as is aforeſaid. And that no perſon accuſed of or vpon any of the offences ſpecified in the ſaid former act, ſhalbe attached arreſted or committed to ward for the ſame, or any of them, before he be thereof indited, as is aforeſaid, vnleſſe it be by vertue and auctority of one ſufficient and lawfull warrant or precept from one of the kings maieſties honorable counſell, or from two of the iuſtices or commiſſioners aforeſaid, whereof one of them to be a lay perſon, any thing conteined in the ſaide former ſtatute notwithſtanding.

And be it alſo enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament that no perſon or perſons ſhall be from henſeforth accuſed indited committed to priſon moleſted or put to anſwere, to for or vpon any accuſation preſentment or inditement hereafter to be made or found by vertue of the ſaide former ſtatute, concerning the ſaide ſix articles, vnleſſe he or they be thereof accuſed or indited within one yeare next after his or their ſaid offence or offences ſuppoſed to be committed or done, anie thing in the ſaid former act or in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that if anie perſon or perſons ſhall at anie time hereafter heare anie preacher or reader, being auctoriſed to preach or reade, ſpeake or declare anie word or wordes ſuppoſed to be contrarie to anie of the ſaide articles conteined in the ſaid former ſtatute, in his or their ſermon or reading at any place and time accuſtomed for preaching or reading, and doe not thereof accuſe the ſaide preacher or reader before one of the ſaide iuſtices within fortie daies next after his ſaide words ſo ſpoken, or els that the ſaide preacher or reader be thereof indited within the ſaide time of fortie daies, after his or their ſaide preaching or reading: then the ſaide preachers or readers and euerie of them ſhall be of euerie ſuch accuſation and offence clearely acquited and diſcharged. Except the ſame accuſer or accuſers, do ſhew aledge and proue by two ſufficient witneſſe before the ſaide iuſtices or two of them, ſufficient cauſe why he or they dyd not make the ſaide accuſations within the ſayde time of fortie daies as is afore limitted.

Prouided alſo that this act or anie thing therein conteined ſhall not extende to anie inditement or preſentment heretofore made by the othes of twelue men or mo, of anie of yͤ ſaid offences conteined or expreſſed in the ſayde former act, concerning the ſayde ſixe articles, but that the ſame inditementes or preſentmentes, ſo made, ſhall ſtande and abide in their full ſtrength and effect, as if this act had neuer bee had or made, anie thing in this act to the contrarie not withſtanding.

Impriſonment.

And to the intent that as well the inquiries of the preſentmentes & inditementes aforeſayde, as the trials of and vpon the ſame, ſhall proceede iuſtlie and indifferentlie: Be it therefore enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaide iuſtices, before whom the ſaid inquiries preſentmentes or inditmentes ſhall be taken, ſhall from henceforth haue power and auctoritie to alter and reforme all panelles of inquiry, returned before them by the ſhirife or other officers appointed for the ſame, in like maner as iuſtices of the peace may doe in their ſeſſions vpon anie other inquiries. And that alſo the partie accuſed, preſented, or indited, as is aforeſaide, vpon his arraignement or triall thereof, ſhall and may haue all maner of chalenges, (paremptorie chalenge onelie except) as other perſons arrained for felonie ſhall or may haue by the lawes of this realme, anie clauſe or article in the ſayde former act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that then the parties being condemned of anie of the offences conteined or mencioned in the ſayde former act of ſixe articles, ſhall ſuffer all ſuch impriſonmentes loſſes and paines of death, as they ſhoulde or ought to haue done before the making of this preſent act.

And be it alſo further enacted by auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaide former act concerning the ſaide ſixe articles, and euerie other act touching the ſame, and all articles clauſes and ſentences in them or anie of them mentioned expreſſed or contained, nowe being in his or their force and effect, other then ſuch as by this preſent acte bee altered qualified or reformed, ſhall ſtande and abide in all his or their full ſtrength effect and vertue, anie thing in this preſent act not withſtanding.

Iudgement.

Prouided furthermore and be it enacted by the auctoritie afore ſaide, that if anie perſon or perſons, being arrained or put to his or their triall, vpon anie the offences contained in the ſaide former act concerning the ſixe articles, ſtand mute, or will not directly aunſwere to the ſame offences, whereof he or they be indicted as is aforeſaide: that then euerie ſuch perſon & perſons, ſo ſtanding mute, or refuſing directly to anſwere to the ſame inditement, for his or their contumacie ſhal haue iudgement to ſuffer like paines of death loſſes forfaitures and impriſonment, as if the ſame perſon or perſons ſo indited, had bene thereof found guiltie by verdit of twelue men, anie thing in the ſaide former act, or in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the appearance of iurours in the Niſi prius.

Chap.6.

Venire facias.

FOr as much as the iſſues ioyned in euerie action ſuite and demaunde betweene partie and partie at the common lawe, are by the lawes of this realme, for the moſt part tried and triable by the verdite of twelue men wherein is dailie ſeene great delaie, partlie for lacke of apparaunce of the perſons returned to trie ſuch iſſues. The occaſion whereof commeth by reaſon of maintenaunce, imbracerie, ſiniſter labour and corrupt demeanours, and partly by reaſon of the chalenges of the parties, to the iurie or iurours ſo returned, to the great coſtes charges and hinderaunce of the parties to the ſayde actions ſuites and demaundes, and to the great delaie and hinderaunce of iuſtice. For reformation whereof, and for the more expedition of iuſtice hereafter to be had in ſuch maner tryall of iſſues: Be it enacted by the auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that in euerie caſe, where ſuch perſons, as ſhoulde paſſe vpon the triall of anie iſſue ioyned in anie of the kinges courtes of recorde, commonlie holden at Weſtminſter, ought by the lawe to diſpende fortie ſhillinges by the yeere, of free holde for terme of life: that the writs of Venire facias, which from and after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, ſhall be awarded and directed for the impaneling of ſuch perſons as ſhall trie the ſame iſſue, ſhall be in this forme. Rex, &c. Precipimus &c. quod venire fac. coram, &c. xii. liberos & legales homines deuiſn. de B. quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta ſolidarum terræ tenement, vel reddit. per annum ad minus, per quos rei veritas melius ſciri poterit. Et qui nec. &c. And ſo forth the reſidue of the ſaide writ after the ancient forme. And in euerie caſe, where it is not requiſite, that the perſons that ſhall paſſe vpon the triall of anie iſſue ioyned in anie of the kinges courtes aforeſaide, ſhall diſpende xl.s. by the yeere of free holde: that then the writs of Venire facias, that ſhall be awarded after the ſaide firſt daie of Aprill, ſhall be made after the forme aforeſaide: omitting this clauſe, Quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta ſolidarum terræ ten. vel reddit. per annum ad minus. And that vpon euerie ſuch writ and writtes of Venire facias, that ſhall haue the ſayde clauſe, Quorum quilibet, &c. the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, to whom the making of the panell ſhall appertaine, ſhall not retourne in anie ſuch panell anie perſon, vnleſſe he may diſpende fortie ſhillinges by yeere at the leaſt, of eſtate of free holde out of auncient demene within the countie, where the iſſue is to be tried. And alſo ſhall returne in euerie ſuch panell vpon the ſame Venire facias, ſixe ſufficient hundredours at the leaſt, if there be ſo many hundredours within the ſaide hundred where the Venewe lieth, vpon paine to forfatte for euerie perſon, being returned in any ſuch panell, that can not diſpende xl.s. by the yere, as is aforeſaide xx.s. And for euery hundredour, that ſhall be omitted in ſuch retourne of the number aforeſaide xx.s. And in euery writ of Venire facias, wherein the ſayde clauſe, Quorum quilibet, &c. ſhalbe omitted, the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, to whom the making of the panell ſhall appertaine, ſhall not returne in ſuch panell any perſon, vnleſſe he may diſpend ſome lands or tenements of eſtate of free hold out of auncient demene, within the countie where the iſſue is to be tried. And alſo ſhall returne in euery ſuch panell vpon the ſame Venire facias, ſixe ſufficient hundredours at the leaſt, if there be ſo many hundredours within the ſaid hundred where the Venewe lieth, vpon like paine as is aforeſaide.

Shirife.

Iſſues.

And furthermore be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that vpon euerie firſt writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas with a Niſi prius, deliuered of recorde to the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, to whom the making of the retourne ſhall appertaine, the ſaide ſhirife or other miniſter and miniſters ſhall from and after the ſayde firſt day of Aprill, retourne in iſſues vpon euerie perſon impanelled and retourned, vpon anie ſuch writ, at the leaſt v.s. And at the ſeconde writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, vpon euerie perſon impanelled and retourned, vpon anie ſuch writ x.s. at the leaſt. And at the thirde writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, that ſhall be further awarded vpon euerie perſon impanelled and retourned vpon anie ſuch writ therteene ſhillinges foure pence. And vpon euerie writ that ſhall be further awarded to trie any ſuch iſſue, to double the iſſues laſt afore ſpecified, vntill a full iurie be ſworne, or the proces otherwiſe ceſſed or determined, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie retourne to be made contrary to the forme aforeſaid v. poundes.

Tales.

And for a more ſpedie triall of iſſues to bee tried by the verdit of twelue men hereafter to bee had. Be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that in euerie ſuch writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, where a full iurie ſhall not appeare before the iuſtices of aſſiſes or Niſi prius, or els after appearance of a full iurie, by chalenge of any of the parties, the iurie is like to remaine vntaken for default of iurours: that then the ſame iuſtices vpon requeſt made by the partie plaintife or demandant, ſhall haue auctoritie by vertue of this act to commaunde the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, to whom the making of the ſaid returne ſhall appertaine, to name & appoint as often as need ſhall require ſo many of ſuch other able perſons of ẏ ſaid countie then preſent at the ſaid aſſiſes or Niſi prius, as ſhal make vp a ful iury, which perſons ſo to be named & impanelled by ſuch ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, ſhall bee added to the former panell, and their names annexed to ẏ ſame. And ẏ euery of the parties ſhall & may haue his or their chalenge to the iurors ſo named, added & annexed to the ſaide former panell by the ſaid ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, in ſuch wiſe as if they had bin impanelled vpon ẏ Venire facias, awarded to try the ſaid iſſue. And ẏ the ſaid iuſtices ſhal & may proceed to ẏ triall of euery ſuch iſſue with thoſe perſons that were before impanelled & returned, and with thoſe newly added & annexed to the ſaid former panel by vertue of this act, in ſuch wiſe as they might or ought to haue done, if all the ſaid iurors had bin returned vpon the writ of Venire facias, awarded to try the ſaid iſſue. And that all and euerie ſuch triall had after the ſaid firſt date of Aprill, ſhall be as good & effectual in the lawe, to all intents conſtructions and purpoſes, as if ſuch trial had bene had & tried by xii. of the iurors, impanelled and returned vpon the writ of Venire facias, awarded to trie ſuch iſſue. And in caſe ſuch perſons as the ſaid ſhirife miniſter or miniſters ſhall name and appoint, as is aforeſaide, or any of them, after they ſhall be called, be preſent and doe not appeare, or after his or their apparance, done wilfullie withdrawe him or them ſelues from the preſence of the court: that then ſuch iuſtices ſhall and may ſet ſuch fine vpon euery ſuch iuror, making default, or wilfully withdrawing him ſelfe as is aforeſaide, as they ſhall think good by their diſcretion, the ſaid fine to be leuied in ſuch maner and forme as iſſues forfaited and loſt by iurors for defaulte of their apparance at the common lawe, haue bene accuſtomed to be leuied.

Triall.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that where anie iurie, that ſhall be returned by the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, ſhall bee made full by the commandement of the ſaide iuſtices by vertue of this preſent act, that yet neuertheleſſe ſuch perſons as were returned in the ſaide panell by the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters to trie any ſuch iſſue that ſhall not appeare, but make defaulte, ſhall loſe the iſſues vpon them returned, in ſuch wiſe as though the ſame iurie had remained for defaulte of iurours.

Iuſtices.

Prouided alway and be it enacted, that vpon a reaſonable excuſe for the default of apparance of anie iurour or iurours ſufficientlie proued before the iuſtices of aſſiſe or Niſi prius, at the daie of their apparance by the othes of two lawfull and honeſt witneſſes, that the ſame iuſtices ſhall haue auctoritie by their diſcretions to diſcharge euerie ſuch iurour of euerie ſuch forfaiture of iſſues vpon him returned. And that the ſhirife and ſhirifes or other miniſter or miniſters, hauing commandement by the ſaide iuſtices to omit the returning of ſuch iſſues as is aforeſaide, vpon ſuch iurour or iurours, ſhall be therein diſcharged of the penalties aforeſaide, for the non returning of the ſaid iſſues, and that yet notwithſtanding the ſaid returne to be good and effectuall in the law, any lawe vſage or cuſtome to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Shirifes.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that if the ſaid iuſtices, afore whom anie ſuch iurie ſhoulde appeare in the countie, where ſuch iſſue is to be tried by vertue of a writ of Niſi prius, do not come at the daie and place appointed, but that the aſſiſe or Niſi prius for that time ſhall be diſcontinued for not comming of the ſaide iuſtices, or for anie other occaſion, other then by defaulte and lacke of iuroures: that then euerie one of the ſame iurours ſhall be diſcharged for forfaiting of anie iſſues vpon him returned in the ſame writ. And the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters ſhall bee likewiſe diſcharged of the penalties of this eſtatute for the non returning of ſuch iſſues, as are before limitted in this act, anie article or ſentence herein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And be it alſo further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that if vpon anie ſuch writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, iſſues be returned vpon any hundredours iurour or iurours by the ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters, to whom the execution of the ſame writ or writs ſhall appertaine, where as the ſame hundredours and iurours ſhall not be lawfully ſummoned warned or diſtrained in that behalfe: that then euerie ſuch ſhirife or other miniſter or miniſters aforeſaide, ſhall loſe for euerie ſuch offence ſo committed, double ſo much as the ſaide iſſues returned vpon ſuch hundredours or iurours not lawfully ſummoned warned or diſtrained, ſhall amount vnto: the moitie of all which forfaitures conteined in this preſent act other then the iſſues to be returned vpon the iurours as is aforeſaide, ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt bill plaint or information in anie of the kinges competent courtes, in which no wager of lawe eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed ne admitted. Sauing to all maner of perſons and bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, hauing lawfull right title and intereſt to haue ſuch iſſues, to be before any ſuch iuſtices of aſſiſe or Niſi prius, at any time or times hereafter loſt and forfaited, all ſuch right title and intereſt, as they or anie of them ſhoulde or might haue had to ſuch iſſues to be loſt and forfaited, as though this act had neuer bene had or made.

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extende to anie citie or towne corporate, or to anie ſhirife miniſter or miniſters in the ſame, for the returne of anie inqueſt or panell to be made and returned of perſons inhabiting in the ſaide cities or townes corporate, but that they, and euerie of them, ſhall and may returne ſuch perſons in euerie ſuch inqueſt or panell, as before this time they might and haue bene accuſtomed to doe, and as this act had neuer bene had or made: ſo that the ſame ſhirife miniſter or miniſters returne vpon ſuch perſons as ſhal be impanelled, like iſſues as are before mencioned in this act, anie thing in the ſame conteined to the contrarie not withſtanding. This act to endure to the ende of the next parliament. Townes corporate.

An act for the repealing of a certaine ſtatute concerning the bringing in of ſaltfiſh and ſtockfiſh.

Chap.7.

WHere in the parliament begunne and holden at London, the thirde daie of Nouember, in the twentie one yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lorde the kinges maieſtie that nowe is, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuerſe prorogations, vnto the diſſolution thereof amongſt other it was enacted by the auctoritie of the ſame that no maner of perſon or perſons, of what eſtate degree or condition he or they ſhoulde be, other then ſuch perſon or perſons as then were or hereafter ſhall be marchaunt venturers to Iſelande, for the taking of fiſh, or that be doggers otherwiſe called dogger men, or ſuch as nowe or hereafter ſhall be fiſher men, that actually labour for the taking of the ſame fiſh in the Eaſt ſea ſide or in the Eaſt ſea coſt, ſhould buy anie of the kindes of the ſaid fiſh at or vpon the ſtone, or at the ſaide Eaſt ſea ſide or Eaſt ſea coſtes, to ſell the ſame fiſh againe or anie part thereof at anie of the faire or faires called Sturbridge faire, ſaint Iues faire, or Ely faire. And that no maner of perſon or perſons, other then the ſaide marchaunt venturers doggers or fiſher men, ſhoulde from hence forth ſell anie ſaltfiſh, ſtockfiſh, ling, haberden, lobfiſh, or ſuch other kinde of ſaltfiſh, at or within anie of the ſaide faire or faires, whereof the kinde of the ſaide fiſh is vſuallie wonte to be laide vpon lande at the ſaide Eaſt ſea ſide. And alſo that no maner of perſon or perſons, being owner or owners of anie of the ſaide ſhip or ſhippes, nor yet anie maſter or maſters of the ſayde ſhippes, ſhoulde at anie time after the ſame, buie anie dole or doles of anie of the mariners of anie of the ſaide ſhip or ſhippes, called the mariners dole fiſh. And where it was alſo enacted ordeined and prouided by the ſame act, that no maner of perſon or perſons, ſhoulde from thence forth be reputed and taken to be a marchaunt venturer, to take aduauntage or benefite of the ſame act, except his aduenture in the ſayde ſhip or ſhips to Iſelande, ſhoulde admount to the ſumme of xx.li.without fraude or couine, as by the ſame act more plainelie doeth appeare. Since the making of which act the trade and aduenture to Iſland hath much decaied, not only becauſe the aduenture is ſo daungerous and chargeable to the marchant venturers, doggers called dogger men, and fiſher men, being nowe compelled to make this aduenture at their onelie charges, where before the making of the ſaide act a great number of perſons of thoſe parties and other places of this realme, did aduenture their marchandiſe and wares with them, ſome to the value of x.li. ſome v.li. ſome more or leſſe, as their habilitie did ſerue them, as they yet woulde doe, if the ſaide act were not to the contrarie? But alſo for that the ſaide marchantes doggers and fiſhermen at their comming home, after their long trauaile and charges, can haue no port ſale nor redy vtterance of their fiſh. And where in times paſt as well diuerſe marchantes of London and Couentre, as of other places within this realme, did repaire and come to the ſaide venturers immediatlie after their comming home, and for readie monie bought their fiſh at the ſaide coſt ſide, and caried the ſame fiſh to Ely faire, Sturbridege faire, ſaint Iues faire, and other faires and markets for the vniuerſall prouiſion of this realme: Nowe the ſaide venturers doggers and fiſhermen be driuen to trauaile and ſeeke to the ſame markets and faires, for the ſelling of their fiſh, and in the meane time to make ſhiftes for the paieng the wages & charges of their mariners and ſeruantes, and abide a great time before they can haue anie returne, to their aduantage of their aduenture, to their great werineſſe: and like hereafter to be the vtter decay of the Iſlande fleete, if remedie therefore be not the ſoner prouided.

Repeale.

Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that the ſaide act be repealed, and all and euerie thing therein conteined ſhall from henceforth be fruſtrate voide and of none effect, anie thing therein conteined, or anie other act or acts heretofore made to the contrarie in any wiſe not withſtanding.

An act concerning Coupers.

Chap.8.

IN moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your excellent highneſſe, your faithfull ſubiectes the coupers of your citie of London, that where in the parliament holden at London, the thirde daie of Nouember, in the twentie one yeere of your moſt gratious reigne, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter and there by diuerſe prorogations continued, vntill the fifteene daie of Ianuarie, in the twentie three yeere of your ſaide noble reigne: it was in the ſaide twentie three yeere amongſt other thinges eſtabliſhed and enacted, that euerie artificer of the craft or myſterie of coupers, that will exerciſe or practiſe to make anie veſſels for bere or ale to be put to ſale, ſhoulde make the ſame veſſels and euerie of them, of good and ſeaſonable wood: and that no ſuch artificer of coupers ſhall enhaunce the prices of barrels kilderkins or firkins or other veſſels in the ſale of them, to anie ale bruer or bere bruer or other perſon, but keepe the rate and prices, that is to ſaie, for euerie bere barrell nine pence for euerie bere kilderkin fiue pence, and for euery bere firkin iii. pence, the ale barrell ſixteene pence, the ale kilderkin nine pence, and the ale firkin fiue pence, vpon paine to forfait for euery barrell kilderkin and firkin, defectiue in the meaſure limitted in the ſaide act, or enhaunced in the price in anie point contrarie to the ſaide act, iii.s. foure pence, as by the ſame act more plainelie appeareth. Since which time the price of the wood or timber, whereof ſuch veſſels bene made, is marueilouſlie enhaunced, ſo that they are enforced to paie much more therefore, then they were afore this time, and are likely to pay more, rather then leſſe, if remedy therefore be not prouided: to the great impoueriſhing and vtter vndoing of the ſaide coupers.

Coupers.

Prices.

In conſideration whereof be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that euerie artificer of the craft or myſterie of coupers, after the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, may lawfullie take for euery bere barrell, by him or by them to be ſold ten pence, and for euerie bere kilderkin ſixe pence and not aboue, vpon paine to forfaite for euery bere barrell enhaunced in price contrarie to this act vi.s.viii.d. and for euery bere kilderkin likewiſe enhaunced iii.s.iiii.d.

Bruers.

Clapborde.

Item that euerie bere bruer or other perſon, that ſhall after the feaſt abouesayde, ſhippe or carrie anie bere into the parties of beyond the ſea, other then within the kinges dominions, to the intent to ſell the ſame bere ſo ſhipped and caried, ſhall finde ſufficient ſuertie before the cuſtomers of the porte, where ſuch bere ſhall bee ſhipped, to bring in from the parties of beyonde the ſea aforeſayde, as much clapborde or other borde meete for bere barrelles or kilderkins, as ſhall and maie bee meete to make as much and like quantitie of veſſell as he ſhall ſo carie out with bere.

Cut barrels.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that no man, being of the craft or myſterie of coupers, nor none other perſon inhabiting within the citie of London, or the ſuburbes of the ſame citie, or within two miles compaſſe thereof, ſhall cut miniſh or tranſlate, or cauſe to bee cut miniſhed or tranſlated, to the hinderance of the bruers, anie barrelles kilderkins or firkens, vpon payne to loſe for euerie barrell ſo cut miniſhed or tranſlated ſixe ſhillinges eight pence, and euerie kilderkin ſo cut tranſlated or miniſhed, iii.s.iiii.d. and for euery firkin twentie pence except ſuch perſons as brewe for their owne prouiſion, and not to ſale, & ſuch perſons as ſhall cut diminiſh or tranſlate the ſame veſſels for his owne vſe, and put it to anie other vſe then bere or ale.

Brewers. Wardeins of Copers.

And alſo be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that at all times whenſoeuer any of the bere bruers ſhall require of the ſayde wardens of the coupers for the time being, anie veſſell, vpon reaſonable warning giuen to them by anie of the bere bruers, that then the ſaide wardeines ſhall prepare and deliuer from time to time, vpon euerie ſuch requeſt, to the ſaide bere bruers, as many barrels and kilderkines, as they neede and require to haue for the ſeruing of the kings louing ſubiectes, vpon paine to forfaite for euerie time omitting or neglecting the ſame xl. s. the one halfe of which penalties aforeſaide, to bee to the king our ſouereigne lorde, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action, or information, in anie of the kinges courtes, in the which action, and ſuite the defendaunte ſhall not wage his lawe, or any eſſoine or protection to be admitted.

Prices.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to and for the artificers of the craft and myſterie of coupers and euerie of them, to ſell all ſuch barrelles and veſſelles as they ſhall make for bere to be caried into Flaunders, at and for ſuch price and prices, as they can get for the ſame, any thing in this act, or the eſtatute made in the xxiii. yeere of your moſt noble reigne, to the contrarie not withſtanding.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that as well the former eſtatute, made in the xxiii. yeere aforeſaide, as alſo ſuch recogniſaunces as the ſaide coupers ſtande bounden in, for performance of the ſame, ſhall ſtand and abide of like force and effect in all things, not mencioned & prouided for in this eſtatute, as though this ſtatute had neuer bene made.

Beere. Barrels.

Prouided alſo and be it further enacted by the ſaid auctoritie, that no maner perſon or perſons, at any time after the ſaide feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt, ſhall carie tranſport or conuey any maner of bere out of this realme, into any parties out of the kings dominions, to be ſold or exchanged for anie other marchandiſe, in anie greater larger or bigger veſſell then onely a barrell, vpon paine to loſe and forfaite for euerie ſuch veſſell, being in quantitie aboue a barrell ſixe ſhillings eight pence, the one moitie of the ſaide forfaiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lorde, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, to be recouered in maner and forme aboue expreſſed and declared, except ſuch bere as ſhall be conueied ouer the ſea to ſerue the king in his warres.

Prouided furthermore, that this act or anie thing therein conteined or expreſſed, ſhall not extende or be taken to be hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, for or concerning the cariage conueiance or putting to ſale of any veſſell or veſſelles, being more larger or bigger in quantitie or content, then a barrell, or of anie bere in the parties of Iſeland, and Schotland, thither onelie reparing for fiſh, ſo that the ſaide veſſelles and bere be not vttered, vented, exchaunged or put to ſale in anie other place or countrie, then onely in Iſelande or Schotland, anie thing contained in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. This act to endure to the ende of the next parliament.

An act concerning the partition of Wapping marſh.

Chap.9.

Where in conſideration of the great coſtes and charges, that one Cornelis Wanderdelfe, late of the towne of in Brabant, did expende and ſuſteine in and about the recouering, incloſing, and inning of the marſh, called ſaint Catherins marſh, otherwiſe called Wapping marſh, in the countie of Middelſex, which marſh being long time ſurrounded and ouerflowen with water, was recouered and inned by the ſaid Cornelis: the kinges maieſtie, of his bountifull clemencie and goodneſſe, and alſo all and euerie the owners, inheriters, and poſſeſſioners of the ſame marſh, were contented and agreed, that the ſame Cornelis, in recompence and ſatiſfaction of his ſayde coſtes and charges, and for his diligence and manifolde paines in and about the ſame ſuſteined, ſhoulde haue holde and enioye to him his heires, and aſſignes, the moitie or halfe deale of the ſame marſh, by metes and boundes to be deuided: the which Cornelis afterwardes, afore anie deuiſion thereof made, bargained and ſolde all that his parte moitie and portion of the ſame marſh, for certaine ſummes of monie by one Richarde Hill of London Mercer to him payde, to the ſame Richarde and to his heires. After the which bargaine and ſale had and made, the moitie or halfedeale of the ſaide marſh, was by act of parliament, in the twentie ſeuen yeere of the reigne of our ſayde ſouereigne lorde, made ſure to the ſame Richarde Hill and his heires. And further by the ſame enacted, that the right honorable lord, the duke of Norffolke nowe liuing, the late lorde Windſore, the abbattes of Waltham and Stratforde nowe deceaſſed, and ſir John Danteſeie yet liuing, before the feaſt of all ſaintes next enſuing, ſhoulde make particion, ſeparation, and diuiſion of the ſame marſh, as by the ſame act more plainely it may appeare. But for as much as the ſaide duke and the other perſons aboue named, were otherwiſe letted & buſied in matters of more weight and greater importaunce, there was no diuiſion nor limitation of the ſayd marſh made: not onely to the great hinderance and damages of the foreſaide Richarde Hill, and of all and euerie other perſons, being owners, inheritors, tenantes, and fermers of the ſame, but alſo to the no little perill and daunger of the loſſe drowning & ſurrowning of the ſame marſh, for lacke of the preſeruation of the bankes, and the maintenaunce and reparations of the diches and ſeluces to the ſame belonging, partlie for that that the owners and inheritours of the ſame, knewe not what part or portion of the ſaid marſh did or ſhoulde to him or them belong or appertaine, and partlie for that that anie one of them woulde not diſbourſe anie monie to be employed, or to bee beſtowed vpon the reparations or thinges therevnto requiſite. For remedie and redreſſe whereof, and to the intent that euerie perſon hauing intereſt in & to the ſaid marſh, may haue and knowe his part and portion by metes and boundes. It may therefore be ordeined, eſtabliſhed & enacted, by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that on this ſide the feaſt of all ſaintes next comming, partition, ſeueraunce, diuiſion, and limitation of the ſaid marſh, may be limitted, appointed, aſſigned, and ſet out to euerie perſon, now owner or inheritour of the ſame marſh, to and for his part & portion in the ſame, by ſir Edmunde Walſingham, ſir Arthur Darcy, ſir Richarde Greſham, ſir William Roch, and ſir Rouland Hill, knightes, Robert Hennage eſquier, Henrie Whitreaſon, Richard Harrie yong gent. Richarde Geruais mercer, Nicholas Wilforde marchant tayler, and John Sturgeon haberdaſher citizens of London: indifferentlie named, elected, and choſen, by the aſſentes, willes & agreements of the owners, inheritours, and poſſeſſioners of the ſaide marſh, as they or x. ix. viii. vii. or vi. of them, ſhall iudge determine and awarde by their diſcretions to ſtand with equitie, right, and conſcience. And that the moitie of the ſaide Richarde Hill, ſhall be ſeparate and ſeuered by it ſelfe from the parties and portions of all and ſinguler the reſidue, owners and inheritours of the ſame marſh, which determination, ordinaunce, decree, awarde, limitation, diuiſion, and iudgement, by the ſame ſir Edmund, ſir Arthur, and the reſidue afore named, with them, by x. ix. viii. vii. or vi. of them, had made, decreed, awarded, limitted, determined and adiudged, ſhall by auctoritie of this act, be put in writing, and ſhall be taken demed and adiudged, to be a good perfect effectuall and finall iudgement and determination, to all intentes, conſtructions and purpoſes, to binde as well the ſaide Richarde Hill, as all and euerie other the owners, inheritours, and poſſeſſioners of the ſame marſh, their heires and ſucceſſours, and euery of them, to ſtande, obſerue, fulfill and keepe the ſame award, decree, ſeparation, diuiſion, partition, iudgement and limitation, therevpon and then had, determined, decreed, limitted and adiudged.

Accountes

And further be it enacted by the ſaide auctoritie, that the ſaide ſir Edmund, ſir Arthur, and the other perſons with them aboue named, x. ix. viii. vii. or vi. of them, at all times on this ſide the ſaide feaſt of all ſaintes, ſhall haue power and auctoritie by vertue of this act, to call before them to accountes and reckeninges, as well the ſaide Richarde Hill, as all and euerie other perſon and perſons, which haue receiued the iſſues, reuenues, or profites, riſen and growen of the ſame marſh, ſithens the inning recouerie and ſhutting vp thereof, and alſo ſuch perſons as haue bene at charges for the defence and mainteining of the reparations of the walles, ſcluſes, diches and bankes of the ſame, and vpon the reckeninges and accomptes thereof deliberatelie viewed and heard, to ſet ſuch order and determination, and ſhall alſo deduct, allowe and awarde, ſuch ſummes of money and other allowances in euerie behalfe, as to them x. ix. viii. vii. or vi. of them by their diſcretions and wiſdomes, ſhall ſeme and be thought to ſtande with equitie and conſcience. The which order, decree, iudgement, and determination by them x. ix. viii. vii. or vi. of them put in writing by vertue of this act, ſhall ſtande firme and ſtable, and for a full determinate order, decree, finall ende and perfect iudgement, without appellations, contradiction, or other defence or ſuite hereafter concerning the ſame, to be had proſecuted or made, in euerie condition, and to all intentes conſtructions and purpoſes, as though all and euerie the ſaide parties, inheritours, owners, and poſſeſſioners of the ſaid marſh, or of anie part thereof, were bounden by recogniſaunce before the Lord chaunceller of Englande, to obſerue, performe fulfill and keepe the ſame or the like order decree ſeparation awarde and iudgement. And that euery partie, which by the ſame decree and iudgement, ſhall be awarded and adiudged to haue anie allowaunce or recompence concerning the premiſſes, for non payment and contentation thereof: ſhall and may haue his remedie by action therefore as the caſe ſhall require, at the common lawe, where againſt the defendant ſhall make no dilatorie or foreine plea, nor anie wager of lawe, protection, priuiledge, or eſſoine to be admitted or allowed. Sauing to all and euerie perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, other then the owners and inheritours of the ſaide marſh, all ſuch right title and intereſt, rentes, annuities, waies, commons, liberties and other commodities, as they or anie of them might, ſhoulde, or ought to haue had, of in or to the ſaid marſh, or anie parcell thereof before the making of this act, this preſent act, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe not withſtanding.

An act concerning the repairing, making, and amending of the Cunduites in London.

Chap.10

FOr as much as it is verie commodious neceſſarie and profitable to all cities, townes, and inhabitations, to haue ſweete and holſome running waters and freſh ſpringes, to ſerue the ſame for their buſineſſes and neceſſaries, and ſpeciallie within great townes and cities. to be conueied by cunduites and fountaines, wherevnto requireth aboundaunce and copioſitie, for the ſeruing of the inhabitauntes of the ſame, whereof the citie of London hath bene before this time well furniſhed and aboundantlie ſerued, till that nowe of late, that either for faintneſſe of the ſpringes, or for the drineſſe of the earth, the accuſtomed courſe of the waters, comming from the olde ſpringes and auncient heades, are ſore decaied and diminiſhed and abated, and dailie more and more be like to appaire and faile, to the great diſcommoditie and diſpleaſure both of the citizens and inhabitauntes within the ſayde citie and ſuburbes thereof, as to all other perſons hauing recourſe to the ſame to the great decaie of the citie, if ſpeedie remedie the ſooner bee not therein had foreſeene and prouided. For remedie whereof ſir William Bowyer knight nowe maior of the ſayde citie, intending and pondering the ſame neceſſitie much willing to helpe and reliefe the ſayde citie and ſuburbes with newe fountaines, and freſh ſpringes, for the commoditie of the kings ſaid ſubiects, calling to him as well diuerſe graue and expert perſons of his brethren and other of the communaltie of the ſaide citie as other perſons, in and about the conueiaunce of water well experimented, hath not onelie by diligent ſearch and exploration founde out diuerſe great and plentifull ſpringes, at Hamſtede heath, Martbone, Hackeney, Muſwell hill, and diuerſe places within fiue miles of the ſaide citie, verie meete propiſe, and conuenient to be brought and conueyed to the ſame, but alſo hath laboured ſtudied and deuiſed the conueiaunce thereof by cundites, vautes, and pipes to the ſayde citie, and otherwiſe, to his great trauaile, labour, and payne, and alſo to the great charges and coſtes of the citizens of the ſayde citie: Which good and profitable purpoſe, can not ſort to concluſion, nor take good effect, without the ayde and conſent of the kinges maieſtie, and of his high courte of parliament. Wherefore maie it pleaſe the kinges maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, to eſtabliſh and enact, that it ſhall be lawfull to the maior and communaltie of the ſayde citie of London for the time being, and to their ſucceſſours aſſignes and ſeruauntes, at all and euerie time and times hereafter, to enter into the grounds and poſſeſſions, as well of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſours, as of euerie other perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, where they ſhall finde or knowe anie ſuch ſpringes to bee, or may bee founde for the intente aboue ſayde, ſo that it bee not into their houſes, gardeines, orchardes, or places incloſed with ſtone bricke or mudwalles, and there to digge pittes, trenches and diches, and to erect heades, laie pipes and make vaultes, and to doe all and euerie ſuch thinges in the ſame places and groundes, which ſhall be meete propiſe and neceſſarie onelie for the conueyaunce of the ſayde water and ſpringes to the citie, and the ſuburbes of the ſame, and alſo to haue free ingreſſe egreſſe and regreſſe in to all ſuch places, where ſuch heades, pipes, or vaultes, ſhall be erected laide or made, to viewe and ſee from time to time the ſaide heades, pipes, ſuſpiralles, and vaultes, and them to amende, repaire, tranſlate, and to do all things neceſſarie and conuenient, as well for the finding of newe ſprings, as for the conueiance of anie water or ſprings nowe found or hereafter to be founde, to the citie and ſuburbes aforeſaide, without interruption let or impediment of the owners of the grounde their leſſees, aſſignes, or miniſters, or anie other perſon.

And further be it enacted by the ſaide auctoritie, that the ſaide maior, and his ſucceſſours and euerie of them, for the digging and breaking of anie ſuch ſoyle or grounde, in anie place or places for the intent and purpoſe aforeſaide, ſhall within the ſpace of one moneth next after anie ſuch grounde ſhall bee broken by the miniſters or workemen of the ſayde maior or his ſucceſſours or their aſſignes, for the intentes and purpoſes aforeſayde, ſatiſfie, content, and paie vnto the owners or poſſeſſioners of the ſaide ſoile or grounde ſo broken or digged, as much mony for the ſame digging ⁊ breaking, as ſhall be adiudged and taxed by the determination and iudgement of three or foure indifferent men, to be aſſigned by the Lorde chaunceller of Englande for the time being, by vertue of the kinges commiſſion from time to time to them directed at the coſtes of the ſaide maior and communaltie, and that to bee vſed for euermore hereafter. And that all ſuch ſummes as after the ſaide time ſhall bee taxed by the ſayde three or foure men, by vertue of the ſayde commiſſion, for ſatiſfaction of anie ſuch breaking and defacing of the grounde, ſhall bee paide and ſatiſfied to the poſſeſſioner or poſſeſſioners, owner or owners, of the ſaide grounds, or to their miniſter, aſſignes, or officers by the ſaid maior or his ſucceſſors for the time being within tenne daies next after the ſayde taxation or iudgement ſo made and adiudged, vpon paine the ſaide maior or ſucceſſors, ſo denieng or refuſing the payment thereof, for euerie ſuch offence, to forfaite therteene ſhillings foure pence, ouer and aboue the ſum ſo to bee aſſeſſed, the one halfe of which forfaiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lorde, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie to the partie greeued that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courtes of recorde, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in which action, bill, or plaint, no wager of lawe protection or eſſoine ſhall lie. And neuertheleſſe the partie, whoſe ground hereafter ſhall be ſo broken or digged, for non paiment of all ſuch ſummes of money as by the ſaid three or foure men for the time being, ſhall be taxed and adiudged, ſhall haue an action of debt againſt the ſaide maior or his ſucceſſors, by whoſe commaundement any ſuch grounde ſhall be ſo broken, in any of the kinges courtes of recorde, for the recouerie of the ſame debt ſo taxed, in which action no wager of lawe protection nor eſſoine ſhall lie. And if it ſhall happen that the ſayde three or foure men ſo named by the ſaide lorde chaunceller, in forme aforeſaide, doe not, nor ſhall not agree in making anie ſuch taxation for anie digging, trenching, or breaking of ſuch grounde within the ſaide time to them limitted, or that the ſaide maior or his ſucceſſors for the time being, do not offer or tender to the partie ſo greeued a reſonable amendes and ſatiſfaction for the breaking, digging or trenching, his or their ſayde grounde: that then the partie or parties ſo greeued, and whoſe lande or ſoile ſhall bee ſo hereafter

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the autoritie aforeſayde, that if the ſaide maior, his ſucceſſors, officers, miniſters, or workemen, ſhall be interrupted moleſted or prohibited at anie time hereafter, to digge and trench anie groundes for the intent as aboue ſaide, or for the laieng of pipes, making of heads, vauts, or fountaines, concerning the conueyaunce of anie newe ſprings to the ſaide citie and ſuburbes, or for the ſearch repairing or amendment of the defaultes of the ſame, or for the conueiance of anie newe ſprings or water, or other things, requiſite and neceſſarie to be had made or done at anie time or times hereafter, concerning the premiſſes or anie of them, by any owner leſſee, miniſter, officer, or other perſon what ſoeuer he bee, then euerie ſuch perſon owner, poſſeſſor or perſons, ſo moleſting, reſiſting, or letting the ſaid maior and his ſucceſſors, or his or their officers miniſters or workemen, contrarie to the true meaning of this act, ſhall forfait for euery ſuch offence xl.s. ſterling, the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and the other moitie to the maior & communaltie of the citie of London, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſame to be recouered by action or plaint of debt, in any of the kings courts, in the which no protection eſſoine or wager of lawe to be admitted or allowed.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that it ſhall not bee lawfull to the ſayde maior nor communaltie, nor to their ſucceſſours, or miniſters, to take awaie anie water or ſpring nowe brought, or hereafter ſhall bee brought or conueied by pipes or trenches to the manſion of anie perſon or perſons, for the neceſſarie vſe of their houſholde, nor that anie perſon or perſons, by anie waie deceite, meane, or anie other craftie conueiaunce, ſhall vndermine, miniſh, withdrawe, or abate anie ſpring or ſpringes founde, or hereafter to be founde, nowe brought or conueied, or at anie time hereafter to be conueied ſet and brought to the ſaide citie, whereby the water ſhall be miniſhed, ſtopped, abated, or otherwiſe altered from his due courſe and conueiaunce, vpon paine to forfaite to the partie greeued treble damages, the ſame to bee recouered againſt the partie offending, by action or plaint of debt in any of the kings courts, in the which no protection eſſoine or wager of lawe to be allowed.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the autority aforeſaid, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extende to giue any libertie or autoritie to the ſaid maior and communaltie, or to any of their ſucceſſors, to enter or digge in any of the kings grounds, for or concerning the conueing of any water in or to the ſaid citie, without the kings licence therein firſt had and obtained, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

An Act for the remiſsion of the lone.

Cap.12. The kings moſt humble, faithfull, louing and obedient ſubiectes, the lordes ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, prudently and louingly conſidering and calling to their remembrances, not onely the innumerable benefites and goodnes, which they heretofore haue receiued, had and enioyed, by and from his moſt royall maieſtie, by the tranquilitie of peace, due and iuſt adminiſtration and execution of iuſtice within this his realme of England, ſithen the time of his aſſumption of his crowne, eſtate and dignitie royal, to his great laude, glorie and honor, but alſo the ineſtimable coſtes, charges and expences, which his highnes neceſſarily and of fine force hath beene coacted and compelled to ſuſteine and ſupport, chiefely for the ſuertie and comfort of his graces ſubiectes, as by ſundrie wayes and meanes, and vpon iuſt and reaſonable occaſions and groundes, in and for the maintenance of his warres, inuaſion and defence of his enimies, repreſſing and ſubduing rebelles and traitors: Concludinges of peace, amitie and concorde in all Chriſtian regions, reforming & extincting, many damnable and dangerous ſciſmes, opinions, and argumentes, ſprong and riſen in the church of England, and alſo of Ireland, whereof he is in earth ſupreme head, whoſe moſt godly and honorable actes, as well marciall as other, his moſt politike and prudent affaires and enterprices haue not onely redounded to his immortall fame and honour, but alſo to the great quiet commoditie and profite of this realme of England, in and abount the which, his maieſtie (as it is not vnknowen) hath taken intollerable paines, trauaile, ſtudie and labour, in his owne moſt royall perſon, and expoſed and diſpended much notable treaſure and ineſtimable ſubſtance, as well riſen and growen by anie manner contribution made to his maieſtie by his ſaid louing ſubiectes, as alſo of his owne yerely reuenues of his crowne, which els his highnes might haue reſerued and kept to his owne vſe & commoditie. And notwithſtanding that his maieſtie, of his ineſtimable goodnes hath of long time like a charitable louing and moſt vertuous prince, tendered, truſted, loued, and fauoured Fraunces nowe the french king, and ſhewed vnto him diuers and ſundry ineſtimable gratuities and amities, as well by redéeming him and his children out of captiuitie and thraldome, as alſo relieuing him of his pouertie by diuers and ſundrie preſtes and lones of notable ſummes of money to him made, truſting thereby to haue preſerued and continued loue, amitie, peace, and concorde, betwéene the regions of England and Fraunce: Yet the ſame french king, nothing regarding his honor, othe, trouth, promiſe, and fidelitie, made vnto his maieſtie, hath not onely moſt ingratefully and wrongfully withdrawen from his ſaide maieſtie, the due, rightfull and accuſtomed pencion, allwayes heretofore vſed (as of right) to be payde to his maieſtie, and this his realm out of the realme of Fraunce: but alſo hath inferred and done vnto his maieſtie, and his louing ſubiectes, manie other right great and intollerable diſpleaſures, wrongs, iniuries, and dammages: And for the maintenance thereof, hath confederated himſelfe with the great Turke, common enimie to all Chriſtendome, pretending thereby to ſatiſfie his owne ambicious mynde, and entending to put vniuerſall trouble and diuiſion in al the monarchie of Chriſtendome, and ſubdue the realme of England, to his power and ſubiection. And where alſo his maieſtie is iuſtly & lawfully intitled vnto the crowne and realme of Scotland, and to whoſe highnes as to their naturall and ſoueraigne liege lord, all the inhabitants of the ſame, ought to beare due obedience and be ſubiectes: Yet neuertheleſſe the ſame french king ceaſſeth not daily to procure, moue, and ſtirre the ſame Scottes, contrary to the duetie of their allegiance, faith, and promiſe, confirmed with great othes, not onely to rebel againſt his maieſtie, but alſo to make diuers and ſundry incurſes, inuaſions, ſpoyles, burnings, murders, waſtings and depopulations in this his realme of England, and to make open warre againſt the kings maieſtie, this his realme of England, and other his graces dominions. Wherefore the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, like a moſt godly, vertuous and prudent prince, intending as well to méete with their ſaid malicious pretenſed purpoſes and enterpriſes, as alſo to recouer his rightes of his auncient inheritances, is forced, and can of his honor no leſſe do, but determine himſelfe, by the helpe of almightie God, to put his owne royall perſon, with the power of his realme and ſubiectes in armor, to the intent to leuie warre, and to proſecute his ſaide enemies, with the ſworde to the extremitie of his power: truſting thereby to reduce and bring his ſaide enimies to ſuch reaſonable conditions of peace, that the ſame ſhall redound to his graces honor, and to the vtilitie, profit, commoditie and ſuretie of this his realme, and his louing ſubiectes of the ſame. For the meintenance of which his maieſties warres, are required ineſtimable ſummes of treaſure, to be employed and defrayed about the ſame.

Wherefore his moſt louing and obedient ſubiectes, conſidering that it is their office and moſt bounden duetie, to honor, ayde, mainteine, and ſupport his maieſtie in all his iuſt quarels, with their bodies, landes, goods and ſubſtance, minding to beare with his highnes, in this his moſt gracious and godly enterpriſe, to the eleuiation of parte of his great and ineſtimable charges, calling to their remembrance, that diuers and ſundry of his louing and obedient ſubiectes, ſithen the firſt day of January, in the xxxiii. yeere of his moſt noble reigne, haue aduaunced vnto his maieſtie, by way of preſt and loane, diuers and ſundry ſeuerall and particuler ſummes of money. For the repayment whereof, ſundry and ſeuerall writings, vnder his maieſties priuie ſeale, were ſeuerally deliuered vnto his ſaide louing and obedient ſubiectes, to be repayde vnto them, at ſundry dayes of payment, yet to come: Which ſummes of money, as it is notoriouſly knowen, his highnes hath fully and wholly conuerted and employed, to the behoofe, vſe, and commoditie of his louing Subiectes of this his realme, and for the common wealth and defence of the ſame.

The loane giuen.

In conſideration of all and ſinguler the premiſſes, his ſaide humble, faith full, louing, and obedient ſubiectes, of one minde, conſent, and aſſent, and by authoritie of this preſent parliament, do for them ſelues, and all the whole bodie of this realme, whome they doe preſent, freely, liberally, and abſolutely, giue and graunt vnto the kinges highnes, by authoritie of this preſent parliament, all and euery ſumme and ſummes of money, which to them, or anie of them, is, ought or might be due by reaſon of any money, or anie other thing, to his grace auaunced or paide by way of the ſaide preſt or loane: And vtterly, frankly, liberally, moſt willingly and beneuolently, for them, their heires, executours, and ſucceſſours, doe remit, releaſe and quite clayme vnto his highnes, his heires, and ſucceſſours for euer, all and euery the ſame ſummes of money, and euery parcell thereof. And all and ſinguler ſuites, petitions and demaunds, which they or anie of them, their heires, ſucceſſors and executours, or the heires, executors or ſucceſſours of anie of them haue had or may haue for the ſame or anie parcell thereof: Moſt humbly and louingly beſeeching his highnes, for the more cleare diſcharge of the ſame, that it may be ordeined and enacted, by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all promiſes, bandes, letters, vnder the kings priuie ſeale, ſignet, ſigne manuell, or great ſeale paſſed, and all other bonds or promiſes, whatſoeuer they be, had or made to anie perſon or perſons, ſpirituall or temporall, ſhire, citie, borough, wapentake, towneſhip, hamelet, village, hundred, church cathedrall or collegiate, or to anie guilde, fraternitie, or bodie corporate, feloſhip or company, or anie other, hauing capacitie to take any band promiſe or writing, eſpecially or generally, ioyntly or ſeuerally, touching or concerning the ſaid preſt or loane, and euery of them, or the repayment of anie ſumme or ſummes of money for the ſame, be from henceforth voide and of none effect.

Bondes voide.

And it is further enacted by authoritie abouesaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer he or they be, which at anie time after the ſaide firſt daie of Januarie, which was in the ſaid xxxiii. yeere of the raigne of our now moſt gracious ſoueraigne lord, hath payde aduaunced or deliuered to the king our ſoueraigne lord, or to anie perſon or perſons to his vſe, anie ſumme or ſummes of money by way of preſt or loane, as is abouesaid, and haue againe obteined of or from the kinges maieſtie, the ſaide ſumme or ſummes of money ſo aduaunced, preſſed, or lent to his highnes, or anie parcell thereof, or anie other recompence what ſo euer, by bargaine, graunt, gyfte, ſale, commaundement, aſſignement, repayment, by of or from his maieſtie, or by anie other what ſoeuer meane: That then all and euerie the ſaide ſumme and ſummes of money, and euerie parcel thereof, ſo aduanced preſſed or lent, and repayde or receiued by anie maner of meane, as is abouesaid, or otherwiſe recompenced, ſhall be repayed or ſatiſfied vnto the kings maieſtie, or to the coferer of his moſt honorable houſholde, or to ſuch other perſon or perſons, as by his maieſtie ſhalbe thervnto aſſigned or appointed, to the vſe of his maieſtie, by ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſo aduaunced, preſſed or lent any ſuch ſumme or ſummes of money, or by the executors of ſuch perſon or perſons deceaſſed, hauing ſufficient goodes of their teſtatours in his or their hande or handes, the xiiii. day of Februarie, the xxxv. yeere of the reigne of our nowe moſt gracious and naturall ſoueraigne liege lord, or of the heire or heires of the ſame perſon or perſons ſo deceaſſed, hauing landes, tenementes or other hereditamentes, to him or them ſo diſcended, in fee ſimple or fee taile, from the ſame perſon or perſons, that is ſo aduaunced, preſſed or lent, anie ſumme or ſummes of money, as is aboue ſaide, the xiiii. daie abouesaide, at the libertie and pleaſure of his highnes, before the feaſt of all ſaintes next comming, without anie maner of contradiction, or further delaye: Any warrant, bargaine, couenant, graunt, agreement, aſſignement, or other commaundement heretofore made to the contrarie notwithſtanding: The ſame ſummes to be demaunded and recouered by his maieſtie in anie of his courtes, by bill, action of dette, information, or otherwiſe: In which no wager of lawe, eſſoine or protection, ſhall be permitted, ſuffered or allowed.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie abouesaide, that if anie perſon or perſons, which haue auaunced preſſed or lent to the kings maieſtie, anie ſumme or ſummes of money, as is abouesaide, haue bargained and ſolde the ſaid ſumme or ſummes of money, ſo auaunced, preſſed, or lent, and the dette and duetie of the ſame to anie perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer he or they be, and haue receiued anie ſumme or ſummes of money, couenant, promiſe, or other thing or thinges, in and for the recompence thereof: That then all and euerie ſuch bargaine and bargaines, ſale and ſales, couenant or couenants, promiſe and promiſes, ſhall be vtterly voide and of none effect. And that then all and euerrie perſon and perſons, which ſo haue bargained, obteined, or bought, anie ſuch ſumme or ſummes of money, ſo auaunced, preſſed, or lent, as is abouesaide, ſhall be repaied and reſtored to all and euery ſumme and ſummes of money, or other thing or thinges, of what

An acte concerning the kings generall pardon.

Chap.18

The kings moſt roiall maieſtie, prouidentlie conſidering, that albeit his highnes of his moſt excellent pitie benignitie and mercie, manifold times heretofore mercifullie and liberallie hath graunted his moſt frée and generall pardon to all and ſinguler his ſubiectes, by the which his maieſtie hath remitted and releaſed innumerable and ineſtimable ſubſtance and profites, which he mought haue lawfullie had & taken by the lawes & cuſtomes of this his realme, truſting by his often remiſſion pardon and mercie miniſtred to his ſubiectes, to allure offendours from vice to vertue, and that they would put their diligent deuoirs, to amend and reforme their abuſes: yet neuertheleſſe his louing and obedient ſubiectes, ſithens his laſt moſt gratious and liberall pardon to them graunted, haue incurred into innumerable penalties loſſes forfeitures and damages, whereof none or few of them are able to make full recompence or condigne ſatiſfaction to his highneſſe, if his maieſtie ſhoulde procéede againſt them by due courſe of his lawes, truſting that now from henceforth they will eftesſoones amend and beware the incurring of the foreſaide dangers and perils, ſéeing they haue had ſo manie admonitions and gentle warnings, and perceiuing alſo the great zeale and affection, which his louing ſubiectes beare vnto him and his dignitie royall, as by manie waies in this preſent parliament they haue declared and ſhewed. In conſideration whereof, and truſting as afore, the kings highnes to ſhew vnto his louing ſubiectes, that he both can and will conſider when he is both kindelie and louinglie handled of them, vpon his méere motion, and to declare alſo his tender loue and affection, which he beareth vnto his nobilitie and ſubiectes, according to his accuſtomable goodnes, is contented and pleaſed at this time to extend his pitie mercie and benignitie to all and ſinguler his ſubiectes of this his realme of England, Wales, the iſles of Jernſeie and Garnſeie Berwike and Caleis and the marches of the ſame, by way of his frée pardon and remiſſion, as hereafter foloweth, rather coueting their amendmentes by gentle and mercifull meanes, than to be enriched by their euill déedes and offences. And for that his ſaid frée pardon to be had taken and enioied to and by them and euerie of them, by vertue of this preſent acte, his grace is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, in maner and forme following, that is to ſay: That all and euerie of his ſaid ſubiectes aſwell ſpirituall as temporall of this his realme of England, Wales, the ſaide iſles of Jernſeie and Garnſeie, Berwike and Caleis and the marches of the ſame, the heires ſucceſſours executours and adminiſtratours of them and euerie of them, and all and ſinguler bodies in anie maner of wiſe corporate, cities, boroughes, ſhires, ridings, hundreds, lathes, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages, and tithinges and euerie of them, and the ſucceſſour and ſucceſſours of euerie of them, ſhall be by auctoritie of this preſent parliament acquited, pardoned, releaſed, and diſcharged againſt the kings highnes, nes, his heires, ſucceſſours, executours, and euerie of them, of all maner treaſons, felonies, robberies, offences, contemptes, treſpaſſes, wronges, diſceites, miſdemeanours, forfeitures, penalties and profites, ſummes of moneie, paines of death, paines corporall and pecuniarie, and generallie of all other thinges, cauſes, quarels, ſuites, iudgements and executions, in this preſent acte hereafter not excepted nor forpriſed, which may be or can be by his highnes in anie wiſe or by anie meane pardoned before, & vnto the xiiii. day of Ianuarie, in the xxxv. yéere of his moſt gratious reigne, to euerie or anie of his ſaid ſubiectes, bodies corporate, cities, boroughes, ſhires, ridings, hundreds, lathes, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages and tithinges or anie of them.

And alſo the kings highneſſe is contented, that it be enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that his ſaid frée pardon ſhall be as good and effectuall in the lawe to euerie of his ſaid ſubiectes, bodies corporate and other before rehearſed, and to euerie of them, by the ſaid generall words before rehearſed, in and againſt all thinges which be not hereafter in this preſent acte excepted, as the ſame pardon ſhould haue bene of all offences, contemptes, forfeitures, cauſes, matters, ſuites, quarels, iudgements, executions, penalties, and all other thinges not hereafter excepted, had bene particularlie, ſingularlie, ſpeciallie, and plainelie, named, rehearſed, and ſpecified, and alſo pardoned by proper and expreſſe wordes and names in their kindes, natures and qualities by wordes and termes therevnto requiſite, to haue bene put and expreſſed in this preſent acte of frée pardon, and that his ſaide ſubiectes, nor anie of them or the heires executours and adminiſtratours of anie of them, nor anie of the ſaid bodies corporate, and others before named or anie of them, be or ſhall be ſued, vexed, or inquieted in their bodies, goods, lands, or cattels, for anie maner matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemeanour, forfeiture, treſpas, offence, or anie other thing ſuffred doone or committed before the ſaid xiiii. day of Ianuarie, againſt his highneſſe, his crowne, dignitie, prerogatiue, lawe or ſtatutes, but onelie for ſuch matters, cauſes, and offences, as be plainelie rehearſed in the exceptions in this preſent acte hereafter mentioned, and for none other, anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, lawes, cuſtomes, vſes, or preſident hereafter had made, or vſed to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Alſo the kings highnes of his bounteous liberalitie, by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, graunteth and fréelie giueth to euerie of his ſaid ſubiectes and to euerie of the ſaid bodies corporate and other before rehearſed and to euerie of them, all ſuch forfeitures and ſummes of moneie by anie of them forfeited, which to his highnes doo or ſhould belong or appertaine by reaſon of any offence, contempt, treſpas, miſdemeanour, matter, cauſe, or quarell, ſuffered, doone or committed by them or anie of them, before the ſaid xiiii. day of Ianuarie, which be not hereafter plainelie forpriſed or excepted in this preſent acte. And where now of late diuers and ſundrie perſons within this realme, being not learned nor yet meete ne able for lacke of knowledge and learning to occupie and exerciſe the ſaid offices, of the Cuſtos rotulorum, and of the clarkeſhip of the peace haue of late yeeres by labour, frendſhip, and meanes attained and gotten for terme of their liues of the kings maieſtie, ſeuerall graunts by his highneſſe letters patentes to them made of the ſaide clarkeſhips of the peace. By reaſon whereof, and for that the parties to whome the ſaide ſeuerall grauntes haue bene ſo made and graunted, haue not bene ſufficientlie learned to exerciſe and occupie the ſame office and offices, manie and ſundrie inditements as well of felonie, murder, and other offences and miſdemeanours, and the proces awarded vpon the ſame enditements, haue not onelie bene by reaſon thereof made clearelie fruſtrate and voide, ſometime by reaſon of the negligent ingroſſing and keeping of the ſaide inditements, and ſometime by reaſon of the imbeſiling or raſure of the ſame inditements, but alſo diuers and ſundrie bargaines and ſales of diuers and ſundrie manours, lands and tenements had and made betweene partie and partie, haue bene made fruſtrate and voide, for lacke of ſufficient enrolement of the bargaines and ſales to be had and made by the clarkes of the peace, to the great hinderance of iuſtice, and to the diſinheritance of diuers of the kings moſt louing ſubiectes.

For reformation whereof, to the intent that iuſtice may be the better hereafter preferred, and that the ſame offices may hereafter be occupied and exerciſed by ſuch perſons, learned in the lawes of this realme, as ſhall be able to exerciſe and ſupplie the ſame: Be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons ſhall
Cuſtos rotulorum. from henceforth be nominated and appointed to the ſaide office and offices of the Cuſtos rotulorum within anie ſhire of this realme of England, Wales, and other the kings dominions, mar-

And that it be lawfull to euerie ſuch grantées of the ſaid clerkſhip to occupie and inioy the ſame office of the clerkſhip of the peace by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputie, inſtructed in the lawes of this realme, ſo that the ſame deputie be admitted taken and reputed by the ſaid Cuſtos Rotulorum, to be ſufficient and able to exerciſe occupie keepe and inioy the ſame office of the clerkſhip of the peace.

WHere the kinges maieſtie is at this preſent ſeiſed of one eſtate of inheritance of the waſte ground and ſoyle commonlie called Hounſlow heath, conteining in it ſelfe foure thouſand two hundreth foure ſcore thirteene acres and one roode, lieng and extending into the fieldes pariſhes and hamlets of Hiſtelworth Brainford end, Twikenham, Heſton, Feltham, Harlington, Crainefield, Harmondſworth Stanwell, Hanworth, Bedfount, Hampton, Hounſlow, and Todington in his graces countie of Middleſexe. His highneſſe moſte prudentlie conſidering, that as the barrenneſſe and infertilitie thereof by want of diligence and induſtrie of men neceſſarilie required for the amendement or maintenance of anie ground, that ſhall bring forth his fruite, breedeth as well ſcarcitie and lacke of all manner of graine, graſſe, woode and other neceſſarie thinges amongeſt his graces ſubiectes the inhabitantes of the ſaide pariſhes, as alſo is the verie originall mother and continuall nurſe of dearth of thinges amongſt his people dwelling in the confines of the ſame: Euen ſo the conuerſion thereof into tillage and ſeuerall paſture, by mens labour and paines, beſides that it ſhall be an exile of idleneſſe in thoſe parties, muſt of neceſſitie cauſe and bring forth to all his ſaid ſubiectes plentie and aboundance of all the thinges aboue remembred. And albeit his highneſſe might iuſtly by the auncient lawes of this his realme approue to his owne peculiar profite and aduauntage a great part of the ſame waſte and heath, neuertheleſſe his maieſtie moſte graciouſlie tendering more the common weale of his ſubiectes there, than the aduauncement of his owne commoditie, hath not all onely alreadie to his great coſtes and charges cauſed diuers of his counſell, and others of his officers and miniſters by vertue of his graces commiſſion in that behalfe to them directed, to repaire thither, to viewe ſuruie and conſider the ſaide waſte and heathe, and therevpon to aſſigne out by metes and boundes to euerie of the ſaid pariſhes, a conuenient part and portion of the ſame, and out of thoſe partes and portions by lotte to appoynt in ſeueraltie to euery inhabitant within the ſaide pariſhes and hamlettes, ſuche quantitie of the ſaide heathe, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid commiſſioners was thought meete and conuenient, hauing a ſpeciall regard to the number of the inhabitants in euerie pariſhe, and to the number of acers of heath limited to euerie of the ſaid hamlets and pariſhes, but alſo is contented and pleaſed at the humble petition and ſuite of his ſaid ſubiects, to whome and other their poſteritie the commoditie thereof ſhall ſpeciallie redound, that it be enacted by his highneſſe, as hereafter inſueth.

Chap. 5.

HUmblie beſeechen your moſt excellent maieſtie your obedient ſubiectes, the maior and communaltie of your citie of London, that where as amongeſt diuerſe and ſundrie liberties and fraunchiſes, graunted by your moſt noble progenitours to the citie of London, for diuerſe reaſonable reſpectes and conſiderations in their charters, expreſſed and mencioned, one libertie is, that all inquiſitions to be taken by the iuſtices and miniſters of your highneſſe, of the citizens of London, ſhall bee taken at ſaint Martines the Graunde, or at the Guylde hall of the ſayde citie of London, and not elſe where, excepte inquiſitions before the iuſtices in Eyre at the towre of London, and for the deliuerie of the gaole of Newgate as in the charters of your ſayde noble progenitours, to the ſayde citizens of London graunted, and by your maieſtie confirmed, plainelie appeareth. Which liberties the ſame citizens haue continuallie, ſince the ſayde grauntes thereof to them made, exerciſed vſed and enioyned accordingly, as by diuerſe matters of record in your high courts at Weſtminſter euidently appeareth.

And where alſo an act of parliament concerning periurie and puniſhment of vntrue verdictes, was made and eſtabliſhed in the twentie three yeere of your moſt gracious reigne amongeſt other then and there made and ordeyned that vpon euerie vntrue verdite, made after the ſame act betweene partie and partie, in anie ſuite, plainte or demaunde made, and verdite thervpon giuen, extending to the value of fortie poondes, and not concerning the ieopardie of mans life, the partie greeued by the ſame verdite, ſhall haue a writ of attainte againſt euerie perſon, which after the ſaide act woulde giue an vntrue verdite: And that in the ſaide attainte there ſhoulde bee awarded againſt the petite iurie, the partie, and the graunde iurie proceſſe of Sum. Reſum. and diſtreſſe infinite: which graunde iurie ſhoulde be in like number as the graunde iurie is nowe in attainte, and that euerie of them that ſhall paſſe in the ſame, ſhall haue landes and tenementes of the value of twentie markes by yeere of free holde out of auncient demeane. And alſo it was then further enacted and eſtabliſhed, that all attaintes afterwardes to bee taken, ſhould be taken before your maieſtie in your bench, or afore your iuſtices of your common place, & in none other courte: And that the Niſi prius ſhall be graunted by the diſcretion of the iuſtices vpon the diſtreſſe.

And for as much as the ſaide act can not be duelie put in execution by the citizens of the ſaide cittie for lacke of ſufficient perſons hauing landes and tenementes to the cleare yeerely value of twentie markes out of auncient demeane, according to the tenour of the ſaide act, and alſo that the apparance of the ſaid citizens, to be had out of the ſaide citie, is againſt the liberties and fraunchiſes of the ſame citie, and no prouiſo made within the ſaide act for the ſame citizens to enioy their auncient liberties and priuiledges before rehearſed: It may therefore pleaſe your maieſtie, of your moſt abundant grace, to condeſcende, that it may be enacted by your highneſſe and by the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie maner perſon and perſons, being citizens of the ſaide citie, and being in value of goods and cattalles to the ſumme of foure hundreth markes, may bee impanelled and retourned, by the ſhirife of your ſaide citie in euerie attainte hereafter to be brought by vertue of the ſaide eſtatute, vpon verdites hereafter to be giuen by your ſaide citizens, without anie challenge for the inſufficiencie of free holde of anie of them, to bee made by any of the ſaide parties, in any ſuch attainte, vpon ſuch verdites hereafter to bee giuen. And that the iuſtices for the time being, ſhall ſit onely at the Guilde hall of the ſame citie, or at ſome conuenient place within the ſame citie, and there to ſweare the graund iurie, and to take the verdites in ſuch attaintes hereafter to be taken. And that the ſaide citizens hereafter bee not compelled nor diſtreined to appeare in any ſuch attaint, hereafter to be taken vpon any vntrue verdite, giuen or hereafter to be giuen in London, but onely within the limittes of the ſaid citie, of and for the triall of the ſame: The ſaid former act, or any thing therein contained to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

WHere diuers & ſundrie malicious & enuious perſons being men of euill & peruerſe diſpoſitions, and ſeduced by the inſtigation of the deuill, and minding the hurt vndoing and impoueriſhment of diuerſe of the kings true and faithfull ſubiectes, as enemies to the common wealth of this realme, and as no true or obedient ſubiectes vnto the kinges maieſtie, of their malicious and wicked mindes, haue of late inuented and practiſed a newe damnable kinde of vice diſpleaſure and damniſheng of the kings true ſubiects and the common welth of this realme, as in ſecrete burning of frames of timber prepared & made by the owners thereof redie to be ſet vp and edified for houſes, cutting out of heads and dampnes of pooles, motes, ſtewes, and ſeuerall waters, cutting of conduite heads or conduite pipes, burning of waines and carts loden with coles or other goods, burning of heapes of wood, cut, felled and prepared for making of coles, cutting out of beaſtes tongues, cutting off the eares of the kings ſubiectes, barking of appell trees, peare trees, and other fruite trees, and diuerſe other like kindes of miſerable offences, to the great diſpleaſure of almightie God, and of the kinges maieſtie, and to the moſt euill and pernicious example, that hath bene ſeene in this realme. For remedie whereof be it enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time after the firſt day of Maie next enſuing maliciouſlie, vnlawfullie, willingly and ſecretelie burne or cauſe to be burned, cut or cauſe to bee cut or deſtroyed any frame or frames of timber of anie other perſon or perſons, made and prepared, or hereafter to be made or prepared, for or towardes the making of any houſe or houſes ſo that the ſame ſhall not be able for the purpoſe, for the which it was prepared: that then euerie ſuch act and actes ſo to be committed, perpetrated and done by anie perſon or perſons, ſhall be demed and adiudged felonie: and the offendour or offendours therein, being lawfullie conuicted or attainted, ſhall haue and ſuffer paynes of death, and ſhall loſe and forfaite goods and cattalles for euer, and the profites of their landes, tenementes and hereditamentes for terme of his or their liues.

Chap.7.

WHere in the parliament begunne at Weſtminſter, the ſixteenth daie of Ianuarie, in the thirtie three yeere of the kinges maieſties reigne, it was enacted amongeſt other thinges that all and ſinguler the iuſtices of peace, within anie ſhire, citie, borough or place within this realme of Englande, Wales or anie other the kinges dominions, ſhoulde yeerelie at the generall ſeſſions of the peace, to bee holden next after the feaſt of Eaſter, aſſemble them ſelues together, that is to ſaie, euerie number of them within the limittes of their commiſſions, wherein they be named iuſtices of peace: and at and vpon ſuch their aſſemblie, ſhoulde diligentlie together amongeſt them ſelues peruſe, examine, ſtudie and knowe the effectes and true intentes of the lawes ſtatutes ordinaunces and prouiſions hereafter ſpecified: that is to ſaie, the lawes and ſtatutes heretofore made and prouided, concerning or in anie wiſe touching vacaboundes, retainours, giuing liueries, ſignes, tokens or badges, mainteinaunce, imbracerie, bowſtaues, and archerie, vnlawfull games, forſtallers and regratours, vitaile, vittailers, and inholders, and euerie of them, and of all ſtatutes and lawes made in the ſame parliament, touching the ſame or anie of them: And after the peruſing and deliberate vnderſtanding of the ſaide lawes ſtatutes and ordinaunces, they ſhoulde deuiſe amongeſt them ſelues, howe the ſame myght bee beſt put in due and iuſt execution and for the better proceeding therein, they ſhoulde deuide and ſeuer them ſelues, limitting and aſſigning allwayes the number of two of them at the leaſt, or more, into hundredes wapintakes, rapes, commotes, or number of townes and villages by their diſcretions. And that the ſaide iuſtices ſo deuided, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhoulde in euerie quarter of the yeere, from and after the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter then next comming, holde and keepe, within the limits of their diuiſions, one ſeſſions, beſide the generall quarter ſeſſions for the peace. The ſaide one ſeſſions to be kept and holden allwaies within the limits of their deuiſion, at and in one ſuch daie, as by them ſhoulde bee appointed: ſo that it bee allwayes ſixe weekes at the leaſt before the quarter ſeſſions. And that all proces and proceedinges in euerie of the ſaide ſeſſions ſo to be holden, ſhoulde be continued from ſeſſions to ſeſſions. And that the ſaide iuſtices, or two of them at the leaſt, at and in euery ſuch ſeſſions, ſhould haue power and auctority to enquire as well by the othes of twelue men, inhabitantes within the limits of their diuiſion, as by anie information giuen to them by any perſon or perſons, of all defaultes offences and contemptes done and committed, or that hereafter to be done or committed againſt the forme of euerie of the ſtatutes aforeſaide and to heare and determine the ſame. And ſhoulde alſo haue power and auctoritie vpon euery preſentment or information touching the premiſſes or any of them, to make proces by Venire facias, one Capias, and an Exigent, vnder the ſeales of the ſame iuſtices, or two of them, againſt euery ſuch perſon and perſons, againſt whom any ſuch information or preſentment ſhoulde bee had for their appearaunce afore them in their ſeſſions, to bee holden as is aforeſayde, to anſwere to ſuch information or preſentment as ſhoulde be there had or made. And if the perſon or perſons accuſed by information or preſentment, ſhoulde bee conuict vpon anie ſuch information or preſentment, by confeſſion or verdite of twelue men, that then the ſaide iuſtices of peace, or two of them, afore whom ſuch conuiction ſhoulde be had, ſhoulde haue power and auctoritie, to giue iudgement againſt euerie ſuch offendour & offendours ſo conuict of ſuch paines by impriſonment, or ſuch paines loſſes and forfaitures of monie or both, or anie of them, as are limitted in the ſaide ſeuerall ſtatutes for ſuch offences whereof they ſhoulde bee ſo conuicted, and cauſe execution thereof to bee made and had accordinglie. And alſo the ſaide iuſtices of peace, or two of them, at and in their ſaide ſeſſions to bee holden (as is aforeſaide) ſhoulde haue power and auctoritie to correct and reforme the panelles of iuries for anie inquiries to bee made afore them touching the ſaide ſtatutes or anie of them, in like maner and forme as iuſtices of gaole deliuerie and of peace might doe in their ſeſſions by vertue of a ſtatute made thereof in the thirde yéere of our moſt dread ſouereigne lorde the kinges reigne that nowe is. And that the ſhirife and other miniſters, hauing power to retourne panelles, ſhoulde make his and their retournes according to ſuch reformation or correction of the iuſtices aforeſaide, vpon the paine limitted by the ſame ſtatute, as by the ſame ſtatute made in the ſaide xxxiii. yéere of the kings maieſties reigne that nowe is, more plainely doth and may appeare.

Repeale.

And for as much as the kinges moſt louing ſubiectes are much trauailed and otherwiſe encumbred in comming and keeping of the ſaide ſixe weekes ſeſſions, to their coſtes charges and vnquietneſſe, be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoureigne lorde, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that the ſaide former act, made in the ſaide thirtie thrée yeere of the kings maieſties reigne, and all ordinaunces articles prouiſions and things therein conteined, ſhall be from henceforth repealed adnulled and vtterlie voyde and of none effect, to all intentes, conſtructions and purpoſes. And that all and euerie article therein conteined ſhall be, by vertue thereof, inquired of before all iuſtices of peace, at their auncient quarter ſeſſions, ſhall haue like power and auctoritie, by vertue hereof to puniſh and reforme all and euery ſuch offence and offences, in like maner and forme as they might haue done by vertue of the ſaide former act, made in the ſaide xxxiii. yéere of the kings reigne.

For reformation thereof, bee it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lorde, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that from the feaſt of the natiuitie of our Lorde God next comming, theſe wordes, vi & armis, videlicet, cum baculis cultellis arcubus & ſagittis, or ſuch other like, ſhall not of neceſſitie bee put or compriſed in anie inquiſition or inditement: nor that the partie or parties being hereafter indited of anie offence, ſhall haue or take anie aduauntage by writ or writtes of Error plée or otherwiſe to adnull or auoyde anie ſuch inquiſition or inditement, for that the ſayde wordes, vi & armis videlicet baculis cultellis arcubus & ſagittis, or anie of the ſame or like wordes, ſhall not be put or compriſed in the ſayde inquiſitions, or inditementes: But that the ſame inquiſitions or inditementes, and euerie of them, lacking the ſayde wordes, vi & armis, videlicet baculis cultellis arcubus & ſagittis, or anie of them, ſhall from thenceforth, by the auctoritie aforeſayde, bee taken déemed and adiudged to all intentes conſtructions and purpoſes, as góod and effectuall in the lawe, as the ſame inquiſitions and inditementes, hauing the ſaide wordes, vi & armis, videlicet, baculis cultellis arcubus & ſagittis, compriſed and put in euerie of the ſame inquiſitions and inditements were or heretofore haue bene taken déemed or adiudged: anie lawe vſage or cuſtome heretofore had and vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Where diuerſe malicious and euill diſpoſed perſons, of their peruerſe cruell and maliciouſe intentes, minding the vtter vndoing of ſome perſons, to whom they haue and do beare malice hatred & euil will, haue of late moſt diuelliſhlie practiſed & deuiſed diuers writings, wherein hath bene compriſed, ẏ the ſame perſons, to whom they beare malices, ſhould ſpeake traiterous wordes againſt the kingsmaieſtie, his crowne and dignitie, or commit diuerſe heinous and deteſtable treaſons againſt the kinges highneſſe (where in verie deede the perſons ſo accuſed, neuer ſpake ne committed anie ſuch offence) and the ſame writinges, ſo deuiſed written and made, haue caſt abrode, and left in places, where they mought be and haue bene founde without ſubſcribing or writing the true name of the ſaide accuſer, or auowing and approuing, the ſame to be true before the king or his councell, by reaſon whereof, diuerſe of the kings true faithfull and louing ſubiectes haue bene put in feare and dread of their liues, and of the loſſe and forfaiture of their landes tenementes goods and cattalles.

An act for the marſhes beſide Greenwiche.

Cap.11.

For ſo much as the marſhes, called the newe marſhes and Combe marſhes, in the pariſh of Eaſt Greenwiche, in the countie of Kent bene ſundrie times in great perill, and daunger of ouerflowing, by reaſon of the raging floods and great tides, that woulde breake in there, if the ſeuerall owners of the ſayde marſhes, ſhoulde not circumſpectlie prouide for the defence thereof from time to time, by making amending and repairing the bankes of the ſame: And all be it, that the moſt part of the owners of the ſayde marſhes bee continuallie charged with the reparations of the bankes of the ſame, paieng after a rate for the acre, yet ſome owners thereof be, which haue not nor will not pay anie thing, nor in anie wiſe be contributorie towardes the amendment and reparations there: by reaſon whereof the ſaide bankes be not duelie nor conuenientlie repaired, to the great perill and daunger of ouerflowing and drowning of the ſaide marſhes, and to the great loſſe and hinderaunce of diuerſe of your graces louing ſubiectes as well being owners of the ſame, as to an infinite number of other, that bee dailie refreſhed, and haue great ſuſtentacion by the ſame. In conſideration whereof it may pleaſe his highneſſe, with the aduiſe of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that it may be eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as nowe be, or which hereafter ſhall be owners of the ſayde marſhes, or of any parcell thereof, ſhall at all times after the ende of this ſeſſion of this preſent parliament, pay and be contributorie, and chargeable towardes the reparation and amendment of the ſayde marſhes from time to time, after the rate of the acre, as other owners there haue heretofore bene charged. And that by auctoritie aforeſayde it ſhall be lawfull to the expenditours and collectours, or one of them from time to time, when anie ſeſſe or taxe ſhall bee had or made in that behalfe, to diſtraigne the goods and cattalles of ſuch perſons, that ſhall refuſe to paie after ſuch rate, and the ſame diſtreſſes to retaine keepe and vſe according to the lawes of Romney marſh in ſuch behalfe heretofore vſed.

An act for tithes in London.

Chap.12

Where of late time contencion ſtrife and variaunce hath riſen and growen within the citie of London and the liberties of the ſame, betweene the perſons, vicars, and curates, of the ſaide citie and the citizens, and inhabitauntes, of the ſame for and concerning the paimentes of tithes, oblations and other duties within the ſaide citie and liberties. For appeaſing thereof a certaine order and decree was made thereof by the moſt reuerende father in God Thomas archbiſhop of Canterburie metropolitane chiefe primat of all Englande, Thomas Audeley knight lorde Audeley of Walden, and then lorde chaunceller of Englande nowe deceſſed, and other of the kinges maieſties moſt honourable priuie counſaile and alſo the kinges letters patentes and proclamation was made thereof and directed to the ſaide citizens concerning the ſame, where vpon it was after enacted in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation the fourth daie of Februarie in the xxvii. yeere of the kings maieſties moſt noble reigne, by auctoritie of the ſame parliament, that the citizens and inhabitauntes of the ſame citie ſhoulde at Eaſter then next comming, paie vnto the curates of the ſaide citie and ſuburbes, all ſuch and like ſummes of monie for tithes oblations and other duties, as the ſaid citizens and inhabitantes by the order of the ſaide late lorde chaunceller and other of the kinges moſt honourable counſaile and the kinges ſaide proclamation, paide or ought to haue paide by force and vertue of the ſaide order at Eaſter, which was in the yeere of our lorde God, M.D.xxxv. and the ſame paimentes ſo to continue from time to time, vntill ſuch time as anie other order or lawe ſhoulde be made publiſhed ratified and confirmed by the kinges highneſſe, and the xxxii. perſons by his grace to be named as well for the full ſtabliſhment concerning the paiment of all tithes, oblations and other dueties of the inhabitantes within the ſaide citie ſuburbes and liberties of the ſame, as for the making of other eccleſiaſticall lawes of this realme of Englande, and that euerie perſon denieng to pay, as is aforeſaide, ſhoulde by the commaundement of the maior of London for the time being, bee committed to priſon, there to remaine vntill ſuch time as he or they ſhoulde haue agreed with the curate or curates for their ſaide tithes, oblations, and other duties, as is aforeſaide, as in the ſaide act more plainelie appeareth: Sithen which act diuerſe variaunces, contencions and ſtriues are newly riſen and growen betweene the ſaide perſons, vicars, and curates, and the ſaide citizens and inhabitauntes touching the paimentes of their tithes oblations and other dueties by reaſon of certaine wordes and termes ſpecified in the ſayde order, which are not ſo plainlie and fullie ſet forth, as is thought conuenient and meete to be: for appeaſing thereof, as well the ſaide perſons vicars and curates, as the ſaide citizens and inhabitauntes haue compromitted and put them ſelues to ſtande to ſuch order and decree touching the premiſſes, as ſhall bee made by the ſayde right reuerende father in God Thomas archbiſhop of Caunterburie, metropolitane and prymate of Englande, the right honorable ſir Thomas Wryotheſley knight lorde Wryothſley and lorde chaunceller of Englande, the right honorable Thomas duke of Norffolke, lorde Treaſurer of Englande, the right honorable ſir William Pawlet knight, lorde ſaint John, lorde preſident of the counſaile and lorde great maſter of the kinges moſt honorable houſholde, the right honorable ſir John Ruſſell knight lorde Ruſſell, and lorde priuieſeale, the right honorable Edwarde Earle of Herefforde, lorde great Chamberlaine of Englande, the right honorable John vicounte Lyſle high admirall of Englande, ſir Richarde Lyſter knight chiefe iuſtice of Englande, ſir Edwarde Mountague knight chiefe iuſtice of the common bench at Weſtminſter, and ſir Roger Cholmeley knight, chiefe Barne of the eſchequer, for a finall ende and concluſion to be had and made touching the premiſſes for euer. And to the intent to haue a full peace and perfite ende betweene the ſayde parties their heires and ſucceſſours, touching the ſayde tithes, oblations and other dueties for euer: Bee it enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that ſuch ende order and direction as ſhall bee made decreede and concluded by the forenamed archbiſhop lordes and knightes, or anie ſixe of them, before the firſt daie of March next enſuing, of for and concerning the paymentes of the tithes, oblations and other dueties within the ſaide citie, and the liberties of the ſame, and enrolled in the kinges high courte of chancerie of record, ſhall ſtand remaine and be as an act of parliament, and ſhall binde as well all citizens and inhabitauntes of the ſayde citie and liberties for the time being, as the ſayde perſons vicars curates and their ſucceſſours for euer, according to the effect purporte and intent of the ſaide order & decree ſo to be made & inrolled. And that euerie perſon denieng to paie anie of his or their tithes, oblacions or other dueties contrarie to the ſaide decree ſo to be made ſhall by the commandement of the Maior of London for the time being, and in his defaulte or negligence by the lorde chaunceller of Englande for the time being, bee committed to priſon, there to remaine till ſuch time as he or they haue agreede with the curate and curates for his or their ſaide tithes oblations and other dueties, as is aforeſaide. Impriſon.

An act repealing the act made for pinnes.

Chap.13

Where in the parliament holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the xxii. daie of Januarie in the xxxiiii. yeere of our ſoueraigne lordes reigne that nowe is, and there continued and kept till the twentie two daie of Maie, in the xxxv. yeere of his ſaide reigne, it was enacted, that no maner perſon or perſons, from and after the firſt daie of Auguſt, then next enſuing, ſhoulde vent vtter or put to ſale, by retaile engroſſe or otherwiſe, anie maner pinnes within this realme, but onelie ſuch as ſhould be double headed, and haue the heads ſoudered faſt to the ſhanke of the pinne, well ſmothed the ſhanke well ſhauen, the point well and rounde filed, canted and ſharped, vpon paine that euerie offender in that behalfe ſhoulde loſe and forfaite for euerie thouſande of pinnes, not ſufficientlie wrought and made, vented vttered or put to ſale, contrarie to the purporte of the ſaide act fortie ſhillinges: the one halfe of the ſaide forfaiture to be to the kings maieſtie, and the other halfe to any his graces ſubiectes that woulde ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action of debt, information, or otherwiſe, in anie courte of recorde, wherein the defendant ſhoulde not wage his lawe, nor anie eſſoine protection or foreine plee allowed or admitted: anie lawe ſtatute or ordinaunce before that time made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding, as by this ſaide act more at large doeth appeare. At which time the pinners plainelie affirmed and promiſed to ſerue the kings liege people well and ſufficientlie, and at a reaſonable price. And for as much as ſince the making of the ſaide act there hath bene ſcarcitie of pinnes within this realme, that the kinges liege people haue not bene well nor competentlie ſerued of ſuch pinnes nor are like to be ſerued, nor the pinners of this realme, (as it doth nowe manifeſtlie appeare) be able to ſerue the people of this realme, according to their ſaide promiſe. In conſideration whereof, it may pleaſe the king our ſoucreigne lord, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, & by auctoritie of the ſame, that it may be eſtabliſhed and enacted that the ſaide act made in the ſaide thirtie foure & thirtie fiue yeere of his gracious reigne, concerning making of pinnes, and euerie thing therein conteined, may be made, adiudged and deemed from henceforth fruſtrate and nihilated, and to be repealed for euer, as though the ſaide act in that behalfe had neuer bene made or prouided.

Repeale.

Prouided alwaie, and bee it enacted by the ſayde auctoritie, that all actions, billes, plaints, and informations nowe commenced or depending in the kinges courtes of the eſchequer, kinges bench, or common place of or for anie offence done to the contrarie to the tenure of the ſayde former act, ſhall continue and be in their force and ſtrength: and all iudgementes and executions therein to be ſued and had in ſuch maner and forme, as if this act of repeale had neuer be had or made.

An act for the maintenance of the peere at Scarburgh.

Chap.14

IN moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your highneſſe your true and faithfull ſubiectes, the bailiffes and communaltie of your towne of Scarburgh, in the countie of Yorke, that where of olde antiquitie, as well the inhabitantes and dwellers within your ſayde towne, as all other both your graces ſubiectes and ſtraungers, hauing anie entercourſe, paſſing or repaſſing from anie porte or hauen of this realme of Englande, or from beyonde the ſea, to your porte or hauen of Scarburgh, haue had for their ſhippes, botes and veſſelles, goods and marchaundiſes within the keye or peere in the hauen of Scarburgh, at all times, good, ſure, and ſafe harborowe, and haue had in the ſayd hauen franke egreſſe and enteraunce with their ſhippes and other veſſels at all tides, and at euerie full ſea, by reaſon whereof as well all maner of marchauntes as fiſhermen, being on the ſeas in anie aduerſitie, tempeſt, or perill on the North coſt, haue euer bene accuſtomed to reſorte thither for their ſafegardes and aſſuraunce, as well of mens liues as veſſelles, goods, and marchaundiſes: by meanes of which great reſorte, the ſaide towne was well inhabited, and the inhabitauntes thereof well occupied, as well with ſundrie good occupations, as with fiſhing and making or drieng of fiſh, to the great commoditie and profite to the dwellers within the ſaide towne and the countrie there vnto neere adioyning, as of all other marchauntes of this realme thither reſorting and comming: by occaſion whereof your highneſſe cuſtome dyd yeerelie extende vnto a good and large ſumme of money at the ſayde hauen. And alſo all the owners of all the meſuages, landes, and tenementes within the precinct of the ſaide towne dyd ſet and let their ſaide meſuages, landes and tenementes at great rentes or fermes to their great aduauntages and profites: vnto nowe of late and within fewe yeeres, that the ſayde keye or peere within the ſayde hauen, by the flood and rage of the ſea, comming to the ſayde towne, and inſurgeing ouer and vpon the ſayde keye or peere in times of tempeſt, hath freated and broken downe, and meruellouſlie worne alway the ſaide keye or peere, in ſo much that the ſaide hauen is not of late yeeres ſo haunted and frequented with ſhips and veſſelles, as heretofore it hath bene accuſtomed and vſed, to the great inpoueriſhing of the inhabitantes and dwellers in the ſaide towne, and to the great decaie of the number of the ſame, and to the hinderaunce and miniſhing of the rentes and fermes of the meſuages, landes, and tenementes within the precinctes, limits and boundes of the ſaide towne of Scarburgh, in ſo much that a great number of the ſaide landes and tenementes nowe are fallen downe decaied and at this time remaine vnreedified, lieng as deſolate, in voyde ground, which within fewe yeeres woulde be amended and reedified, and might be ſet or letten for much greater rentes or fermes, then they be at this time, if the ſayde keye or peere were repaired and made againe, that ſhips, boates, and other veſſelles might haue harber in the ſaide hauen, and courſe and recourſe in and forth, as hath bene in times paſt, which keye or peere being nowe ſo farre decaied, that the inhabitauntes of the ſayde towne the tenants and fermors of the ſaide meſuages, lands, and tenements, are not able to reedifie, repaire or amende, without the owners of the ſaide meſuages, landes, and tenements, may be compelled to be yéerely contributers and helpers vnto the ſame. In conſideration whereof be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the kings maieſtie and the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, in manner and forme as hereafter following ſhall appeare. That is to ſaye, the king our ſoueraigne lorde, by the authoritie aforeſaide, ordeineth, maketh, eſtabliſheth, and erecteth a certeine corporation or bodie politike of the number of two perſons, commonly to be called for euer, the maiſters or kéepers of the keye or péere of Scarburgh, which corporation or bodie politike, by authoritie aforeſaide, continually and for euer ſhall remaine and abide a perfect corporation or body politike. And the ſaid maiſters or kéepers, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall and may be at all time and times hereafter enabled and authoriſed to ſue and pleade, and be ſued and empleaded by the name of maiſters or keepers of the ſaide key or péere of Scarburgh: and alſo ſhall haue one ſeale, which ſhall be called the common ſeale.

And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the bailifes, coroners and ſearchers of occupations of the ſaide towne of Scarburgh, and their ſucceſſors, for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by vertue of this acte, to elect, nominate and chooſe at the common hall within the ſaide towne of Scarburgh, two ſufficient, diſcréete and honeſt perſons, dwelling within the ſaide towne of Scarburgh, or the limittes of the ſame, to be maiſters & kéepers of the ſaide key or peere by the ſpace of thrée yeeres next enſuing their election: Which election, by the authoritie aforeſaid, ſhall be the firſt daie of Februarie next enſuing. After which election ſo had and made, and knowledge thereof giuen by the ſaide bailifes, coroners and ſearchers, the ſaid perſons ſo elected and choſen to be maiſters and keepers of the ſaide key or peere, ſhall allwayes vpon their election, and notice thereof giuen, in forme aforeſaide, enter into their ſaide office, in the feaſt of the Purification of our bleſſed Lady Saint Marie the virgin, and from thenceforth ſhall continually remaine and abyde in the ſaide office by the ſpace of thrée yéeres next enſuing their election. And the ſaide bailifes, coroners, and ſearchers, and their ſucceſſors, for the time being, ſhall at all time and times hereafter, at the ende of thrée yéeres make a newe election, in forme aforeſaide, of two other perſons, to be maiſters and kéepers of the ſaide key or péere, to vſe, exerciſe, and occupy the ſaide office, in manner and forme as before by this preſent act is ſpecified and declared.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that if anie perſon or perſons, which hereafter ſhall be choſen by the ſaide bailifes, coroners, and ſearchers, and their ſucceſſors, for the time being, to be maiſters or keepers of the ſaide key or péere, do refuſe to take vppon them the ſaide roume and office, or to vſe and exerciſe the ſame, according to the forme of this preſent act: that then he or they, or either of them, ſo refuſing ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery time, that any ſuch refuſell is had or made, fourtie ſhillings to the next maiſters and kéeper, and their ſucceſſors of the ſaide keye or peere, the ſame to be beſtowed and employed vpon the repayring and mainteining of the ſame key or peere. For which forfeiture of xl.s. the ſaide maiſters and kéepers, & their ſucceſſors, ſhall diſtreigne the landes, goods and cattals of him or them that ſhal loſe or forfeit the ſame, lying or being within the towne of Scarburgh or the precinctes of the ſame, to haue an action of dette by writte, bill or plaint in anie of the kings courtes, or in anie other court, who hath authoritie or cogniſance to holde plea of dette.

And be it further enacted, that the foreſaide maiſters and keepers and their ſucceſſors hereafter ſhall yeerely leuye, receiue, and haue of al and euerie perſon and perſons, being owner or owners, and hauing eſtate of inheritance, or being tenant by the curteſie, or tenant in dower, of any meſuage or meſuages, tenement or tenements, or anie kind of rentes, gardeins, orchardes, or other lands, groundes, or hereditaments, ſet, ſituate or lying within the precincs limits or bondes of the ſaide towne of Scarburgh, or the liberties and iuriſdictions of the ſame, or of any kind of rent or rents, being due to be payde forth, or for anie of the ſame to, for, and towardes the reparations, amending and building, and for maintenance of the ſame keye or peere: the firſt parte of the yerely rent of all ſuch meſuages, tenements, gardeins, orchardes, lands, groundes or hereditaments, lying within the precinctes, limits and bonds aforeſaid, to be hereafter yerely payde vnto the ſame maiſters and keepers of the ſaid keye or peere, for the time being, by the fermors or occupiers of euery of the ſaid meſuages, tenements, and other the premiſſes, at the feaſtes of Pentecoſt and ſaint Martine in Winter, euery yeere by euen porcions. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the firſt payment ſhall begin at the feaſt of Pentecoſt, next enſuing the making of this preſent act.

An Act, that doctors of ciuill lawe, being married, may exerciſe eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction.

Chap.17 In moſt humble wiſe ſhewe and declare vnto your highnes, your moſt faithfull humble and obedient ſubiectes, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons of this preſent parliament aſſembled, that where your moſt royall maieſtie is, and hath alwayes iuſtly béene by the worde of God ſupreme head in earth of the church of Englande, and hath full power and authority to correct, puniſh and repreſſe all manner of hereſies, errors, vices, ſinnes, abuſes, idolatries, hypocriſies, and ſuperſtitions, ſprongen and growing within the ſame, and to exerciſe all other maner of iuriſdictions commonly called eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction. Neuertheleſſe the biſhop of Rome and his adherentes, minding vtterly as much as in him laye to aboliſh, obſcure, and delete ſuch power, giuen by God to the princes of the earth, whereby they might gather and get to themſelues the gouernement and rule of the worlde, haue in their counſailes and ſinodes prouinciall made, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, and decréede diuers ordinances and conſtitutions, that no laye, or married man ſhould or might exerciſe or occupie anie iuriſdiction eccleſiaſticall nor ſhoulde be any iudge or regiſter in anie court, commonly called eccleſiaſticall court, leſt their falſe & vſurped power, which they pretended and went about to haue in Chriſtes church, ſhoulde decay, ware vile, and of no reputation, as by the ſaide counſelles and conſtitutions prouinciall appeareth: which ſtanding and remaining in their effect, not aboliſhed by your graces lawes, did ſounde to appeare to make greatly for the ſaide vſurped power of the ſaide Biſhop of Rome, and to be directly repugnant to your maieſtie of ſupreame heade of the Church and prerogatiue royall, your grace being a lay man. And all be it the ſaide decrees, ordinances, and conſtitutions by a ſtatute made in the twentie and fifth yéere of your moſte noble reigne, bee vtterly aboliſhed, fruſtrate, and of none effecte, yet becauſe the contrarie thereunto is not vſed nor put in practiſe by the Archebiſhops, Biſhops, Archedeacons and other eccleſiaſticall perſons, who haue no manner of iuriſdiction eccleſiaſticall, but by, vnder, and from your royall maieſtie, it addeth or at the leaſt may giue occaſion to ſome euill diſpoſed perſons, thinke and little to regarde the proceedings and cenſures eccleſiaſticall made by your highneſſe and your vicegerent, officials, commiſſaries, iudges, and viſitators, being alſo laie and maried men, to be of little or none effecte or force, whereby the people gathereth hart and preſumption to doo euill, and not to haue ſuch reuerence to your moſt godlie iniunctions and proceedings, as becommeth them. But for as much as your maieſtie, is the onelie and vndoubted ſupreme head of the church of England, and alſo of Ireland, to whom by holie ſcripture all auctoritie and power is wholie giuen to heare and determine all maner cauſes eccleſiaſticall, and to correcte vice and ſinne whatſoeuer, and to all ſuch perſons as your maieſtie ſhall appoint there vnto: That in conſideration thereof, aſwell for the inſtruction of ignorant perſons, as alſo to auoide the occaſion of the opinion aforeſaide, and ſetting forth of your prerogatiue roiall and ſupremacie. It may therefore pleaſe your highneſſe, that it may be ordained and enacted by auctoritie of this preſent parliament, that all and ſinguler perſons, as well laie as thoſe that now be maried or hereafter ſhall be maried, being doctours of the ciuill lawe, lawfullie create and made in anie vniuerſitie, which ſhall be made, ordained, conſtituted and deputed to be anie chauncellour, vicar generall, commiſſarie officiall, ſcribe, or regiſter by your maieſtie or anie of your heires or ſucceſſours to be anie archbiſhop biſhop archdeacon or other perſon what ſoeuer, hauing auctoritie vnder your maieſtie your heires and ſucceſſours to make anie chauncellour, vicar generall, commiſſarie, officiall, or regiſter, may lawfullie execute and exerciſe all maner of iuriſdiction commonlie called eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, and all cenſures and coerſions appertaining or in anie wiſe belonging vnto the ſame, albeit ſuch perſon or perſons be laie maried, or vnmaried, ſo that they be doctours of the ciuill lawe, as is aforeſaide, anie lawe, conſtitution, or ordinance to the contrarie notwithſtanding:

Chap.23

WHere in diuerſe and ſundꝛie places within this realme of Englande, there be manie and ſundꝛie perſonages, the glebes, tithes, and yéerelie reuenewes and pꝛofites, whereof be not ſufficient to find a pꝛeeſt oꝛ curate to ſerue oꝛ miniſter to the pariſhioners thereof within a myle oꝛ leſſe of the church, of which pooꝛe perſonages there is in manie places an other church parteining to another pariſh, ſtanding as neceſſarie and commodiouſly foꝛ the acceſſe of the pariſhioners of the other pooꝛe pariſh, as their owne doeth. rations, ornamentes and other accuſtomed dueties parteining to a churche, bee much greater then may be well reiſed or borne amongeſt ſuch poore pariſhioners, and might and ſhoulde be eaſed and remedied by the vniting and knitting of ſuch two churches in one. It may therefore pleaſe the kinges roiall maieſtie, with the aſſent of his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame that it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed, that a vnion or conſolidation of two churches in one, or of a church and chapell in one, the one of them not being aboue the yeerely value of ſixe poundes, as it is rated and valued at to the kinges highneſſe, in his courte of the firſt fruites and tenthes, and not diſtante from the other aboue one mile in anie place or places within this realme of Englande, maie be from henceforth had or made by the aſſent of the ordinarie and ordinaries of the dioceſe, where ſuch churches and chappelles ſtanden, and by the aſſentes of the incumbentes of them, and of all ſuch as haue a iuſt right title and intereſt to the patronages of the ſame churches and chapels, being then of full age. And that all ſuch vnions and conſolidations had or made of two churches in one, or of a church and chappell in one, as is aforeſaide, ſhall bee good, ſufficient, lawfull, firme, ſtable and auailable in the law to remaine endure and continue for euer vnited and knit in one, in ſuch maner & forme, as by writing or writings vnder the ſeales of ſuch ordinaries, incumbents and patrons it ſhall be declared and ſet forth.

Tenthes. Firſt fruites.

And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that all vnions and conſolidations of all churches and chappelles, which haue heretofore bene vnited or knit to gether in one by the aſſent of the ordinaries incumbentes and true and lawfull patrons in fee ſimple of them, as is aforeſaide ſhall alſo remaine and be from henceforth adiudged & deemed in the lawe to endure & continue for euer vnited & knit in one, without anie diſſolution vndoing vnknitting or repeale of them or anie of them, by anie maner of meane or way. Sauing vnto the kinges maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſours all the tenthes and firſt fruites of all ſuch churches and chapels, as bee heretofore vnited or conſolidated in one, or that hereafter ſhall bee vnited and conſolidated in one, according to the ſame or ſuch like rates and valuations as the ſame churches and chapels or anie of them nowe are rated or valued at, to the kings ſaide maieſtie, in his ſaide highneſſe courte of the firſt fruites and tenthes.

Aſſent.

Prouided alway, that all vnions and conſolidations, and euerie of them, hereafter to bee had or made of anie church or chapell within anie citie or towne corporate within this realme of Englande without the aſſent of the maior ſhirifes and communaltie of the citie, where ſuch churches church or chapell be or ſhall be: Or without the aſſent of ſuch bodies corporate of other townes corporate, where ſuch churches church or chappell be, or ſhall be by the names or their corporations in writing vnder their common ſeale, ſhall be clearelie voyde and of no force ne effect: anie thing before expreſſed, or anie ordinaunce lawe cuſtome or ſtatute to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Value.

Prouided alſo that where the inhabitauntes of anie ſuch poore pariſh or the more part of them, within one yeere next after the vnion or conſolidation of the ſame pariſh, by their writing ſufficient in the lawe, ſhall aſſure the incumbent of the ſaide pariſh for the yeerelie payment of ſo much monie, as with the ſumme that the ſaide pariſh is rated and valued at in the kings highneſſe ſaide courte of the firſt fruites and tenthes, ſhall amount to the full ſumme of eight pounde ſterling, to be leuied and paied yeerelie by the ſaide inhabitaunts to the ſaide incumbent and his ſucceſſors: that then all ſuch vnions or conſolidations hereafter to be had or made of anie ſuch poore pariſh, as is aforeſaide ſhall bee voyde and of none effect: anie thing ſtatuted or ordained to the contrarie hereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that this ſaid prouiſo ſhall not extende to any vnion or conſolidation of anie church or chapell had or made before the making of this eſtatute: anie thing in the ſaid prouiſo mencioned to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

ſhould be whipped and puniſhed, and at the ſaid parliament one other act was made & eſtabliſhed, for the reſtraint of carying and conueying of horſes and mares out of this realme, which ſaid two ſeuerall actes were alſo made to endure to the laſt day of the next parliament, as by the ſame two ſeuerall actes more plainly appeareth, & alſo one other act was there made in the ſaid parliament for the true making of cables, halters and ropes, and alſo one other act for the true winding of wolles, and one other act to reſtraine killing of wainling bullockes, ſteeres and heffers, being vnder the age of two yeeres, which ſaide three ſeuerall actes laſt before remembred, were then made to endure and continue vnto the next parliament, as by the ſame three ſeuerall actes more plainly appeareth. And where alſo in the ſame parliament one other act was made and eſtabliſhed, for the attaintes to be ſued for the puniſhment of periurie vppon vntrue verdictes. And alſo one other act was made there in the ſaide Parliament, concerning ſowing of flaxe and hempe, all which two ſeuerall actes laſt before rehearſed were then made and ordeined to continue and endure to the laſt day of the next parliament, as by the ſame two ſeuerall actes more plainly at large is ſhewed and may appeare. And where alſo in the ſaide Parliament, one other acte was made and eſtabliſhed for making of Gayles in diuers ſhires of this realme, which ſame act was then made to continue and endure for one yeare next after the ende of the ſame parliament as by the ſame act alſo more plainely appeareth. And where alſo in the parliament, begun and holden at Weſtminſter the viii. daie of Iune, in the xxviii. yeare of the raigne of our ſaide moſte dread ſoueraigne lorde king Henry the eight, and there continued and kept vntill the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined and enacted that all and ſinguler the ſaide actes aboue remembred, and euery of them ſhould continue and endure, in their force and ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parliament, as by the ſame actes amongeſt other things therein conteined more plainly appeareth. And where alſo in the parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the xxviii. daie of Aprill, and there continued vntill the xxviii. daie of Iune, in the xxi. yeere of the reigne of our ſaide moſt dread ſoueraigne lorde king Henry the eight, it was ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parliament, that all and ſinguler the ſaide ſeuerall actes aboue remembred, and euery of them, and all clauſes and articles and prouiſions in them and euery of them conteined, ſhould continue and endure in their force and ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parliament, as by the ſame act amongeſt other thinges therein conteined, more plainly appeareth, And where alſo in the laſt ſeſſion of the ſame parliament, begun at Weſtminſter the twelfth daie of Aprill in the ſaide xxxi. yeere of the kings moſt noble raigne, and there by diuers prorogations continued vntill the xxiiii. daie of Iuly, in the xxxii. yeere of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the kings raigne, there was one other act made and eſtabliſhed for and concerning the reformation of miſpleading, Ieofailes, and atturneys, which ſaide act laſt mencioned, with the prouiſo were made to endure vntill the laſt day of the next parliament, as by the ſame act amongeſt other thinges therein conteined more plainely appeareth. And where in the ſame parliament, an act was made concerning buying of fiſh vpon the ſea, and one other act was made concerning the making of Worſted yarne, in the countie of Norffolke, as by the ſame two actes more at large it may and doeth appeare. And alſo one other acte was there made in the ſaide parliament for reaſonable prices of wines to be ſette, and one other acte was made there in the ſaide parliament concerning the ordering and diſcharging of ſhiriſes by their othes, vppon their accomptes, as by the ſame two actes laſt recited more plainly in the ſame actes it doeth appeare. And for as much as all and ſinguler the ſaide ſeuerall actes aboue mencioned, be good and beneficiall for the common wealth of this realme: Be it therefore enacted and ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that the ſaide acte concerning the buying of fiſh vppon the ſea, and the ſaide acte concerning and declaring howe aged and impotent perſons compelled to liue by almes ſhoulde be ordered and vſed, and alſo howe vagabondes and mightie ſtrong beggers ſhoulde be whipped and puniſhed, and all the reſidue of the actes and ſtatutes aboue mentioned, and euery of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions in them and euerie of them conteined, ſhall continue and endure in their force and ſtrength and be obſerued and kepte in all thinges vnto the laſt daie of the next parliament. And where in the ſaide acte concerning the ſetting of prices of wines, it is conteined that the lorde Chauncellor of Englande, lorde Treaſurer, lorde preſident of the kinges counſell, lorde priuie ſeale, and the two chiefe Iuſtices, or fiue, foure, or three of them ſhoulde haue power and authoritie by their diſcretions, to ſet the prices of all kinde of wines, as by the ſame acte more plainely appeareth. Bee it nowe ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaide lorde Chauncellour, lorde Treaſurer, lorde Preſident, lorde Priuie ſeale, and the two chiefe Iuſtices, or fiue, foure or three of them ſhall, yeerely ſette the priſes of all kinde of the ſaid wines mentioned in the ſaide former act betweene the twentieth daie of Nouember, and the laſt daie of December, and at no other time or times, and that all and euery perſon ſelling in groſſe or by retaile: anie of the ſaide wines mentioned in the ſame acte, ſhall not ſell anie of the ſame wines aboue the priſes, ſo by them ſet vppon ſuch paine and forfeiture as bee made and prouided in the ſame Statute made at Weſtminſter the xxviii. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lorde the King.

ANNO PRIMO EDWARDI SEXTI.

Statutes made in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the fourth daie of Nouember in the firſt yeare of the reigne of the late king of worthie memorie
Edward the ſixt by the grace of God king of England France and Ireland, defender of the faith, and of the church of England and alſo of Ireland in earth the ſupreme head: and from thence continued vntill the foure and twentith daie of December then next following.

An Act againſt ſuch perſons as ſhall vnreuerentlie ſpeake againſt the ſacrament of the bodie and bloud of Chriſt, commonlie called the ſacrament of the altar, and for the receiuing thereof vnder both kinds.

The firſt chapter.

THe kings moſt excellent maieſtie, minding the gouernance and order of his moſt louing ſubiects to be in moſt perfect vnitie and concord in all things, and in eſpeciall in the true faith and religion of God, and wiſhing the ſame to be brought to paſſe with all clementie and mercie on his highneſſe part towards them, as his moſt princelie ſerenitie and maieſtie hath alreadie declared by euident proofe, to the intent that his moſt louing ſubiects prouoked by clementie and goodneſſe of their prince & king, ſhall ſtudie rather for loue than for feare to doo their duties, firſt to almightie God, and then to his highneſſe and the common wealth, noriſhing concord and loue among themſelues; yet conſidereth and perceiueth that in a multitude all be not on that ſort, that reaſon and the knowledge of their duties can mooue them from offenſe, but manie which had néed haue ſome bridle of feare, and that the ſame be men moſt contentious and arrogant for the moſt part, or els moſt blind and ignorant: by the means of which ſort of men, manie things well and godlie inſtituted, and to the edification of manie, be peruerted and abuſed, & turned to their owne and others great loſſe and hinderance, & ſome time to extreme deſtruction, the which dooth appéere in nothing more or ſooner, than in matters of religion, and in the great & high myſteries thereof, as in the moſt comfortable ſacrament of the bodie and bloud of our ſauior Jeſus Chriſt, commonlie called the ſacrament of the altar, and in ſcripture, the [a] ſupper and [b] table of the Lord, the [c] communion [d] and partaking of the bodie and bloud of Chriſt: which ſacrament was inſtituted of no leſſe author than of our ſauior, both God and man, when at his laſt ſupper amongſt his apoſtles he did take the bread into his holie hands, and did ſaie [e] Take you and eat, this is my bodie which is [f] giuen and [g] broken for you. And taking vp the [h] chalice or cup, did [i] giue thanks and ſaie, This is my bloud of the new teſtament which is ſhed for you [k] and for [l] manie, for the remiſſion of ſinnes, that [m] whenſoeuer we ſhould doo the ſame, we ſhould doo it in the remembrance of him, and to declare and ſet forth his death and moſt glorious paſſion, vntill his comming. Of the which [n] bread, whoſoeuer eateth, or of the which cup whoſoeuer drinketh vnworthilie, eateth and drinketh condemnation and iudgement to himſelfe, making no difference of the Lords bodie. The inſtitution of which ſacrament being ordeined by Chriſt, as is before ſaid, and the ſaid words ſpoken of it, héere before rehearſed, being of eternall, infallible, and vndoubted truth: yet the ſaid ſacrament (all this notwithſtanding) hath béene of late marueilouſlie abuſed by ſuch maner of men before rehearſed, who of wickedneſſe, or elſe of ignorance & want of learning for certeine abuſes héeretofore committed of ſome, in miſuſing thereof, haue condemned in their harts & ſpéech the whole thing, & contemptuouſlie depraued, deſpiſed, or reuiled the ſame moſt holie and bleſſed ſacrament, and not onelie diſputed and reaſoned vnreuerentlie & vngodlie of that moſt high myſterie, but alſo in their ſermons, preachings, readings, lectures, communications, arguments, talks, rithmes, ſongs, plaies, or geſts, name, or call it by ſuch vile and vnſéemlie words, as chriſtian eares doo abhorre to heare rehearſed. For reformation whereof be it enacted by the kings highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that what ſo euer perſon or perſons, from and after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhall depraue, deſpiſe, or ſontemne the ſaid moſt bleſſed ſacrament in contempt thereof by anie contemptuous words, or by anie words of deprauing, deſpiſing, or reuiling: or what perſon or perſons ſhall aduiſedlie in anie otherwiſe contemne, deſpiſe, or reuile the ſaid moſt bleſſed ſacrament, contrarie to the effects and declaration abouesaid, that then he or they ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies, and make fine and ranſome at the kings will and pleaſure.

And for full and effectuall execution of the premiſſes before deuiſed, ordeined and enacted by this act; be it furthermore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that immediatlie after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, the iuſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, wherof one of them to be of the Quorum, in euerie ſhire of this realme and Wales, & all other places within the kings dominions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, as well to take information and accuſation by the oths and depoſitions of two able, honeſt, and lawfull perſons at the leaſt, & after ſuch accuſation or information ſo had, to inquire by the oths of twelue men in euerie their foure quarter ſeſſions, yéerelie to be holden, of all and ſingular ſuch accuſations, or informations to be had, or made of anie of the offenſes abouesaid, to be committed or doone after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, within the limits of their commiſſion; and that vpon euerie ſuch accuſation and information, the offendor and offendors ſhall be inquired of, and indicted before the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or thrée of them at the leaſt, as is aforeſaid, of the ſaid contempts and offenſes by the verdict of twelue honeſt and indifferent men, if the matter of the ſaid accuſation and information ſhall ſéeme to the ſaid iurie good and true.

And it is alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or thrée of them at the leaſt, as is aforſaid, before whom anie ſuch preſentment, information, and accuſation ſhalbe made or taken, as is aforeſaid, ſhall examine the accuſers what other witneſſe were by and preſent at the time of the dooing & committing of the offenſe, whereof the information, accuſation, and preſentment ſhall be made, and how manie others than the accuſers haue knowledge thereof, and ſhall haue power and authoritie by their diſcretions to bind by recogniſance to be taken before them as well the ſaid accuſers, as all ſuch other perſons whom the ſame accuſers ſhall declare to haue knowledge of the offenſes by them preſented & informed euerie of them in v.pounds to the king, to appéere before the ſaid iuſtices of peace before whome the offendor or offendors ſhall be tried at the daie of triall and deliuerance of ſuch offendors.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or thrée of them at the leaſt, as is abouesaid, by vertue of this act, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to make proceſſe againſt euerie perſon and perſons ſo indicted by two Capias and an exigent, & by Capias vtlagatum, as well within the limits of their commiſſion, as into all other ſhires and places of this realme, Wales, and other the kings dominions, as well within the liberties as without, and the ſame proceſſe to be good and effectuall in the law to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, and vpon the appéerance of anie of the offendors, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by vertue of this act and the commiſſion of peace, to determine the contempts and offenſes aforeſaid, according to the lawes of this realme & effects of this act: and that the ſaid iuſtices of peace or thrée of them at the leaſt, as is abouesaid, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to let anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted, vpon ſufficient ſureties by their diſcretions, to baile, for their appéerance to be tried, according to the tenor, forme, and effect of this act.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that the ſaid iuſtices of peace or thrée of them at the leaſt, at their quarter ſeſſions where anie offendor or offendors ſhall be or ſtand indicted of anie of the contempts or offenſes abouesaid, ſhall direct and award one writ in the kings name to the biſhop of the dioceſſe, wherein the ſaid offenſe or offenſes are ſuppoſed to be committed or doone, willing and requiring the ſaid biſhop to be in his owne perſon, or by his chancellor or other his ſufficient deputie learned, at the quarter ſeſſions in the ſaid countie to be holden, when, and where the ſaid offendor ſhall be arreigned and tried, appointing to them in the ſaid writ the daie and place of the ſaid arreignment, which writ ſhall be of this forme. Rex, &c. Epiſcopo L. ſalutem. Præcipimus tibi, quòd tu, cancellarius tuus, vel alius deputatus tuus ſufficienter eruditus, ſitis cum iuſticiarijs noſtris ad Pacem in comitatu noſtro B. conſeruand' aſſignat' apud D. tali die, ad ſeſſionem noſtram, ad tunc & ibidem tenend' ad dand' conſilium & aduiſament' eiſdem iuſticiarijs noſtris ad pacem ſuper arrainment & deliberationem offendent' contra formam ſtatuti, concernend' ſacroſanctum ſacramentum altaris.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall be indicted of anie of the contempts or offenſes abouesaid, but onlie of ſuch contempts, or offenſes as ſhall be doone or perpetrated within thrée moneths next after the ſaid offenſes or offenſe ſo committed or doone.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in all trials for anie ſuch offendors before the ſaid iuſtices as is aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons being complained on and arreigned, ſhall be admitted to purge or trie his or their innocencie, by as manie or more witneſſes in number, and of as good honeſtie and credence as the witneſſes be which depoſed againſt him, or anie of them.

And foraſmuch as it is more agréeable both to the firſt inſtitution of the ſaid ſacrament of the moſt pretious bodie and bloud of our ſauior Ieſus Chriſt, and alſo more conformable to the common vſe and practiſe both of the apoſtles and of the primitiue church, by the ſpace of fiue hundred yeeres and more after Chriſts aſcenſion, that the ſaid bleſſed ſacrament ſhould be miniſtred to all chriſtian people vnder both the kinds of bread and wine, than vnder the forme of bread onlie, and alſo it is more agréeable to the firſt inſtitution of Chriſt, and to the vſage of the apoſtles & the primitiue church, that the people being preſent ſhould receiue the ſame with the préeſt, than that the préeſt ſhould receiue it alone. Therefore be it enacted by our ſouereigne lord the king, with the conſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid moſt bleſſed ſacrament be héereafter commonlie deliuered and miniſtred vnto the people within the church of England and Ireland, and other the kings dominions vnder both the kinds, that is to ſaie, of bread and wine, except neceſſitie otherwiſe require: and alſo that the préeſt which ſhall miniſter the ſame, ſhall at the leſt one daie before exhort all perſons which ſhall be preſent likewiſe to reſort and prepare themſelues to receiue the ſame. And when the daie prefixed commeth, after a godlie exhortation by the miniſter made (wherein ſhall be further expreſſed the benefit and comfort promiſed to them which worthilie receiue the holie ſacrament, and danger & indignation of God threatned to them which ſhall preſume to receiue the ſame vnworthilie, to the end that euerie man maie trie and examine his owne conſcience before he ſhall receiue the ſame) the ſaid miniſter ſhall not without a lawfull cauſe denie the ſame to anie perſon that will deuoutlie and humblie deſire it, anie law, ſtatute, ordinance, or cuſtome contrarie therevnto in anie wiſe notwithſtanding, not condemning héereby the vſage of anie church out of the kings maieſties dominions.

An act for the election of biſhops, and what ſeales and ſtile they and other ſpirituall perſons exerciſing iuriſdiction eccleſiaſticall, ſhall vſe.

FOraſmuch as the election of the archbiſhops and biſhops by the deanes and chapters, within the kings maieſties realmes of England and Ireland, at this preſent time, be as well to the long delaie, as to the great coſts and charges of ſuch perſons, as the kings maieſtie giueth anie archbiſhoprike, or biſhoprike vnto: and whereas the ſaid elections be in verie déed no elections, but onlie by a writ of Conge deſlier, haue colors, ſhadowes or pretenſes of elections, ſeruing neuertheleſſe to no purpoſe, & ſéeming alſo derogatorie and preiudiciall to the kings prerogatiue roiall, to whome onlie apperteineth the collation & gift of all archbiſhopriks, and biſhopriks, and ſuffragan biſhops, within his highneſſe ſaid realmes of England, & Ireland, Wales, and other his dominions & marches: For a due reformation héereof, be it therfore enacted by the kings highneſſe with the aſſent of the lords, ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth, no ſuch Conge deſlier be granted, nor election of anie archbiſhop or biſhop, by the deane & chapter made, but that the king may by his letters patents at all times, when anie archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike be void, confer the ſame to anie perſon whome the king ſhall thinke méet. The which collation ſo by the kings letters patents made, & deliuered to the perſon, to whom the king ſhall confer the ſame archbiſhoprike, or biſhoprike, or to his ſufficient proctor and atturnie, ſhall ſtand to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, to aſmuch & the ſame effect, as though Conge deſlier had béene giuen, the election dulie made, and the ſame confirmed: and that vpon the ſaid perſon, to whome the ſaid archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, or ſuffraganſhip is ſo conferred, collated, or giuen, may be conſecrated, and ſue his liuerie, or Ouſter le maine, and doo other things as well, as if the ſaid ceremonies and elections had béene doone and made.

Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by authoritie aboueſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon, to whom anie collation, or gift of anie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, or ſuffraganſhip ſhall be giuen or collated by the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall paie, doo, and yéeld, to all and euerie perſon, all ſuch fées, intereſts, and duties, as of old time hath béene accuſtomed to be doone: anie thing in this act, or in anie other, to the contrarie héereof, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And whereas the archbiſhops and biſhops, and other ſpirituall perſons in this realme doo vſe to make and ſend out their ſummons, citations, and other proceſſe in their owne names, and in ſuch forme and maner, as was vſed in the time of the vſurped power of the biſhop of Rome, contrarie to the forme and order of the ſummons and proceſſe of the common law vſed in this realme: ſéeing that all authoritie of iuriſdiction, ſpirituall and temporall, is deriued & deducted from the kings maieſtie as ſupreame head of theſe churches and realmes of England and Ireland, & ſo iuſtlie acknowleged by the clergie of the ſaid realms, and that all courts eccleſiaſticall, within the ſaid two realmes be kept by no other power, or authoritie either forren, or within the realme, but by the authoritie of his moſt excellent maieſtie. Be it therfore further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſummons and citations, or other proceſſe eccleſiaſticall, in all ſutes and cauſes of inſtance betwixt partie and partie, and all cauſes of correction, & all cauſes of baſtardie or bigamie, or inquirie De iure patronatus, probats of teſtaments, & commiſſions of adminiſtration of perſons deceaſed, and all acquitances, of, and vpon accounts made by the executors, adminiſtrators, or collectors of goods of anie dead perſon, be from the firſt day of Iulie next following made in the name, and with the ſtile of the king, as it is in writs originall, or iudiciall at the common law: and that the Teſte thereof be in the name of the archbiſhop or biſhop, or other hauing eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, who hath the commiſſion and grant of the authoritie eccleſiaſticall, immediatlie from the kings highneſſe, & that his commiſſarie, officiall, or ſubſtitute exerciſing iuriſdiction vnder him, ſhall put his name in the citation, or proceſſe after the Teſte.

Furthermore, be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of perſon or perſons, who hath the exerciſe of eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, ſhall haue from the firſt daie of Iulie before expreſſed, in their ſeales of office, the kings highneſſe armes decentlie ſet with certeine characts vnder the armes,for the knowlege of the dioceſſe: and ſhall vſe no other ſeale of iuriſdiction,but wherein his maieſties armes be ingrauen, vpon paine that if anie perſon ſhall vſe eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction (after the daie before expreſſed) in this realme of England, Wales, & other his dominions,or territories, and not ſend, or make out the citation or proceſſe in the kings name, or vſe any ſeale of iuriſdiction, other than before limited, that euerie ſuch offendor ſhall incur and run in the kings maieſties diſpleaſure and indignation, and ſuffer impriſonment at his highneſſe will and diſpleaſure.

Prouided alwaies,that no more nor other fées be taken or paid for the ſeale and writing of anie citations or other proceſſe,than was héeretofore accuſtomed.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the archbiſhop of Canturburie for the time being,ſhall vſe his owne ſeale,and in his owne name, in all faculties and diſpenſations,according to the tenor of an act thereof made: & that the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops ſhall make, admit,order,& reforme their chancellors,officials,commiſſaries,aduocats, proctors, and other their officers,miniſters & ſubſtitutes,and commiſſioners to ſuffragan biſhops in their owne names vnder their owne ſeales, in ſuch maner and forme as they haue héeretofore vſed, and ſhall certifie to the court of tenths, their certificats vnder their owne names and ſeales as héeretofore they haue vſed, and according to the ſtatute in that caſe made & prouided: and likewiſe ſhall make collations,preſentations,gifts,inſtitutions,and inductions of benefits, letters or orders,or dimiſſories,vnder their owne names and ſeales, as they haue héeretofore accuſtomed,anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all proceſſe héereafter to be made or awarded by anie eccleſiaſticall perſon or perſons, for the triall of anie plée, or plées, or matter depending, or that héereafter ſhall depend in anie of the kings courts of record at the common law, and limited by the lawes and cuſtoms of this realme, to the ſpirituall courts to trie the ſame; that the certificat of the ſame, after the triall thereof, ſhall be made in the kings name for the time being,and with the ſtile of the ſame king, and vnder the ſeale of the biſhop, grauen with the kings armes, with the name of the biſhop or ſpirituall officer being to the Teſte of the ſame proceſſe and certificat,and to euerie of them.

An act for the puniſhing of vagabonds, and for the releefe of the poore and impotent perſons.

Chap.3. FOraſmuch as idleneſſe and vagabondrie is the mother and root of all thefts,robberies and all euill acts and other miſchéefs,and the multitude of people giuen thereto hath alwaies béene héere within this realme verie great,and more in number (as it maie appéere)than in other regions,to the great impoueriſhment of the realme,and danger of the kings highneſſe ſubiects; the which idleneſſe and vagabondrie all the kings highneſſe noble progenitors,kings of this realme,and this high court of parlement hath often & with great trauell gone about and aſſaied with godlie acts and ſtatutes to repreſſe; yet vntill this our time it hath not had that ſucceſſe which hath béene wiſhed,but partlie by fooliſh pitie and mercie of them which ſhould haue ſéene the ſaid godlie lawes executed, partlie by the peruerſe nature and long accuſtomed idleneſſe of the perſons giuen to loitering,the ſaid godlie ſtatutes hitherto haue had ſmall effect,and idle & vagabond perſons,being vnprofitable members, or rather enimies of the common wealth,haue been ſuffred to remaine and increaſe,and yet ſo doo,whom if they ſhould be puniſhed by death,whipping,impriſonment,and with other corporall paine, it were not without their deſerts for the example of others,& to the benefit of the common wealth,yet if they could be brought to be made profitable,and doo ſeruice,it were much to be wiſhed and deſired. Be it therefore enacted by the kings highneſſe, with the conſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame; firſt that all ſtatutes & acts of parlement héeretofore made for the puniſhment of vagabonds & ſturdie beggers, and all articles compriſed in the ſame,ſhall be from henſeforth repealed,void,and of none effect.

Secondlie, that whoſoeuer after the firſt daie of Aprill next following, man or woman being not lame,impotent,or ſo aged, or diſeaſed with ſicknes,that he or ſhe cannot worke, nor hauing lands,or tenements, fées,annuities, or anie other yéerelie reuenues,or whereon they maie find ſufficientlie their liuing,ſhall either like a ſeruing man wanting a maſter,or like a begger, or after anie ſuch other ſort be lurking in anie houſe or houſes,or loitering,or idlie wandering by the high waies ſide,or in ſtréets,cities,townes,or villages,not applieng themſelues to ſome honeſt and allowed art, ſcience, ſeruice, or labor, and ſo doo continue by the ſpace of thrée daies or more togither,and not offer themſelues to labor with anie that will take them,according to their facultie; and if no man, otherwiſe will take them, doo not offer themſelues to worke for meat and drinke, or after they be ſo taken to worke, for the ſpace agréed betwixt them and their maiſter, doo leaue their worke out of conuenient time, or run awaie; that then euerie ſuch perſon ſhall be taken for a vagabond, and that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch maiſter offering ſuch idle perſon ſeruice and labor,and that being by him refuſed, or who hath agréed with ſuch idle perſon,and from whom within the ſpace agréed of ſeruice,the ſaid loiterer hath run awaie,or departed before the end of the couenant betwéene them, and to anie other perſon eſpieng the ſame, to bring or cauſe to be brought the ſaid perſon ſo liuing idlie and loiteringlie, to two of the next iuſtices of the peace there reſiant or abiding, who hearing the proofe of the idle liuing of the ſaid perſon by the ſaid ſpace liuing idlie, as is afore ſaid, approued to them by two honeſt witneſſes, or confeſſion of the partie, ſhall immediatlie cauſe the ſaid loiterer to be marked with a hot iron in the breſt, the marke of V, and adiudge the ſaid perſon liuing ſo idlie, to ſuch preſentor, to be his ſlaue, to haue and to hold the ſaid ſlaue to him, his executors, or aſſignes for the ſpace of two yeeres then next following, and to order the ſaid ſlaue as followeth: that is to ſaie, to take ſuch perſon adiudged a ſlaue with him, and onelie giuing the ſaid ſlaue bread and water, or ſmall drinke, and ſuch reffuſe of meat as he ſhall thinke meet, cauſe the ſaid ſlaue to worke by beating, cheining, or otherwiſe, in ſuch worke and labor (how vile ſoeuer it be) as he ſhall put him vnto. And if anie maner of ſlaue, either for loitering, or for the cauſe before rehearſed ſo adiudged, ſhall within the ſpace of the ſaid two yéeres heere appointed run awaie, depart, or abſent him from his ſaid maiſter by the ſpace of fouretéene daies togither, without licence: it ſhall not onlie be lawfull to his ſaid maiſter to purſue and ſearch him againe by vertue of this act, but alſo to puniſh ſuch fault by cheines or beating as is aforeſaid: and againſt the deteinor, if anie man doo willinglie deteine him, knowing him to be a ſlaue, as is aforeſaid, to haue an action of treſpaſſe, and recouer thereby in damages ten pounds, beſides the coſts and charges of the ſute for ſo deteining his ſaid ſlaue. And further, euerie ſuch maiſter ſhewing and prouing by two ſufficient witneſſes, the ſaid offenſe and fault of his running awaie before two iuſtices of peace of the ſame countie, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, the ſame iuſtices ſhall cauſe ſuch ſlaue, or loiterer to be marked on the forehead, or the ball of the chéeke with an hot iron, with the ſigne of an S, that he maie be knowne for a loiterer and a run awaie, and ſhall adiudge the loiterer and run awaie to be the ſaid maiſters ſlaue for euer. And if ſuch ſlaue ſhall the ſecond time run awaie, or abſent himſelfe, if the ſaid maiſter ſhall approue the ſame ſecond running awaie, with two ſufficient witneſſes before the iuſtice of peace, in their generall and quarter ſeſſions, then euerie ſuch fault and running awaie to be adiudged felonie, and ſuch loiterer & run awaie to be taken as a felon, and thereof being lawfullie indicted and atteinted, or otherwiſe condemned, to ſuffer paines of death, as other felons ought to doo.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no clerke conuicted ſhall héereafter make his purgation, and vpon ſuch purgation be deliuered, and ſet at large, otherwiſe than is in the ſtatute heereafter expreſſed.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie clerke conuict, or heereafter to be conuicted, which ſhould by the order of the law inioy the benefit of their purgation, ſhall and maie from henſeforth find anie man (if they can) who ſhall be bound with two ſufficient ſureties to the ordinarie, in the ſum of twentie pounds to the kings highneſſe vſe, to reteine the ſaid conuict as his ſlaue, and to kéepe the ſaid perſon ſo conuict for the ſpace of one yéere then next following, that he ſhall not go abrode, and at large, and then the ſaid conuict ſhall be deliuered to the ſaid perſon ſo taking the ſame, and being bound, as is aforeſaid, to be his ſlaue for one whole yéere then next following by vertue of this act, in all ſuch maner and forme, and to all ſuch intents and purpoſes, and with all ſuch order, lawes, conditions and penalties for running awaie, or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid of a vagabond taken loitering, and made a ſlaue (burning in the breſt onelie except) and the ordinarie by the deliuerie of the ſaid conuict to ſuch perſon being bound, as is aforeſaid, to be of the keeping of the ſaid conuict cleerelie diſcharged, and exonerated by vertue of this act.

And if ſo be that the ſaid clerke ſo conuict cannot find anie man to be bound, as is aforeſaid, to whom he maie be adiudged a ſlaue in the ſpace of one yeare; then at anie time after the end of one yéere after his conuiction, it ſhall be lawfull for the ſaid clerke conuict to make his purgation, as he might before this eſtatute, anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And where the clerks conuicted, or atteinted by the order of the lawes of this realme, cannot make their purgation, and ſhould perpetuallie by the ſame remaine in priſon, be it neuertheleſſe enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if there be anie maner of perſon, who will at anie time demand the ſame clerke conuicted, or atteinted, and be bound to the ordinarie with two ſufficient ſureties, as is aboue written, to keepe the ſame as his ſlaue by the ſpace of fiue yeares then next following, that then the ſame ſhall be adiudged his ſlaue for like ſpace, with all ſuch orders, lawes and penalties, for running awaie, and other orders, as is before expreſſed of a vagabond, adiudged to anie man for a ſlaue (the burning in the breſt onelie except) and vpon the adiudgement deliuered to ſuch demandant, the ordinarie from thenſeforth of the keeping of ſuch clerke conuicted or atteinted, cleerelie exonerated, and diſcharged by vertue of this act.

And forasmuch as diuerſe women and men go on begging waifaring, of the which ſome be impotent and lame, and ſome able enough to labor, which doo carrie children about with them, ſome foure or fiue yeares of age, or yonger or elder, which brought vp in idleneſſe might be ſo rooted in it, that hardlie they maie be brought after to good thrift and labor: or if anie child aboue the age of fiue yeares, and vnder the age of fouretéene yeares go idle wandering about as a vagabond; be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie maner of perſon will take anie ſuch child, be it male or female, of, and from anie ſuch begger being the mother thereof, nouriſher, or keeper, whether they be willing or not, or without anie ſuch nurſe, mother or keeper by himſelfe wandering, and bring the ſaid child ſo taken awaie before one of the conſtables of the pariſh, and two other honeſt and diſcreet neighbors witneſſes, and before anie iuſtice of peace there reſiant and abiding, and promiſe to bring the ſame child vp in ſome honeſt labor or occupation, till he or ſhe come to the age of twentie yeeres the woman child, or foure and twentie the man child: that then and immediatlie the ſaid iuſtice of peace and conſtable ſhall adiudge by vertue of this act, the ſaid child vnto the ages before ſpecified, to be ſeruants or apprentices to the ſaid perſons ſo taking and promiſing to be vſed and ordered in all points according as the law and cuſtome of this realme is of ſeruants and apprentices, to what labor, occupation, or ſeruice ſoeuer the ſaid maiſter ſhall appoint him, or hir, during the ſaid time. And if it ſhall fortune ſuch child ſo adiudged to run awaie at anie time, once, or mo times, from his or hir maiſter, or maiſters, that then it ſhall be lawfull for euerie ſuch maiſter to take the ſaid child againe, and to keepe and puniſh the ſaid child in cheines or otherwiſe, and vſe him or hir as his ſlaue in all points for the time before rehearſed, of the age of ſuch child, that is to ſaie, till twentie the woman child, and the man child foure and twentie.

Prouided alwaies, that anie maiſter, either of the men, or of the women ſo adiudged ſlaues, or of the children adiudged apprentices or ſeruants, maie let, ſet forth, ſell, bequeath, or giue the ſeruice and labor of ſuch ſlaues or ſeruants ſo adiudged, as is aforeſaid, to anie perſon or perſons, to whom ſoeuer he will, vpon ſuch condition, and for ſuch time of yéeres, as the ſaid perſons be adiudged to him for ſlaues, ſeruants, or apprentices, after ſuch like ſort and maner, as he may doo of anie other his moueable goods or chattels; and they for the ſaid ſpace and time to be bound to all points & conſtructions to ſuch Leſſee, donee, vendee, or aſſignee, as they were to their firſt apprehenders and maiſters, by vertue of this act.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ſuch ſlaue or ſlaues, or children ſo adiudged, ſhall at anie time after ſuch adiudgement, maime or wound their maiſters or miſtreſſes, in reſiſting their correction or otherwiſe, or when they be manumitted or ſet againe frée, or in the time of their ſeruice, ſhall conſpire with anie other, or by themſelues go about to murder and kill, or to maime, wound, or beat the ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, or anie that was their maiſter or miſtreſſe, or to burne their houſes, barnes, or corne, ſo that their intent come to an act tending to the effect: that then euerie ſuch maime or wound, or the going about to murder, kill, maime, wound, or beat ſuch perſon or perſons, as be, or were their maiſter or miſtreſſes, or to burne their houſes, barnes, or corne, ſo that their intent doo come to anie act tending to the ſame effect, as lieng in wait with weapon, or anie ſuch like, ſhall be accounted felonie, and they ſhall ſuffer therefore paines of death, as in caſe of felonie, except that anie ſuch perſon or perſons, as be, or had béene maiſter or miſtreſſe to anie of them, or he refuſing anie other, will take ſuch perſon ſo offending to their ſlaues, and then he or ſhe ſo offending, to be adiudged to the perſon ſo willing to take him or hir ſo offending ſlaue for euer, and thereupon to be diſcharged of the felonie. The ſame law and order to be had in all conditions if it ſhould chance the father, mother, nurſe, or other the bearer about of the child, or anie other perſon or perſons, to ſteale awaie ſuch child adiudged apprentice or ſeruant, that is, to be ſlaue to ſuch apprentices or ſeruants maiſter, whoſe apprentice or ſeruant was ſo ſtollen or inticed awaie, for euer, and the maiſter neuertheleſſe to take and receiue his ſaid apprentice or ſeruant againe, as if the ſaid taking awaie had neuer béene doone.

Be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that although there be no man which ſhall demand ſuch loiterer or loiterers, as before expreſſed, into their ſeruice; yet neuertheleſſe the iuſtice of peace in that citie, borough, towne, or hundred dwelling, if anie ſuch be, or elſe anie other iuſtice of peace of the ſame ſhire, and alſo there dwelling by his or their office, ſhall be héereafter bound by vertue of this act, not onelie to inquire of all ſuch idle perſons, but alſo if they doo eſpie anie ſuch vagabonds or idle perſons, or if anie ſuch be detected vnto them, to examine him or hir of the time of their vagabondrie; and if it ſhall appeare to anie iuſtice of peace, anie ſuch man or woman to haue béen a vagarant and vagabond, or idle perſon, by the ſpace, as is aforeſaid, to cauſe the ſame to be marked on the breſt with an V made with an hot iron, and alſo to learne & inquire of him the towne, citie or village where in he was borne, and then ſhall immediatlie giue a writing in parchment, ſealed with his ſeale to the ſaid loiterer, of the tenor and forme which héere inſueth: ¶ A, B, iuſtice of peace in the countie of S, to the maior or chéefe officer of the citie of Q, (if it be a citie) or to the headborough, bailiffe, or conſtable, or head officer of the towne of Q, (if it be a towne) or to the conſtable, or tithingman of the village of C, (if it be a village) gréeting. According to a moſt godlie ſtatute, made in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſouerigne lord king Edward the ſixt, &c: we haue taken this bearer I.K. vagarantlie, and to the euill example of others, without maiſter, ſeruice, or labor, whereby to get his liuing, going loitering idlie about. And becauſe the ſame ſaith, he was borne in C, in the countie of S, whereof you are the head officer or conſtable: we haue ſent him to you to be ordered, according to the purport and effect of the ſame ſtatute. And with this writing ſhall deliuer the ſame loiterer to the conſtables or other head officer of the ſaid citie, towne, or village, wherein ſuch loiterer was taken,to be ſafelie conueied by them to the next conſtable,and ſo from conſtable to conſtables, and other head officers,till he or ſhe be brought to the place, the which he or ſhe hath named themſelues to be borne in, and then to be deliuered to the head officer or conſtable of that ſame citie,borough,or towne,village,hamlet,or pariſh, there to be nouriſhed and kept of the ſame citie,towne, or village in cheines, or otherwiſe, either at the common works, in amending high waies, or other common worke, or from man to man in order, till they which maie beare be equallie charged, to be ſlaue to the corporation of the citie, or to the inhabitants of the towne or village,that he or ſhe were borne in, after all ſuch forme, condition, ſpace of yéeres, orders, puniſhments for running awaie,and all others, as are expreſſed of a common or priuat perſon,to whom anie ſuch loiterer is adiudged a ſlaue. And the ſaid citie, towne, or village ſhall ſée the ſaid ſlaue being able to labor, ſet on worke, and not liue idlie within the ſaid precincts, vpon paine for euerie ſuch default that the ſaid ſlaue dooth liue idlie,by the default of the citie,borough, or towne,or village,by the ſpace of thrée working daies togither, the citie to forfeit fiue pounds: a borough or towne incorporat fortie ſhillings: and other towne or village twentie ſhillings: whereof the one halfe to the king our ſouereigne lord,the other to him that will ſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill,information,or action of debt,in the which ſutes, no eſſoine,wager of law,or protection ſhall be allowed.

Prouided and be it enacted,that the citie,towne,and borough corporat,by the conſent of the more part of the corporation,and the towne and village not corporat,by the conſent of the more part of the inhabitants therof, maie ſet,ſell,or giue awaie,the right,title,and intereſt of the ſaid ſlaue,to anie other perſon,as anie other common or priuat perſon may doo with his ſlaue,by the vertue of this act.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that if it fortune when the ſaid vagabond is brought to the ſaid citie,towne,or village, where the ſaid perſon ſaid he was borne, to appeare and be manifeſt,that he or ſhe was not there borne; that then for ſuch lie, the ſaid vagarant ſhall be marked in the face with an S, and be ſlaue to the inhabitants, or corporation of the citie, towne, or village, where the ſaid vagarant ſaid he was borne in,for euer,vpon ſuch conditions and orders,in all points, as of a ſlaue marked in the face is before expreſſed: the ſame law and order in all points to be had of all vagarant perſons, and vagabonds, being borne in anie other nation or countrie than this realme, as is before expreſſed of Engliſh idle perſons (marking in the breſt or face onelie excepted) that is to be had to the next port, and there to be kept of the inhabitants of the ſaid next port, in conuenient labor, and from idleneſſe or otherwiſe, till they maie be conueied ouer; and then at the coſts of the inhabitants of the ſaid port, to be conueied ouer into their countries.

And foraſmuch as there is manie maimed and otherwiſe lamed, ſore, aged, and impotent perſons, which reſort to the citie of London, and to other cities, townes, and villages, on begging, whoſe comming togither, and making a number, dooth fill the ſtréets or high waies of diuerſe cities,townes,markets,and faires,who,if they were ſeparated,might eaſilie be nouriſhed in the townes & places wherein they were borne, or where they were, or haue béene moſt conuerſant and abiding,by the ſpace of thrée yéeres. Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all & ſingular maiors,ſhirifs,bailifs,conſtables,or other head officers of anie citie, towne, or hundred, to which ſuch reſort is or ſhall be, ſhall before the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next following,ſée all ſuch idle, impotent,maimed,& aged perſons, who otherwiſe cannot by their diſcretions be taken for vagabonds, which were borne within the ſaid citie, towne,or hundred, or hath béene there moſt conuerſant and abiding, by the ſpace of thrée yéeres, as is aforeſaid, and now decaied, beſtowed, and prouided for of tenantries, cotages, or other conuenient houſes to be lodged in,at the coſts and charges of the ſaid cities,townes,boroughs,and villages, there to be reléeued and cured by the deuotion of the good people of the ſaid citie,borough,towne, or village. And that they doo not ſuffer after the time before rehearſed, anie other than ſuch as either were borne, or hath béene for the moſt part conuerſant or abiding, by the ſpace aforeſaid, in the ſaid citie, borough, village, or towne, to remaine and beg abrode within the precincts of ſuch cities, townes, villages, or hundreds, vpon paine that euerie ſuch maiors,ſhirifs,and bailifs, conſtable, or other officer, by what name ſoeuer he be called, ſuffering anie perſons to beg within the precinct of his or their ſuch iuriſdiction, other than is before rehearſed, for euerie thrée daies ſhall forfeit ten ſhillings to whomſoeuer will ſue therefore, by bill, information, or action of debt,in anie court of record, in the which ſutes, no eſſoine, wager of law, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

And for the better performance héereof; be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the maior of the citie of London,and all other maiors,bailifs,ſhirifs,conſtables,and other head officers of euerie citie, and towne corporat, doo with all conuenient ſpéed, by themſelues, or their ſufficient deputies,by them appointed, before the feaſt of the Purification next comming; and ſo from time to time, euerie moneth once, make a view and examination of aged, impotent, and lame perſons and beggers, as be within the precinct of their iuriſdiction, and ſée all ſuch as were not borne, nor hath béene for the moſt part conuerſant and abiding there by the ſpace for thrée yéeres complet, conueied on horſbacke, cart, or chariot, or otherwiſe, as ſhall ſéeme by their diſcretions to the next conſtables, and they to conueie the ſame to the next conſtables, and ſo from conſtables to conſtables, till the ſaid perſons be brought to the place where they were borne or moſt conuerſant and abiding, as is aforeſaid, there to be prouided for, kept, and nouriſhed of almes, as is aforeſaid, vpon the paine that euerie ſuch maior, ſhiriffe, or conſtable, headborough, or head officer, not making view, not ſending or conueieng awaie, not receiuing or not prouiding, as is before appointed, according to the true purport or meaning of this act, to forfeit for euerie ſuch default fortie ſhillings, whereof the one halfe to the kings vſe, the other to the partie that will ſue therefore in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, information, or action of debts, in the which ſutes no eſſoine, wager of law, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

Prouided alwaies, that if anie of the ſaid aged, maimed, or impotent perſons of the cities, townes or villages where they were borne in, or had their moſt abiding, as is aforeſaid, be not ſo lame or impotent, but that they maie worke in ſome maner of worke, that then ſuch citie, towne, pariſh, or village, doo either in common prouide ſome ſuch worke for them as they might be occupied in, or appoint them to ſuch as will find them worke for meat and drinke. And if they refuſe of wilfulneſſe and ſtubbornneſſe to worke, or doo run awaie and beg in other places, then to puniſh the ſame according to their diſcretions, with chaining, beating, or otherwiſe, as ſhall ſéeme to them conuenient. And for the more furtherance of the reléefe of ſuch which are in vnfeined miſerie, and to whome charitie ought to be extended; be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſundaie and holiedaie after the reading of the goſpell of the daie, the curat of euerie pariſh doo make (according to ſuch talent as God hath giuen him) a godlie and bréefe exhortation to his pariſhioners, mouing and exciting them to remember the poore people, and the dutie of chriſtian charitie, in reléeuing of them which be their brethren in Chriſt, borne in the ſame pariſh, and néeding their helpe.

Prouided alwaies, that if it ſhall chance anie ſuch adiudged apprentice, ſeruant, or ſlaue, as is before rehearſed, to haue inheritance deſcended vnto him or hir, or anie other waies by the lawes of this realme, ward, or bondman, or neife of bloud, by, or from anie of his anceſtors, to anie perſon or perſons: that then it ſhall be lawfull to anie ſuch perſon or perſons, to whome anie ſuch ward, bondman, or neife ſhall apperteine, to ſeize and take ſuch wards, bondmen, or neifes, and them to reteine and kéepe, as their wards, bondmen, or neifes. And the ſaid wards, bondmen, & neifes ſhall be diſcharged of the ſaid ſlauerie or other ſeruitude or bondage aboue rehearſed; this eſtatute or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And alſo be it enacted, that if anie ſuch ſeruant, apprentice, ſlaue, or ſlaues, which ſhall haue at anie time héereafter anie aduancement or liuing, accrue, come, or grow, vnto him, or anie of them, whereby he or they maie haue a conuenient liuing, that then and from thenſeforth he or they ſo being aduanced, to be diſcharged of their ſlauerie, ſeruitude, and bondage, this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Anie woman being a ſeruant, apprentice, or ſlaue, as is aforeſaid, being maried within the age of twentie yéeres without the aſſent of hir maiſter, vntill ſhe ſhall accompliſh and come to the ſaid age of twentie yéeres, onelie excepted.

Be it alſo enacted, that all leprous and poore bedred creatures whatſoeuer they be, maie at their owne libertie remaine and continue in ſuch houſes appointed for leprous or bedred people, as they now be in, and ſhall not be compelled to repaire into anie other countries or places by the vertue of this act, anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that alſo it ſhall be lawfull vnto the ſaid leprous and bedred people for their better reléefs, to appoint their proctor or proctors, ſo there be not appointed aboue the number of two perſons, for anie one houſe of leprous, bedred people, to gather the charitable almes of all ſuch inhabitants as ſhall be within the compaſſe of foure miles, of anie of the ſaid houſes of leprous and bedred perſons.

And be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon, to whome anie perſon in forme aboueſaid, ſhall be adiudged a ſlaue, to put a ring of iron about his necke, arme, or his leg, for a more knowledge & ſuretie of the kéeping of him. And that if anie perſon or perſons doo take, or helpe to take anie ſuch bond of iron from anie ſuch ſlaue, that then euerie perſon ſo dooing without licence or aſſent of his maiſter, ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch default ten pounds ſterling.

Be it further enacted, that this preſent act ſhall before the firſt daie of March next comming, be openlie proclamed in euerie citie, corporat towne, and market towne, vpon the market daie: and alſo from thenſeforth ſhall yéerlie be read in euerie ſhire openlie, in two generall quarter ſeſſions of the peace, that is to ſaie, at the generall quarter ſeſſions next after Midſummer, and the generall quarter ſeſſions next after Chriſtmas, to the intent that euerie perſon maie haue knowledge thereof, and that this act ſhall endure vnto the end of the next parlement.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to the lord chancellor of England, or the lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, at their diſcretions to grant commiſſion vnder the great ſeale of England, to euerie or anie perſon or perſons that hath or ſhall haue his or their houſes or barnes burnt, or ſuch loſſes, to gather the reléefe and charitie of others for their aid and helpe of his or their loſſes, decaie, or hinderance, as in time paſt hath béen vſed: anie thing conteined in this act notwithſtanding.

An

An act for tenures holden in Capite.

Chap 4. WHere before this time, ambiguities, queſtions and doubts haue beene mooted and ſtirred in diuers and ſundrie the kings courts of record, whether ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments are holden of the king in Capite, which anie his louing ſubiects doo hold by knights ſeruice, ſocage, or other ſeruices of the king, as of his duchies, erledomes, baronies, honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, fees, and ſeigniories, which haue come to the hands and poſſeſſion of diuers of his highneſſe moſt noble progenitors, by attainder of treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, attainders of Premunire and prouiſion, had and doone by act of parlement, by verdict, confeſſion, conuiction, or vtlagarie, and offices or no offices thereupon found, or by the diſſolution, ſurrender, or giuing vp to the king, or to anie his noble progenitors of anie religious or eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, or of anie manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, to anie of the ſame religious or eccleſiaſticall houſes or places in anie wiſe apperteining or belonging, or no: by meanes of which doubt ſo mooued, his ſaid humble and obedient ſubiects and tenants haue beene heeretofore much vnquieted, moleſted, and greeued. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lord, minding and entierlie deſiring the quietneſſe of his ſaid ſubiects, and that the certeintie of his lawes in that behalfe might be knowen and declared to his ſaid louing ſubiects for a plaine declaration and reſolution to be had, of, for, and concerning the premiſſes, at the humble petition and ſute of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, dooth ordeine, declare, and enact by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, and euerie of them, which now be, or at anie time heereafter ſhall be holden of the king, or of anie of his heires or ſucceſſors, by anie of his ſaid ſubiects by knights ſeruice, ſocage or otherwiſe, as of anie of his or their dukedomes, erledomes, baronies, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, fees, or ſeigniories, which be come to the king, or his moſt noble progenitors, or heereafter ſhall come to the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, by meanes of anie ſuch attainder, conuiction, vtlagarie, or of anie ſuch diſſolution, ſurrender, or of anie religious or eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, or of anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to anie of the ſaid religious or eccleſiaſticall houſes or places in anie wiſe belonging or apperteining, ſhall not from henſeforth be adiudged, deemed, taken, or conſtrued to anie intent, conſtruction, or purpoſe, to be holden in Capite, or as tenure in Capite, anie ambiguitie, queſtion, or doubt heeretofore mooued to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe be preiudiciall ne hurtfull to the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, to, for, or concerning anie wardſhip, liuerie, primer ſeizon, fine for alienation, or to or for anie other profit or aduantage, which now is come, or heereafter ſhall or maie come, fall, or grow to the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, by or from anie perſon or perſons, which now dooth, or heereafter ſhall hold anie honors, ſeigniories, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments of the king in cheefe, as of his perſon, or of anie other his ancient poſſeſſions, and being not come to the king by anie ſuch attainder, confeſſion, conuiction, vtlagarie, diſſolution, giuing vp or ſurrender, as be aboueſaid.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act, or anie thing therein conteined or ſpecified, ſhall not in anie wiſe or by anie meanes giue anie aduantage, libertie or profit to anie tenant or owner in fee ſimple, of anie honors, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments which haue heeretofore ſued anie ſpeciall or generall liuerie, or Ouſter le maine, out of the hands of the king, or of anie his noble progenitors, of anie honors, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, by what tenure or ſeruice they were, or be holden, or that haue, or ſhall confeſſe by anie matter of record, anie tenure in cheefe of the king, but that they, their heires and aſſignes ſhall haue and hold the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, in like maner and forme, as they did before the making of this preſent act, and as though this preſent act had neuer beene had ne made: anie thing aboue declared and enacted to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act that no horſſes ſhall be conueied out of this realme and other the kings dominions without licence.

Chap.5. WHere before this time diuers of the kings ſubiects, and namelie of the north parts of this realme, as well in time of peace as of war, haue conueied, ſold, giuen, and deliuered out of this realme as well into Scotland as into other forren realms beyond the ſea, manie and diuers great multitude of horſſes, geldings, and mares, which haue beene thought, as well great occaſion, ſtrength, and boldneſſe to the Scotiſhmen, and other the kings forren enimies, hauing in poſſeſſion the ſame horſſes, geldings, and mares in time of warre to inuade this realme, as alſo a great decaie of the good breed of horſſes and mares, which before time hath beene within this realme, to the great detriment and hinderance of the kings poore ſubiects towards the defenſe of this realme and other his dominions.

nions. For remedie whereof be it therefore enacted by our ſouereigne lord the king, and by the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons after the firſt daie of Ianuarie next comming, doo ſell, exchange, giue, conueie, or deliuer into the realme of Scotland to the vſe of anie Scotiſhman, or doo carie, giue, exchange, ſell, ſend, conueie, or deliuer into anie place beyond the ſea out of this realme or the dominions of the ſame, anie horſſe, gelding or mare, without ſpeciall licence therefore to be obteined of the kings highneſſe, or of his heires, vnder the great ſeale of this realme, or vnder the priuie ſignet, or if anie perſon or perſons after the firſt daie of Ianuarie, doo ſell, exchange, giue, or deliuer to anie Scotiſhman within this realme of England or Wales, the townes of Barwike or the marches of the ſame, to the intent to be conueied into Scotland, anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, or doo conueie or carie anie horſſe, mare, or gelding into anie forren parties beyond the ſea, without like ſpeciall licence obteined of the kings highneſſe, or of his heires, vnder the great ſeale, or priuie ſignet, as is aforeſaid, that then the ſame perſon and perſons ſo offending contrarie to this act, ſhall looſe and forfeit to our ſouereigne lord and his heires, the ſame horſſe, mare, or gelding, ſo caried and conueied, and ſhall alſo looſe and forfeit the ſumme of fortie pounds for euerie ſuch horſſe, gelding or mare ſo to be conueied and caried, in forme aforeſaid, whereof the one moitie to be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by information, action of debt, or detinue in anie of the kings courts of record, in which ſute no wager of law, eſſoine ne protection ſhall be allowed. And that alſo all and euerie perſon and perſons ſo offending contrarie to this act, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull as well to the warden and wardens of the eaſt, weſt, and middle marches for the time being, in their warden courts, as alſo to all and euerie the kings iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire, as well in England as in Wales, in their quarter ſeſſions, to inquire of all and euerie offenſe or offenſes heereafter to be perpetrated, committed, or doone, contrarie to this act. And that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie perſon and perſons being the kings ſubiects, to arreſt and impriſon euerie Scotiſhman, and all and euerie other perſon or perſons which ſhall lead or conueie contrarie to the meaning of this act, anie ſuch horſſe, gelding or mare out of this realme, into the ſaid realme of Scotland, or into anie other forren place beyond the ſea, other than ſuch perſons as heereafter ſhall haue ſufficient warrant, by, or from the kings highneſſe or his heires, vnder his or their great ſeale, or priuie ſignet, according to the meaning of this act.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors at anie time heereafter, vnder his great ſeale or priuie ſignet, doo giue licence to anie perſon or perſons, to carie or conueie anie horſſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland, or in anie other part beyond the ſea, or elſe doo giue authoritie, power, or commandement to anie perſon or perſons, by warrant vnder the kings great ſeale, to licence anie other perſon or perſons, to carie or conueie anie horſſes, mares or geldings into Scotland, or into anie parties beyond the ſea, that then it ſhall be lawfull as well to all and ſingular perſon and perſons hauing ſuch licence vnder the kings great ſeale or priuie ſignet, as to all and euerie other perſon and perſons hauing licence in writing vnder the ſeale of ſuch perſon or perſons to whome the king ſhall giue authoritie, power, or commandement in forme abouesaid, to licence other perſon or perſons to carie or conueie anie horſſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland, or into anie parties beyond the ſea, to carie and conueie ſuch number of horſſes, geldings, or mares, or anie of them into Scotland, or into anie of the parties beyond the ſea, as ſhall be mentioned in anie ſuch licence, as is before ſpecified; anie thing mentioned in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, ne anie thing therin conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe extend to anie perſon or perſons, which at anie time heereafter ſhall carie or conueie anie horſſe, mare, or gelding into Scotland, or into anie other forren parties beyond the ſea, to ſerue the king in his wars with the ſame horſſes, mares or geldings; anie thing mentioned in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And to the intent the kings maieſtie ſhall not heereafter be deceiued in the number of ſuch horſſes, mares or geldings, which heereafter ſhall be caried and conueied into Scotland, ne that the parties which heereafter ſhall obteine anie licence by force of this act, for the cariage or conueiance of anie horſſes, mares, or geldings, to be caried or conueied into Scotland. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which heereafter ſhall be licenced according to this act, to carie or conueie anie horſſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland (ſhall before the ſame cariage or conueiance vpon the paine of forfeiture of the ſaid horſſe, mare or gelding, or the double value thereof, whereof the one moitie to be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by ſuch like action (as before is limited in this act) ſhew his or their ſaid licence to one of the three wardens of the three marches of England, to the intent that one of the ſaid wardens ſhall cauſe the number of the ſaid horſſes, mares or geldings, ſo licenced to be conueied into Scotland, not onlie to be kalendred in a booke to remaine in his owne cuſtodie, but alſo to be indorſed and written on the backſide of the ſaid licence, and the ſame indorſement to be ſigned with the hand of the ſaid warden.

Prouided alwaies that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie of the kings ſubiects, that ſhall paſſe ouer beyond the ſea, to ſhip and carie with them horſſes or geldings for their owne occupation in their iournies, and not to the intent to ſell the ſame beyond the ſea. And that intent to be iudged by the oth of him or them that will ſo carie ouer anie horſſe or gelding, which oth ſhall be taken before the cuſtomers or their deputies, or ſearcher, of euerie ſuch port, where the ſame horſſe or gelding ſhall be ſhipped before the ſhipping thereof.

Prouided alwaies, that the warden of the fiue ports now being, or héereafter to be, maie yéerelie at his pleaſure giue ſix horſſes or geldings, & no more, within one yéere at one or diuers times, vpon like paine, as is aforeſaid, to anie perſon or perſons in the parties beyond the ſeas, being in amitie with the kings highneſſe, or his ſucceſſors: this act or anie thing therein to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that this act nor anie thing therein mentioned, be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to the maſter of the kings horſſes, now and héereafter to be, for ſuch things and commodities, as ſhall and doo concerne his office: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall be lawfull to anie the kings ſubiects, to carie or ſend into anie parts beyond the ſea, anie mares, whereof the price of anie one mare ſo to be caried, dooth not excéed x. ſhillings in ſuch & like maner, as mares being of the price of vj. ſhillings viij. pence haue béene, or might haue béene conueied ouer the ſea before the making of this act, anie thing in this act, or in anie other act or acts héeretofore made to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the continuance of making of woolſted yarne in Norfolke.

WHere the greateſt and almoſt the whole number of the poore inhabitants of the countie of Norfolke, and the citie of Norwich, be, and haue béene héeretofore for a great time mainteined and gotten their liuing by ſpinning of the wools, growing in the ſaid countie of Norfolke vpon the rocke into yarne, and by all the ſaid time haue vſed to haue their acceſſe to common markets, within the ſaid countie and citie, to buie their wools, there to be ſpun, as is aforeſaid, of certeine perſons called retailers of the ſame wools by eight penie woorth, and twelue penie woorth at one time or thereabout, and haue not vſed to buie, ne can buie their ſaid wooll of the bréeders of the ſame wools by ſuch ſmall parcels, as well for that the ſaid bréeders of the ſaid wools will not ſell their ſaid wools by ſuch ſmall parcels, as alſo for that the moſt part of the ſaid poore perſons dwell far off from the ſaid bréeders of the ſaid wools. And foraſmuch as by an act of parlement made in the thirtie and ſeuen yéere of the reigne of the noble king of famous memorie Henrie the eight, all perſons be reſtreined vpon a great paine, to buie anie wools to ſell the ſame againe, except merchants of the ſtaple, for the onelie prouiſion of the ſtaple, as in the ſaid act among other things more at large it is conteined: therefore the ſaid retailers of wools in the ſaid countie of Norfolke and citie of Norwich, which héeretofore haue vſed to buie wools and to ſell them againe to the ſaid poore perſons in ouert markets, as is aforeſaid, haue ſince the making of the ſaid eſtatute, in eſchewing the danger and paine prouided by the ſame, ceaſſed and left to buie the ſaid wools, for the reléefe of the ſaid poore perſons. By reaſon whereof, the ſame poore perſons inhabiting within the ſaid countie of Norfolke and citie of Norwich, that hath héeretofore béene ſpinners, & mainteined by ſpinning of the ſaid wools, be now vnoccupied and vnſet a worke, and a great number of them inforſed to beg for lacke of worke, to the vtter decaie and ruine of the poore people of the ſaid countie and citie, and the inhabitants thereof, vnleſſe ſome remedie be therein prouided. In conſideration whereof it maie pleaſe the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, and citie of Norwich, or in either of them, by his or themſelues, or by his or their factors, ſeruant or ſeruants, maie lawfullie from henſeforth without paine, forfeiture, danger or breach of anie law or ordinance, to buie and bargaine wools, and take and make prouiſion to buie or bargaine wools growing, or that ſhall grow onelie within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, in as large and like maner and forme, as the ſame inhabitants within the ſaid countie and citie might, and did vſe to doo before the making of the ſaid act of parlement, and as the ſaid act of parlement had neuer béene had or made, ſo that the ſame perſon and perſons ſo buieng or bargaining, or making promiſe, to buie or bargaine the ſaid wools, doo ſell or retaile the ſame againe in the common market or other open place within the ſaid countie of Norfolke or citie of Norwich, to anie perſon or perſons at their pleaſure and libertie, that will buie the ſame or anie part thereof, dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid countie and citie of Norwich, or anie of them that ſhall or will ſpin the ſame within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, and citie of Norwich, or anie of them: the ſaid former act, or anie article, clauſe, or ſentence therein conteined, or anie other act or acts, law or ordinance héeretofore made to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Chap.6.

And where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxiij. yéere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſouereigne lord the king, it was amongſt other things enacted thus, as inſueth, or like in effect, that is to ſaie, that no perſon or perſons from henſeforth ſhould buie, ne cauſe to be bought within the ſaid citie of Norwich, or countie of Norfolke, anie yarne ſpun of the rocke called woolſted yarne, the which ſhould then after that be ſpun within the ſaid countie or citie, but ſuch perſon or perſons being weauers of woolſted, ruſſels, ſtamine, ſaies, and ſuch other like clothes, within the ſaid citie or countie, that ſhould weaue or worke, or cauſe to be wouen or wrought in woolſted, ſtamine, ruſſels, ſaies, or ſuch other like clothes, the ſaid yarne ſo bought or cauſed to be bought within the ſaid citie or countie, in the citie of Norwich, or in ſome market towne within the ſaid countie, vpon the paine and forfeiture for euerie pound weight of the ſaid yarne called woolſted yarne, ſo bought within the ſaid countie or citie, & not wouen or wrought as is aforeſaid, within the ſaid citie or countie fortie ſhillings: the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe thereof to be to him or them that ſhould then after that ſue for the ſame, by bill, information, action of debt, or otherwiſe in anie court of record, in which ſaid action, bill, or information, no eſſoine, wager of law, forren plée, or protection ſhould be allowed. And where it is alſo ordeined in the ſaid act, that if anie perſon or perſons did after the firſt daie of Aprill then next after the ſaid act inſuing, ſhip or carrie, or conueie, or cauſe to be ſhipped to carrie or conueie into the parts beyond the ſea, or did carrie or conueie into the parts beyond the ſea, anie yarne called woolſted yarne not made, or wrought in cloth, ſo that ſuch yarne were ſpun within this realme, that then euerie perſon and perſons ſo ſhipping, conueieng and carrieng, or cauſing ſuch yarne to be ſhipped, carried and conueied, ſhould forfeit for euerie pound of woolſted yarne ſo ſhipped, conueied, or carried, fortie ſhillings; the one halfe thereof to be to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe thereof to him or them that ſhould ſue for the ſame, by bill, information, or action of debt in anie of the kings courts of record, as in the ſaid act, the ſame or the like in effect more plainelie doth and maie appeare. And foraſmuch as the ſaid act was made and ordeined to continue and indure vntill the parlement then after that next inſuing, and hath béene ſithens by other generall acts continued vntill this preſent parlement, and was not by anie of the ſaid acts ordeined to continue for euer: it maie now pleaſe the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all the afore recited act for yarne, with all the words, forfeitures, paines, and ſentences before recited, as the ſame before recited and declared, maie from henſeforth be enacted to continue, and to be taken for an act to continue for euer to all intents and purpoſes, according to the ſaid words, ſentences, and the purport thereof before in this act recited.

Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons being an hatmaker, or hatmakers, dwelling within the ſaid citie of Norwich, to buie ſuch of the ſaid woolſted yarne, as is called and knowne by the name of middle vſſe yarne, as they and euerie of them haue héeretofore doone, and vſed to doo, ſo that the ſame middle vſſe yarne ſo bought by the hatmakers or hatmaker, be wrought in hats, or imploied to hatmaking within the ſaid citie, anie thing before recited to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the continuance of actions after the death of anie king.

Chap. 7. WHereas the kings ſubiects héeretofore haue to their great coſts, charges, and expenſes proſecuted, and ſued diuerſe and ſundrie actions, aſwell reall & perſonall, as all other actions mixt, or otherwiſe in the kings maieſties courts, and other courts of record, not onelie by writs, but alſo by plaint or bils, which actions, ſutes, bils, and plaints, by the death or demiſe of the kings of this realme, haue béene diſcontinued, and the parties in euerie ſuch actions, ſutes, bils, and plaints, thereby haue béene put without daie, whereby the demandants, plaintifs, and actors in euerie ſuch action and ſute were compelled and driuen by the order of the lawes of this realme, for their further remedie, to commenſe & begin againe his or their ſaid actions, ſutes or plaints, or els to proſecute & ſue reſummons, attachment, Scire facias, or ſuch other like proceſſe to reuiue his or their ſaid actions, ſutes, or plaints, which was not onelie to their great coſts, charges, expenſes, hinderances and delaie of their cauſes and ſutes, but alſo a great let and hinderance of iuſtice. For reformation whereof, be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth by the death or demiſe of the kings maieſtie that now is (whoſe life almightie God long preſerue, kéepe and mainteine in his moſt roiall eſtate) nor by the death or demiſe of anie that héereafter ſhall be king of this realme, anie action, ſute, bill, or plaint, now, or that heereafter ſhall depend betweene partie and partie in anie of the courts aforeſaid ſhall not in anie wiſe be diſcontinued, or put without daie: but that the proceſſe, plées, demurs, and continuances in euerie action, actions, ſutes, bils, or plaints, which now, or that héereafter ſhall depend, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall, and be proſecuted and ſued forth in ſuch maner and forme, and in the ſame eſtate, condition and order, as if the ſame king had liued or continued in full life, the death or demiſe héereafter of anie king of this realme notwithſtanding. And that all and all maner of iudiciall proceſſe that héereafter ſhall be had, or purſued in the time of the reigne of anie other king than reigned at the time of the purſute of the originall, or other former proceſſe, ſhall be made in the name of the king, that for the time ſhall reigne and be king of this realme, and that variance touching the ſame proceſſe betweene the names of the kings, ſhall not be in anie wiſe materiall, as concerning anie default to be alleaged or obiected therefore.

And alſo be it further eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin, aſſiſe of Mordantceſter, Iuris vtrum, and atteint, which at anie time heereafter ſhall be arreigned, commenſed or ſued before anie of the kings iuſtices of aſſiſe, ſhall not from henſeforth be diſcontinued or put without daie by reaſon of death, new commiſſion, aſſociation, or not comming of the ſame iuſtices of aſſiſe or anie of them, but ſhall ſtand good and effectuall in the law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, the death, new commiſſion, aſſociation, or not comming of the ſame iuſtices or anie of them, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And ouer that be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that albeit anie demandant or plaintiſe in anie maner of action, bill, or ſute, ſhall fortune to be made or created duke, archbiſhop, marques, erle, viſcount, baron, biſhop, knight, iuſtice of the one bench, or of the other, or ſargent at law, depending the ſame action, bill, or ſute, yet that notwithſtanding, that no writ, action or ſute, ſhall for ſuch cauſe in anie wiſe be abatable or abated, but ſhall remaine in like force, goodneſſe, and ſtrength as the ſame was before, anie law or vſage to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And alſo be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that albeit anie perſon or perſons being iuſtice of aſſiſe, iuſtice of gaole deliuerie, or iuſtice of peace within anie of the kings dominions, or being in anie other of the kings commiſſions whatſoeuer, ſhall fortune to be made or created duke, archbiſhop, marques, erle, viſcount, baron, biſhop, knight, iuſtice of the one bench or of the other, or ſargent at law, or ſhiriffe, yet that notwithſtanding, he, and they ſhall remaine iuſtice and commiſſioner, and haue full power and authoritie to execute the ſame, in like maner and forme, as he, or they might, or ought to haue doone before the ſame.

And be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in all caſes where anie perſon or perſons heeretofore haue beene, or heereafter ſhall be found guiltie of anie maner of treaſon, murder, manſlaughter, rape or other felonie whatſoeuer, for the which iudgement of death, ſhould, or maie inſue, and ſhall be repried to priſon without iudgement at that time giuen againſt him, hir, or them ſo found guiltie, that thoſe perſons that at anie time heereafter ſhall by the kings letters patents be aſſigned iuſtices to deliuer the gaole, where anie ſuch perſon or perſons found giltie ſhall remaine, ſhall haue full power & authoritie to giue iudgement of death againſt ſuch perſon ſo found giltie, and repried, as the ſame iuſtices (before whome ſuch perſon or perſons was, or were found giltie) might haue doone, if their commiſſion of gaole deliuerie had remained and continued in full force and ſtrength. And ouer that, that no maner of proceſſe or ſute made, ſued, or had before anie iuſtices of aſſiſe, gaole deliuerie, Oier and terminer, iuſtices of peace, or other of the kings commiſſioners, ſhall not in anie wiſe be diſcontinued by the making and publiſhing of anie new commiſſion or aſſociation, or by altering of the names of the iuſtices of aſſiſe, gaole deliuerie, Oier & terminer, iuſtices of peace or other the kings commiſſioners, but that the new iuſtices of aſſiſe, gaole deliuerie, and of the peace, and other commiſſioners maie proceed in euerie behalfe, as if the old commiſſions, and iuſtices, and commiſſioners had ſtill remained and continued not altered.

For remedie and reformation thereof, be it ordeined and enacted by the kings moſt excellent highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that as well all and euerie the ſaid letters patents, indentures, and other writings, and euerie of them ſealed with, or vnder the ſeale or ſeales aboue named, or anie of them, made or granted by the kings highnes ſithence the xxviij. daie of Ianuarie laſt paſt, as alſo all & ſingular his graces letters patents, indentures, and other writings héereafter during his highneſſe life (which our Lord long continue) to be had, made, or granted with, or vnder any of the ſeales aboueſaid, to anie bodie politike or corporat, or to anie other perſon or perſons, of anie honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, perſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, aduouſons, nominations, preſentations, franchiſes, liberties, & other hereditaments, commodities, poſſeſſions & profits, of what kind, nature, or qualitie ſoeuer they, or anie of them be, is, or ſhall be, or by whatſoeuer name or names they or anie of them be, is, or ſhall be named, knowen, or reputed, ſhall ſtand & be taken, reputed and iudged góod, ſure, perfect, effectuall, & auailable in the law, during the ſtatutes in them limited & ſpecified, to all intents, reſpects, conſtructions and purpoſes againſt the king his heires and ſucceſſors, without anie confirmation, licence, diſpenſation or toleration of the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, anie the cauſes or matters aboue mentioned, conteined, or héereafter during his ſaid highneſſe life to be conteined, had, or made in anie ſuch letters patents, indentures, or other writings by the king our ſouereigne lord, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie, that this act ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to reuiue or make góod anie letters patents made of anie office or offices to anie controller, cuſtomer, aulneger, or ſearcher, ne to anie letters patents of the grant of anie other office, or offices héeretofore granted, or made by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king which now is, or be, or at anie time héeretofore haue bin adnihilated, determined, or made void by iudgement, by authoritie of parlement or decrée, nor to anie patent to be made to anie perſon or perſons for terme of yéers, or during the minoritie of an heire, of, or in anie manors, lands, or tenements, whereof anie trauerſe héereafter ſhall be tendred within thrée months after anie office found & certified into anie of the kings courts of record, ne to anie leaſes or grants of anie manors, lands or tenements of our ſaid ſouereigne lords héereafter to be made vnder anie of the ſeales of the courts aforeſaid, contrarie to the limitation, ordinance, prouiſion, eſtabliſhment & authoritie of the ſame courts, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to make anie letters patents of anie office or offices, to be of anie other effect, force, or ſtrength, than the ſame letters patents were, or ſhould haue béene before the making of this act.

An act for the vniting of certeine churches within the citie of Yorke.

Chap.9. WHere in the ancient citie of Yorke and ſuburbs of the ſame, there are manie pariſh churches, which héeretofore the ſame being well inhabited and repleniſhed with people, were good and honeſt liuings for learned incumbents, by reaſon of the priuie tithes of the rich merchants, and of the offerings of a great multitude, which liuings are now ſo much decaied by the ruine and decaie of the ſaid citie, and of the trade of merchantize there, that the reuenues and profits of diuerſe of the ſame benefices are at this preſent not aboue the cléere yéerelie value of ſix and twentie ſhillings and eight penſe; ſo that a great ſort of them are not a competent and honeſt liuing for a good curat; yea and no perſon will take the cure, but that of neceſſitie there is ſome chanterie préeſt, or elſe ſome late religious perſon being a ſtipendarie taken and appointed to the ſaid cure and benefice, which for the moſt part are vnlearned, and verie ignorant perſons, not able to doo anie part of their duties: by reaſon whereof the ſaid citie is not onelie repleniſhed with blind guides and paſtors, but alſo the people much kept in ignorance, aſwell of their duties towards God, as alſo towards the kings maieſtie, and the commonwealth of this realme, & to the great danger of their ſoules. In conſideration wherof, and for the better reléefe and order of the ſaid citie, it maie pleaſe the kings maieſtie by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth it ſhall be lawfull to the maior and recorder of the ſaid citie, & the ordinarie or his deputie, & ſix iuſtices of peace in the ſaid citie, to vnite and knit togither the ſaid pariſhes into fewer number, that is to wit, ſo manie of the ſaid pariſhes into one pariſh, as to them ſhall be thought conuenient to be a liuing for one honeſt incumbent, ſo the cléere yéerelie value of one pariſh excéed not twentie pounds by yéere, and ſo to procéed thorough the ſaid citie and the ſuburbs of the ſame: and that it ſhall be lawfull for the ſaid maior, recorder, and aldermen, to pull downe the churches, which they ſhall thinke ſuperfluous in the ſaid citie and ſuburbs of the ſame, and to beſtow the ſame towards the reparations and inlargement of other churches, of the bridges in the ſaid citie, and to the reléefe of the poore people. And further, that the ſaid maior, recorder, ordinarie, or his deputie, and ſix iuſtices of peace being aldermen, ſhall allot and appoint the preſentment and patronage of the church ſo vnited to the patrons of all the churches, to knit in one pariſh that they make their preſentments by turne, euerie one according to their quantitie of his former patronage.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch incumbents of the churches aforeſaid, that ſhall be put downe by vertue of this act, ſhall haue the yéerelie value of their benefices after the rate they doo paie tenths during their liues, ſo they will doo ſeruice therefore in the churches appointed for the pariſh church, according to their former duties; and if they refuſe to ſerue, then they onelie during their liues to haue the third part of the value as is aforeſaid, and to be paied at the hands of the incumbent of the pariſh church to be appointed.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the incumbents of euerie ſuch church, which by vertue of this act ſhall be made and ordeined for the pariſh church, and whereunto anie other pariſh or pariſhes ſhall be vnited, ſhall after the vnion thereof, yéerelie paie the tenths to be due for the ſame to the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors of the ſame church, and of all other churches thereunto vnited and annexed. And the ſaid incumbents of the pariſh church ſo vnited, to haue his allowance of the incumbents of the churches ſo vnited thereunto during their ſeuerall liues, according to the rate and portion of the churches ſo vnited, as ſhall be aſſigned by the aboueſaid perſons, hauing authoritie by this act to vnite the ſame. And the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of euerie ſuch incumbent of euerie ſuch church, as ſhall be made the pariſh church, and whereunto anie church or pariſh ſhall be vnited by force of this act, ſhall paie or compound for the firſt frutes thereof at euerie auoidance before his induction to the ſame, according to ſuch yéerelie value, at ſuch church or churches as ſhall be made a pariſh church, and whereunto anie church or churches, pariſh or pariſhes, ſhall be vnited by force of this act, ſhall be of, at the time of the vnion thereof, and as if it had béene of ſuch like yéerelie value at the time of the making of the ſtatute for firſt frutes and tenths, and of no greater value; anie ordinance, ſtatute, or law to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for exigents and proclamations in Wales, and in the countie palantine of Cheſter, and alſo in the citie of Cheſter.

Chap 10. WHere in the high court of parlement holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuen and twentith yéere of the moſt proſperous reigne of the late famous king Henrie the eight, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons aſſembled in the ſaid high court of parlement, it was enacted and eſtabliſhed by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that his higneſſe dominion and principalitie of Wales, and of manors, lands, tenements, and other dominions within the ſaid dominion and principalitie of Wales ſhould be diuided into twelue ſhires or counties, that is to ſaie, the ſhires or counties of Glamorgan, Radnour, Brecknocke, Karmerthen, Penbroke, Cardigan, Merioneth, Mongomerie, Flint, Carnaruan, Angleſeie, and Denbigh, in euerie of which ſaid counties and ſhires amongſt the officers yéerelie appointed, it was then ordeined that there ſhould be diſtinct and ſeuerall ſhiriffs yéerelie, and alſo where the counties palantine of Cheſter, and of the citie of Cheſter, be ancient and ſeuerall counties palantine of themſelues, in all which ſaid counties, the kings writ hath not, nor yet doth not run: ſo that the proclamation awarded vpon anie exigent againſt anie perſon or perſons, in anie action, wherin proceſſe of outlawrie doth lie according to the ſtatute made in the firt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, cannot be directed vnto the ſhiriffe or ſhiriffs of anie of the ſaid ſhires or counties, but vnto the ſhiriffe of the countie next adioining: ſo that the partie dwelling in anie of the ſaid ſhires or counties, againſt whom anie ſuch exigent and proclamation ſhall be ſo awarded, ſhall not, nor can haue anie knowledge of the ſame ſute or proceſſe, by reaſon whereof manie of the perſons inhabiting in the ſaid ſhires and counties without knowledge, or cauſe of ſute, haue béene wrongfullie and vniuſtlie vtlaged to their vtter vndoing.

Be it therefore, and for diuerſe other good conſiderations, by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, that if and whenſoeuer anie writ of exigent at anie time after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, ſhall be awarded at the ſute of the king, or of anie other perſon or perſons plaintiffe, or plaintiffs, in anie action or ſute, in anie of the courts of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors commonlie called the kings bench, and the common place, againſt anie perſon or perſons, dwelling in any of the aforeſaid counties in Wales, or in the ſaid counties palantine of Cheſter, or the citie of Cheſter, or in anie of them; that then immediatlie vpon the awarding of euerie ſuch exigent, the iuſtice or iuſtices, before whome anie ſuch writ of exigent vpon ſuch ſute or action ſhall be ſued, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to award one writ of proclamation according to the tenor and effect of proclamations awarded vpon exigents, directed out of anie of the ſaid courts in London, againſt anie perſon dwelling in anie other ſhire where the kings writ is currant, according to the order and forme in the ſaid ſtatute made in the firt yéere of the ſaid late king to be directed to ſuch of the aforeſaid ſhiriffs of anie of the aforeſaid counties in Wales, and of the counties palantine of Cheſter, and of the citie of Cheſter for the time being, where it ſhall happen the ſaid defendant, againſt whom anie ſuch action ſhall be ſued, as is aforeſaid, to be dwelling. And that euerie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall haue the ſame Teſte and daie of returne, as the exigents whereupon euerie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be awarded, ſhall haue: and that euerie ſuch ſhiriffe to whom anie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be directed, ſhall make proclamation of the ſaid writ of proclamation, according to the tenor of the ſame, and ſhall make true returne of the ſame in ſuch court, and before ſuch iuſtices, as the tenor of the ſame writ ſhall require and demand. And that all outlawries héereafter to be promulged or pronounced againſt anie perſon or perſons vpon anie ſuch exigent, or exigents, awarded againſt anie perſon or perſons, dwelling in anie of the ſaid counties of Wales, and the counties palantine of Cheſter, and of the citie of Cheſter, & on writ of proclamation awarded in forme aboueſaid to the ſhiriffe or ſhiriffs of the countie, where the partie defendant ſhall be, as is aboueſaid, dwelling, or not returned, to be cléerelie void, and of none effect, nor force in the law.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſhiriffe and ſhiriffs of euerie of the ſaid counties of Wales, and of the counties palantine of Cheſter, and of the citie of Cheſter aforeſaid, ſhall haue in euerie of the ſaid courts of the kings bench, and of the common place, one ſufficient deputie at the leaſt, to receiue all writs directed to ſuch the ſhiriffe or ſhiriffs, for whom the ſame deputie or deputies ſhall be appointed, in like maner and forme, and vpon like paines, as by the former ſtatutes and lawes of this realme, other ſhiriffs of other ſhires or counties within this relme of England be bounden to haue in either of the ſame courts: and that all writs of proclamation aforeſaid ſhall be deliuered vnto euerie ſuch deputie of record in the ſame courts, and alſo like fées ſhall be paid for making euerie ſuch writ of proclamation, and for inrolling the ſame of record, as is limited in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid firt yéere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſouereigne lord the king Henrie the eight.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon dwelling in anie of the ſame counties of Wales, after the aforeſaid firſt daie of Aprill, ſhall be outlawed in anie ſute or action aforeſaid, that then writs of ſpeciall Capias vtlagatum, ſingle Capias vtlagatum, Non moleſtandum, & all other proces, for, or againſt anie perſon outlawed, ſhall, and maie from thenſeforth be directed to the ſhiriffe of anie of the ſaid counties in Wales, as immediat officers to the kings ſaid courts of the kings bench or common place in that behalfe: and that euerie ſuch writs maie be deliuered of record to the deputie of ſuch of the ſaid ſhiriffs, to whom anie ſuch writ or proceſſe ſhall be directed, and that euerie ſuch ſhiriffe ſhall make execution and returne of euerie ſuch writ of proceſſe to him directed, vpon like paine and penaltie, as is aboue limited.

And be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed, that if anie ſuch writ or writs of proclamation héereafter directed to anie of the ſhiriffs of anie of the ſaid ſhires in Wales, or counties palantine of Cheſter, or of the citie of Cheſter, be deliuered vnto anie of the ſaid ſhiriffs for the time being, or to his or their deputies, in maner and forme aforeſaid: and the ſame ſhiriffe or ſhiriffs doo not make true returne of euerie ſuch writ and writs of proclamation, into ſuch court and courts, out of which the ſaid writ or writs of proclamation ſhall be awarded; that for euerie ſuch fault of non returne, euerie ſuch ſhiriffe for the time being, ſhall looſe and forfeit fiue pounds; the one halfe thereof ſhall be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heirs and ſucceſſors: the other halfe to anie ſuch perſon or perſons as will ſue for the ſame in an action of debt grounded vpon this act, in anie of the kings courts of record, wherein no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be allowed, or admitted.

Prouided alwaies, this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend, or be preiudiciall to the ſame counties of Wales, or to the ſaid counties palantine of Cheſter, or of the citie of Cheſter, for, or concerning ſuch liberties, franchiſes, or priuileges, as belong to them, or anie of them, or to anie miniſters or officers of them, or anie of them, otherwiſe, or in anie other maner, than by the true meaning of this act is before prouided and declared; anie thing in this act mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, ne anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie lord marcher in Wales, but that they and euerie of them, and their heirs, and the heirs of euerie of them ſhall & maie haue like libertie, intereſt, and preheminence, as they, and euerie of them had, might, or ought to haue had before the making of this act, and as though this act had neuer béene had, ne made; anie thing in this act mentioned to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the repeale of a certeine ſtatute made in the eight and twentith yeere of the reigne of the late king of moſt famous memorie Henrie the eight for reuoking of acts of parlement.

WHere in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the eight and twentith yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, it was enacted by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that if the imperiall crowne of this realme, after the deceaſſe of the ſaid late king, ſhould deſcend, come, or remaine to the heirs of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, or to anie perſon to be limited by his highneſſe, as of verie right it muſt, and ought to doo according to the lawes of this realme eſtabliſhed for the ſame, the ſaid heire, or ſuch perſon being within the age of foure and twentie yéeres, & that then anie act or acts of parlement ſhould happen to be made and eſtabliſhed in anie parlement, that then ſhould be holden before ſuch heire or heires, perſon or perſons then being in poſſeſſion of the ſaid crowne ſhould be of their full ages of foure and twentie yéeres; that then euerie ſuch heire or heires of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, or ſuch perſon ſo poſſeſſed of the crowne being within the ſame age of foure and twentie yeeres, ſhould haue full power and authoritie at all times, after they ſhould come to their ſaid full ages of foure and twentie yéeres, by their letters patents vnder the great ſeale of England to reuoke, adnull, and repeale all and ſingular ſuch acts made and eſtabliſhed by their roiall aſſents, in anie parlement holden during the time that they were within their ſaid age of foure and twentie yéeres, their roiall aſſents had to the ſame, during the time that they were within the ſaid age of foure and twentie yéeres, or anie act or acts thereafter to be made, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And it was alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch repeale, adnullation, and reuocation of anie act or acts that ſhould be made and eſtabliſhed in anie parlement, holden before the time that ſuch heire, or perſon poſſeſſed of the crowne ſhould be of the age of foure and twentie yéeres, ſhould be as good and effectuall, to all intents and purpoſes, as though it had béene done by the authoritie of parlement, as in the ſaid act is more plainelie declared. Sith the making of which eſtatute, it hath pleaſed almightie God to take vnto his mercie our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, our now moſt gratious and deare ſoueraigne liege lord king Edward the ſixt his ſonne and heire (whoſe life God long preſerue) now being aboue the age of ten yéeres, and vnder the age of eleuen yeeres: during whoſe minoritie as the common wealth of his highneſſe realme of England and Ireland, as of all the dominions and countries of the ſame, is, and moſt neceſſarie ought to be prouided for, mainteined, and preſerued; ſo is it the naturall dutie of euerie good, true, and louing ſubiect, to applie himſelfe with all his power and diligence, to ſtudie, inuent, and practiſe by all waies, means, and maners, for the conſeruation of the ſame. And forasmuch as for the preſeruation of the roiall eſtate of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and the ſafegard and ſuretie of his moſt roiall perſon, and for the good tranquillitie, quietneſſe, reſt, and peace of his ſaid realmes, countries, dominions, and ſubiects, aswell wholſome lawes and ſtatutes are to be ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and prouided, as alſo ſome lawes and ſtatutes to be repealed and adnulled, as the caſe ſhall require, according to the diſpoſition of the people, which cannot take anie good effect or ſucceſſe, without acts and prouiſions of parlement to be made, before their ages of foure & twentie yéeres. And for that it ſhould ſeeme vnto all men that the good intention, meaning, and purpoſe of the ſaid late king, and of the makers of the ſaid ſtatute, was not, that good and wholeſome lawes which ſhould be made, prouided, and ordeined for the good gouernance of the realmes and dominions abouesaid, during the time that anie king of this realme ſhould be within the ſaid age of foure and twentie yeeres, ſhould from the time of the deceſſe of the anceſtor, or progenitor of anie ſuch king, within the age of foure and twentie yeeres, at the time of the death of the ſaid anceſtor or progenitor, vntill the age of foure and twentie yéeres, of anie ſuch king, be made, deemed, and adiudged to be void by anie ſuch letters patents, to all intents and purpoſes, as though they neuer had béene made; but that the ſaid acts, and euerie of them, and all and euerie thing and things vſed, committed, donne, ſuffered or executed by authoritie of the ſame, ſhould be good, auaileable, and perfect in the law. And that the ſaid reuocation, adnullation, and repeale, ſhould be taken to make void the ſaid acts, and euerie of them onelie, from the time of the ſaid reuocation, adnullation, and repeale, and not otherwiſe: the contrarie intendment and expoſition whereof, might otherwiſe, not onelie diſcourage all ſubiects during that time, and thoſe yeeres, to indeuor themſelues, to and for the aduiſing, ſetting forth, and conſenting to the making of good and wholeſome lawes; but alſo ſhould cauſe the ſaid ſubiects to adiudge and thinke themſelues to liue for that time, vnder no maner of certeintie or aſſurance of anie poſitiue law or ſtatute during that time to be made or prouided. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act of parlement aboue recited, made in the ſaid eight and twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, and euerie word, article, clauſe, matter, ſentence, and thing therein ſpecified and conteined, ſhall by authoritie of this preſent parlement, be, to all intents, conſtructions & purpoſes, vtterlie void, adnulled, repealed, and of none effect, & as though the ſame had neuer béene had ne made. Neuertheleſſe to the intent the kings maieſtie our ſouereigne lord maie haue power, authoritie, preheminence and prerogatiue at his full age of foure and twentie yéers, or at anie time after, at his libertie and pleaſure, to repeale all ſtatutes and acts of parlement, aſwell made in this preſent parlement as héereafter in anie other parlement to be holden, before he ſhall accompliſh the ſaid age of foure and twentie yéeres, to be made or ordeined, according to the true intent and meaning of the makers of the ſaid former ſtatute.

Be it further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king that now is, at his full age of foure and twentie yeeres, or at anie time after, and all and euerie heire and heires of the ſaid late king, and other perſon and perſons, to whom the imperiall crowne of this realme ſhall héereafter deſcend, come or remaine, by the appointment of the ſaid late king, in that caſe prouided & made, then being within the age of foure and twentie yeers, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by vertue of this preſent act, at all times, after he or they ſhall come to his or their full age of foure and twentie yeers, by his or their letters patents, vnder the great ſeale of England, to repeale all and ſingular act & acts, or anie of them, as be or ſhall be made or eſtabliſhed by his or their roiall aſſents in anie parlement holden, or to be holden, during the time that he or they was, were, or ſhall be, within the ſaid age of foure and twentie yéers, other than this preſent act of parlement, and other than all pardons granted and to be granted, within the ſaid ſeuerall ages of foure and twentie yéeres, by authoritie of parlement, ſo that the ſame repeale be made and vſed, in maner and forme héereafter following, that is to ſaie, that euerie ſuch letters patents of repeale, ſhall conteine all ſuch acts as ſhall be repealed, and ſhall be ſolemnelie and openlie proclamed in the kings court of chancerie, betwéene the houres of nine and eleuen before noone, at thrée ſeuerall daies, in euerie of two of the foure vſuall terms to be holden at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere, within this realme of England, and alſo one time in euerie countie of this realme, and in Wales, at the ſeuerall aſſiſes to be holden in the ſame ſeuerall counties, betwéene like houres, and that then after fortie daies next after ſuch proclamation, in all and euerie place and countie aboueſaid, ſo had and made, the ſaid letters patents of repeale to take their force, ſtrength, and effect, and not before, or from anie other time or ſeaſon, nor in anie other maner or forme. And that all and euerie ſuch act and acts, aſwell made in this parlement, as héereafter to be made, within the ſaid age of foure and twentie yeeres, of our ſouereigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is, as in the time of anie of the ſaid heire or heires, or other the ſaid perſon or perſons, then being in poſſeſſion of the imperiall crowne of this realme, and vnder the age of foure and twentie yéeres, ſhall be good and effectuall to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, vntill the ſaid letters patents of repeale, proclamations, and fortie daies ſhall be ſo had, made, run, and paſt: and that all and euerie act and acts, thing and things, vſed, had, committed, donne, ſuffered, or executed, by the authoritie of the ſaid act or acts, or anie of them, within anie of the ſaid ages of foure and twentie yeeres, according to the purport, tenor, and effect of the ſaid act or acts, or anie of them, ſhall be good & effectuall for euer, the ſaid repeale ſo to be made, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that all and euerie perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, ſhall and maie by the authoritie of this preſent act, from time to time, aſwell after the ſaid repeale as before, plead, or allege for his or their defenſe, excuſe, indemnitie, profit, benefit, or aduantage, all and euerie ſuch act or acts, or anie of them ſo reuoked, adnulled, or repealed, or to be reuoked, adnulled, or repealed, for, concerning, or in anie wiſe touching anie thing or things, had, vſed, granted, ſuffered, poſſeſſed, committed, donne, or accrued, by authoritie, ſufferance, or force of the ſaid act or acts, or anie of them, before the reuocation, adnullation, or repealing of the ſame, in ſuch and as ample maner and forme, as if the ſaid act or acts ſo to be reuoked, adnulled, or repealed, and euerie of them had ſtand in his & their full ſtrength, force and effect, and as if the ſaid act or acts had neuer béene reuoked, adnulled, or repealed; any thing in ſuch repeale conteined notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it alſo ordeined & enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no king or kings of this realme ſhall haue authoritie, power, or prerogatiue, to repeale anie act of parlement or ſtatute that ſhall be made in the time of anie king before the ſaid age of foure and twentie yéeres, other than ſuch as be or ſhall be made in his owne time; anie thing aboue mentioned to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the repeale of certeine ſtatutes concerning treaſons, felonies, &c.

Chap. 12.

Nothing being more godlie, more ſure, more to be wiſhed and deſired betwixt a prince, the ſupreme head ⁊ ruler, and the ſubiects, whoſe gouernor ⁊ head he is, than on the princes part great clemencie and indulgencie, and rather too much forgiueneſſe and remiſſion of his roiall power and iuſt puniſhment, than exact ſeueritie and iuſtice to be ſhewed: and on the ſubiects behalfe, that they ſhould obeie rather for loue, and for the neceſſitie and loue of a king and prince, than for feare of his ſtreict and ſeuere lawes: yet ſuch things at ſome time commeth in the commonwealth, that it is neceſſarie and expedient, for the repreſſing of the inſolencie and vnrulineſſe of men, and for the foreſeeing and prouiding of remedies againſt rebellion, inſurrection, or ſuch miſcheefs (as God ſometime with vs diſpleaſed, for our puniſhment doth inflict and laie vpon vs, or the diuell at Gods permiſſion, to aſſaie the good and Gods elect, doth ſow and ſet amongeſt) the which almightie God, with his helpe and mans policie hath alwaies beene content and pleaſed to haue ſtaied, that ſharper lawes, as a harder bridle ſhould be made, to ſtaie thoſe men and facts, that might elſe be occaſion, cauſe, and authors of further inconuenience. The which thing cauſed the prince of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight, father to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and other his highneſſe progenitors, with the aſſent of the nobles and commons at diuerſe parlements in their ſeuerall times holden, to make and enact certeine lawes and ſtatutes, which might ſeeme and appeare to men of exterior realmes, and manie of the kings maieſties ſubiects verie ſtreict, ſore, extreame, and terrible, although they were then, when they were made, not without great conſideration and policie, mooued and eſtabliſhed, and for the time to the auoidance of further inconuenience, verie expedient and neceſſarie. But as in tempeſt or winter, one courſe and garment is conuenient; in calme or warme weather, a more liberall race or lighter garment, both maie and ought to be followed and vſed: ſo we haue ſeene diuerſe ſtreict and ſore lawes made in one parlement, the time ſo requiring; in a more calme and quiet reigne of another prince, by the like authoritie and parlement repealed and taken awaie. The which moſt high clemencie, and roiall example of his maieſties moſt noble progenitors, the kings highneſſe, of his tender and godlie nature moſt giuen to mercie and loue of his ſubiects, willing to follow, and perceiuing the heartie and ſincere loue that his moſt louing ſubiects, both the lords and commons doth beare vnto his highneſſe, now in this his maieſties tender age, willing alſo to gratifie the ſame therefore, and minding further to prouoke his ſaid ſubiects with indulgencie and clemencie ſhewed on his highneſſe behalfe, to more loue and kindneſſe towards his maieſtie (if it maie be) and vpon truſt that they will not abuſe the ſame, but rather be incouraged thereby more faithfullie, and with more diligence (if it maie be) and care for his maieſtie, to ſerue his highneſſe now in this his tender age, is contented and pleaſed, that the ſeueritie of certeine lawes heere following be mitigated and remitted. Be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth none act, deed, or offenſe, being by act of parlement or ſtatute made treaſon, or petit treaſon, by words, writing, ciphering, deeds, or otherwiſe whatſoeuer, ſhall be taken, had, deemed, or adiudged, to be high treaſon, or petit treaſon, but onelie ſuch as be treaſon or petit treaſon, in, or by act of parlement, or ſtatute made in the fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of the moſt noble king of famous memorie king Edward the third, touching or concerning treaſon, or the declarations of treaſons: and ſuch offenſes as heereafter ſhall by this preſent act be expreſſed and declared to be treaſon, or petit treaſon, and none other, nor that anie paines of death, penaltie, or forfeiture in anie wiſe inſue, or to be to anie of the offendors, for the dooing or committing anie treaſon or petit treaſon, other than ſuch as be in the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of the ſaid king Edward the third, or by this preſent eſtatute ordeined and prouided: anie act or acts of parlement, ſtatute or ſtatutes, had or made, at anie time heeretofore, or after the ſaid fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Edward the third, or anie other declaration or matter to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all acts of parlement ⁊ eſtatutes, touching, mentioning, or in anie wiſe concerning religion or opinions, that is to ſaie, aſwell the ſtatute made in the firſt yeere of the reigne of the kings noble progenitor king Richard the ſecond, ⁊ the ſtatute made in the ſecond yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the fift, and the ſtatute alſo made in the fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, concerning puniſhment and reformation of heretiks and lollards, and euerie prouiſion therin conteined, and the ſtatute made for the aboliſhment of diuerſitie of opinions in certeine articles concerning chriſtian religion, commonlie called the ſix articles, made in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the eight and twentith day of Aprill in the one ⁊ thirtith yeere of the reigne of the moſt noble ⁊ victorious prince of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight, father to our moſt dred ſouereigne lord the king that now is, ⁊ alſo the act of parlement ⁊ ſtatute made at the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the ſixteenth daie of Ianuarie, in the three ⁊ thirtith yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, and after that proroged vnto the two ⁊ twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the foure ⁊ thirtith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, touching, mentioning, or in anie wiſe concerning books of the old and new teſtament in Engliſh, and the printing, vttering, ſelling, giuing or deliuering of books or writings, and reteining of Engliſh books or writings, and reading, preaching, teaching or expounding of ſcripture, or in anie wiſe touching, mentioning, or concerning anie of the ſame matters. And alſo one other ſtatute made in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the fiue and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, concerning the qualification of the ſtatute of ſix articles, and all and euerie other act or acts of parlement, concerning doctrine or matters of religion, and all & euerie branch, article, ſentence, and matter, paines, and forfeitures conteined, mentioned, or in anie wiſe declared, in anie of the ſame acts of parlement or eſtatutes, ſhall from henſeforth be repealed, and vtterlie void and of none effect.

And be it further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all offenſes made felonie by anie act or acts of parlement, ſtatute or ſtatutes, made ſithence the thrée and twentith daie of Aprill, in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, not being felonie before, and alſo all and euerie the branches and articles mentioned, or in anie wiſe declared in anie of the ſame ſtatutes, concerning the making of anie offenſe or offenſes to be felonie, not being felonie before; and all paines and forfeitures concerning the ſame, or anie of them, ſhall from thenſeforth be repealed, and vtterlie void and of none effect.

And be it alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that one act made in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the one and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, that proclamations made by the kings highnes, by the aduiſe of his honorable counſell, ſhould be obeied and kept, as though they were made by authoritie of parlement: and alſo one other act made in the parlement holden in the foure & twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, for the due execution of the ſaid proclamation, and alſo all and euerie branch, article, and matter in the ſame ſtatutes, and euerie of them mentioned and declared, ſhall from henſeforth be repealed, and vtterlie void and of none effect.

And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time after the firſt daie of March next comming, by open preaching, expreſſe words or ſaiengs, doo affirme or ſet forth, that the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme for the time being, is not, or ought not to be ſupreme head in earth of the church of England and Ireland, or anie of them, immediatlie vnder God, or that the biſhop of Rome, or anie other perſon or perſons, other than the king of England for the time being, is, or ought to be by the lawes of God, ſupreme head of the ſame churches, or of anie of them, or that the king his heires or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, is not or ought not to be king of England, France, and Ireland, or of anie of them, or after the ſaid firſt daie of March, doo compaſſe or imagin by open preaching, expreſſe words or ſaiengs, to depoſe or depriue the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, from his or their roiall eſtate or titles, to or of the realmes aforeſaid, or doo openlie publiſh, or ſaie by expreſſe words or ſaiengs, that anie other perſon or perſons, other than the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, of right ought to be kings of the realmes aforeſaid, or anie of them, or to haue and inioy the ſame, or anie of them, that then euerie ſuch offendor being thereof dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes of this realme, their aiders, comforters, abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, for his or their ſuch firſt offenſe, ſhall looſe and forfeit to the king, all his and their goods and chattels, and alſo ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment of his and their bodies at the kings will and pleaſure. And if anie perſon being once conuicted or atteinted of anie of the ſaid offenſes, ſhall after his conuiction or atteindor, eftſoones commit or perpetrat anie of the offenſes before mentioned, other than ſuch as be expreſſed in the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid fiue and twentith yeere of king Edward the third, and ſhall be thereof dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes of this realme: that then euerie ſuch offendor, their aiders, comforters, abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, for his or their ſaid ſecond offenſe or offenſes, ſhall looſe and forfeit to the king the whole iſſues and profits, of all his and their lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, benefices, prebends, and other ſpirituall promotions for terme of life, of ſuch offendor or offendors, and ſhall alſo looſe and forfeit to the king all his and their goods and chattels, and alſo ſuffer during his and their liues perpetuall impriſonment of his or their bodies. And if anie perſon being two times héereafter conuicted or atteinted of anie of the ſame offenſes, ſhall after his ſaid ſecond conuiction or atteindor eftſoones commit to perpetrat againe anie of the ſaid offenſes to be thereof dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme: that then euerie ſuch third offenſe or offenſes ſhall be déemed and adiudged high treſon, and the offendor or offendors, their aiders, comforters, abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, being thereof conuicted or atteinted according to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme. ſhall be déemed and adiudged high traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and looſe and forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands and tenements to the king as in caſes of high treaſon.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of March next comming, by writing, printing, ouert déed or act, doo affirme or ſet forth, that the king of this realme for the time being, is not, or ought not to be ſupreme head in earth of the church of England and Ireland, or of anie of them, immediatlie vnder God, or ſhall by writing, printing, ouert déed or act, after the ſaid firſt daie of March, affirme or ſet forth that the biſhop of Rome, or anie other perſon or perſons, other than the king of England for the time being, is or ought to be by the lawes of God, or otherwiſe, the ſupreame head in earth of the ſame churches, or of anie of them, or doo after the ſaid firſt daie of March, compaſſe or imagine by writing, printing, ouert déed or act, to depoſe or depriue the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, from his or their roiall eſtate, or titles of the king of England, France and Ireland, or of anie of them, or by anie writing, printing, ouert déed or act, doo affirme that anie other perſon or perſons, other than the king, his heirs, and ſucceſſors is, or of right ought to be king of the realmes of England, France, or Ireland, or to haue and inioy the ſame, or anie of them, that then euerie ſuch offenſe & offenſes, ſhall be déemed, and adiudged high treaſon, and the offender and offenders, their aiders, comforters, abbettors, procurors, & counſellers therein conuicted or atteinted, according to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, ſhall be déemed and adiudged high traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe & forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands and tenements to the king, as in caſes of high treaſon.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this eſtatute, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to repeale, adnull, or make fruſtrat or void, anie act or acts of parlement, ſtatute or ſtatutes made, concerning the counterfeiting, or forging of anie of the coins of this realme, or for the coine of anie other realme or realmes, currant within this realme, or for clipping, waſhing or filing anie of the ſaid coins, or for, or concerning the bringing into this realme of counterfeit monie or coine; ne to anie ſtatute made in the ſeuen & twentith yéere of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, concerning the falſe forging and counterfeiting of the kings ſigne manuell, priuie ſignet, or priuie ſeale, ne to their counſellers, procurors, aiders, and abbettors, nor to anie article or branch, concerning the ſame offenſes or anie of them conteined in the ſame ſtatutes, or anie of them.

Chap.13.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your moſt excellent maieſtie, your poore commons in this your preſent parlement aſſembled, that where aſwell your moſt deareſt father of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, as alſo your moſt worthie grandfather king Henrie the ſeuenth, and other your noble progenitors kings of this your realme of England, time out of mind, haue had granted vnto them, and inioied of the commons of the ſame realme for the time being, by authoritie of parlement for the defenſe of the ſame now your realme, and the keeping, and ſafegard of the ſeas for the intercourſe of merchandize, ſafelie to come into the ſame your realme, and to paſſe out of the ſame, certeine ſums of monie, named ſubſidies, of all maner of goods and merchandizes, comming in or going out of the ſame your realme. And foraſmuch as we your ſaid poore commons haue perceiued your maieſties good fauor and will towards vs your ſaid poore commons, had aſwell in the defenſe of vs, and this your realme, againſt your rebels the Scots, as alſo the keeping and ſure defending of the ſeas, againſt all perſons intending the diſturbance and inuaſion of this your realme, and vs your ſaid commons, to our great comfort and reioiſing, as cauſe requireth, and to your maieſties great coſts, charges, and expenſes; and alſo not doubting the ſequell of the ſame if need ſhall require. We therefore your ſaid poore commons, as bounden of dutie, humblie deſire your excellent maieſtie benignelie, and fauorablie to take, accept, and receiue theſe our poore grants heereafter inſuing, as granted of true hearts and good wils, which we beare to your highneſſe, towards your ſaid great coſts, charges, and expenſes, aſwell heeretofore expended and laid out, as heereafter by your maieſtie for the cauſes aforeſaid, when need ſhall require, to be expended and laid out, as the firſt fruits of our good wils and hearts towards your highneſſe, although the ſame doo, or heereafter ſhall nothing in effect counteruaile your ſaid coſts, charges, and expenſes, which we be not able fullie to gratifie by anie meanes. Firſt we your poore commons, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, in this your preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, to the intent aforeſaid, giue & grant to you our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, one ſubſidie called tunnage, that is to ſaie, of euerie tun of wine comming, or that ſhall, or is come into this your realme by waie of merchandize, the ſum of iij.s. and ſo after the rate; and of euerie tun of ſweet wine, aſwell malmeſeie as other that ſhall, or is come into the ſame your realme, by euerie or anie merchant alien, aſwell by the merchants of Hanſe and Almaine, as by anie other merchant ſtranger, of what nation ſoeuer he be, iij.s. and ſo after the rate, ouer and aboue the iij.s. afore granted. And of euerie awlne of Rheniſh wine comming, or that ſhall or is come into this your realme, by waie of merchandize, by euerie or anie merchant denizen, or alien, of what nation ſo euer he be xij.d. And alſo one other ſubſidie called poundage, that is to ſaie, of all maner of goods and merchandizes, of euerie merchant denizen, and alien whatſoeuer he be, carried and to be carried out of this your ſaid realme, or brought, or to be brought into the ſame by waie of merchandizes, of the value of euerie xx.s. of the ſame goods and merchandizes xij.d. and ſo after the rate. And of xx.s. value of tin and pewter veſſell carried out of this your realme, by anie and euerie merchant alien xij.d. ouer and aboue the xij.d. aforeſaid. Except alwaies and forepriſed out of this grant of ſubſidie of poundage, all maner of woollen cloth made and wrought, or that ſhall be made and wrought within this realme of England, and by euerie or anie merchant denizen, and not borne alien, carried or to be carried out of this your ſaid realme, and all maner of wooll, wooll fels, and hides, and backs of leather alſo carried or to be carried out of this your realme, & all wines, and all maner of freſh fiſh, and beſtiall, comming, or that is or ſhall come into the ſame your realme.

And further, we your ſaid poore commons, by the aduiſe, aſſent, and authoritie aforeſaid, giue and grant vnto you our ſaid ſoucreigne lord, for the cauſes aboue rehearſed, one other ſubſidie of all maner of wooll, wooll fels, and leather carried or to be carried out of this your realme, in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie, of euerie merchant denizen of and for euerie ſacke of wooll xxxiij.s. iiij.d. And of and for euerie cc.xl. wooll fels iij.li.vj.s.viij.d. And alſo of euerie laſt of hides and backs iij.li.xiij.s.iiij.d. And ſo of all the ſaid wools, wooll fels, hides and backs, and euerie of them, after the rate that ſo is, or ſhall be carried, to haue, take, inioy, and perceiue the ſubſidies aforeſaid, and euerie of them, and euerie part or parcell of them to your highneſſe, from the firſt daie of your moſt noble reigne, during your life naturall.

And further, we your ſaid poore commons moſt humblie deſire your maieſtie, that it maie be enacted by your highneſſe, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the lords aforeſaid, and vs your ſaid commons, and by the foreſaid authoritie of this preſent parlement aſſembled, that the gifts and grants aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectuall, according to the true meaning of the ſame. And that it may be further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie wines, goods, merchandizes, wools, wooll fels, hides, and backs of leather aforeſaid, or other things afore ſpecified, whereof the ſubſidies aforeſaid, or anie of them, is or ſhall be héereafter due, ſhall at anie time héereafter, during the time aforeſaid, be ſhipped or put into anie bote, craier, ſhip, or veſſell, to that intent to be carried into the parts of beyond the ſea, or elſe be brought from the parts of beyond the ſea, into anie port, hauen, créeke, or other place of this your realme by waie of merchandize, and there laid on land, the ſubſidie aforeſaid of the ſame (due or to be due by reaſon of this grant) not paied, or the collector of the ſame ſubſidie not agréed with for the ſame, according to the true meaning and intent of theſe aforeſaid grants, and euerie of them: that then from the firſt daie of March next comming and not before, all the ſaid wines, goods, merchandizes, wools, wooll fels, hides and backs, and other the premiſſes aforeſaid, and euerie part and parcell thereof ſo ſhipped, or elſe put into anie bote, craier, or other veſſell aforeſaid, to the intent aforeſaid, or brought into this realme, and there laid on land, as is alſo aforeſaid, ſhall remaine forfeit to your highneſſe, during the time aforeſaid; the one moitie thereof, or the value thereof to your highneſſe, and the other moitie to him or them that ſhall ſeize the ſame, or ſue for the ſame. And that it maie pleaſe your highneſſe that all merchants, aſwell denizens as ſtrangers, comming into this your realme, be well and honeſtlie intreated and demeaned, as they were in the time of your aforeſaid noble progenitors without oppreſſion to them to be doone, paieng the ſubſidies aboueſaid.

And further, that it be enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie goods, merchandizes, wools, wooll fels, or leather aforeſaid, or anie part thereof, of anie merchant denizen, naturallie borne your lége man, which ſhall paſſe out of this your ſaid realme, after the ſaid firſt daie of March, during the terme of this gift and grant, ſhall happen to be taken with enimies or pirats vpon the ſea, or periſhed by miſfortune in anie ſhip or ſhips, that ſhall happen to be taken or periſhed within the time of the ſaid grant, wherof the ſubſidies aforeſaid or anie of them to your highneſſe due or to be due, is, or ſhall be in forme aforeſaid dulie paied or agréed for, without fraud or colluſion, and ſuch loſſe or loſſes as béene before rehearſed, be found and prooued before the treaſuror of England, or the chéefe baron of your excheker for the time being, by the examination of the ſame merchants if they be on liue, or of their executors or adminiſtrators, if they be dead, or two true credible perſons ſworne, or other reaſonable witneſſes and profes ſworne, witneſſing the ſame merchandizes ſo to be loſt or periſhed: that then the ſame merchants denizens that were or ſhall be owners of the aforeſaid goods, merchandizes, wooll, wooll fels, hides or other merchandizes aforeſaid, as ſhall be ſo periſhed or loſt, if they be on liue, or their executors, and adminiſtrators, if they be dead, and euerie of them, by force and vertue of this act when them liketh, during the ſaid terme, ſhall mooue and ſhip aſmuch wooll, wooll fels, hides, or other merchandize in the ſame port or ports, in which the ſame wooll, wooll fels, hides, or other goods and merchandizes aforeſaid, ſo loſt and periſhed, were or ſhall be ſhipped without anie of the ſubſidies aforeſaid now granted, to be had or paied therefore to you in anie wiſe, and that all ſuch profits of the premiſſes ſo to be loſt or periſhed, be certified into your chancerie, by your ſaid treaſuror or chéefe baron, there to remaine of record, and after ſuch certificat made, the chancellor of England, or the lord keeper of your great ſeale, for the time being, do make and deliuer vnto the ſaid merchants, their executors or adminiſtrators, or anie of them, or to their attorneie, or to their attorneis in that behalfe, or anie of them, as manie and ſuch writs and warrants to be directed as well to the collectors of the ſubſidies aforeſaid, or anie, or euerie of them for the time being, as to the treaſuror and barons of your exchequer for the time being, as ſhall be requiſit and néedfull for the ſaid merchants, their executors or adminiſtrators, or their attorneie or attorneis, or anie of them, or the ſaid collectors or anie of them, to haue for the obteining, as well of the ſhipping, as of allowance thereof. And further that euerie merchant denizen that ſhall ſhip hereafter anie wooll, wooll fels, hides, or anie other goods and merchandizes in anie carrike or galleie, ſhall paie to your maieſtie during the time aforeſaid, all maner of cuſtoms, and all the ſubſidies aforeſaid, as anie alien borne out of this your realme.

Prouided alwaies, that no act, ſtatute, or ordinance had, made, or to be made in this preſent parlement, be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto the merchants of the hanſe in Almaine, hauing the houſe in the citie of London, commonlie called Guilhalda Theutonicorum, nor to anie franchiſes, liberties, or priuileges to them or their predeceſſors before this time had, agréed, granted or confirmed, nor to anie lawfull vſages by them or by their predeceſſors before this time vſed, but that the ſaid merchants and their ſucceſſors haue, hold, and inioy, all their ſaid franchiſes, liberties, and frée vſages, according to ſuch grants, confirmations and agreements, as by the king and his noble progenitors kings of England haue béene agréed, made and granted, and had to the ſaid merchants or their predeceſſors, and according to their lawfull vſages in euerie thing, by whatſoeuer other name or names the ſame merchants or anie of them be called or named, any act, ſtatute, or ordinance made or to be made in this preſent parlement, to the contrarie notwithſtanding: This preſent prouiſo to endure and continue vnto the end of this preſent parlement.

An act whereby certeine chanteries, colleges, free chapell, and the poſſeſſions of the ſame, be giuen to the kings maieſtie.

Chap. 14.

THe kings moſt louing ſubiects, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, conſidering that a great part of ſuperſtition and errors of chriſtian religion hath beene brought into the minds and eſtimation of men, by reaſon of the ignorance of their verie true and perfect ſaluation, through the death of Jeſus Chriſt, and by deuiſing and fantaſieng vaine opinions of purgatorie, and maſſes ſatiſfactorie to be doone for them which be departed. The which doctrine and vaine opinion, by nothing more is mainteined and vpholden, than by the abuſe of trentals, chanteries, and other prouiſions made for the continuance of the ſaid blindneſſe and ignorance. And further conſidering and vnderſtanding that the alteration, change, and amendment of the ſame, and conuerting to good and godlie vſes, as in erecting grammar ſchooles to the education of youth in vertue and godlineſſe, the further augmenting of the vniuerſities, and better prouiſion for the poore and néedie, cannot in this preſent parlement be prouided & conuenientlie doone, nor cannot, ne ought to anie other maner perſon be committed, than to the kings highneſſe, whoſe maieſtie, with, and by the aduiſe of his highneſſe moſt prudent counſell, can and will moſt wiſelie and beneficiallie, both for the honor of God, and the weale of his maieſties realme, order, alter, conuert, and diſpoſe the ſame. And calling further to their remembrance, that in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the xxxvij. yéere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, father to our moſt dread and naturall ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed amongſt other things, that all and ſingular colleges, frée chapels, chanteries, hoſpitals, fraternities, brotherhoods, guilds, and other promotions mentioned in the ſaid former act, had, or made to haue continuance in perpetuitie for euer, and then being, or that had, or ought to be contributorie or chargeable to the paiment of the firſt frutes and tenths, according to the lawes and ſtatutes in that behalfe had, & made, by what name, ſurname, degrée, or corporation, they, or anie of them were founded, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, erected, named, called, or knowen: and all & ſingular the manſion houſes, manors, orchards, gardens, lands, tenements, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, commons, tithes, penſions, portions, churches, chapels, aduouſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rights, intereſts, entries, conditions, léets, courts, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, then apperteining, or belonging, or that did apperteine, or belong, or were aſſigned, or appointed to anie ſuch college, frée chapell, chanterie, hoſpitall, fraternitie, brotherhood, guild, ſtipendarie prieſt, or other the ſaid promotions, or to anie of them, or accepted, knowen, or taken as part, parcell, or member of them, or anie of them: and to the ſaid colleges, chanteries, frée chapels, hoſpitals, fraternities, brotherhood, guild, ſtipendarie prieſts, or other promotions, or to anie of them vnited or annexed, which betwéene the fourth daie of Februarie, in the ſeuen and twentie yéere of the late kings reigne, and the fiue and twentie daie of December, in the ſeuen and thirtie yéere of his graces reigne, by reaſon of anie entrie, expulſion, bargaine, ſale, feoffement, fine, recouerie, leaſe, or other conueiance thereof made, were diſſolued, determined, or relinquiſhed by anie of the waies, meanes, or conueiances mentioned in the ſaid act, or otherwiſe other than ſuch of them as then were in the poſſeſſion of the ſaid late king, or that were granted or aſſured by his licence, agréement, conſent, or letters patents to anie perſon or perſons, or then had béene lawfullie obteined or recouered by anie perſon, by anie former right or title, without fraud or couin, or by the kings licence, ſhall from thenſeforth by authoritie of the ſame former act, be adiudged and deemed, and alſo be in the verie actuall and reall poſſeſſion and ſeizon of the ſaid late king, and of his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, in as large and ample maner, as the ſaid preeſts, wardens, maſters, miniſters, gouernors, rulers, or other incumbents, or anie of them, or the patrons, donors, or founders of anie of them at anie time ſithence the ſaid fourth daie of Februarie in the ſeuen and twentie yeere aforeſaid, had, occupied or inioied, or then had, occupied, or inioied the ſame, and as though all and ſingular the ſaid colleges, chanteries, hoſpitals, free chapels, fraternities, brotherhoods, guilds, and other the ſaid promotions, and the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes whatſoeuer they be, and euerie of them, had beene in the ſaid former act, ſpeciallie, particularlie, and certeinlie rehearſed, named, and expreſſed by expreſſe words, names, ſurnames, corporations, titles, and faculties, and in their naturall kinds and qualities, the ſaid entrees, expulſions, bargaines, ſales, fines, feoffements, recoueries, or other aſſurance and conueiance whatſoeuer they were, had, or made (except before in the former act excepted) to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And where alſo it was enacted and granted by the ſaid late king, by the ſaid former act, that the ſame late king during his naturall life, might make and direct his commiſſion and commiſſions vnder his great ſeale, to enter into all and ſingular ſuch and as manie chanteries, free chapels, hoſpitals, colleges, and other the promotions mentioned in the ſaid former act, and into all and ſingular ſuch manors, manſions, houſes, meaſes, lands, tenements, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, poſſeſſions, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, or into anie part or parcell thereof in the name, ſeizon, and poſſeſſion of all the hereditamennts, annexed, vnited, belonging, or apperteining to anie chanterie, hoſpitall, free chapell, college, fraternitie, brotherhood, guild, or other the ſaid promotions, or whereof anie preeſts, prouoſts, gouernors, rulers, or other incumbents, of them, or of any of them, by what name, ſurname, degree, title, or corporation, they, and euerie of them or anie of them were founded, erected, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, named, called, or knowen, then had or inioied, or that heereafter ſhould haue, or inioy to the ſaid chanteries, hoſpitals, free chapels, colleges, fraternities, brotherhoods, guilds, or other the ſaid promotions that then were chargeable to the paiment of the firſt frutes and tenths, and all colleges that were chargeable or not chargeable to the ſaid paiment of the firſt frutes and tenths as is aforeſaid, or to anie of them, as ſhould be named, expreſſed, and appointed in the ſaid commiſſion or commiſſions, and to ſeize and take the ſame chanteries, hoſpitals, colleges, free chapels, fraternities, brotherhoods, guilds, and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes mentioned in the ſaid commiſſion or commiſſions, and in euerie of them, and euerie part, parcell, and member of the ſame into the kings poſſeſſion and hands, to haue and to hold the ſame to the ſaid late king, and to his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, as by the ſaid former act amongſt other things more at large appeereth. It is now ordeined and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that all maner of colleges, free chapels and chanteries, hauing, being, or in Eſſe, within v. yeeres next before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, which were not in actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the ſaid late king, nor in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the king our ſouereigne lord that now is, nor excepted in the ſaid former act in forme aboueſaid, other than ſuch as by the kings commiſſions in forme heereafter mentioned, ſhall be altered, tranſported, or changed, and in all manors, lands, tenements, rents, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments, and things aboue mentioned, belonging to them or anie of them: and alſo all manors, lands, tenements, rents, and other hereditaments, and things aboue mentioned by anie maner of aſſurance, conueiance, will, deuiſe, or otherwiſe, had, made, ſuffred, knowledged, or declared, giuen, aſſigned, limited, or appointed to the finding of any preeſt, to haue continuance for euer, and wherewith, or whereby anie preeſt was ſuſteined, mainteined, or found within fiue yeeres next before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, which were not in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the ſaid late king, nor in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is: and alſo all annuall rents, profits, and emoluments at anie time within fiue yeeres next before the beginning of this preſent parlement, imploied, paid, or beſtowed toward, or for the maintenance, ſupportation, or finding of anie ſtipendarie preeſt, intending by anie act or writing to haue continuance for euer, ſhall by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, immediatlie after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, be adiudged and deemed, and alſo be in the verie actuall and reall poſſeſſion and ſeizon of the king our ſouereigne lord and his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, without anie office or other inquiſition thereof to be had or found, and in as large and ample maner and forme, as the preeſts, wardens, maiſters, miniſters, gouernors, rulers, or other incumbents of them, or anie of them, at anie time within fiue yeeres next before the beginning of this preſent parlement, had, occupied, or inioied, or now hath, occupieth, or inioieth the ſame, and as though all and ſingular the ſaid colleges, free chapels, chanteries, ſtipends, ſalaries of preeſts, and the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes what ſo euer they be, and euerie of them, were in this preſent act, ſpeciallie, particularlie, and certeinlie rehearſed, named, and expreſſed by expreſſe words, names, ſurnames, corporations, titles, and faculties, and in their natures, kinds and qualities.

And ouer that be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that where anie manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, rents, profits, or other hereditaments, by anie maner of aſſurance, conueiance, will, deuiſe, or otherwiſe at anie time héeretofore had, made, ſuffered, knowledged, or declared, were giuen, aſſigned, or appointed, to, or for the maintenance, ſuſtentation, or finding of one préeſt, or of diuers préeſts for terme of certeine yéeres yet continuing, and that anie préeſt hath beene mainteined, ſuſteined, or found with the ſame, or with the reuenues or profits thereof within fiue yéeres laſt paſt, that the king from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall haue and inioy in euerie behalfe, for, and during all ſuch time to come, euerie ſuch, and like things, tenements, hereditaments, profits, and emoluments, as the préeſt or préeſts ought, or ſhould haue had, for, or toward his, or their maintenance, ſuſtenance, or finding, and for no longer or further time, nor for anie other profit, auantage or commoditie thereof to be taken.

Prouided alwaies, and it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that when and as ſoone as the time aſſigned for the maintenance, ſuſtentation, or finding of the préeſt or préeſts ſhall be expired and run, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons to whome anie manors, lands, tenements, tithes, portions, penſions, rents, and other hereditaments, or anie of them ſhould haue belonged or apperteined, if the ſaid former act, and this act, had neuer béene had, or made, to enter into, take, perceiue, haue, and inioy the ſame without anie maner of liuerie, Ouſter le maine, petition, or other ſute to be made to the king, in like maner, forme, and condition, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſaid former act and this act, had neuer béene had or made, and as though the king had neuer had anie ſeizon or poſſeſſion thereof; anie thing in the ſaid former act, or in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſours, from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall haue, hold, perceiue, and inioy for euer, all lands, tenements, rents, and other hereditaments, which by anie maner of aſſurance, conueiance, wils, will, deuiſe, or otherwiſe, at anie time héeretofore had, made, ſuffered, knowledged, or declared, were giuen, aſſigned, or appointed to go, or be imploied wholie to the finding or maintenance of anie anniuerſarie, or obit, or other thing, intent or purpoſe, or of anie light, or lampe, in anie church or chapell, to haue continuance for euer, which hath béene kept or mainteined within fiue yéeres next before the ſaid firſt daie of this preſent parlement.

And that it ſhall be lawfull to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors for non paiment of anie ſuch ſumme or ſummes of monie, to diſtreine in the ſaid manors, lands, and tenements of the iſſues and reuenues whereof the ſaid anniuerſarie, or obit, or other like thing, or anie ſuch light or lampe was found, ſuſteined, or mainteined. And that for lacke of ſufficient diſtreſſe, in, or vpon anie of the premiſſes, whereof anie of the ſaid yéerelie rents, or ſummes of monie ſhould be paied by the ſpace of one moneth next after that anie of the ſaid rents ſhould be paid, and be not paied within the ſaid moneth, that then it ſhall be lawfull to, and for our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſours, by vertue of this preſent act, to enter into, and to haue, and poſſeſſe as much of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, whereof the ſaid rent or rents ſhould be leuied or paied, as the rent or rents that ſhould be leuied or paied out of the ſame, doth, or ſhall amount or come to in yéerelie value, and the ſame lands, tenements, and hereditaments, to hold and kéepe, and to haue to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires and aſſignes for euer, or for ſuch eſtate as our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires, or ſucceſſours, had, or ought to haue had, of, or in the ſaid rent, or rents.

And that it ſhall be lawfull to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors for non paiment of anie ſuch ſummes or ſumme of monie, profit, commoditie, or emolument, or for non paiment of anie of them, to diſtreine in all the manors, lands, and tenements of euerie ſuch crafts, corporations, guilds, fraternities, companies, or fellowſhips of myſteries or crafts, or anie of them, by whom, or by the maſters, wardens, gouernors, or other officers or miniſters, or maſter, warden, gouernor, or miniſter, of the which anie ſuch ſummes or ſumme of monie, profit, commoditie or emolument, haue or hath beene paied, beſtowed, or emploied : and that all and euerie of the ſaid ſummes of monie, profits, commodities, and emoluments, ſhall from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, without anie maner of inquiſition, or office to be had or found, be iudged and deemed to be in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, in like maner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if the ſame had beene particularlie and ſpeciallie mentioned in this preſent act.

And furthermore be it ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the king our ſoueraigne lord, ſhall from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, haue, and inioy to him, his heires, and ſucceſſors for euer, all fraternities, brotherhoods and guilds, being within the realme of England and Wales, and other the kings dominions, and all manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments belonging to them or anie of them, other than ſuch corporations, guilds, fraternities, companies, and fellowſhips of myſteries or crafts, and the manors, lands, and tenements, and other hereditaments, perteining to the ſaid corporations, guilds, fraternities, companies, and fellowſhips of myſteries or crafts aboue mentioned : and ſhall by vertue of this act be iudged and deemed in actuall and reall poſſeſſion of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming for euer, without anie inquiſition or office thereof to be had or found.

Anno ſecundo & tertio Edwardi ſexti, at Weſtminſter by prorogation the fourth of Nouember, and continued till the fourteenth daie of March next after.

An act for the vniformitie of ſeruice, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments throughout the realme.

The first chapter.

WHere of long time there hath beene had in this realme of England and in Wales, diuers formes of common praier, commonlie called the ſeruice of the church; that is to ſaie, the vſe of Sarum, of Yorke, of Bangor, and of Lincolne: and beſides the ſame now of late, much more diuers and ſundrie formes and faſhions haue beene vſed in the cathedrall and pariſh churches of England and Wales, as well concerning the matins or morning praier, and the euenſong, as alſo concerning the holie communion, commonlie called the maſſe, with diuerſe and ſundrie rites and ceremonies concerning the ſame, and in the adminiſtration of other ſacraments of the church. And as the dooers and executors of the ſaid rites, and ceremonies, in other forme than of late yeeres they haue beene vſed, were pleaſed therewith; ſo other not vſing the ſame rites and ceremonies were thereby greatlie offended. And albeit the kings maieſtie, with the aduiſe of his moſt intirelie beloued vncle the lord protector, & other of his highneſſe councell, hath heertofore diuerſe times aſſaied to ſtaie innouations, or new rites concerning the premiſſes: yet the ſame hath not had ſuch good ſucceſſe as his highnes required in that behalfe. Wherevpon his highnes by the moſt prudent aduiſe aforeſaid, being pleaſed to beare with the frailtie and weakeneſſe of his ſubiects in that behalfe, of his great clemencie hath not beene onlie content to abſteine from puniſhment of thoſe that haue offended in that behalfe, for that his highnes taketh that they did it of a good zeale: but alſo to the intent a vniforme, quiet & godlie order ſhould be had concerning the premiſſes, hath appointed the archbiſhop of Canturburie, and certeine of the moſt learned and diſcreet biſhops, and other learned men of this realme, to conſider and ponder the premiſſes, and therevpon hauing aſwell eie and reſpect to the moſt ſincere and pure chriſtian religion taught by the ſcripture, as to the vſages in the primitiue church, ſhould draw and make one conuenient and meet order, rite and faſhion of common and open praier, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, to be had and vſed in his maieſties realme of England, and in Wales, the which at this time by the aid of the Holie ghoſt, with one vniforme agreement, is of them concluded, ſet forth and deliuered to his highneſſe, to his great comfort and quietneſſe of mind, in a booke intituled: The booke of the common praier, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, and other rites & ceremonies of the church, after the vſe of the church of England. Wherefore the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, conſidering aſwell the moſt godlie trauell of the kings highneſſe, of the lord protector, and other of his highneſſe counſell, in gathering and collecting the ſaid archbiſhop, biſhops, and learned men togither, as the godlie praiers, orders, rites, and ceremonies in the ſaid booke mentioned, and the conſiderations of altering thoſe things which be altered, and reteining thoſe things which be reteined in the ſaid booke, but alſo the honor of God and great quietneſſe, which by the grace of God ſhall inſue vpon the one and vniforme rite and order, in ſuch common praier and rites, and externe ceremonies to be vſed throughout England and in Wales, at Calis and the marches of the ſame, doo giue to his highneſſe moſt heartie and lowlie thanks for the ſame, and humblie praie that it maie be ordeined and enacted by his maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons that haue offended concerning the premiſſes, other than ſuch perſon and perſons, as now be and remaine in the Tower of London, or in the Fleet, maie be pardoned thereof, and that all and ſingular miniſters in anie cathedrall or pariſh church, or other place within this realme of England, Wales, Calis, and in the marches of the ſame, or other the kings dominions, ſhall from and after the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, be bounden to ſaie and vſe the matins, euenſong, celebration of the Lords ſupper, commonlie called the maſſe, and adminiſtration of ech of the ſacraments, and all their common and open praier, in ſuch order and forme as is before mentioned in the ſaid booke, and none other or otherwiſe. And albeit that the ſame be ſo godlie and good, that they giue occaſion to euerie honeſt and conformable man moſt willinglie to imbrace them; yet leaſt anie obſtinat perſon, who willinglie would diſturbe ſo godlie order and quiet in this realme ſhould not go vnpuniſhed; that it maie alſo be ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie maner of parſon, vicar, or other whatſoeuer miniſter that ought or ſhould ſing or ſaie common praier, mentioned in the ſaid booke, or miniſter the ſacraments, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, refuſe to vſe the ſaid common praiers, or to miniſter the ſacraments in ſuch cathedrall or pariſh church, or other places as he ſhould vſe or miniſter the ſame, in ſuch order and forme as they be mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid booke, or ſhall vſe wilfullie and obſtinatlie ſtanding in the ſame, anie other rite, ceremonie, order, forme, or maner of maſſe openlie or priuilie, or matins, euenſong, adminiſtration of the ſacraments, or other open praier than is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid booke: Open praier, in, and throughout this act, is meant that praier which is for other to come vnto, or heare, either in common churches, or priuat chapels, or oratories, commonlie called the ſeruice of the church, or ſhall preach, declare, or ſpeake anie thing in the derogation, or deprauing of the ſaid booke, or anie thing therein conteined, or of anie part thereof, and ſhall be thereof lawfullie conuicted according to the lawes of this realme, by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confeſſion, or by the notorious euidence of the fact, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the king's highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors, for his firſt offenſe the profit of ſuch one of his ſpirituall benefices or promotions, as it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to aſſigne or appoint, comming and ariſing in one whole yeere, next after this conuiction. And alſo that the ſame perſon ſo conuicted, ſhall for the ſame offenſe ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of ſix moneths, without baile or mainpriſe. And if anie ſuch perſon once conuict of anie offenſe concerning the premiſſes, ſhall after his firſt conuiction eftſoones offend, and be thereof in forme aforeſaid lawfullie conuict, that then the ſame perſon ſhall for his ſecond offenſe ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere, and alſo ſhall therefore be depriued Ipſo facto of all his ſpirituall promotions, and that it ſhall be lawfull to all patrons, donors, and granters, of all and ſingular the ſame ſpirituall promotions, to preſent to the ſame anie other able clerke, in like maner and forme as though the partie ſo offending were dead. And that if anie ſuch perſon or perſons, after he ſhall be twiſe conuicted in forme aforeſaid, ſhall offend againſt anie of the premiſſes the third time, and ſhall be thereof in forme aforeſaid lawfullie conuict, that then the perſon ſo offending, and conuicted the third time, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment during his life. And if the perſon that ſhall offend, and be conuict in forme aforeſaid, concerning anie of the premiſſes, ſhall not be beneficed, nor haue anie ſpirituall promotion, that then the ſame perſon ſo offending and conuict, ſhall for the firſt offenſe ſuffer impriſonment during ſix moneths, without baile or mainpriſe. And if anie ſuch perſon, not hauing anie ſpirituall promotion, after his firſt conuiction, ſhall eftſoons offend in anie thing concerning the premiſſes, and ſhall in forme aforeſaid be therof lawfullie conuicted, that then the ſame perſon ſhall for his ſecond offenſe ſuffer impriſonment during his life.

Michaell the archangell, in like maner and forme as iuſtices of aſſiſe and Oier & determiner maie doo.

Prouided alwaies, and be it ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular archbiſhops and biſhops, and euerie of their chancellors, commiſſaries, archdeacons, and other ordinaries hauing anie peculiar eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, as well to inquire in their viſitations, ſynods, and elſewhere within their iuriſdiction, at anie other time and place, to take occaſions and informations of all and euerie the things aboue mentioned, doone, committed, or perpetrat, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authoritie, and to puniſh the ſame by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration, or depriuation, and other cenſures and proceſſe in like forme, as heretofore hath beene vſed in like caſes by the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes.

An act touching the true ſeruice of capteins and ſouldiors.

Chap.2.

Where before this time diuers of the kings maieſties louing and obedient ſubiects, according to their bounden duties, haue aſſigned, appointed, and ſent forth as well in the parts beyond the ſeas, and to the ſeas, as alſo into Scotland & other places, diuers times both within this realme and without this realme, manie able perſons or ſouldiors, well furniſhed with good horſſes and harneſſes, meet to ſerue the king in wars, to their great charges & coſts, yet ſome of the ſaid ſouldiors ſo ſent, doo ſerue contrarie to their ſaid maiſters expectation, and contrarie to their bounden duties to the kings highneſſe, haue ſold, loſt, exchanged, or altered their maiſters horſſe and harneſſe, or otherwiſe by deceit or couin conuerted the ſame. By meane whereof, the kings highneſſe hath not onlie beene deſtitute of the ſame ſouldiors in time of need, but alſo the owners of the ſaid horſſes and harneſſes, who ſent them thither, haue bin vntrulie deceiued of their horſſes and harneſſes, being thereby leſſe able to refurniſh other the like ſouldiors with horſſes and harneſſes, at ſuch time as they ſhall be thereunto commanded by the kings highneſſe. And ſometime the capteins of ſuch ſouldiors departed, haue demanded, had, and taken of the kings highneſſe wages for the ſame ſouldiors ſo departed, by meane whereof the kings maieſtie hath ſuſteined and borne great paiments, and yet his maieſtie hath not beene trulie ſerued for the ſame, not a little to the diſpleaſure of the king, and to the great charge of the poore ſubiects, being commanded to ſet forth ſuch ſouldiors. For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie ſouldior hereafter, ſeruing the king in his wars, in anie his dominions, or on the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, or in Scotland, after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, doo ſell, giue awaie, or wilfullie purloine, or otherwiſe exchange, alter, or put awaie anie horſſe, gelding or mare, or anie harneſſe wherewith he ſhall be ſet forth; that then euerie ſuch ſouldior ſo offending, vpon due proofe, or teſtimonie to be taken before the lieutenant, high admerall the kings deputie, viceadmerall, warden or capteine, and in their abſence before anie of their deputies, ſhall be impriſoned by the ſame lieutenant, or anie other before named, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, vntill he haue ſatiſfied to the partie, owner of the horſſe, gelding, mare, or harneſſe ſo by him ſold, purloined, exchanged, wilfullie loſt, altered, or otherwiſe made awaie. And if ſuch ſouldior ſo offending, fortune to eſcape from the lieutenant and other the foreſaid perſons, without the puniſhment and reſtitution aforeſaid, that then the ſame ſouldior vpon complaint made by the partie greeued, or his executors or adminiſtrators, vpon due proofe thereof to be made to anie iuſtice or iuſtices of peace, in the parties where ſuch ſouldior ſo offending ſhall be found, ſhall be by ſuch iuſtice or iuſtices committed to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe vntill he haue ſatiſfied the partie greeued, his executors or adminiſtrators, of and for ſuch horſſes, geldings or mares, and harneſſe, ſo by anie ſuch ſouldior wilfullie loſt, exchanged, altered, or otherwiſe purloined.

Prouided alwaies, that if the ſaid ſouldior bring anie ſufficient warrant or teſtimonie before the ſaid iuſtice from the ſaid lieutenant, or anie of the perſons aboue named, of writing vnder the ſeale of anie of them, teſtifieng that the ſame horſſe or harneſſe were loſt in the kings ſeruice againſt the will of the ſaid ſouldior, or that the ſame horſſe or harneſſe was taken by the ſame lieutenant, or anie of the others before named, from the ſaid ſouldior, for anie reaſonable reſpect, and appointed to ſome other, to ſerue in the place and ſtead of the ſaid ſouldior: that then euerie ſuch ſoldior not bringing to the owner the ſaid horſſe and harneſſe, ſhall be diſcharged thereof againſt the owner thereof, and that then euerie ſuch ſoldior to whome the ſaid horſſe or harneſſe ſhall be appointed as is aforeſaid, not bringing home to the owner the ſaid horſſe and harneſſe after he ſhall be diſcharged, to ſuffer like paine, as is aforeſaid.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ſoldior ſeruing, as is aforeſaid, depart without licence of the lieutenant, or anie of the other aboue named, with bootie, or otherwiſe being in the enimies countrie, or elſewhere in the kings ſeruice, or out of anie garriſon where he or they ſhall be appointed to ſerue, that then euerie ſuch ſoldior ſo departing without licence, to be taken and iudged as a felon, and to be executed as in caſe of felonie, without hauing anie aduantage of his clergie or ſanctuarie; and that the iuſtices of euerie ſhire where anie ſuch ſoldior ſhall be taken, ſhall haue full power to inquire, heare and determine all and euerie the ſaid offenſes concerning euerie ſuch departure, as they doo and maie in other caſes of felonie committed in the ſhire where ſuch ſoldior ſhall be taken.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any commiſſioner or capteine, to whom the king ſhall direct his commandement by commiſſion or letters, for the leuieng or ſetting forth of anie man to ſerue the king in his wars, ſhall at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, for anie gaine, reward, or other lucre, diſcharge anie perſon or perſons, by him appointed to ſerue the king, as a capteine, ſoldior or pioner, of his ſeruice ſo appointed, and doo aſſigne anie other perſon or perſons in his or their ſtead, for anie lucre or gaine as is aforeſaid; that then euerie commiſſioner or other perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the king for euerie ſuch default of euerie man ſo diſcharged, twentie pounds to be leuied of his goods and chattels.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie capteine being appointed to haue the order of anie number of ſoldiors, vnder anie other higher officer, doo for anie cauſe licence anie ſoldior in his retinue to depart from the feeld or fortreſſe where they ſhall be appointed to ſerue, without the eſpeciall aſſent and licence in writing of the lieutenant or the others before named, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euerie ſuch ſoldior ſo by him licenced to depart, twentie pounds, to be leuied as is aforeſaid, to the vſe of the king.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie lieutenant, or anie other before named, hauing the order of anie number of ſouldiors, ſeruing, as is aforeſaid, vpon the ſea or land, doo at any time after the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, demand, receiue, or take of the kings highnes, or anie of his treaſurors, anie wages for anie more ſoldiors, than ſerued in ſuch maner and forme as the wages was paid for, or for anie more daies than ſuch ſoldiors ſerued, and do not note the day of euerie ſoldiors entrie into wages, & the daie of his death and departure, and deliuer the ſame to ſuch treaſurors as ſhall paie the ſaid wages euerie moneth in writing, ſo as the truth of the number of the ſouldiors maie appeere to the kings treaſuror and maiſter of the kings muſters for the time being in that behalfe, that then euerie ſuch lieutenant, and other before named ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the king for euerie ſuch default fiue pounds, to be leuied as is aforeſaid to the vſe of the king, and to be impriſoned by the ſpace of one moneth, and to loſe his office.

And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no capteine after the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, ſhall giue to anie of his ſoldiors appointed to ſerue vnder him in anie towne or fortreſſe, kept with garriſons of ſoldiors, anie licence or paſſeport to depart from his ſeruice, but onlie the lieutenant or any others as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of impriſonment, as well of the capteine as ſoldior ſo offending at the diſcretion of the ſaid lieutenant or the others before named.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie lieutenant, and other before named, vpon the paine of ten pounds, ſhall cauſe to be proclamed the whole effect and contents of this act. That is to ſay, euerie lieutenant of an armie in euerie feeld vnder his charge, to proclame this act euerie moneth, and that euerie of the kings deputies of euerie fortreſſe, and capteine of anie other fortreſſe, to proclame this act within his charge, once euerie quarter of a yéere.

And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, for the better execution of the premiſſes, that euerie perſon or perſons giuing to the lieutenant, or the others aboue named, true information of anie of the offenſes aboue remembred, ſhall haue for his labour one moneths wages, of him that ſhall be found faultie, to be paied by the hand of the treaſuror, vpon warrant of the ſaid lieutenant, or anie of the others aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaies, that nothing heerein conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe extend to touch or infringe anie orders eſtabliſhed for the gouernment of Calis and the marches of the ſame, or anie other place of the kings now gouerned or heereafter to be gouerned by the ſame orders, or by ſuch orders as maie pleaſe his grace heereafter to ſet forth for the ſame.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all, and euerie of the ſaid lieutenants,and other the ſaid perſons to reteine in his or their owne hands to their owne vſe,of the wages of his or their ſouldiors, the ſummes following, that is to ſaie, ſix ſhillings eight pence for the liuerie,or cote of euerie yeoman ſouldior,and thirteene ſhillings foure pence for the liuerie or cote of euerie gentleman ſouldior for one whole yeere.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of lieutenant, or anie other the ſaid perſons, ſhall heereafter be charged or preiudiced by vertue of this act, or anie thing therein conteined, for lacke of his or their number reteined, as is aforeſaid,for,or concerning anie ſoldior,or ſoldiors, as ſhall happen to die during his ſeruice, or to be ſicke by the viſitation of God,or that ſhall depart againſt the will of his lieutenant,or other before named,vnleſſe it ſhall be in the default of anie of them.

Prouided alwaies,that this act be not preiudiciall nor hurtfull to the ſaid lieutenant,or anie other the ſaid perſons,or anie other hauing vnder them retinue of ſoldiors,nor anie of them, for non paiment of the kings wages,to their houſhold ſeruants and other, to whome they ſhall dailie find and giue meat and drinke during the ſaid ſeruice of war.

Prouided alwaies, that this act nor nothing therin conteined, ſhall extend to charge anie perſon or perſons, for the taking or receiuing of anie gift or reward, of anie of his, or their tenants or freends towards the releeſe, aid, or helpe of the ſame perſons, being commanded by the kings maieſtie to ſerue in wars, or otherwiſe to find men on horſſebacke or on foot, as well within this realme as without. Nor for the gift,reward, aid or helpe, reſerued, or couenanted to be paid or giuen to anie perſon appointed to ſerue in wars, or to find horſſe or men, to ſerue by reaſon of anie grant,couenant,reſeruation,cuſtome,or tenure.

Prouided that this act,nor anie thing therein conteined,ſhall not extend to charge anie lieutenant or others abouenamed, for deteining or reteining anie part of the ſaid ſoldiors wages toward,or for the paiment of vittels,harneſſe,weapons,or for anie preſt monie prouided and deliuered to anie ſuch ſoldior,

An act touching purueiors.

Chap.3.

THe kings moſt excellent maieſtie is pleaſed and contented, by the aduiſe of his honorable counſell, at the humble petition, ſute, and complaint of his louing and obedient ſubiects, that it be enacted by his highneſſe, with the conſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from and after the feaſt of S. Iohn the Baptiſt,which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God,one thouſand fiue hundred fortie and nine, vntill the ſaid feaſt of S. ¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that from and after the feaſt of Chriſtmas, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred fortie and nine, vntill the feaſt of Chriſtmas, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God, one thouſand fiue hundred fiftie and two, no purueior or anie other perſon or perſons by authoritie of anie commiſſion or commiſſions,or other writing or writings heeretofore granted or made, or heereafter to be made or granted by the kings maieſtie, or by anie other warrant, letter, or authoritie whatſoeuer,ſhall purueie or take for anie of the kings maieſties affaires,or for anie other cauſe or matter, concerning the wars or otherwiſe,anie goods,cattels,trees,timber, or other things whatſoeuer (ſauing onlie barges,ſhips,and other veſſels,carts, cariages, & things neceſſarie for cariages) without the aſſent and full agreements of the owner or owners of the ſame,and at ſuch price and prices, for readie monie,or monie to be paied at ſuch daies and places, as anie ſuch purueior, taker, or other perſon or perſons,can,or ſhall agree with the owner or owners of the ſame. And if anie purueior or taker,or anie other perſon or perſons ſhall after anie of the ſaid feaſts of S.Iohn Baptiſt and Chriſtmas next comming,procure or attempt to take or purueie for the kings maieſtie, or for anie other perſon or perſons, anie vittels or other things whatſoeuer, contrarie to the true meaning of this act; that then ſuch taker, purueior, or anie other ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the partie or parties greeued, treble the value or values of the thing or things ſo taken or purueied,and ſhall alſo ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one quarter of a yeere, without baile or mainpriſe,and ſhall make fine at the kings will and pleaſure. For the which forfeiture the partie or parties greeued,ſhall haue his remedie by action of debt,information,or otherwiſe, in anie of the kings courts of record;in which action,ſute,or information, no eſſoine, wager of law, or protection ſhall be allowed.

Prouided alwais, and be it ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall and maie be lawfull during the yéeres before ſpecified, to anie perſon or perſons by authoritie of the kings commiſſion or commiſſions, or by authoritie of anie letter or commiſſion, to be directed from the lord protectors grace, or from anie two of the kings priuie counſell, or from the maiſter of the poſts, or from anie the kings lieutenants, generals, deputies, wardens, or anie of their deputies in his wars, to take poſt horſſes or geldings, for the conueieng or carieng of anie perſon or perſons about the kings maieſties affairs, paieng to the owner or owners of ſuch poſt horſſes or geldings, after the rate of one penie for euerie mile: anie thing or matter conteined in this act to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the ſhirifs to haue certeine allowances vpon their accounts.

Chap.4.

MOſt humblie beſéechen the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, his true and faithfull ſubiects, the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled; that where in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the 16 daie of Ianuarie, in the 33 yéere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne lord of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, and by prorogation holden at Weſtminſter the two and twentie daie of Ianuarie, in the thirtie and foure yéere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, and there continued vntill the twelfe daie of Maie, in the 35 yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king: vpon diuers and ſundrie conſiderations, there was enacted and made ons act, by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, concerning the account or accounts of ſhirifs, to be made in the excheker, as in the ſame act more plainlie at large is conteined. And albeit it was ment at the time of the making of the ſaid act, as it maie appéere by the words of the ſaid act, that ſhirifs ſhould not be charged vpon their accounts, but onelie with ſuch ſummes of monie, as they might lawfullie leuie; and alſo that the ſaid ſhirifs ſhould haue allowance, not all onelie for ſuch charges and expenſes, as they ſhould ſuſteine and beare for their diets and charges of the iuſtices of aſſiſe, but alſo for other neceſſarie charges and expenſes by them ſuſteined, in and about the exerciſing of their ſaid office: yet neuertheleſſe, the ſaid ſhirifs are and haue béene ſithen the making of the ſaid act, more and ſorer charged, vexed, and troubled than they were before, to the great impoueriſhment of men of worſhip and gentlemen within this realme that haue béene ſhirifs, and ſo it is verie like to be, to all ſuch as héereafter ſhall be ſhirifs, if remedie be not prouided in this behalfe. It maie therefore pleaſe the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, that it maie be enacted and eſtabliſhed with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid former act, and all clauſes and ſentences in the ſame conteined, ſhall be from henſeforth cléerlie fruſtrat and void, to all intents and purpoſes, other than héereafter in this act ſhall be ſpecified.

And that it maie be enacted by this preſent parlement, that the ſhirifs which ſhall be made from henſeforth within all the ſhires of England, and alſo ſuch as haue not made & finiſhed their account or accounts, ſhall haue ſuch and like tailes of reward, and all ſuch other allowances, as they had before the making of the ſaid former act, or els the ſame ſhirifs which ſhall be or héeretofore haue béene, to be at their election and choiſe to account, and all other things to doo, according to the aforeſaid former act. And that they and euerie of them that ſo ſhall account, and take no taile of reward, ſhall be in, and by all things intreated in the kings excheker, as though the ſaid former act were and ſhould continue in his full ſtrength and effect: anie thing before ſpecified notwithſtanding. And that the ſame tailes of reward, and euerie of them by force of this preſent act, without anie further warrant or warrants to be obteined for the ſame, ſhall be leuied or ſtriken at the receipt of the kings maieſties excheker, in due maner and forme, with ſuch like letter or writings vpon the ſame tailes and euerie of them, as before the making of the ſaid former act were and haue béene accuſtomed to be leuied and ſtriken. And that the ſame tailes héereafter there to be leuied and ſtriken, ſhall be deliuered vnto euerie of the ſame ſhirifs, or their ſufficient attorneie for them, without preſt, or other charge to be ſet vpon them for the ſame. And that this act ſhall be a ſufficient warrant and diſcharge vnto the treaſuror of England, and all other officers within the ſaid receipt, for ſtriking, leuieng, and deliuerie of the ſaid tailes, and euerie of them. And further, that all thoſe ſhiriffes that héereafter ſhall be made within thoſe ſhires of England, where as no tailes of reward héeretofore haue béene by the kings maieſties moſt noble progenitors giuen and granted, and ſuch ſhiriffes as ſhall héereafter take no taile of reward, ſhall in conſideration of their great coſts, charges, and expenſes, which they ſhall beare and ſuſteine, as well by the diets of the iuſtices of aſſiſes, as by anie other meanes, haue vpon the end of their accounts, and of euerie of them, ſuch allowances, vpon a petition to be made by the ſame ſhiriffs, or anie of them, in a bill to be brought in by the ſame ſhiriffe, and euerie of them of their ſaid coſts and charges, vpon which bils the ſame ſhirifs to be ſworne in their owne proper perſons, or by their vnderſhirifs, or lawfull atturnie therevnto admitted, to be true, without warrant or taile, ſuing for the ſame. And alſo that all ſhirifs which héereafter ſhall take no taile of reward, and euerie of them ſhall be diſcharged vpon their accounts, of all ſuch ferms, goods, chattels, profits, caſualties, and ſums of monie, which they might or ſhould be charged with vpon their accounts in the ſaid excheker, by what title or name ſoeuer they be named, or vpon whatſoeuer perſon or perſons they ſhall be ſtreated, or out of whatſoeuer lands and tenements they ſhall be going forth, as they can not leuie nor come by. And that all other ſhirifs which héereafter ſhall take anie taile of reward, ſhall in like maner be diſcharged of all ſuch fermes and ſums of monie aforeſaid (except onlie of the vicountels of their ſhires, wherewith they ſhall be charged and anſwerable, as they were before the making of the aforeſaid former act.) And alſo the ſame ſhirifs of euerie ſhire of England, that now be or héeretofore haue béene, or that héereafter ſhall be, and euerie of them, ſhall haue plaine deduction and allowance in their ſaid accounts, of all ſuch ſum and ſums of monie, as they or anie of them ſhall make or haue made true petition, of, for, or concerning ſuch poſſeſſions and hereditaments as be come vnto, or were in the kings maieſties hands, or anie his progenitors, by vnitie of poſſeſſion, or by anie meane, out of the which anie part or parcell of the aforeſaid vicountels, were at anie time héeretofore leuiable or leuied. And that the lord treaſuror, chamberleine, chancellor, and barons of the ſaid excheker, or in the abſence of the ſaid lord treaſuror, chamberleins, and chancellor, the ſaid barons ſhall by authoritie of this act, giue & make allowance, deduction & exoneration to euerie of the ſaid ſhirifs of the ſaid fermes, and of all other things without anie other warrant.

Prouided alwaies, that euerie of the ſaid ſhirifs at his day of prefixion, immediatlie after that he or his deputie or atturnie, is ſworne to account for the iſſues and profits of his office of ſhirifewike, ſhall by himſelfe, or by his atturnie or deputie ſworne by him, when he ſhall anſwer before the lord treaſuror, chamberleins, or chancellor, and barons of the ſaid excheker, or in the abſence of the ſaid lord treaſuror, chamberleine, or chancellor, or of anie of them: then before ſuch of the ſaid lord treaſuror, chamberleins, or chancellor, and of the ſaid barons, as then ſhall happen to be preſent in the ſaid court of excheker, to bring in & deliuer in the ſaid court, rols, or ſchedules of parchment, conteining in them trulie, without omiſſion or concealement, all ſuch particular ſums of monie, which he hath leuied, or lawfullie might haue leuied to his witting or knowledge, within his bailiwike, as part or parcell, aſwell of the ſaid fermes called vicountels, in the ſaid former act expreſſed, as of all other fermes, of what name or title ſoeuer they be called, being ſtreated, written, or otherwiſe charged to anie of the ſaid ſhirifs, out of the ſaid court of excheker, making expreſſe and diſtinct mention in the ſame rols or ſchedules, as nigh as he or they can or maie, of what perſon, and what lands and tenements, and for what cauſe the ſame particular ſums of monie, and euerie of them, be leuied or leuiable. And that after the ſame rols or ſchedules ſo deliuered, and the particular ſums of monie in them conteined, apperteining to their proper fermes, caſt and rated in the ſaid court, the ſaid lord treaſuror, chamberleins, chancellor, and the ſaid barons, in the abſence of the ſaid treaſuror, chamberleins, or chancellor, or anie of them for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by this act, for the leuieng & recouerie of ſuch parcels, belonging to anie the ſaid fermes called vicountels, or anie other fermes, by what name or title ſoeuer they ſhall be called being omitted out of the ſaid rols or ſchedules, and for ſauing of other the kings ancient rights and inheritances, anſwerable in the ſaid excheker, which be now wrongfullie withdrawne, or vniuſtlie withholden from the kings maieſtie his poſſeſſions, & ſhall haue power and authoritie, from time to time, to award ſuch proceſſe, and vſe ſuch conuenient waies and means, by commiſſion or otherwiſe, according to the courts of the ſaid excheker, and further as ſhall be deuiſed by their diſcretion, ſo that the kings maieſtie his heirs and ſucceſſors maie be trulie anſwered of the iſſues & profits of the ſame: this act or anie other ſtatute, act, ordinance, or vſe héeretofore to the contrarie had, made or vſed, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And furthermore, that the ſaid treaſuror, chamberleins, chancellor, and barons of the ſaid excheker, or the ſaid baron, in the abſence of the ſaid treaſuror, chamberleins, or chancellor, or anie of them, for the time being, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by their diſcretions from time to time, to giue and allow vnto all and euerie ſuch commiſſioner or commiſſioners, as they ſhall aſſigne and appoint by their diſcretion, to inquire of the ſaid fermes, and other the kings rights withdrawne, their reaſonable coſts and charges, as from time to time to them ſhall ſéeme good and conuenient.

An act touching the remitting of fee fermes for three yeeres.

Chap.5.

THe kings moſt excellent maieſtie, of his moſt godlie and vertuous diſpoſition, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, aſwell for the aid and reléefe of the poore, in the cities, boroughs and townes corporat of this his realme of England, and countrie of Wales, as for the execution of other déeds of charitie and common wealth there; ordeineth and enacteth, that ſuch fée fermes and ſums of monie, paid for fée fermes, as by anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, within this his realme of England or countrie of Wales, or by the bodies politike or corporat, officers or miniſters of the ſame, ſhould or ought to be due and paiable to his maieſtie, his heirs or ſucceſſors, during thrée yéers next inſuing after the fouretéenth daie of March, in this preſent péere of our Lord God 1548 ſhall ceaſe and not be due, ne paiable to his maieſtie, ne his heirs or ſucceſſors, by anie ſuch citie, borough, ne towne corporat, ne by anie the bodies politike or corporat, of them ne of anie of them, nor by the officers, inhabitants, and miniſters of the ſame cities, boroughs, or townes corporat, or anie of them. And that this preſent act ſhall be to them and euerie of them, and to the ſucceſſors of euerie of them, a ſufficient warrant and diſcharge againſt his maieſtie, his heirs and ſucceſſors, for the retcining and withholding of the ſame fée fermes and ſums of monie, during the ſaid thrée yeeres. And that no proceſſe or other ſute ſhall be at anie time had or awarded againſt them, or anie of them, out of the eschequer, or anie other court for the arrerages thereof, for, or in anie of the ſaid thrée yéeres.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that aſmuch of all and euerie ſuch ſums of monie, as ſhould or ought to be due to the kings maieſtie, or his heirs or ſucceſſors, by anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, within England or Wales, or by the bodies politike of the ſame, or by anie the officers or miniſters of the ſame, or anie of them, during the ſaid thrée yéeres, which maie be gathered and collected of the iſſues, fermes, or profits, for which the ſaid fée fermes ſhould be paid, in caſe the ſame had not béene diſcharged by this preſent act, ſhall be leuied, collected, gathered, paied, and anſwered, as it ſhould haue béene, if this act had not béene made, to be imploied and beſtowed, in and about reparing of wals, bridges, ſetting poore people in worke, or other good déeds, in euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, where the ſame ſhould haue béene due, during the ſaid thrée yeeres, if this act had not béene made, by the diſcretion and appointment of ſuch commiſſioners, as the kings maieſtie ſhall particularlie authoriſe and appoint for euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, in ſuch maner and forme, as the ſame commiſſioners ſhall aſſigne, limit and appoint, or as by ſuch commiſſion ſhall be declared or expreſſed, and not to the kings maieſtie, his heirs or ſucceſſors, in his highneſſe court of eschequer, or in anie other court or place, to the vſe of his maieſtie, his heirs or ſucceſſors.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie officer or clerke, of anie his graces courts, at anie time within or after the ſaid thrée yéeres, make out or write anie maner of writs or other proceſſe, or anie extreats, ſummons, or other precepts, whereby anie of his ſaid ſubiects, or anie of the ſaid bodies corporat, or other before rehearſed, or anie of them, ſhall be in anie wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtreined, ſummoned, or otherwiſe vexed, inquieted, or gréeued, in his or their bodies, lands, tenements, goods or chattels, or anie of them, for, or becauſe of the ſaid fée fermes, diſcharged for the ſaid thrée yeers, as is aforeſaid, or anie part thereof, he ſo offending ſhall yeeld and paie for recompenſe thereof to the partie greeued, treble damages and coſts of the ſute. And neuertheleſſe, all and ſingular ſuch writs, proceſſe, extreats, and precepts ſo to be made, for, or vpon anie maner of thing, diſcharged by this act, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that if the king our ſoueraigne lord that now is, or anie other of his highneſſe progenitors, kings of this realme, or anie of them, haue by his or their letters patents or otherwiſe, lawfullie granted to anie perſon or perſons, or to anie bodie or bodies, politike or corporat, for life, in fée, or otherwiſe, anie ſum or ſums of monie, for anie conſideration, or cauſe whatſoeuer, to be had, paied, taken, or receiued, of anie fée ferme, or fée fermes, of anie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, or of the bodies politike or corporat aforeſaid, or of, or by the officers, inhabitants, or miniſters of the ſame cities, boroughs, or townes corporat, or anie of them, that all ſuch ſum or ſums of monie, ſo going out or to be paid, of ſuch fée ferme or fée fermes, ſhall be yeerelie paid during the ſaid thrée yeers, by the ſaid cities, boroughs, townes corporat, bodies politike and corporat, or by the officers, inhabitants or miniſters of the ſame, to euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, that of right ought, by reaſon of ſuch letters patents, or by anie other lawfull meane, as is aboueſaid, to haue, take, or receiue ſuch ſum or ſums of monie, going out or to be taken or paiable, of ſuch fée ferme or fée fermes, and the king thereof not to be charged in his eschequer, ne elſewhere, during the ſaid thrée yéeres onelie. And that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, and bodie and bodies politike or corporat, that ſhould or ought to haue anie ſuch ſum or ſums of monie, as is before ſaid, during the ſaid thrée yéers, ſhall haue their remedie for the ſame, by action of debt, or writ of annuitie, in any of the kings courts of record, againſt euerie perſon and perſons, bodies politike or corporat, that ought to paie anie ſuch fée ferme, or out of the which anie ſuch annuitie, rent, or ſum of monie ought to be paid: anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act againſt the exaction of monie, or anie other thing by anie officer, for licence to traffike into Iſland.

Foraſmuch as within theſe few yéeres now laſt paſt, there hath béene leuied, perceiued, and taken, by certeine of the officers of the admeraltie, of ſuch merchants and fiſhermen, as haue vſed and practiſed the aduentures and iournies into Iſland, Newfoundland, Ireland, and other places commodious for fiſhing, and the getting of fiſh, in and vpon the ſeas or otherwiſe, by waie of merchants in thoſe parties, diuerſe great exactions, as ſums of monie, doles, or ſhares of fiſh, and ſuch other like things, to the great diſcouragement and hinderance of the ſame merchants and fiſhermen, and to no little damage of the whole commonwealth; and whereof alſo great complaints haue béene made, and informations alſo yéerelie to the kings maieſties moſt honorable councell. For reformation whereof, and to the intent alſo that the ſaid merchants Chap 6.

chants and fiſhermen, maie haue occaſion the rather to practiſe and vſe the ſame trade of merchandize and fiſhing, freelie without anie ſuch charges or exactions, as is before limited, whereby it is to be thought that more plentie of fiſh ſhall come into this realme, and thereby to haue the ſame at more reaſonable prices.

Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that neither the admerall, nor anie officer or miniſter, officers or miniſters of the admeraltie for the time being, ſhall in anie wiſe heereafter exact, receiue, or take by himſelfe, his ſeruant, deputie, ſeruants or deputies of anie ſuch merchant or fiſherman, anie ſum or ſums of monie, doles, or ſhares of fiſh, or anie other reward, benefit, or aduantage whatſoeuer it be, for anie licence to paſſe this realme to the ſaid voiages, or anie of them. Nor vpon anie reſpect concerning the ſaid voiages, nor anie of them, vpon paine to forfeit for the firſt offenſe treble the ſum, or treble the value of the reward, benefit or aduantage, that anie ſuch officer or miniſter ſhall heereafter haue or take, of anie ſuch merchant or fiſherman. For the which forfeiture the partie greeued, and euerie other perſon or perſons whatſoeuer he or they be, ſhall and maie ſue for the ſame, by information, bill, plaint, or action of debt, in anie of the kings courts of record, the king to haue the one moitie, and the partie complaining the other moitie: in which ſute no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be allowed. And for the ſecond offenſe, the partie ſo offending, not onelie to loſe and forfeit his or their office or offices in the admeraltie, but alſo to make fine and ranſome at the kings will and pleaſure.

An act againſt the craftie and deceitfull buieng of penſions.

Chap.7.

The kings moſt excellent maieſtie, the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, vnderſtanding that diuerſe perſons, ſeeking vnhoneſt and filthie gaine, without reſpect either of God, or due regard to the kings maieſtie, by ſundrie attempts and practiſes, haue not onelie extorted diuerſe ſums of monie, of diuerſe the kings louing ſubiects, hauing penſions by the kings letters patents, but alſo with ſlanderous words towards the kings maieſties officers, and aſmuch as in them lieth, impeaching the kings proceedings, haue (for little monie or none, or other thing giuen to ſome of the ſaid penſioners, ſupplanting them) bought of diuerſe penſioners their penſions, had by ſuch patents, being their releefe to liue by, to their vtter vndoing. Be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, that at anie time heeretofore, ſince the firſt ſeſſion of the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king that now is, by anie fraudulent or deceitfull waie or meanes, hath or haue gotten or obteined for monie or otherwiſe, anie gift, grant, bargaine, or promiſe, of anie penſioner or penſioners, of his or their ſaid patent or patents, concerning his or their ſaid penſion granted or to be granted, or aſſigned, out of anie manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, that did belong or apperteine to anie of the late monaſteries, priories, religious houſes, colleges, chantries, guilds, fraternities, or other poſſeſſions, or by reaſon of the ſame, which came aſwell to the poſſeſſion of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, as to the late king of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, by reaſon of diſſolution, atteindor, or ſurrender, and before the laſt daie of Iune next comming, vpon a repaiment or lawfull tender of the monie, or other thing taken for the ſame, for anie ſuch penſioner or penſioners, patentee or patentees, made to him or them, doo not deliuer to euerie ſuch penſioner and penſioners, patentee and patentees, aſwell his or their ſaid patent and patents, as all other writing or writings, made concerning the ſame penſion; that then the ſaid gift, grant, bargaine, and promiſe made of euerie ſuch penſion and patent, and euerie of them ſhall be void. And alſo that then and from thenſefoorth, euerie ſuch penſioner and patentee, ſhall haue and inioy the penſion by him ſo giuen, granted, bargained, ſold, or promiſed, as though no ſuch gift, grant, bargaine, ſale, or promiſe had beene made of his or their ſaid penſion, fee, or annuitie, notwithſtanding anie writings made, ſealed, or deliuered betweene anie ſuch parties concerning the ſame.

And for the more true and ſure paiment of all and euerie maner of perſon and perſons, of, and for their ſeuerall penſions, fees, and annuities, due and to be due, to them or to anie of them out of the premiſſes, or anie part or parcell thereof, or by reaſon of the ſame; be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the receiuer or receiuers, or anie of them, their aſſignes, deputies, clerks, or ſeruants, or the aſſignes, deputies, clerks, or ſeruants of anie of them, hauing, or which ſhall haue to doo with the paiment of anie ſuch penſions, fees, ⁊ annuities, or of anie part or parcell of them, doo not at all ⁊ euerie time ⁊ times before the tenth daie of Iune, ⁊ the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, next ⁊ immediatlie inſuing euerie daie ⁊ feaſt, ſpecified in euerie ſuch grant or paiment, for the paiment of the ſaid penſions, fees, and annuities, vpon a reaſonable requeſt therof made to the ſaid receiuer or receiuers, their aſſigne or deputie, aſſignes or deputies, or to his or their clerks, or ſeruants abouesaid, by any of the ſaid penſioners or grantees, or their ſeuerall deputies, atturnies or aſſigns, or by the ſeuerall deputie, atturnie, or aſſigne, of any ſuch penſioner and grantee, well ⁊ trulie paie vnto the ſaid grantees ⁊ penſioners, their ſeuerall deputies, atturnies, or aſſignes, their penſions, fees, and yeerelie annuities, to them granted, and heerafter to be granted, during their ſeuerall liues or otherwiſe, according to the tenor and effect of their ſeuerall grants to euerie of them made and héereafter to be made, without anie further delaie, not taking of the ſaid grantées, penſioners, or of anie of them, their deputies, atturnies, or aſſigns, for the paiment of anie of their ſaid penſions, fées, or annuities, or for the more ſpéedie paiment thereof to them, or anie of them to be made, anie other, or more ſum or ſums of monie, or anie other thing or profit, but onlie for euerie pound of euerie ſuch penſion, fée, or annuitie to them paied, foure penſe, and for the acquitance of euerie ſuch partie trulie paid of his ſaid penſion, fée, or annuitie, if the ſaid partie, his deputie or deputies, bring and offer to deliuer none readie made, foure pence & not aboue, that then euerie ſuch receiuer or receiuers, their deputie and deputies, clerks and ſeruants as aforeſaid, to whome anie ſuch reaſonable requeſt ſhall be made for the paiment of the ſame, as is aforeſaid, for euerie time that the ſaid officer or officers, or his or their deputie or deputies, or his or their clerke or clerks, hauing to doo with the office or offices of ſuch receiuer or officer, as is aforeſaid, ſhall delaie or cauſe to be delaied anie the ſaid grantées, or penſioners, of the paiment of their penſions, fées, or annuities, or of anie part thereof, after the tenth daie of Iune, and the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch delaie 100 ſhillings. And that alſo euerie treaſuror or treaſurors, receiuer or receiuers, officer or officers, or his or their deputie or deputies, or his or their clerks, or anie of them, as is aforeſaid, for euerie time that they or anie of them doo exact and take of the ſaid penſioners, grantées, or anie of them, their deputies, atturnies, or aſſigns, or of the deputie, atturnie, or aſſigne of anie of them, aboue the rates before declared, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie time ſo exacting and taking, ten times ſo much as they or anie of them ſhall ſo exact and take, or cauſe to be exacted and taken. All which forfeitures ſhall be to the partie that ſhall find himſelfe gréeued, if he will ſue and demand the ſame within ſeuen moneths next after the ſaid forfeiture, in anie of the kings maieſties courts of his bench, common place, or excheker, by action of debt, by originall writ, bill, plaint, or information, in which ſute no eſſoine, protection, nor wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted for the defendant.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings iuſtices of aſſiſe, and of Oier & Determiner, in their ſeuerall circuits, and the iuſtices of peace in euerie countie within this realme of England and Wales, at their generall ſeſſions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to inquire, heare, and determine all and all maner of offenſes héereafter to be doone and committed contrarie to the tenor of this act, as well by information as by preſentment of twelue men, and ſhall haue full power and authoritie to award proceſſe vpon euerie preſentment or information had before them, or two of them, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, of all and euerie offenſe and offenſes doone and committed, contrarie to the tenor of this act, as in caſe vpon indictment of treſpaſſe.

Prouided alwais, that if anie ſuch penſioner or grantée, doo not make requeſt in proper perſon for paiment of his or their ſaid penſion or annuitie, as is aforeſaid, but dooth require the ſame by his deputie, atturnie, or aſſigne, that then if ſuch deputie, atturnie, or aſſigne doo not bring with him a letter ſubſcribed, with the hands of one iuſtice of the peace of the ſame ſhire, where the ſame penſioner or grantée is dwelling, or elſe of the ſurueior of the ſame ſhire for the time being, witneſſing the ſame penſioner or grantée to be then liuing, that then the ſaid receiuer, and all other officer and officers, their deputies, clerks or ſeruants, to whome requeſt by anie deputie, atturnie or aſſigne of anie of ſuch penſioner or grantée ſhall be made, as is aforeſaid, ſhall not be bound to paie anie ſuch ſumme of monie to anie deputie, atturnie, or aſſigne, of anie ſuch penſioner or patentée, by vertue of this act, nor for non paiment thereof, ſhall incur the danger of anie paine or forfeiture before mentioned: anie matter or thing before expreſſed to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to reſtreine anie ſuch receiuer or receiuers, or other officer or officers, as is aforeſaid, but they and euerie of them ſhall and maie paie or cauſe to be paied to anie of the ſaid penſioners, patentées, or grantées, their ſaid penſions, fées, and annuities quarterlie, according to the tenor & effect of their ſaid patents or grants, as they haue héertofore doone, anie thing héerein to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act touching the finding of offices before the exchetor.

Chap. 8.

WHere manie and diuers perſons holding, or that haue holden lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſome for terme of yéeres, and ſome by copie of court roll, haue béene expulſed and put out of their termes & holds, by reaſon of inquiſitions or offices founden before exchetors, commiſſioners and other, conteining tenures of the king in Capite, intituling the king to the wardſhip or cuſtodie of ſuch lands or tenements, & ſome time intituling the king to the ſame, vpon atteindors of treaſon, felonie or otherwiſe, by reaſon that ſuch leaſes for terme of yéeres, or intereſt by copie of court roll, of ſuch perſons haue not bin found in ſuch inquiſitions or offices: after which expulſion, or putting out, the ſaid perſons haue bin without remedie for the obteining of the ſaid fermes & holds, during the kings poſſeſſion therin, & can haue no trauers, Monſtrance de droit, ne other remedie for the ſame, bicauſe their ſaid intereſt is but a chattell in law or cuſtomarie hold, & no eſtate of fréehold. And alſo, where any perſon or perſons hath anie rent, common, office, fée, or other profit Apprendre, of anie ſtate of fréehold, or for yéers otherwiſe, out of ſuch lands or tenements ſpecified in ſuch offices or inquiſitions, the ſaid rent, common, office, fée, profit

Apprendre, not found in the ſame office or offices, ſuch perſons are in like maner without remedie, to obteine or haue the ſaid rent, common, office, fee, or profit Apprendre, by anie trauerſe, or other ſpeedie meane, without great and exceſſe charges during the kings intereſt therein, by force of ſuch inquiſition or office.

For remedie whereof, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that where anie ſuch office or inquiſition is, or ſhall be founden, omitting ſuch titles, intereſts, or matters, as is aforeſaid, that in all ſuch caſes, euerie leſſee, tenant for terme of yeeres, or copie holder, and euerie ſuch perſon or perſons that haue or ſhall haue any intereſt to anie rent, common, or profit Apprendre, for terme of yeeres, life, or otherwiſe, out of anie of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments conteined in ſuch office or inquiſition, where the king his heires or ſucceſſors is or ſhall be intituled, as is aforeſaid, to anie ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſhall haue, hold, inioy, & perceiue, all and euerie their leaſes and intereſts for terme of yeeres, or by copie of court roll, rents, commons, offices, fees, and profit Apprendre, in ſuch maner, forme, ſtate and condition, as they and euerie of them ſhould or might haue doone, in caſe there had beene no ſuch office or inquiſition founden, and as they ſhould or lawfullie might, or ought to haue doone, in caſe ſuch leaſe, intereſt, by copie of court roll, rent, common, office, fee, or profit Apprendre, had beene founden in ſuch office, or inquiſition; anie law, cuſtome or vſage to the contrarie, heeretofore vſed in ſuch caſes in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And alſo where it is, or ſhall be founden for the king his heires or ſucceſſors, that the heire or heires of his tenant or tenants, is or ſhall be within age, where in deed ſuch heire or heirs, is, or ſhall be at the ſame time of full age, or of a more or greater age than is or ſhall be conteined within ſuch office.

Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in euerie ſuch caſe, ſuch heire and heires, ſhall & maie at his or their verie full age, or after, proſecute a writ of Aetate probanda, & ſue his or their liuerie, or Ouſtre le maine, as his or their caſes ſhall lie, & haue the profits of his or their lands, tenements, or hereditaments, from the time of his or their verie full age, anie ſuch vntrue office or inquiſition, or anie law or cuſtome to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Alſo, where one perſon or more, is, or ſhall be founden heire to the kings tenant, by office or inquiſition, where anie other perſon is, or ſhall be heire, or if one perſon or more, be or ſhall be founden heire by office, or inquiſition in one countie, & another perſon or perſons is or ſhall be found heire to the ſame perſon in another countie, or if anie perſon be, or ſhall be vntrulie founden lunatike, idiot or dead. Be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon and perſons greeued, or to be greeued by anie ſuch office or inquiſition, ſhall and maie haue his or their trauers to the ſame, immediatlie, or after at his or their pleaſure, and proceed to triall therein, and haue like remedie and aduantage, as in other caſes of trauers vpon vntrue inquiſitions or offices founden; anie law, vſage or cuſtome to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Alſo, where it is or ſhall be heereafter vntrulie founden by office or inquiſition, that anie perſon or perſons atteinted, or that ſhall be atteinted of treaſon, felonie, or premunire, is, or ſhall be ſeized of anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, at anie time of ſuch treaſon, felonie or offenſe, committed or doone, or anie time after, whereunto anie other perſon or perſons hath, or ſhall haue anie iuſt title or intereſt of anie eſtate of free hold, that then in euerie ſuch caſe, euerie perſon and perſons greeued thereby, ſhall haue his or their trauers, or Monſtraunce de droit to the ſame, without being driuen to anie petition of right, and like remedie and reſtitution vpon his or their title, found, or iudged for him or them therein as hath beene accuſtomed and vſed in other caſes of trauers, although the kings maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors be, or ſhall be in ſuch caſe intituled to any ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by double matter of record; anie law, cuſtome or vſage to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that where anie inquiſition or office is, or ſhall be founden by theſe words, or like, Quod de quo vel de quibus, tenementa prædicta tenentur iurat' prædict' ignorant, or elſe founden holden of the king, Per quæ ſeruic' ignorant, or ſuch like; that in ſuch caſe, ſuch tenure ſo vncerteinlie founden, De quo vel de quibus tenementa prædict' tenentur ignorant, ſhall not be taken for anie immediat tenure of the king, nor ſuch tenure ſo founden of the king, Per quæ ſeruic' ignorant, ſhall not be taken any tenure in Capite, but in ſuch caſes a Melius inquirendum to be awarded, as hath beene accuſtomed in old time, anie vſage of latter time to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that where it is or ſhall be founden by anie office, or inquiſition, that anie lands, tenements or hereditaments, are, or ſhall be deſcended, remained, or common to anie heire within age, and in the kings ward, or that ought to be in the kings ward, and that ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, are holden of the king immediatlie, where in deed the ſame are or ſhall be holden of ſome other common perſon, and not of the king immediatlie, that in ſuch caſe ſuch heire or heires, ſhall and maie haue their trauers to the ſame within age, and like remedie and reſtitution vpon his or their title founden or iudged for him or them therein, as hath beene accuſtomed and vſed in other caſes of trauerſes: anie law, vſage or cuſtome to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Alſo where the kings maieſtie by his prerogatiue ought to haue as well ſuch lands and tenements as be holden of other perſons, as holden of himſelfe immediatlie, whereof his tenant holding of him in cheefe dieth ſeized, his heire being within age, vntill ſuch time as liuerie be ſued by ſuch heire, and that the meane lords, of whom the ſaid other lands and tenements of ſuch heire be holden, vſed to ſpare the rents due to them for the ſame lands or tenements holden of them, during the kings poſſeſſion. And when ſuch heire hath ſued his or their liuerie, they vſe by diſtreſſe or otherwiſe, to compell the ſaid heire to paie to them the arrerages of ſuch rents, for ſuch time as the ſaid lands or tenements were in the kings poſſeſſion by ſuch minoritie, where they ſhould haue ſued by petition to the kings maieſtie to haue obteined the ſame out of the kings hands, if they would haue the ſame, which is to the great detriment, loſſe, and hinderance of ſuch heire and heires. For redreſſe whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie of this parlement, that from henſeforth ſuch meane lords during ſuch minoritie, ſhall haue, receiue, and take, the ſaid rents, by the hands of ſuch the kings officers, as ſhall be appointed to haue, receiue, and take, the iſſues, reuenues, and profits of the ſame lands & tenements, ſo holden of ſuch meane lords, during the minoritie and nonage of ſuch heire and heires, and vntill ſuch heire and heires ſue his or their liuerie, and that ſuch heire and heires, vntill ſuch time as he or they ſhall haue ſued their liuerie, or might conuenientlie haue ſued their liuerie, ſhall be therof cléerlie diſcharged. And that ſuch officer or officers, ſhall vpon requeſt made, paie the ſame, to ſuch meane lords (they giuing to ſuch officer & officers, a ſufficient acquitance or acquitances, for the receipt of the ſame.) And that ſuch paiment thereof made, with acquitance, or acquitances therof ſhewed, ſhall be to ſuch officers a ſufficient diſcharge againſt the kings maieſtie, and his heires, vpon his or their account in that behalfe; anie law, vſage, or cuſtome héeretofore had, or vſed to the contrarie héereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie inquiſition or office, taken or founden at anie time before the twentith daie of March next comming, nor to hinder, preiudice, or take awaie the title, intereſt, or poſſeſſion, of our ſouereigne lord the king, or of anie other perſon or perſons, growne, or commen by vertue, meane, or occaſion of anie inquiſition or office, taken or found, before the ſame daie, but that as well our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, as all other perſon or perſons, hauing anie title, intereſt, or poſſeſſion, by vertue, meane, or occaſion of anie inquiſition, or found before the ſame day, ſhall, and maie haue, hold, and inioy the ſame in like maner and forme, as though this act had neuer béene had, or made, anie thing in the ſame act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in all ſuch caſes, as any perſon or perſons ſhall be enhabled by this act to haue any trauerſe, and ſhall purſue his or their trauerſe, that then, he, or they, that ſhall purſue ſuch trauerſe, ſhall ſue one writ, or ſeuerall writs of Scire facias (as the caſe ſhall require) againſt all and ſingular ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall haue intereſt by the king, or by his patentée or patentées, in like manner and forme as is requiſit, vpon trauerſes, or petitions héeretofore purſued. And that in euerie ſuch Scire facias, the patentées, or other defendants, ſhall haue like plées, and aduantage as they had in anie Scire facias, before this time, awarded againſt anie patentée, in anie caſe of petition. And alſo, that vpon euerie trauerſe that ſhall be purſued by vertue or meane of this act, in ſuch caſe as the partie or parties that ſhall purſue anie ſuch trauerſe, ſhould by the order of the common lawes of this realme, haue béene put to ſue by petition to the king, there ſhall be two writs of ſearch granted, in maner and forme, as like writs haue béene granted vpon petitions made to the king.

Prouided alſo, and it is enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that if after any iudgement ſhall be giuen vpon any trauerſe, that ſhall be tended, or ſued by vertue or meane of this act, it ſhall appeare by anie matter of record, that the king hath anie other former title, right, or intereſt, to the manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, mentioned in the ſame trauerſe, that then the ſame title, right, and intereſt, ſhall be ſaued to the king, the ſaid trauerſe, and iudgement therevpon giuen in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the true currieng of lether.

Chap.9.

ALbeit diuerſe good and wholeſome lawes and ſtatutes haue béene héeretofore made, and deuiſed for the true tanning, currieng and working of lether, yet through the couetiſe of tanners, in ouerhaſting their worke, by diuerſe ſubtill and craftie means, by negligence of the ſearchers, and colluſion of the curries, that by diuerſe ſuch eſtatutes, were authoriſed to trie the ſaid leather, and by the ſlight workemanſhip of the cordwainers, the kings ſubiects, are not onelie in their goods, but alſo in the health of their bodies much indamaged by occaſion of euill ſhooes, and bootes made of euill leather: therefore as the malice of man increaſeth, to defraud the intent of good lawes, ſo lawes muſt riſe againſt ſuch guile, with the more ſeueritie daie by daie, for the due redreſſe of the ſame. Be it therefore enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the acts made in the ninetéenth yeare of the late king of famous memorie, Henrie the ſeauenth, and in the foure and twentith yeare of the moſt notable and victorious king Henrie the eight, and all other acts and ſtatutes héeretofore made concerning tanners, curriers, and cordwainers, ſhall ſtand in their force and effect, according to the tenor of the ſame in all things, not altered nor repealed héeretofore.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon, occupieng the feat or myſterie of a currier, cordwainer, cobler, ſadler, girdler, letherſeller, bottlemaker, or anie other artificer, ſhall from and after the feaſt of Michaelmas next comming, ſell, or cauſe to be ſold, or put to ſale, anie backes or hides of anie Engliſh kind of tanned leather vnwrought, or in ſuch kind as he ſhall buie the ſame (calues ſkins onelie excepted) vpon paine of forfeiting for euerie hide, backe or parcell of lether, that he ſhall ſo ſell contrarie to this ſtatute, ten ſhillings.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon other than ſuch as ſhall occupie the feates or myſterie of a currier, ſhall put to ſale anie manner lether curried or blacked, being vnwrought, vncut, vpon paine of forfeiture of the lether ſo ſold.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, which occupieth the myſterie or occupation of cordwainers, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt, make, or cauſe to be made anie bootes, ſhooes, ſtartups, or ſlippers of lether, but ſuch as ſhall be made of good and ſufficient tanned lether, and well and truelie curried after this rate and ſort, that is to wit, wet lether, as that which ſhould hold out wet: and drie lether, as it behoued ſuch to be: and that the ſaid cordwainers and euerie of them ſhall put in the inner ſole of the ſaid double ſoled ſhooes, bootes, ſtartups and ſlippers, lether called the wombe, well and ſufficientlie curried, and in the treſwels of the double ſoled ſhooes, the flanke of the hide or ſkin ſufficientlie curried.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, for the true execution héereof, that the maior of the citie of London, and the aldermen of the ſame, for the time being, ſhall yéerelie appoint foure ſearchers, and one ouerſéer or mo, by his or their diſcretion, to be ſworne before the ſaid maior and aldermen for the time being, to doo their office trulie, which ſhall by vertue of this act, foure times in the yeare at the leaſt, that is to ſaie: once euerie quarter, and oftener if néed require, make true ſearch and view in all and euerie houſe and houſes, place and places, as well within the ſaid citie, and ſuburbs thereof, as in euerie other place within thrée miles compaſſe of the ſaid citie, where anie tanner, currier, ſhoomaker or cobler dooth, or ſhall dwell and occupie anie of the ſaid occupations, for all and euerie bootes, ſtartups, ſhooes, and other things apperteining to the craft or myſterie of ſhoomakers or coblers, made or wrought contrarie to the purport of this ſtatute, and alſo for all maner of lether and other things apperteining to the craft or occupation of curriers and tanners, not well and ſufficientlie curried and tanned, according to the meaning of this act. And that all other maiors, bailiffes, and other head officers, in all other cities, boroughes, & market townes of this realme, out of the circuit, and compaſſe of the ſaid thrée miles, ſhall vpon paine of twentie pounds euerie yeare, that they make default hérein, appoint and ſweare yearelie, two, thrée, or mo perſons of the beſt ſkilled men within their offices, by their diſcretion, to ſearch and view within the precinct of their cities, boroughs, and townes, which ſhall foure times in the yeare at the leaſt, that is to wit, once euerie quarter of a yeare, make like ſearch within their limits, and ſhall haue a marke or ſeale prepared for that purpoſe, as is aboue limited, to be in London and the ſuburbs of the ſame. And that the ſame ſearchers, or one of them, ſhall themſelues kéepe the ſaid ſeale or marke, and with the ſame ſhall ſeale or marke lether as they ſhall find ſufficient, the ſame ſearchers to haue for their labour, according as is limited in the ſtatute made for due ſearch, triall, and making of the lether, in the foure and twentith of king Henrie the eight.

Prouided alwaies, that no lether being once ſearched and ſealed or marked, as before ſaid, ſhall be charged againe with anie other ſeale or ſearch. And if the ſaid ſearchers or anie of them, doo find anie lether ſold, or offered to be ſold, or brought to be ſearched, or marked vnſufficientlie tanned, or anie lether not ſufficientlie curried, or anie ſtuffe made of ſuch lether, it ſhall be lawfull for the ſaid ſearchers, or anie of them, to ſeize the ſame lether, and ſtuffe made of lether, as forfeited, and to reteine the ſame in their cuſtodie, till the ſame be tried before the maior, bailiffes, and other head officers of euerie citie, borough, or towne, where ſuch ſeizure ſhall happen to be made, the ſame triall to be made by ſix expert men, at the appointment of the ſaid head officers, and two of the aldermen of the ſaid cities, boroughs, and townes, vpon the othes of the ſaid triers.

And alſo be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon will wilfullie withſtand or denie anie ſuch ſearch to be made according to the tenor of this act, as is aforeſaid, or will not ſuffer the ſaid ſearchers ſo ſworne and appointed to ſearch, to enter into his or their houſe or houſes, or other places, where ſuch euill made ſhooes, bootes, and other the premiſſes, or anie lether, deceitfullie and falſelie tanned, or curried, is or ſhall be ſuſpected or knowne to be, that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo denieng and withſtanding, and not ſuffering the ſaid ſearchers ſo ſworne and appointed for the time being, to enter and make ſearch, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie time ſo denieng and withſtanding, fiue pounds.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the perſons ſo to be aſſigned for the ſearch as is aforeſaid, will doo, or make default in their ſearch, and not ſearch foure times in the yéere, as is aforeſaid, except they be letted by ſome lawfull impediment, or doo allow or ſeale, or cauſe to be ſealed anie lether or ſtuffe, vnſufficientlie tanned, curried, or wrought, or doo conceale anie faults found in their ſearch, that they and euerie of them that ſhall make default in ſearch, or allow that is vnſufficient, or conceale defaults founden, ſhall forfeit and loſe fiue pounds for euerie ſuch default, allowance or concealement, wittinglie doone, and ſo prooued ſufficientlie againſt them.

Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie cordwainer or ſhoomaker, not onelie within the ſaid citie of London, but elſewhere within this realme of England, to make all maner of ſhooes, bootes, ſlippers, and other neceſſaries for dukes, earles, lords, knights, ladies, eſquires, gentlemen, and gentlewomen, of ſuch lether, & other things apperteining to their facultie, as their pleaſure is to haue them made for their monie, & to all other perſons as they ſhall beſpeake them.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that they ne anie of them ſhall put to ſale anie ſhooes or bootes of drie lether betwéene the laſt daie of September, and the firſt daie of Maie, but to ſuch perſons as ſhall ſo beſpeake them.

And foraſmuch as by carieng and conueieng of lether ouer the ſea, lether is growen now in ſuch vnreaſonable price, that the commons of this realme cannot now haue for twelue pence, that they might in times paſt haue had for eight pence: be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, that from and after the firſt daie of Iune next comming, ſhall ſhip anie backe or hide, or other lether, or hides tanned or vntanned into the parties of beyond the ſea, ſhall paie for euerie dicker of lether, called backes or hides, or other lether, or raw hides, treble cuſtome.

Prouided alwaies, that this act ſhall not extend to anie licence alreadie granted, for carieng or conueieng anie lether ouer the ſea, but that euerie perſon which hath alreadie obteined anie ſuch licence, maie ſhip and carie the ſame, paieng ſuch cuſtomes as they might before the making of this act. And that no ſhoomaker, currier, or other perſon, to his or their owne vſe (except tanners) ſhall buie anie hide in the haire vntanned to put the ſame to tanning, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch hide, ſix ſhillings eight pence.

And be it further enacted, that euerie tanner from henſeforth ſhall cut euerie wombe of euerie ox hide ſix inches brode, of euerie ſtéere hide fiue inches brode, & of euerie cowhide eight inches brode of aſſiſe, in the narroweſt place, the which oxhide, ſteerehide, or cowhide, that ſhalbe tanned for and in the kind of ſole lether, vpon paine of forfeiture, for euerie wombe cut leſſe than ſo manie inches brode of aſſiſe, as is aboue apointed, thrée ſhillings foure pence. And that no maner of tanner ſhall cut anie hide for a backe, but ſuch as ſhalbe ſufficient and well lethered, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame backe or backes, not being ſufficient and well lethered. And that no currier which ſhall occupie the occupation of currieng, ſhall hereafter refuſe to currie anie lether brought vnto him red, by anie cordwainer or other artificer that occupieth anie tanned lether in his occupation, to the intent to be curried vpon reaſonable agréement for his paines, the ſame to be deliuered well and ſufficientlie curried to the owner thereof, within foure and twentie daies, all which forfeitures of ſummes of monie aforeſaid, ſhalbe diuided into thrée equall parts, one part thereof ſhalbe to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and an other part to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, and the third part therof ſhalbe to the vſe of the citie, borough or towne, where the offenſe ſhalbe committed and doone.

And be it further enacted, that it ſhalbe lawfull for euerie man to ſue for the ſame forfeitures of ſums of monie, in anie court or courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, information or otherwiſe: in which ſute no eſſoine, wager of law or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed. And all ſuch bootes, ſhooes, and lether as ſhall be found vnſufficientlie wrought, tanned or curried, and declared by this act to be forfeited, ſhall be ſeized by the ſaid ſearchers, or anie other perſon finding the fault thereof, and the ſame ſtuffe forfeited ſhall be diſtributed as hereafter inſueth, that is to ſaie, ſuch ſtuffe ſo ſeized, within the ſaid citie of London, or within thrée miles compaſſe of the ſame, to be brought to the Guild hall in London, there to be diuided into thrée parts, whereof one part to be to the firſt ſeizor of the ſaid vnlawfull ſtuffe, and the other two parts to be diſtributed to the poore folkes, aſwell being within the new hoſpitall of S. Bartholomews in London, as to ſuch poore houſholders as ſhall be inhabiting within the citie of London, or the circuit aforeſaid, at the diſcretion of ſuch perſons as the maior of the ſaid citie and foure aldermen of the ſame, for the time being, ſhall appoint for the ſame. And that all ſuch bootes, ſhooes, and lether, as ſhall be found within their citie, borough, or towne within this realme, out of the ſaid thrée miles compaſſe, vnſufficientlie wrought, tanned or curried, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe ſeized and taken as forfeited, and brought to the common hall of euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne, and other conuenient and open place, and two parts thereof to be diſpoſed to the poore, and in other déeds of charitie in thoſe parts, after the diſcretion of the maiors, bailifs, hedboroughs, & two other aldermen of the ſame citie, borough or towne. And where no ſuch officers be, then the ſame to be done by a iuſtice of peace next adioining, and by the conſtables of the towne or village where ſuch ſeizure is, or ſhalbe made, and the ſaid ſearchers, or firſt ſeizor to haue the third part of ſuch forfeiture for their paine.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that no ſuch vnlawfull lether ſo forfeited, be conuerted to anie bootes or ſhooes, to be put to ſale againe, vpon paine that euerie perſon that ſo ſhall conuert the ſame, to forfeit the ſame ſtuffe, and ſix ſhillings eight pence ouer for euerie time ſo dooing and offending.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhalbe lawfull to all cordwainers, ſhoomakers and coblers, aboue mentioned, for the better auoiding of the paine aboneſaid, on them appointed, in caſe they ſhould make or ſell anie bootes or ſhooes of lether not ſufficientlie curried, from henſeforth to currie and dreſſe by their ſelues or their ſeruants, all ſuch lether as they or anie of them ſhall conuert into bootes, ſlippers, or other things apperteining to the myſterie of cordwainers or coblers, and none other, the ſtatute in the ninetéenth yéere of the king of famous memorie Henrie the ſeuenth heretofore made to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding. And for the better execution of this preſent act, be it enacted, that all iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of goale deliuerie, iuſtices of peace, and ſtewards of franchiſes, lects and law daies, within their ſeuerall precinct, and maiors of London for the time being within the ſaid thrée miles, and all other maiors, bailiffes, and other head officers of cities, boroughs and townes, within their ſeuerall precinct out of the ſaid circuit and compaſſe of thrée miles, ſhall inquire of all the premiſſes in their ſeſſions, léet, or lawdaie, & heare and determine the ſame, & alſo by their diſcretion, examine all perſons ſuppoſed to offend this act, or anie part thereof.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that the girdlers of this realme may ſell their necks, wombes, & ſhreds of tanned leather, to anie perſon or perſons, without anie forfeit, paine, or penaltie to be yéelded for the ſame, anie thing conteined in the ſame to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull for all manner of ſhoomakers, coblers, ſadlers, girdlers, bogedmakers, and all other artificers, vſing leather in their art, to buie all kind of tanned leather, being firſt ſeized as is aforeſaid, to be conuerted to anie thing belonging onelie to their occupation, at Leadenhall in London, vpon euerie mondaie in the yeare, though neither the buier nor ſeller be frée of the ſaid citie of London, without incurring anie penaltie or danger for the ſame, any thing in this act conteined, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that no perſon nor perſons, ſhall be moleſted, ſued, or vexed for anie forfeiture or penaltie compriſed within this act, except the ſute thereof be commenſed within one yeare after the offenſe committed.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie lord or lords, perſon or perſons, bodies politike and corporat, or anie of them, their heires or ſucceſſors, or the heires or ſucceſſors of anie of them, touching anie faire or market, ſeale, ſearch, libertie, franchiſe, priuilege, profit, commoditie, forfeiture, fines, or emolument, which they or anie of them haue or ought to haue by anie lawfull intereſt or title, before the commenſement and beginning of this preſent parlement, but that they & euerie of them, may, and ſhall haue, inioy, perceiue, take and kéepe, all & ſingular their ſeale, ſearches, liberties, franchiſes, profits, commodities, forfeitures, and fines, riſing, comming, and growing by reaſon of this act, anie clauſe, article, or ſentence in this preſent act or ſtatute to the contrarie notwithſtanding. This act to endure to the end of the next parlement.

An act for the true making of malt.

Chap.16. WHere diuers and ſundrie perſons, taking vpon them the art and myſterie of malt making, and ſundrie other perſons, tending more their owne priuat lucre, gaine, and profit, than the wholſome vitelling of the kings maieſtie, the nobilitie of this realme, and other his graces ſubiects, haue now of late by their vnſatiable, couetous, and grédie minds, accuſtomablie and commonlie made much malt, vnpure and vnſeaſonable, for that they haue made the ſame malt in eight or nine daies, where in déed the ſame cannot be well and perfectlie made, vnleſſe it haue the time and ſpace of twelue daies in the making thereof. And where alſo diuerſe and ſundrie of the ſaid makers of malt, commonlie haue and doo ſlacklie and deceitfullie drie the malt, ſo by them made, for that they would haue an inordinat increaſe thereof, by the ſwelling of the ſaid malt, whereby the ſame malt not being ſufficientlie dried, cannot be kept anie long time or ſpace, but it will be muſtie and full of weuels, whereby no wholeſome drinke for mans bodie can by anie means thereof be made, which is not onelie to the great perill and danger of the nobilitie, and other the kings highneſſe ſubiects, within this realme, and alſo to the great loſſe and decaie of the commonwealth of the ſame, but alſo an vtter impoueriſhment of the brewers of this ſaid realme, for that the ſaid brewers (ouer and beſides the vnwholeſomneſſe of the drinke, which is commonlie made thereof) cannot make ſo much drinke of fiftie quarters of malt, being ſo euill dried and made, as they might and can make of fortie quarters, being well and trulie made. And alſo foraſmuch as diuerſe and ſundrie perſons, minding and ſéeking their owne priuat and exceſſiue gaine and profit, forgetting thereby their dutie, and the order or charitie towards the commonwealth and their neighbours in this behalfe, doo commonlie vſe to put and mixt good malt, and euill malt togither, and after put the ſame malt to ſale, as good malt, whereby manie of the kings ſubiects haue béene and are like to be verie often deceiued, to their great loſſe and hinderance, contrarie to the honeſt, ſéemelie, and godlie buieng, ſelling, and commutation that ſhould and ought to be amongſt chriſtian people, ſpeciallie in things concerning the ſuſtentation and ſuſtenance of mans bodie.

For remedie whereof, it may pleaſe the kings maieſtie, with the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that it may be eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame, that no ſuch perſon or perſons at anie time after the firſt daie of March next comming, ſhall make anie barlie malt (the moneths of Iune, Iulie, and Auguſt onelie excepted) but that the ſame ſhall haue in making thereof, that is to ſaie, in the fat, flowre, ſtéeping, and ſufficient drieng of the ſaid malt, thrée wéekes at the leaſt, and that no ſuch perſon or perſons, at anie time within the ſaid moneths of Iune, Iulie, and Auguſt, ſhall make anie barlie malt, except the ſame haue in the fat, flowre, ſtéeping, and ſufficient drieng, the time and ſpace of ſeauentéene daies, at the leaſt, vnder and without which time and times, the ſaid malt cannot be well and perfectlie made, nor wholeſome for mans bodie: vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euerie quarter of malt which ſhall be made by anie perſon or perſons, contrarie to the tenor, nor, purport, and true meaning of this act, two ſhillings. And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that no perſon or perſons,after the firſt of March next comming, ſhall mingle, or put togither anie malt,not being well and ſufficientlie made or being made of mowburnt, or ſpired barlie, with other good malt,and after put the ſame ſo mingled to ſale, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euerie quarter ſo mingled and put to ſale,two ſhillings.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons after the laſt daie of Ianuarie next comming,ſhall put to ſale anie malt,which ſhall not be ſufficientlie and well troden,rubbed and well fanned,whereby there may be conuenientlie fanned out of one quarter thereof halfe a pecke of duſt or more,that then the perſon ſo putting the ſame to ſale, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euerie quarter ſo put to ſale,twentie pence. The moitie of all which forfeitures to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord,and the other moitie thereof to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt,bill,plaint,or information,in anie of the kings courts, wherein no protection,wager of law, nor eſſoine, nor iniunction, ſhall be admitted or allowed.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that the iuſtices of peace in euerie of their ſeſſions,and alſo the ſteward in euerie léet, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act,to inquire,heare,and determine,as well by preſentment of twelue men, as by accuſation or information of two honeſt witneſſes,of,for,and vpon all and euerie the offenſes and forfeitures aforeſaid,as well for the king,as for the partie that ſhall ſue, procure, or cauſe the ſame to be preſented,as is beforeſaid. And that the bailiffes,and conſtables of euerie borow, or market towne, or other towne where anie ſuch malt ſhall be made,or put to ſale,ſhall haue full power and authoritie from time to time, to view, ſearch, and ſuruie all ſuch malt as ſhall be made or put to ſale, within anie of the ſaid townes. And if anie of them ſhall therevpon find anie malt ſo put to ſale, being euill made, or mingled with euill malt,contrarie to the tenor and true meaning of this preſent act: that then the ſaid bailiffe or conſtable ſo finding anie ſuch malt euill made,or mingled as is beforeſaid,with the aduiſe of one iuſtice of peace,within the ſame ſhire, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſold to ſuch perſon or perſons,and at ſuch reaſonable price or prices,and vnder the common price of the market,as to his diſcretion ſhall ſéeme neceſſarie and expedient.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid ,that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined,ſhall not extend to charge,or be to the making of malt, for anie mans owne prouiſion for his owne houſe or familie,neither preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, for, or concerning anie of the offenſes or forfeitures aforeſaid : except he or they ſo offending, ſhall happen to be ſued, preſented, and accuſed for the ſame,in manner and forme aforeſaid, within one yeare next after anie ſuch offenſe or offenſes to be doone or committed, anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. This preſent act to continue vntill the end of the next parlement.

An act for the true tanning of lether.

Chap.11. WHere before this time diuerſe good eſtatutes haue béene made for the true tanning of lether,wherein conſiſteth a great commonwealth and commoditie to all men, for that euerie ſort of people of neceſſitie muſt vſe, and haue lether for diuerſe and ſundrie purpoſes: for lacke of true tanning thereof, euerie man is not onelie put to great loſſe and charge, but alſo by the naughtineſſe thereof,dooth take diuerſe and ſundrie diſeaſes to the ſhortning of their liues, and yet notwithſtanding,the ſaid good eſtatutes in that caſe prouided,it is manifeſt to all perſons, that there was neuer worſe lether vſed or made within this realme, than hath latelie béene, and now is vſed and made within the ſame. The chéefe cauſe thereof commeth by reaſon of the euill and deceitfull tanning of the ſame lether. For albeit the corier, and alſo the ſhoomaker,or other artificer,doo his or their diligence neuer ſo well,yet nothing made therewith can be good, perfect, or profitable,as it ought or ſhould be,the lether not being well and ſufficientlie tanned, the occaſion of the naughtie tanning thereof groweth much by the gréedineſſe of the gaine of the tanner, for that they couet to ſet foorth the ſame to ſale with more ſpéed, and ſhorter time, than it can be well and perfectlie tanned,and haue his due time requiſit and neceſſarie for the true tanning of the ſame.

For whereas in times paſt, the hides of lether were woont to lie in the tanne fats by the ſpace of one yeare,or fiue quarters of the yeare,before it was taken out of the ſame fats,or put to ſale,now for the ſpéedie vtterance and tanning thereof,they haue inuented diuerſe and ſundrie deceitfull and craftie meanes to haue the ſame lether tanned,ſometime in thrée wéekes, and ſometime in one moneth or ſix wéekes at the moſt, as by craft of ouer liming thereof in their lime pits,or otherwiſe by laieng thereof in their fats,ſet in their old tan hilles, where it ſhall be tanned with the hot ozis, taking vnkind heat in the ſame hill, and ſometime by putting of ſéething hot liquor with their ozis into their tanne fats,where the ſame hides or lether lie,which they moſt commonlie doo practiſe in the night time, and by diuerſe and manie other ſuch craftie and ſubtill means,whereby they make lether to ſéeme to them that haue not the knowledge or ſkill thereof, to be as well and ſufficienltie tanned,within the ſpace of thrée wéekes or a moneth, or ſix wéekes at the moſt,as if it had lien in the fats vntill it had the full time requiſit for the true tanning of the ſame,which ſhould haue béene at the leaſt by the ſpace of thrée quarters of a yeare. For remedie thereof, and to the intent that lether may héereafter be ſufficientlie and trulie tanned, and haue his full kind and perfection,as is requiſit for the ſame. Be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord,with the aſſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame,that all acts heeretofore made concerning the true tanning of lether, not being yet repealed,ſhall ſtand in their full ſtrength & force,& be put in due execution. And furthermore,that no perſon or perſons,occupieng,or that heereafter ſhall occupie the myſterie or craft of a tanner,ſhall after the firſt daie of Maie next comming,put anie tanned lether to ſale (calues ſkins onelie excepted)tanned or mixed with aſhen barke, tapworth meale, aſhes, or culuer dung. And that the ſame lether ſo put to ſale,hath lien in the tan ozis, well and ſufficientlie wrought and changed by the ſpace of three quarters of one yeare at the leaſt,vpon paine that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons,putting anie tanned lether to ſale,tanned contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute, ſhall forfeit the ſame lether ſo put to ſale,and further for euerie hide therof ſix ſhillings and eight pence. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon or perſons, to ſeize the ſame lether ſo put to ſale, contrarie to this act,as forfeit.And he that ſhall ſo ſeize the ſame lether,ſhall haue the one halfe of the ſame lether ſo ſeized,and the king the other halfe,and that he that will ſue for the ſame forfeiture of ſix ſhillings eight pence for euerie of the ſame hides ſo forfeit, as for the ſaid lether ſo forfeited as is aforeſaid,by waie of information,bill,plaint,or action of debt, in anie caſe of the kings courts of record,wherein no wager of law,eſſoine,or protection ſhall be allowed, ſhall haue the one halfe and the king the other halfe.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after and from the ſaid firſt daie of Maie next comming,no perſon or perſons,ſhall ouerlime or ouerburne with lime, anie hides in their lime pits, nor ſhall ſet anie their fats in tan hils, or other places, where the ozis or lether that ſhall be put to tan in the ſame,ſhall or may take anie vnkind heats, or ſhall put anie hot liquor or hot ozis into their fats,wherein anie hides or lether ſhall be put to tanning: or ſhall practiſe anie other deceitfull waies or means,for the ouerſpeedie tanning of anie hides or lether, or whereby anie hides or lether ſhall be burnt, ſkalded, or marred in the tanning thereof, vpon the paines and penalties aforeſaid.And that it ſhall be lawfull to and for the iuſtices of the peace, for the time being,and to euerie perſon and perſons,hauing authoritie by the lawes and eſtatutes of this realme,to ſearch,view,and marke tanned lether,to enter at all reaſonable time and times,into the tan houſes of anie perſon or perſons, vſing and exerciſing the myſterie or craft of tanning of lether,and to ſearch their tan fats,that ſtand or be in their tan houſes or other places. And if anie ſuch iuſtice or ſearcher ſhall find or perceiue hides or lether, put in anie ſuch fat or fats, ſet in their tan hils,or otherwiſe deceitfullie tanned or ouerlimed,or burnt with lime,or tanned contrarie to this eſtatute; that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch iuſtice and ſearcher or ſearchers ſo finding the ſame,to ſeize the ſame hides and lether,and to take the one moitie thereof to the vſe of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king,and the other moitie thereof to his owne vſe; and in caſe he cannot ſeize and haue the ſame by waie of ſeizure,that then the ſame iuſtice and ſearcher, or anie of them,may ſue for the ſame,or the value thereof,in anie of the kings courts of record, by information,bill,plaint,or action of debt,or detinue, wherein no eſſoine, wager of law, or protection ſhall be allowed, and the king to haue the one halfe of the ſaid forfeitures,and the partie that ſo ſueth the other halfe.And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, occupieng,or that ſhall heereafter occupie or exerciſe the craft or myſterie of tanners,ſhall cut anie hide or hides of ſteere or cow, for clout lether,or to make anie clout lether thereof, but that they and euerie of them ſhall ſell and vtter,all and euerie their hides of cow and ſteere whole and vncut,vpon paine and forfeiture of the loſſe of the ſame hides ſo cut,and vi.s.viij.d. for euerie hide ſo cut,& that euerie perſon & perſons that will ſeize the ſame lether,or ſue for the ſame forfeitures, as is before limited, for the penalties aforeſaid, ſhall haue the one halfe thereof,and the king the other halfe.

And be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie,that no perſon or perſons,ſhall after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie,tan anie maner of fels,or ſheepe ſkins,or put to ſale,vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ſkins,and vi.s.viij.d. for euerie ſheepe ſkin ſo tanned or ſold,the one halfe thereof to be to the king, and the other halfe thereof to be to him that will ſeize or ſue for the ſame, by anie of the waies or means aforeſaid.This act to endure to the end of the next parlement.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted,that this preſent act,or anie thing therein conteined,ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie lord or lords,perſon or perſons, bodies politike and corporat,or anie of them,their heires or ſucceſſors,or the heires or ſucceſſors of anie of them,touching anie faire or market,ſeale,ſearch, libertie, franchiſe, priuilege,profit,commoditie, forfeiture, fines,or emolument,which they or anie of them haue or ought to haue by anie lawfull intereſt or title before the commenſement & beginning of this preſent parlement: but that they & euerie of them may and ſhall haue,inioy,perceiue,take & keepe,all and ſingular their faires,markets,ſeale,ſerchers,liberties,franchiſes,profits,commodities,forfeitures & fines,riſing,comming & growing,by reaſon of this act: anie clauſe,article,or ſentence in this preſent act or ſtatute to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.This act to endure vnto the end of the next parlement.

An act for the true paiment of tithes.

Chap.13.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the 4 daie of Februarie, in the 27 yéere of the reigne of the late king of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight, there was one act made, concerning paiment of tithes prediall and perſonall; and alſo in an other parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the 24 daie of Julie in the 32 yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, an other act was made concerning true paiment of tithes and offrings: in which ſeuerall acts, manie and diuers things be omitted and left out, which were conuenient and verie neceſſarie to be added to the ſame. In conſideration whereof, and to the intent the ſaid tithes maie be hereafter trulie paied, according to the mind of the makers of the ſaid act; be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that not onelie the ſaid acts made in the ſaid 27 and 32 yéeres of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, concerning true paiment of tithes, and euerie article and branch therein conteined, ſhall abide and ſtand in their full ſtrength and vertue: but alſo be it further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie of the kings ſubiects ſhall from henſefoorth trulie and iuſtlie, without fraud or guile, diuide, ſet out, yéeld, and paie all maner of their prediall tithes, in their proper kind, as they riſe and happen, in ſuch maner and forme, as hath béene of right yéelded and paied within fortie yéeres, next before the making of this act, or of right or cuſtome ought to haue béene paied. And that no perſon ſhall from henſefoorth take or carie awaie, anie ſuch or like tithes, which haue béene yéelded or paied within the ſaid fortie yéeres, or of right ought to haue beene paied, in the place or places tithable of the ſame, before he hath iuſtlie diuided or ſet foorth for the tith thereof, the tenth part of the ſame, or otherwiſe agréed for the ſame tithes, with the parſon, vicar, or other owner, proprietorie, or fermer of the ſame tithes, vnder the paine of forfeiture of treble value of the tithes ſo taken or caried awaie.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that at all times whenſoeuer, and as often as the ſaid prediall tithes ſhalbe due at the tithing time of the ſame, it to be lawfull to euerie partie to whom anie of the ſaid tithes ought to be paid, or his deputie or ſeruant, to view and ſée their ſaid tithes to be iuſtlie and trulie ſet foorth, and ſeuered from the nine parts, and the ſame quietlie to take & carrie awaie. And if anie perſon carrie awaie his corne or haie, or his other prediall tithes, before the tith thereof be ſet foorth, or willinglie withdraw his tithes of the ſame, or of ſuch other things, whereof prediall tithes ought to be paid, or doo ſtop or let the parſon, vicar, proprietorie, owner, or other their deputies or fermers, to view, take, and carie awaie their tithes, as is aboueſaid, by reaſon whereof the ſaid tith or tenth is loſt, impaired, or hurt, that then vpon due proofe thereof made, before the ſpirituall iudge, or anie other iudge, to whom heretofore he might haue made complaint, the partie ſo carieng awaie, withdrawing, letting or ſtopping, ſhall paie the double value of the tenth or tith ſo taken, loſt, withdrawen or caried awaie, ouer and beſides the coſts, charges, and expenſes of the ſute in the ſame, the ſame to be recouered before the eccleſiaſticall iudge, according to the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon, which hath or ſhall haue anie beaſts or other cattell tithable, going, féeding, or depaſturing in anie waſt or common ground, whereof the pariſh is not certeinelie knowne, ſhall paie their tithes for the increaſe of the ſaid cattell ſo going in the ſaid waſt or common, to the parſon, vicar, proprietorie, portionarie, owner, or other their fermers or deputies, of the ſaid pariſh, hamlet, towne, or other place, where the owner of the ſaid cattell inhabiteth or dwelleth.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon ſhall be ſued, or otherwiſe compelled to yéeld, giue, or paie, anie maner of tithes, for any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, which by the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, or by anie priuilege or preſcription, are not chargeable with the paiment of anie ſuch tithes, or that be diſcharged by anie compoſition reall.

Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch barren heath or waſt ground, other than ſuch as be diſcharged for the paiment of tithes by act of parlement, which before this time haue lien barren, & paid no tithes by reaſon of the ſame barrenneſſe, and now be, or heereafter ſhall be improued and conuerted into arable ground or medow, ſhall from henſeforth, after the end & terme of ſeuen yéers, next after ſuch improuement fullie ended and determined, paie tith for the corne and haie growing vpon the ſame: anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ſuch barren, waſt, or heath ground, hath before this time béene charged with the paiment of anie tithes, and that the ſame be héereafter improued and conuerted into arable ground or medow, that then the owner or owners therof, ſhall during ſeuen yéers next following, from and after the ſame improuement, paie ſuch kind of tith as was paid for the ſame before the ſaid improuement: anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon exerciſing merchandizes, bargaining & ſelling, clothing, handicraft or other art or facultie, being ſuch kind of perſons, & in ſuch places as héertofore within this fortie yéers haue accuſtomablie vſed to pay ſuch perſonall tiths, or of right ought to pay, other than ſuch as be common daie laborers, ſhall yéerlie at or before the feaſt of Eaſter, paie for his perſonall tiths, the tenth part of his cléere gains, his charges & expenſes, according to his eſtate, condition or degrée, to be therein abated, allowed, and deducted.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that in all ſuch places where handicrafts men haue vſed to paie their tithes, within this fortie yéeres, the ſame cuſtome of paiment of tithes to be obſerued and to continue: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon refuſe to paie his perſonall tiths in forme aforeſaid, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the ordinarie of the ſame dioceſſe, where the partie that ſo ought to paie the ſaid tiths is dwelling, to call the ſame partie before him, and by his diſcretion to examine him by all lawfull & reaſonable meanes, other than by the parties owne corporall oth, concerning the true paiment of the ſaid perſonall tithes.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all & euerie perſon & perſons, which by the laws or cuſtoms of this realme, ought to make or paie their offerings, ſhall yéerlie from henſeforth, well and trulie content and paie his or their offerings to the parſon, vicar, proprietorie, or their deputies or fermers, of the pariſh or pariſhes where it ſhall fortune or happen him or them to dwell or abide, and that at ſuch foure offering daies, as at anie time héeretofore within the ſpace of foure yéers laſt paſt hath béene vſed and accuſtomed for the paiment of the ſame, and in default thereof to paie for their ſaid offerings at Eaſter then next following.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to anie pariſh, which ſtands vpon & towards the ſea coaſts, the commodities and occupieng wherof conſiſteth chéeflie in fiſhing, and haue by reaſon therof vſed to ſatiſfie their tithes by fiſh, but that all and euerie ſuch pariſh and pariſhes, ſhall héerafter paie their tithes, according to the laudable cuſtoms, as they haue héertofore of ancient time within this fortie yéers vſed and accuſtomed, and ſhall paie their offerings as is aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or any thing therin conteined, ſhall not extend in anie wiſe to the inhabitants of the citie of London and Canturburie, and the ſuburbs of the ſame, ne to anie other towne or place, that hath vſed to paie their tiths by their houſes, otherwiſe than they ought or ſhould haue doone, before the making of this act: anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon doo ſubtract or withdraw anie maner of tithes, obuentions, profits, commodities, or other duties before mentioned, or anie part of them, contrarie to the true meaning of this act, or of anie other act héeretofore made, that then the partie ſo ſubtracting or withdrawing the ſame, maie or ſhall be conuented and ſued in the kings eccleſiaſticall court, by the partie from whom the ſame ſhall be ſubtracted or withdrawne, to the intent the kings iudge eccleſiaſticall ſhall and maie, then and there heare & determine the ſame according to the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes. And that it ſhall not be lawfull vnto the parſon, vicar, proprietorie, owner, or other their fermers or deputies. contrarie to this act, to conuent or ſue ſuch withholder of tithes, obuentions, or other duties aforeſaid, before anie other iudge than eccleſiaſticall. And if anie archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, or other iudge eccleſiaſticall, giue anie ſentence in the foreſaid cauſes of tithes, obuentions, profits, emoluments, and other duties aforeſaid, or in anie of them (and no appeale ne prohibition hanging) the partie condemned doo not obeie the ſaid ſentence:

tence: that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch iudge eccleſiaſticall, to excommunicat the ſaid partie, ſo as afore condemned and diſobeieng, in the which ſentence of excommunication, if the ſaid partie excommunicat, wilfullie ſtand and indure ſtill excommunicat by the ſpace of fortie daies next after, vpon denuntiation and publication thereof in the pariſh church, or the place or pariſh where the partie ſo excommunicat is dwelling, or moſt abiding, the ſaid iudge eccleſiaſticall maie then at his pleaſure ſignifie vnto the king into his court of chancerie, of the ſtate and condition of the ſaid partie ſo excommunicat, and therevpon to require proceſſe De excommunicato capiendo, to be awarded againſt euerie ſuch perſon as hath beene ſo excommunicat.

Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie partie at anie time heereafter, for anie matter or cauſe before rehearſed, limited, or appointed by this act, to be ſued or determined in the kings eccleſiaſticall court, or before the eccleſiaſticall iudge, doo ſue for anie prohibition in anie of the kings courts, where prohibitions before this time haue beene vſed to be granted: that then in euerie ſuch caſe the ſame partie, before anie prohibition ſhall be granted to him or them, ſhall bring and deliuer to the hands of ſome of the iuſtices or iudges of the ſame court, where ſuch partie demanded prohibition, the verie true copie of the libell depending in the eccleſiaſticall court, concerning the matter wherefore the partie demandeth prohibition, ſubſcribed or marked with the hand of the ſame partie, and vnder the copie of the ſaid libell, ſhall be written the ſuggeſtion, wherefore the partie ſo demandeth the ſaid prohibition. And in caſe the ſaid ſuggeſtion, by two honeſt and ſufficient witneſſes at the leaſt, be not prooued true in the court, where the ſaid prohibition ſhall be ſo granted, within ſix moneths next following, after the ſaid prohibition ſhall be ſo granted and awarded, that then the partie that is letted or hindered of his or their ſute in the eccleſiaſticall court, by ſuch prohibition, ſhall vpon his or their requeſt and ſute without delaie, haue a conſultation granted in the ſame caſe in the court where the ſaid prohibition was granted, and ſhall alſo recouer double coſts and damages againſt the partie that ſo purſued the ſaid prohibition, the ſaid coſts and damages to be aſſigned or aſſeſſed by the court, where the ſaid conſultation ſhall be ſo granted, for which coſts and damages, the partie to whom they ſhall be awarded, maie haue an action of debt, by bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts of record, wherein the defendant ſhall not wage his or their law, nor haue anie eſſoine or protection allowed or admitted.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to giue anie miniſter or iudge eccleſiaſticall, anie iuriſdiction to hold plee of anie matter, cauſe, or thing, being contrarie or repugnant, to, or againſt the effect, intent, or meaning of the ſtatute of Weſtminſter ij, the fift chapter, the ſtatutes of Articuli cleri, Circumſpectè agatis, Sylua cædua, the treatiſe De regia prohibitione, ne againſt the ſtatute of Anno primo Edwardi tertij the tenth chapter, or anie of them, ne yet hold plee in anie matter whereof the kings court of right ought to haue iuriſdiction: anie thing heerein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided neuertheleſſe, where heeretofore ſuch a cuſtome hath beene in manie parts of Wales, that of ſuch chattell and other goods, as hath beene giuen with the marriage of anie perſon, their tithes haue beene exacted and leuied by the parſons and curats in thoſe parts, which cuſtome being diſſonant from anie part of this realme, as it ſeemed when the ſaid countrie of Wales was thorough ciuill diſſention vnculted, for want of other ſufficient profits that might otherwiſe grow to the curats and miniſters there, to haue beene for that time tollerable: ſo now the countrie being well manured and huſbanded, and that tith is dulie paied there, of corne, haie, wooll, and cheeſe, and of other increaſe of all maner of cattell, as it is commonlie in all other parts of this realme, the ſame cuſtome ſeemes to be greeuous and vnreaſonable, ſpeciallie where the benefices are elſe ſufficient for the finding of the ſaid miniſters and curats: that it be therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from and after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, no ſuch tithes of marriage goods be exacted or required of anie perſon within the ſaid dominion of Wales or marches of the ſame: anie thing in this act conteined, or anie other act, cuſtome, preſcription had or made to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

An act againſt the ſhooting of haileſhot.

Chap.14. WHereas an act made in the three and twentith yeere of the late king of famous memorie Henrie the eight, for ſome libertie to ſhoot in handguns, haques, and haquebuts, by which act neuertheleſſe it was prouided, that no perſon ſhould ſhoot in anie of the aboueſaid peeces, but at a banke of earth, and not to anie deere or fowle, vnleſſe the partie might diſpend an hundred pounds by the yeere, foraſmuch as the ſaid act hauing beene deuiſed, as it was then thought for neceſſarie exerciſe, tending to the defenſe of the realme, is growen ſithen to the mainteinance of much idlenes, & to ſuch a libertie, as not onlie dwelling houſes, douecotes, and churches, be dailie damaged by the abuſe thereof, by men of light conuerſation, but that alſo there is growen a cuſtomable maner of ſhooting of haileſhot, whereby an infinit ſort of fowle is killed, and much game thereby deſtroied, to the benefit of no man, wherby alſo the meaning of the ſaid ſtatute is defrauded, for that the ſaid vſe of haileſhot vtterlie deſtroieth the certeintie of ſhooting, which in wars is much requiſit. Be it therefore enacted, that no perſon vnder the degree of a lord of the parlement, ſhall from henſeforth ſhoot in anie handgun, within anie citie or towne at anie fowle, or other marke vpon anie church, houſe, or douecote, neither that anie perſon ſhall ſhoot in anie place anie haileſhot, or anie more pellets than one at one time, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time that he or they ſhall ſo offend contrarie to this act ten pounds, and impriſonment of his bodie during thrée moneths.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined ſhall extend, or be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons, authorized by value of land, to ſhoot in anie handgun or croſſebow, but that they maie ſo doo, in ſuch forme and order as they ſhould doo, and might haue doone before the making of this act (haileſhot excepted, as in déed that kind of ſhot in the ſaid act was not ment) and that all and euerie other perſon or perſons, authorized to ſhoot or otherwiſe, if he inhabit in anie towne corporat, be preſented to the maior or other officer of the ſame, and inhabiting in the countrie, be preſented within one moneth after the publiſhing of this act, to the next iuſtice of peace adioining, in which caſes the ſaid maior, iuſtice, or other officer ſo taking their names as is aforeſaid, ſhall againe preſent and record the ſame before a iuſtice of the peace, at the next quarter ſeſſion; to the intent the clerke of the peace of the countie, maie kéepe a certeine booke or roll of the names of all ſuch perſons, by the which the kings maieſtie maie from time to time be aſcerteined how manie meet and able men exerciſed in that feat be in euerie countie, that the ſame maie be imploied in his graces ſeruice, as néed and occaſion ſhall require, vpon paine that euerie perſon offending in this act, in preſuming to ſhoot in anie handgun or halfe haque, without the preſenting of his name, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euerie ſhot, the ſumme of twentie ſhillings, the one moitie whereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, action, plaint, information, or otherwiſe. The officer that ſhould take their names and preſent the ſame, as is aboueſaid, to incur for the lacke of his dutie in this part, for euerie time ſo offending like paine.

An act touching vittellers and handicrafts men.

Chap.15.

FOraſmuch as of late daies diuers ſellers of vittels, not contented with moderat and reaſonable gaine, but minding to haue, and to take for their vittels ſo much as luſt them, haue conſpired and couenanted togither, to ſell their vittels at vnreaſonable prices: and likewiſe artificers, handicrafts men and labourers, haue made confederacies and promiſes, and haue ſworne mutuall othes, not onelie that they ſhould not meddle one with others worke, and performe and finiſh that another hath begun, but alſo to conſtitute and appoint how much worke they ſhall doo in a daie, and what houres and times they ſhall worke, contrarie to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, and to the great hurt and impoueriſhment of the kings maieſties ſubiects: For reformation thereof it is ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie butchers, brewers, bakers, poulters, cookes, coſtermongers, or fruterers, ſhall at anie time from and after the firſt daie of March next comming, conſpire, couenant, promiſe, or make anie othes, that they ſhall not ſell their vittels but at certeine prices; or if anie artificers, workemen, or labourers doo conſpire, couenant or promiſe togither, or make anie othes, that they ſhall not make or doo their works, but at a certeine price and rate, or ſhall not enterpriſe or take vpon them to finiſh that another hath begun, or ſhall doo but a certeine worke in a daie, or ſhall not worke but at certeine howers and times, that then euerie perſon ſo conſpiring, couenanting, ſwearing or offending, being lawfullie conuict thereof by witneſſe, confeſſion or otherwiſe, ſhall forfeit for the firſt offenſe ten pounds to the kings highneſſe, and if he haue ſufficient to paie the ſame, and doo alſo paie the ſame within ſix daies next after his conuiction, or elſe ſhall ſuffer for the ſame offenſe, twentie daies impriſonment, and ſhall onelie haue bread and water for his ſuſtenance: and for the ſecond offenſe ſhall forfeit twentie pounds to the king, if he haue ſufficient to paie the ſame, and doo paie the ſame within ſix daies next after his conuiction, or elſe ſhall ſuffer for the ſecond offenſe, puniſhment of the pillorie; and for the third offenſe ſhall forfeit fortie pounds to the king, if he haue ſufficient to paie the ſame, and alſo doo paie the ſame within ſix daies next after his conuiction, or elſe ſhall ſit on the pillorie and loſe one of his eares, and alſo ſhall at all times after that, be taken as a man infamous, and his ſaiengs, depoſitions or oth not to be credited at anie time in anie matters of iudgement. And if it fortune anie ſuch conſpiracie, couenant or promiſe to be had and made by anie ſocietie, brotherhood, or companie of anie craft, myſterie, or occupation, of the vittellers aboue mentioned, with the preſence or conſent of the more part of them, that then immediatlie vpon ſuch act of conſpiracie, couenant, or promiſe had or made, ouer and beſides the particular puniſhment before in this act appointed for the offender, their corporation ſhall be diſſolued to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of peace, maiors, bailiffs, and ſtewards of léets, at all and euerie their ſeſſions, léets and courts, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire, heare and determine, all and ſingular offenſes committed againſt this ſtatute, and to puniſh or cauſe to be puniſhed the offendor, according to the tenor of this ſtatute.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall at anie time after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, interrupt, denie, let or diſturbe anie frée maſon, rough maſon, carpenter, bricklaier, plaiſterer, ioiner, herdhewer, ſawier, tiler, pauier, glaſier, limalime burner, brickmaker, tilemaker, plummer, or laborer, borne in this realme or made denizen, to worke in anie of the ſaid crafts in anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, with anie perſon or perſons that will reteine him or them, albeit the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo reteined, or any of them doo not inhabit or dwell in the citie, borough or towne corporat, where he or they ſhall worke, nor be free of the ſame citie, borough or towne, anie ſtatute, law, ordinance, or other thing whatſoeuer had or made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding, and that vpon paine of forfeiture of fiue pounds for euerie interruption or diſturbance doone contrarie to this ſtatute, the one moitie of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the king, and the other moitie thereof to be to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

An act for the remoouing of ſuch as haue the cuſtodie of caſtles and fortreſſes vpon the borders, and beyond the ſeas.

Chap.16. WHere before this time, as well the right high and mightie prince of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, father to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, as alſo our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, by their ſeuerall letters patents haue giuen & granted to diuers ſeuerall perſons, the cuſtodie and keeping of diuers and ſundrie caſtles, fortreſſes, bulworks, holds and offices of defenſe, as well in the confines and vttermoſt borders of the north parts of this realme of England againſt the Scots the kings rebels, as alſo in the confines and vttermoſt borders of other places within this realme and other the kings dominions for defenſe of this realme againſt forren princes and potentats, with diuers fées, wages, profits, and aduantages in the ſaid ſeuerall letters patents mentioned. And for ſo much as diuers of the ſaid perſons hauing ſome of the ſaid offices béene thought méet and apt perſons to ſerue the kings highneſſe in other places of ſeruice; be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that it ſhall be lawfull to the king our ſoueraigne lord at his will and pleaſure at all time and times héereafter, to remoue as well all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, that now haue the cuſtodie or kéeping for terme of life, of anie caſtle, fortreſſe, bulworke, hold, or office of defenſe, that at anie time héeretofore hath béene erected or made in the confines and vttermoſt borders in the north parts of this realme, as alſo all and ſingular thoſe perſons that now haue the cuſtodie or kéeping for terme of life of any caſtle, fortreſſe, bulworks, hold, or office of defenſe, that within twentie yéeres laſt paſt hath béene erected or made néere the ſea coaſts, or in anie of the kings dominions in the parts of beyond the ſea, at the kings appointment or aſſignment, giuing to euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo to be remooued to ſerue the king in other place or places of ſeruice ſuch like, or as good fées, wages, profits and aduantages, and of ſuch like intereſt or eſtate, and of as good aſſurance in the ſame, as the perſon or perſons ſo to be remooued now hath or haue for exerciſing of his or their office or offices, wherefore he or they ſhall be ſo remooued as is aforeſaid.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that when and as ſoone as anie perſon or perſons ſo to be remooued, ſhall be aſſured of as good fées, wages, profits and aduantages, and of ſuch like intereſt or eſtate, as he or they had for the cuſtodie or kéeping of anie of the ſaid caſtles, fortreſſes, bulworks, holds, or offices of defenſe, from which he ſhall be remooued, that then and ſo ſoone and from thenſefoorth, the grant and letters patents made to him or them, ſo to be remooued for the cuſtodie and kéeping of anie of the ſaid caſtles, fortreſſes, bulworks, holds, or offices of defenſe, whereof he or they ſhall haue ſuch recompenſe, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

An act for the confirmation of the atteindor of ſir William Sharington knight.

Chap.17. FOraſmuch as ſir William Sharington late of London knight, the fourteenth daie of Februarie, in the third yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord Edward the ſixt, by the grace of God of England, France and Ireland king, defendor of the faith, and of the church of England and alſo of Ireland, in earth the ſupreme head, was lawfullie indicted before the maior of the citie of London, and other the kings commiſſioners of Oier & Terminer, in the Guild hall in London, for that the ſame ſir William the tenth daie of Julie, in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord king Edward the ſixt, and diuers daies and times before and after, at the citie of Briſtoll, in the countie of the citie of Briſtoll, imagining falſlie to deceiue our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king and his people, falſlie and traitorouſlie did make, forge, and counterfeit two thouſand pounds of coine of ſiluer, to the ſimilitude of a certeine coine of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, commonlie called teſtons, of his owne authoritie, without any warrant of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and againſt the kings prohibitions to the contrarie thereof to him made and giuen, and againſt the peace of our ſoueraigne lord the king, his crowne and dignitie, vpon which indictment the ſame ſir William was then and there arreigned before the ſaid commiſſioners, and then and there before the ſaid commiſſioners, vpon his ſaid arreignment, confeſſed the ſaid treaſon, and all things conteined in the ſaid indictment to be true, where vpon iudgement was giuen againſt the ſame ſir William Sharington accordinglie, as in ſuch caſes of treaſon apperteineth: ſo that the ſame ſir William is, and now ſtandeth atteinted of treaſon, as by the record thereof more at large it appéereth.

And alſo the ſame ſir William falſlie and traitorouſlie in the moneths of Maie, Iune, Iulie, in the ſaid firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, of his owne authoritie, without anie warrant or authoritie from our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and againſt his highneſſe prohibitions to him had and made, did make, forge, and counterfeit ouer and beſides the ſaid ſum of 2000 pounds mentioned in the ſaid record, a certeine coine like to the ſaid kings coine, called teſtons, amounting in the whole to the ſumme of 10000 pounds, or thereabout. And likewiſe the ſame ſir William moſt falſlie and vntrulie hath deceiued and defrauded the kings maieſtie in the clippings and ſhearings of the kings coine, making thereby the ſame too light, ouer and beſides his remedie, and conuerted the ſame to his owne vſe, profit and commoditie, to the hurt, loſſe and damage of the kings maieſtie, aboue the ſumme of 4000 pounds at the leſt. And the ſaid ſir William Sharington, at ſuch times when the monethlie bookes and doings concerning the making of the kings coine were brought vnto him, he vſed alwaies to ſtrike out as much as he thought good. And to the intent he might the better ſo doo, he falſified the indentures and writings, making from time to time at his pleaſure new bookes, and burned the old bookes, which might iuſtlie haue charged him. Wherein albeit he is not able to expreſſe to what ſummes he deceiued the kings maieſtie, yet by his owne declaration and confeſſion, it amounteth to a notable ſumme, and to ſuch a ſumme as he confeſſeth, that all that he hath is not able to recompenſe the king. For confirmation therefore of the ſame atteindor, and for the more ſpeedie ſuretie of the kings maieſtie, touching the forfeiture and actuall and reall poſſeſſion of all ſuch caſtles, manors, lands, and tenements, and hereditaments, which the ſaid ſir William had the ſaid tenth daie of Iulie, in the ſaid firſt yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, as at anie time ſithens; and alſo for the forfeiture of all ſuch goods, chattels, and debts, as was the ſame ſir Williams the ſaid fourtéenth daie of Februarie: be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid ſir William Sharington for the traitorous forging and counterfeiting of the kings coines aforeſaid, ſhall be by the authoritie of this preſent parlement adiudged and déemed a traitor, and atteinted of treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines as in ſuch caſes of treaſon hath beene vſed. And that alſo the ſame ſir William Sharington ſhall forfeit to the king all ſuch caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, offices, fees, annuities, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer the ſame ſir William was ſeized or poſſeſſed of, in fee ſimple, fée taile, for terme of life or yéeres in his owne right the ſaid tenth daie of Iulie, in the ſaid firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord king Edward the ſixt, or at anie time ſithens, & all ſuch goods, chattels and debts as the ſaid ſir William had the fourtéenth daie of Februarie. And that all the ſaid caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, fees, annuities, and other hereditaments, ſhall be by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, adiudged, veſted and déemed in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the king our ſouereigne lord, from the ſaid fourtéenth daie of Februarie in the ſaid third yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, without anie office or inquiſition to be thereof had or found.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that ſir Anthonie Hungerford knight, and his heires, ſhall haue, hold, and inioy the manor of Leigh, with the appurtenances in the countie of Wilſhire, which the ſame ſir William at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſame ſir Anthonie Hungerford, as well for ſixtéene acres and a halfe of land, as for fiftie and fiue acres of waſt grounds and woods with the appurtenances in Eaſtham and Weſtham within the countie of Eſſex, aſſured by the ſame ſir Anthonie Hungerford to the kings highneſſe and his heires, as for diuers ſummes of monie paied by the ſaid ſir Anthonie, did receiue, haue and take by the kings letters patents, dated the ſixtéene daie of September, in the ſecond yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, to the intent to make an eſtate thereof in fee ſimple, to the ſaid ſir Anthonie & to his heires, the ſaid atteindor before the ſaid commiſſioners of Oier & Terminer, or this preſent act, or anie thing in them, or anie of them conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all & euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which at the ſaid tenth daie of Iulie, or at anie time ſithens, and before the third daie of Ianuarie, in the ſecond yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, hath had and obteined by lawfull grant, gift, feoffement, or other aſſurance, anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments with the appurtenances from or by the ſaid ſir William Sharington, or from, or by the ſaid ſir William and other, for anie ſummes of monie or otherwiſe, by, or for anie other good conſiderations, ſhall haue and inioy the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments with their appurtenances, according to ſuch eſtate, intereſt, or terme, as is or hath beene to anie of them made, by the ſaid ſir William, or by the ſaid ſir William and other, in ſuch like and the ſame maner, as if the ſaid atteindor before the ſaid commiſſioners, or this preſent act had neuer beene had or made: ſauing to all perſons and bodies politike and corporat, their heires and ſucceſſors, other than the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, eſtate, remainder, reuerſions, entrées, poſſeſſions, rents, ſeruices, rents charge, rents ſecke, fées, annuities, leaſes, claimes, commons, profits, conditions, and commodities, as they or anie of them haue or ought to haue in, or to anie part of the premiſſes, whereof the ſame ſir William before the ſaid third daie of Ianuarie in the ſaid ſecond yéere, made anie feoffement, gift, grant, or other aſſurance to anie perſon or perſons. And ſauing to the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, ſuch ſeigniories, rents, tenths, ſeruices, and commons, to be taken, had, or perceiued out of the premiſſes, whereof the ſaid ſir William Sharington made anie ſuch feoffement, gift, grant, or other aſſurance, as is aforeſaid, as his highneſſe before the ſaid fourteenth daie of Februarie, had, or ought to haue had in anie of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, in the ſame and like maner, forme, eſtate and condition, to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſaid atteindor, or this preſent act had neuer beene had or made, anie thing to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Sauing alſo to all and euerie perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporat, and to euerie of them and to their heires, aſſignes and ſucceſſors, and to euerie of them (other than to the ſaid ſir William Sharington and his heires) all ſuch rites, titles, vſes, intereſts, ſtates, poſſeſſions, reuerſions, remainders, entrees, conditions, fees, offices, rents ſeruices, rents ſecke, rents charges, annuities, commons, and all other commodities, profits, and hereditaments whatſoeuer, as they or anie of them had or ought to haue had the ſaid third daie of Januarie, anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, ne anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall to dame Grace Sharington, now wife to the ſaid ſir William Sharington, to take awaie from the ſaid dame Grace Sharington, anie right or title of ioynter, or dower, of, in, or to anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which before anie atteindor of the ſaid ſir William Sharington, were the ſaid ſir Williams, of eſtate of inheritance, but that the ſaid dame Grace Sharington ſhall and maie at hir election, haue, inioy, and demand all ſuch ioynter or dower of, in, or to anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof the ſaid ſir William at anie time before he was atteinted by the common law, was ſeized of anie eſtate of inheritance.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to enable the ſaid dame Grace Sharington, to demand anie dower, of, in, or to anie manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, which the ſaid ſir William had or obteined, vpon anie truſt or confidence, whereof he had before the ſaid fourteenth daie of Februarie made anie eſtate, or to the intent the ſame ſir William ſhould thereof make anie eſtate or other aſſurance ouer to anie other perſon or perſons.

An act for the atteindor of ſir Thomas Seimor knight, lord Seimor of Sudleie, high admerall of England.

Chap.18. IN their moſt humble wiſe beſeechen your moſt excellent maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled; that where ſir Thomas Seimor knight, lord Seimor of Sudleie, high admerall of England, not hauing God before his eies, nor regarding the dutie which by nature, benefits, and allegiance he owght to your highneſſe, nor being content with his honorable ſtate and condition, whereunto your maieſtie hath called and indued him with, but repleniſhed and filled with the moſt dangerous, inſatiable, and fearefull vice of ambition and greedineſſe of rule, authoritie, and dominion, did in the firſt yeere of your moſt noble and victorious reigne, determine and reſolue with himſelfe to take into his hands your moſt noble perſon, and the ſame either by violence, ſtealth, or other vndue meane to haue in his poſſeſſion, with the order, rule, and gouernement of your maieſties realmes, dominions, and affaires, which were before that time, as well by your roiall aſſent, as by the conſent and liberat aduiſe of all your nobles and counſell, whereof he the ſaid lord admerall was one, otherwiſe ordered, decreed, and determined, by the meanes whereof, and by the moſt prudent foreſight & direction of your graces deereſt vncle the duke of Summerſet, gouernor of your maieſties moſt roiall perſon, and protector of your highneſſe realmes, dominions and ſubiects, being the ſaid admerall diſappointed of his malicious enterpriſe. The ſame admerall continuing neuertheleſſe his great ambition, and moſt deteſtable, malicious and traitorous purpoſe, thinking by tumult and violence, openlie to atchiue that thing which by ſleight he could not ſecretlie compaſſe, trauelled with your maieſtie, being yet for your tender yeeres not able to conceiue his falſehood, by craftie and ſubtill and traitorous meanes and perſuaſions, hauing alſo prepared about your grace by corruption, ſundrie perſons to be inſtruments to helpe forwards all his naughtie traitorous purpoſes, to haue cauſed your grace at his contemplation, to haue written a bill or letter of your maieſties owne hand, to your high court of parlement, deſiring the ſame thereby to be good vnto the ſaid lord Seimor, in ſuch ſutes and matters as he ſhould open and declare vnto them; which bill or letter the ſaid lord admerall thought and determined not onelie in his owne perſon to haue brought into the nether houſe of your ſaid court of parlement, but alſo to haue likewiſe opened the ſame in the higher houſe, hauing in both the ſame houſes laboured, ſtirred, and moued a number of perſons to take part and ioine with him in ſuch things as he would ſet forth and enterpriſe, whereby he thought to breed ſuch a tumult, vprore, and ſedition, as well in the ſaid court, as in the whole realme, as by the troubling of the whole ſtate and bodie of this your realme, he might the more facilie and eaſilie bring to paſſe his moſt fearefull, diueliſh and naughtie purpoſe: for the more ſure and certeine compaſſing whereof, like as he feared not to ſaie to certeine noble men and others, that he would make the blackeſt parlement that euer was ſeene heere in England, ſo moſt traitorouſlie for the further accompliſhment of his lewd enterpriſe, he reteined a great number of men, and prepared a great furniture of weapons and habiliments of warre, readie for the execution of his ſaid traitorous attempts.

And to colour and cloke his ſaid miſchéefous purpoſes, did by all ſuch waies and meanes as he could poſſiblie deuiſe and imagine, practiſe as it were for his entrie towards the ſame, to ſéeke and atteine the gouernement of your moſt noble perſon, & therby to haue gotten into his hands the order of your realmes and dominions, whereunto he aſpired in ſuch ſort, as he did euen then trauell expreſlie with the moſt part of your highneſſe moſt honorable counſell, to helpe him to the ſaid gouernement, dooing likewiſe all that he could in the parlement by himſelfe, his ſeruants and miniſters, not onelie to hinder and let all things there proponed, which touched the honor, ſuretie, and benefit of your maieſtie and the realme; but alſo ſpreading abrode ſundrie ſlanders touching your maieſties perſon, your déereſt vncle the ſaid lord protector, and the whole ſtate of your counſell, ouer vile, dangerous, and vnméet to be héere recited: which things being by the goodneſſe of God reuealed, as your ſaid vncle the lord protector could not chooſe, but heartilie lament the ſaid lord admerals euill, malicious, and corrupt diſpoſition, chéeflie in reſpect of the apparant and irrecuperable danger, which was like by the ſame preſentlie to haue inſued to your maieſtie, and to your realmes and dominions, and ſecondlie for that he was by proximitie of bloud ſo néerelie ioined vnto him. So hoping, that by good aduertiſements and counſels, he might yet recouer and ſaue him, and by the grace of God cauſe him to caſt awaie his naughtie, vile, and ambitious diſpoſition, and to haue had a better conſideration héereafter to his dutie, both to God and vnto your maieſtie, whereunto he was moſt bounden; the ſaid lord protector labored with the whole counſell and otherwiſe, to reconcile and reforme him, which preſentlie muſt elſe haue periſhed in his follie and outrage. And albeit the ſaid lord protector had then perfect knowledge of all the attempts, and miſbehauiors of the ſaid admerall before rehearſed; and that the ſaid admerall had then ſaid that he would not come at the ſaid lord protector and counſell, although they ſent for him, and that he would not be committed to anie ward for his doings by the beſt of them, whereby it appeared that he thought his partie ſtrong enough to reſiſt your maieſties power, and ordinarie authoritie: yet the ſaid lord protector, not ceaſſing with all clemencie to follow his godlie and charitable purpoſe, did not onelie vſe all the good meanes he could deuiſe by the perſuaſions of certeine of your graces counſell and otherwiſe, to frame him to the amendement of his euils, and ſo to bring him to the better remembrance of his dutie; but alſo conſidering that if the matter ſhould haue growne to extremitie, being ſo néere, and ſo much bound to your maieſtie, being new come to your kingdome, your ſubiects not altogither left in the beſt concord for matters of religion, great ſlander, tumult, and danger might haue inſued thereby aſwell héere at home in your realme, as from ſome outward parts, with whom you were in the war, and in ſome ſecret enimitie readie to enter the wars, thought it with the aduiſe of your whole counſell, moſt méet and ſureſt for your maieſtie to paſſe his euill doings ouer in ſilence, and in ſomewhat the more in reſpect of the better ſtaie, for the time of your preſent eſtate, to bridle him with your liberalitie, and therefore to giue vnto him lands to the yéerelie value of eight hundred pounds, truſting thereby, and by ſuch other good meanes as were vſed towards him, to incourage and mooue him to leaue for euer that ambition and ſeditious mind, and to liue in ſuch order as might haue pleaſed God, and ſerued your maieſtie, and your publike weale. But all this notwithſtanding, the diuell, who had before planted that vile and euill wéed ſo déeplie in his heart, that the root of the ſame could not be cléerelie pulled out, but cauſed his ambition eftſoones to ſpring, and ſhew it ſelfe more ranklie than it had doone before. For it plainelie appeareth, that he tarried not long in his diſſembled good mood and promiſe, but began afreſh to imagine, compaſſe, and deuiſe for the ſatiſfieng of his traitorous deſire, to make a partie, faction, and confederation, whereof he would be the head, and did not onelie get as manie rules and offices into his hands of all mens, as he could poſſiblie atteine, and reteined manie gentlemen and yeomen into his ſeruice, making a full account and reckoning, which he declared ſecretlie to ſome of his familiars, that he was thereby able of his owne ruled tenants and ſeruants to make ten thouſand men, for the obteining of his ſaid purpoſe, for whoſe wages he had alſo deuiſed after ten thouſand pounds by the moneth, out of your maieſties mint at Briſtoll, which he had obteined with all your treaſure in the ſame, by the meanes and conſent of ſir William Sharington knight, vicetreaſuror there, to be at his commandement, which ſir William now ſtandeth atteinted of treaſon; and alſo had put your graces caſtell of the Holt, whereof he had the kéeping, euen now of late in a readineſſe, and there cauſed to be prepared a great furniture of wheat, malt, béefs, and a great maſſe of monie, for the féeding and interteinement of a number of men, which monie he cauſed to be leuied and taxed halfe the yeare before the ſame was due, bruting alſo for the better atchiuing of his purpoſe, and to amaze therewith the more the people, that your maieſtie (whom God long preſerue to vs) ſhould be dead; but alſo he labored ſundrie of your nobles, and other your graces ſubiects, to ioine with him, deuiſing with diuerſe of them, how, and by what policie, waies, and meanes they ſhould make themſelues ſtrong in their countries for that purpoſe, and how they ſhould win vnto them the head yeomen, and ringleaders of the common people, declaring how he meant to haue matched and ſet one noble man againſt ſuch another noble man, as he thought he could neuer compaſſe and win to aſſent to his faction and falſe conſpiracie, promiſing to diuerſe of them ſundrie benefits: yea taking ſo much vpon him, for the accompliſhment of his ſaid traitorous intent and purpoſe, as he ſpared not to promiſe your moſt excellent perſon in marriage to a noble mans daughter of this your realme. And yet not contented héerewith, for the further aduancement of his moſt naughtie and traitorous purpoſe, did traitorouſlie & vnnaturallie practiſe euen with your highnes owne perſon, to make your moſt excellent maieſtie (for your tender yéeres vnable to vnderſtand his falſe and traitorous purpoſes) an inſtrument towards the vndoing and deſtruction of your highneſſe, and the ſubuerſion of the whole ſtate of this your graces realme, perſuading your maieſtie as much as in him did lie, not onelie to take vpon you now in your yoong and tender age, the rule and order of your ſelfe, intending and meaning by the colour thereof, to take in his hands your moſt roiall perſon, the rules and orders of all the affairs of your realmes and dominions, being alreadie by the ſaid lord protector, with the aduiſe of your graces moſt honorable counſell, aſwell prudentlie and politikelie gouerned, as valiantlie and noblie defended againſt outward enimies, to the increaſe of your immortall fame and honor; but alſo to receiue and ingender an hatred in your moſt noble heart, both againſt your déereſt vncle the ſaid lord protector, and all your true and faithfull counſellors: to the which his diuelliſh perſuaſions and aſſaults, God gaue your highneſſe, euen at this age, to the great reioiſe of all vs your faithfull ſubiects & ſeruants, a ſpeciall grace to reſiſt, aboue common reaſon, and all expectation, and moſt gratiouſlie without anie aduiſe or counſell to refuſe and denie his euill aduertiſements and perſuaſions. And further the ſaid admerall did moſt falſlie and traitorouſlie corrupt ſundrie of your highneſſe priuie chamber with manie gifts and otherwiſe, to the intent they ſhould moue and procure your maieſtie to write ſundrie letters at his or their deuiſes, & to put into your graces head, a ſpeciall and a ſingular fauor, affection, and truſt towards him, and a diſpoſition to follow whatſoeuer he would haue wrought towards all others, that he might the rather haue compaſſed his moſt traitorous purpoſe, which muſt néeds haue tended to your maieſties deſtruction (which God forbid) and to the vtter ruine of all vs, your highneſſe moſt louing, faithfull, and obedient ſubiects. For moſt gratious ſouereigne lord, beſides all this it is moſt euident and apparant, that as immediatlie after the king your fathers death, of moſt noble memorie, he bare a ſpeciall loue and fauor to your graces ſiſter the ladie Eliſabeth, ſecond perſon in the remainder of the ſtate of ſucceſſion to the crowne of this realme after your maieſtie, and the heirs of your bodie, whom the liuing God long preſerue vnto vs, with the increaſe of much fruite, and would then of his great preſumption and traitorous determination haue married hir, if he could by anie meane haue brought to paſſe the ſame, but that he was ſtaied by the ſaid lord protector, and other of your graces counſell; ſo he did not onelie continue in his ſaid determination towards hir, in the quéene his late wiues time, but alſo by diuerſe ſecret and craftie meanes and practiſes, continuallie ſought by atchiuing of the ſame ſithens the queenes death, as by ſundrie waies is confeſſed, and appeareth. Inſomuch as the ſame being perceiued by your ſaid deereſt vncle, and ſome other beſides of your counſell, and other perſonages of reputation, and the ſaid admerall by them earneſtlie aduiſed to beware of it, and to forbeare his pretenſed purpoſe, ſpeciallie for that it could not be but dangerous to your graces perſon, he hath not béene affraid to defend his naughtie doings and purpoſe in it, and to aske whie he ſhould not continue his ſute towards the ſaid ladie Eliſabeth? with ſundrie other words, declaring his full intent and determinations to it, and neglecting all good aduiſes, reaſons, and admonitions made, giuen or alleged, contrarie to his purpoſe, he hath ſecretlie and earneſtlie followed it, in ſuch ſort, as if ſundrie other his miſcheefous deuiſes and practiſes had not appeared, and come to knowledge: it is euident that he would haue doone what he could, ſecretlie to haue married hir, as he did the late quéene, whom it maie appeare he married firſt, and after ſued to your maieſtie, and the lord protector, and your counſell, for his preferment to it, whom neuertheleſſe it hath béene crediblie declared, he holpe to hir end, to haſt forwards his other purpoſe. But what this marriage of your ſaid ſiſter, with his prepared forces and confederacies ſhould meane, and what the getting of the rule and order of your maieſties mint at Briſtoll into his hands, with ten thouſand men, which beſides all his freends, and diuerſe reteiners, he accounted himſelfe furniſhed of, and able to make all times within his owne rules, and of his owne ſeruants and tenants, ſhould tend vnto, for the wages and interteinments of whom, he had prepared, as is aforeſaid, conſidering that the ſaid admerall at all times when occaſion of the ſeruice of your maieſtie was neceſſarie or requiſit, went alwaies backe, and refuſed to take it vpon him, whether it were by ſea or land, as your graces counſell both know, and diuerſe times haue lamented, and in that caſe trauelled with him (in vaine) to bring him vnto it, whereby no good mind or will of him towards your maieſties ſafetie or aſſurance can appeare. And vpon all theſe ſiniſter waies and meanes, what his corrupt and ſubtill attempts of getting your moſt noble perſon into his hands, by colour whereof he might haue wrought what he would, and whatſoeuer his ambitious intent could haue deuiſed with his preparations of vittels and monie, and other his ſaid doings at your ſaid graces caſtle of the Holt, and in the parties thereabouts, would haue wrought in the end, ſpeciallie in this tender age of your highneſſe, and whileſt your maieſtie is in the gouernement of a protector, it is fearefull to conſider and thinke vpon, and cannot otherwiſe be taken, but to be indéed more than a manifeſt declaration of a traitorous aſpiring to your crowne of this realme, and to be king of the ſame, and an open deed and act, and a falſe and traitorous compaſſe and imagination to depoſe and depriue your maieſtie from your roiall eſtate and title of your realmes, and to compaſſe and imagine the death of your moſt noble perſon, and moſt traitorouſlie to take awaie and deſtroie all things, which ſhould haue ſounded to the let and impediment of his moſt traitorous and ambitious enterpriſe.

And further gratious ſouereigne lord, to declare the traitorous diſpoſition of his nature, and how little he cared to offend your graces law, and how he did yet leſſe regard his truth and dutie towards your grace, where William Sharington knight, late of London, the tenth daie of Iulie, in the firſt yéere of your graces reigne, hath in the countie and citie of Briſtoll, falſlie and traitorouſlie forged and counterfeited certeine of your graces coine, and further embezeled and purloined from your maieſtie vntrulie and falſlie at the leaſt, the ſumme of fortie thouſand pounds, for part whereof the ſame ſir William Sharington vpon his owne confeſſion is atteinted of treaſon according vnto your graces lawes, to which ſaid traitorous acts, the ſaid lord admerall did not onlie abbet and procure the ſame ſir William Sharington, labouring him he ſhould get as much monie from time to time into his hands for his purpoſe as he could, ſo that he might euer haue a good maſſe in a readineſſe, but alſo ſith the time of the ſaid treaſons and traitorous acts, ſo doone by the ſaid ſir William Sharington, the ſaid lord admerall hauing perfect knowledge therof, as well by the declaration of the moſt part of your highneſſe counſell, as by ſome of his owne counſell learned, hath traitorouſlie comforted, aided, aſſiſted, & mainteined the ſaid ſir William Sharington in his ſaid traitorous act and faults againſt your graces lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, taking the patent, indentures, books and reckonings of the ſame ſir William Sharington, of his owne authoritie into his cuſtodie, and affirming both to ſundrie of your graces counſell, and to diuers of your ſubiects, that the ſaid Sharington had wrong to be committed, deuiſing all the waies he could poſſiblie, contrarie to his dutie and allegiance, traitorouſlie to beare him in his euill and traitorous dooings, and to deliuer him, if he by anie meanes might haue commen by him.

And for a further proofe to induce that the ſaid admerall did mainteine and comfort the ſame Sharington, where the ſaid admerall owght to the ſaid Sharington 2800 pounds, the ſaid Sharington vpon a miſtruſt which he had before his apprehenſion, that he ſhould for his fault and procéedings come one daie to his triall and examination, communicating the ſame with the ſaid lord admerall, the ſaid admerall agréed and promiſed not onlie to aid and mainteine, and beare him to the vttermoſt of his power, as in déed he did, both as is aforeſaid, and in conſulting with learned men for him, and otherwiſe, but alſo for his more aſſured aid, being indebted to the ſaid Sharington the ſumme of 2800 pounds, vntrulie conſpired with the ſaid Sharington vpon a bill, whereby it appéered that the ſaid Sharington ſhould owe vnto him the ſumme of two thouſand pounds with intereſts, ſo as the ſaid admerall might helpe and reléeue him with that two thouſand pounds, with the intereſt at your maieſties hand as a debt vnto himſelfe; and alſo with 2800 pounds which the ſaid admerall owght in déed to the ſaid Sharington, amounting in the whole to fiue thouſand and ſix hundred pounds, which bill moſt vntrulie and to the maintenance and fauor of the ſaid Sharington, the ſaid lord admerall affirmed before the ſaid lord protector and your highneſſe counſell, to be a true bill, and the ſame 2800 pounds with the intereſt to be his iuſt debt, and ſo was taken, vntill the ſaid Sharington himſelfe confeſſed and affirmed the truth, whereby the couin and falſhood plainlie appéered to the contrarie.

Finallie moſt gratious ſouereigne lord, it were too much and ouer tedious to moleſt and trouble your excellent maieſtie, either with the remembrance of his euill dooings in his office of the admeraltie, wherein he hath ſo manifeſtlie receited, mainteined, aided and comforted ſundrie pirats, and taken to his owne vſe the goods piratouſlie taken againſt your lawes, and expreſlie againſt the orders determined by the lord protector and the whole counſell, wherevnto his owne hand hath béene for the reſtitution of them, whereby he hath mooued almoſt all princes chriſtian to conceiue a grudge and diſpleaſure, and by open wars to ſéeke remedies at their owne hands, to the great trouble and danger of your maieſtie, your realmes and dominions, and to the great charge, loſſe and diſquiet of your moſt louing and faithfull ſubiects, and to the perill of breaking of the leagues and treaties of amitie betwixt your maieſtie and other forren princes, as their ambaſſadors héere haue plainlie declared, and as preſent experience teacheth; or to expreſſe his vnnumerable vntruths, falſhoods, and deceitfull practiſes, diſcouering and opening of your maieſties counſels, refuſall to ſerue your highneſſe as he hath béene commanded, oppreſſion and manifeſt extortion of your maieſties ſubiects, vſing Iſland and other voiages by the ſea; and his determination of reuenge towards all men, with whome he was offended, which his owne letters and other teſtimonies doo declare againſt him, with a full reſolution, to haue put the whole of his intent ſhortlie in experience and execution (if God had not preuented it) to the deſtruction of your moſt roiall perſon, and the ſubuerſion and alteration of the whole ſtate of your realmes and dominions. Wherefore conſidering as well that he is a member ſo vnnaturall, vnkind and corrupt, and ſuch a hainous offendor of your maieſtie and your lawes, as he cannot nor maie conuenientlie be ſuffered to remaine in the bodie of your graces commonwealth, but to the extreme danger of your highneſſe, being the head, and of all the good members of the ſame, and is too pernicious and dangerous an example, that ſuch a perſon ſo much bound and ſo forgetfull of it, ſo mercifullie héeretofore intreated, and by ſundrie and great benefits allured and called, and ſo cruellie and ingratelie continuing in his falſe and traitorous intents and purpoſes againſt your highneſſe, and the whole eſtate of your realme ſhould remaine amongſt vs.

It maie therefore pleaſe your excellent maieſtie, that it maie be enacted with your highneſſe aſſent, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid ſir Thomas Seimor knight, lord Seimor of Sudleie, high admerall of England, for the ſaid traitorous offenſes and déeds, ſhall be by the authoritie of this preſent parlement adiudged and atteinted of treaſon. And that the ſame ſir Thomas Seimor knight, lord Seimor of Sudleie, high admerall of England, ſhall haue, ſuffer, and ſuſteine ſuch paines of death, as in caſes of high treaſon haue béene vſed and accuſtomed. And alſo that the ſaid lord Seimor of Sudleie ſhall forfeit and loſe to your maieſtie, and your heires, all ſuch caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, leaſes, medows, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, offices, fées, annuities, and all other hereditaments, goods, cattels, and debts, whatſoeuer the ſame lord Seimor had, inioied, or was ſeized or poſſeſſed of at the ſeuentéenth daie of Januarie, in the ſecond yeere of your graces reigne, or at anie time ſince.

And that all ſuch caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, medows, leaſes, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, offices, fées, annuities, and other hereditaments, to be by authoritie of this preſent act adiudged, veſted, and deemed, in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of your highneſſe, from the ſaid ſeuentéenth daie of Januarie, without anie office or inquiſition to be thereof had or found, ſauing to all and euerie perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporat, and to their heires, aſſignes, and ſucceſſors, and to euerie of them, other than the ſaid lord Seimor of Sudleie and his heires, all ſuch rights, titles, intereſts, vſes, poſſeſſions, reuerſions, remainders, entrées, conditions, leaſes, fées, offices, rents ſeruices, rents charges, rents ſecke, annuities, commons, and all other commodities, profits, and hereditaments, whatſoeuer they or anie of them had, might, or ought to haue had, if this preſent act had neuer béene had nor made.

Furthermore, the kings maieſtie is pleaſed that it be enacted, that all perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, and their executors and adminiſtrators, ſhall be well and trulie contented and paied, vpon their humble ſute and petition héereafter to be made vnto his highneſſe of all ſuch debts, which either by eſpecialtie, or by anie other iuſt and true contract, the ſaid lord admerall did owe to them or anie of them at anie time before the ſaid ſeuentéenth daie of Januarie, in the ſaid ſecond yéere of his maieſties reigne.

An act for the abſtinence from fleſh.

Chap.19.

Albeit the kings ſubiects now hauing a more perfect and cléere light of the goſpell and true word of God, through the infinit mercie and clemencie of almightie God, by the hands of the kings maieſtie, and his moſt noble father of famous memorie, promulgat, ſhewed, declared and opened, and thereby perceiuing that one daie, or one kind of meat of it ſelfe, is not more holie, more pure, or more cleane than an other, for that all daies and meats be of their nature of one equall puritie, cleanneſſe and holineſſe, and that all men ſhould by them liue, to the glorie of God, and at all times, and for all meats giue thanks vnto him, of which meats none can defile chriſtian men, or make them vncleane at anie time, to whome all meats be lawfull and pure, ſo that they be not vſed in diſobedience and vice: yet foraſmuch as diuers of the kings ſubiects, turning their knowledge therein to ſatiſfie their ſenſualitie, where they ſhould thereby increaſe in vertue, haue of late time more than in times paſt, broken and contemned ſuch abſtinence, which haue beene vſed in this realme vpon the fridaies and ſaturdaies, the embring daies and other daies commonlie called vigils, and in the time commonlie called Lent, and other accuſtomed times: the kings maieſtie conſidering that due and godlie abſtinence is a meane to vertue, and to ſubdue mens bodies to their ſoule and ſpirit, and conſidering alſo ſpeciallie that fiſhers and men vſing the trade of liuing by fiſhing in the ſea, maie thereby the rather be ſet on worke, and that by eating of fiſh much fleſh ſhall be ſaued and increaſed, and alſo for diuers other conſiderations and commodities of this realme, doth ordeine and enact with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all maner of ſtatutes, lawes, conſtitutions, and vſages, concerning anie maner of faſting or abſtinence from anie kinds of meats héeretofore in this realme made or vſed, ſhall from the firſt daie of Maie next inſuing, loſe their force and ſtrength, and be void and of none effect. And alſo that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition he or they be, ſhall at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie in the yeere of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred fortie and nine, willinglie and wittinglie eat anie maner of fleſh, after what maner of kind or ſort it ſhall be ordered, dreſſed, or vſed, vpon anie fridaie or ſaturdaie, or the embring daies, or in anie daie in the time commonlie called Lent, nor at anie ſuch other daie, as is or ſhall be at anie time heereafter commonlie accepted and reputed as a fiſh daie within this realme of England, wherein it hath beene commonlie vſed for to eat fiſh and not fleſh, vpon paine that euerie perſon eating anie maner of fleſh vpon anie of the ſaid daies or times prohibited by this act, to forfeit for the ſaid firſt offenſe, ten ſhillings of lawfull monie of England, and alſo to ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of ten daies, and during the time of his or hir ſaid impriſonment, to abſteine from eating of anie maner of fleſh.

And if anie perſon after he ſhall be lawfullie conuict of anie offenſe contrarie to this act, do eftſoons offend contrarie to this act, and be thereof lawfullie conuict, that then euerie perſon ſo offending the ſecond time, ſhall for his ſecond offenſe forfeit twentie ſhillings of lawfull monie of England, and alſo ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of twentie daies, and during the time of his or hir ſaid impriſonment, to abſteine from eating of anie maner of fleſh, and ſo like paine and impriſonment as often as he or ſhe afterwards ſhall offend.

And furthermore it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, or iuſtices of peace, in all and ſingular counties, cities,townes corporat, and other places within this realme of England, and other the kings dominions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire,heare, and determine,all & all maner offenſes that ſhall be committed or doone contrarie to this act,in like maner and forme,as they may inquire,heare,and determine anie treſpaſſe,or other offenſe againſt the kings peace, committed or doone within the limits or place where they then ſhall be iuſtices of gaole deliuerie,or iuſtices of peace.And the moitie of euerie ſuch forfeiture ſhall be extreated into the court of the excheker, in like maner and forme, as fines for anie treſpaſſe or other offenſe committed againſt the kings peace ought or ſhould be extreated. And the other moitie of the ſaid forfeiture ſhall be to him that will ſue for the ſame,by bill,plaint,information,or otherwiſe, in anie of the kings courts of record, in which no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be allowed.

Prouided alwaies,and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie perſon or perſons, that heeretofore hath,or heereafter ſhall haue obteined anie licence of our ſouereigne lord the king,his heirs or ſucceſſors,nor to anie perſon being in great age,and in debilitie and weakeneſſe thereby, nor to anie perſon being ſicke, or notablie hurt, without fraud or couin, during the time of his or hir ſaid ſickneſſe, nor to anie woman being with child, or lieng in childbed, for eating of ſuch one kind of fleſh as ſhe ſhall haue great luſt vnto, nor to anie perſon being in priſon,for any other offenſe,than for anie offenſe contrarie to this act,neither to any that is or heereafter ſhall be the kings highnes lieutenant, deputie, or capteine of anie his maieſties armie, hold, or fortreſſe; but the ſame themſelues maie eat fleſh,and licence and permit their ſouldiors to doo the ſame in times prohibited, vpon the want & lacke of other kind of vittels. Neither ſhall extend to S. Laurence euen, S. Marks daie,or anie other daie or euen,being abrogat, neither to anie ſuch as heeretofore haue obteined anie licence,in due forme of the archbiſhop of Canturburie.

And further be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all archbiſhops, biſhops, archdeacons, and their officers,or the officers of anie of them,ſhall haue power to inquire of the offendors in the premiſſes, and preſent the ſame to ſuch from time to time, as by vertue of this act haue authoritie to heare and determine the ſame.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted that no maner of perſon or perſons be impeached, moleſted,or troubled,or ſhall incur anie paine, penaltie, or forfeiture, for anie offenſe, contrarie to the act before rehearſed,committed,or doone,except he or they be accuſed,conuented, or indicted of and for the ſaid offenſe, according to the tenor of this ſtatute, within thrée moneths next after the committing of the ſaid offenſe.

An act for the qualifieng of the ſtatute of recuſants.

Chap.20.

WHere in the parlement holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the third daie of Nouember,in the ſix and twentith yéere of the reigne of the moſt excellent prince king Henrie the eight,father to our ſouereigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is,among other things concerning the paiment of one annuall penſion of the tenth part of all poſſeſſions of the church ſpirituall and temporall granted to the kings highneſſe and his heirs; it was enacted,ordeined,and eſtabliſhed,that euerie eccleſiaſticall perſon and other, hauing anie eccleſiaſticall promotion or dignitie ſpecified in the ſaid act, which did not dulie paie the ſaid tenth part, and by reaſon thereof were certified by the archbiſhop, biſhop, or other authorized in the ſaid act,ſhould vpon ſuch certificat made,according to the tenor of the ſaid act,be iudged and depriued, Ipſo facto, of all ſuch dignities and promotions ſpirituall, that anie ſuch incumbent making ſuch default, had at the time of ſuch certificat made, or at anie time after, as by the ſaid act more plainelie maie appeare . Foraſmuch as the paine limited in the ſaid ſtatute, in ſuch forme and maner, as in the ſame is expreſſed, is verie ſore and dangerous vnto all the faithfull and obedient ſubiects of the clergie, whereof diuerſe ſithen the making of the ſaid eſtatute, intending none otherwiſe than moſt willinglie, and with good heart, that paiment ſhould be made of the ſaid tenths by them due, without fraud or delaie, to ſuch officers, and that at ſuch time, as by the ſaid ſtatutes is appointed and declared, by the default and negligence of their farmars, and other whom they haue truſted, to make paiment thereof, and by diuerſe other ſiniſter meanes being certified, or making default of paiment,haue incurred the paine and danger of the ſaid eſtatute, with the loſſe or depriuations of all the ſpirituall promotions, whereof they were then incumbents, being alſo made vnable to take anie other, to the vtter vndoing of ſuch perſons, and the like perill and danger of manie other the kings moſt humble and faithfull ſubiects of the clergie, againſt whom the like things maie be practiſed and attempted heereafter . For the moderation of which paine, and to the end that the kings maieſtie our ſouereigne lord that now is, and his heirs and ſucceſſors, maie be trulie anſwered and ſatiſfied of the ſaid yéerelie penſion or annuall rent for the tenth part, vnited and knit to his imperiall crowne, in maner and forme, as in the ſaid act is conteined.

The kings ſaid faithfull and moſt obedient ſubiects, the clergie of this realme, doo moſt humblie beſéech his maieſtie, that it maie be enacted and eſtabliſhed by his highneſſe, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame: that if anie ſumme of the ſaid annuall penſion, being once due and demanded according to the maner and forme ſpecified in the ſaid act, be not trulie contented and paied vnto ſuch archbiſhop, or biſhop, or their miniſters and officers, or to ſuch other perſon or perſons, or their miniſters or ſeruants, as ſhall haue the charge and collection thereof, euerie yeere yéerlie, at the time of the ſaid act expreſſed, and therupon certificat made, into the kings maieſties court of firſt frutes and tenths, in writing vnder the ſeales of anie archbiſhop or biſhop, or of ſuch as be limited and charged to the collection of the ſaid penſion, by the ſaid former act, then euerie incumbent ſo making default, and certified, ſhall be iudged depriued Ipſo facto, of that onlie dignitie, benefice, or other eccleſiaſticall promotion, by what name ſoeuer it be called, whereof ſuch certificat ſhall be made, ſo that ſuch dignitie, benefice, or other eccleſiaſticall promotion, whereof anie incumbent making ſuch default of paiment, ſhall be adiudged, depriued as is aforeſaid, ſhall be cléerelie void, deſtitute of incumbent, in the law, to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch incumbent, making ſuch default of paiment were dead indéed. And that no incumbent making ſuch default of paiment, ſhall be therefore made vnable to take or inioy any other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, or incur any penaltie, forfeiture, or loſſe, to be paid by them, their executors or aſſignes for the ſame default, other than in this preſent act is héeretofore expreſſed: anie thing in the ſaid former act, or anie other ſtatutes or acts conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that the ſaid former act, concerning the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie rent and penſion, amounting to the tenth part of euerie ſuch dignitie, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall, & euerie other act touching the ſame, and all articles, clauſes and ſentences in them, or any of them mentioned, expreſſed, or conteined, now being in his or their force and effect, other than ſuch as by this preſent act be alreadie qualified or moderated, ſhall ſtand and abide in all his or their full ſtrength, effect and vertue: anie thing in this preſent act conteined notwithſtanding.

An act to take awaie all poſitiue lawes, made againſt the marriage of preeſts.

Chap.22. ALthough it were not onelie better, for the eſtimation of preeſts and other miniſters in the church of God, to liue chaſt, ſole, and ſeparat from the companie of women and the bond of marriage, but alſo thereby they might the better intend to the adminiſtration of the goſpell, and be leſſe intricated and troubled with the charge of houſhold, being frée and vnburdened from the care and coſt of finding wife and children; and that it were moſt to be wiſhed, that they would willinglie and of their ſelues indeuor themſelfe to a perpetuall chaſtitie and abſtinence from the vſe of women: yet foraſmuch as the contrarie hath rather béene ſéene, and ſuch vncleanneſſe of liuing, and other great inconueniences, not méet to be rehearſed, haue followed of compelled chaſtitie, and of ſuch lawes as haue prohibited thoſe (ſuch perſons) the godlie vſe of marriage; it were better and rather to be ſuffered in the commonwealth, that thoſe which could not conteine, ſhould after the counſell of ſcripture, liue in holie marriage, than feinedlie abuſe with worſſe enormitie outward chaſtitie or ſingle life. Be it therefore enacted by our ſouereigne lord the king, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie law and lawes, poſitiue, canons, conſtitutions, and ordinances héeretofore made by the authoritie of man onelie, which doth prohibit or forbid marriage to anie eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition, or degrée they be, or by what name or names ſoeuer they be called, which by Gods law maie lawfullie marrie, in all and euerie article, branch, and ſentence concerning onelie the prohibition for the marriage of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect. And that all maner of forfeitures, paines, and penalties, crimes, or actions, which were in the ſaid lawes conteined, and of the ſame did follow, concerning the prohibition for the marriage of the perſons aforeſaid, be cleerelie and vtterlie void, fruſtrat, and of none effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, aſwell concerning marriage heeretofore made by anie of the eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall perſons aforeſaid, as alſo ſuch which héereafter ſhall be dulie and lawfullie had, celebrated, and made betwixt the perſons, which by the lawes of God maie lawfullie marrie.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to giue anie libertie to anie perſon, to marrie without aſking in the church, or without anie ceremonie, being appointed by the order preſcribed and ſet forth in the booke intituled: The booke of the common praier, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, &c: anie thing aboue mentioned to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to alter, change, reuoke, repeale, or otherwiſe to diſanull anie decrée, iudgement, ſentence, or diuorſe, héeretofore had, or made, but that all and euerie ſuch decrée, iudgement, ſentence, and diuorſe, ſhall remaine, and be of ſuch like force, effect, ſtrength, and degrée, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as they were in, before the making of this act, and as though this act had neuer béene had ne made: this act, or anie other thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the colouring of cuſtoms in other mens names.

Chap.23. WHere at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the noble king of famous memorie, Henrie the eight, it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that it ſhould be lawfull from thenſeforth, that euerie Engliſhman, and all other the kings ſubiects, might in euerie port or hauen within this realme of England, Ireland, and Wales, and the marches of the ſame, and in the towne of Barwike, where it ſhould happen anie merchandize to arriue, or to be charged and caried out, to cuſtome in his name all maner of goods and merchandize of an other Engliſhman, or the kings ſubiect. And in like forme euerie merchant ſtranger, to cuſtome in his name anie goods or merchandize of anie other merchant ſtranger, ſo that the ſaid merchant ſtranger that cuſtoms the goods of another merchant ſtranger, and the verie owner or proprietorie of the goods ſo cuſtomed, be charged with like cuſtome, ſubſidie, and other things, ſo that the kings grace were not defrauded of his right. And if anie merchant ſtranger, or denizen, or anie other the kings ſubiects cuſtome anie goods or merchandize of anie other ſtranger or denizen, or of anie other the kings ſubiect, whereby the kings grace ſhould loſe his cuſtome, ſubſidie, or other his right or dutie, that then the ſaid merchant ſtranger, or denizen, or anie other the kings ſubiect, that ſo taketh vpon him or them to doo, ſhould forfeit to the king the goods or merchandize ſo cuſtomed, and ouer that, to forfeit to the partie or parties in that behalfe greeued, as much monie as the goods or merchandize of the merchant ſtranger, denizen or other the kings ſubiect, ſo cautelouſly cuſtomed, amounted vnto. And that no citizen of London, or other the kings ſubiects inhabiting in the cinque ports, or anie other being free of priſage or butlarage of wines, by grant, cuſtome, or otherwiſe, ſhould cuſtoms no wines of anie perſon or perſons, not being free of anie priſage or butlarage. And if anie perſon free of the ſaid priſage or butlarage ſo did, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons that ſo did, ſhould forfeit to the king the double value of the priſage of the ſaid wines ſo cuſtomed. And further, that it ſhould be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons greeued, contrarie to the ſaid act, to haue an action of debt againſt anie perſon or perſons that ſo cuſtomed the goods or merchandize in his name, and not in the owners name, of the ſumme of the value of the ſaid merchandize ſo accuſtomed and forfeited. In the which action, none eſſoine nor protection ſhould lie, nor the defendant to wage his law, as by the ſaid former act more at large doth appeere. Sithens the making of which act, diuers perſons as well ſtrangers and denizens, as the kings ſubiects, forgetting their bounden duties to the kings highneſſe, and nothing fearing the penalties and forfeitures, mentioned in the ſaid former act, doo dailie deceiue the king as well in his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, by paiment of cuſtoms and ſubſidies, in the names of ſuch perſons, other than ſuch as be the verie owners or proprietories of the goods, wares, and merchandize, of the priſage and butlarage of wines due to the king. Wherefore be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie ſtranger borne, denizen or not denizen, or anie of the kings ſubiects, doo at anie time, from, or after the laſt daie of March next comming, anie thing or act contrarie to the true meaning, tenor, and purport of the ſame former act and ſtatute, that then he and they ſo offending, ſhall looſe and forfeit all his and their owne goods and cattels perſonals for euer. The moitie of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, in which bill, plaint, action, or information, no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch bill, plaint, action, or information ſhall be had and purſued within three yeeres next inſuing anie ſuch offenſe committed or doone, or elſe the offendor to be cleerelie free and diſcharged thereof: anie law or ſtatute to the contrarie had or made notwithſtanding.

An act for the repeale of a ſtatute touching precontracts.

Chap.23.

Whereas in the two and thirtie yeere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, bicauſe that manie inconueniences had chanced in this realme by breaking and diſſoluing of good and lawfull mariages, yea wherevpon alſo ſometime iſſue and children had followed, vnder the colour and pretenſe of a former contract made with another, the which contract diuers times was but verie ſlenderlie prooued, and often but ſurmized by the malice of the partie, who deſired to be diſſolued from the mariage which they liked not, and to be coupled with another: there was an act made, that all and euerie ſuch mariages, as within the church of England, ſhould be contracted and ſolemnized in the face of the church, and conſummat with bodilie knowledge, or frute of children or child being had betweene the parties ſo married, ſhould be by authoritie of the ſaid parlement deemed, iudged and taken to be lawfull, good, iuſt, and indiſſoluble, notwithſtanding anie precontract or precontracts of matrimonie not conſummat with bodilie knowledge, which either of the perſons ſo married, or both, had made with anie other perſon or perſons, before the time of contracting that mariage which is ſolemnized or conſummated, or whereof ſuch frute is inſued or maie inſue, as by the ſame act more plainlie maie appeere. Sith the time of the which act, although the ſame was godlie ment, the vnrulineſſe of men hath vngodlie abuſed the ſame, and diuers inconueniences (intollerable in maner to chriſtian eares and eies) followed therevpon, women and men breaking their owne promiſes and faiths made by the one vnto the other, ſo ſet vpon ſenſualitie and pleaſure, that if after the contract of matrimonie, they might haue whome they more fauoured and deſired, they could be contented by lightneſſe of their nature, to ouerturne all that they had doone afore, and not afraid in maner, euen from the verie church doore and mariage feaſt, the man to take an other ſpouſe, and the ſpouſe to take an other husband more for bodilie luſt and carnall knowledge, than for ſuretie of faith and truth, or hauing God in their good remembrance, contemning manie times alſo the commandement of the eccleſiaſticall iudge, forbidding the parties hauing made the contract, to attempt or doo anie thing in preiudice of the ſame: be it therefore enacted by the kings highneſſe, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that as concerning precontracts, the ſaid former ſtatute ſhall from the firſt daie of Maie next comming, ceaſe, be repealed, and of no force or effect, and be reduced to the eſtate and order of the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes of this realme, which immediatlie before the making of the ſaid eſtatute, in this caſe were vſed in this realme, ſo that from the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, when anie cauſe or contract of mariage is pretended to haue béene made, it ſhall be lawfull to the kings eccleſiaſticall iudge of that place, to heare and examine the ſaid cauſe (and hauing the ſaid contract ſufficientlie and lawfullie prooued before him) to giue ſentence for matrimonie, commanding ſolemnization, cohabitation, conſummation, and tractation, as it becommeth man and wife to haue, with inflicting all ſuch paines vpon the diſobedients and diſturbers thereof, as in times paſt before the ſaid ſtatute, the kings eccleſiaſticall iudge by the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes, ought and might haue doone, if the ſaid ſtatute had neuer béene made: anie clauſe, article, or ſentence in the ſaid ſtatute to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that this act doo not extend to diſanull, diſſolue, or breake anie mariage that hath or ſhall be ſo ſolemnizated and conſummated, before the ſaid firſt daie of Maie next inſuing, by title or color of anie precontract, but that they be, and be déemed of like force and effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if this act had neuer béene had ne made: anie thing in this preſent act notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that this act doo not extend to make good anie of the other cauſes, to the diſſolution or diſanulling of matrimonie, which be in the ſaid act ſpoken of and diſanulled: but that in all other caſes and other things there mentioned, the ſaid former act of the two and thirtie yéere of the late king of famous memorie, doo ſtand and remaine in his full ſtrength and power: anie thing in this act notwithſtanding.

An act for the triall of murders and felonies committed in ſeuerall counties.

Foraſmuch as the moſt neceſſarie office and dutie of law is, to preſerue and ſaue the life of man, and condignlie to puniſh ſuch perſons that vnlawfullie and wilfullie murder, ſlea, or deſtroie men, and alſo that an other office and dutie of law is, to puniſh robbers and théeues which dailie endeuor themſelues to rob and ſteale, or giue aſſiſtance to the ſame, and yet by craft and cautell doo eſcape from the ſame without puniſhment: and where it often hapneth and commeth in vre in ſundrie counties of this realme, that a man is feloniouſlie ſtriken in one countie, and after dieth in an other countie, in which caſe it hath not béene founden by the lawes or cuſtomes of this realme, that anie ſufficient indictment thereof can be taken in anie of the ſaid two counties, for that by the cuſtome of this realme the iurors of the countie where ſuch partie died of ſuch ſtroke, can take no knowledge of the ſaid ſtroke, being in a forren countie, although the ſame two counties and places adioine verie néere togither; ne the iurors of the countie where the ſtroke was giuen, cannot take knowledge of the death in an other countie, although ſuch death moſt apparantlie come of the ſame ſtroke: ſo that the kings maieſtie within his owne realme, cannot by anie lawes yet made or knowen, puniſh ſuch murderers or mankillers, for offenſes in this forme committed and doone, nor anie appeale at ſome time maie lie for the ſame, but dooth alſo faile, and the ſaid murderers and mankillers eſcape thereof without puniſhment, as well in caſes where the counties where ſuch offenſes be committed and doone, maie ioine, as otherwiſe where they maie not ioine. And alſo it is a common practiſe among errant théeues and robbers in this realme, that after they haue robbed or ſtollen in one countie, they will conueie their ſpoile, or part thereof ſo robbed and ſtollen, vnto ſome of their adherents, into ſome other countie where the principall offenſe was not committed or doone, who knowing of ſuch felonie, willinglie & by falſe couin receiueth the ſame; in which caſe although the principall felon be after atteinted in the one countie, the acceſſarie eſcapeth by reaſon that he was acceſſarie in an other countie, and that the iurors of the ſaid other countie by anie law yet made, can take no knowledge of the principall felonie, ne atteindor in the firſt countie, and ſo ſuch acceſſaries eſcape thereof vnpuniſhed, and doo often put in vre the ſame, knowing that they maie eſcape without puniſhment. For redreſſe and puniſhment of which offenſes, and ſafegard of mans life, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that where anie perſon or perſons héereafter ſhall be feloniouſlie ſtriken or poiſoned in one countie, and die of the ſame ſtroke or poiſoning in an other countie, that then an indictment thereof founden by iurors of the countie, where the death ſhall happen, whether it ſhall be founden by the crowner, vpon the ſight of ſuch dead bodie, or before the iuſtices of peace, or other iuſtices or commiſſioners, which ſhall haue authoritie to inquire of ſuch offenſes, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law, as if the ſtroke or poiſoning had béene committed and doone in the ſame countie, where the partie ſhall die, or where ſuch indictment ſhall be ſo founden: anie law or vſage to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that the iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, and Oier & terminer in the ſame countie, where ſuch inditement at anie time héereafter ſhall be taken, and alſo the iuſtices of the kings bench, after ſuch inditement ſhall be remooued before them, ſhall and maie procéed vpon the ſame, in all points, as they ſhould or ought to doo, in caſe ſuch felonious ſtroke and death thereby inſuing, or poiſoning, and death thereof inſuing, had growen in all one ſame countie. And that ſuch partie to whom appeale of murder ſhall be giuen by the law, maie commenſe, take, and ſue appeale of murder, in the ſame countie, where the partie ſo feloniouſlie ſtriken or poiſoned ſhall die, as well againſt the principall and principals, as againſt euerie acceſſarie to the ſame offenſes, in whatſoeuer countie or place the acceſſarie or acceſſaires ſhall be guiltie to the ſame. And further the iuſtices before whom any ſuch appeale ſhall be commenſed, ſued, and taken, within the yéere and daie after ſuch murder and manſlaughter committed and doone, ſhall procéed againſt all and euerie ſuch acceſſarie & acceſſaries, in the ſame countie where ſuch appeale ſhall be ſo taken, in like maner and forme, as if the ſame offenſe or offenſes of acceſſarie or acceſſaries had béene committed and doone in the ſame countie where ſuch appeale ſhall be ſo taken, aſwell concerning the triall by the iurors, or twelue men of ſuch countie, where ſuch appeale or appeales ſhall be héereafter taken vpon the plée of not guiltie, pleaded by ſuch offendor or offendors, as otherwiſe.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that where anie murder or felonie héereafter ſhall be committed and doone in one countie, and another perſon or mo ſhall be acceſſarie or acceſſaries in anie maner of wiſe, to anie ſuch murder, or felonie in anie other countie, that then an inditement found or taken againſt ſuch acceſſarie and acceſſaries vpon the circumſtance of ſuch matter before the iuſtices of the peace, or other iuſtices or commiſſioners, to inquire of felonies in the countie where ſuch offenſes of acceſſarie or acceſſaries in anie maner of wiſe ſhall be committed or doone, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law, as if the ſaid principall offenſe had béene committed or doone within the ſame countie, where the ſame inditement againſt ſuch acceſſarie ſhall be found. And that the iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, or Oier & terminer, or two of them, of, or in ſuch countie, where the offenſe of anie ſuch acceſſarie ſhall be héereafter committed and doone, vpon ſute to them made, ſhall write to the Cuſtos rotulorum, or kéepers of the records, where ſuch principall ſhall be héereafter atteinted or conuict, to certifie them whether ſuch principall be atteinted, conuicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged of ſuch principall felonie, who vpon ſuch writing to them, or anie of them directed, ſhall make ſufficient certificat in writing vnder their ſeale or ſeals, to the ſaid iuſtices, whether ſuch principall be atteinted, conuicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged or not. And after that they that ſo ſhall haue the cuſtodie of ſuch records, doo certifie that ſuch principall is atteinted, conuicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged of ſuch offenſe by the law: that then the iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, or of Oier & terminer, or other their authorized, ſhall procéed vpon euerie ſuch acceſſarie, in the countie where ſuch acceſſarie or acceſſaries became acceſſarie, in ſuch maner and forme, as if both the ſaid principall offenſe and acceſſarie had béene committed and doone in the ſaid countie, where the offenſe of acceſſarie was or ſhall be committed or doone. And that euerie ſuch acceſſarie and other offendors aboue expreſſed, ſhall anſwer vpon their arreignements, and receiue ſuch triall, iudgement, order, and execution, and ſuffer ſuch forfeitures, paines and penalties, as is vſed in other caſes of felonie, anie law or cuſtome to the contrarie héeretofore vſed in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the keeping of the countie daies.

Chap.25.

WHere héeretofore in the moſt part of all ſhires and counties within this realme, the countie court is and hath béene vſuallie kept and holden from moneth to moneth, and ſo at euerie moneths end one countie: yet albeit in ſome countries (though not manie) the ſaid countie courts are holden from ſix wéeks to ſix wéeks, by force wherof the officers award out proceſſe, aſwell of the king, as proceſſe for the peace, out of the kings bench, as alſo other common proceſſe betwixt partie and partie, and the atturnies and ſolicitors (who ſue the ſame) not knowing the priuat cuſtome of their particular ſhires, which haue and vſe their counties to be holden euerie ſix wéeks, giue their proceſſe like returne, as in thoſe ſhires which haue common cuſtome to hold and kéepe countie courts euerie moneth, whereby the kings ſutes be not onelie deferred, the plaintifs and demandants delaied of their lawfull action and demands, but alſo the ſaid plaintifs & demandants thereby put to double coſt and charge, to the great ignominie and ſlander of the law, incouraging of the offendors & tranſgreſſors, and to the continuall impoueriſhing of all thoſe, who haue cauſe of ſute.

In conſideration wherof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that from and after the firſt daie of October next inſuing this preſent ſeſſion of parlement, no countie court or courts, héereafter to be kept within this realme, ſhall be longer deferred but one moneth from court to court, and ſo the ſaid courts from henſefoorth ſhall be kept euerie moneth, and none otherwiſe: anie vſage, cuſtome, ſtatute, or law, héeretofore had or made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſhiriffe of Northumberland from henſefoorth ſhall kéepe the countie court of that ſhire in the towne or caſtell of Alnewike, and in none other place: anie late vſe latelie begun and brought in, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act againſt the carieng of white aſhes out of this realme.

Chap.26. Conſidering that white aſhes made within the realme, and other the kings dominions and territories, are verie neceſſarie and expedient for the making of ſope, and ſaltpeeter, and for the whiting of linnen cloth, dieng, and ſcowring of woollen cloth, and for other néedfull things in the realme, and that the ſame aſhes now of late haue béene commonlie conueied ouer the ſeas, and thereby inhanſed in price, and ſo ſcarſe that the kings louing ſubiects cannot haue ſufficient of the ſame for anie conuenient prices: wherefore be it ordeined and enacted by the kings highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons, after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, ſhall ſhip, lade, carrie, or conueie any white aſhes towards the parties beyond the ſeas, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſix ſhillings eight penſe for euerie buſhell of ſuch aſhes, ſo to be ſhipped or laded, to be carried or conueied into the parties beyond the ſeas: the moitie of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts of record, by action, bill, plaint or information, in the which action, bill, plaint, or information, no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed.

An act againſt the falſe forging of gads of ſteele.

Chap.27. Where diuerſe perſons of late haue deceitfullie forged and made of a certeine iron, called bilbow iron like to the faſhion and maner of gads of ſtéele, and haue ſold the ſame ſo forged to diuerſe of the kings ſubiects for ſtéele, whereby the greateſt part of edged toles, weapons, and other neceſſarie things hauing edges, are of little or no value or goodneſſe, to the great hurt of the kings louing ſubiects. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the kings highneſſe, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, doo forge, or make anie ſuch gads of iron, or doo vtter or put to ſale anie ſuch gads of anie iron, ſhall forfeit for euerie gad ſo forged or vttered, or put to ſale foure penſe, the moitie of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by action, bill, plaint, or information, in the which action, bill, plaint, or information, no wager of law, protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowed or admitted.

An act for fines with proclamations in the countie palantine of Cheſter.

Chap.28. In humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your excellent maieſtie your true and faithfull ſubiects and léegemen the inhabitants of your graces countie palantine of Cheſter: that whereas héeretofore by authoritie of parlement, diuerſe neceſſarie and beneficiall eſtatutes haue béene made for and concerning the leuieng of fines with proclamation, which are not onelie neceſſarie for the preſeruation of quietneſſe and concord amongſt your louing ſubiects, and for the auoiding of ſtrife and contention, but alſo for the great and perfect aſſurance of all ſuch perſons, to whom anie ſuch fine is leuied of anie lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which ſaid beneficiall and neceſſarie eſtatutes doo not extend to anie fines to be leuied within your ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter. In tender conſideration whereof, pleaſeth it your moſt excellent maieſtie, that it maie be enacted by your highneſſe, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular fines which at anie time héereafter ſhall be leuied or knowledged before the high iuſtice of our ſouereigne lord the king, or of his heirs and ſucceſſors, of his countie palantine of Cheſter for the time being, or before the deputie or lieutenant iuſtice there for the time being, of anie lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, lieng or being within the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter, which ſhall be openlie read and proclamed thrée ſeuerall daies in the open ſeſſions, in the preſence of the iuſtice of the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter for the time being, or before the deputie or lieutenant iuſtice there at the ſame ſeſſions, that the ſame fine ſhall fortune to be ingroſſed; and alſo that ſhall be openlie read and proclamed in the preſence of the iuſtice of the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter, or before the deputie or lieutenant iuſtice there for the time being, at the two next generall ſeſſions that ſhall be holden in the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter, before the iuſtices of the ſame countie palantine, or before the deputie or lieutenant iuſtice there, next after the leuieng and ingroſſing of ſuch ſaid fine at thrée ſeuerall daies in either of the ſaid two ſeſſions, after ſuch maner and forme as is commonlie vſed in the kings court of common plées at Weſtminſter, ſhall be of like force, ſtrength, and effect in the law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as fines being dulie leuied with proclamations before the kings iuſtices of his common plées be, or ought to be of.

An act againſt ſodomie.

Chap.29. Foraſmuch as there is not at this preſent time anie ſufficient and condigne puniſhment by due courſe of the lawes of this realme, for the deteſtable vice of buggerie: be it therefore enacted by the aſſent of the kings highneſſe, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that all and euerie offendor or offendors in that crime, after the firſt daie of Aprill next inſuing, being thereof conuicted or atteinted by verdict, confeſſion, outlawrie, or otherwiſe: ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, without loſſe of goods, or lands, or anie other commoditie, his life onelie excepted, as felons conuicted or atteinted of felonie béene accuſtomed to doo, touching the ſaid paines of death, by the common lawes of this realme. And that no ſuch perſon ſhall inioy the priuilege or benefit of his or their clergie or ſanctuarie, and that the iuſtices of peace ſhall haue full power & authoritie within the limits of their commiſſion and iuriſdictions, to heare and determine the ſaid offenſe, touching the ſaid paines of death, as they doo and haue vſed to doo in caſes of felonie, ſauing to the wife and children, the heires and ſucceſſors and adminiſtrators of the ſaid offendor or offendors, and all other perſons and bodies politike, other than the ſaid offendor or offendors, all ſuch right, title, claime, and intereſt, to all and euerie the ſaid offendor or offendors, goods, lands, and hereditaments, as they or anie of them might haue or ought to haue had, if the ſaid offendor or offendors had died his or their naturall death, or had neither in this caſe, neither by anie other meane offended anie of the kings lawes.

Prouided, that no manner of perſon be impeached or moleſted for the ſaid offenſe, by reaſon of this preſent act, except the ſaid perſon be indicted of the ſaid offenſe within ſix moneths next and immediatlie following the time of committing the ſame. And that no perſon be receiued for witneſſe, or to laie or giue euidence againſt the ſaid offendor, as vpon whoſe credit the inqueſt ſhould informe themſelfe, which perſon ſhould take anie profit or commoditie by the death of the ſaid offendor, if he were atteinted or conuicted of the ſaid crime and offenſe: nor that anie ſuch atteindor ſhall make anie corruption of bloud to the heire or heires of ſuch offendor or offendors.

An act for the townes of Rie and Winchelſeie, and for the caſting of ballaſt into the Camber.

Forſomuch as the inhabitants of the townes and ports of Rie and Winchelſeie, in the countie of Suſſex, haue trulie informed the kings moſt honorable counſell, that the harborow and rode, called the Camber, being néere to the ſaid townes of Rie and Winchelſeie (being ouer againſt the coaſts of Déepe in France) in times paſt hath béene a harborow able to receiue two hundred or foure hundred saile of ſhippes, aswell in time of warre, as in time of peace; and being there, might not onelie iſſue out thereof at all times to encounter their enimies, but alſo in times of ſtormie winds might haue had reſcue and good harborow in the ſame, to the great ſafegard of the kings ſhips and merchants paſſing to and fro vpon the narrow ſeas: yet now of late, not onelie the ſaid harborow and rode called the Camber, but alſo all the inne créekes néere vnto Rie and Winchelſeie aforeſaid, partlie by occaſion of caſting of ballaſt into the ſame harborow and créekes, and partlie bicauſe diuerſe mariſhes inned, take in no water to ſcowre the chanell, but let out their freſh water at gutters, ſo that at this preſent, the chanell there is choked, ſwared, and filled vp, that there cannot lie in the ſame harborow aboue thirtie or fortie ſaile of ſhips, and yet the ſame ſhips cannot come into the ſame harborow without great danger. Therefore it is enacted and ordeined by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the maiors and iurats of Rie and Winchelſeie, now being, before the twentith daie of Aprill next comming, ſhall appoint conuenient places, to laie on all ballaſt, that ſhall be caſt out of anie hoie, ſhip, craier, bote, or other veſſell, which after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhall come into, or within the ſaid harborow or rode, to the intent to receiue or take into it anie freight or lading in thoſe parties. And that all manner of ballaſt ſhall be had, or caſt out of anie hoie, ſhip, craier, bote, or other veſſell, after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall by the perſons being in euerie hoie, ſhip, craier, bote, or other veſſell, be laid vpon ſuch place as the ſaid maiors and iurats, or the more number of them, ſhall appoint and aſſigne, and at no other place, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie ſhillings of lawfull monie of England, for the firſt part or portion of ballaſt, ſo caſt ouer, and fortie ſhillings for euerie tun of ballaſt, reſidue, being caſt out of anie hoie, ſhip, craier, bote, or other veſſell, contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, the one halfe of euerie ſumme ſo forfeited to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to be to him that will ſue for the ſame, in anie court of record in this realme, in which action or ſute, no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be admitted or allowed. And it is further enacted and ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the maior or iurats of Rie for the time being, and maior and iurats of Winchelſeie for the time being, and euerie of them, ſhall ſeuerallie haue full power and authoritie to hold plee, and to heare and determine all and ſingular actions, ſuits and complaints, in anie wiſe, concerning anie act or offenſe doone or committed at anie time héereafter, contrarie to the forme of this preſent act, and to make execution vpon euerie iudgement giuen in anie of the ſaid actions and ſuits, aſwell vpon the ſea, as vpon the land, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought conuenient. Chap.30.

An act for the citie of Cheſter touching the taking of recogniſances.

In their moſt humble wiſe, ſhewen vnto your highneſſe your true, faithfull and obedient ſubiects, the maior, aldermen, ſhiriffes, and commonaltie of your graces citie of Cheſter, that where before this time the maiors of the ſaid citie of Cheſter, were appointed and authorized Chap.31.

thorized, to take and receiue before the ſaid maiors, recogniſances, according to the ſtatutes merchant, and of Acton Burnell, whereupon were deliuered vnto the ſaid maior by the kings maieſties progenitors, that then were, a ſpeciall ſeale concerning the ſame, by force whereof the maiors and other officers there appointed (time out of mind) haue continuallie vſed, and practiſed, to take recogniſances, before them of ſtatutes merchant, and Acton Burnell, and inrolled the ſame, which euer hitherto was allowed, permitted, and taken to be good and effectuall in the law, vntill now of late that ambiguitie and doubt hath riſen, by means of certeine ſiniſter perſons, more for the defrauding of right, equitie, and iuſtice, than vpon anie good ground or matter, for their priuat commoditie, bicauſe that in all points it doth not follow and agrée, according to all the ſtreict words of the ſaid ſtatute merchant, and Acton Burnell, aſwell to the great hurt and ſlander of the ſaid citie, as alſo to the decaie of the merchants, which haue, and ſhall lend their liuings, wares, and monie, and great boldneſſe of the creditors and debtors, to deteine the ſame in their hands, to the great decaie of the ſaid citie. Wherefore for the inconuenience thereof, and alſo for the auoiding of the ſaid ambiguitie and doubt, it may pleaſe your highneſſe, that it may be by your grace with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie ſuch recogniſance of ſtatutes merchant, and Acton Burnell, which after the firſt day of Maie next comming, ſhall be taken, knowledged, inrolled, had, and ſealed, with the ſaid ſeale, appointed to the ſaid citie of Cheſter, before the maior of the ſame citie for the time being, in like maner as héeretofore the predeceſſors maiors and other officers in the ſaid citie haue accuſtomed, to take and inroll and ſeale, ſhall be as good, effectuall and of force in the law, to all intents, conſtruction and purpoſes, as if the taking of ſuch recogniſance did fullie agrée and accord, to all intents and purpoſes, with the ſtreict words of the ſaid ſtatutes of Acton Burnell, and the ſtatute merchant. And that vpon all certificats of the ſaid maiors héereafter, like proceſſe and execution to be awarded and directed out of the high courts of chancerie and common plées, to all ſhiriffes, maiors, bailiffes, or other officers in England or Wales, in as ample maner and forme as is vſed elſewhere within this realme for anie recogniſance taken vpon anie of the ſtatutes aforeſaid, anie law, ſtatute, libertie, franchiſes, or vſage had or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the continuance of certeine ſtatutes.

Chap.32. WHere in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the two and thirtith yeare of the reigne of our late moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there by diuerſe prorogations continued vntill the foure and twentith daie of Iulie, in the ſix and thirtith yeare of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, there was one act made and eſtabliſhed, for and concerning the reformation of miſpleading, ieofailes, and atturnies, which ſaid act with the prouiſo, were made to endure vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement. And where alſo at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the fiue and thirtith yeare of the reigne of our ſaid late moſt dread ſouereigne lord, one act was made, that for non appearance in iuries to haue De circumſtantibus. And in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the ſeauen and thirtith yeare of the reigne of our ſaid late moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, the ſaid acts and either of them, were continued vntill the end of the next parlement. Be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the acts aforeſaid, and either of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions in them and euerie of them conteined, ſhall continue and endure in their force and ſtrength for euer.

An act that no man ſtealing horſſe or horſſes ſhall inioy the benefit of his clergie.

Chap.33. FOraſmuch as it is, and hath béene ambiguous and doubtfull vpon the words mentioned in one act of parlement made the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king, whether that anie perſon being in due forme of the lawes found guiltie, or otherwiſe atteinted or conuicted for felonious ſtealing of one horſſe, gelding, or mare, ought to be admitted, to haue and inioy the priuilege and benefit of his clergie and ſanctuarie. Therefore it is declared and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, feloniouſlie taking or ſtealing anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, ſhall not be admitted to haue or inioy the priuilege or benefit of his or their clergie or ſanctuarie, but ſhall be put from the ſame, in like maner and forme, as though he or they had béene indicted or appealed for felonious ſtealing of two horſſes, two geldings, or two mares, of anie other, and thereupon found guiltie by the verdict of twelue men, or confeſſed the ſame vpon their arreignement, or ſtand wilfullie, or of malice mute.

An act for the ſhiriffe of Northumberland to be accountable for his office, as other ſhiriffes be.

Chap.34. FOraſmuch as the ſhiriffes of the countie of Northumberland, which haue béene named now of long time paſſed, haue not accounted to the kings maieſtie of the iſſues and profits of their bailiwike, in the kings highnes excheker, or elſewhere, as other ſhiriffes of the ſaid countie in old time paſſed haue doone, nor as the ſhiriffes of other counties of this realme doo at this time, but doo yéerelie receiue and take the whole profits thereof to their owne vſes, to the great detriment and loſſe of the king our ſouereigne lord, both of his vicountels, and other farmes, and anſwerable by the hands of the ſaid ſhiriffe, and all other debts, iſſues, fines, and amerciaments, within the ſaid countie, and of all alienations and intruſions, wards, marriages, releeſes, and ſuch other.

Wherefore be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſefoorth, all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhalbe hereafter named to be ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie of Northumberland, foorthwith before he receiue his patent, and before he doo exerciſe anie part of the ſaid office, ſhall put in ſufficient ſuerties by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputie or deputies, into the kings excheker, there to enter in recogniſances in ſuch ſum, & vpon ſuch conditions, as to the lord treaſuror and barons of the ſaid excheker ſhall ſéeme conuenient, in maner and forme as all other ſhiriffes of other counties of this realme doo, vpon paine of euerie ſuch ſhiriffe making default, to forfeit to the kings maieſtie an hundred pounds to be leuied of his goods and cattels, lands, and tenements, whereſoeuer they maie be found, to the kings highnes vſe: and that the ſaid barons from time to time, ſhall cauſe ſuch proces to be made for the king, for the leuieng of the ſaid hundred pounds ſo to be forfeited, to be directed to ſuch perſon and perſons, and in ſuch nature and ſort, as to them ſhall ſéeme beſt for the king, for the leuieng thereof, anie thing in this act, or in anie other law, ſtatute, vſe, prouiſion, or cuſtome, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that any ſuch ſhiriffe, being ſo bounden as is aboue ſaid, ſhall not be accountable but for his owne time, and for the yéere of his ſhiriffewike onelie, neither ſhall be charged in or vpon his account by anie proceſſe, with anie arrerages, or duties due to the kings maieſtie by anie his predeceſſors in the ſaid office of ſhiriffe, anie thing in this act, or anie law, or vſage, or prerogatiue to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the confirmation of the ſubſidie of the clergie.

Chap.35.

Where the prelats and the clergie of the prouince of Canturburie, haue louinglie and liberallie for certeine conſiderations giuen & granted to the kings maieſtie a ſubſidie of ſix ſhillings of the pound, to be taken and leuied of all and ſingular the ſpirituall promotions within the ſame prouince, during the terme of thrée yeeres now next inſuing, in ſuch certeine maner, forme, and with diuers exceptions and prouiſions ſpecified and conteined in a certeine inſtrument, by them thereof made and deliuered to the kings highnes, vnder the ſeale of the archbiſhop of Canturburie, as in the ſame inſtrument exhibited in this preſent parlement more plainelie it dooth appéers; the tenor whereof inſueth in theſe words.

The prelats and clergie of the prouince of Canturburie, vpon certeine great and neceſſarie conſiderations among them purpoſed and debated, calling to remembrance the moſt gratious and noble diſpoſition of the kings maieſtie their naturall and moſt redoubted ſouereigne lord, vnder whoſe happie and prudent regiment they and all other his highneſſe ſubiects, euen from the beginning of his moſt gratious reigne, haue liued in ſafegard, quietneſſe, and ſuertie of their bodies and goods, out of the danger of inuaſions, ſpoiles, depopulations, and deſtructions of anie forren enimies, againſt whoſe malice for the ſuertie and defenſe both of them, and all other his ſubiects, his maieſtie hath not ſpared to imploie ineſtimable ſummes of his owne treaſure and poſſeſſions by ſundrie occaſions, and namelie by reaſon of the great and long warres which his grace hath iuſtlie and moſt noblie mainteined, and in part victoriouſlie atchiued, both by land and ſea, againſt the Scots rebels to his highnes, and enimies of his moſt noble reigne; and conſidering alſo, that (next vnto God) they of the ſaid clergie be moſt bound to render to his maieſtie their immortall and moſt humble thanks for manie cauſes and benefits, and chéeflie for the ſpeciall quietnes which they doo preſentlie inioy in the middeſt of the ſaid moſt cruell and deadlie wars, hauing no let nor impediment to applie themſelues to ſerue God, and ſtudie in ſuch wiſe, as to their vocations and duties apperteineth. And further conſidering, that the maintenance, furniture, expedition, and honorable performance of the ſaid wars yet continuing, and other his graces weightie and noble affaires, for the publike weale of his realmes and ſubiects, neceſſarilie requireth great and ineſtimable charges and expenſes: the ſaid prelats and clergie therefore, for a remembrance and declaration of their good willes, thankefull minds, and bounden duties to his highneſſe, with one voice, and verie hartie good will doo giue and grant by theſe preſents to his maieſtie, towards the ſaid great charges and coſts one ſubſidie in maner and forme following; that is to ſaie, that euerie archbiſhop, biſhop, deane, archdeacon, prebendarie, prouoſt, maiſter of colleges, maiſters of hoſpitals, parſon, vicar, and euerie other perſon and perſons, of whatſoeuer name or degrée he or they be, inioieng anie ſpirituall promotion or other temporall poſſeſſions to the ſame ſpirituall promotion annexed, now not diuided nor ſeparated by act of parlement, or otherwiſe from the poſſeſſions of the clergie, ſhall paie to the kings highneſſe for euerie pound that he maie yéerelie diſpend by reaſon of the ſaid ſpirituall promotion, the ſumme of vi.s. And for the true and certeine knowledge of the yéerelie values of the ſaid promotions & euerie of them,whereof the paiment ſhalbe made,the rate,taxation,& valuation,and eſtimation remaining of record in the kings maieſties court of the firſt fruits & tenths,for the paiment of the perpetuall diſme,concerning all ſuch promotions, as be in poſſeſſion of the clergie,or anie other not diuided by act of parlement,or otherwiſe as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe followed and obſerued, without anie making any valuation,rate,taxation,or eſtimation other than in the ſaid record is compriſed.

Prouided alwaies,that foraſmuch as the tenth part of the ſaid valuation and tax before mentioned,is yéerelie paied to the kings highnes for the perpetuall diſme, ſo as there remaineth onlie nine parts to the incumbent cléere,this ſubſidie of vj.s. the pound ſhalbe vnderſtand onelie of the ſame nine parts,and of no more.

Prouided alwaies,that no perſon that is alreadie promoted to anie ſpirituall benefice,ſithen the firſt daie of October laſt paſt before the date hereof, or that hereafter ſhalbe promoted to anie ſpirituall benefice,on this ſide the firſt daie of October,which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1551,ſhalbe contributorie, or charged to the kings highneſſe, with anie part of this ſubſidie, during the firſt yéere of the ſaid promotion.

The ſaid prelats and clergie alſo doo grant,that this ſubſidie of vj.s.of the pound of the yéerelie value of euerie promotion taxed as aforeſaid,ſhalbe paied to the kings maieſtie,within iij. yéeres next inſuing the date hereof, that is to ſaie, ij.s. of euerie pound in euerie of the ſaid thrée yéeres. The firſt paiment thereof to be due and made at the firſt daie of October next inſuing, which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1549.And the ſecond paiment thereof to be due and made on the ſaid firſt daie of October then next following, which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1550. And the third paiment thereof to be due and made in the ſaid firſt daie of October then next following,which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1551,and to be deliuered and paid yéerelie by ſuch as ſhalbe appointed to haue the collection thereof to the treaſuror of the kings court of firſt fruits and tenths,or to anie other perſon,whom it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to appoint for the receipt thereof, before the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord in euerie of the ſaid thrée yéeres.

Item the ſaid prelats and clergie alſo doo grant, that euerie préeſt, and all other perſons hauing a penſion, by reaſon of the diſſolution of anie the late monaſteries, colleges, frée chapels, chantries,fraternities, guilds, and hoſpitals, or anie other corporation within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, ſhall likewiſe paie to his highnes ſix ſhillings of euerie pound of the ſaid penſions,within the ſaid thrée yéeres,at ſuch daie and time as is before ſpecified: and that for the ſure paiment thereof, a deduction and retention of the ſaid ſix ſhillings to be made in the hands of the paiers of the ſaid penſion after the proportion of two ſhillings of the pound,euerie of the ſaid thrée yéeres,to be deliuered and paied vnto his maieſties vſe at ſuch time,and to ſuch perſons as the ſubſidie of ſix ſhillings aforeſaid ſhalbe paid vnto.

Item the ſaid prelats and clergie doo alſo grant,that euerie préeſt receiuing annuall ſtipend, being no perpetuitie within the ſaid prouince, ſhall paie vnto his graces vſe ſix ſhillings eight pence in euerie of the ſame thrée yéeres , at the ſame daies, and vnder the ſame penalties, as the reſt of the clergie doo paie for their promotions.

Item the ſame prelats and clergie further doo grant,that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop,and the ſée being vacant,euerie deane and chapiter of that ſée void, ſhalbe collectors of this ſubſidie within their proper dioces. And for the better recouerie of the ſaid collection, the ſaid prelats and clergie humblie beſéech the kings highnes, that they may haue full power and authoritie by his maieſtie,and the high court of parlement, to vſe all ſuch waies, means,and proceſſes, as be preſcribed in the act of perpetuall diſmes for the collection and leuieng of the ſame, and ſhall make account thereof before the chancellor or treaſuror, or other officers of his graces court of the firſt fruits & tenths,or in ſuch other places,as it ſhall pleaſe his highnes to appoint, in ſuch wiſe, and after ſuch forme onelie, as the ſaid archbiſhops & biſhops be now charged for the collection of the perpetuall diſme,whereby is ment how the lacke & default of paiment,of, and for anie particular promotion, ſhall onelie charge the incumbent,and ſuch as be bound to paie the ſame,and that vpon paines,as be prouided in this act of perpetuall diſme, againſt them that doo make default in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaies,that euerie incumbent making ſuch default of paiment,after certificat of ſuch default, dulie made and exhibited in the kings maieſties court of firſt fruits and tenths,ſhall forfeit and loſe onelie that his benefice or promotion,for which he maketh default,and for the ſame ſhall incur no other forfeiture, loſſe,danger,paine,or penaltie, anie other paine, clauſe, article,or condition in the ſaid ſtatute of perpetuall diſme conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that the archbiſhop,biſhop,deane and chapiter, gathering that they can receiue, and making paiement thereof,ſhall for the reſt not by them receiued,be diſcharged by their certificat to be made by the firſt daie of Januarie,in euerie of the ſame thrée yéeres, or within fourtéene daies after, into the court of firſt fruits and tenths,and ſix pence of euerie pound where the collector ſhalbe charged in his account,cléerelie to be paied into the ſaid receipt, or into ſuch other place, as it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to appoint,ſhalbe allowed to the ſame collector,for his ſaid account for the ſame, for the charges and collection,portage,conuieng,and paieng of the ſaid ſubſidie.

Prouided alwaies, that this ſubſidie granted by the clergie , ſhall not be demanded or leuied out of anie benefice or college ſituat or ſet within the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge,or of anie benefice or other reuenues, vnto anie college of Oxford or Cambridge vnited,appropried, or apperteining,or of the college of Eaton nigh Windſor,or of the college of Wincheſter,founded by William Wickham, ſomtime biſhop of Wincheſter, or of any other church or benefice, or of anie other reuenues to the ſaid colleges, or any of them annexed, appropried, or otherwiſe apperteining.

Prouided alwaies, that no ſpirituall promotion, or any lands or reuenues annexed to the ſame, being charged by this grant or act of the prouince of Canturburie, or anie goods or cattels, growing, being, or renning of the ſame, & perteining to the owners of the ſaid ſpirituall promotion ſhalbe charged, or made contributorie to anie fifteene or other ſubſidie alreadie granted to the kings highnes of the late fee, or hereafter to be granted during the time of the ſaid thrée yéeres.

Item the ſaid prelats and clergie further grant, that euerie of his graces new erected biſhops, deanes, prebendaries, petticanons, & preachers, ſhalbe charged to this ſubſidie, for their owne portions onelie thereof to paie vj.s. of the pound, within the ſaid thrée yéeres, as is aboue rehearſed of other biſhops & ſpirituall perſons, and theſe portions or rents and reuenues which his highnes hath giuen vnto them for the maintenance of poore men, ſchoolemaſters, vſhers, grammarians, queriſters, and other officers and miniſters, not to be charged with anie part of this ſubſidie.

Prouided alſo that euerie parſon, vicar, or other ſpirituall man paieng anie penſion, whereof none allowance is made in the valuation of his ſaid benefice, ſhall and maie reteine ij.s. of euerie pound of euerie ſuch penſion, euerie yéere during the ſaid thrée yéeres, to his owne reléefe, in conſideration that he is charged to paie his ſubſidie of vj.s. of the pound, out of euerie pound of the whole value of his promotion.

Prouided alſo, that where certeine lands, tenements, rents, tithes, penſions, portions, fruits, and other hereditaments, latelie belonging to diuers cathedrall churches, or to other places eccleſiaſticall within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, which were giuen and aſſigned to be beſtowed and ſpent, to and on the finding and maintenance of certeine chanteries, anniuerſaries, obits, lights, lamps, and other like things, intents, and purpoſes, be now come into the hands and poſſeſſion of the kings maieſtie our ſoucreigne lord, by force of a ſtatute thereof made in the firſt yéere of his gratious reigne, as by the ſaid ſtatute more plainlie appeareth, that the ſaid cathedrall churches, and the deanes or preſidents and chapters of the ſame, and all other places and perſons to whome the ſaid lands, rents, and other the premiſſes, or anie of them, did latelie apperteine, ſhall not be charged to and with anie contribution or paiement of anie ſubſidie for that part or portion, whereunto the kings maieſtie is intituled or poſſeſſed of, but the ſaid ſubſidie ſhalbe vnderſtand to be chargeable, & dulie onelie of all & ſingular lands, tenements, rents, tithes, penſions, portions, fruits & other hereditaments, which doo ſtill remaine not diſſeuered from the hands and poſſeſſion of the ſaid cathedrall churches, and other places and perſons aforeſaid. And that deduction and allowance be made to them and euerie of them in the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, out of the whole value, taxation, and eſtimation made for the paiment of the ſaid perpetuall diſme, remaining of record in the kings maieſties court of firſt fruits and tenths, for that rate and portion, which is come to the hands and poſſeſſion of our ſaid ſoucreigne lord, by force of the ſtatute premiſed.

Prouided alſo, that euerie parſon and vicar, whoſe benefice is of the value of vj.li. xiij.s. iiij.d. or vnder, after the rate of the perpetuall tenth, ſhall paie in euerie of the ſaid thrée yéeres onelie vj. ſhillings eight pence, as ſtipendaries doo, and not otherwiſe.

Prouided alſo, that euerie préeſt, and all other perſons hauing a penſion, by reaſon of the diſſolution of the late monaſteries, colleges, frée chapels, chantries, fraternities, guilds, and hoſpitals, or anie other incorporations within the prouince of Canturburie, or anie of them, and being of the ſumme of xl.s. or vnder, and not aboue, ſhall not be charged and chargeable to the ſaid ſubſidie, or anie part thereof, for anie ſuch penſion of fortie ſhillings, or vnder: anie thing conteined in this grant to the contrarie notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid inſtrument more at large it dooth appéere.

And for the ſure and true paiement of this ſubſidie granted by the ſaid prelats and clergie of the prouince of Canturburie, according to the tenor, purport, effect, and true meaning of this preſent inſtrument; the ſaid prelats and clergie moſt humblie deſire and require your highneſſe, that this their ſaid gift, grant, and ſubſidie, & euerie matter, ſumme of monie, clauſe, and ſentence in this inſtrument conteined, concerning the ſaid ſubſidie, maie be ratified, eſtabliſhed, and confirmed, by authoritie of your highnes court of parlement; and for the ſure and true paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie granted by the ſaid prelats and clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, according to the tenor, effect, and true meaning of the ſaid inſtrument.

Be it enacted by the kings highnes, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid gift and grant, and euerie matter, ſumme of monie, clauſe & ſentence in the ſaid inſtrument conteined, be ratified, eſtabliſhed, and confirmed by the authoritie aforeſaid.

And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie perſon that ſhalbe appointed to the collection and gathering of the ſaid ſubſidie, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to leuie, take, and perceiue the ſame ſubſidie, by authoritie of the cenſures of the church, or by diſtres, vpon the poſſeſſions of the farmers and owners of the lands and tenements, chargeable by this act, for, or to the paiment of anie ſumme or ſummes of monie, or otherwiſe by the diſcretion of the collectors thereof. And that no repleuie, prohibition, or Superſedeas ſhalbe allowed or obeied for anie perſon or perſons, making default of paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, contrarie to the tenor of the grant thereof, vntill ſuch time as they haue trulie ſatiſfied and contented all ſuch part and portions, as to them in that behalfe apperteineth. And that euerie ſuch farmar and farmars, that ſhall fortune héereafter to be charged to and with the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, or anie part thereof, ſhall by the authoritie aforeſaid be allowed and reteined in his hands, as much of his yéerelie farme and rent, as the ſumme which he ſhall fortune to paie for his lord or leſſors, ſhall extend and amount vnto, anie writing, couenant, band, or other thing had or made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And for the leuieng of the ſaid ſubſidie of ſix ſhillings of the pound, and for the yéerelie penſion, which anie préeſt or other perſon or perſons which héeretofore haue béene religious, or taken for religious perſons, doo or ſhall receiue at the court of augmentations, and reuenues, the chancellor of the ſame court for the time being, ſhall yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, that is to ſaie, at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, deteine and reteine in his hands, or cauſe to be deteined, or reteined in the hands of other the officers and miniſters of the ſame court, to the kings vſe, for euerie pound of the ſame penſions two ſhillings, and the ſame ſhall well and trulie paie or cauſe to be paid into the ſaid court of the tenth and firſt fruits, or elſewhere, as the kings highneſſe ſhall appoint, before the firſt daie of Ianuarie, without anie charge to be made or ſuſteined in that behalfe.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie other perſon and perſons, which paie or be chargeable to paie anie yearelie rent, penſion, or penſions, to anie préeſt, or other perſon or perſons, which héeretofore haue béene religious, or taken for religious perſons, chargeable to the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons which doo ſo paie or héereafter ſhall paie anie of the ſaid yéerelie rents, penſion or penſions, ſhall not onelie during the ſaid thrée yeares, reteine into his hands, yéerelie to the kings vſe, for euerie pound of the ſame yéerelie rents, penſion, or penſions two ſhillings, and the ſame well and trulie to paie or cauſe to be paid yéerelie during the ſame thrée yéeres, vnto the ordinarie of the ſame dioceſſe, or to the collector of the ſaid ſubſidie there to the kings vſe. But alſo ſhall yéerelie during the ſame thrée yéeres before the firſt daie of December, certifie vnder his or their ſeale or ſeales, vnto the ſaid court of the tenth and firſt fruits, or els where it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint, the names & ſurnames of all and ſingular ſuch préeſts or other perſons religious, or heretofore taken for religious perſons, as is aforeſaid, and the true yéerelie rents or penſions, which they or anie of them be intituled to haue or receiue yéerelie as is aforeſaid. And that the chancellor for the time being of the kings court of augmentations and reuenues of the kings crowne, ſhall likewiſe yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, before the firſt daie of December, certifie vnder the ſeale of the ſame court, not onelie the names and ſurnames of all and ſingular préeſts and other perſons chargeable for the ſaid ſeuerall rents and yéerelie penſions, to the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, in the ſaid court of the tenth and firſt fruits, or els where as it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to appoint, but alſo the true and iuſt yéerelie ſumme and ſummes of the ſame yéerelie rents, or penſions, with the names and ſornames of the perſons chargeable to the paiment thereof. And that the archbiſhop and biſhop of euerie dioceſſe, within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, ſhall yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, before the firſt daie of Ianuarie, or within foure and twentie daies after at the furtheſt, certifie vnder his ſeale in the ſaid court of tenth and firſt fruits, or els where it ſhall pleaſe the king to appoint, the names and ſurnames of all and ſingular ſtipendarie préeſts, being within anie of their dioceſſes chargeable to the ſaid paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, as is aforeſaid, and alſo the names and ſurnames of euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, with whom he or they did dwell, and take anie ſtipend or wages.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which within the ſaid thrée yéeres ſhall giue and paie anie ſtipend or wages to anie ſuch préeſt as is aforeſaid, ſhall for the inſufficiencie or default of euerie of the ſame préeſt or préeſts, being in ſeruice or wages with him, at the ſaid firſt day of October, be charged and chargeable, to and with the paiment of ſix ſhillings eight pence for the ſame yéere.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, & other perſons chargeable, to and with the collection of the ſaid ſubſidie of ſix ſhillings the pound, within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, ſhall haue vpon euerie paiment thereof, made in the kings court of the tenth and firſt fruits, or els where the kings maieſtie ſhall appoint, a ſufficient acquitance in writing, of ſuch perſon or perſons as the kings maieſtie ſhall appoint for the receipt thereof, the ſame acquitance witneſſing the ſame receipt of aſmuch of the ſame ſum of the ſame ſubſidie, as ſhalbe by any of them ſo receiued. And euerie ſuch acquitance in writing, ſealed and ſubſcribed with the name or names of euery ſuch perſon or perſons that ſo by the kings appointment ſhall receiue anie of the ſaid ſummes of monie, ſhalbe as good and effectuall in the law, and alſo a ſufficient diſcharge to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if it were made by act of parlement. And that euerie perſon and perſons which ſhall haue and receiue anie ſuch acquitance, ſhall paie but onelie two pence for euerie of the ſame acquitance.

Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie grant and grants, of all and euerie ſumme and ſummes of monie, which hereafter ſhalbe granted to the kings highnes by the clergie, of the prouince of Yorke, ſhalbe of the ſame ſtrength, force, and effect in all things, as the ſaid grant made by the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, and ſhalbe taxed, certified, collated, leuied and gathered, according to the tenor, forme, and effect of this preſent act of parlement, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, in ſuch maner, as though it were ſpeciallie, plainelie, and particularlie expreſſed and rehearſed in this act, by expreſſe words, termes, and ſentences, in their ſeuerall natures and kinds.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie laie perſon, hauing anie ſpirituall promotion, chargeable by this act, and alſo hauing temporall poſſeſſions, goods, cattels, and debts, chargeable to the ſubſidie granted by the temporaltie, ſhall be charged, taxed, and ſet, for his ſaid ſpirituall promotion, with the cleargie: and for his temporall poſſeſſions, goods, and cattels, with the temporaltie, and not otherwiſe.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch as haue beene religious perſons, and other, hauing anie penſion by reaſon of anie diſſolution of anie late monaſterie, college, or hoſpitals, or anie other corporations within the prouince of Canturburie and Yorke, or anie of them, and being of the ſumme of fortie ſhillings and not aboue or vnder, ſhall not be charged or chargeable to the ſaid ſubſidie, or anie part thereof, for anie ſuch penſion of fortie ſhillings or vnder: anie thing conteined in this act, or anie of the ſaid inſtruments, or anie of them, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the releefe granted to the kings maieſtie by the lords and commons.

Chap.36.

Whileſt we the kings maieſties faithfull, louing, and obedient ſubiects, the lords and commons aſſembled in this preſent parlement, doo conſider the preſent ſtate of the world, what great troubles be in all places, what enimies both his maieſtie and his realme hath, and is like to haue, and that their malice and hatred is bent, partlie to diminiſh his graces maieſtie and the honour of this realme, partlie to ſpoile the ſame of the iuſt, true, and ancient inheritance, right, and title that his highneſſe, and his moſt noble progenitors, kings of this realme of England, haue alwaies had to the realme of Scotland, being a member and a part of his kingdome and dominion, and cheefelie for that we of late hauing abandoned the authoritie of the biſhop of Rome, and his wicked doctrine, haue and doo adhere to Chriſt, and his moſt holie word, as becommeth all chriſtians to doo, that meane to be no leſſe indeed, than they profeſſe in name. Whileſt we alſo conſider, that his grace, and we his faithfull and obedient ſubiects, be but one bodie politike, his highneſſe the head, and we the members, and that no good or felicitie can come to the one, but the other ſhall be partaker thereof, and that no hurt or aduerſitie can happen to the one, wherewith the other ſhall not alſo be greeued. Whileſt we alſo conſider the practiſes and policies of other princes and potentats, what great preparations they make both of men and alſo of other furnitures for the wars, and what great treaſure they of late haue leuied and gathered of their ſubiects. We perceiuing that all the kings maieſties proceedings, wholie tend to the aduancement of the true glorie of God, the maintenance of the maieſtie of the imperiall crowne of this realme, and the defenſe and ſafetie of vs, and this his realme, fullie minded to cleaue and ſticke to God, and his moſt holie word, vtterlie determined to mainteine his graces honor, and all ſuch rights, and titles, as be annexed to his imperiall crowne, preſt and readie to defend our ſelues and this his realme, and our countrie: and finallie content to leaue father, mother, bretheren, ſiſtren, wiues, children, lands, goods, yea and this mortall life alſo, rather than we would denie Chriſt and forſake his word, which is the liuelie food of mans ſoule, rather than we would ſuffer his roiall maieſtie to be in any part diminiſhed, rather than we would conſent that the imperiall crowne of this realme ſhould be depriued of anie honour, title, right, or intereſt therevnto belonging, and finallie rather than anie forreine power ſhould doo vs or our countrie anie hurt or iniurie, haue thought it good to prepare and make, not onelie our perſons readie for the warres, hauing a full affiance and perfect confidence in God, that he alwaies hath ſent victorie to ſuch as profeſſed him, and put their whole truſt in him: albeit they were but verie few, and that verie feeble in mans ſight, in reſpect of the multitude and force of their enimies: ſo he now will haue a ſpeciall regard and eie to this little realme, and vs his poore ſeruants and little flocke, taking to his charge and defenſe our little ſheepheard, till yeares and ſtrength make him better able to bicker with his enimies, and that therefore he with vs and for vs, will deuiſe to withſtand, reſiſt, and ſubdue the force and puiſſance of our ſtout foes (no more ours than his, at the leaſt ours for his cauſe) but alſo to make among vs a maſſe of monie, to reléeue and mainteine the great and ineſtimable charges that our moſt gratious ſoueraigne lord hath, and dailie doth ſuſteine, a thing much vnable to ſerue anie péece of his preſent neceſſities, if his grace did meane to ſpare anie part of his owne treaſure, beſéeching his grace, not to caſt his eies vpon the ſmalneſſe of this our ſimple preſent, but to laie by it our good wils, which we make the chéefeſt part of our reléefe, it faithfullie promiſing all the reſt to be readie, when perill or enimie ſhall declare this not to ſuffice. Firſt we his graces ſaid ſubiects doo, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, fréelie and franklie giue and grant vnto his moſt roiall maieſtie a reléefe to continue by the ſpace of thrée yeares, to be rated, taxed, leuied, and gathered of euerie perſon, of what eſtate or degrée he be, according to the tenor of this act, after the rate, in manner and forme following, that is to ſaie, as well of all and euerie perſon, as is, or héereafter ſhall be, his graces naturall ſubiects, as of all and euerie fraternitie, guild, corporation, myſterie, brotherhood, companie and communaltie corporat, or not corporat, within this realme of England, Wales, and other the kings dominions, being worth ten pounds of monie, coine, plate, ſtocke of merchandize, corne, graine, ſhéepe, beaſts, cattels, or other goods moueable, aſwell within this realme, as without, and of all ſuch ſums of monie, as to him or them is, or ſhall be owing, whereof he or they truſt in their conſciences ſurelie to be paied, yéerelie twelue pence of euerie pound. And of euerie alien or ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance, as well denizen as not denizen, inhabiting or reſiant within this realme, in anie other the kings dominions, being worth ten pounds in monie, coine, plate, ſtocke, or merchandize, corne, graine, ſhéepe, beaſts, cattels, or other goods moueable, as well within this realme as without, and of all ſuch ſums of monie, as to him is, or ſhall be owing, whereof he truſteth in his conſcience, to be ſurelie paid, yéerelie two ſhillings of euerie pound. And of euerie alien or ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance, aſwell denizen as not denizen, inhabiting or reſiant within this realme, or anie other the kings dominions, being worth twentie ſhillings, and vnder ten pounds in monie, coine, plate, ſtocke of merchandize, corne graine, ſhéepe, beaſts, cattell, or other goods moueable, as well within this realme as without, and of all ſuch ſummes of monie, as to him is, or ſhall be owing, whereof he truſteth in his conſcience to be ſurelie paid, yéerelie twelue pence in euerie pound. Except and out of the premiſſes deducted ſuch ſummes of monie, as anie perſon or perſons before chargeable owe, and in his or their conſcience trulie mind to paie. And excepted alſo the apparell of ſuch perſons their wiues and children belonging to their owne bodies, ſauing iewels, gold, ſiluer, ſtone, and pearle. Excepted alſo alwaies from the charge, aſſeſment, and paiment of the ſaid reléefes, all monie, goods, and cattels of orphans, bequethed, or left vnto them by their parents, or other their fréends deceaſſed. And that all plate, coine, iewels, goods, debts, and cattels perſonals, being in the rule and cuſtodie of anie perſon or perſons, to the vſe of anie corporation, fraternitie, guild, myſterie, brotherhood, companie, or anie communaltie being corporat or not corporat, be and ſhall be rated, ſet and charged, by reaſon of this act, at the value certified by the preſentors of the certificat to be ſworne, of euerie pound in goods and debts, as is abouesaid. And the ſummes that are before rehearſed, ſet and taxed, to be leuied and taken of them that ſhall haue ſuch goods in cuſtodie, as is before rehearſed. And the ſame perſon or perſons, and bodies corporat, by the authoritie of this act, ſhall be diſcharged againſt him or them, that ſhall, or ought to haue the ſame at the time of the paiment, or deliuerie thereof, or at his otherwiſe departure from the cuſtodie or poſſeſſion of the ſame. Except and alwaies forpriſed from the charge and aſſeſment of this reléefe, all goods, cattels, iewels, and ornaments of churches and chapels, ordeined and vſed in churches or chapels, for diuine ſeruice therein to be celebrated.

Alſo we the kings maieſties ſubiects, doo giue and grant to his highneſſe eight pence, to be paid yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yeares, by euerie other perſon, not borne vnder the kings obeiſance, being denizen, or not denizen, other than women couert, ſouldiors, and ſuch perſons as be vnder the age of twelue yeares, dwelling or reſiant within this realme, or anie other the kings dominions. And the ſaid reléefes ſhall be by the authoritie aforeſaid, taxed, aſſeſſed, and rated, during the ſaid thrée yeares in euerie ſhire, riding, lath, wapentake, rape, citie, borough, towne, and euerie other place, within this realme of England and Wales, and other the kings dominions in forme following: that is to ſaie. The firſt yeare before the twentith daie of March, and the other two yeares, before the twentith daie of Ianuarie. The firſt paiment of the ſaid reléefe, to be had, made, & paid, at the receipt of the kings exchecker, before the firſt daie of Maie next comming. And the ſecond to be made and paid, at the ſaid receipt, before the twentith daie of Aprill, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God after the computation of the church of England 1550. And the third paiment to be had and made at the ſaid receipt, before the twentith daie of Aprill, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord 1551. And the ſummes abouesaid of and for the ſaid reléefe, ſhall be ſet, taſked, and demanded, taken, gathered, leuied, and paid, vnto the vſe of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſours, in forme abouesaid, as well within liberties, franchiſes, ſanctuaries, ancient demeans, and other whatſoeuer place exempt, or not exempt, as without, except ſuch ſhires, places, and perſons, as ſhall be forpriſed, in and by this preſent act, anie grant, charter, preſcription, vſe or libertie, by reaſon of anie letters patents, or other priuilege, preſcription, allowance of the ſame, or whatſoeuer other matter of diſcharge héeretofore to the contrarie made, granted, vſed, or obteined notwithſtanding. And it is further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie ſuch perſon, as well ſuch as be borne vnder the kings obeiſance, as euerie other perſon ſtranger borne,denizen,or not denizen,inhabiting within this realme, or within Wales,or other the kings dominions,which at that time of the ſaid aſſeſſing or taxation yéerlie to be had or made, ſhalbe out of this realme, and out of Wales, and haue goods or chattels within this realme or in Wales,ſhalbe charged and chargeable for the ſame,by the certificat of the inhabitants of the parties,where ſuch goods,chattels,lands,tenements,or other the premiſſes then ſhalbe,or in ſuch other place where ſuch perſon or his factor, deputie or atturnie, ſhall haue his moſt reſort vnto, within this realme,or in Wales, in like maner as if the ſame perſon were or had béene at that time of the ſame aſſeſſing within this realme. And that euerie perſon, abiding or dwelling within this realme, or without this realme,ſhalbe charged and chargeable to the ſame reléeſe,granted by this act, according & after the rate of the value of his ſubſtance, goods and chattels, & other premiſſes, as ſuch perſon ſo to be charged,ſhalbe ſet at in the time of the ſaid aſſeſſing, or taxation vpon him to be made, and in none otherwiſe.

And further we the kings ſubiects doo giue and grant fréelie to his highnes, one other reléeſe to be paied yéerelie during thrée yéeres, at the receipt of the kings excheker, after the rate and in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie, of euerie ew, kept for the moſt part of the yéere in ſeuerall,ſalt or freſh marſhes,or in ſeuerall paſture, that is to ſaie, grounds not common, nor commonlie vſed to be tilled,iij.d.Of euerie wether and other ſhere ſhéepe kept in paſture or marſhes, as is aforſaid,ij.d. And of euerie ſhere ſhéepe kept on commons or on ſeuerall grounds,commonlie vſed to be tilled,thrée halfe pence, to be paid yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, by the owner or owners of the ſame ſhéepe,& not by anie perſon that hath the ſame ſhéepe in farme, or by leaſe, paieng a rent,or anie other profit for the ſame,or which is,or ſhalbe bound by anie maner of couenant,or ſuertie to reſtore the ſame or as manie ſhéepe,or the value thereof at anie time.

Prouided alwaies,& be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon not hauing aboue the number of ten ſhere ſhéepe,ſhall paie yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéers, one halfe penie for the poll of euery ſuch ſhere ſhéepe,& that euerie perſon hauing aboue x.ſhere ſhéepe,& not aboue xx.ſhall paie for euerie of them but j.d.during euerie of the ſaid iij. yéeres, anie thing before in this grant of the reléeſe of ſheepe conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. The firſt paiment of the ſaid reléeſe of ſheepe,to be made before the firſt daie of Nouember next comming: the ij. before the firſt daie of Nouember, which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1550, and the third before the firſt daie of Nouember, which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1551.

Prouided alwaies,& be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that if the value of the ſhéepe, chattell,& other moueable goods of him,or hir,that hath ſhéepe chargable to the paiment of the ſaid reléeſe,being rated & gathered into one whole and entier ſumme and value,ſhalbe found greater,and more for the aduancement of this reléeſe than the paiment that ought to be made by the poll of the ſaid ſhéepe, as is before declared, that then the owner of the ſaid ſhéepe ſhall not be chargeable with the paiment, after the rate of the poll. And if it ſhall appeare, that the paiment after the rate of the poll ſhall excéed in value, and be more beneficiall to the king than the monie rated of the whole ſubſtance of anie perſon: that then ſuch perſon hauing ſhéepe ſhalbe charged to paie after the rate of the poll, and not after the value of his entier ſubſtance. The reléeſe paied the yéere before of his entier ſubſtance to be taken and accounted as parcell of the ſumme that ſhalbe due and paiable in the whole at the yéeres end,vpon the account made for the poll of his ſhéepe.

Alſo we the kings ſaid ſubiects by the authoritie aforeſaid, doo giue and grant vnto the kings maieſtie one other reléeſe, that is to ſaie eight pence of the pound, of the price and value of all and ſingular woollen clothes, karſeies, friſes, cottens, kendals, and all other kinds of woollen clothes,of what ſort or making ſoeuer they be, that from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming,during thrée yéeres then next following ſhalbe made by anie perſon to be put to ſale,the ſame reléeſe to be leuied and gathered yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres of the maker of the ſaid cloth,in ſuch manner and forme as hereafter in this act ſhalbe declared.

Prouided alwaies,and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that if it ſhall appeare that the rate of viij.d. of the pound of the price and value of the cloth, by ſuch clothier made as is aforeſaid, ſhall excéed the rate of twelue pence of the pound, of his goods and chattels, that then euerie ſuch clothier ſhall paie onelie after the rate of eight pence of the pound of the clothes, and not after the value of his goods and chattels, the reléeſe paid the firſt yéere of his entier ſubſtance to be taken and accounted as parcell of the ſumme that ſhalbe due and paiable in the whole at the firſt yéeres end vpon account,for the clothes by him made as is aforeſaid.The ſecond reléeſe paied of his entier ſubſtance, to be taken and accounted as parcell of the ſumme that ſhalbe due and paiable in the whole at the ſecond yéeres end vpon account for the clothes by him made as is aforeſaid. And the third reléeſe paied of his entier ſubſtance to be taken and accounted as parcell of the ſumme that ſhalbe due and paiable in the whole at the third yéeres end vpon account for the clothes by him made as is aforeſaid.

Prouided alſo,and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon,to the intent to defraud the kings maieſtie of the reléeſes granted by this act, or anie part thereof, doo colour and take vpon him,by the aſſent or conſent of the true owner therof to be owner or proprietarie of anie goods,ſhéepe,clothes,or other things chargeable to the paiment of the ſaid reléeſe, and in déed ſhalbe found, tried,or proued, not to be iuſt & right owner thereof,vpon anie information thereof to be made in the kings court of excheker within two yéeres next after ſuch offenſe, that not onelie ſuch goods,ſheepe,clothes,and other things,or the value thereof ſhall be forfeited to the king,but alſo the partie ſo falſlie colouring the ſame,or pretending to be owner or proprietarie of the ſame,ſhall forfeit and loſe to the king, the treble value thereof, to be leuied of his goods and chattels,lands and tenements,to the kings vſe.

Prouided alwaies, that no perſon be or ſhall be compelled to be anie commiſſioner, to and for the execution of this preſent act, but onelie in the ſhire where he dwelleth and inhabiteth, and that anie perſon being aſſigned to the contrarie thereof, in anie wiſe ſhall not be compelled to put in execution the effect of this act, or anie part thereof. And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the commiſſioners and euerie of them which ſhall be named, limited and appointed, according vnto this act, to be commiſſioners in euerie ſuch ſhire, riding, lath, wapentake, rape, citie, towne, borough, iſle, or anie other place, that the ſaid commiſſioners and none other, ſhall trulie, effectuallie, and diligentlie for their part execute the effect of this preſent act, according to the tenor thereof in euerie behalfe, and none otherwiſe by anie other means, without omiſſion, fauour, dread, malice, or anie other thing to be attempted and doone by them, or anie of them, to the contrarie heereof: and the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid commiſſion, and none other, for the execution of the ſaid commiſſion and act, ſhall the firſt yeare of the paiment of this releefe of goods, before the twentith daie of March, and the other two yeeres, yeerelie before the ſixteenth daie of Ianuarie, by vertue of the commiſſions deliuered vnto them, in forme aboueſaid, direct their ſeuerall or ioint precept vnto eight, ſeauen, ſix, fiue, foure or three, or mo, as for the number of the inhabitants ſhall be requiſit, of the moſt ſubſtantiall, diſcreet, and honeſt perſons inhabitants, to be named by the ſaid commiſſioners, or by as manie of them as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid commiſſion, of and in hundreds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, wards, pariſhes, townes, and other places, aſwell within liberties, franchiſes, ancient demeanes, places exempted, and ſanctuaries, as without, within the limits of the ſhires, ridings, laths, wapentakes, rapes, cities, townes, boroughs, or Iſle aforeſaid, and other places, within the limits of their commiſſion, and to the conſtables, ſubconſtables, bailiffes, and other like officers or miniſters of euerie of the ſaid hundreds, townes, wards, laths, wapentakes, pariſhes, and other places beforeſaid: as to the ſaid commiſſioners, and euerie number of them, vnto three or two of them, by their diſcretion in diuiſion, ſhall ſeeme expedient, as by the manner and vſe of the parties ſhall be requiſit, ſtreictlie by the ſame precept charging and commanding the ſame inhabitants, conſtables, and other head officers aforeſaid, to whome ſuch precept ſhall be ſo directed, to appeare in their proper perſons before the ſaid commiſſioners, or ſuch number of them as they ſhall diuide themſelues, according to the tenor of the ſaid commiſſion at certeine daies and places by the ſaid commiſſioners, or anie number of them as is aboueſaid, within cities, boroughs, or townes corporat, or without in anie other place as is aforeſaid, by their diſcretions, ſhall be limited thereunto, to doo and accompliſh all that to them, on that part of our ſoueraigne lord the king ſhall be inioined touching this act: commanding further by the ſame precept, that he, to whoſe hands ſuch precept ſhall come, ſhall ſhew or deliuer the ſame to the other inhabitants or officers named in the ſame precept, and that none of them faile to accompliſh the ſame, vpon paine of fortie ſhillings to be forfeited to the king.

And it is further ordeined by the ſaid authoritie of this parlement, that the ſaid daie, and place prefixed, and limited in the ſaid precepts, euerie of the commiſſioners then being in the ſhire, and hauing no ſufficient excuſe for his abſence, ſhall at the ſaid daie and place prefixed for that part, whereunto he was limited, appeare in proper perſon, and there the ſame commiſſioners being preſent, or as manie as ſhall be appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall call, or cauſe to be called before them, the ſaid inhabitants and officers, to whome they haue directed their ſaid precepts, and which had in commandement, there to appeare by the ſaid precept of the ſaid commiſſioners. And if anie perſon ſo warned, make default, vnleſſe he then be letted by ſickneſſe or lawfull excuſes, and that let then to be witneſſed by the oths of two credible perſons: or if anie ſo appearing, refuſe to be ſworne in forme following, to forfeit to the king fortie ſhillings, and ſo at euerie time during the ſaid three yeares, prefixed for the ſame cauſe, vnto ſuch time the number of euerie ſuch perſons haue appeared and certified in forme vnder written; and euerie of them ſo making default, or refuſing to be ſworne, to forfeit to the king fortie ſhillings, and vpon the ſame appearance had, one of the moſt ſubſtantiall inhabitants or officer, ſo there being warned, and appearing before the ſaid commiſſioners, ſhall be ſworne yeerelie during the ſaid three yeares, vpon a booke openlie before the commiſſioners, in forme following.

¶ I ſhall trulie inquire with my felowes that ſhall be charged with me, of the hundred, wapentake, ward, towne, or other place, of the beſt and moſt value of the ſubſtance of euerie perſon, dwelling and abiding within the limits of the places, that I and my fellowes ſhall be charged with, and of other which ſhall haue his or their moſt reſort vnto anie of the ſaid places, and chargeable with anie ſumme of monie by this act, of this ſaid releefe, and of all other articles that I ſhall be charged with touching the ſaid act, and according to the intent of the ſame, and thervpon as neere as it maie, or ſhall come to my knowledge, not onelie trulie to preſent and certifie before you, the names, ſurnames, additions, and the beſt and vttermoſt ſubſtance, and values of euerie of them, of their goods, cattels, debts, and other things, chargeable by the ſaid act, and how manie ſtrangers, denizens, or not denizens, being aboue the age of twelue yeeres be reſiant and dwelling within the limits of my charge, of what value in goods, and other things, chargeable to the paiment of this releefe they be, and whether they be houſholders or ſeruants, or otherwiſe, vnder the rule and gouernement of their parents, without anie concealement, fauour, loue, affection, dread, feare, or malice, ſo helpe me God, and the holie contents of this booke.

And euerie other perſon, that ſhall appeare there yeerelie by the ſaid precepts, ſhall make like oth, and vpon the oth ſo taken as is beforeſaid by the inhabitants and officers of euerie hundred, ward, wapentake, towne, or other place, the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall yeerelie openlie there read, or cauſe to be read vnto them, the ſaid rates, & openlie declare the effect of their charge vnto them, in what manner and forme they ought and ſhould make their certificats, according to the rates and ſums thereof aboueſaid, and of all manner of perſons, aſwell of aliens and ſtrangers, denizens, or not denizens, inhabited within this realme, as of ſuch perſons as be borne within the kings obeiſance chargeable to this act, and of the goods and chattels of fraternities, guilds, corporations, brotherhoods, myſteries, companies, and communalties, and other as is aboueſaid, and of perſons being in the parties of beyond the ſea, hauing, goods or chattels within this realme as is beforeſaid, and of all goods being in cuſtodie, to the vſe of anie other, as is aboueſaid, by the which information and ſhewing, the ſaid perſons ſhall haue ſuch plaine knowledge of the true intent of this preſent act, and of the manner of their certificat, that the ſame perſons ſhall haue no reaſonable cauſe to excuſe them by ignorance. And after ſuch othes, and the ſtatute of the ſaid releefe, and the manner of the ſaid certificat, to be made in writing, conteining the names, ſurnames, and additions of euerie perſon, and whether he be borne without the kings obeiſance or within, and the beſt value of euerie perſon in euerie degree of the value of goods and chattels, debts, and euerie thing to their ſaid certificat requiſit and neceſſarie to them declared: the ſaid commiſſioners there being, ſhall by their diſcretions appoint and limit vnto the ſaid perſons another daie and place to appeare before the ſaid commiſſioners, and charging the ſaid perſons, that they in the meane time ſhall make diligent inquirie by all waies and means of the premiſſes, and then and there euerie of them, vpon paine of forfeiture of twentie ſhillings to the king, to appeare at the ſaid new prefixed daie and place, there to certifie vnto the ſaid commiſſioners in writing, according to their ſaid charge, and according to the true intent of the ſaid grant of releefe, and as to them in manner aforeſaid hath beene declared and ſhewed by the commiſſioners, at which daie and place ſo to them prefixed, if anie of the ſaid perſons make default, or appeare, and refuſe to make the ſaid certificat: that then euerie of them ſo offending, to forfeit to the king fortie ſhillings, except onelie a reaſonable excuſe for his default by reaſon of ſickneſſe, or otherwiſe by the oth of two credible perſons there witneſſed be had: and of ſuch as appeare readie to make certificat, as is aforeſaid, the ſaid commiſſioners there being ſhall take and receiue the ſame certificat and euerie part thereof, and the names, values and ſubſtance of euerie perſon ſo certified. And if the ſame commiſſioners ſee cauſe reaſonable, they ſhall examine the ſame preſentours thereof, and therevpon the ſaid commiſſioners at the daies and place by their agreement among themſelues, ſhall yeerelie during the ſaid three yeares, openlie there prefix a daie at a certeine place or places, within the limits of their commiſſion by their diſcretion, for their further proceeding to the ſaid aſſeſſing of the ſame releefe, and therevpon at the ſaid daie of the ſaid certificat as is beforeſaid taken, the ſame commiſſioners ſhall make their precept or precepts to the conſtables, ſubconſtables, bailiffes or other officers of ſuch hundreds, wapentakes, townes, or other places aforeſaid, as the ſame commiſſioners ſhall be of, compriſing and conteining in the ſame precept, the names, ſurnames, and additions of all perſons preſented before them in the ſaid certificats: of whome if the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhall be therevnto appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall then haue vehement ſuſpect to be of more greater value or ſubſtance in goods, chattels, or ſummes of monie owing to them, or other ſubſtance beforeſaid, than vpon ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be certified, the ſame commiſſioners ſhall make their precept or precepts, directed to the conſtables, bailiffes, and other officers, to whome ſuch precept ſhall be directed, to warne ſuch perſons whoſe names ſhall be compriſed in the ſaid precept at their manſions, or to their perſons, that the ſame perſons ſo named in ſuch precepts, and euerie of them, ſhall perſonallie appeare before the ſaid commiſſioners, at the ſame new prefixed daie and place, there to be ſworne and examined by all waies and means by the ſaid commiſſioners of their greateſt ſubſtance and beſt value, and of all and euerie ſummes of monie owing to them, and other whatſoeuer matter concerning the premiſſes or anie of them according to this act, at which daie and place ſo prefixed, the ſaid commiſſioner then there being, or as manie of them as ſhall be therevnto appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall cauſe to be called the ſaid perſons, whoſe names ſhall be compriſed in the ſaid precept, as it is beforeſaid for their examination. And if anie of the perſons which ſhould be warned, as is beforeſaid, to be examined, which at anie time after the warning, & before the prefixed daie, ſhall be within ſuch place where he may haue knowledge of the ſaid appearance to be made, make default and appeare not, vnleſſe a reaſonable cauſe or elſe a reaſonable excuſe by the oths of two credible perſons before the ſaid commiſſioners be trulie alleaged for his diſcharge, that then euerie of them ſo making default. to be taxed and charged to the king with and at the double ſumme or the rate that he ſhould or ought to haue beene ſet at, for and after the beſt value of his goods and ſubſtance vpon him certified, if he had appeared by the diſcretion of the commiſſioners there being. And in like manner, if anie of them ſuſpected, as is beforeſaid, appeare and refuſe to be ſworne in forme following, then euerie ſuch offendor to be taxed and charged to the king, with and at the double ſumme of the rate that he ſhould or ought to haue beene ſet, for and after the beſt value of his ſubſtance vpon him certified by the ſaid perſon that made the certificat, as is before ſaid, by the diſcretions of the commiſſioners there then being,& euerie of the perſons ſo there then appearing, whoſe names ſhalbe expreſſed in the ſaid precept or precepts, and in whome anie vehement ſuſpect was or ſhalbe had in forme aboueſaid, ſhall trauell with the ſame perſon ſo ſuſpected,by all ſuch waies and meanes they can : and further the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhalbe herevnto appointed by the ſaid commiſſion,by their diſcretion ſhall openlie ſweare the ſame perſon,in this maner and forme following.

¶I ſhall faithfullie,trulie,and plainelie according to my knowledge,ſhew vnto you the kings commiſſioners,and to other by you aſſigned,the beſt and greateſt value or aboue, of all my goods and chattels,and ſummes of monie to me owing,according to the grant of this act of reléeſe, and trulie anſwer to that I ſhalbe examined of touching the premiſſes, without couin or deceipt, ſo helpe me God and the holie contents of this booke.

And if anie perſon that ſhould appeere be excuſed in forme aforeſaid by witnes of credible perſons, the ſame perſon ſhalbe examined by their oths of his or their greateſt and beſt value and ſubſtance ſo lacking and excuſed, and the beſt of their certificat or knowledge , or of the other firſt certificat vpon him or them made,the ſame perſon ſo lacking and excuſed of his appearance to be ſet and rated by the ſaid commiſſioners or otherwiſe,to be ſet and rated in this caſe,as ſhall ſéeme beſt by the diſcretions of the ſaid commiſſioners.And if it happen to be proued by witnes,his owne confeſſion,or other lawfull waies or meanes, within one yéere after anie ſuch oth made, that the ſame perſon ſo taxed and ſworne,was of anie greater or better value in his goods or other things aboue ſpecified at the time of his ſaid oth,than the ſame perſon ſo ſworne did declare vpon his oth, that then ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall loſe and forfeit to the king foure times ſo much in lawfull monie of England,as the ſame perſon ſo ſworne was ſet and taxed at to paie for the ſaid reléeſe.

And if anie perſon certified or rated by vertue of this act,be he commiſſioner or other, to anie maner of value,doo find himſelfe gréeued with the ſame preſentment,ſeſſing,or taxing, and thervpon complaine to the commiſſioners, before whom he ſhalbe rated, ſeſſed or taxed, or before two of them, that then the ſaid commiſſioners , ſhall by all waies and means examine particularlie & diſtinctlie the perſon ſo complaining & other his neighbors by their diſcretion,of euerie goods,chattels,and debts aboue mentioned , and after due examination and perfect knowledge thereof had and perceiued by the ſaid commiſſioners, which ſhall haue power, by the authoritie aforeſaid, the ſaid commiſſioners or two of them,to whome anie ſuch complaint ſhalbe made, by their diſcretions vpon the oth of the ſaid perſon ſo complaining, maie abate, defalke, increaſe, or inlarge the ſame aſſeſment,according as it ſhall appéere to them iuſt vpon the ſaid examination,and the ſame ſumme ſo abated,defalked, increaſed or inlarged by them, to be ſtreated in forme as hereafter inſueth, ſo that he come before the extreats of the ſaid aſſeſſing be deliuered by the ſaid commiſſioners,into the kings excheker. And if it be proued by witnes,his owne confeſſion, or other lawfull waies or means,within a yéere after any ſuch oth made,that the ſame perſon ſo taxed and ſworne, was of anie better, or greater value in goods or other things aboue ſpecified, at the time of his ſaid oth,than the ſame perſon ſo ſworne did declare vpon his ſaid oth, that then euerie ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall loſe and forfeit to the king,foure times ſo much in lawfull monie of England, as the ſame perſon ſo ſworne was ſet,or taxed to paie. And all perſons,ſet, rated, and taxed as is aforeſaid,ſhalbe bound and charged by the ſame,and the ſumme or ſummes vpon him ſet,to be due towards the paiment of this reléeſe,and to be leuied as hereafter ſhalbe ſpecified.

And it is alſo enacted by the ſaid authoritie , that euerie perſon yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe rated,taxed, and ſet, and the ſumme on him ſet, to be leuied at ſuch place, where he and his familie at the time of the ſame preſentment to be made, ſhall kéepe his houſe or dwelling, or where he then ſhalbe moſt conuerſant, abiding or reſiant , or ſhall haue his moſt reſort,and ſhalbe beſt knowen at the time of the ſaid certificat to be made, and no where els. And that no commiſſioner for his reléeſe of goods, ſhalbe rated, or taxed for his goods , but in the ſhire,citie,or other place,where he dwelleth,and is commiſſioner. And if anie perſon chargeable to this act,at the time of the ſaid aſſeſſing, happen to be out of this realme, and out of Wales, or far from the place where he ſhalbe knowne,then he to be ſet where he was laſt abiding in this realme, or within Wales and beſt knowen. And after the ſubſtance and value of euerie perſon knowen by the examination, certificat,and other maner of wiſe,as is aforeſaid, the ſaid commiſſioners,or as manie of them as ſhalbe appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall after the rate aforeſaid, ſet, and tax euerie perſon,according to the rate of ſubſtance, and value of his goods and chattels; whereby the greateſt and moſt beſt ſumme,according to his moſt ſubſtance,by reaſon of this act, ought or maie be ſet or taxed.

Be it alſo ordeined by the ſaid authoritie,that no perſon hauing two manſions, or two places to reſort vnto,or calling himſelfe houſhold ſeruant or waiting ſeruant to the kings highnes, his graces ſiſters, or to anie noble man or woman, ſhalbe excuſed vpon his ſaieng, from the tax of the ſaid reléeſe in either of the places where he maie be ſet, vnleſſe he bring a certificat in writing from the commiſſioners,where that he is ſo ſet in déed at one place. And if anie happen to be ſet in two places vpon certificat thereof made,the beſt and moſt ſumme vpon him ſo taxed, to be taken and abide,and the other to be diſcharged: ſo that the ſame certificat of his aſſeſſing and paiment,be made thereof in writing, vnder the ſeales of the commiſſioners,or of as manie of them as ſhalbe appointed by the kings commiſſion, which certificat ſo made ſhall be at all times a ſufficient diſcharge for him, & the collector of the ſame, aſwell againſt anie collector, that ſhall demand the ſame vpon him rated or taxed, as againſt the king and all other perſons.

And if anie perſon that ought to be ſet, by reaſon of his remouing or reſorting to two places, or by reaſon of his ſaieng that he els where was taxed, or by reaſon of anie priuilege, by his dwelling or abiding in anie place, not being forpriſed in this act, or anie otherwiſe by his couin or craft, happen to eſcape from the yeerelie aſſeſſing, and be not ſet, and that prooued by preſentment, examination, or information, before the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhall be by the ſame commiſſion appointed, or by the barons of the kings excheker, or two iuſtices of the peace of that countrie, where ſuch perſon dwelleth: then euerie ſuch perſon, that by ſuch meanes or otherwiſe, wilfullie by couin ſhall happen to eſcape from the aſſeſſing of the ſaid releefs, or of anie of them, and not be rated, taxed, and ſet, ſhall be charged, vpon the knowledge and proofe thereof, with, and at the double value that he ſhould or ought to haue beene ſet at afore, according to his behauior: the ſame double value to be leuied, gathered and paied of his goods and chattels, lands and tenements, towards the ſaid releefe, and further to be puniſhed, according to the diſcretions of the barons, iuſtices or commiſſioners, before whome he ſhall be conuicted for his offenſe and deceipt in that behalfe.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that not onelie euerie aſſeſſor ſhall be rated, taxed, and aſſeſſed yeerelie, during the ſaid three yeeres, for the value of his goods and chattels, by the commiſſioners, or the moſt part of them, by whome he is appointed to be an aſſeſſor, but alſo that euerie commiſſioner aſſigned and deputed, for the ordering, taxing, rating, and leuieng of this releefe, granted to the kings maieſtie, of twelue pence of the pound, of the value of euerie mans goods, dwelling within the precinct and limit of his commiſſion, for his owne ſubſtance in goods, ſhall be ſeſſed, taxed, valued and rated yeerelie, during the ſaid three yeeres, by the examination, taxation and ſeſſing of the reſt of the commiſſioners, named in the ſame commiſſion, or the moſt part of them, after ſuch value of his goods and chattels, as is mentioned in this act. And that all perſons of the eſtate of a baron or baronneſſe, not being maried, and euerie eſtate aboue ſhall be examined and charged of paiment of this releefe of their goods, before the lord chancellor, the lord treaſuror of England, and lord priuie ſeale, for the time being, or other perſons by the kings authoritie to be limited. And they to be charged yeerelie during the ſaid three yeeres, for their goods and ſubſtance, according to their examination aforeſaid. And the ſummes vpon them ſet with the names of collectors appointed, for the gathering and paieng of the ſame, be extreated, deliuered, and certified at daies and places aboue ſpecified by the ſaid chancellor, treaſuror, or lord priuie ſeale for the time being, or ſuch other perſons as ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the taxes and aſſeſſements of the ſaid ſummes, vpon and by the ſaid examination and certificat, as is aforeſaid made, the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall yeerelie during the ſaid three yeeres, within ten daies next after the taxation and aſſeſſement of paiment of the ſaid releeſes, by writing indented to be made of the ſaid taxation and aſſeſſement, vnder the ſeales and ſignes manuels of the ſaid commiſſioners, deliuer vnto ſufficient and ſubſtantiall inhabitants, conſtables, ſubconſtables, bailiffes, or their officers, iointlie of hundreds, townes, pariſhes, and other places aforeſaid, within their limits, or to other ſufficient perſons, inhabitants of the ſame, onelie by the diſcretion of the ſame commiſſioners, and as the place and parties ſhall require, aſwell the particular names and ſurnames, as the remembrance of all ſummes of monie, taxed and ſet, of and vpon euerie perſon, aſwell man as woman chargeable to this act, houſholder, and all other inhabitants and dwellers, and all fraternities, guilds, corporations, myſteries, brotherhoods, companies, and communalties, corporat or not corporat, within the ſaid pariſhes, townes, and places, contributorie to this act of releeſe. By authoritie of which writing or extreat ſo deliuered, the ſaid officers or other perſons ſo named and deputed ſeuerallie, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, immediatlie after the deliuerie of the ſaid writing or extreat, to demand, leuie, and gather of euerie perſon and fraternitie, guild, corporation, myſterie, brotherhood, companie, and communaltie, corporat or not corporat, therein ſpecified, the ſumme or ſummes in the ſame writing or extreat compriſed. And for non paiment thereof, to diſtreine the goods and chattels, of ſuch perſon, fraternitie, guild, corporation, myſterie, brotherhood, companie, and communaltie, corporat or not corporat, and the diſtreſſe ſo taken, to keepe by the ſpace of eight daies at the coſts and charges of the owner thereof. And if the ſaid owner doo not paie ſuch ſumme of monie, as ſhall be taxed by this act, within the ſame eight daies, then the ſaid diſtreſſe to be appriſed, by foure, three, or two of the inhabitants, where ſuch diſtreſſe is taken, and alſo to be ſold by the ſaid conſtable and other collector for the paiment of the ſaid monie, and the ouerplus comming of the ſale and keeping thereof (if anie be) to be immediatlie reſtored to the owner of the ſame diſtreſſe, which ſaid officers and other perſons ſo deputed, to aſke, take, gather, and leuie the ſaid ſummes, ſhall anſwer and be charged for their portion, onelie to them aſſigned or limited, to be gathered, leuied, & compriſed in the ſaid writing or extreat to them, as is aforeſaid deliuered, vnto the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and the ſaid ſumme in that writing or extreat compriſed, to paie vnto the high collector or collectors of that place, for the collection of the ſame, in maner and forme vnder written, to be named and deputed. And the ſame inhabitants and officers ſo gathering the ſame particular ſums for their collection thereof, ſhall reteine for euerie twentie ſhillings ſo by them receiued and paid two penſe, and that to be alowed at the paiment of their collection by them to be made by the high collector or collectors.

Prouided alwaies, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon not being the kings ſubiect naturallie borne, denizen or not denizen, being aboue the age of twelue yéeres, and not worth twentie ſhillings in goods, and be at the time of the paiment of the reléeſes of eight penſe, due by this act of euerie ſuch perſon, or at anie time during the ſaid thrée yéers, in ſeruice with anie man or woman, or vnder the gouernance of his or hir father or mother, that euerie ſuch maiſter or maiſters, father or mother, ſhall be charged with the paiment thereof, for ſuch perſon in like maner and forme, as he or ſhe is, or ought to be for the reléeſes due by themſelues. And that it ſhall be lawfull for euerie ſuch maiſter and maiſters, to defalke, abate, and reteine of the wages of ſuch ſeruant, ſo much as he or ſhe had before paid for ſuch ſeruant towards the paiment of the ſaid reléeſes.

And further be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yeares, name ſuch ſufficient and able perſons, which then ſhall haue and poſſeſſe lands, or other hereditaments in their owne right, of the yéerelie value of ten pounds, or goods, to the value of an hundred marks at the leaſt, and the ſame perſons ſeuerallie by the diſcretions of the ſame commiſſioners in ſhires, ridings, lathes, wapentakes, rapes, cities, townes corporat, and other whatſoeuer places, aſwell within places priuileged, as without, not being forpriſed in this act, to be high collectors, and haue the collection and receipt of the ſaid ſummes, ſet and leuiable within the precinct, limits, and bounds where they ſhall be ſo limited, to gather and receiue, to euerie of the which collectors ſo ſeuerallie named, the ſaid commiſſioners or two of them at the leaſt, yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, within twelue daies next after the ſaid whole ſumme of the ſaid reléeſes, ſhall be ſet and rated by all the limits of the ſame their commiſſions, or in ſuch limits as the high collectors ſhall be ſo ſeuerallie aſſigned, ſhall vnder their ſeales and ſignes manuels, deliuer one extreat indented in parchment to euerie of the ſame high collectors, compriſing in it the names of all ſuch perſons as were aſſigned to leuie the ſaid particular ſums, and the ſums of euerie hundred, wapentake, towne, or other place aforeſaid, with the names and ſurnames of the perſons ſo chargeable, according to the extreat ſo firſt thereof made (as beforeſaid, and deliuered) and the collector ſo to be aſſigned ſhall be charged to anſwer the whole ſum compriſed in the ſaid extreat limited to his collection, as is aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners, hauing authoritie by this act to name the ſaid high collectors of the ſaid reléeſes yéerelie, during the ſaid thrée yeares, ſhall immediatlie vpon their nomination and election, take by authoritie of this preſent parlement, ſufficient recogniſances or obligations without anie fée or reward to be paid therefore, of euerie perſon, ſo by them to be named to the high collector, to be bound to the king in the double ſumme, of the ſumme of his collection, and to be indorſed and made vpon ſuch condition, that if the ſaid collector, his heires, or executors, doo trulie content and paie to the vſe of the king, his heires, or executors, in his receipt of his excheker, before the daie appointed by this act, ſo much of the ſaid ſumme of monie, allotted and appointed to his collection, as he ſhall collect and gather, and content and paie the reſidue of his collection and charge within one moneth next after ſuch time, as he hath gathered and collected the ſame reſidue, that then the ſaid recogniſance or obligation to be void, or elſe to ſtand in his full ſtrength and vertue. Which recogniſance or obligation ſo taken, the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall certifie and deliuer into the kings excheker, with the certificat of the ſaid taxation and rate of the ſaid reléeſe, at and by the time to them preſcribed and appointed by this act; vpon paine of forfeiture of ten pounds to the king for euerie recogniſance or obligation not certified. And that euerie ſuch collector ſo elected, named, and choſen, vpon requeſt to him made, ſhall knowledge and make the ſaid recogniſance or obligation, vpon like paine and forfeiture of ten pounds to the king for the refuſall thereof: and euerie ſuch collector, ſo yéerelie deputed, hauing the ſaid extreat in parlement, as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue authoritie by this act yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yeares, to appoint daies and places, within the circuit of his collection for the paiment of the ſaid reléeſe to him to be made, and thereof to giue warning by proclamation or otherwiſe, to all the ſaid conſtables, or other perſons or inhabitants, hauing the charge of the particular collection within the hundreds, pariſhes, townes, or other places by him or them limited, to make paiment for their ſaid particular collection of euerie ſumme, as to them ſhall apperteine. And if at the ſaid daie and place ſo limited and prefixed by the ſaid collector, the ſaid conſtables, officers, or other perſons or inhabitants (as is aforeſaid) for the ſaid particular collection, appointed and aſſigned within ſuch hundred, citie, towne, or other place, doo not paie vnto the ſaid collectors, the ſumme within their ſeuerall hundreds, townes, pariſhes and other places, due and compriſed in the ſaid extreats thereof to them deliuered by the ſaid commiſſioners, as is beforeſaid, or ſo much thereof, as they haue by anie meane receiued (two penſe of euerie pound for the ſaid particular collection, as is before ſaid, alwaies to be thereof allowed, excepted and abated) that then it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid high collectors and euerie of them, and to their aſſignes, to diſtreine euerie of the ſaid conſtables, officers, and other inhabitants for their ſaid ſeuerall and particular collection of the ſaid ſummes, compriſed in the ſaid extreat and writing thereof, to them and euerie of them, as is before expreſſed, deliuered, or for as much of the ſame ſumme, as ſo then ſhall happen to be gathered and leuied, being behind and vnpaid, by the goods and chattels of euerie of them ſo being behind, and the diſtreſſe ſo taken, to be kept, appriſed and ſold, as is aforeſaid: and thereof to take and leuie the ſumme ſo then being behind and vnpaid, and the ouerplus comming of the ſale of the ſaid diſtreſſe (if anie be to be reſtored and deliuered vnto the owners) in forme aboue remembred.

Prouided alwaies, that no perſon inhabiting in anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, ſhall be aſſeſſed to be an aſſeſſour or collector, of or for anie part of the ſaid releefe, in anie place or places out of the ſaid citie, borough, or towne corporat where he dwelleth. And it is alſo by the ſaid authoritie enacted, that if anie inhabitant, or officer, or whatſoeuer perſon or perſons charged, to and for the collection or receipt of anie part or portion of the ſaid releefe, in anie of the ſaid three yeeres, by anie manner of meane, according to this act, or anie perſon or perſons for themſelues, or as keeper, deputie, factor, or atturneie of and for anie other perſon or perſons, of anie goods and chattels, and the owner thereof at the time of the ſaid aſſeſſing to be made, being out of this realme, or in anie other parts not knowne, or of or for the goods and chattels of anie other perſon or perſons, or of anie corporation, fraternitie, guild, myſterie, companie, or other whatſoeuer communaltie, being incorporat, or not incorporat, and all perſons hauing in their rule, gouernance, or cuſtodie anie goods or chattels, at the time of the ſaid aſſeſſing, or anie of them to be made, or which for anie cauſe, for and by collection, or for himſelfe, or for anie other, by reaſon that he hath the rule, gouernance, or cuſtodie of anie goods or chattels, of anie other perſon or perſons, fraternitie, guild, corporation, communalitie, companie, or myſterie, or anie ſuch other like, or as factor, deputie, or atturneie, or for anie perſon, ſhall be taxed, rated, valued, and ſet to anie ſumme or ſummes, by reaſon of this act, and after the taxation or aſſeſſing vpon anie ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be charged with the receipt of the ſame, happen to die, or depart from the place where he was ſo taxed and ſet, or his goods and chattels to be ſo eloined, or in ſuch priuie and couert manner kept, and the ſaid perſon or perſons charged with the ſame, by extreats or other writing from the ſaid commiſſioners, cannot ne may leuie the ſame ſumme or ſummes, compriſed within their ſaid extreats by diſtreſſe, within the limits of their collection, as is aforeſaid, or cannot ſell ſuch diſtreſſe, or diſtreſſes, as to be taken for anie of the ſaid yeerelie paiments, before the time limited to the high collector for his paiment to be made in the kings receipt: then vpon relation thereof made, with due examination by the oth or examination of ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be charged with and for the receipt and collection of the ſame, before the ſaid commiſſioners, or one of them, or before the high collector or collectors, where ſuch perſon or perſons, or other as is aforeſaid, their goods and chattels were ſet and taxed, and vpon plaine certificat thereof made into the kings excheker by the ſaid commiſſioners, or anie one of them, or vpon the oth of one of the high collectors in the ſaid court of the excheker, of the dwelling place, names and ſurnames of the ſaid perſons, of whome the ſaid ſummes cannot be leuied and had, as is aforeſaid, then as well the conſtables and other inhabitants appointed for the particular collection againſt the high collectors, as the high collector vpon his account and oth in the ſaid excheker to be diſcharged thereof, and proceſſe to be made for the king out of the ſaid excheker, by the diſcretion of the barons of the ſaid excheker, againſt ſuch perſon, his heires or executors ſo being behind with his paiment. And ouer that, the ſame commiſſioners, to whome anie ſuch declaration of the premiſſes ſhall be made in forme aforeſaid, from time to time, ſhall haue full power and authoritie during the ſaid three yeeres, to direct their precept or precepts, vnto the ſaid perſon or perſons charged with anie ſumme, of, for, or vpon anie ſuch perſon or perſons, or otherwiſe as is aboueſaid, or of anie ſhiriffes, ſtewards, bailiffes, or other whatſoeuer officer, miniſter, perſon or perſons, of ſuch place or places, where anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo owing ſuch ſumme or ſummes, ſhall haue lands and tenements, or other hereditaments, or reall poſſeſſions, goods or chattels, whereby anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indebted, his heires, executors, or aſſignes, or other hauing the cuſtodie, gouernance, or diſpoſition, of anie goods, chattels, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, which ought or may by this act, lawfullie be diſtreined or taken for the ſame, hath, and ſhall haue goods, chattels, lands, tenements, and other poſſeſſions, whereof ſuch ſumme or ſummes, which by anie perſon or perſons may or ought to be leuied, be it within the limit of ſuch commiſſion, where ſuch perſon or perſons was or were taxed, or without, in anie place within this realme of England, Wales, or other the kings dominions, marches or territories: by which precept, as well ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be charged to leuie ſuch monie, as the officers of ſuch place or places where ſuch diſtreſſe maie be taken, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to diſtreine euerie ſuch perſon indebted, charged, or chargeable by this act, or his executors or adminiſtrators, of his goods and chattels, his factors, deputies, leſſees, farmars, and aſſignes, and all other perſons, by whoſe hands, or out of whoſe lands anie ſuch perſon ſhould haue, rent, fee, annuitie, or anie other profit, or which at the time of the ſaid aſſeſſings, ſhall haue goods or chattels, or anie other thing moueable, of anie ſuch perſon or perſons, being indebted or owing ſuch ſumme. And the diſtreſſe ſo taken, to cauſe to be kept, appriſed, and ſold, in like manner and forme as is aforeſaid, for the diſtreſſe to be taken vpon perſons to be taxed to the ſaid releefe, and being ſufficient to diſtreine within the limits of the collectors, inhabitants, or other officers charged, with or for the ſame ſummes, ſo vpon them to be taxed. And if anie ſuch diſtreſſe for non paiment happen to be taken out of the limit of the perſons charged, and aſſigned to leuie the ſame, the perſons ſo charged for the leuieng of euerie ſuch ſum by diſtreſſe, ſhall perceiue and take of the ſame diſtreſſe, for the labor of euerie perſon, going for the execution thereof, for euerie mile that any ſuch perſon ſo laboreth for the ſame, ij.d. And euerie farmar, tenant, factor, or other whatſoeuer perſon being diſtreined, or otherwiſe charged for paiment of anie ſuch ſum or ſums, or anie other ſum, by reaſon of this act, ſhall be of ſuch ſum or ſums, of him or them ſo leuied and taken, diſcharged, and acquited, at his next day of paiment of the ſame, or at the deliuerie of ſuch goods and chattels, as he that is ſo diſtreined, had in his cuſtodie or gouernance againſt him or them, that ſhall be ſo taxed ⁊ ſet: anie grant or writing obligatorie, or other whatſoeuer matter to the contrarie made heeretofore notwithſtanding.

And that euerie officer, vnto whom ſuch precept ſhall be directed, doo his true diligence to execute the ſame vpon euerie perſon ſo being indebted vpon paine to forfeit to our ſouereigne lord the king, for euerie default in that behalfe, xx.s. And that no keeper of anie gaole, from his gaole ſuffer anie ſuch perſon to go at large by letting to baile, or otherwiſe to depart out of his priſon, before he haue paied his ſaid debt, and the ſaid, xx.d. for the ſaid arreſt, vpon paine to forfeit to our ſouereigne lord, xl.s. and the ſame gaoler to paie vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord, the double value aſwell of the rate which the ſaid perſon ſo impriſoned was taxed at, as of the ſaid, xx.d. for the fees. And like proceſſe and remedie in like forme ſhall be granted by the ſaid commiſſioners, at like information of euerie perſon or perſons, being charged with anie ſum of monie for anie other perſon or perſons, by reaſon of the ſaid releefs, euerie of the ſaid three yeeres, and not thereof paied, but wilfullie withdrawne, ne the ſame leuiable within the limit where ſuch perſon was therevnto taxed. And if the ſum or ſums being behind vnpaied, by anie perſon or perſons, as is beforeſaid, be leuied and gathered by force of the ſaid proceſſe, to be made by the ſame commiſſioners; or if in default, or for lacke of paiment thereof, the perſon or perſons ſo owing the ſaid ſum or ſums of monie, by proceſſe of the ſame commiſſioners to be made (as is aforeſaid) be committed to priſon in forme aboueſaid: that then the ſaid commiſſioners, which ſhall award ſuch proceſſe, ſhall make certificat thereof in the ſaid excheker, of that ſhall be doone in the premiſſes in the terme next following, after ſuch ſum or ſums of monie ſo being behind, ſhall be leuied and gathered of ſuch perſon or perſons, and for non paiment of the ſame committed to priſon.

And if it happen anie of the ſaid collectors to be aſſigned, or anie maior, ſhiriffe, ſteward, conſtables, headboroughs, burſholder, bailiffe, or anie other officer or miniſter, or other whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, to diſobeie the ſaid commiſſioners or anie of them, in the reaſonable requeſt to them made by the ſaid commiſſioners, for the yeerelie execution of the ſaid commiſſion, during the ſaid three yeeres, or if anie of the officers or other perſons doo refuſe that to them ſhall apperteine or belong to doo, by reaſon of anie precept to be to him or them directed, or anie reaſonable commandement, inſtance, or requeſt touching the premiſſes, or other default in anie appearance, or collection doo make, or if anie perſon being ſuſpect, or not to be indifferentlie taxed, as is aforeſaid, doo refuſe to be examined according to the tenor of this act, before the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhall be therevnto aſſigned, as is aforeſaid, or will not appeare before the ſame commiſſioners, vpon warning to him made, or elſe make reſiſtance or reſcous vpon anie diſtreſſe, vpon him to be taken for anie parcell of the ſaid releefe, or commit anie miſbehauior in anie maner of wiſe, contrarie to this act, or commit anie wilfull omiſſion, or other whatſoeuer wilfull non dooing or miſdooing, contrarie to the tenor of this act or grant: the ſame commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, vpon probable knowledge of anie ſuch miſdemeanors, had by information or examination, ſhall and maie ſet vpon euerie ſuch offendor, for euerie ſuch offenſe in name of a fine by the ſame offendor to be forfeited, xx.s. or vnder, by the diſcretion of the ſame commiſſioners. And further the ſaid commiſſioners, ⁊ euerie number of them, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue authoritie by this preſent parlement, to puniſh euerie ſuch offendor by impriſonment, there to remaine, and to be deliuered by their diſcretion, as ſhall ſeeme to them conuenient. The ſaid fines (if any ſuch be to be certified by the ſaid commiſſioners, that ſo aſſeſſed the ſame into the ſaid kings excheker, there to be leuied and paid by the collectors of that parties for the ſaid releefs returned into the ſaid excheker, to be therewith charged with the paiment of the ſaid releefs, in ſuch maner, as if the ſaid fines had beene ſet and taxed vpon the ſaid offendors for the ſaid releefs.

It is alſo enacted by the ſaid authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie of the ſaid high collectors, which ſhall account for anie part of the ſaid reléefs in the kings exchequer, vpon their ſeuerall ſaid accounts to be yéelden, ſhall be allowed yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, for euerie pound limited to his collection, whereof anie ſuch collector ſhall be charged and yéeld account, viz. as parcell of their ſaid charge, that is to ſaie, two penſe of euerie pound thereof, for ſuch perſons as then haue had the particular collection in the townes and other places (as is aforeſaid) ſpecified in his collection: and other two penſe of euerie pound thereof, euerie of the ſaid chéefe collectors there accountant, to receiue to their owne vſe for their labor and charge, in and about the premiſſes: and two penſe of euerie pound reſidue to be deliuered, allowed, and paied by the ſaid collector, ſo being thereof allowed to ſuch of the commiſſioners, as ſhall take vpon them the buſineſſe and labor for and about the premiſſes: that is to ſaie, euerie collector to paie that commiſſioner or commiſſioners, which had the ordering and the writings, of and for the ſaid reléefs, where the ſaid collector or collectors had their collection, for expenſes of the ſaid commiſſioners, ſo taking vpon them the ſaid buſineſſe and labor of their clerks, writing the ſaid precepts & extreats for the ſaid collections, the ſame laſt two penſe of euerie pound, to be diuided among the ſaid commiſſioners, hauing regard to the labour and buſineſſe taken by them and their ſaid clerks, in and about the premiſſes, for which part ſo to the ſaid commiſſioners atteining, the ſaid commiſſioners and euerie of them iointlie and ſeuerallie for his or their ſaid part, maie haue his remedie againſt the ſaid collector or collectors, which thereof béene, and might haue béene allowed, by action of debt, in which the defendant ſhall not wage his law, neither protection or other eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

And that no perſon now being of the number of the companie of this preſent parlement, nor anie commiſſioner, ſhall be named or aſſigned to be anie collector, ſubcollector, or preſentor, of the ſaid reléefs, or of anie part thereof, nor no commiſſioner ſhall be compelled to make anie preſentment or certificat, other than in the kings exchequer, or for or concerning the ſaid reléefs, or any part thereof, in anie of the ſaid two yéeres: and in likewiſe that none other perſon, that ſhall be named or aſſigned to be commiſſioner in anie place, to and for the execution of this act of reléefs in anie of the ſaid thrée yéeres, be or ſhall be aſſigned or named head collector in anie of the ſaid thrée yéeres of the ſaid reléefs, neither of anie part thereof. And that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, which ſhall be named and appointed (as is aforeſaid) to be head collectors, in and for one of the ſaid thrée yéeres, ſhall not be compelled to be collector for the other and laſt yéere. And the ſaid collectors, which ſhall be aſſigned for the collection of the ſaid reléefs, or of anie part thereof, and euerie of them be and ſhall be acquited and diſcharged of all maner fées, rewards, and of euerie other charge in the kings exchequer, or elſewhere, of them or anie of them, by reaſon of that collection, paiment, or accounts, or anie thing concerning the ſame to be asked. And that if anie perſon receiue and take anie fée, rewards, or pleaſures of anie ſuch accountant: that then he ſhall forfeit to the king, for euerie penie or value of penie ſo taken, twentie penſe, and ſuffer impriſonment at the kings pleaſure.

And after the taxing and aſſeſſing of the ſaid yéerelie reléefs (as beforeſaid) had and made, and the ſaid extreats thereof in parchment vnto the collectors (in maner and forme before rehearſed) deliuered, the ſaid commiſſioners which ſhall take vpon them the execution of this act, within the limits of their commiſſion, by their agréements, ſhall haue méetings togither, at which méeting euerie of the ſaid commiſſioners, which then ſhall haue taken vpon them the execution of anie part of the ſaid commiſſion, ſhall by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputie, trulie certifie and bring forth vnto the other commiſſioners named in the ſame commiſſion, the certificat and preſentment made before him and ſuch other commiſſioners as were limited with him in one limit, ſo that the ſame certificats maie be accounted and caſt with other certificats of the other limits within the ſame commiſſion: and then the ſaid commiſſioners, and euerie number of them, vnto two at the leaſt (as is aforeſaid) if they be in life, or their executors, or adminiſtrators of their goods, if they be then dead, ſhall iointlie and ſeuerallie as they were diuided within their limits, vnder their ſeales yéerelie, during the ſaid thrée yéeres, by their diſcretion, make one or ſeuerall writings indented, conteining in it, aſwell the names of the ſaid collectors by the commiſſioners, for ſuch collection and account in the exchequer, and paiment in the ſaid receipt, deputed and aſſigned, as the groſſe and ſeuerall ſummes, written vnto euerie ſuch collector, to receiue the ſaid reléefs, and alſo all fines, amerciaments, and other forfeitures, if anie ſuch by reaſon of this act, happen to be within the precinct and limit of their commiſſion to be certified into the kings exchequer, by the ſaid commiſſioners yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, before the daies of paiment thereof, at the ſaid receipt limited and appointed. In which writing or writings indented ſo to be certified, ſhall be plainelie declared and expreſſed, aſwell the whole and entire ſummes and ſumme of the ſaid reléefs, ſeuerallie limited to the collection of the ſaid collectors, as the names of the ſaid collectors ſeuerallie deputed and aſſigned to the collection of the ſaid ſummes, ſo that none of the ſaid collectors ſo certified in the ſaid exchequer, ſhall be compelled there to account, or to be charged, but onelie to and for the ſums limited to his collection, and not to or for anie ſumme limited to the collection of his fellowes, but that euerie of them ſhall be ſeuerallie charged for their parts limited to their collection. And if the ſaid commiſſioners, ioined in one commiſſion, amongſt themſelues, in that matter cannot agrée, or if anie of them be not readie, or refuſe to make certificat, with other of the ſame commiſſioners, that then the ſame commiſſioners maie make ſeuerall indentures in forme aforeſaid, of their ſeuerall limits or ſeparations of collectors within the limits of their commiſſion, vpon and in the hundreds, wards, wapentaks, laths, rapes, or ſuch other like diuiſions, within their ſaid ſeuerall limits of their commiſſion, as the places there ſhall require to be ſeuered and diuided, and as to the ſame commiſſioners ſhall ſeeme to make diuiſions of their limits or collections for the ſeuerall charges of the ſame collectors, ſo that alwaies one collector ſhall be charged and account for his part, to him to be limited onelie by himſelfe, and not for anie ſumme limited to the part of anie of his fellowes. And the charge of euerie of the collectors, to be ſet and certified ſeuerallie vpon them, and euerie ſuch collector vpon his account and paiment of the ſummes of monie limited within his collection to be ſeuerallie by himſelfe acquited and diſcharged in the ſaid excheker, without paieng anie maner of fees or rewards to anie perſon or perſons for the ſame, vpon the paine and penaltie laſt aboueſaid, and not to be charged for anie portion of anie other collectors. And if anie commiſſioner after he hath taken certificat of them, that (as is aforeſaid) ſhall before anie ſuch commiſſioner be examined, and the ſummes rated and ſet, and the books and writings thereof being in his hands, or if anie collector or other perſon charged with anie receipt of anie paiment of anie of the ſaid releefs, or anie other perſon taxed, or otherwiſe by this act charged, with, and for anie parcell of the ſaid releefs, or with anie other ſumme or fine, amerciament, penaltie, or other forfeiture, happen to die before ſuch commiſſioners, collector, or other whatſoeuer perſon or perſons haue executed, accompliſhed, ſatiſfied, or ſufficientlie diſcharged it, which to euerie ſuch perſon ſhall apperteine or belong to doo, according to this act, then the executors and heires of euerie ſuch perſon, & all other ſeized of anie lands or tenements, that anie ſuch perſon being charged by this act, and deceaſſing before he be diſcharged thereof, or anie other to his vſe onelie had of eſtate of inheritance, at the time that anie ſuch perſon was named commiſſioner, collector, or in any otherwiſe charged with and for anie maner of thing to be doone, ſatiſfied or paied, by reaſon of this act, & all thoſe that haue in their poſſeſſions or hands, anie goods or chattels, that were to anie ſuch perſon at the time of his death, lands or tenements that were the ſame perſons at the time that he was (as is aforeſaid) charged by this act, ſhall be by the ſame compelled and charged to doo and accompliſh in euerie caſe, as the ſame perſon ſo being charged ſhould haue doone, & might haue bin compelled to doo, if he had beene liuing, after ſuch rate of the lands & goods of the ſaid commiſſioner or collector, as the partie ſhall haue in his hands. And if the ſame commiſſioners for cauſes reaſonable them mouing, ſhall thinke it not conuenient to ioine in one certificat, as is aforeſaid, then the ſaid perſon or perſons that ſhall firſt ioine togither, or he that ſhall firſt certifie the ſaid writing indented, as is aforeſaid, ſhall certifie all the names of the commiſſioners of that commiſſion, wherevpon ſuch writings ſhall be there then to be certified with diuiſions of the hundreds, wapentakes, wards, tithings, or other places, to and among ſuch commiſſioners of the ſame commiſſion, with the names of the ſame commiſſioners where ſuch ſeparations & diuiſions ſhall be, with the groſſe ſums of monie, as well of & for the ſaid releefs taxed or ſet, of or within the ſaid hundreds, wards, wapentakes, or other places to him or them diuided or aſſigned, that ſhall ſo certifie the ſaid firſt writing, as of fines, amerciaments, penalties and other forfeitures, if anie happen to be within the ſame limits, whereof the ſame writings ſhall be certified.

And after ſuch writing indented, which (as is aforeſaid) ſhall be certified, and not conteine in it the whole and full ſummes ſet and taxed within the limits of the ſame commiſſion, the other commiſſioners of the ſame, euerie of the ſaid three yeeres, before the daie of paiment of the ſaid releefs, at the receipt limited and appointed by this act, ſhall certifie into the ſaid excheker by their writing or writings indented to be made as is aforeſaid, the groſſe and ſeuerall ſummes ſet and taxed within the places to them limited for the ſaid releefs and other fines, amerciaments, penalties and forfeitures, with the names of the hundreds, wards, wapentakes, and other places to them aſſigned, or elſe by their ſaid writings indented, to certifie at the ſaid place before the daie of paiment thereof at the ſaid receipt, as is aforeſaid, reaſonable cauſes for their excuſes, whie they maie not make ſuch certificat, of and for the ſaid releefs, with fines, amerciaments, penalties, and other forfeitures growing or ſet by reaſon of the cauſes of their lets, or of their non certifieng, as is aboueſaid, or els in default thereof, proceſſe to be made out of the kings excheker againſt the ſaid commiſſioners, and euerie of them not making certificat, as it is aforeſaid, by the diſcretion of the treaſuror and barons of the ſaid excheker.

Prouided alwaies, that if anie perſon or perſons chargeable to this releefe of paiment for his goods, ſhall happen at anie time during the ſaid three yeeres, to be ſet or preſented in two or mo places than one, & the ſame being certified into the kings court of excheker, that then the partie or parties ſo ſet or preſented & certified, taking a corporall oth before the barons of the kings excheker, or before any two of them, or before any perſon or perſons being authorized by commiſſion to be directed from the ſaid barons or anie of them, which commiſſion or commiſſions the ſaid barons or two of them ſhall be authorized & haue full power and authoritie to make by this act, that he or they is, or be the ſame ſelfe perſon or perſons ſo ſet, & that he or they is or be ſet, or preſented in two or mo places than one; and that he or they haue then beene by the ſpace of one yeere, next before the taking of the ſame oth more conuerſant and dwelling in anie one of the ſame places, where he or they ſhall ſo happen to be ſet or preſented than in the other, that then the partie or parties ſo ſet or preſented in two or mo places than one, and ſo taking his oth without any other plee or writing, ſhall be cleerelie diſcharged againſt the king, his heires and ſucceſſors,of euerie of the ſaid aſſeſments and preſentments,ſauing onlie of the aſſeſment and preſentment in the place where he or they was,or were moſt conuerſant and dwelling,as is aforeſaid.

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that the barons of the kings excheker, or two of them for the time being, ſhall not onelie haue full power and authoritie to receiue & take the oth of ſuch partie or parties,as ſhalbe ſo ſet or preſented in any mo places than one,but ſhall alſo vpon the ſame oth or oths ſo taken,diſcharge the partie and parties of all ſuch ſummes of monie as he or they ſhould be in anie wiſe charged with,ſauing onlie of ſuch ſummes of monie, as the ſame partie or parties were ſo ſeſſed at ſuch place and places where he or they were moſt conuerſant and dwelling,as is aforeſaid.

And to the intent the kings maieſtie maie be trulie and iuſtlie anſwered of the ſaid releeſe of the poll of ſhéepe before by vs granted to his highneſſe; be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yeeres,before the firſt daie of Maie, there ſhall be a commiſſion with ten ſcedules, conteining in them the tenor of this act to be annexed to ſuch commiſſion directed,vnder the kings great ſeale of England,into euerie countie,ſhire,riding, citie,borough,towne corporat, and the iſle of Wight, and into all and euerie other place within this realme and other the kings dominions,that is,or ſhall be chargeable to the paiment of the ſaid reléeſe of the poll of ſhéepe to ſuch perſons as the ſame yéere before were commiſſioners for the aſſeſments and taxation of the value of euerie perſons goods and ſubſtance, in the ſame ſhire or other place,or to as manie of them as ſhall be then liuing, and to ſuch other perſons as the ſaid lord chancellor and other with him before named ſhall name and appoint. By the which commiſſion, the commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire by the oths of the perſon, vicar, or curat,and foure,or as manie honeſt perſons of euerie pariſh, village, and hamlet, within the limits of their commiſſion, whereof the conſtable, tithingman, or borſholder ſhall be one, if anie conſtable,tithingman,or borſholder be dwelling in the ſame pariſh, village, or hamlet, and by the oths of as manie other honeſt and diſcréet perſons, as they ſhall thinke conuenient, or otherwiſe by ſuch means and policies as they ſhall thinke beſt,whereby the truth maie appeere of the number and natures of all and ſingular ſhéepe,being within the limits of their commiſſion, whoſe they be, in what towne or pariſh the owner dwelleth, and of what eſtate or degrée he is, and whether for the moſt part of the yéere they be kept in ſeuerall paſtures, or ſeuerall marſhes, or in commons, or grounds commonlie vſed to be tilled: the tenor of which oth heereafter followeth.

¶Ye ſhall diligentlie inquire,and iuſtlie and trulie preſent and certifie vs the kings commiſſioners,what number of ewes,weathers,& other ſhere ſheeps be within the limits of your charge, whoſe they be,in what towne or pariſh the owner dwelleth,of what condition and degrée he is, and whether for the moſt part of the yeere they be kept in ſeuerall paſtures or ſeuerall marſhes, or in commons or grounds commonlie vſed to be tilled, as ye truſt to be ſaued by the merits of Chriſts paſſion.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that yeerlie,during the ſaid thrée yeeres,on the tueſdaie after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of S.Iohn Baptiſt, there ſhall be a generall ſurueie made of all and ſingular ſhéepe,in euerie pariſh,village,and other place within this realme, the iſle of Wight, and other the kings dominions chargeable to the paiment of this reléeſe of ſhéepe,by ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed and ſworne to doo the ſame in maner and forme before rehearſed.

And that vpon ſuch ſurueie,euerie ſhéepe ſhall be taken for a ſhere ſheepe, that is at that time of ſurueie of the age of one yéere,or more,albeit the ſame ſheepe be not at that time ſhorne.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon,to the intent to defraud the execution of this ſtatute,ſhall remooue the ſaid daie of ſurueie,his ſheepe before the ſurueie taken,from the vſuall place where they were commonlie kept for the moſt part of the yeere,or elſe ſhall cauſe them or anie part of them,to be conueied to anie other place whereby they ſhall not be ſurueied, or whereby the king ſhall looſe anie part of the reléeſe to him giuen by this ſtatute,that euerie perſon ſo offending,ſhall forfeit and looſe to the kings maieſtie, treble ſo much as he ought to paie by vertue of this ſtatute.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon ſummoned to appeere before the ſaid commiſſioners,doo make default hauing no reaſonable excuſe, or appearing,ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid oth,or taking the ſaid oth ſhall not diligentlie attend and indeuor the execution thereof,or ſhall not appéere and make preſentment before the ſaid commiſſioners, at ſuch time and place,as he ſhall be appointed,that euerie perſon ſo offending, for euerie ſuch default ſhall forfeit and looſe to the kings maieſtie fortie ſhillings.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that yeerelie during the ſaid thrée yeeres,within one moneth next after the ſurueie of ſhéepe, and the preſentments made by the viewers of the ſheepe in maner and forme as is before declared,the commiſſioners in euerie ſhire, or other place,ſhall all or the moſt part aſſemble themſelues togither,and confer the preſentments made before them of the ſhéepe, with the preſentments before made of the value of the goods and ſubſtance of all perſons within the limits of their commiſſion. And that vpon ſuch collations of the preſentments,if it ſhall appeere vnto them that anie perſon is chargeable by vertue of this act, to paie for the poll of his ſheepe,which before was not charged for his goods; or that if anie perſon within the limits of their commiſſion be chargeable to paie more after the rate of the poll of his ſheepe preſented before them, than he was before for the value of the ſubſtance of his goods, the ſaid commiſſioners, or the more part of them as they ſhall be diuided, ſhall within one moneth next after ſuch aſſemblie by their writings indented to be ſigned and ſealed by them, make for the extreats of all and ſingular ſums of monie, that anie perſon ought to paie for the rate of the poll of his ſhéepe, not being before charged with his goods, or for the ouerplus that anie perſon ought to paie, for that the rate of the poll of his ſheepe doth ſurmount the paiment before made of the value of his goods, and the ſame writings ſhall not onelie deliuer vnto ſufficient and ſubſtantiall inhabitants, conſtables, ſubconſtables, and other officers and perſons iointlie of hundreds, townes, pariſhes, and other places within the limits where the owners dwell, or haue their moſt vſuall abiding, to be leuied, gathered, & receiued of the owner of ſuch ſhéepe, or his executors, or adminiſtrators, but alſo ſhall in like maner deliuer the like writing to the high collector of the ſame limit, to charge him with the receipt thereof of the ſubcollector, or ſubcollectors, and the paiment thereof at the kings receipt. And that the ſaid ſubcollectors and commiſſioners, ſhall not onelie haue for their labor, vj. d. of euerie pound, comming and growing, and to be paied to the kings maieſtie for the reléefe of the poll of the ſhéepe by vertue of this act, but alſo that they and euerie of them ſhall haue the like power and authoritie to gather and leuie the ſame, and all fines and forfeitures comming and growing for the execution & gathering of this reléefe of the poll of ſhéepe, by ſuch like waies & meanes as before in this act be limited and appointed for the leuieng and gathering of the reléefe of goods. And that the ſaid commiſſioners, collectors, and all and euerie other perſon and perſons ſhall behaue, order, and vſe themſelues in all and euerie thing concerning the execution of this part of the ſtatute, touching the leuieng and gathering of the reléefe of the poll of ſhéepe, as before in this act is limited and appointed for to doo touching the reléefe of the ſaid goods, vpon like pains, penalties and forfeitures, as be before declared in this act.

Prouided alwaies, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular ſums of monie due to the kings maieſtie of this reléefe of the poll of ſhéepe, ſhall be gathered by the ſubcollector or high collector of the limits where the owner dwelleth, and in none other place.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners for the ſuruie of the number and value of the ſhéepe, ſhall yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, make returne and certificat vnto the kings excheker before the tenth daie of October, aſwell of the counterpaine of all and euerie extreats deliuered by them to the high collectors, as alſo of all and ſingular preſentments made before them, and of all and ſingular their procéedings concerning the ſaid commiſſion. And that in the end of all and euerie their certificats they ſhall make ſpeciall remembrances and declarations of all & ſingular perſons not dwelling within the limits of their commiſſion, that haue ſheepe within the limits of the ſame commiſſion, where ſuch perſons dwell, and of what ſtate & degrée they be, what number, and what kind of ſhéepe they be, and in what grounds for the moſt part of the yéere they be kept. And that vpon ſuch returne and certificat of the commiſſion, to be made by the commiſſioners for the ſurueie of ſheepe, being conferred with the books of the taxation & value of the ſubſtance of euerie perſon, if it ſhall appeare that the kings maieſtie ought to haue more by anie meanes toward the ſaid reléefe than before was paied or paiable, that then vpon an extreat thereof to be made, out of the ſaid court of the excheker to the high collector of the place where the partie that ought to paie more dwelleth, the ſame collector ſhall be therewith charged, and ſhall gather and leuie the ſame, in like maner and forme as he ought to doo the reſt of his collections.

And to the intent the kings maieſtie maie be iuſtlie anſwered for the reléefe by vs before granted of the price and value of all clothes: be it ordeined and enacted, that the commiſſioners to be appointed for the taxation of the reléefe of the ſubſtance of euerie perſon, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, and of their commiſſion, as they ſhall be diuided, to name, conſtitute, and appoint in euerie citie, borough, towne, hundred, and pariſh, within the limits of their diuiſions by their diſcretions, ſuch and ſo manie honeſt, ſubſtantiall, and diſcréet men to be praiſers of the ſaid cloths, chargeable to the paiment of this reléefe of cloths, as they ſhall thinke conuenient and neceſſarie, and them from time to time to alter and put new in their places, as they ſhall haue occaſion. And that the ſaid praiſers before they take vpon them the appraiſement of ſuch cloths, ſhall be ſworne in maner and forme following.

¶Ye ſhall faithfullie and trulie eſtéeme and ſet the iuſt price and value of all ſuch cloths as ſhall be brought vnto you to be viewed & praiſed, as ye ſhall in your conſciences thinke the ſame worth to be ſold when they ſhall be wrought, and the ſame ſhall not ſuffer to be deliuered out of your cuſtodie, till ye haue made of the colour, kind and price thereof an entrie, both in the booke of the clothier, and alſo of the aulnageor, or his deputie, and ſet to your hands or marks, declaring who was the owner of the cloth, and the kind and price thereof, ſo helpe you God, and by this booke.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all kind of clothes, which from and after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, during the ſpace of thrée yéeres then following, ſhall be made within this realme, or Wales, to be vttered and put to ſale, ſhall be ſealed with the kings ſeale, remaining in the cuſtodie of the aulnageor, or his deputie or deputies, and praiſed by two of the ſaid praiſers at the leaſt, and entred into the books heereafter in this act mentioned, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth, the one halfe to the kings maieſtie, the other to the partie that ſhall ſeize the ſame.

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be two books yéerlie made, of the appraiſing of all and euerie kind of cloth to be made during the ſaid thrée yéers, the one of which books to remaine with the aulnegeor, or his deputie, wherein ſhall be written the colour, kind, and price of all and ſingular cloths, viewed & appraiſed that yéere, according to the tenor of this ſtatute, vnto which booke the owner of euerie cloth, or ſome other perſon for him, and the praiſers ſhall ſet to their hands or marks when the cloth is ſealed: and the other booke ſhall remaine with the owner of the ſaid cloth, wherevnto the ſaid aulnageor and praiſers ſhall ſet their hands and marks. And that the owner of all and euerie cloth chargeable to the paiment of the reléefe of cloths granted by this act, yéerelie within twentie daies after the yéere expired, ſhall deliuer his ſaid booke ſo ſubſcribed or marked with the hands of the aulnageor or his deputie and praiſers to the commiſſioners, for the taxation and aſſeſment of the ſaid reléefe, within the limit where ſuch clothier dwelleth, or to one of them, vpon paine of forfeiture by the ſame clothier, of treble ſo much as he ought to paie to the king, by reaſon of the aforeſaid reléefe of his cloths ſo ſealed.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie aulnageor ſhall yéerelie from and after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt next comming, kéepe a perfect booke of the colour, kind, and price of all and ſingular cloths by him ſealed, and the names of the owners thereof, in maner & forme as is before declared, and the ſame booke yéerelie ſhall make and deliuer to the commiſſioners, for the taxation of goods within the limits where ſuch cloth maker dwelleth, or to one of them, within twentie daies next after the yéere expired.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any aulnageor, or his deputie, doo not make and deliuer the ſaid booke in maner and forme before rehearſed, or doo wilfullie conceale anie cloth by him ſealed, and doo not enter it into the ſaid booke, that for ſuch offenſe the ſaid aulnageor ſhall not onelie forfeit his office, but alſo ſhall make fine at the kings will.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners of that limit, hauing receiued the ſaid books of the aulnageor, or his deputie or deputies, and the owner of the cloths, ſhall confer the rates of the reléefe of the cloths comprehended in the ſaid booke, with the taxation and paiment of the owner of the ſame cleths for his goods. So that if it ſhall appeare thereby to them, that the owner of anie cloth is chargeable to paie for his cloths, which before was not chargeable for his goods, for that ſuch owner ought to paie more after the rate of the reléefe of his cloths conteining in the books deliuered to them, than he was before charged for the value of his ſubſtance of his goods, the ſaid commiſſioners as they be diuided, ſhall within one moneth next after the ſaid books receiued by their writing indented to be ſigned and ſealed by them, make forth extreats of all and ſingular ſums of monie that anie perſon ought to paie for his cloths, not being before charged with his goods, and for the ouerplus that anie ſuch perſon ought to paie, for that the rate of his cloths dooth ſurmount the paiment of the value of his goods before made, and the ſame writing ſhall deliuer to the high collector of the ſame limit, to charge him with the receipt thereof, of the maker of the ſaid cloths, and the paiment thereof at the kings receipt. And that the ſaid high collector ſhall haue the like power & authoritie to gather and leuie the ſame, by ſuch like waies and meanes as before this act be limited and appointed to the ſubcollector, for the leuieng and gathering of the reléefe of goods.

And it is further ordeined and enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall yéerlie, during the ſaid thrée yéeres, make returne and certificat vnto the kings excheker before the tenth daie of October, not onelie of the counterpaine of all and euerie extreats deliuered by him to the high collector, but alſo of the booke receiued of the aulnageor as is aforeſaid, and the praiſers names, and of all and ſingular their procéedings, concerning the paiment of the reléefe of cloths.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie of the ſaid high collectors, which ſhall account for anie part of the ſaid reléefe of cloths in the kings excheker, vpon their ſeuerall ſaid acounts to be yéelden, ſhall be allowed yéerelie during the ſaid thrée yéeres, for euerie pound limited to his collection, whereof anie ſuch collector ſhall be charged and yéeld account, ſix penſe, as parcell of their ſaid charge, that is to ſaie, two penſe of euerie pound thereof for ſuch perſons as be limited to be praiſers, for their paines and labors; and other two penſe of euerie pound thereof, euerie of the ſaid chéefe collectors there accountant to receiue to their owne vſe for their labours and charge in and about the premiſſes: and two penſe of euerie pound reſidue to be deliuered, allowed, and paied by the ſaid collectors, ſo being thereof allowed, to ſuch of the commiſſioners as ſhall take vpon them the buſineſſe and labour for and about the premiſſes, that is to ſaie, euerie collector to paie that commiſſioner or commiſſioners, which had the ordering and writings of and for the reléefe of cloths, where the ſaid collector or collectors had their collection, for expenſes of the ſaid commiſſioners, ſo taking vpon them the ſaid buſineſſe and labour of their clerks, writing the ſaid precepts and extreats for the ſaid collections, the ſame laſt two penſe of euerie pound to be diuided amongſt the ſaid commiſſioners, hauing regard to the labour and buſineſſe taken by them and their ſaid clerks in and about the premiſſes. For which part ſo to the ſaid commiſſioners atteining, the ſaid commiſſioners, ſix, fiue, foure, thrée, or as manie of them as ſhall be therevnto appointed by the kings commiſſion, and euerie of them iointlie and ſeuerallie for his or their ſaid part, maie haue his remedie againſt the ſaid collector or collectors, which thereof beene and might haue béene allowed, by action of debt, in which the defendant ſhall not wage his law, neither protection, iniunction, or other eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

Prouided alwaies, that this grant of reléeſe, nor anie other thing therein conteined, doo in anie wiſe extend to charge the inhabitants or dwellers within Ireland, Bullogne, and the countie of the ſame, Callis, Hams, Guiſnes, and the marches of the ſame, Jernſeie and Garnſeie, or anie of them, of, for, or concerning anie goods, which the ſaid inhabitants or dwellers, or anie other to their vſe haue within Ireland, Bullogne, the countie of the ſame, Callis, Hams, Guiſnes, or other marches of the ſame, Jernſeie, Garnſeie, or in anie of them.

Prouided alſo, that the ſaid grant of releeſe doo not in anie maner of wiſe extend, or be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the inhabitants or reſiants at this preſent time within the fiue ports corporat, or to anie of their members incorporat or vnited to the ſame fiue ports, or to anie of the ſame fiue ports, of or for anie part or parcell of the ſaid ſummes granted in this preſent parlement of the ſaid inhabitants now reſiants, or anie of them to be taxed, ſet, aſked, leuied, or paied, but that the ſaid inhabitants and now reſiants in the ſaid ports, and their members and euerie of them be and ſhall be of, and from the ſaid grant, and paiment of the ſaid releeſe of their goods and chattels, during the reſiancie there, and no longer acquited and diſcharged, any matter, or whatſoeuer thing in this preſent act, had or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo that this preſent act of reléeſe, ne anie other thing therein conteined, extend not to anie of the Engliſh inhabitants or reſiants in anie of the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, the towne of Barwike, the towne of Newcaſtle vpon Tine, and the biſhoprike of Durham, nor to anie of them, of, for, or concerning anie goods, cloths, or ſhéepe, which the ſame inhabitants or dwellers, or anie other to their vſe, haue within the ſaid counties of Northumberland, Cumberland and Weſtmerland, or the towne of Barwike, the towne of Newcaſtle vpon Tine, or the biſhoprike of Durham, or anie of them; but that they and euerie of them, ſhall be of and from the ſaid releeſe, of and for their goods, lieng and being in the ſame counties, townes and biſhoprike, and anie of them, vtterlie acquited and diſcharged, anie thing in this preſent act before rehearſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo that this act, ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to the goods of anie college, hall, or oſtle, within the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or anie of them, or to the goods of the college of Winton, founded by biſhop Wickham, or to the goods of the college of Eaton next Windſor, or to the goods of anie reader or ſcholer within the ſaid vniuerſities and colleges, or anie of them there remaining for ſtudie, without fraud or couin, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no ſpirituall perſon ſhall be charged by this act for anie of his goods or chattels, other than of ſhéepe, nor ſhall be charged by this act for anie ſuch his ſhéepe which he hath, or at anie time within thrée yéeres next following ſhall haue, or kéepe for the onelie purpoſe to be ſpent or eaten in his houſe, ſo as the number of the ſame ſhéepe ſo purpoſed to be ſpent and eaten yéerlie in his ſaid houſe, doo not excéed the number of foure hundred ſhéepe for one yéere, nor for any ſuch his ſhéepe as doo go and féed, or ſhall go or féed for the moſt part, or euerie yéere of thrée yéeres next comming, vpon his lands, tenements, or commons, whereof ſuch ſpirituall perſons is or ſhall be ſeized in the right of his church or promotion ſpirituall, which lands, tenements or commons be chargeable to the paiments of the firſt frutes and tenths.

And forasmuch as diuers and ſundrie the kings maieſties tenants, and other the inhabitants and dwellers within the counties of Penbroke, Carmarthen, Cardigan, Glamorgan, Brecknocke, Radnor, Mountgomerie, Denbigh, Flint, Marioneth, Angleſeie, Carneruon, and of the countie Palantine of Cheſter, be at this preſent time charged and chargeable with the ſeuerall paiments of diuers great ſummes of monie (by the name of a miſe) due to his maieſtie, according to the ſeuerall cuſtomes of the ſaid counties; for the paiment whereof, diuerſe and ſundrie the gentlemen and other inhabitants of the ſaid counties be, and ſtand bound to his highneſſe; the king our ſoueraigne lord is therefore pleaſed and contented, that it be prouided, ordeined, and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to charge anie of the kings maieſties tenants, and other the inhabitants and dwellers within anie of the ſaid counties of Penbroke, Carmarthen, Cardigan, Glamorgan, Brecknocke, Radnor, Mountgomerie, Denbigh, Flint, Marioneth, Angleſeie, Carneruon, and the countie Palantine of Cheſter, being charged or chargeable with the ſaid miſe, for or with anie of the paiments of the ſaid reléeſe granted to the kings maieſtie by this act, vntill the ſeuerall daies and times appointed and agréed for the paiments of the ſaid miſes ſhall be expired. And that the firſt paiment of the ſaid releeſe of goods ſhall be made at the receipt of the kings excheker, before the firſt daie of Maie then next following, after the daie appointed for the latter paiment to be made of the ſaid miſe, and ſo yéerelie before the firſt daie of Maie, at the receipt of the ſaid excheker, vntill the thrée ſeuerall paiments of the ſaid reléeſe be fullie made, in ſuch and like maner, forme, and order, as is ordeined and appointed by this act for the kings ſubiects, concerning the ſaid reléeſe of goods to be made at the receipt of the ſaid excheker, according to the tenor of this preſent act. And alſo that the firſt paiment of the releeſe for cloths and ſheepe in euerie of the ſaid ſeuerall counties, ſhall be made in the ſaid excheker after the ſaid miſes, due to be paid at ſuch and like daies and times yeerelie as is afore limited by this act, this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the tenants and dwellers of euerie of the ſaid counties in this prouiſo remembred, ſhall ſeuerallie before the feaſt of S. Martin the biſhop next inſuing, certifie in the kings ſaid court of excheker vnder the ſeale of two iuſtices of peace of euerie of the ſaid counties, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, when and at what daie the laſt paiment of the ſaid ſeuerall miſes, in euerie of the ſaid counties ſhall end and expire.

An act againſt the carieng of bell mettall out of the realme.

Chap.37. Where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the three and thirtith yeere of our late ſouereigne lord of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, it was enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhould carie or conueie by water or otherwiſe, anie braſſe, copper, lattin, bell mettall, pan mettall, or gun mettall, or ſhroffe mettall, whether it be cleane or mixt (tin and lead onelie excepted) into anie part beyond the ſea, or into anie outward realme or dominion whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine of forfeiture of double the value thereof. And where alſo by the ſaid eſtatute it was likewiſe enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhould at anie time ſhip or carrie anie of the ſaid mettals, to carrie or diſcharge the ſame in anie part of this realme, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons before the ſhipping thereof, did declare and manifeſt vnto the cuſtomers of ſuch a port or creeke where the ſame mettall ſhould be ſhipped, the true weight of all ſuch mettall as ſhould be ſhipped, and ſhould alſo make a ſufficient obligation in the law, in the which he ſhould be bounden to the ſaid cuſtomer to the kings vſe, in ſuch ſumme as ſhould amount to the double value of the ſaid mettall ſo declared and manifeſted, with condition that the ſame ſhould be diſcharged at ſome port or creeke within this realme, and in no other place, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame, in maner and forme aboue rehearſed, as by the ſaid act amongſt other things more plainlie appeereth.

Foraſmuch as the paines and forfeitures in the ſaid eſtatute are not great inough, and foraſmuch alſo, as diuers couetous and greedie perſons hauing no reſpect or obedience to the lawes, haue craftilie and by all ſiniſter meanes practiſed to defraud the ſaid eſtatute, ſome by bribing and rewarding the ſearchers, maſters, purſers, or other officers of ſhips, ſome by ſecret conueieng thereof in ſmall creekes, ſuger cheſts, hogſheds, or otherwiſe. Be it therefore ordeined and enacted, that from and after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, no perſon or perſons ſhall carrie or conueie, or ſhip, to the intent to carrie or conueie anie braſſe, copper, lattin, bell mettall, pan mettall, gun mettall, or ſhroffe mettall, whether it be cleere or mixt (tin and lead onelie excepted) into anie part beyond the ſea, or into anie outward realme or dominion whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine to forfeit the double value thereof, and ten pounds for euerie thouſand weight of the ſame mettall ſo caried, and conueied or ſhipped, to the intent to be carried or conueied, the triall whereof ſhall be in like maner and forme, as in the ſaid former act is expreſſed.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall ſhip or carrie anie of the ſaid mettals prohibited by this eſtatute, to carrie or diſcharge the ſame in anie part of this realme, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons before the ſhipping thereof, doo declare and manifeſt to the cuſtomer of ſuch port or creeke where the ſame mettall ſhall be ſhipped, the true weight of all ſuch mettall as ſhall be ſhipped, and ſhall alſo before the ſhipping thereof, make a ſufficient obligation in the law, in the which he ſhall be bounden to the ſaid cuſtomer to the kings vſe, in ſuch ſumme as ſhall amount to the double value, and ten pounds for euerie thouſand weight ſo declared and manifeſted, with condition, as in the ſaid ſtatute is appointed and enacted, and ſhall make certificat of the diſcharge thereof in like manner, as in the ſaid eſtatute is further ordeined and enacted.

And be it further enacted, that if anie cuſtomer, controller, or his or their deputie or deputies, by couin, or by anie other vndue meane, will ſuffer anie perſon, after that the mettall is ſhipped or carried, contrarie to the meaning of this act, to make obligation or obligations without dates, for the diſcharge and certificat of their mettall, as is aforeſaid, that then ſuch cuſtomer ſo ſuffering or receiuing ſuch obligation or obligations, ſhall loſe his office, and the value of the mettall ſo ſhipped or carried.

And be it further enacted, that if anie maiſter, owner, purſer, or boteſwaine of anie ſhip, doo willinglie permit or ſuffer anie of the mettals abouesaid to be ſhipped, contrarie to the tenor of this act, or elſe perceiuing anie ſuch mettall to be ſhipped, doo not diſcloſe the ſame within three daies after knowledge had to the cuſtomer or controller, of the ſame port, or his or their deputie or deputies, where the ſame is ſhipped, that then euerie ſuch owner, maiſter, purſer, or boteſwaine, ſo willinglie putting the ſame mettall to be ſhipped, or concealing the ſame, when he perceiueth it to be ſhipped, ſhall forfeit the double value of the ſame mettall ſo ſhipped or carried. And if anie cuſtomer or ſearcher doo willinglie ſuffer anie of the mettals aforeſaid to be ſhipped, contrarie to the meaning of this act, or elſe hauing knowledge that it is ſecretlie ſhipped or carried, doo not ſeize the ſame to the kings vſe, then euerie cuſtomer or ſearcher ſo offending, ſhall loſe his office, and the value of the mettall ſo ſhipped or carried.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhall after the ſaid feaſt, lade, ſhip, or carie into anie part beyond the ſea, anie of the mettals aforeſaid, but onelie out of ſuch port or créeke, where the cuſtomer or his deputie is reſident and dwelling, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid mettall, and ten pounds for euerie thouſand weight ſo ſhipped or carried, the moitie of all which forfeitures ſhall be to our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, information, action of debt, or otherwiſe in anie of the kings courts, in which no eſſoine or protection, or wager of law ſhall be admitted or allowed.

And be it further enacted, that the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid foure and thirtie yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, and euerie article and prouiſion, being not altered by this eſtatute, ſhall be good and effectuall.

An act for the pauing of Callis.

Chap.39.

FOraſmuch as the ſtréets, lanes and waies within the kings maieſties towne of Callis, be verie foule, ruinous, noiſome, and full of pits and ſlows, verie dangerous and perillous, as well for the kings ſubiects, through and by them paſſing and repairing as well on horſſebacke as on foot, as alſo with carriage, for lacke of good pauing: for the good amendment & reformation whereof, it maie therfore pleaſe the kings highnes, with the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall & temporall, and of his commons in this his high court of parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that it maie be ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that all and euerie perſon, bodies politike and corporat, which now haue, or at anie time heereafter ſhall haue anie lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, in fée ſimple, fee taile, for terme of life, or for terme of yéeres, or by reaſon of the wardſhip of anie heire during the nonage of the ſame heire, or otherwiſe lieng or being within the ſaid towne of Callis, ſhall on this ſide the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God, a thouſand fiue hundred fiftie & one, well and ſufficientlie paue or cauſe to be paued with pauing ſtone, all the ſtréets, lanes, and waies, and cauſeis, within the ſaid towne of Callis, with the chanell running in the middle; euerie man ſuch part and quantitie of the ſame ſtréets, lanes, and waies, and cauſeis, vnto the midſt of the ſame ſtréets, lanes, waies, and cauſeis, and euerie of them in length, as his or their lands or tenements doo lie or extend, except the foure high ſtréets within the ſaid towne of Callis, which the maior and the aldermen of the ſaid towne haue vſed to paue, and of right ought ſo to doo. And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch perſons, hauing, or which héereafter ſhall haue lands or tenements in fée ſimple, fée taile, for terme of life, or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, lieng, being, or adioining to and next either ſide of the ſame ſtréets, lanes, waies, or cauſeis, or anie of them, their heires, aſſignes, or ſucceſſors, after and from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God, a thouſand fiue hundred fiftie and one, ſhall yeerelie mainteine and repare the ſame pauements, and euerie of them, ouer againſt his or their ſaid lands and tenements, well and ſufficientlie from time to time, when and as often as néed ſhall require, at all times héereafter with pauing ſtone, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie yard ſquare not ſufficientlie paued, eight penſe, to the kings maieſties vſe, as often as anie ſuch default of anie perſon ſhall be preſented by the verdict of twelue men, or by thrée ſufficient witneſſes, before the maior and aldermen of the ſaid towne of Callis, for the time being. And that the ſaid maior and aldermen of the ſame towne of Callis, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to leuie the ſame to the kings vſe, by diſtreſſe or plaint, in ſuch maner and forme, as they haue héeretofore vſed and accuſtomed to leuie fines or amerciaments within the ſaid towne of Callis, and the ſame to be paied in the kings exchequer there; and if the ſaid maior and aldermen for the time being, be at anie time or times negligent or remiſſe in executing of the premiſſes vnto them appointed by this act, and namelie after two or thrée monitions to them giuen by the lord deputie, treaſuror, and controllor of the ſame towne for the time being, or two of them, that then the ſaid lord deputie, treaſuror and controllor, or two of them, ſhall from time to time, by vertue of this act, haue full power and authoritie to correct and reforme the ſaid maiors and aldermen ſo found in default, by reaſonable fine or amerciament, to be leuied vpon them, by waie of diſtreſſe, or otherwiſe by the foreſaid treaſuror and controllor, to the kings vſe and behoofe, for euerie ſuch default, the ſame fine or amerciament to be anſwered within the kings exchequer there.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that if the leaſſées or occupiers of the ſame lands or tenements, ſo to be paued within the ſaid towne, doo ſufficientlie paue or repare the ſame before their manſions or dwelling places, the foreſaid ſtréets, lanes, waies, or cauſeis, that they and euerie of them ſhall defalke, abate, and reteine in his or their owne hands, as much of the rents due to the leaſſors, as they can dulie proue to haue expended on the ſame pauing. And the leaſſor foraſmuch as that ſumme dooth amount vnto, to haue no action nor reentrie for the non paiment of the ſame, except it be otherwiſe agréed betwéene them. And where alſo within the ſaid towne of Callis there are diuerſe houſes and tenements couered and thacked with réed and ſtraw, to the great perill and danger of fire within the ſame towne (which God defend) for the ſpéedie remedie and good reformation thereof, be it alſo enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement aſſembled, that from henſeforth no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer they be, ſhall couer or thacke anie maner houſes or buildings within the ſaid towne with réed or ſtraw, but onelie with tile or ſlate, and that all houſes and buildings which are alreadie couered with réed or ſtraw within the ſaid towne, ſhall be on this ſide the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God, one thouſand fiue hundred fiftie and two, wholie and fullie couered with tile or ſlate, at and by the proper coſts and charges of the takers of the profits of the ſame houſes and buildings for the time being, and whatſoeuer owner or owners of the ſaid houſes or tenements within the ſame towne on this ſide the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God, one thouſand fiue hundred fiftie and two, doo not take and plucke downe the ſame ſtraw and reed from the ſaid buildings and houſes, and couer them againe newlie with tile or ſlate, within the ſame time, that then euerie ſuch owner or owners for not dooing therof in forme aboueſaid, ſhall forfeit to the king our ſouereigne lord for euerie manſion houſe not ſo doone, fortie pounds, the ſame forfeitures to be leuied by the ſame treaſuror or controllor (for the time being) to the kings vſe, and to be paied into the kings excheker there.

The kings maieſties free and moſt generall pardon.

Chap.39. THe kings moſt roiall maieſtie, right well perceiuing his louing ſubiects by manie and ſundrie waies and meanes, to haue borne and ſuſteined the great aduentures, charges and buſineſſe of wars, and defenſes of this his realme, as well in the time of his moſt déere father king Henrie the eight, as in his time and reigne, intending of his clemencie and pitie to gratifie his ſaid ſubiects, with his graces frée and liberall pardon, according to his kinglie power, truſting aſſuredlie that his ſaid ſubiects will continue his louing and aſſured obedient ſubiects, and héereafter in ſuch ſort obeie his highneſſe lawes and ſtatutes, as to them and euerie of them of right apperteineth, is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, in maner and forme following; that is to ſaie, that all and euerie of his ſaid ſubiects, as well ſpirituall as temporall of this his realme of England, Wales, the iſles of Jernſeie and Garnſeie, Barwike, Callis, Guiſnes, Hams, Bullogne and Bullognois, and the marches of the ſame, the heires, ſucceſſors, executors, and adminiſtrators of them and euerie of them, and all and ſingular bodies, in anie maner of wiſe corporat, cities, boroughs, ſhires, ridings, hundreds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages and tithings, and euerie of them, and the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of them, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement, acquited, pardoned, releaſed and diſcharged againſt the kings highneſſe, his heires, ſucceſſors, and executors, & euerie of them, of all maner of treaſons, hereſies, felonies, robberies, offenſes, contempts, treſpaſſes, wrongs, deceipts, miſdemeanors, forfeitures, penalties, and profits, ſummes of monie, paines of death, paines corporall and pecuniarie, and all other things, cauſes, quarels, ſutes, iudgements and executions, which maie be or can be by his highneſſe in anie wiſe, or by anie meanes pardoned before, and vnto the fourtéenth daie of March, in the yéere of our Lord God, one thouſand fiue hundred fortie and eight, other than ſuch as héereafter in this act be excepted and forpriſed, in ſuch maner and forme, and vnto ſuch times as they be excepted or forpriſed in this act, & other than ſuch as the clauſes of prouiſo héereafter mentioned doth extend vnto.

And except and forpriſed out of this free pardon, all and all maner of treaſons doone, committed, or perpetrated, by anie perſon or perſons, in anie of the parties beyond the ſea, or in Scotland, by anie perſon or perſons now being beyond the ſea, or in Scotland (other than ſuch treaſons or petit treaſons, as haue beene committed, perpetrated, or doone, by anie perſon being beyond the ſea, or in Scotland, that before the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, that ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1549, ſhall come and make their returne & repaire into this realme of England) and except all impetitions, puniſhments, forfeitures, paines of death, executions, & iudgements for the ſaid treaſons.

And furthermore, the kings maieſtie of his eſpeciall grace and clemencie is pleaſed and contented, that it be enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, being borne within this realme of England, or in anie of the kings dominions, and now being beyond the ſea, or in Scotland, which before the firſt daie of March, in the yeere of our Lord God 1548, did flie out of this realme of England, or anie of the kings dominions nions, for anie high treaſon, petit treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, or for anie felonie, murder, or other crime or offenſe, by him or them in anie wiſe committed, done or perpetrated, ſhall by vertue of this frée pardon, be cléerlie diſcharged, acquited, and pardoned, of all and of all maner treaſons, petit treaſons, miſpriſion of treaſon, and other offenſes and crimes whatſoeuer, done, committed, or perpetrated before the firſt daie of March in the ſaid yéere of our Lord God 1548. And of all maner of impetitions, ſutes, penalties, forfeitures, and executions for the ſame: ſo that he or they doo come and make their returne and repaire into this realme of England, on this ſide the ſaid feaſt of the natiuitie of our Lord God, 1549.

And alſo our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by vertue of this act, and by the authoritie aboueſaid, doth giue authoritie and licenſe to all and euerie of the ſaid perſon and perſons, being beyond the ſea, or in Scotland, to returne and repaire into this realme of England, and other his dominions, before the ſame feaſt of the natiuitie of our Lord God, 1549. Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie clerke, and other, of anie office of the kings courts, without anie forfeiture, loſſe, or puniſhment for the ſame, to award and make writts of Capias vtlagatum, at the ſute of the partie plaintife againſt anie perſon or perſons being outlawed in anie action, to the intent to compell the perſon or perſons ſo outlawed, to make anſwer to the plaintife or plaintifes, at whoſe ſute he or they were, or was outlawed, and alſo that euerie perſon and perſons, now being outlawed, ſhall be bounden to ſue a writ of Scire facias againſt the partie or parties, at whoſe ſute he or they were, or was outlawed, before ſuch time as the perſon or perſons ſo outlawed, ſhall take anie aduantage of this frée pardon, concerning his or their outlaworie.

And the king our ſoueraigne lord is contented and pleaſed to grant by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and ſinguler archbiſhops and biſhops of this realme of England and Wales, to deliuer out of priſon, and ſet at libertie, all and ſinguler thoſe perſons being in priſon in their cuſtodie, or in the cuſtodie of anie of them, as clerke or clerks conuict or attainted, which be pardoned by this act of frée pardon, without anie further act or ſute to be made for the allowance of this pardon or otherwiſe, anie act of parlement, law, vſage, cuſtome, or other thing to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act of frée pardon or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend, to diſcharge or pardon anie offenſe, paine, or penaltie, done, committed, or forfeited, by force of anie ſtatute héeretofore made againſt the decaieng of anie houſe or houſes of huſbandrie, or conuerting of anie land from tillage into paſture, or otherwiſe, or in anie other maner, then to pardon and diſcharge all iſſues, profits, paines, and penalties, growne or due to the kings maieſtie, or to his late father of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, before the laſt daie of March, in the yéere of our Lord God, 1549, or by reaſon of anie ſuch offenſe or offenſes, which iſſues, profits, paines, and penalties, are plainlie and cléerelie before pardoned, in, and by this preſent act of frée pardon.

Nor ſhall extend to giue or make anie licenſe or diſpenſation to anie perſon or perſons, to hold or continue the ſame ſo decaied, contrarie to the forme of anie ſuch ſtatute or ſtatutes.

Anno tertio & quarto Edwardi ſexti, at Weſtminſter by prorogation the fourth of Nouember, and continued vntill the firſt daie of Februarie next after.

An act that the lord Chancellor or lord keeper of the great ſeale for the time being, ſhall name and appoint the Cuſtos rotulorum throughout all the ſhires of England, according as in time paſt hath béene accuſtomed.

The firſt chapter.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the ſeuen and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the moſt excellent prince of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, it was enacted that no perſon, or perſons ſhuld from the making of the ſaid act be nominated, & apointed to the office or offices of the Cuſtos rotulorum, within anie ſhire of this realme of England, Wales, or other the kings dominions, marches or territories of the ſame, but ſuch as ſhould haue a bill ſigned with the kings hand for the ſame, which bill ſigned, ſhould be a ſufficient warrant by authoritie of the ſaid act, to the lord chancellor of England, and lord kéeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, to make from time to time, commiſſion or commiſſions, aſſigning and authoriſing thereby, the ſame perſon to be Cuſtos rotulorum, vntill the king had by another bill aſſigned with his owne hand appointed, and ordeined another perſon, to haue, occupie, and exerciſe the ſame office of Cuſtos rotulorum, and that the ſaid perſon appointed, and aſſigned to be Cuſtos rotulorum, as is aboueſaid, ſhould and might occupie, exerciſe, and enioie the ſaid office of Cuſtos rotulorum, by himſelfe or by his ſufficient deputie learned in the lawes of this realme, and méet and able to ſupplie the ſaid office, according to the tenor of the ſaid grant, or commiſſion, as by the ſame act among other things more at large it doth, and maie appeare. Since the making of which ſtatute diuers and manie perſons being in the ſaid offices of Cuſtos rotulorum, in diuers ſhires of the realme, haue departed this preſent life, and died, ſo that there hath not come to the hands of the chancellor of England, or lord kéeper of the great ſeale, anie bill or bils aſſigned with the kings maieſties hand for the naming, appointing, or aſſigning of anie new Cuſtos rotulorum in the ſame ſhires, the ſaid offices haue remained void for a long time, to the great let of iuſtice. And alſo for that it ſhall be verie tedious, & much to the maleſting of the kings maieſtie vpon euerie auoidance of ſuch Cuſtos rotulorum, by death or otherwiſe, to moue his maieſtie for the aſſigning of bils for other perſons to be elected, named, choſen, and appointed to ſupplie the ſaid offices of Cuſtos rotulorum, being void. And for the nomination and appointing of the ſaid office of Cuſtos rotulorum, long time before the maieſtie making of the ſaid ſtatute laſt before rehearſed did aperteine and belong to the office of the chancellor of England, or lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being: Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame: that the chancellor of England, or lord kéeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, ſhall at all time and times héereafter, and from time to time without anie bill or bils to be aſſigned with the kings hand, name, elect, aſſigne, and appoint ſuch perſon, and perſons to be Cuſtos rotulorum, within euerie ſhire of this realme of England, Wales, and other the kings dominions, marches, and territories of the ſame, or by anie of them, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid lord chancellor, or lord kéeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, ſhall be thought able, and méet to haue and exerciſe the ſame. And that the ſaid perſon and perſons, ſo to be appointed, elected, named, & aſſigned by the ſaid lord chancellor, or lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, ſhall and may occupie, exerciſe, and inioy the ſame office of Cuſtos rotulorum, by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputie, or deputies, in as ample, and large maner and forme, as if the ſaid act had neuer béene had ne made, the before behearſed act, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie héereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch as now haue anie of the ſaid offices of Cuſtos rotulorum, by the kings letters patents, or commiſſion to them, or anie of them made, ſhall and maie inioy, haue, and exerciſe their ſaid offices by vertue of the ſame letters patents, or commiſſion, by himſelfe or his ſufficient and able deputie, inſtructed in the lawes of this realme, anie thing in this preſent act, had or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo that it be enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the archbiſhop of Yorke, the biſhop of Durham, the biſhop of Elie, and euerie of their ſucceſſors, the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter for the time being, and all and euerie perſon and perſons, corporations, and bodies corporated, to whome the kings maieſtie, or anie of his noble progenitors by his, or their letters patents, or act of parlement, haue giuen and granted anie libertie and authoritie, or otherwiſe haue authoritie by other lawfull means or waies, to ordeine, make, and conſtitute, anie of the ſaid officers of Cuſtos rotulorum within anie countie palantine, or other place, ſhall and maie haue, and inioy the ſame libertie, and authoritie, according as they haue had & inioyed the ſame, anie thing in this preſent act, had or made, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the true making of wollen clothes.

Chap. 2.

FOraſmuch as by the ſleight and ſubtile making of clothes, and colours within diuers parts of this realme now of late practiſed, and vſed, not onelie great infamies and ſlanders hath growne to this ſame realme, but alſo the kings maieſties faithfull, and true ſubiects haue ſuſteined great loſſe in the vſe, and wearing of the ſame clothes, ſo ſleightlie and ſubtilie made. For the remedie and reformation whereof: be it ordeined and enacted by the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, with thaſſent of the lords ſpirituall, and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that euerie clothier & clothmaker ſhall from the feaſt of the annunciation of our ladie next comming, ſet his ſeale of lead to his cloth, declaring therby the iuſt lengths thereof to be tried by the water. And that no perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt ſtreine, or ſtretch any ſet clothes, or any other cloth aboue one yard and a halfe in length, and a quarter of a yard in bredth, vpon paine to forfeit fortie ſhillings for euerie default. And that no perſon, nor perſons, ſhall from the ſaid feaſt, vpon paine laſt before remembred, put to ſale anie cloth, which when it ſhall be wet, ſhall ſhrinke more then one yard and a halfe in all the length, and a quarter of a yard in the bredth. And that narrow ſtreits, and karſeis, ſhall not from the ſaid feaſt be ſtretched, aboue a yard in length, and halfe a quarter of a yard in bredth, vpon the paine for euerie default therein twentie ſhillings, nor ſhall put to ſale any cloth, narrow, ſtreit or karſeie the péeces whereof being wet, ſhall ſhrinke more then after the ſame ſeuerall rates in the whole péece, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe twentie ſhillings. And further that no perſon or perſons occupieng the feat of dieng, ſhall die or alter into colours, or cauſe to be died, or altered into colours, or cauſe to be died, or altered into colours, anie wollen clothes, as browne blewes, pukes, tawnies, or violets, except the ſame wollen clothes be perfectlie boiled, greined or maddered, vpon the woad, and ſhot with good and ſufficient corke, or corchall after a due, ſubſtantiall, and ſufficient maner of workemanſhip, according to the ancient workemanſhip in time paſt vſed, vpon paine for euerie default to forfeit xx.s. nor that anie perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt die anie wooll to be conuerted into cloth called ruſſets, muſters, marbles, graies, roies, and ſuch like colours, or to be conuerted and made into hats or caps, vnleſſe the ſaid wooll be perfectlie woaded, boiled, and maddred, according to the true and ancient vſage, vpon the paine of forfeiture for the falſe dieng of euerie ſuch cloth, or of as much wooll as ſhall ſerue for the making of euerie cloth contrarie to the true meaning thereof fortie ſhillings. Nor ſhall die with braſell to the intent to make a falſe colour in cloth nor wooll, hats nor caps, vpon paine for euerie default to forfeit twentie ſhillings.

And that no perſon or perſons, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt put anie flocks, chalke, flower, or ſtarch, or anie other deceiuable thing, vpon anie ſet cloth, or vpon anie other cloth or clothes, coloured or vncoloured, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe fortie ſhillings. And that no perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt occupie anie iron cards, or picards in rowing of anie ſet cloth, or anie maner of woollen cloth, vpon paine to forfeit as well the ſaid iron cards or picards, as alſo the ſum of twentie ſhillings for euerie ſuch offenſe. Nor that anie perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt ſell anie cloth by anie leſſe meaſure than after the true content thereof, to be moten and meaſured by the yard, adding to euerie yard one inch of the rule, according to the ſtatute made in the firſt yeare of the reigne of the moſt worthie prince of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight, father vnto our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie yard of cloth ſo put to ſale by anie other leſſe meſure, ſix ſhillings eight pence. And that no perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt put to ſale here within the realme, either by retale or otherwiſe, anie cloth being preſſed to be occupied, and worne here within the realme of England, Wales, or Ireland, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth, or the value thereof that haue beene ſo preſſed and put to ſale, as is laſt before remembred.

And for the better executing of this ſtatute, be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie towne, village, or hamlet, being not corporat, where anie cloth ſhall be made or ſold, the iuſtice of peace of the ſame ſhire where anie ſuch towne, village or hamlet is, or two of them at the leaſt, and in euerie citie, borough or towne corporat, the head officer or officers of euerie the ſame citie, borough, or towne corporat, together with the wardens of the clothworkers, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this actions euerie yeare to conuent and call before them by their precept, or otherwiſe two, foure, ſix, eight, or more, as they ſhall thinke good by their diſcretion, of the moſt honeſt, diſcreet & indifferent men of euerie ſuch citie, borough, towne, village, or hamlet, where anie cloth ſhall be made or ſold, and them ſhall conſtitute or ordeine, and appoint to be ouerſeers for one whole yere then next following within the citie, borough, towne, village, or hamlet, where the ſame ouerſeers ſhall be dwelling, charging them alſo vpon their oths, and as they doo tender the honor of the realme, and the common welth of the ſame, that they doo indeuor themſelues for that yeare, as much as in them ſhall lie, to ſee that this ſtatute bee trulie obſerued and kept within the limits of their charge, in euerie part therof. And that the ſame ouerſeers or two of them, ſhall euerie quarter of the ſaid yeare at the leaſt, or ſo often as need ſhall require by their diſcretions, by force hereof, viſit and go into euerie clothiers, drapers, clothworkers, diers, and preſſors houſes, ſhops and other places, where cloth or died wooll ſhall be, and there to make due ſearch and to view the cloths and wools made or died, or remaining to be ſold, and to ſearch and trie as well whether the ſaid cloths be drawne or ſtreined, or falſlie died, as alſo of all other the defaults before ſpecified committed or doone, contrarie to the true meaning of this act. And if vpon the ſearch the clothes be found drawne or ſtreined, or the cloth or wools falſlie died or coloured, or anie other of the ſaid faults committed or doone contrarie to the true meaning of this ſtatute; that then the ſaid ſeuerall forfeitures to incur vpon the partie or parties which ſhall offend in the ſame, or in anie of them: the one halfe of all which forfeitures to be vnto the king our ſouereigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to ſuch of the ſaid ouerſeers as dooth find the ſaid defaults or cauſes of forfeitures, and that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, or before the iuſtices of peace, within anie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, or before the iuſtices of peace within anie ſhire, where anie ſuch forfeitures ſhall be had out of anie citie or towne corporat, the ſame ſute to be purſued by bill, plaint, action of debt, information, or otherwiſe, and in which ſute no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant. And if the ſaid ouerſeers ſhall be negligent, and will not ſue for the ſame forfeitures, by the ſpace of one halfe yeare next after the cauſe of the ſame forfeitures committed and doone, that then the one halfe of the ſame forfeitures to be vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors & the other halfe to him which will ſue for the ſame, as is aforeſaid, within one halfe yeare next after ſuch default be had by the ſaid ouerſeers And if anie of the ſaid perſons ſo commanded to appeare to be made ouerſeers as is aforeſaid, & hauing no reſonable excuſe doo refuſe to come, and to take vpon him or them to be an ouerſeer, as is aforeſaid that then euerie ſuch perſon refuſing and hauing no reſonable excuſe ſo to doo, to forfeit for euerie ſuch refuſing fortie ſhillings the one halfe therof to be to the king our ſaid ſouereigne his heires or ſucceſſors, & the other halfe to the iuſtices of peace or other head officer or officers by whoſe commandement he was commanded to appeare, or to be an ouerſeer, & the ſame ouerſeer ſo offending to remaine in the ward of the ſhiriffe, vntill ſuch time, as he had made paiment of the ſaid forfeiture, or otherwiſe put in ſufficient bond for the ſatiſfaction of the ſame. And if the ſame ouerſeers, or two of them at the leaſt, doo not once euerie quarter of the yeare, make due ſearch for the true executing of this ſtatute: that then euerie of the ſaid ouerſeers, to forfeit for euerie ſuch default fortie pounds, the one halfe to be to the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, ⁊ the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action of debt, information, or otherwiſe. In which ſute, no eſſoigne, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant. And if the ſaid ouerſeers ſhalbe interrupted, and not ſuffered to enter into the ſaid houſes, ſhops, or other places, where anie ſuch clothes, or wools ſhalbe made, or died, or anie other of the ſaid defaults ſhall happen to be doone or committed, there to make ſearch for the better executing of this ſtatute, that then euerie one that ſo ſhall make anie ſuch interruption, ſhall forfeit twentie pounds, the one halfe of which forfeitures to be to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof to be to the ſaid ouerſeers, to whome anie ſuch interruptiun ſhalbe made, and the ſame to be obteined, and purſued for in ſuch maner and forme, as before in this act is expreſſed for the recouerie of other of the ſaid forfeitures.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall, and maie be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons, to put to ſale anie cloth or clothes, made, died, or preſt, which before the ſaid feaſt of the annunciation of our ladie ſhalbe made, died, or preſt, at anie time within one yeare next after the ſaid feaſt of the annunciation of our ladie, ſo as the alnegor, or his deputie, or other head officer in anie ſuch citie, borough, towne, village, or hamlet, doo put ſome notorious marke to euerie ſuch cloth, whereby the ſame maie be knowne to be made before the ſaid feaſt of the purification of our ladie next comming.

Prouided alſo, that no maner of perſon, ſhall take anie aduantage of anie of the ſaid forfeitures, by reaſon of this ſtatute, vnleſſe the ſame perſon doth commence his ſute within one yeare next after the ſaid offenſes, and forfeitures committed.

And to the intent that all ſuch clothes, as ſhalbe made within this realme, or anie other of the kings dominions after the ſaid feaſt ſhall be the better knowne from the other clothes made before the ſame time: Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie clothier ſhall before ſuch time, as he ſhall put his cloth to ſale, being made after the ſaid feaſt, cauſe euerie cloth to be marked with a letter of E. crowned, wrought in the cloth, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie cloth ſo being ſold, and not marked with the ſaid letter E. by anie ſuch clothier twentie ſhillings, the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame in maner, and forme before rehearſed.

An act concerning the improouements of commons and waſt grounds.

Chap.3.

WHere in the parlement holden at Merton in the twentith yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the third, it is conteined, that for becauſe manie great men of England which had enfeoffed knights, and other their free tenants of ſmall tenements in their great manours did complaine that they might not make their profits of the reſidue of their manours, as of waſt woods and paſtures, where the ſame feoffees had ſufficient paſture, as much as belonged vnto their tenements, it was prouided, and granted, that whatſoeuer perſons ſo enfeoffed, brought aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin of their common of paſture, and before the iuſtices it were recogniſed, that they had as much paſture as did ſuffiſe vnto their tenements, and that they had free ingreſſe, and egreſſe into, and from their tenements vnto their paſture, that then they ſhould therewith be contented, and that they, vpon whome they had complained, ſhould depart quiet with that, that they might make their profit of their lands, waſts, woods and paſtures. And if it were ſaid that they had not ſufficient paſture, or ſufficient ingreſſe, and egreſſe, as doth belong vnto their tenements, as is aboueſaid, that then the truth thereof ſhould be inquired by aſſiſe: and if it were recogniſed by the aſſiſe, that their ingreſſe ⁊ egreſſe were in any thing letted by the ſame deforciators, or that they had not ſufficient paſture and ſufficient ingreſſe and egreſſe, as is aboueſaid, that then they ſhuld recouer their Seiſin by view of the iourours, ſo that by the diſcretion, and oth of them, the complainants ſhould haue ſufficient paſture, and ſufficient ingreſſe and egreſſe, in forme aforeſaid, and that the diſſeiſors ſhould be in amerciament of the king, and ſhould yeeld damages, as they were wont to doo before the ſame prouiſion. And if it were recogniſed by the aſſiſe, that the complainants had ſufficient paſture with free ingreſſe, and egreſſe, as is aboue mentioned, that then the other might lawfullie doo their profit of the reſidue, and ſhould go quite from the ſame aſſiſe, as in the ſaid ſtatute more plainlie appeareth.

And where alſo in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, after Eaſter, the thirteenth yeare of the reigne of king Edward the firſt, it was ordeined that where in the ſtatute made at Merton, it was agreed, that lords of waſts, woods, and paſtures might approoue themſelues of their waſts, woods, and paſtures notwithſtanding the gainſaieng, and contradiction of their tenants, whiles the ſame tenants had ſufficient paſture to their tenements, with free ingreſſe, and egreſſe into, and from the ſame. And for that no mention was made betweene neighbor and neighbor, manie lords of waſts, woods, and paſtures, vnto the time were let by contradiction, or gainſaieng of neighbors, hauing ſufficient paſture. And foraſmuch as forren tenants haue no greater right of commoning in the wood, waſt, or paſture of anie lord, then the proper tenants of the ſame lord, it was from thenſeforth ordeined, that the ſaid ſtatute prouided at Merton, betweene the lord and his tenants, ſhould haue place from thenſeforth betweene the lord of waſts, woods, and paſtures, and neighbours, ſauing ſufficient paſture to their men and neighbours, ſo that the lord of the ſame waſt, waſts, woods and paſtures maie approue themſelues of the reſidue, and that the ſame ſhould be obſerued of them that claime paſture, as perteining to their tenants. But if anie man claime common of paſture by ſpeciall feoffement or grant, to a certeine number of beaſts, or otherwiſe, then of common right he ought to haue it. Where couenant dooth abrogate the law, he ſhall haue ſuch recouerie, as he ought to haue by forme of the grant to him made. And that by occaſion of a windmill, ſheephouſe, dairie, augmentation or increaſe of anie court neceſſarie, or curtilage, from thenſeforth, no man ſhould be greeued by aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin, of common of paſture. And foraſmuch as it happeneth ſometime that ſome man hauing right to approue to himſelfe, hath made, or leuied a ditch or a hedge, and other by night, or ſuch other time, when they beleeue their deede ſhould not be knowne, doo, or will caſt downe the ſame ditch, or hedge, and that it cannot be knowne by verdit of aſſiſe, or iurie, who did caſt downe the ſame ditch or hedge, nor the men of the next towne will indite them that be giltie of the ſame deeds, then the next townſhip adioining about the the ſame ſhalbe deſtreined to leuie, and make vp the ſame ditch, or hedge, at their proper coſts, and to yeeld dammages, as in the ſaid ſtatute amongſt other things more plainlie appeareth.

the

And foraſmuch as the foreſaid ſtatutes beene thought beneficiall for the common wealth of this realme of England. Be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall, and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie the ſaid ſtatutes, and all branches, clauſes, articles, ſentences, matters, & points conteined, and ſpecified in them, and euerie of them now not repealed, ſhall from henſeforth be good and effectuall, and alſo ſtand, and be in their full ſtrength, force and effect.

And becauſe that ſuch perſons as ſhall bring aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin vpon the ſaid ſtatutes, or vpon anie of them, ſhall by force of the ſame ſtatute, recouer but onlie ſingle dammages, which is thought to be a ſmall recompence for the ſame. Therefore be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon, and perſons, as ſhall at anie time hereafter bring aſſiſe vpon anie branch, or article of the ſaid ſtatutes, or anie of them, and haue iudgement to recouer, ſhall haue his or their damages trebled by the iudgement of the court, where ſuch aſſiſe and iudgement ſhall be had.

And where in diuers countries of this realme, there hath beene builded vpon commons, or waſt grounds, certeine neceſſarie houſes with ground, vnder the quantitie of three acres, and not aboue three acres, incloſed to, and with the ſame, and in ſome place there is incloſed a garden, orchard, or pond, out of, or in ſuch waſts, or grounds, which exceed not the quantitie of two acres, or thereabouts, which dooth no hurt, and yet is much commoditie to the owner thereof, and to others: Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid two former acts, nor anie of them, nor anie thing in them conteined, ſhall extend to anie ſuch houſe, ground, or other thing ſo incloſed, as is laſt herein before mentioned, ne ſhall cauſe anie perſon or perſons, to loſe, or forfeit anie paine, damage, or penaltie for the ſame.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that if anie ſuch houſe hath beene heretofore builded vpon anie ſuch waſt ground, as is aforeſaid, and that there be aboue the number of three acres incloſed to the ſame, that then the ſaid houſe, and three acres parcell of the ſame incloſure, ſhall ſtill remaine, ſtand, abide, and continue in like, and the ſame forme and degree, as it now dooth, and that the ouerplus of the ſaid three acres ſo incloſed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall and maie be laid open by the owner, or owners of the ſame waſts, anie thing in this act, or in anie of the ſaid former acts, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning grants, and gifts made by patentees out of letters patents.

Chap.3.

WHere the right noble and famous king of full worthie memorie king Henrie the eight, father to our moſt dread, and now naturall ſoueraigne leege lord, ſithens the fourth daie of Februarie, in the ſeuen and twentith yeere of his late reigne, and alſo the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, by their ſeuerall letters patents, haue giuen, granted, bargained, ſold, and exchanged, to and with diuerſe and ſundrie the ſubiects of this realme, bodies politike and corporat in fee ſimple, fee taile, for terme of life, or yeeres, diuerſe honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, & offices: after, and ſince which grants, bargaines, ſales, & exchanges, diuerſe of the ſaid patentees, their heirs, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, haue bargained, ſold, giuen, exchanged, or demiſed diuerſe particular parts, parcels, or portions of the ſaid honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and offices, or other things thervnto apperteining, or belonging to other perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, that is to ſaie, to ſome of them in fee ſimple, to ſome other in fee taile, for terme of life, or yeeres, or otherwiſe. And after the ſame patentees for conſiderations them mouing, haue ſurrendered, or giuen vp their ſaid letters patents into the chancerie, or otherwiſe the ſame letters patents haue beene forfeited by attaindor, loſt, cancelled, imbeſiled, or by other waies or meanes haue come to the hands of the kings maieſtie his late father. And therevpon oft times the inrolment of the ſame hath beene made void, and fruſtrat, ſometime in part, and ſometime in the whole, by reaſon whereof, ſuch perſons, bodies politike, or corporat, as haue had intereſt or title, in or to the ſame caſtles, manors or particular portions,or parcels of the ſame ſo to them giuen and granted, haue beene in times paſt,and in time to come are like to be diſherited,or in danger of loſſe of their intereſt,in,or to the ſame, to their no little hinderance and perill: for remedie whereof,be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that all and euerie perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat,which lawfullie ſhall or maie claime by force of anie patent,or patents made ſithens the fourth daie of Februarie, or hereafter to be made by the kings maieſtie, his heirs or ſucceſſors,kings of this realme, or by anie of them,and all other that now haue, or hereafter ſhall happen to haue anie good or lawfull eſtate,right,title,rent,profit, intereſt, or poſſeſſion of,in,to,or out of anie honours,manours,lands,tenements,hereditaments,or offices,or of other things,to anie of the premiſſes apperteining or belonging,or to anie part, parcell, or member of them,or anie of them,by,from,or vnder anie ſuch patent or patents,or anie of them, or by,from, or vnder the heires,ſucceſſors,or aſſigns of them,or anie of them,or by,from,or vnder the ſtate of anie others,which had,haue,or hereafter ſhall haue the ſtate,title,or intereſt, of anie ſuch patentee or patentees,or by anie other means vnder the date of ſuch letters pattents,ſhall and maie at all times hereafter in anie the kings courts, his heirs and ſucceſſors, or elſewhere, by vertue of this preſent act,make and conueie vnto themſelfe title by waie of declaration, plaint, auowrie, title,bar,or otherwiſe, as well againſt the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and euerie of them,as againſt anie other perſon or perſons,vnto the ſaid honours, caſtles, manours, lands, tenements,offices,and other the premiſſes,or anie part or parcell of the ſame, vnto them or anie their predeceſſors,or anceſtors or others whoſe eſtate they haue in the ſame,by, from, or vnder the ſaid patentees,or anie of them, or theirs,anceſtors, or aſſigns of anie of them,or otherwiſe vnder the date of the ſaid letters patents, compriſed and conteined in anie exemplification, or conſtat thereof made,or to be made, by the ſhewing forth of the ſaid exemplification, or conſtat of of the roll, or of ſo much thereof as ſhall ſerue for the matter in variance vnder the great ſeale of England. And the ſame exemplification or conſtat of the ſaid inrolment ſo (as is aforeſaid) pleaded,and ſhewed,ſhall be of like and the ſame force and effect, to all intents and conſtructions in the law, as the ſaid firſt letters pattents were and ſhould be of, if the ſame were or ſhould be pleaded or ſhewed.

An act for the puniſhment of vnlawfull aſſemblies,and riſing of the kings ſubiects.

Chap.5. FOr as much as it is moſt neceſſarie in a common welth to prouide that tranquilitie and peace maie be continued in this realme,and that all things being contrarie therevnto,may by foreſight be eſchewed,therefore it is ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords and commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame,that if anie perſons to the number of twelue,or aboue, being aſſembled together at anie time,after the twelfe daie of Februarie next comming,ſhall intend,go about,practiſe,or put in vre,with force of arms,vnlawfullie, and of their owne authoritie to murder, kill, ſlaie,take,or impriſon anie of the kings moſt honorable priuie counſell,or vnlawfullie to alter or change anie lawes made or eſtabliſhed for religion by authoritie of parlement,or anie other laws or ſtatutes of this realme,or anie of them. The ſame number of twelue or aboue, being commanded or required by the ſhiriffe of the ſhire,or by anie iuſtice of peace of the ſame ſhire,or by the maior,ſhiriffs,iuſtices of peace,or bailifs of anie citie,borough,or towne corporat,where anie ſuch aſſemblie ſhall be vnlawfullie had,or made by proclamation in the kings name, to retire and repaire to their owne houſes,habitations or places from whence they came,and they or anie of them notwithſtanding ſuch proclamation ſhall remaine or make their abode, or continue together by the ſpace of an whole houre,after ſuch commandement or requeſt made by proclamation, or after that ſhall willinglie in forcible and riotous maner attempt to doo, or put in vre, anie the things aboue ſpecified: that then as well euerie ſuch abode or continuing together, as euerie ſuch act or offenſe,that after ſuch proclamation, commandement,or requeſt had or made, ſhall be attempted to be doone,practiſed, or put in vre by anie perſons, being of the number aforeſaid, ſhall be iudged high treaſon in all and ſingular thoſe perſons that ſo ſhall make their abode or continue together,or ſhall attempt or commit anie ſuch act,and the offenders therein, their aidors, abettors, and procurers to be adiudged traitors to the king and the realme, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death,as in caſe of high treaſon.

And furthermore be it enacted,ordeined and eſtabliſhed,by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſons to the ſaid number of twelue or aboue,after the ſaid twelfe daie of Februarie, ſhall intend, go about, practiſe, or put in vre, in maner and forme aforeſaid, to ouerthrow, cut, breake,caſt downe, or dig vp the pales, hedges, ditches, or other cloſure of anie parkes, parke,or other grounds or ground incloſed, or the banks of anie fiſh pond or poole, or anie conduits for water, conduit heads, or conduit pipes, hauing courſe of water, to the intent that the ſame or anie of them, from thenceforth ſhould remaine open, not incloſed or void,or vnlawfullie to haue common, or a waie in the ſaid parkes,parke, or other grounds, or ground incloſed,or in anie of them,or to deſtroie the deere,in anie maner of parks or parke, or anie warrens or warren of conies, or anie douehouſes, or anie fiſh in anie pond or poole,or to pull or cut downe anie houſes,barns, mils,or baies,or to burne anie ſtacks of corne or graine,or to abate,defalke,or deminiſh the rents or yearelie value of anie manors, lands, or tenements, or the price of anie vittell, corne, or graine, or anie other thing, vſuall for the ſuſtinance of men: and being required or commanded by anie iuſtice of peace, or by the ſhiriffe of the countie, or by the maior, bailiffe, or bailiffs, or other head officers of anie head citie, or towne corporat, where ſuch aſſemblie ſhall be had, by proclamation to be made in the kings name, to retire or returne in peaceable maner to their habitations, places, and houſes, from whenſe they came, and they, or anie of them, notwithſtanding ſuch proclamation, ſhall remaine or make their abode, or continue togither, by the ſpace of one whole houre, after ſuch commandement, or requeſt made by proclamation, or after that ſhall in forcible maner attempt to doo, or put in vſe anie of the things laſt before mentioned: that then aſwell euerie ſuch abode or continuing togther, as euerie ſuch act that after ſuch proclamation, commandement, or requeſt, had or made, ſhall be doone, practiſed, or put in vſe, by anie perſons, being aboue the number of twelue ſhall be adiudged fellonie, and the offendors therein to be adiudged fellons, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death, as in caſe of fellonie, and euerie of the ſame perſons, to loſe the benefit of his clergie, and ſanctuarie.

And alſo it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twelth daie of Februarie, vnlawfullie, and without authoritie, by ringing of anie bell, or bells, ſounding of anie drumme, trumpet, horne, or other inſtrument whatſoeuer, or by firing of anie beacon, or by malicious ſpeaking or vttering of anie words, or making anie outcrie, or by ſetting vp, or caſting of any bils, bill or writing whatſoeuer, or by any other deede or act ſhall raiſe or cauſe to be raiſed or aſſembled anie perſons to the number of twelue or aboue, to the intent that the ſame perſons ſhould doo, commit, and put in vſe anie of the acts or things aboue mentioned, and that the perſons, to the number of twelue or aboue, ſo raiſed & aſſembled, after requeſt or commandement had or giuen in forme aforeſaid, ſhall make their abode, or continue together, as is aforeſaid, or vnlawfullie perpetrate, doo, commit, or put in vſe anie of the acts or things aboueſaid, that then all and ſinguler perſons, by whoſe ſpeaking, deed, act, or anie other the meanes aboue ſpecified, anie perſons to the number of twelue or aboue, ſhall be raiſed or aſſemble for the dooing, committing, or putting in vſe anie of the acts or things aboue mentioned, ſhalbe adiudged for his ſo ſpeaking or dooing, a felon, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death as in caſe of felonie, and ſhall loſe his benefit, and ſanctuarie and clergie.

And ouer that it is ordeined & enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſons to the number of fortie & aboue, after the ſaid twelfe daie of Februarie, ſhall be aſſembled together in forcible maner vnlawfully & of their owne authoritie, to the intent to doo, exerciſe, or put in vſe, anie of the things aboue mentioned, or to doo anie other traiterous, felonious or rebellious act, or acts, and ſo ſhall continue by the ſpace of two houres, that then euerie perſon ſo being willinglie aſſembled in forcible maner and ſo continuing by the ſpace of two hours, ſhall be adiudged a traitor to the king and to the realme, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death as in caſe of high treaſon.

And alſo, that if anie wife or ſeruant of the ſame perſons, or anie other perſon whatſoeuer, ſhall willinglie, and without compulſion, bring, ſend, deliuer, or conueie anie monie, harneis, artillerie, weapon, meat, bread, drinke, or other vittell, to anie perſon or perſons ſo being aſſembled, as is aforeſaid, during ſuch time as he or they ſhall ſo be aſſembled, or be together, as is aforeſaid, that then euerie wife, ſeruant, or other perſon, ſo bringing, ſending, deliuering or conueieng anie monie, harnes, artillerie, wepon, meat, bread, drinke, or vittell to the ſame perſons, ſo being aſſembled together in forcible maner, or to anie of them ſhall be indged a traitor to the king, & to the realme, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death, as in caſe of high treaſon.

And furthermore it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that euerie perſon that at anie time hereafter ſhall be attainted of or for anie of the treaſons or treaſon aboue mentioned, ſhall vpon his ſaid attaindor, forfeit his goods, cattels, intereſts, for terme of life, and of yeers, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, in like maner and forme, as anie perſon attainted of felonie, onelie ſhould, or ought to forfeit, by the common lawes of this realme, and not otherwiſe: that is to ſaie the king to haue the yeere, and daie, and waſt of ſuch lands & tenements, whereof anie perſon ſo attainted, ſhall at the time of the treaſon committed, or at anie time after, haue an eſtate of fee ſimple, and alſo the goods and cattels, reall and perſonall. And that the lords, of whome the ſaid lands, and tenements, or anie part thereof ſhall be holden, to haue and inioy the lands and tenements, holden of him or them for euer, in ſuch the ſame maner and forme, as in caſes of attaindour of fellonie, at the common law. And that euerie perſon, that at anie time hereafter ſhalbe attainted, of anie of the treaſons aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the lands and tenements, and other hereditaments, whereof he ſhall be ſeazed, of anie ſtate in taile, or for terme of life or liues, at the time of anie ſuch treaſon committed, or at anie time after, during his life onelie and no longer, vnleſſe the perſon ſo attainted, ſhalbe thereof ſeazed in his demeſne, as of fee, at the time of the ſaid treaſon committed, or at anie time after. And after the deceaſe of the ſame perſon, ſo attainted, all and ſinguler ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhould haue had and inioied ſuch lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, as anie perſon, that at anie time hereafter ſhalbe be attainted, of, or, for, anie treaſon aboue ſpecified, ſhall fortune to be ſeazed, of anie eſtate in taile, or for terme of life, at the time of anie ſuch treaſon committed or at anie time after, ſhall after the death of the ſame perſon, that ſo ſhall fortune to be attainted, haue and inioy the ſaid lands, tenements, and other hereditaments in like maner and forme, as though no ſuch attaindour had beene had anie law or vſage, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And furthermore, it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aboue ſaid, that if anie perſons, aboue the number of two, and vnder the number of twelue being aſſembled togither, at anie time after the ſaid twelfth daie of Februarie, ſhall intend, go about, practiſe, or put in vſe, with force of armes, vnlawfullie, and of their owne authoritie to murder, kill, or ſlaie anie of the kings maieſties ſubiects, or to ouerthrow, cut, breake, caſt, downe, or dig vp the pales, hedges, diches, wall, or other cloſure of anie parks, parke, or other ground incloſed, or the banke of anie fiſh pond, or poole, to the intent that the ſame, or anie of them from thenſeforth ſhould remaine open not incloſed, or void, or to haue common or waie in the ſame parks, or parke, or other grounds or ground incloſed, or anie of them, or to deſtroie anie maner of parks, or parke, or fiſh pond, or poole, or anie warrens or warren of conies, or anie doutehouſes, or to pull, or cut downe anie houſe, barne, mill, or to burne anie ſtacks of corne or graine, or alter, defalke, or abate the rents or yeerlie value of anie manours, lands, or tenements, of anie the kings ſubiects, or the price of anie vittell, corne or graine, or anie other thing vſuall for the ſuſtinance or apparell of men, and being required or commanded by anie iuſtice of the peace, or the ſhiriffe of the countie, or by anie maior, bailiffs, or bailiffe, or other head officer, of anie citie, or towne corporat, where ſuch aſſemblie ſhalbe had, by proclamation, to be made in the kings name to retire, or returne to their habitations, places or houſes, and they ſo required by ſuch proclamation, ſhall not ſo doo, but after that, ſhall in forcible maner, in forme aforeſaid, attempt to doo, or put in vſe, anie of the things laſt aboue mentioned: that then euerie of the ſame perſons being aboue the number of two, and vnder the number of twelue, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies, by the ſpace of one yéere, without baile or mainprize, & ſhall make fine and ranſome, at the kings will and pleaſure. And alſo that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time after the ſaid twelfth daie of Februarie ſhalbe dammified or hurted, by the dooing, committing, or putting in vſe of anie vnlawfull act or thing aboue mentioned: That then all & ſinguler perſons dammified or hurt, ſhall recouer and haue damages with the coſts of their ſute, ſuſteined in that behalfe trebled, againſt the offendors therin.

And foraſmuch, as ſuch euill diſpoſed perſons, which of late time made commotions and rebellion, in certeine places, within this realme being but few in number, at ſuch time, as they did begin the ſame commotion, were not in ſhort time, after the beginning thereof ſuppreſſed by ſtrength, for that the kings louing ſubiects, for feare to incurre in danger of the lawes of this realme, durſt not take vpon them ſo to doo, a greater number of euill diſpoſed perſons, did come and ioine themſelues to the ſaid ſmall number, whereby the ſame euill diſpoſed perſons, tooke vpon them ſuch boldneſſe, that they would not be reduced to obedience, without much bloudſhedding, to the great danger of the kings maieſties perſon, where if the kings louing ſubiects durſt haue taken vpon them to haue ſuppreſſed them at the beginning, ſuch inconuenience and bloudſhed ſhould not haue followed: Therefore it is alſo ordeined, and enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid that if anie perſons, aboue the number of two, that at anie time, after the ſaid twelfth daie of Februarie, ſhall be vnlawfullie, and of their owne authoritie, aſſembled togither, to the intent with force of armes, to doo, practiſe, or put in vſe anie of the things aboue mentioned, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie iuſtice of peace, & to euerie ſhiriffe in anie countie, being within the kings dominions, and to euerie maior, bailiffe, and other head officer of anie citie, or towne corporat, for the time he ſhall be in office, or anie other perſon or perſons, hauing the kings commiſſion, or letters from his highneſſe, or his priuie counſell, as well to raiſe and aſſemble the kings louing ſubiects, in maner of warre to be arraied, in ſuch great number as he or they then ſhall thinke méet or able, to the intent by violence and ſtrength to ſuppreſſe, apprehend, and take the ſaid perſons, that ſo ſhall be vnlawfulie aſſembled. And that if the ſaid perſons, ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled, after ſuch commandement or requeſt by proclamation, or otherwiſe made, ſhall continue togither, and not endeuour themſelues to returne towards, their habitations, houſes or places, from whenſe they come, in ſuch ſhort time, as they maie conuenientlie: that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffe, and alſo to euerie maior, bailiffe, and other head officer of anie citie, or towne corporat, and to euerie other perſon, hauing authoritie, as is aforeſaid, after ſuch commandement, or requeſt by proclamation made, and to ſuch perſons, as ſhall be aſſembled, with anie iuſtice of peace, or ſhiriffe, or with anie maior, bailiffe, or other head officer of anie citie, or towne corporat, and with euerie other perſon, hauing authoritie, as is aforeſaid, to ſuppreſſe, apprehend, and take thoſe perſons, ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled, which after ſuch requeſt made, ſhall continue togither, and not endeuour themſelues to returne towards their habitations, or places from whenſe they came. And that if the ſaid perſons, ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled togither, or anie of them ſhall fortune to be killed, ſlaine, maimed, or hurt, in, or about the ſuppreſſing or taking of them: that then euerie ſuch iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffe, maior, bailiffe, and other head officer, and euerie other perſon hauing authoritie as is aforeſaid, and all and ſinguler perſons, by him or them aſſembled, ſhall be frée, diſcharged, and vnpuniſhable, aſwell againſt the king, as againſt all and euerie other perſon and perſons, of, for, or concerning the killing, ſlaieng, maiming, and hurting of anie perſon or perſons, ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled, that ſhall fortune to be killed, ſlaine, maimed, or hurt, about, or by occaſion of ſuppreſſing or taking of them.

And furthermore be it enacted, by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie copiholder, or cuſtomarie holder, being artificer, huſbandman or laborer, and being of the age of eightéene yéeres, or more, and vnder the age of fortie yéeres, not ſicke, impotent, lame, maimed, ne hauing anie other vſe,

iuſt, or reaſonable excuſe or cauſe to the contrarie, and being required by the ſhiriffe, iuſtice or iuſtices of peace, or other hauing authoritie by this act, or by commiſſion, or letters, as is aboue ſaid in that behalfe (they declaring their ſaid authoritie) or being required by the immediat lord or lords of whom ſuch copie holds, or cuſtomarie holds then ſhalbe holden to ſerue the kings maieſtie for anie the cauſes aboue rehearſed, and refuſe ſo to doo, ſhall onelie during the life of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing, forfeit and loſe to his or their lord or lords, of whom ſuch copie or cuſtomarie holds then ſhall be immediatlie holden, and ſhould be holden, during the life of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing, in caſe he or they had not ſo refuſed, all their copie holds, & cuſtomarie holds. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch lord or lords, their heires or aſſigns, of whom ſuch copie holds or cuſtomarie holds ſhall be immediatlie holden, and ſhould haue béene holden in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons had not ſo refuſed, by vertue of this preſent act, to enter and take into his or their hands & poſſeſſion, all ſuch copie holds, and cuſtomarie holds ſo holden of them, or anie of them immediatlie: and to reteine the ſame during onelie the life of euerie ſuch offendor or offendors, in ſuch maner & forme, as he or they ſhould haue had, the rents or ſeruices of ſuch copie hold or cuſtomarie hold in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing had not refuſed. And that all and euerie farmer being a yeoman, huſbandman, artificer, or laborer, and being of the age of eightéene yéeres or more, and vnder the age of thréeſcore yéers, not ſicke, impotent, lame, maimed, ne hauing anie other iuſt or reaſonable excuſe, or cauſe to the contrarie, and being required by the ſhiriffe, iuſtice, or iuſtices of the peace, or other hauing authoritie by this act, or by commiſſion or letters as is aforeſaid, in this behalfe (they declaring their ſaid authoritie) or being required by their landlord or landlords, for the time being, to whom the rents of ſuch farmes ſhall be then riſing, comming, or growing, to ſerue the kings maieſtie, for anie the cauſes aboue rehearſed, and refuſe ſo to doo, ſhall during onelie the life of ſuch farmer or farmers ſo refuſing, forfeit and loſe to ſuch landlord and landlords, as ſhould haue had the rents of ſuch farmers, during the life and liues of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing, all their ſaid farmes. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch landlord and landlords, their heirs and aſſignes, to whom the rents of ſuch farmes ſhould haue béene due, during the life of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing, in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons had not ſo refuſed, by vertue of this preſent act, to enter and take into his or their hands or poſſeſſion all ſuch farmes, and to reteine the ſame, during onelie the life of euerie ſuch offendor or offendors. Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the death of euerie ſuch copie holder, cuſtomarie holder, or farmer, as ſo ſhall offend, and forfeit anie of their ſaid copie holds, cuſtomarie holds, or farmes, as is aforeſaid, that then all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhould or ought to haue had the ſaid copie holds, cuſtomarie holds, or farmes, after or by the death of ſuch copie holder, cuſtomarie holder, or farmer, in caſe ſuch copie holder, cuſtomarie holder, or farmer, had not ſo offended ne forfeited, ſhall and maie haue the ſame copie holds, cuſtomarie holds, & farmes, by entrie, action, admiſſion, or otherwiſe, in like maner, forme & condition, and by ſuch waies and meanes, as they and euerie of them ſhould, might, or ought to haue had, if no ſuch forfeiture or offenſe had béene had, doone, or committed.

And furthermore it is ordeined and enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twelfe daie of Februarie, by open word or déed, ſhall procure, mooue, or ſtir anie other perſon or perſons to ariſe, or make anie traitorous or rebellious aſſemblie, to the intent to doo, exerciſe, or put in vſe anie of the things aboue mentioned: that then euerie perſon ſo procuring, mooning or ſtirring anie other, ſhall therefore be déemed, and adiudged a felon, and ſuffer paines of death, and forfeit his goods, chattels, lands, and tenements, as in caſes of felonie, and ſhall alſo léeſe the benefit of his clergie and ſanctuarie.

And alſo be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, which at anie time after the ſame daie, ſhall be ſpoken vnto, mooued or ſtirred, to make anie commotion, inſurrection, or vnlawfull aſſemblie for anie of the intents aboue mentioned, and doo not within foure and twentie houres, next after he or they ſhall be ſo ſpoken vnto, mooued or ſtirred (vnleſſe he ſhall haue a good and reaſonable cauſe of excuſe) declare the ſame to one iuſtice of peace, or ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie, or to the maior, ſhiriffes, bailiffe or bailiffes, or other head officer of anie citie, or towne corporat, where ſuch ſpeaking, motion, or ſtirring ſhall be had, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, vntill he ſhall be diſcharged, by thrée iuſtices of peace, of the ſame ſhire, where the offenſe ſhall be, whereof one of the ſaid iuſtices ſhall be of the Quorum.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie abouefaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, being about the age of eightéene yéeres, and vnder the age of thréeſcore yéeres, being able to ſerue, & not ſicke, lame, or impotent, ſhall be required by anie iuſtice of the peace, or anie ſhiriffe of anie countie, where anie ſuch aſſemblie ſhall be, or by anie maior, bailiffe, or other head officer, of anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, or by anie other, by the commandement of anie ſuch iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffe, maior, bailiffe, or other head officer, to go with him or them, to ſuppreſſe the perſons vnlawfullie aſſembled in maner and forme aforeſaid, that then euerie perſon ſo being able and required, doo willinglie and obſtinatlie refuſe ſo to doo, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his bodie for one yéere without baile or mainpriſe, and make fine and ranſome at the kings will and pleaſure.

Prouided alwaies, and it is enacted by the authoritie abouefaid, that if the king ſhall by his letters patents make anie lieutenant, in anie countie or counties of this realme, for the ſuppreſſing of anie commotion, rebellion, or vnlawfull aſſemblie; that then all iuſtices of peace, of euerie ſuch countie, and the ſhiriffes and ſhiriffe of the ſame, as all maiors, bailiffes, and other head officers, and all inhabitants and ſubiects, of anie countie, citie, borough, or towne corporat, within euerie ſuch countie, ſhall vpon the declaration of the ſaid letters patents, and requeſt made, be bound to giue attendance vpon the ſame lieutenant, to ſuppreſſe anie commotion, rebellion, or vnlawfull aſſemblie, vnleſſe he or they, being ſo required, haue anie reaſonable excuſe for his not attendance, vpon paine of impriſonment of one whole yéere.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the order and forme of the proclamations, that ſhall be made by the authoritie of this act, ſhall be as hereafter followeth, or with the like order, and words in effect, that is to ſaie, the iuſtice or other perſon authorized by this act, to make the ſaid proclamation, ſhall make or cauſe to be made an O-yes, and after that, ſhall openlie pronounce, or cauſe to be pronounced theſe words, or like in effect. ¶ The king our ſoueraigne lord, chargeth, and commandeth all perſons being aſſembled, immediatlie to diſperſe themſelues, and peaceablie to depart to their habitations, or to their lawfull buſines, vpon the paines conteined in the act latelie made againſt vnlawfull and rebellious aſſemblies. And God ſaue the king.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, do, or ſhall moleſt, let, hinder, or hurt anie perſon or perſons, that ſhall proclame, or go to proclame, according to the proclamation and order made in the ſtatute aforeſaid, whereby ſuch proclamation ſhall not be made: that then all and euerie ſuch perſon ⁊ perſons, ſo moleſting, letting, hindering, or hurting, and all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, offendor or offendors, to whome anie ſuch proclamation or proclamations ſhould, or ought to be made, to the intent aforeſaid, ſhall incur, and be in like danger, and ſuffer like paine or paines, and forfeitures, as aforeſaid, in euerie of their degrées, as though the proclamation had béene made, anie clauſe, article, or ſentence, héretofore in this act included, made to the contrarie, notwithſtanding. And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act ſhall be openlie read at euerie quarter ſeſſion. Sauing to the biſhop of Dureſme, and biſhop of Elie, and all other that haue charter of the countie Palantine, and to their ſucceſſors, the yéere, daie, and waſt, in ſuch ſort, as by the ſaid charter they had, or might haue had the ſame, if this act had neuer béene had ne made: this act, or anie thing therein conteined, to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Sauing alſo to all and euerie perſon and perſons, and heires in taile, bodies politike and corporat, their heires, ſucceſſors, and executors, and to euerie of them, other than to ſuch perſon and perſons onelie, as ſhall be atteinted, conuicted, or outlawed for anie of the foreſaid offenſes of fellonie or treaſon, and their heires, or the heires of anie of them, claming by deſcent in fée ſimple, from them, or anie of them, all ſuch right, title, entrie, intereſt, leaſes, poſſeſſions, rents, conditions, profits, commodities, and aduantages, as they or anie of them hath, or héreafter ſhall haue, or of right ought to haue, in or to anie honors, caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, woods, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, or hereditaments whatſoeuer, or in or to anie part or parcell thereof, to be forfeited for anie of the offenſes aforeſaid, as if ſuch atteindor or forfeiture had neuer béene had ne made, anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And ſauing to all and euerie bodie, and bodies politike and corporat, and their ſucceſſors, their liberties and franchiſes, in ſuch maner and forme, as if this act had neuer béene had ne made. This act to continue to the end of the next parlement.

An act concerning the repeale of a branch of an act of parlement, made in the laſt ſeſſion for buieng of tanned leather.

Chap.6.

WHere at your maieſties parlement, holden at Weſtminſter vpon prorogation, the fouretéenth daie of March, in this preſent third yéere of your moſt victorious reigne, amongſt other things it was enacted, that no perſon occupieng the feat or myſterie of currier, cordwainer, ſadler, cobler, girdler, leatherſeller, bottelmaker, or anie other artificer, ſhould from, and after the feaſt of Michaelmas then next following, ſell, or cauſe to be ſold, or put to ſale, anie backes or hides of anie Engliſh kind of tanned leather vnwrought, or in ſuch kind as he ſhould buie the ſame (calues ſkins onelie excepted) vpon paine of forfeiting for euerie hide, backe, or parcell of leather, that he or they ſhould ſo ſell, contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute, ten ſhillings. Sithen the making of which act, great ⁊ innumerable inconueniences hath, ⁊ hereafter is like to come therof. Firſt, neither girdler, cordwainer, ſadler, malemaker, bottlemaker, or anie other artificer, vſing tanned leather in their art, is or ſhall be able, at anie time, at anie inſtant to ſerue the kings maieſtie, his nobles, lords, ⁊ commons, either of bootes, ſhoes, girdels, ſadles, bare hides, males, cofers, pots, or other things made of leather, for that the moſt part of the artificers aforeſaid béene poore men, not alwaies able to prouide ſtore of ſuch ſorts of leather, as ſhould ſerue their turne, in making ſuch things as is before mentioned, but muſt of neceſſitie prouide ſuch lether, one of them of another, as euer heretofore they haue accuſtomed to do, which now by force of the extremitie of the ſaid act they may not do, which is vnto the great hurt ⁊ hinderance aſwell of the kings maieſtie, as of his nobles, lords, ⁊ commons, for that they, ⁊ euerie of them, be driuen of neceſſitie to buie their leather of a few perſons which béene onelie méere regrators of the ſaid leather, at great, high, ⁊ vnreſonable prices, to the great hurt of the common welth, whereby the ſaid artificers be not able to aford the ſaid wares made therof ſo good cheape as they haue done heretofore. And alſo by reaſon of the aforeſaid reſtreint or bondage of the foreſaid artificers, from buieng and ſelling of leather:

there is no man ſith that time, willing to ſet or put his or their children to be prentiſe with anie of the foreſaid artificers: for that not onelie they and euerie of them beene brought in ſuch bondage, by reaſon of the ſaid act, but alſo by the means whereof are neuer like to grow to anie neceſſarie ſubſtance, neither by the exerciſe of the ſaid handicrafts, to ſuſteine the neceſſities of their old age withall: and not onelie that, but alſo to all cities, boroughes, corporat townes thereby they loſe benefit and commoditie of their charter and freedome. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that it ſhall be lawfull from henſeforth, to and for euerie of the ſaid artificers, or handicrafts men, expreſſed or named in the foreſaid act, to buie and ſell all maner of tanned lether, curried or not curried, ſo that ſuch ſhall be conuerted, by ſuch buier or buiers, vnto anie kind of wares or other things, made of tanned lether, within this realme of England, or other the kings dominions, anie words, penalties, or forfeitures, compriſed or ſpecified in the aboue remembred act, to the contrarie heereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act ſhall indure but onelie vnto the end of the next parlement.

An act for the repeale of a ſtatute made in the fiue and twentith yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, touching the taking of wild fowle, at certeine times of the yeare.

WHere in the fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of your maieſtie's father, of moſt famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, an act was made conteining two branches, whereof the one was againſt the taking of wild fowle, betweene the laſt daie of Maie, and the laſt daie of Auguſt, with anie nets or engins, vpon a paine limited thervpon, as in the ſaid ſtatute more largelie dooth appeare: foraſmuch as the occaſion of the ſaid branches appeareth ſithen to haue riſen but vpon a priuat caſe, and that no manner of common commodities is ſithen perceiued to be growne of the ſame, being notablie, by dailie experience found and knowne, that there is at this preſent leſſe plentie of fowle brought vnto the markets, than was before the making of the ſaid act, which is taken to come of the puniſhment of God, whoſe benefit was thereby taken awaie from the poore people, that were woont to liue by their ſkill in taking of the ſaid fowle, whereby they were woont at that time to ſuſteine themſelues, with their poore houſholds, to the great ſauing of other kinds of victuals, of the which aid they are now deſtitute, to their great and extreame impoueriſhing: humblie beſeeching your grace your maieſties true and faithfull ſubiects, eſpeciallie ſuch as haue their places of habitation nigh vnto the fens, that all that branch of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid fiue and twentith yeere of your graces ſaid father of moſt noble memorie, touching the taking of wild fowle, in manner as is aboueſaid, may be from henſeforth by your maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, repealed, and vtterlie void, and of none effect, with all and euerie article, ſentence, matter, paines, and forfeitures, conteined, or otherwiſe mentioned in the ſaid branch, as if the ſame act had neuer beene had, ne made. Chap.7.

Prouided, and be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that one other branch, conteined in the ſaid act, concerning ſuch perſons as ſhall preſume by daie or night willinglie to withdraw, purloine, take, deſtroie, or conueie, anie manner of egs, of anie kind of wildfowle, from, or in anie neſt, place or places, where they ſhall chance to be laid, by anie kind of wild fowle, with euerie article, ſentence, matter, paines, forfeitures, and prouiſions, conteined, or mentioned in this ſaid laſt branch, ſtand in full ſtrength and effect, to all purpoſes, intents, and conſtructions, as if this preſent act had neuer beene had nor made.

An act for the continuance of the ſtatute of ſewers.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, by prorogation the fifteenth daie of Ianuarie, in the three and twentith yeere of the moſt victorious reigne of our late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, among other things, one generall act, concerning commiſſions of ſewers, to be directed into all parts within this realme, was enacted and made to continue and indure for twentie yeeres then next following, as by the ſame act more at large it dooth and may appeare; and foraſmuch as the ſame act is thought good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore enacted and ordeined by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions, in the ſame conteined, ſhall continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and to be obſerued and kept for euer, in ſuch maner and forme, as ſhall and may ſtand with the ſequell and additions heereafter mentioned. Chap.8.

And be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſcots, lots, and ſummes of monie heereafter to be rated and taxed, by vertue of ſuch commiſſion of ſewers, vpon anie the lands, tenements, or hereditaments of our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, for anie manner of thing or things, concerning the articles of the ſaid commiſſion of ſewers, ſhall be gathered and leuied by diſtreſſe, or otherwiſe, in like maner and forme as ſhall or may be doone in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of anie other perſon or perſons, and that all bils of acquittance, ſigned with the hand or the hands of ſuch collector or receiuer, ſuch countie, and the ſhiriffes and ſhiriffe of the ſame, as all maiors, bailiffes, and other head officers, and all inhabitants and ſubiects, of anie countie, citie, borough, or towne corporat, within euerie ſuch countie, ſhall vpon the declaration of the ſaid letters patents, and requeſt made, be bound to giue attendance vpon the ſame lieutenant, to ſuppreſſe anie commotion, rebellion, or vnlawfull aſſemblie, vnleſſe he or they, being ſo required, haue anie reaſonable excuſe for his not attendance, vpon paine of impriſonment of one whole yéere.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the order and forme of the proclamations, that ſhall be made by the authoritie of this act, ſhall be as hereafter followeth, or with the like order, and words in effect, that is to ſaie, the iuſtice or other perſon authorized by this act, to make the ſaid proclamation, ſhall make or cauſe to be made an O-yes, and after that, ſhall openlie pronounce, or cauſe to be pronounced theſe words, or like in effect. ¶ The king our ſouereigne lord, chargeth, and commandeth all perſons being aſſembled, immediatlie to diſperſe themſelues, and peaceablie to depart to their habitations, or to their lawfull buſines, vpon the paines conteined in the act latelie made againſt vnlawfull and rebellious aſſemblies. And God ſaue the king.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, doo, or ſhall moleſt, let, hinder, or hurt anie perſon or perſons, that ſhall proclame, or go to proclame, according to the proclamation and order made in the ſtatute aforeſaid, whereby ſuch proclamation ſhall not be made: that then all and euerie ſuch perſon & perſons, ſo moleſting, letting, hindering, or hurting, and all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, offendor or offendors, to whome anie ſuch proclamation or proclamations ſhould, or ought to be made, to the intent aforeſaid, ſhall incur, and be in like danger, and ſuffer like paine or paines, and forfeitures, as aforeſaid, in euerie of their degrées, as though the proclamation had béene made, anie clauſe, article, or ſentence, héeretofore in this act included, made to the contrarie, notwithſtanding. And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act ſhall be openlie read at euerie quarter ſeſſion. Sauing to the biſhop of Dureſme, and biſhop of Elie, and all other that haue charter of the countie Palantine, and to their ſucceſſors, the yéere, daie, and waſt, in ſuch ſort, as by the ſaid charter they had, or might haue had the ſame, if this act had neuer béene had ne made: this act, or anie thing therein conteined, to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Sauing alſo to all and euerie perſon and perſons, and heires in taile, bodies politike and corporat, their heires, ſucceſſors, and executors, and to euerie of them, other than to ſuch perſon and perſons onelie, as ſhall be atteinted, conuicted, or outlawed for anie of the foreſaid offenſes of fellonie or treaſon, and their heires, or the heires of anie of them, claming by deſcent in fée ſimple, from them, or anie of them, all ſuch right, title, entrie, intereſt, leaſes, poſſeſſions, rents, conditions, profits, commodities, and aduantages, as they or anie of them hath, or héereafter ſhall haue, or of right ought to haue, in or to anie honors, caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, woods, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, or hereditaments whatſoeuer, or in or to anie part or parcell thereof, to be forfeited for anie of the offenſes aforeſaid, as if ſuch atteindor or forfeiture had neuer béene had ne made, anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And ſauing to all and euerie bodie, and bodies politike and corporat, and their ſucceſſors, their liberties and franchiſes, in ſuch maner and forme, as if this act had neuer béene had ne made. This act to continue to the end of the next parlement.

An act concerning the repeale of a branch of an act of parlement, made in the laſt ſeſſion for buieng of tanned leather.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act ſhall indure but onelie vnto the end of the next parlement.

An act for the repeale of a ſtatute made in the fiue and twentith yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, touching the taking of wild fowle, at certeine times of the yeare.

Prouided, and be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that one other branch, conteined in the ſaid act, concerning ſuch perſons as ſhall preſume by daie or night willinglie to withdraw, purloine, take, deſtroie, or conueie, anie manner of egs, of anie kind of wildfowle, from, or in anie neſt, place or places, where they ſhall chance to be laid, by anie kind of wild fowle, with euerie article, ſentence, matter, paines, forfeitures, and prouiſions, conteined, or mentioned in this ſaid laſt branch, ſtand in full ſtrength and effect, to all purpoſes, intents, and conſtructions, as if this preſent act had neuer béene had nor made.

An act for the continuance of the ſtatute of ſewers.

Chap.8. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, by prorogation the fiftéenth daie of Ianuarie, in the thrée and twentith yéere of the moſt victorious reigne of our late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, among other things, one generall act, concerning commiſſions of ſewers, to be directed into all parts within this realme, was enacted and made to continue and indure for twentie yéeres then next following, as by the ſame act more at large it dooth and may appeare; and foraſmuch as the ſame act is thought good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore enacted and ordeined by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions, in the ſame conteined, ſhall continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and to be obſerued and kept for euer, in ſuch maner and forme, as ſhall and may ſtand with the ſequell and additions héereafter mentioned.

And be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſcots, lots, and ſummes of monie héereafter to be rated and taxed, by vertue of ſuch commiſſion of ſewers, vpon anie the lands, tenements, or hereditaments of our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, for anie manner of thing or things, concerning the articles of the ſaid commiſſion of ſewers, ſhall be gathered and leuied by diſtreſſe, or otherwiſe, in like maner and forme as ſhall or may be doone in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of anie other perſon or perſons, and that all bils of acquittance, ſigned with the hand or the hands of ſuch collector or receiuer, as ſhall haue the collection thereof by the appointment of the ſaid commiſſioners, or ſix of them, ſhall be aſwell a ſufficient diſcharge, to the tenants, farmers, and occupiers of the ſame ground, ſo to be charged for the ſaid ſum, wherewith their grounds ſhall be ſo charged, as alſo a ſufficient warrant to all and euerie the receiuers, auditors, and other whatſoeuer officer or officers, of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heires, and ſucceſſors, for the allowance to ſuch tenant, farmer, or occupier for the ſame, adding moreouer vnto this act, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that ſuch, and like fées, and none other, nor more, ſhall be at anie time paid or demanded, for anie commiſſion, or commiſſions, or writs of Dedimus poteſtatem, héereafter to be ſued out, or obteined vnder the ſeale of the duchie, but onelie ſuch and like fées as béene mentioned in the ſaid former act, to be paid in the chancerie, for commiſſions and writs of Dedimus poteſtatem, to be obteined from the ſame court of chancerie, adding moreouer thereunto by the authoritie abouesaid, that euerie commiſſion, and commiſſions, héereafter to be awarded for ſewers, ſhall continue and indure for terme of fiue years, next after the Teſte of ſuch commiſſion, vnleſſe the ſame commiſſion and commiſſions, ſhall be otherwiſe diſcharged, within the ſame by Superſedeas, anie thing or things mentioned or conteined in the ſaid former act, contrarie to the additions before mentioned, or anie of them, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for buieng of raw hides and calues skins.

Chap.9. FOraſmuch as lether is growen to an vnreaſonale price, whereby the kings ſubiects are not able at this daie to prouide themſelues ſuch neceſſaries thereof made, as ſhoes, and boots, and ſuch like, at anie reaſonable price, as they héeretofore haue doone, to the vtter impoueriſhment of diuerſe the kings louing and obedient ſubiects, which ſaid vnreaſonable prices of lether, doth onelie grow and riſe by reaſon of the vnſatiable deſire of diuerſe and ſundrie perſons being no tanners, which dailie in euerie market and other place, buie and regrate gréene hides, in the haire and out of the haire to their hands, to the intent to ſell the ſame to their owne lucre and gaine. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons within this realme, ſhall from and after the feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie next comming, buie or cauſe to be bought anie calues ſkins or hides in the haire, or out of the haire, to the intent to ſell againe the ſame vntanned, except onelie ſuch perſon and perſons, as will tan or taw the ſame, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſkin or hide ſo bought, to the intent to ſell againe, as aforeſaid, ſix ſhillings eight penſe. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be vnto our ſouereigne lord the king; the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, in anie the kings courts, by bill, plaint, or other lawfull proceſſe, wherein no protection or wager of law, nor yet anie eſſoine to the partie defendant ſhall be allowed or admitted.

An act for the aboliſhing and putting awaie of diuerſe bookes and images.

Chap.10. WHere the kings moſt excellent maieſtie hath of late ſet forth and eſtabliſhed by authoritie of parlement, an vniforme, quiet, and godlie order of common and open praier, in a booke intituled The booke of common praier, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, and other rites and ceremonies after the church of England, to be vſed and obſerued in the ſaid church of England, agréeable to the order of the primitiue church, much more comfortable vnto his louing ſubiects, than other diuerſitie of ſeruice as héeretofore of long time hath béene vſed, being in the ſaid booke ordeined nothing to be read, but the verie pure word of God, or which is euidentlie grounded vpon the ſame, and in the other things corrupt, vntrue, vaine, and ſuperſtitious, and as it were a preparation to ſuperſtition, which for that they be not called in, but permitted to remaine vndefaced, doo not onelie giue occaſion to ſuch peruerſe perſons, as doo impugne the order and godlie meaning of the kings ſaid booke of common praier, to continue in their old accuſtomed ſuperſtitious ſeruice, but alſo miniſter great occaſion to diuerſitie of opinions, rites, ceremonies and ſeruices. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that all bookes called antiphoners, miſſals, grails, proceſſionals, manuels, legendies, pies, portuaſſes, primers in Latine or Engliſh, couchers, iournals, ordinals, or other bookes or writings whatſoeuer, héeretofore vſed for ſeruice of the church, written or printed in the Engliſh or Latine tong, other than ſuch as are or ſhall be ſet forth by the kings maieſtie, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent act cleerelie and vtterlie aboliſhed, extinguiſhed, and forbidden for euer to be vſed, or kept in this realme, or elſewhere within anie the kings dominions.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſo euer he, ſhe, or they be, bodies politike or corporat, that now haue, or héereafter ſhall haue in his, hir, or their cuſtodie, anie the bookes or writings of the ſorts aforeſaid, or anie images of ſtone, timber, alabaſter, or earth, grauen, carued, or painted, which héeretofore haue béene taken out of anie church or chapell, or yet ſtand in anie church or chapell, and doo not, before the laſt daie of Iune next inſuing, deface and deſtroie, or cauſe to be defaced and deſtroied the ſame images and euerie of them, and deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered, all and euerie the ſame bookes to the maior, bailiffe, conſtable, or churchwardens of the towne, where ſuch bookes then ſhall be, to be by them deliuered ouer openlie within thrée months next folowing after the ſaid deliuerie to the archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, or commiſſarie of the ſame dioceſſe, to the intent the ſaid archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, or commiſſarie, and euerie of them, cauſe them immediatlie either to be openlie burnt, or otherwaies defaced and deſtroied, ſhall for euerie ſuch booke or bookes willinglie reteined in his, hir, or their hands or cuſtodie, within this realme, or elſewhere within anie the kings dominions, and not deliuered, as is aforeſaid, after the ſaid laſt daie of June, and be thereof lawfullie conuict, forfeit and looſe to the king our ſoueraigne lord, for the firſt offenſe ten ſhillings, and for the ſecond offenſe ſhall forfeit and looſe being thereof lawfullie conuict, foure pounds, and for the third offenſe, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment at the kings will.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie maiors, bailiffes, conſtables, or churchwardens, doo not within thrée moneths after the receipt of the ſame bookes, deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered, ſuch bookes ſo by them receiued, to the archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor or commiſſarie of their dioceſſe: and if the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, chancellor, or commiſſaries, doo not within fortie daies after the receipt of ſuch bookes, burne, deface, and deſtroie, or cauſe to be burned, defaced or deſtroied the ſame bookes, and euerie of them, that then they and euerie of them ſo offending, ſhall looſe and forfeit to our ſoueraigne lord the king, being thereof lawfullie conuict, fortie pounds: the one halfe of all ſuch forfeitures ſhall be to anie of the kings ſubiects, that will ſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, in which action no eſſoine, protection, wager of law, or other delais ſhall be allowed.

And for better execution of the ſame act, be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well iuſtices of aſſiſe in their circuits, as iuſtices of peace, within the limits of their commiſſion in the generall ſeſſions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, to inquire of the offenſes aforeſaid, and to heare and determine the ſame in ſuch forme as they may doo in other ſuch like caſes.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that anie perſon or perſons, may vſe, kéepe, haue and reteine anie primers in the Engliſh or Latine toong, ſet forth by the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, ſo that the ſentences of inuocation or praier to ſaints, in the ſame primers, be blotted or cléerelie put out of the ſame, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act that the kings maieſtie may nominat and appoint two and thirtie perſons, to peruſe and make eccleſiaſticall lawes.

Chap. [illegible]

ALbeit the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, gouernour and ruler vnder God of this realme, ought moſt iuſtlie to haue the gouernement of his ſubiects, and the determination of their cauſes, as well eccleſiaſticall as temporall, yet the ſame as concerning eccleſiaſticall cauſes, hauing not of long time béene put in vre nor exerciſed, by the reaſon of the vſurped authoritie of the biſhop of Rome, be not perfectlie vnderſtand nor knowne of his ſubiects, and therefore of neceſſitie, aſwell for the aboliſhing and putting to vtter obliuion the ſaid vſurped authoritie, as for the neceſſarie adminiſtration of iuſtice, to his louing ſubiects: it may pleaſe his highneſſe, that it may be enacted by his moſt gratious aſſent, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the kings maieſtie ſhall from henſeforth during thrée yéeres, haue full power, authoritie, and libertie, to nominat and aſſigne by the aduiſe of his highneſſe counſell, ſixtéene perſons of the clergie, whereof foure to be biſhops, and ſixtéene perſons of the temporaltie, whereof foure to be learned in the common lawes of this realme, to peruſe and examine the eccleſiaſticall lawes of long time héere vſed, and to gather, order, and compile ſuch lawes eccleſiaſticall, as ſhall be thought to his maieſtie, his ſaid counſell, and them or the more part of them, conuenient to be vſed, practiſed and ſet forth within this his realme, and other his dominions, in all ſpirituall or eccleſiaſticall courts and conuentions. And if after ſuch nomination anie of the perſons ſo to be nominated, happen to die, that then his highneſſe by the aduiſe of his ſaid counſell, during the ſaid thrée yeares, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, from time to time, to nominat and aſſigne other in their places, to ſupplie the ſaid number of two and thirtie perſons, and that the ſaid two and thirtie perſons ſo nominat, as is aforeſaid, at all times from time to time, during the ſaid thrée yéeres, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to aſſemble themſelues by his highneſſe commandement, for the perfect collection, compiling and ordering of the ſaid lawes. And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch lawes eccleſiaſticall ſo compiled, gathered and ordered by the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, or the more number of them, and ſet forth, publiſhed, and declared by the kings maieſties proclamations, with the ſaid aduiſe vnder his highneſſe great ſeale, ſhall by vertue of this preſent act be onelie taken, reputed, practiſed, and put in vre for the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes of this realme, and no other, anie law, eſtatute, vſage, or preſcription, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Provided alwaies, and it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons, ſhall at anie time héereafter incur, or be in anie contempt, paine, forfeiture or loſſe, or in danger of anie action, or ſute of premunire, by meane or occaſion of executing, or putting in exerciſe of anie lawes or matter, which ſhall be deuiſed by the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, or the more part of them, and ſet forth by proclamation vnder the great ſeale of England, or for holding of anie maner of plée or making of anie proceſſe, touching or concerning anie ſuch lawes or matter, anie eſtatute, law, or cuſtome to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that all and euerie eccleſiaſticall iudge and miniſter, that ſhall execute anie thing by vertue of anie ſuch lawes ſo to be ſet forth, as is abouesaid, ſhall from time to time obeie the kings writ and writs of prohibition of attachment, vpon prohibition and Indicauit, and not to procéed contrarie to the tenor of ſuch writ or writs, in ſuch and the ſame maner, forme, and condition, as they haue, or ought to haue done before the making of this act, anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend, or be interpreted, to giue anie authoritie to the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, or to the more number of them, or to the kings highneſſe, for to compile, ſtabliſh, publiſh, or ſet forth anie eccleſiaſticall law repugnant, or contrarie to anie common law or ſtatute of this realme, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the ordering of eccleſiaſticall miniſters.

Chap. 12.

Foraſmuch as concord and vnitie is to be had within the kings maieſties dominions, it is requiſit to haue one vniforme faſhion and manner, for making and conſecrating of biſhops, préeſts, deacons, or miniſters of the church: be it therefore enacted by the kings highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that ſuch forme and manner of making and conſecrating of archbiſhops, biſhops, préeſts, deacons, and other miniſters of the church, as by ſix prelats, and ſix other men of this realme learned in Gods law, by the kings maieſtie to be appointed and aſſigned, or by the moſt number of them ſhall be deuiſed for that purpoſe, and ſet forth vnder the great ſeale of England, before the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, ſhall by vertue of this preſent act be lawfullie exerciſed and vſed, and none other, anie eſtatute, law, or vſage to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And that the ſaid ſir William Sharington, and all and ſingular the children and iſſues of the bodie of the ſaid ſir William Sharington, and all and euerie other perſon and perſons, being of the whole bloud to the ſaid ſir William Sharington, maie and by authoritie of this preſent act ſhall be from henſeforth reſtored and inabled in bloud and name, to demand, aſke, haue, and inioy all and ſingular ſuch manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with their appurtenances whatſoeuer they bee, which at anie time heereafter ſhall deſcend, reuert, remaine, come or grow to the ſaid ſir William Sharington, or his heires by deſcent, purchaſe, gift, or otherwiſe, in ſuch the ſame, and like maner, forme, and condition to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if the ſaid ſir William Sharington had neuer beene atteinted. And that the ſame ſir William Sharington, his executors and adminiſtrators, ſhall and maie in his or their owne name and names, ſue, aſke, and demand all ſuch debts, couenants, and other things, to the ſaid ſir William Sharington growen, due, had, or made, by or vpon anie writing, ſpecialtie, or record, at anie time before the ſaid atteindor or atteindors, which the kings highneſſe hath or ſhall by his letters patents, or otherwiſe giue, grant, appoint, or aſſigne, to the ſaid ſir William Sharington, and the monie and other profit thereof comming, to conuert, haue, and reteine to the vſe of the ſaid ſir William Sharington, his executors or adminiſtrators, in ſuch, the ſame, and in like maner, forme, and condition, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if the ſaid ſir William Sharington ſhould or might haue doone, if he had neuer beene atteinted.

Chap.15.

IN moſt humble wiſe ſheweth vnto your highneſſe your faithfull ſubiect Marie Seimor, daughter of ſir Thomas Seimor knight, late lord Seimor of Sudlie, & late high admerall of England, begotten of the bodie of queene Katharine late queene of England, and late wife to the ſaid Thomas lord Seimor, and before that, wife to your moſt noble father of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight; that whereas the ſaid Thomas lord Seimor, by authoritie of your highneſſe court of parlement, holden at Weſtminſter, in the ſecond yeere of your moſt noble reigne, was iuſtlie atteinted of high treaſon, and by reaſon thereof your ſaid ſubiect ſtandeth, and is a perſon in hir bloud and linage corrupted: it maie pleaſe your highneſſe of your moſt noble and abundant grace, that it maie be at the humble petition of your ſaid ſubiect ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by your highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that your ſaid ſubiect, and hir heires maie be and ſhall be, by authoritie of this act, reſtored and inabled onelie in bloud, as daughter and heire and heires to the ſaid Thomas lord Seimor. And your ſaid ſubiect ſhall dailie praie to God for your moſt noble grace in honor long to continue.

An act againſt fond and fantaſticall propheſies.

Chap.15. Where now of late ſithen the prorogation of the laſt ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, diuers euill diſpoſed perſons, minding to ſtir and moue ſedition, diſobedience and rebellion, haue of their peruerſe minds, fained, imagined, inuented, publiſhed and practiſed diuerſe fantaſticall and fond propheſies, concerning the kings maieſtie, and diuerſe honorable perſons, gentlemen, and commons of this realme, to the great diſturbance and perill of the kings maieſtie, and this his realme: for remedie thereof, be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the firſt daie of Februarie next comming, doo ſet forth in writing, printing, ſinging, ſpeaking, and publiſh or otherwiſe declare, to anie perſon or perſons, anie fantaſticall or falſe propheſie, vpon occaſion of anie armes, feelds, beaſts, foules, badges, & ſuch other like things accuſtomed in armes, cogniſances, or ſignets, or by reaſon of anie time, yeere or daie, name bloudſhed or warre, to the intent thereby to make anie rebellion, inſurrection, diſſention, loſſe of life, or other diſturbance, within the realme, or other the kings dominions: that then euerie ſuch perſon thereof being lawfullie indicted, and conuicted, according to the due courſe of the lawes, for euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his bodie, by the ſpace of one yeere without baile or mainpriſe, and ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe the ſumme of ten pounds.

And if anie ſuch offendor doo after ſuch conuiction eftſoones offend in anie of the premiſſes, & be thereof lawfullie indicted, and conuicted by the due courſe of the lawes, that then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall for his ſecond offenſe and conuiction, as is aboue ſaid, ſuffer impriſonment of his bodie, without baile or mainpriſe, during his life, and ſhall forfeit all his goods, and chatels, reals and perſonals, the moities of euerie which forfeitures ſhall be to the king, and the other moities thereof to him, that ſhall or will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by action, bill, plaint or information, in which caſe no eſſoine, wager of law, or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie iuſtice of aſſiſe, iuſtice of Oier & determiner, iuſtice of peace, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue hereof, to inquire, heare and determine all and euerie offenſe, or offenſes aboueſaid, committed or doone within the limits of their commiſſion, contrarie to the tenor and meaning of this act.

Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons, ſhall at anie time hereafter be impeached for anie offenſe hereafter to be committed or doone, contrarie to this act, vnleſſe he be thereof impeached, or accuſed, within ſix moneths next inſuing anie ſuch offenſe, by him or them committed to be doone. And this act to indure to the end of the next parlement.

An act touching the puniſhment of vagabonds and other idle perſons.

Chap.16. Forasmuch as it is notoriouſlie ſeene and knowen, that vagabonds and beggers doo dailie increaſe within this the kings highnes realme into verie great numbers, cheeflie by occaſion of idlenes, mother and root of all vices, whereby doo inſue continuall thefts, murders, conſpiracies, and other ſundrie heinous offenſes, and partlie for that the good and wholeſome lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, hath not beene put in due execution, and partlie alſo, by reaſon of the multitude of the ſame (the extremitie of ſome wherof haue beene occaſion that they haue not beene put in vre) therefore, and for diuerſe good conſiderations it is enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſtatute made in the firſt yeere of the kings highnes moſt noble reigne concerning idle perſons and vacabonds in certeine caſes, to be made ſlaues and ſo forth, and all and euerie article, matter, prouiſo, branch, and ſentence therein conteined, ſhall be from henſeforth vtterlie repealed, made fruſtrate, void, and of none effect.

And that the ſtatute concerning how aged and impotent perſons ſhould be ordred for their better releefe, and how vacabonds and ſtrong beggers ſhould be puniſhed, made in the xxij yeere of the late king of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight, and euerie matter, article, prouiſo, branch, and ſentence therein conteined, to be from henſeforth reuiued, made good, and ſtand in full ſtrength and vertue, and ſhall continue and remaine a perfect act of parlement for euer.

And be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all iuſtices of peace, and euerie of them within the limits of their commiſſion, & the maiors, ſhiriffs, bailiffs, and other officers within their ſeuerall rules and offices, ſhall within their ſeuerall limits aſſemble togither and make their ſeuerall diuiſion, according to the purport and effect of this act, at the next generall quarter ſeſſions of the peace to be holden after the feaſt of Eaſter next to come, for the due, ſpeedie and diligent execution of the ſame act. And that if anie ſuch aged or impotent perſon after the feaſt of Eaſter next to come, ſhall offend contrarie to this eſtatute, that then the ſaid offendor ſhall be vſed and puniſhed, as in the ſame eſtatute of the two and twentith yeere of king Henrie the eight is prouided. And that before the feaſt of Eaſter no puniſhment ſhall be put in execution againſt anie ſuch impotent, lame, and aged perſon, but onelie by the diſcretion of the next iuſtice of peace of the ſame ſhire where ſuch an offendor ſhall be apprehended, anie thing in the ſaid act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And for the auoiding of the idle loitering of common laborers of huſbandrie within this relme: be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch common laborers, beeing perſons able in bodie, vſing loitering, and refuſing to worke for ſuch reaſonable wages as is moſt commonlie giuen in the parties where ſuch perſons ſhall dwell, ſhall be for euerie ſuch times as he or they refuſe to labor, hauing reaſonable wages, as is aforeſaid, adiudged vacabonds, and ſhall be puniſhed as ſtrong and mightie vacabonds, in ſuch maner and forme as is declared in the ſaid act of two and twentith againſt vacabonds. And touching maimed, lamed and ſore, aged and impotent perſons, which reſorteth to the citie of London, and to other cities, townes and villages on begging: be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular maiors, ſhiriffs, bailiffs, conſtables, or other head officers of anie citie, towne, or village, to which ſuch reſort is, or ſhall be, ſhall before the feaſt of the purification of our ladie next following, ſee all ſuch idle, impotent, maimed, and aged perſons, who otherwiſe cannot by their diſcretions be taken for vacabonds, which were borne within the ſaid citie, towne or village, or hath been there moſt conuerſant and abiding by the ſpace of three yeeres, and now decaied, beſtowed and prouided for, of the tenantries, cottages, or other conuenient houſes to be lodged in, at the coſts and charges of the ſaid cities, townes, boroughs and villages, there to be releeued, and cured by the deuotion of good people of the ſaid citie, borough, towne or village, and that they do not ſuffer after the time before rehearſed, anie other than ſuch as either were borne, or hath beene for the moſt part conuerſant, or abiding by the ſpace of three yeeres, as is aforeſaid in the ſaid citie, borough, towne, or village, to remaine and beg abroad within the precincts of ſuch cities, townes, villages, or boroughs. Except it be ſuch as haue letters, or are authoriſed or licenſed by force of this act, vpon paine that euerie ſuch maiors, ſhiriffs and bailiffs, conſtable, or other head officer, by what name ſoeuer he be called, ſuffering anie perſon to beg within the precinct of his or their ſuch iuriſdiction, other then is before rehearſed, for euerie three daies ſhall forfeit ten ſhillings, to whome ſoeuer will ſue therefore, by bill, information, or action of debt, in anie court of record, in the which ſutes, no eſſoine, ne wager of lawe, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the maior of the citie of London, and all other maiors, bailiffs, ſhiriffs, conſtables, and other head officers of euerie citie, borough, or towne corporat, and of euerie other towne & village, doo with all conuenient ſpeed by themſelues or their ſufficient deputies, before the feaſt of the purificatiin of our ladie next comming, and ſo from time to time euerie moneth once, make a view and examination of aged, impotent, & lame perſons, beggers, as be within the precinct of their iuriſdictions, and ſee all ſuch as were not borne nor hath beene for the moſt part conuerſant and abiding by the ſpace of three yeeres complete, or haue not letters, and authoriſed or licenſed by the force of this eſtatute, conueied on horſebacke, cart, or otherwiſe, as ſhall ſeeme by their diſcretions, to the next conſtables, and they to conueie the ſame to the next conſtables, and ſo from conſtable to conſtable, till the ſaid perſons be brought to the place where they were borne, or moſt conuerſant and abiding, as is aforeſaid, there to be prouided for, kept and nouriſhed of almes, as is aforeſaid, vpon the paine that euerie ſuch maior, ſhiriffe or conſtable, headborough, or other head officers, not making view, nor ſending or conueieng awaie, nor receiuing or not prouiding, as is before appointed, according to the true purport or meaning of this act, to forfeit for euerie ſuch default ten ſhillings, whereof the one halfe ſhall bee to the kings vſe, the other to the partie that will ſue therefore in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, information, action of debt, in the which ſutes, no eſſoine, wager of law, or protection ſhall bee allowed for the defendant.

Prouided alwaies, and bee it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the ſaid aged, maimed, or impotent perſons, of the cities, townes, or villages where they were borne in, or had their moſt abiding, as is aforeſaid, be not ſo lame or impotent, but that they maie worke in ſome maner of worke: that then ſuch citie, towne, pariſh, or village, doo either in common prouide ſome ſuch worke for them, as they maie be occupied in, or appoint them to ſuch as will find them worke for meat and drinke. And if they refuſe of wilfulneſſe and ſtubbornneſſe to worke, or doo run awaie and beg in other places, then to puniſh the ſame according to their diſcretions, with ſtocking, beating, or otherwiſe as ſhall ſéeme conuenient.

Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all leprouſe and poore bedred creatures, whatſoeuer they be, maie at their owne libertie remaine and continue in ſuch houſes as are appointed for leprouſe or bedred people, as they now be in, and ſhall not be compelled to repaire into anie other countries or places by vertue of this act, anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that alſo it ſhall be lawfull vnto the ſaid leprouſe and bedred people, for their better reléefe to appoint their proctor or proctors, ſo there be not appointed aboue the number of two perſons, for anie one houſe of leproſie or bedred people, to gather the charitable almes of all ſuch inhabitants, as ſhall be within the compaſſe of foure miles of anie of the ſaid houſes of leprouſe and bedred people.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to the lord chancellor of England, or lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, at their diſcretions to grant commiſſion vnder the great ſeale of England, to euerie or anie perſon or perſons, that hath, or ſhall haue his or their houſes or barns burnt, or ſuch loſſes, or to ſuch as be or ſhall be leprouſe perſons, to gather the reléefe and charitie of others for their reléefe, or for their aid, and helpe of his or their loſſes, decaie of or hinderance, as in time paſt hath béene vſed, anie thing in this act notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſtatute and act of parlement made for puniſhment of vacabonds, ſlaues, aged and impotent perſons, or anie of them, and euerie article, ſentence, clauſe or prouiſo, therein conteined, other then this preſent act and ſtatute made, and the ſaid act made in the ſaid two & twentith yéere, ſhall be from henſeforth vtterlie void, repealed, and of no effect or force.

And forasmuch as diuers men and women going on begging, impotent and lame, and ſome able inough to labor, doo carie children about with them of tender age, and ſome of foure, fiue or ſix yéeres of age, or yonger, or elder, which being once brought vp in idleneſſe, will hardlie be brought after to anie good kind of labor, paine, trauell or ſeruice: be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie child aboue the age of fiue yéeres, and vnder the age of fourtéene, go about wandering, as is aforeſad, or elſe alone, in caſe anie maner perſon that is able to kéepe anie ſuch child, will take it, be it male or female, of and from anie ſuch begger being the father or mother thereof, nouriſher or kéeper, whether they be willing or not, or without anie ſuch nurſſe, father, mother or kéeper, by him or hir ſelfe wandering, and bring ſuch child ſo taken, before one of the conſtables of the pariſh, where the child ſhall ſo fortune to be taken vp, and at the next generall quarter ſeſſions to be holden in the ſhire next to the place where the ſaid taking vp ſhall fortune to be, preſent the ſame in the preſence of the ſaid conſtable, before the iuſtices of peace at the ſame ſeſſions, and there in open ſeſſions promiſe to bring the ſame child vp in ſome honeſt labor or occupation, till the woman child come to the age of fiftéene yéeres, and the man child to the age of eightéene yéeres, if the maiſter or miſtreſſe ſhall chance ſo long to liue, that then and immediatlie the ſaid iuſtices of peace by their diſcretion ſhall adiudge by vertue of this act, the ſaid child vnto the ages before ſpecified, to be ſeruant or ſeruants to the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo taking and promiſing, as is aforeſaid, ſuch child to be vſed and ordered, in all points according as the law and cuſtome of the realme is of ſeruants without wages, to what labor, occupation, or ſeruice ſoeuer the ſaid taker vp, or maiſter or miſtreſſe ſhall appoint him or hir, during the ſaid terme, and the ſaid iudgement ſhall be entered by the clerke of the peace in the ſaid ſeſſions in forme following: Memorandum, that at the ſeſſions of the peace holden at W. the daie &c. one I. B. of the towne of L. had deliuered to him, according to the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe prouided B. T. eſteemed to be of the age of ſeuen or eight yeeres, to be ordered according to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute.

And if it ſhall fortune ſuch child ſo adiudged to run awaie at anie time, once, or more times, from his, or hir maiſter or miſtreſſe, that then it ſhall be lawfull for euerie ſuch maiſter or miſtreſſe, to take the ſaid child againe, and to kéepe and puniſh the ſaid child in the ſtocks, or otherwiſe by diſcretion, or otherwiſe at the libertie of ſuch maiſter or miſtreſſe, to haue a warrant from anie iuſtice of peace in the ſame ſhire where the child ſo runs awaie, for ſuch child running awaie, or going awaie, as is prouided by the ſtatute of laborers, for ſuch ſeruants as depart awaie from their maiſter or miſtreſſe, without a reaſonable cauſe before the end of their terme.

And that euerie iuſtice of peace ſhall by force of this act haue authoritie and power, to make ſuch warrant againſt euerie ſuch perſon ſo going, and running awaie, in like forme as they or anie of them maie doo againſt anie ſeruant departing out of his maiſters ſeruice without licenſe, or reaſonable cauſe, and by force of the ſame warrant, the child ſo running or going awaie, to be taken and ordered in euerie degrée, as is prouided by the ſaid ſtatute, laborers for ſeruants departing out of their maiſter or miſtreſſe ſeruice, as is aforeſaid.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if, and as often as it ſhall chance the father, mother, nurſſe, or other bearer about of the child, or anie other perſon or perſons, to ſteale, or intiſe awaie anie ſuch child, adiudged for a ſeruant, as is aforeſaid, that then, and ſo often it ſhall be lawfull for the maiſter, or miſtreſſe of the ſame child to be at his or their libertie, to take an action vpon the ſtatute labourers againſt euerie ſuch perſon ſo ſtealing, or intiſing awaie ſuch child as he, or they might haue, by reaſon of the ſaid ſtatute for labourers, againſt him, or them that reteins anie mans ſeruant out of his ſeruice, before the end of the ſaid terme, or els to take an action of treſpaſſe againſt ſuch offendor, in which action he ſhall recouer his dammages, and treble coſts of his ſute.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the maiſter, or miſtreſſe, to whome ſuch child as is aforeſaid ſhall be adiudged to be ſeruant, be vnreaſonable in ordering, and bringing vp of ſuch child, that then at all times vpon complaint made at the generall quarter ſeſſions of peace, in the countie where the ſaid child ſhall be by two honeſt neighbours of the ſame place, or towne where the ſaid child ſhall fortune to be ſo vnreaſonablie ordered, if it ſhall appeare by honeſt witneſſe to the iuſtices of peace at the ſame ſeſſions; the complaint thereof made ſhall be true, then the iuſtices of peace at their generall ſeſſions in the ſame ſhire, where ſuch complaint ſhall be made, ſhall by vertue of this act haue authoritie and power to diſcharge the ſaid child from his or their vnreaſonable maiſter, or miſtreſſe, and appoint the ſame to ſome other honeſt maiſter, or miſtreſſe, vnto the ſaid ages, to be ordered in euerie degrée as the ſaid child ſhould haue béene with his former maiſter or miſtreſſe, and that order, and appointment to be written in the booke of the clerke of the peace, for the which entrie the ſaid clerke of the peace ſhall haue foure penſe for his labour, and not aboue, and in like maner ſhall haue foure penſe and not aboue, for the firſt entrie of the child to be ſeruant, as is aforeſaid to be paid by the maiſter, or miſtreſſe of the ſaid child.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the woman child to be appointed a ſeruant, as is aforeſaid, be married afore hir age of 15. yéeres, that then by that marriage, ſhe ſhalbe diſcharged of ſeruice. This act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all, and euerie vacabond, or begger, being borne in anie other nation, or countrie then within this realme, ſhall in maner, and forme aforeſaid, and vpon the forfeitures, and penalties before mentioned, be conueied from place to place, or to the place, or marches next adioining, to his or their natiue countrie, or to the next port, if there be a ſea betwéene this realme, and his or their ſaid countries, there to be kept of the inhabitants of the ſaid next port, in conuenient labour from idleneſſe, or otherwiſe till they maie be conueied ouer, and then at the coſts of the inhabitants of the ſaid port, if themſelues ſhall not haue therewith, to be conueied ouer into their natiue countries.

An act againſt vnlawfull hunting in anie parke, forreſt, chaſe, or other incloſed ground.

Chap.17.

Whereas in the firſt yéere of your moſt gratious reigne, your maieſtie in conſideration of the great obedience that your ſubiects then were in, of your ineſtimable clemencie, and tender loue borne vnto the ſame, gaue your roiall aſſent vnto an act of parlement, touching the repeale of certeine ſtatutes, the penalties whereof ſéemed verie ſore, thinking moſt godlie thereby to win your ſaid ſubiects, to the continuance of their obedience, rather by loue then feare, foraſmuch as ſithen the time of the ſaid repeale, your grace hath found the experience thereof, to haue had other ſucceſſe, then your moſt mercifull meaning looked for, and that ſuch inſolencies, and barbarous vnrulineſſe and diſobedience, hath followed the ſame, as heretofore hath not béene ſéene, either in this realme, or els where. Amongſt the which outragious diſorders, one hath béene vnlawfull hunting, not onelie in all your graces ſubiects ſeuerall grounds, but in your graces owne parks and forreſts, almoſt throughout the realme, ſo notablie, as in ſome of your graces parks were ſlaine fiue hundred déere in a daie within verie few miles of your maieſties citie of London, which vnſufferable libertie eſcaping without due puniſhment, hath bred ſuch a bould countinance of the like, as at this preſent, both night and daie your graces parks and forreſts and the parks alſo of others are ſtill hunted with ſuch boldneſſe, as vnneth it is taken for a fault, to the great diſquietneſſe of your graces kéepers, and the deſtruction of your roiall games, beſide the ſhame and diſhonour, that in other realmes thereof is ſpoken. For reformation thereof, moſt humblie beſéeching your grace, your maieſties moſt humble and louing ſubiects, that it maie be ordeined and enacted by your maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that aſwell one ſtatute made in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the one and thirtith yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, touching the wrongfull entrie into anie forreſt, parke, or chaſe of the kings highneſſe, the quéenes, the princes, or anie of the kings children, for the time being, or into anie other ground of his, or theirs incloſed with wall, or pale, ordeined or vſed for nouriſhing of déere, as alſo one other ſtatute made in the ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, holden the two and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the ſame late king touching the wrongfull taking, killing, or ſlaieng of anie déere, within anie parke, chaſe, or cloſed ground, vſed for the déere, maie from the firſt daie of Maie next comming be fullie and cléerelie reuiued and that the ſame ſtatutes with all and all manner of branches, articles, ſentences and penalties of the ſame ſeuerall eſtatutes, maie from the ſame daie be in full ſtrength and vertue, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if the ſame eſtatutes, or anie of them had neuer beene repealed, the ſaid act of repeale, or anie other act or thing to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. This ſtatute to indure the ſpace of three full yeeres to be complet and fullie ended, from the firſt daie of Maie abouesaid.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that this preſent act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to cauſe the wiſe of ſuch offendor or offendors, to loſe anie dower, but that the wiſe and wiues of ſuch offendor and offendors, ſhall haue ſuch intereſt and recouerie of, in, and to their dower of the lands, tenements and heriditaments of ſuch offendor or offendors, as they ſhould haue had, in caſe no ſuch attaindor or conuiction had beene had of anie the offenſes aforeſaid. And that by ſuch attainder or conuiction, the heire of ſuch offendor or offendors ſhall loſe no inheritance, ne ſuffer anie corruption of bloud, but ſhall after the death of ſuch offendor or offendors, inherite, and be deemed and adiudged as heire, and inabled as heire to ſuch offendor or offendors, in ſuch maner and forme, as if no ſuch attainder or conuiction had been had, anie thing herein conteined to the contraie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning feefarms mentioned in the laſt ſeſſion.

Chap. 18. Where in the ſecond ſeſſion of this preſent parlement holden at Weſtminſter vpon prorogation the 4. daie of Nouember, in the ſecond yeere of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord the king that now is: our ſoueraigne lord the king of his moſt godlie and vertuous diſpoſition, by aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, as well for the aid and releefe of the poore in the cities, boroughs, and townes corporat of this his realme of England, and countrie of Wales, as for the execution of other deeds of charitie, and common wealth there ordeined and enacted, that ſuch feefarms & ſums of monie paid for feefarms, as by anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, within this realme of England or countrie of Wales, or by the bodies politike or corporat, officers or miniſters of the ſame, ſhould or ought to be due and paiable to his maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, during three yeeres next enſuing after the fourteenth daie of March, in the yeere of our Lord God, 1548. ſhould ceaſe and not be due, ne paiable to his maieſtie nor his heires, or his ſucceſſors by anie ſuch citie, borough, ne towne corporat, ne by anie the bodies politike or corporat of them or anie of them, nor by the officers, inhabitants and miniſters of the ſame cities, boroughs, or townes corporat, or anie of them, and that the ſaid act ſhould be to them and euerie of them, and to the ſucceſſors of euerie of them, a ſufficient warrant and diſcharge againſt his maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, for the reteining and withholding of the ſame feefarms, and ſummes of monie, during the ſaid three yeeres, and that no proceſſe or other ſute ſhould bee at anie time had or awarded againſt them, or anie of them, out of the excheker, or anie other court for the arrerages thereof, for, or in anie of the ſaid three yeeres.

And it was then further prouided and enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that as much of all, and euerie ſuch ſummes of monie, as ſhould or ought to be due to the kings maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, by anie citie, borough, towne corporat within England or Wales, or by the bodies politike of the ſame, or by anis of the officers or miniſters of the ſame, or anie of them during the ſaid three yeeres, which might be gathered and collected of the iſſues, farms and profits, for which the ſaid feefarms ſhould haue beene paid, in caſe the ſame had not beene diſcharged by the ſaid act, ſhould be leuied, collected, gathered, paid and anſwered, as it ſhould haue beene, if the ſaid act had not beene made to bee imploied and beſtowed in, and about repairing of walles, bridges, ſetting poore people on worke, or other good deeds in euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, where the ſame ſhould ſo haue beene due during the ſaid three yeeres, if the ſaid act had not beene made, by the diſcretion and appointment of ſuch commiſſioners, as the kings maieſtie ſhould particularlie authoriſe, and appoint for euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat, in ſuch manner and forme as the ſame commiſſioners ſhould aſſigne, limit, and appoint, or as by ſuch commiſſion ſhould be declared or expreſſed, and not to the kings maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors in his court of his excheker, or in anie other court or place, to the vſe of his maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors. Neuertheleſſe, for diuers eſpeciall conſiderations, and weightie cauſes: be it now enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid former act concerning the ſaid feefarms and ſums of monie, and all articles, clauſes, and prouiſions, concerning the order, diſpoſition, and paiments of the ſame feefarms and ſummes of monie, or anie of them therein conteined, or of anie annuitie or ſummes of monie out of the ſaid feefarms, and ſummes of monie paid for feefarms, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in their full ſtrength, power & effect, onelie for the firſt yeere of the ſaid three yeeres conteined in the ſaid act, and not otherwiſe, ne for anie longer time.

And that the ſaid act of feefarms, and all articles, clauſes, and prouiſions therein conteined, touching and concerning the remitting, reteining, diſpoſition or paiment of the ſaid feefarms, or of anie part or parcell thereof, of and for the laſt two yeeres of the ſaid three yeeres, ſhall vtterlie ceaſe, determine, and take none effect, anie thing conteined in the ſaid former act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And furthermore be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from and after the three and twentith daie of March in this preſent yeare of our Lord God, 1549, the ſaid feefarms, and ſummes of monie paid for feefarms, and euerie of them ſhall be due, paiable, and anſwerable vnto the kings maieſtie, his heires, and ſucceſſors at ſuch times and places, and in ſuch maner, forme, and condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as the ſame, or anie of them were, ought or might haue beene paid, or paiable before the making of the ſaid former act, anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie patentee or patentees, and all other perſons and bodies politike and corporat, their heires, ſucceſſors, and aſſigns, which by vertue of the letters patents of the kings maieſtie, or of anie of his noble progenitors, or otherwiſe, at, and before the making of the ſaid former act, had or inioied, or lawfullie ſhould or might haue had, or inioied anie annuitie, or ſumme or ſummes of monie going out, or to be taken or paiable of the ſaid feefarms, or ſumms of monie paid for feefarms, or anie of them, ſhall and maie lawfullie claime, aſke, demand, haue and inioy ſuch annuitie or ſums of monie, as ſhall be due, paiable, and anſwerable to anie ſuch patentee or patentees, or anie other perſons or bodies politike and corporat, their heires, ſucceſſors, and aſſignes, or anie of them, from and after the ſaid 14 daie of March, in the ſaid yeare of our Lord God 1549, at ſuch times and places, and in ſuch ſort, maner and forme to all intents and purpoſes, as the ſame annuitie or ſum or ſummes of monie were paid or anſwered at, and before the making of the ſaid former act, and in none otherwiſe, anie thing herein conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the buieng and ſelling of roather beaſts and cattell.

Chap.19.

BE it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement that no perſon nor perſons, at any time from and after the feaſt of the annunciation of our ladie next comming, ſhall buie, or commune, & conclude to buie, anie maner of oxen, ſteers, ronts, kine, heifers, or calues, but onlie in the open faire or market, where the ſame ſhall happen to be brought and put to ſale, and ſhall not ſell the ſame againe aliue at and in the market or faire, where he bought the ſame during the time of the ſaid faire or market, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of ſuch cattell bought or ſold, contrarie to the tenor of this preſent act.

Prouided alwaie, and be it further enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull for all and euerie perſon and perſons, to buie anie oxen, ſteers, ronts, kine, heifers, and calues, or anie of them, out of anie open faire, or market, for his or their prouiſion, for their houſhold, teme, or dairie, at his or their will, or pleaſure, to be imploied, and ſpent onlie in keeping and maintenance of his or their houſe, or for their teme or dairie, and not otherwiſe.

And be it further enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon, being a butcher, and vſing the craft or miſterie of butcherie, ſhall at anie time after the ſaid feaſt buie anie fat oxen, ſteers, ronts, kine, heifers, calues, or ſheepe, and ſell, or cauſe to be ſold the ſame againe aliue, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie ſuch oxe, ſteere, ront, cow, heifer, calues, or ſheepe, bargained, or ſold contrarie to the forme of this preſent act.

Prouided alwaie, that all, and euerie perſon, and perſons being a butcher, and vſing the art, and miſterie of butcherie, ſhall and maie at his, and their will and pleaſure, buie anie fat oxen, ſteeres, ronts, kine, heifers, calues, and ſheepe, or anie of them, out of anie open faire or market, ſo that ſuch butcher ſell not, nor cauſe to be ſold the ſame againe aliue, as is aforeſaid, any thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. The one moitie of all which forfeituers, ſhall be to our ſoureigne lord the king, his heires, and ſucceſſors: and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhalbe allowed for the defendant or defendants. This act to indure to the end of the next parlement.

An act touching the repeale of a certeine branch, of an act paſſed in the laſt ſeſſion of this parlement, concerning vittellers and artificers.

Chap.20.

WHere by a certeine act made in the parlement houſe at Weminſter by prorogation the fourth daie of Nouember, in the ſecond yeare of the reigne of our moſt dread lord the king that now is, it is enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon or perſons ſhould at anie time after the firſt daie of Aprill then next inſuing, interrupt, denie, let, or diſturbe anie free maſon, rough maſon, carpenter, bricklaier, plaiſterer, ioiner, hardhewer, ſawier, tiler, pauier, glaſier, limeburner, brickmaker, tilemaker, plummer, or labourer borne in this realme, or made denizen, to worke in anie of the ſaid crafts in anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, with anie perſon, or perſons ſo reteined, or anie of them doo not inhabit, or dwell in the citie, borough, and towne corporat, where he or they ſhall worke, nor be free of the ſame citie, borough, or towne, anie ſtatute, law, ordinance, or thing whatſoeuer before had, or made to the contrarie, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding, and that vpon paine of forfeiture of fiue pounds for euerie interruption, or diſturbance doone contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute, the one moitie of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the king, and the other moitie thereof to be to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhould be allowed, as by the ſaid act of parlement amongſt other things more plainlie appeareth.

And forasmuch as in the citie of London being the kings chamber and moſt ancient citie of this realme, the artificers and craftſmen of the arts, crafts, and miſteries aforeſaid, are at great coſts, and charges, aſwell in bearing and paieng of taxes, tallages, ſubſidies, ſcot, lot, and other charges, as well to the kings maieſtie, as to the ſaid citie, and at manie and ſundrie triumphs and other times for the kings honour, and that if forrens ſhould come, and worke amongſt them, within the liberties of the ſaid citie, contrarie to their ancient priuileges, that the ſame ſhould be a great decaie of cunning and an impoueriſhment, ⁊ driuing awaie of the frée men, being artificers of the crafts, arts, and myſteries aforeſaid, within the ſaid citie of London, to the great hurt, or deſtruction of the ſaid citie.

For reformation thereof, the kings maieſtie is pleaſed, and contented, that it be enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that the ſaid act onlie touching the article, and clauſe aforeſaid, and all, and euerie ſentence, and branch conteined in the ſaid act, concerning the ſame article, ſhall from henſeforth be reſumed, repealed, adnulled, reuoked, adnihilated, and vtterlie made void for euer. Anie thing conteined in the ſaid former act touching the clauſe, or article aforeſaid, in anie wiſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the buieng and ſelling of butter and cheeſe.

Chap. 21. BE it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons, after the feaſt of the annunſiation of our ladie next comming, ſhall buie to ſell againe anie butter or chéeſe vnleſſe he or they ſell the ſame againe by retaile, in open ſhop, faire, or market, and not ingroſſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of the ſame butter, ⁊ chéeſe ſo ſold, contrarie to the tenour of this preſent act, the one moitie of all which forfeiture, to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires, and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant, or defendants.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid word of retaile mentioned in this act, ſhall be expounded, declared, and taken, onlie where a weight of chéeſe, or a barrell of butter or of leſſe quantitie and not aboue, ſhall be ſold at one time to anie perſon or perſons in open ſhop, faire, or market, and that to be done without fraud or couine.

Prouided alwaie, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to anie inholder or vitteller for ſuch butter or chéeſe, as ſhall be ſpent, or vttered by retaile, in anie of their houſes, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding: this act to indure to the next parlement.

An act touching the retaining of iournimen by diuers perſons.

Chap. 22. WHere as manie yong folks and ſeruants of ſundrie occupations, being once out of their apprentiſehoods, or their yearelie reteined ſeruice, will not commonlie be reteined in ſeruice by the yeare, nor labour in their ſciences, occupations, or crafts wherein they be exerciſed or brought vp, but at their libertie, by the daie, wéeke, or otherwiſe, worke by great, to the intent they will liue idelie, and at their pleaſure flie and reſort from place to place, whereof inſue more inconueniences then can be at this preſent expreſſed and declared.

Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this parlement, that no perſon nor perſons occupieng or vſing, or that hereafter ſhall occupie or vſe anie of the arts, myſteries, occupations, crafts or ſciences of a clothmaker, fuller, ſherman, weauer, tailor or ſhomaker, ſhall after the feaſt of penticoſt next comming, hire or reteine to worke in anie of their arts, myſteries occupations, crafts, or ſciences, anie perſon or perſons vnmarried, as a iourniman, that is to ſaie, to worke or labour by the daie or taile worke, or by their great, or for anie time or terme, vnder the time and terme of one whole quarter of one whole yeare. And that no perſon nor perſons vnmarried ſhalbe hired or reteined with anie of the perſon or perſons aforeſaid, to worke in anie of the arts, myſteries, occupations, crafts, or ſciences aforeſaid, for anie leſſe time, then for the ſpace of one whole quarter of one whole yeare, vpon paine of euerie perſon offending contrarie to this ſtatute, to ſuffer impriſonment for one whole moneth without baile or mainpriſe, and to forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe fortie ſhillings.

And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie iourniman of anie the crafts, occupations or myſteries aforeſaid, being required by anie perſon or perſons vſing the myſteries, occupations, crafts or ſciences aforeſaid, or anie of them, to ſerue by the quarter of the yeare, halfe yeare, or whole yeare vpon ſuch reaſonable wages, as betwéene them ſhall be agréed, and in caſe where the parties cannot accord, then for ſuch wages as ſhalbe adiudged and decréed by one iuſtice of the peace, maior, alderman, bailiffe, portreue, conſtable, or tithing man of the ſhire, citie, towne, borough, village, hundred, wapentake, or tithing, where anie ſuch iourniman ſhalbe required to ſerue, as is aboueſaid, and thereupon if ſuch iourniman refuſe to ſerue in maner ⁊ forme aboueſaid, that then euerie ſuch iourniman and euerie of them ſo refuſing to ſerue, as is aboueſaid, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, by the ſpace of one whole month ⁊ ſhall at euerie time ſo refuſing forfeit 20.ſ.

And be it further enacted, that all and euerie perſon or perſons, that ſhall haue three apprentices in anie of the ſaid crafts, myſteries, or occupations, ſhall reteine and keepe one iourniman, and for euerie other apprentice aboue the number of the ſaid three apprentices one other iourniman vpon paine for euerie default ten li, the one halfe of all which forfeitures, ſhall be to the king our soueraigne lord, & the other halfe to ſuch perſon or perſons, as will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, information, action of debt or otherwiſe, in which ſute no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law, ſhall be admitted or allowed. Chap.13.

MOſt humblie praieng the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, your moſt excellent maieſtie, that where the laſt ſeſſion of this preſent parlement vpon prorogation, begun at Weſtminſter, the fourth day of Nouember, in the ſecond yeare of your highneſſe reigne, and there continued vnto the fourteenth daie of March then next following, your humble & faithfull ſubiects the commons, in the ſaid parlement aſſembled with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, granted vnto your highneſſe one releeſe of three ſhillings of euerie pound of the goods and chattels, of euerie perſon being worth ten pounds and vpward, to be leuied, and taken in three yeares, in maner and forme as is mentioned in the ſaid act. And alſo one other releeſe to be taken & leuied, for euerie ſhere ſheepe, accounting the ſame by the poll, after the rate, as by the ſame act more at large doth appeare. And one other releeſe of eight penſe of the li. of the price & value of all and ſingular wollen clothes to be taxed & leuied in maner, & forme, as by the ſame act is declared: the ſame ſeuerall releeſs to indure, and to be yeerelie paid, and leuied during three yeeres as by the ſame former act more largelie it appeareth: which releeſe of cloth appeareth now, ſo cumberous to all clothmakers, and alſo ſo tedious to the ſame, for making of their books and the accounts thereof by reaſon of lacke of the alnegeors not alwaies preſent, when time requireth, that in maner they are diſcouraged, to make any cloth, or to ſet anie men on worke about the ſame: and alſo the ſaid releeſe of ſheepe is, to your poore commons, hauing but few ſheepe in number, a great charge, and alſo ſo cumberous for all your commiſſioners, and officers named and appointed for executing of the ſame, that they cannot tell how to ſerue your highneſſe therein according to their duties. It maie therefore pleaſe your highneſſe with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall, and temporall, and of your ſaid commons, & at their moſt humble ſute that it be enacted, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſeuerall grants, and clauſes, mentioned in the ſaid act of releeſe, concerning or touching onelie the ſeuerall grants of releeſs to be leuied, and paid for ſheepe, after the rate of the poll, and of cloth to be paid, or of anie of them, as in the former act is recited, and euerie article, clauſe, prouiſion, and ſentence concerning onelie the ſame ſeuerall grants of releeſs for ſheepe, and cloth, or either of them, ſhalbe from the ſaid fourth daie of Nouember, in the ſaid ſecond yeere of your moſt noble reigne, deemed and adiudged void, and of none effect, and to be vtterlie repealed to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes. And that euerie article, clauſe, and prouiſion, mentioned in the ſaid act of releeſe touching or concerning the releeſe, of, and for goods, to ſtand, and be good, and effectuall, according to the tenor of the ſame act of releeſe. And excepted alſo the apparell of ſuch perſons, their wiues, and children, belonging to their owne bodies, ſauing iewels, gold, ſiluer, ſtone, & pearle. Excepted alſo alwaies from the charge, aſſeſſement, and paiment of the ſaid releefe, all monie, goods, chattels of orphans, bequethed or left vnto them by their parents, or other their freends deceaſſed. And that all plate, coine, iewels, goods, debts, and chattell perſonall, being in the rule and cuſtodie of anie perſon, or perſons, to the vſe of anie corporation, fraternitie, guild, miſterie, brotherhood, company, or any commonaltie being corporat or not corporat, be & ſhal be rated, ſet, & charged by reaſon of this act, at the value certified by the preſentors of the certificat, to be ſworne of euerie pound in goods and debts as is abouesaid, and the ſummes that are before rehearſed, ſet, and taxed to be leuied and taken of them, that ſhall haue ſuch goods in cuſtodie, as is before rehearſed. And the ſame perſon or perſons, and bodie corporat, by the authoritie of this act, ſhall be diſcharged againſt him or them that ſhall, or ought to haue the ſame, at the time of the paiment, or deliuerie thereof, or at his otherwiſe departure from the cuſtodie, or poſſeſſion of the ſame. That it is not lawfull for a chriſtian man to beare office or rule in the commonwealth. That no mans lawes ought to be obeied, that it is not lawfull for a chriſtian man to take an oth before anie iudge, that Chriſt tooke no bodilie ſubſtance of our bleſſed Ladie. Anno quinto & ſexto Edwardi ſexti, at Weſtminſter by prorogation the foure and twentith daie of Ianuarie, and continued vntill the fifteenth daie of Aprill.

An act for the vniformitie of common praier, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments.

The firſt chapter.

Where there hath béene a verie godlie order ſet forth by authoritie of parlement, for common praier, & adminiſtration of the ſacraments, to be vſed in the mother toong, within this church of England, agréeable to the word of God, & the primitiue church, verie comfortable to all good people deſiring to liue in chriſtian conuerſation, & moſt profitable to the eſtate of this realme, vpon the which, the mercie, fauor, and bleſſing of almightie God, is in no wiſe ſo readilie, and plenteouſlie powred, as by common praiers due vſing of the ſacraments, and often preaching of the goſpell, with the deuotion of the hearers: and yet this notwithſtanding, a great number of people in diuerſe parts of this realme, following their owne ſenſualitie, and liuing either without knowledge, or due feare of God, doo wilfullie and damnablie before almightie God absteine, and refuſe to come to their pariſh churches, and other places where common praier, adminiſtration of the ſacraments and preaching of the word of God is vſed, vpon the ſundaies & other daies ordeined to be holidaies.

For reformation héereof, be it enacted by the king our ſoucreigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from and after the feaſt of All ſaints next comming, all and euerie perſon and perſons, inhabiting within this realme, or anie other the kings maieſties dominions, ſhall diligentlie and faithfullie (hauing no lawfull or reaſonable excuſe to be abſent) indeuour themſelues to reſort to their pariſh church or chappell accuſtomed, or vpon reaſonable let thereof, to ſome vſuall place where common praier, and ſuch ſeruice of God ſhall be vſed in ſuch time of let, vpon euerie ſundaie, & other daies ordeined, and vſed to be kept as holie daies, and then, and there to abide orderlie, and ſoberlie, during the time of the common praier, preachings, or other ſeruice of God, there to be vſed and miniſtred, vpon paine of puniſhment by the cenſures of the church.

And for the due execution hæreof, the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, the lords temporall, and all the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, dooth in Gods name earneſtlie require, and charge all the archbiſhops, biſhops, and other ordinaries, that they ſhall indeuor themſelues, to the vttermoſt of their knowledges, that the due & true execution hæreof maie be had throughout their dioceſſes, and charges, as they will anſwer before God, for ſuch euils and plagues, wherewith almightie God maie iuſtlie puniſh his people, for neglecting this good and wholeſome law.

And for their authoritie in this behalfe, be it further likewiſe enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all & ſingular, the ſame archbiſhops, biſhops, and all other their officers exerciſing eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, aſwell in place exempt, as not exempt, within their dioceſſes, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by this act, to reforme, correct, & puniſh by cenſures of the church, all & ſingular perſons which ſhall offend within anie their iuriſdictions or dioceſſes, after the ſaid feaſt of all Saints next comming,againſt this act and ſtatute, anie other law, ſtatute, priuilege, libertie, or prouiſion heeretofore made,had,or ſuffered to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And bicauſe there hath riſen in the vſe and exerciſe of the aforeſaid common ſeruice in the church, heeretofore ſet forth, diuerſe doubts for the faſhion and maner of the miniſtration of the ſame,rather by the curioſitie of the miniſter,and miſtakers,then of anie other worthie cauſe, therfore as well for the more plaine and manifeſt explanation heereof, as for the more perfection of the ſaid order of common ſeruice,in ſome places where it is neceſſarie to make the ſame praier and faſhion of ſeruice more earneſt and fit to ſtir chriſtian people to the true honoring of almightie God; the kings moſt excellent maieſtie with the aſſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath cauſed the aforeſaid order of common ſeruice,entituled the booke of common praier,to be faithfullie and godlie peruſed,explaned and made fullie perfect, and by the aforeſaid authoritie, hath annexed and ioined it, ſo explaned and perfected to this preſent ſtatute, adding alſo a forme and maner of making, & conſecrating of archbiſhops, biſhops, preeſts, and deacons, to be of like force, authoritie, and value, as the ſame like foreſaid booke intituled the booke of common praier was before,and to be accepted,receiued,vſed, and eſteemed,in like ſort and maner,and with the ſame clauſes of prouiſions and exceptions, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as by the act of parlement made in the ſecond yeere of the kings maieſties reigne,was ordeined,limited,expreſſed,and appointed for the vniformitie of ſeruice,and adminiſtration of the ſacraments throughout the realme, vpon ſuch ſeuerall paines as in the ſaid act of parlement is expreſſed. And the ſaid former act to ſtand in full force and ſtrength to all intents and conſtructions,and to be applied,practiſed and put in vre, to and for the eſtabliſhing of the booke of common praier,now explaned & heerevnto annexed, and alſo the ſaid forme of making of archbiſhops,biſhops,preeſts,and deacons,heerevnto annexed,as it was for the former booke.

And by the authoritie aforeſaid,it is now further enacted, that if anie maner of perſon or perſons inhabiting and being within this realme,or anie other the kings maieſties dominions, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of all Saints, willinglie & wittinglie,heare and be preſent at anie other maner or forme of common praier, or adminiſtration of the ſacraments,of making of miniſters in the churches,or of anie other rites conteined in the booke annexed to this act,then is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid booke, or that is contrarie to the forme of ſundrie prouiſions and exceptions conteined in the foreſaid former ſtatute,and ſhall be thereof conuicted, according to the lawes of this realme,before the iuſtices of aſſiſe,iuſtices of Oier & determiner,iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions or anie of them,by the verdict of twelue men,or by his,or their owne confeſſion or otherwiſe, ſhall for the firſt offenſe ſuffer impriſonment for ſix moneths, without baile or mainpriſe, and for the ſecond offenſe being likewiſe conuicted,as is aboueſaid, impriſonment for one whole yeere, and for the third offenſe in like maner impriſonment, during his or their liues . And for the more knowledge to be giuen heerof,and better obſeruation of this law : Be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all, and ſingular curats, ſhall vpon one ſundaie euerie quarter of the yeere during one whole yeere,next following the foreſaid feaſt of all Saints next comming, read this preſent act in the church, at the time of the moſt aſſemblie, and likewiſe once in euerie yeere following, at the ſame time of the moſt aſſemblie,and likewiſe once in euerie yeere following,at the ſame time, declaring vnto the people by the authoritie of the ſcripture,how the mercie and goodneſſe of God hath in all ages beene ſhewed to his people,in their neceſſities and extremities,by means of hartie and faithfull praiers made to almightie God, eſpeciallie where people be gathered togither with one faith and mind,to offer vp their harts by praier,as the beſt ſacrifices that chriſtian men can yeeld.

An act for the prouiſion and releefe of the poore.

TO the intent that valiant beggers, idle and loitering perſons maie be auoided, and the impotent,feble,and lame prouided for,which are poore in verie deed: be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord,with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame,that as well the ſtatute made in the two and twentith yeere of the late king of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight,as alſo the ſtatute made in the third and fourth yeere of the reigne of the kings maieſtie that now is,concerning beggers,vagabonds,and idle perſons,& euerie article,clauſe,branch, ſentence, and other things conteined in them, and in euerie of them (other then ſuch things as ſhall be by this preſent act ordeined,and prouided for) ſhall ſtand,remaine,and be in their full force and effect, and ſhall be from henceforth iuſtlie and trulie put in execution, according to the true meaning of the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes and euerie of them. Chap. 2.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that yeerlie one holidaie in Whitſun weeke, in euerie citie,borough,& towne corporat,the maior,bailifs,or other hed officers for the time being, & in euerie other pariſh of the countrie,the perſon,vicar or curat,& the churchwardens,hauing in a regiſter or booke, as well all the names of the inhabitants and houſholders, as alſo the names of all ſuch impotent,aged,and needie perſons,as being within their citie,borough, towne corporat or pariſh, are not able to liue of themſelues, nor with their owne labor, ſhall openlie in the church, and quietlie after diuine ſeruice,call the ſaid houſeholders and inhabitants togither,among whom the maior and two of his brethren in euerie citie, the bailifs or other head officers in boroughs and townes corporat, the perſon, vicar, or curat, and churchwardens in euerie other pariſh: ſhall elect, nominat, and appoint yeerelie, two able perſons or mo, to be gatherers and collectors of the charitable almes of all the reſidue of the people, for the releefe of the poore, which collectors, the ſundaie next after their election (or the ſundaie following, if need require) when the people is at the church, and hath heard Gods holie word, ſhall gentlie aſke and demand of euerie man and woman, what they of their charitie will be contented to giue weekelie, toward the releefe of the poore. And the ſame to be written in the ſaid regiſter or booke. And the ſaid gatherers ſo being elected and choſen, ſhall iuſtlie gather and trulie diſtribute the ſame charitable almes weekelie (by themſelues or their aſſignes) to the ſaid poore and impotent perſons, of the ſaid cities, boroughes, townes corporat, or pariſhes, without fraud or couin, fauor or affection. And after ſuch ſort, that the more impotent may haue the more helpe, and ſuch as can get part of their liuing, to haue the leſſe. And by the diſcretion of the collectors, to be put in ſuch labor as they be fit, and able to doo, but none to go, or ſit openlie a begging, vpon paine limitted in the aforeſaid ſtatutes.

Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſo elected, nominated, and appointed, to be gatherer or gatherers as is aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe the ſaid office, but ſhall iuſtlie and trulie execute the ſame, by the ſpace of one whole yeare next inſuing, vpon paine of forfeiting twentie ſhillings, to the almes box of the poore, to be leuied by the churchwardens where they or he dwelleth, of the goods of the ſaid gatherer or gatherers, ſo refuſing by deſtreſſe.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid gatherers or collectors ſhall make their iuſt account quarterlie, to the maior of the citie, bailifs, or head officers of the borough, or towne corporat, and in euerie pariſh of the countrie, to the perſon, vicar, or curat, & churchwardens of the pariſh, at which account, ſuch of the pariſh as will, maie be preſent. And when they go out of their office, they ſhall deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered forthwith vpon the end of their accounts, all ſuch ſurpluſage of monie as then ſhall remaine of their collection vndiſtributed, to be put in the common cheſt of the church, or in ſome other ſafe place to the vſe of the poore, at the ouerſight and diſcretion of the ſaid maior, or other the officers before mentioned. And if the ſaid collectors or anie of them doo refuſe to make their ſaid account within eight daies, then the biſhop of the dioceſſe or ordinarie, ſhall haue authoritie by vertue of this act to compell the ſaid perſon or perſons by cenſures of the church, to make their ſaid accounts before ſuch perſons as the ſaid biſhop or ordinarie ſhall appoint.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons being able to further this charitable worke, doo obſtinatlie and frowardlie refuſe to giue towards the helpe of the poore, or doo wilfullie diſcourage other from ſo charitable a deed, the perſon, vicar or curat, and churchwardens of the pariſh where he dwelleth, ſhall gentlie exhort him or them towards the releefe of the poore. And if he or they will not ſo be perſuaded, then vpon the certificat of the perſon, vicar or curat of the pariſh, to the biſhop of the dioceſſe, the ſame biſhop ſhall ſend for him or them, to induce, and perſuade him or them by charitable waies and means, and ſo according to his diſcretion to take order for the reformation thereof.

And for the better maintenance of this charitable worke, it is ordeined and eſtabliſhed by authoritie aforeſaid, that where as the late king of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, by his ſeuerall erections and foundations, hath ordeined and appointed anie ſumme or ſummes of monie to the vſe of the poore (not being taken awaie otherwiſe by act of parlement) whether the ſame be in anie cathedrall church, college, or elſe where, the biſhop of the dioceſſe for the time being, ſhall from time to time, examine how, and after what maner the ſaid monie is beſtowed, and to call to account the parties which reteine the ſaid monie, ſo that it maie appeere that the ſame is diſtributed to the poore, according to the kings maieſties foundation.

Prouided alwaies and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extend, or be preiudiciall vnto the maior, ſhirifs and citizens of the citie of Cheſter, for, or concerning anie gift or grant of anie annuitie, or yeerelie rent heeretofore made, giuen or granted by the kings maieſtie that now is, vnto the ſaid maior, ſhirifs, and citizens of the ſaid citie, going out of anie manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments of the cathedrall church of Chriſt and our ladie, within the citie of Cheſter, but that the ſame maior, ſhirifs and citizens, ſhall, and maie from henſeforth, receiue, vſe, and imploie the ſame annuities, yeerelie rents or profits, to ſuch vſes and intents, & according to the ſaid gift of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. This act to indure to the end of the firſt ſeſſion of the next parlement.

An act for the keeping of holie daies, and faſting daies.

Chap.3.

Forasmuch as at all times men be not ſo mindfull to laud and praiſe God, ſo readie to reſort and heare Gods holie word, and to come to the holie communion and other laudable rites which are to be obſerued in euerie chriſtian congregation, as their bounden dutie doth require, therfore to call men to remembrance of their dutie, & to helpe their infirmitie, it hath bin wholſomlie prouided, that there ſhould be ſome certeine times and daies appointed, wherein the chriſtians ſhould ceaſe from all other kind of labors, and ſhould applie themſelues onelie and wholie vnto the aforeſaid holie works, properlie perteining vnto true religion; that is, to heare, to learne, and to remember almightie Gods great benefits, his manifold mercies, his ineſtimable gratious goodneſſe, ſo plenteouſlie powred vpon all his creatures, and that of his infinit, and vnſpeakeable goodneſſe, without anie mans deſert. And in remembrance héereof, to render vnto him, moſt high and heartie thanks, with praiers and ſupplications, for the reléefe of all our dailie neceſſities. And becauſe theſe be the chéefe and principall works, wherein man is commanded to worſhip God, and doo properlie perteine vnto the firſt table: therefore as theſe works are both moſt commonlie, and alſo maie well be called Gods ſeruice, ſo the time appointed ſpeciallie for the ſame, are called holie daies. Not for the matter and nature, either of the time, or daie, nor for anie of the ſaints ſake, whoſe memories are had on theſe daies (for ſo all daies and times conſidered are Gods creatures, and all of all like holineſſe) but for the nature and condition of thoſe godlie and holie works, wherewith onelie God is to be honored, and the congregation to be edified, whereunto ſuch times and daies are ſanctified and hallowed. That is to ſaie, ſeparated from all prophane vſes, and dedicated and appointed, not vnto anie ſaint or creature, but onelie vnto God, and his true worſhip. Neither is it to be thought, that there is anie certeine time or definit number of daies, preſcribed in holie ſcripture, but that the appointment, both of the time, and alſo of the number of the daies, is left by the authoritie of Gods word, to the libertie of Chriſtes church to be determined and aſſigned orderlie in euerie countrie, by the diſcretion of the rulers and miniſters thereof, as they ſhall iudge moſt expedient, to the true ſetting foorth of Gods glorie, and edification of their people. Be it therefore enacted, by the king our ſouereigne lord with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all the daies héereafter mentioned, ſhall be kept, and commanded to be kept holie daies, and none other. That is to ſaie, all ſundaies in the yéere, the daies of the feaſts of the Circumciſion of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, of the Epiphanie, of the Purification of the bleſſed virgin, of S. Matthie the apoſtle, of the Annuntiation of the bleſſed virgin, of S. Marke the euangeliſt, of S. Philip and Iacob the apoſtles, of the Aſcenſion of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt, of S. Peter the apoſtle, of S. Iames the apoſtle, of S. Bartholomew the apoſtle, of S. Matthew the apoſtle, of S. Michaell the archangell, of S. Luke the euangeliſt, of S. Simon and Iude the apoſtles, of all ſaints, of S. Andrew the apoſtle, of S. Thomas the apoſtle, of the Natiuitie of our Lord, of S. Stephan the martyr, of S. Iohn the euangeliſt, of the holie Innocents, mondaie and tueſdaie in Eaſter wéeke, and mondaie and tueſdaie in Whitſun wéeke: and that none other daie ſhall be kept and commanded to be kept holie daie, or to abſteine from lawfull bodilie labor.

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie euen or daie, next going before anie of the aforeſaid daies of the feaſts of the Natiuitie of our Lord, of Eaſter, of the Aſcenſion of our Lord, Pentecoſt, of the Purification, and the Annuntiation of the aforeſaid bleſſed virgin, of All ſaints, and of all the ſaid feaſts of the apoſtles (other than of S. Iohn the euangeliſt, and Philip and Iacob) ſhall be faſted, and commanded ſo to be kept, and obſerued, and that none other euen or daie ſhall be commanded to be faſted.

And it is enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all archbiſhops and biſhops in their dioceſſes, and to all other hauing eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall iuriſdiction, to inquire of euerie perſon, that ſhall offend in the premiſſes, and to puniſh euerie ſuch offendor by the cenſures of the church, and to inioine him or them ſuch penance, as ſhall be to the ſpirituall iudge, by his diſcretion thought méet and conuenient.

Prouided alwaies, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to abrogat or take awaie the abſtinence from fleſh in Lent, or on fridaies and ſaturdaies, or anie other daie, which is alreadie appointed ſo to be kept, by vertue of an act made and prouided in the third yéere of the reigne of our ſoureigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is, ſauing onelie of thoſe euens or daies, whereof the holie daie next following is abrogated by this ſtatute: anie thing aboue mentioned to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that when, and ſo often, as it ſhall chance anie of the ſaid feaſts (the euens whereof be by this ſtatute commanded to be obſerued, and kept faſting daie) to fall vpon the mondaie: that then, as it hath alwaies béene héeretofore accuſtomablie vſed, ſo héereafter the ſaturdaie then next going before anie ſuch feaſt, or holie daie, and not the ſundaie, ſhall be commanded to be faſted for the euen of anie ſuch feaſt, or holie daie: anie thing in this ſtatute before mentioned, or declared to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie husbandman, laborer, fiſherman, and to all and euerie other perſon and perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition he or they be, vpon the holie daies aforeſaid, in harueſt, or at anie other times in the yéere when neceſſitie ſhall require, to labor, ride, fiſh, or worke anie kind of worke at their frée wils and pleaſure: anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to the knights of the right honorable order of the garter, and to euerie of them, to kéepe, and to celebrat ſolemnelie the feaſt of their order, commonlie called S. Georges feaſt, yéerlie from henſefoorth the two and twentie, thrée and twentie, and foure and twentie daies of Aprill, and at ſuch order, time & times, as yéerelie ſhall be thought conuenient by the kings highnes, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and the ſaid knights of the ſaid honorable order, or anie of them now being, or héereafter to be: anie thing in this act héeretofore mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act againſt fighting and quarelling in churches and churchyards.

Chap.4. FOraſmuch as of late, diuerſe and manie outragious and barbarous behauiors and acts, haue béene uſed and committed by diuerſe ungodlie and irreligious perſons, by quarreling, brawling, fraieng, and fighting openlie in churches, and churchyards: therefore it is enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon whatſoeuer, ſhall at anie time after the firſt daie of Maie next comming by words onelie quarell, chide, or brawle in anie church, or churchyard, that then it ſhall be lawfull unto the ordinarie of the place where the ſame offenſe ſhall be done, and prooued by two lawfull witneſſes to ſuſpend euerie perſon ſo offending: that is to ſaie, if he be a laie man, Ab ingreſſu eccleſiæ, and if he be a clerke, from the miniſtration of his office, for ſo long time as the ſaid ordinarie ſhall by his diſcretion thinke méet and conuenient, according to the fault.

And further it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall ſmite or laie anie violent hands upon anie other, either in anie church, or churchyard: that then Ipſo facto, euerie perſon ſo offending, ſhall be déemed excommunicat, & be excluded from the fellowſhip and companie of Chriſts congregation.

And alſo it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall maliciouſlie ſtrike anie perſon, with anie weapon, in anie church or churchyard, or after the ſame firſt daie of Maie ſhall draw anie weapon, in anie church or churchyard, to the intent to ſtrike another with the ſame weapon: that then euerie perſon ſo offending, and thereof being conuicted by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confeſſion, or by two lawfull witneſſes, before the iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of Oier & determiner, or iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, by force of this act ſhall be adiudged by the ſame iuſtices, before whom ſuch perſon ſhall be conuicted, to haue one of his eares cut off. And if the perſon or perſons ſo offending haue none eares wherby they ſhould receiue ſuch puniſhment as is before declared, that then he or they to be marked, and burned in the cheeke with an hote iron hauing the letter F, wherby he or they maie be knowne and taken for fraie makers, and fighters, and beſides that euerie ſuch perſon to be and ſtand, Ipſo facto, excommunicated as is aforeſaid.

An act for the maintenance of tillage, and increaſe of corne.

Chap.5. FOr the better maintenance of tillage, and increaſe of corne to be had within this realme, which of late time béene much decaied, by ſuch as haue conuerted lands uſuallie put in tillage to paſture: Be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords and commons, in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that there ſhall be yéerlie after the feaſt of the annunciation of our ladie, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God, a thouſand, fiue hundred, fiftie and thrée, as much land or more, put wholie in tillage, and uſed, and ſowne, according to the cuſtome of the countrie, and nature of the ground, and ſo ſhall be continued, and uſed for tillage, and ſowne for euer, by the owners, farmers, or occupiers thereof, in euerie towne, pariſh, village, and hamlet within the realme of England, and Wales: as was or hath béene put in tillage in anie one yeare, and ſo kept in tillage, by the ſpace of foure yeares, anie time ſince the firſt yeare of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, upon paine to forfeit to the king, and his heires, for euerie acre not put in tillage, uſed, and occupied, according to the forme and effect of this preſent act fiue ſhillings for euerie yere ſo offending. And for the better execution of this act: Be it enacted by the authoritie afore ſaid, that our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, at his and their will and pleaſure from time to time maie direct his, and their ſeuerall commiſſion, and commiſſions, under the great ſeale of England, to ſuch perſons as it ſhall pleaſe them. And that the ſame commiſſioners, or foure of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue power and authoritie by vertue of this act, and of the ſaid commiſſion to inquire, ſerch, & trie by the othes of twelue lawfull and indifferent perſons or more, in euerie hundred, rape, or wapentake, ſuch as maie diſpend yéerlie fortie ſhillings of fréehold, what lands, and tenements in euerie towne, pariſh, village or hamlet, within the limits of their charge haue (againſt the forme and effect of this preſent act and ſtatute) at anie time or times, ſince the ſaid firſt yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, béene conuerted and turned from tillage to paſture, and ſo lieng conuerted and turned from tillage to paſture, and is now, and héereafter ſo ſhall be continued and occupied in paſture. And that the ſaid twelue perſons or more upon their othes, ſhall make true, and lawfull preſentment, and certificat, aſwell of all and ſingular the premiſſes, as of the names, or ſurnames of the owners, farmars, and occupiers of the ſame, in writing under their ſeales, to the ſaid commiſſioners, at ſuch daie, time, and place, as ſhall be limited to them, by the ſaid commiſſioners. And that the ſaid commiſſioners after ſuch preſentments thereof had and made, ſhall cauſe the ſame preſentments to be ingroſſed in parchment, indented and ſealed with their ſeales, whereof the one part thereof ſhall be deliuered to the foreman of the iurie, and the other part therof ſhall be certified into the kings court of chancerie, within two moneths next after ſuch preſentment ſo had and made. And that from thenſeforth the ſaid preſentments, with conuenient ſpeed ſhall be certified, and ſtretched out, and from the ſaid court of chancerie into the court of excheker, there to remaine of record among the kings maieſties records of the ſame court of the excheker, to the intent that this ſtatute ſhall be the more diligentlie and indifferentlie put in execution, according to the true meaning thereof.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch commiſſioners as ſhall héereafter be authorized by vertue of the kings commiſſion to put this act in execution, ſhall before ſuch time as he or they ſhall ſit vpon the ſame commiſſion, take a corporall oth before the lord chancellor of England, or the lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, or before ſuch other perſon or perſons, as ſhall haue authoritie from the lord chancellor of England, or the kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, by Dedimus poteſtatem, to receiue and take his or their oths trulie, faithfullie, indifferentlie, and iuſtlie, according to the vttermoſt of his or their wits, learnings, and connings to indeuor themſelues, for, and to the true execution of this ſtatute, and of all & euerie thing conteined in the ſame, for the better maintenance of tillage, and increaſe of corne to be had, according to the true meaning of this act.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue authoritie and power to direct their precept to the ſhiriffe of the countie, being within the limits of their commiſſion, to warne ſuch and as manie honeſt men of his bailiwike as is aforeſaid, by whome the truth maie beſt be knowen, to inquire, and true preſentment make of all and euerie the premiſſes, and to ſet ſuch reaſonable fines, iſſues, and amerciaments vpon ſuch perſons as ſhall make default of their apparances, or making their apparances, ſhall neglect to doo their duties in, and about the execution of the premiſſes, as to the ſame commiſſioners or foure of them, ſhall be by their diſcretions thought méet and conuenient, ſo that the ſame fine or amerciament for anie one default, excéed not the ſumme of twentie ſhillings, & that the ſame fines, iſſues, and amerciaments ſo by them taxed and ſet, ſhall be yéerelie well and trulie ſtreated into the ſaid court of the excheker, and there to be leuied to the kings vſe, as other fines and amerciaments haue béene there accuſtomed and vſed to be leuied.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the putting of anie lands or tenements héereafter, from paſture to tillage, according to the forme and effect of this act, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to be anie cauſe of breach or forfeiture of anie bond, couenant, paiment, or condition, made or héereafter to be made betwéene anie perſon or perſons, which in anie wiſe is, or ſhall be repugnant or contrariant to this act.

Prouided alwaies and it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie land, conuerted, or to be conuerted into paſture, that ſhall be kept without fraud or couin, onlie for the maintenance of the houſes and hoſpitalitie of anie perſon or perſons, nor to anie land that commonlie or vſuallie hath lien to paſture by the ſpace of fortie yéeres laſt paſt, nor to anie waſt grounds or heaths, nor to anie common downes, fens, mores or mariſhes, which haue not béene commonlie and vſuallie for the moſt part ſowen or put in tillage within fortie yéeres laſt paſt, nor to anie land now being lawfull warren, or now vſed and kept for conies, nor to anie ground ſtubbed or won from wood, buſhes, broome, or firs into the kind of paſture, nor to anie land now incloſed in anie parke, commonlie vſed with déere, and that without fraud or couin, hath béene vſed for anie parke, within foure yéeres laſt paſt before this preſent ſeſſion of the parlement, nor to anie ſalt marſhes, nor to anie marſhes that commonlie within ten yéeres hath béene once ſurrounded or ouerflowen with water, nor to anie ground incloſed by the licence of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or anie of his noble progenitors, nor to anie orchard, garden, poole, or pondyard, nor to anie medow ground yéerelie mowen, or to be mowen for haie, nor to anie land ſet or to be ſet with ſaffron, or with hops, nor to anie land ſowen or to be ſowen with hempe, flax, woad, or madder, nor to anie land without fraud or couin, ſowen or to be ſowen with acorns, or ſet or to be ſet with wood, during ſuch times as the ſame ſhall be vſed or put to the vſes and intents before ſpecified.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, which at any time héeretofore hath conuerted, or at any time or times héereafter ſhall conuert anie arable land to paſture, in anie pariſh, towne, village, hamlet or other place or places of this realm, for the which ſuch perſon or perſons haue alreadie or within one yéere after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, or within one yéer next after any ſuch inquiſition héereafter to be found, after ſuch conuerting of arable ground into paſture, hath or ſhall turne, or conuert to tillage & arable ground, as much paſture ground or leaſe, within the ſame pariſh, towne, village, or hamlet, or within anie of them, where any ſuch land ſo hath bin, or héereafter ſhalbe conuerted from tillage to paſture, & doo ſuffer yͤ ſame land ſo turned from paſture to tillage, ſo to continue in tillage, & be arable, without turning the ſame to paſture again, ſo long as yͤ lands turned to paſture as aforeſaid, ſhalbe vſed in paſture: any thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie héerof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well all commiſſioners, iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of Oier & determiner, as iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, & none other, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire of the premiſſes, & ſhall certifie all preſentments that ſhall be had before them into the court of chancerie, and from thenſe to be ſtreated in conuenient time into the kings court of the excheker, and that the partie gréeued if he will, maie haue and tend his trauerſe according to the lawes of this realme in the ſame court, whether the ſaid lands or tenements ſo founden by anie ſuch inquiſition, be holden of the king immediatlie or not.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall or maie in anie wiſe extend to giue anie authoritie to anie ſhiriffe, vnderſhiriffe, or anie their officer, bailiffe or miniſter, to infringe, breake, or enter into anie libertie or liberties for the execution of anie precept or other proceſſe, which ſhall be heereafter to him or them awarded, by authoritie and vertue of this act, otherwiſe then he or they might haue doone before the making of the ſame, anie thing hérein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons offending this act, be at anie time héereafter impeached or ſued by force of this act, for any offenſe or offenſes committed or doone, or to be committed or doone, contrarie to this act, that then the partie offending ſo ſued, ſhall not be impeached by the king our ſoueraigne lord, or by anie other for the ſame offenſe, by vertue of anie law, act or acts, ſtatute or ſtatutes, héeretofore had or made, for the reformation of anie the articles or branches conteined in this act: anie thing in this act, or anie other act or acts, had or made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, nor anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not extend to charge any perſon or perſons with anie penaltie or forfeiture, for or concerning anie offenſe doone or to be doone, contrarie to the tenor of this act, vnleſſe he or they ſo offending, be ſued, or impeached for the ſame, within thrée yeeres next after the ſame offenſe be found by inquiſition, as is aforeſaid; this act to indure for ten yéeres, and from thenſe vnto the end of the next parlement.

An act for the true making of woollen cloth.

Chap.6. WHere héertofore diuerſe and manie goodlie ſtatutes haue béene made for the true making of cloth within this realme, which neuertheleſſe, forasmuch as clothiers, ſome for lacke of knowledge and experience, and ſome of extreme couetouſneſſe, doo dailie more and more ſtudie rather to make manie, than to make good clothes, hauing more reſpect to their priuat commoditie and gaine, then the aduancement of truth, and continuance of the commoditie in eſtimation, according to the worthineſſe thereof, haue and doo dailie in ſtead of truth, practiſe falſehood, and in ſtead of ſubſtantiall making of cloth, doo practiſe ſleight and ſlender making, ſome by mingling of yarns of diuers ſpinnings in one cloth, ſome by mingling tell wooll, and lambs wooll, or either of them with fléeſe wooll, ſome by putting too little ſtuffe, ſome by taking them out of the mill before they be full thicked, ſome by ouerſtretching them vpon the tenter, and then ſtopping with flocks ſuch bracks as ſhall be made by means thereof, finallie by vſing ſo manie ſubtill ſleights and vntruthes, as when the clothes ſo made, be put in the water to trie them, they riſe out of the ſame neither in length nor bredth as they ought to doo, and in ſome place narower then ſome, beſide ſuch cockling, bauding, and diuers other great & notable faults, as almoſt cannot be thought to be true. And yet neuertheleſſe, neither fearing the lawes in that caſe prouided, nor regarding the eſtimation of their countrie, doo not onlie procure the aulnegeor to ſet the kings ſeale to ſuch falſe, vntrue, and faultie cloth, but doo themſelues weaue into the ſame the likeneſſe and ſimilitude of the kings highneſſe moſt noble and imperiall crowne, and alſo the firſt letter of his name, which ſhould be teſtimonies of truth, and not a defenſe of vntruth, to the great ſlander of the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the ſhame of this land, and to the vtter deſtruction of ſo great and notable commoditie, as the like is not in anie forren nation. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king therefore, minding to aduance all truth, and to abandon falſhood, and alſo to prouide for the continuance of the ſaid commoditie of cloth making, to his honor and the common profit of the realme, hath by the aduiſe of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, cauſed as well diuers honeſt clothiers, as alſo diuers drapers, merchant tailors, clothworkers, ſheremen, and other artificers to whome it apperteineth, to be examined by certeine wiſe, diſcréet, and ſage knights, and burgeſſes of this preſent parlement, of ſuch matters as touch as well the falſe as the true making of clothes, by whoſe declaration, conſent, agréement and aduiſe, after diuers & ſundrie meetings and great deliberat aduiſe taken in the premiſſes, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, it is enacted as heereafter followeth, to remaine firme and perfect, notwithſtanding anie ſuggeſtions heereafter to be made by anie clothier or clothmaker to the contrarie, as they haue in like caſes heeretofore doone; that is to ſaie, that euerie cloth, karſeie, péece of fréeſe and cotton, ſhall be made in ſuch ſort and forme, and ſhall conteine in length, bredth, and weight, as is héerein heereafter particularlie mentioned, vpon ſuch pains, penalties, and forfeitures, as be heereafter expreſſed and appointed.

Firſt, that all and euerie broadcloth and clothes which ſhall be made after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, within the ſhires of Kent and Suſſex, or at the towne of Reading, or anie of them, or elſewhere of like making, as the clothes made there ſhall be of, ſhall conteine in length at the water, euerie peece being through wet, betwéene eight and twentie and thirtie yards of meaſure that is now cuſtomablie vſed, & in breadth ſeuen quarters at the leſt within the liſts, by the whole length of the ſame cloth, the liſts of the ſame clothes to be of like making and aſſiſe, as they haue héere before time bin vſed to be made, & that euerie péece of the ſaid clothes being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, & fullie dried, ſhall be in weight, & weigh 90 pound at the leaſt.

And that all and euerie white cloth & clothes, which ſhall be made within the citie of Worceſter, commonlie called long worceſters, and all like clothes of like making, made within the citie of Couentrie or elſewhere after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall conteine in length being wet as is aforeſaid, betwixt 29 and 31 yards the péece, and to euerie yard one inch of the ſtandard, and ſhall be of the bredth aboue ſpecified, throughout and by all the length of the whole cloth, and liſted as hath béene accuſtomed, and being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fullie dried, ſhall weigh foure ſcore & foure pounds the péece at the leaſt. And that all coloured clothes made in the ſaid cities of Couentrie & Worceſter, or elſewhere of like making, after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall conteine and be of like length and bredth as is laſt before mentioned, and be liſted as is aforeſaid, and being well ſcowred, thicked, and fullie dried, ſhall weigh foure ſcore pounds the péece at the leaſt.

Michaell the archangell next,be vtterlie void and of none effect. And to the intent that all ſuch clothes as ſhalbe made within this realme,or anie other the kings dominions, after the ſaid feaſt,ſhall be the better knowne from the other clothes made before the ſame time.

Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that from and after the ſaid feaſt, the letter E. crowned, ſhall not be wrought in the cloth, for, and by the ſpace of two yeares then next inſuing,vpon paine of forfeiture of twentie ſhillings for euerie cloth or karſeie,wherein the ſaid letter E. ſhall ſo be wrought, the moitie of all which forfeitures,and of all other forfeitures before expreſſed,and not otherwiſe appointed by this preſent act,ſhall be to the king our ſouereigne lord,and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt,detinue, bill, plaint, or enformation in anie of the kings courts of record, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection, ſhall be admitted nor allowed for the defendant.

Prouided alſo,and be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid,that it ſhall not be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons,at anie time after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming,to boile or cauſe to be boiled anie kind of wools,to be conuerted into anie kind of broad cloth, or karſeie, with anie kind of galles, rinds, barks of trees, or ſaw duſt, vpon paine to forfeit all ſuch wooll, or the value thereof to be recouered and had in ſuch forme and ſort, as in the foreſaid act is limited and expreſſed.

Prouided alwaies,that this act,or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie cloth or clothes,made in the towne of Taueſtocke, in the countie of Deuonſhire, or elſewhere within the ſaid countie,commonlie called Taueſtocke clothes,but that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie inhabitants of the ſaid towne,or makers of the ſaid clothes, commonlie called Taueſtocks,to make and ſeale the ſame,with the accuſtomed ſeale,as they haue heeretofore beene accuſtomed,anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act limitting the times for buieng and ſelling of wools.

Chap.7.

Foraſmuch as the great plentie of wools within this realme,ought by all reaſon to cauſe the ſame to be of conuenient and reaſonable prices,yet by the greedie and couetous minds,aſwell of ſuch as haue the great plentie and aboundance of ſheepe and wools, as alſo by the corrupt practiſes of diuerſe broggers,engroſſers, wooll gatherers, and regratours, and ſundrie other perſons,by the hauing to much libertie of buieng, keeping, vſing, and occupieng of the ſame wools,it manifeſtlie appeareth,that the priſes thereof be woonderfullie and exceedinglie enhanſed and raiſed,to the great hurt,detriment,and decaie of the realme.

Be it therefore ordeined,eſtabliſhed,and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner of perſon or perſons,being borne within the kings obeiſance,ſhall after the laſt day of Male next, buie, bargaine, take, or make anie promiſſe, or bargaine of wools, but onlie ſuch perſon or perſons, his wife, or his or their apprentiſe, or apprentiſes, inhabiting in his or their manſion houſe or houſes, as ſhall of the ſaid wools make yarne, anie kind of cloth, chamblets, woolſtead, ſaies, ſtamine, knit hoſe, knit peticotes, knit gloues, knit ſléeues, hats, coifes, caps, arraſſe, tapiſtrie, couerlets, girdles, or anie other thing vſed to be made of wooll, or mixed with wooll, within the realme: or elſe a merchant or merchants of the ſtaple of Calis, or his or their apprentiſe, or apprentiſes dwelling in his or their manſion houſe or houſes, to be ſhipped onelie to the ſtaple at Calis, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of the ſaid wools, ſo to be bought or bargained, or taken by promiſe of bargaine, contrarie to this preſent act.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that no merchant ſtranger, after the twentith daie of Aprill next comming, by himſelfe, or by anie other perſon or perſons for him, in his name, or to his vſe, in anie yéere after the ſaid twentith daie of Aprill then to come, ſhall bargaine or buie anie wools, before the feaſt of the purification of our ladie next after the clipping or ſhering of the ſame wools, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of the ſame wools.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no manner of perſon or perſons, hauing anie wooll or wools, of his or their owne growth, ſhall at anie time after the feaſt of the natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt next comming, keepe the ſame wools, to the intent to ſell the ſame in wooll, vnwrought, ouer and aboue one whole yeare next and immediatlie after the ſhering of the ſame wools: ſo as there be offered without fraud, or couin to the owner or owners thereof, within the ſame time, ſuch price as then ſhall be moſt commonlie giuen in the ſame ſhire, for wooll of like goodneſſe, and packing, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie tod, or tod weight thereof, ſo kept aboue one yéere vnſold, as is aforeſaid, the ſum of ten ſhillings, the moitie of all and euerie ſuch forfeiture and forfeitures, penaltie or penalties, before rehearſed, to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to the vſe of him that will ſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts of record by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, wherein no wager of law, protection, or eſſoine, ſhall be allowed for the defendant.

Prouided alwaies, that the merchants of Newcaſtell, and other perſons, may buie wools of the growth of the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, Richmond, and Alerton ſhire, or the biſhoprike of Dureſme, to the intent to ſhip, or tranſport the ſame into the parts beyond the ſeas, as they haue béene accuſtomed, anie thing in this ſtatute to the contrarie, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted, that the merchants of the ſtaple maie from time to time, bargaine or ſell their refuſe courſe wools and locks, ſuch as is not meet for the ſaid ſtaple, to anie perſon or perſons, that will buie the ſame to make yarne or cloth, or other things as is aboueſaid, within this realme, ſo as the ſame be ſhot and packed by the wooll packer, declaring of what packing or countrie the refuſe or locks be, and writing vpon the clothes, wherein the ſaid refuſe wooll is packed in great letters, as they doo vpon the wools that is ſhipped to Calis.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to the king our ſoueraigne lord by his proclamation at anie time héereafter to be made and ſet forth, to repeale this ſtatute, and all and euerie article, clauſe, ſentence, and other thing & things therein conteined, and to make the ſame void to all intents and purpoſes, as though this act had neuer béene had or made, anie thing in this ſtatute to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that the act made at the firſt ſeſſion of this parlement, holden in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king, called and intituled the act for the continuance of making of worſted yarne in Norffolke, and euerie article and clauſe thereof, ſhall remaine and continue in full force, vertue and ſtrength. And that all perſons inhabiting, or that ſhall inhabit within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, or citie of Norwich, and euerie of them, ſhall and may buie, and ſell wools growing within the ſaid countie of Norffolke, according to the purport, true effect, and plaine meaning of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie therof, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act limiting what perſons ſhall weaue or make broad wollen cloth.

Chap.8.

BE it enacted by the aſſent of the kings maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons within this realme of England, Wales, or other the kings dominions, after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next inſuing, ſhall weaue, or make, or put to weauing or making, anie maner of broad woollen clothes to be ſold, vnleſſe that ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſo weaue or make, or put to weauing or making the ſaid broad woollen cloth or clothes, ſo to be made to be ſold, haue béene an apprentiſe to the occupation of broad woollen cloth making, or clothes weauing, or haue béene exerciſed & practiſed in, and with broad cloth making, or cloth weauing, by the ſpace of ſeauen yéeres at the leaſt, before the ſame perſon or perſons ſhall ſo take vpon him or them, to make or weaue, or to put to weauing or making, the ſaid broad woollen clothes, vpon paine to forfeit all and euerie ſuch cloth and clothes, ſo wouen or made, contrarie to the forme of this act: the one halfe of which forfeiture, ſhalbe to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him or them that will or ſhall ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information in anie court of record, within this realme of England, or Wales, in which action, ſute, plaint, bill or information, no eſſoine, protection, or plea to the iuriſdiction of the court, ſhall be allowed for the defendant.

An act that no man robbing anie houſe, booth or tent, ſhall be admitted to the benefit of his clergie.

Chap.9.

WHere at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation, in the thrée and twentie yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight. It was among other things, then and there enacted, eſtabliſhed, and ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that no perſon nor perſons, which after that time ſhould happen to be found guiltie, after the lawes of this realme, for anie maner petit treaſon, or for anie wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of anie churches, chapels, or other holie places, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, his children, or ſeruants then being within, & put in feare or dred by the ſame, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons, in or néer about the high wais, or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes or barnes, wherein anie graine or corne ſhould happen to be, nor anie perſon or perſons, being found guiltie of anie abetment, procurement, mainteining, or concealing of anie, or to anie ſuch petit treaſon, murders or felonies, ſhould from thenſeforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergie, but vtterlie to be excluded thereof, and ſuffer death in ſuch maner and forme, as they ſhould haue doone for anie cauſes or offenſes aboueſaid, if they were no clerks, ſuch as be within the holie orders, that is to ſaie, of the orders of ſubdeacon, or aboue, all onelie excepted, as by the ſame act among other things more plainelie appéereth, which act was made to indure vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, and after that at the ſeſſion of the parlement holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation, in the two and thirtie yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, the ſame act with other acts, was made to continue for euer. Sithen the making of which ſtatute, it hath béene doubted, that if ſuch robberies and fellonies, hath béene committed and doone in dwelling houſes, & dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſes, his wife, his children or ſeruants, being then put in feare or dread by the ſame, ſhall not loſe the benefit of their clergie, if the offendors be therein found guiltie by the lawes of this realme, vnleſſe the ſame robberie, or fellonie be committed and doone in the verie chamber, houſe or place where the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, children or ſeruants ſhall happen to be, or lie at the time of ſuch robberie and fellonie committed and doone, and put in feare and dread, although the owner and dweller in ſuch houſe and houſes, his wife, his children or ſeruants, at the time of ſuch robberie and fellonie committed, & doone, were or laie in other places, within the precinct of the ſame dwelling houſes, nigh vnto the houſe or place, where ſuch robberie & fellonie ſhall happen to be doone. Or if it happen that the owner, or dweller within the ſame houſe where ſuch robberie, and fellonie ſhall happen to be doone, his wife, children or ſeruants to be a ſléepe, at the time of ſuch robberie, and fellonie committed and doone, although the ſame robberie were doone in the chamber or place, where the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, children or ſeruants then laie, the offendors being found guiltie thereof according to the lawes of the land, ſhould not looſe the benefit and aduantage of his clergie: And where alſo it hath béene in queſtion and doubted, that if ſuch robberies, and fellonies happen to be committed and doone in anie booth or boothes, tent or tents, in anie faire or market, the owner of the ſame, his wife, children or ſeruants happen to be within the ſame, at the time of the committing of ſuch fellonies, and put in feare and dread, the offendors therein being found guiltie, after the lawes of this realme, ſhould not looſe the benefit of their clergie. For the true declaration and explanation of the ſame doubts or queſtions before recited.

Be it enacted ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if it happen anie perſon or perſons, to be found guiltie, according to the lawes of this realme, for robbing of anie perſon or perſons, after the firſt daie of Maie next inſuing, in anie part or parcell of their dwelling houſes, or dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, or his wife, his children, or ſeruants being then within the ſame houſe or place, whether it ſhall happen the ſame robberie, and fellonie to be committed and doone, or in anie other place within the precinct of the ſame houſe or dwelling place, that ſuch offendor ſhall in no wiſe be admitted to their clergie, whether the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife or children, then, and there being, ſhall be waking, or ſléeping. And that no perſon nor perſons, which after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall happen to be found guiltie, after the lawes of this realme, of, and for robbing anie perſon or perſons, in anie booth or tent, in anie faire or market, the owner, his wife, his children or ſeruants, or ſeruant then being within the ſame booth or tent, ſhall not from henſeforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergie, but vtterlie be excluded thereof, and ſuffer death, in ſuch maner and forme, as is before mentioned in the ſaid act, made in the ſaid two and twentie yéere of the reigne of the ſame late king for robberies, and fellonies, committed and doone, in dwelling houſes, and dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame, his wife, children or ſeruants, then being within the ſame, and put in feare and dread, without hauing anie reſpect or conſideration whether the owner or dweller in ſuch booths, and tents, his wife, children or ſeruants being in the ſame boothes, or tents at the time of ſuch robberies and fellonies committed, ſhall be ſléeping or waking.

An act to take awaie the benefit of the clergie from ſuch as rob in one ſhire, and flie into another.

Chap.10. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, vpon prorogation the fiftéene daie of Januarie, in the fiue and twentith yéere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight. It is recited that at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the thrée and twentie yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, amongſt other things it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no perſon or perſons, which after that time ſhould happen to be found guiltie after the lawes of this land, of anie maner of petit treaſon, or for anie wilfull murder prepenſed, or for robbing of anie churches, chapels, or other holie places, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, his children or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare and dread by the ſame, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons, in or néere about the high waie, or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes, or barnes, wherein anie graines of corne ſhould happen to be, nor anie perſon or perſons, being found guiltie of anie abbetment, procurement, helping, mainteining or conceling of, or, to anie ſuch petit treaſon, murders, or felonies, ſhould from thenſefoorth be admitted to the benefit of his, or their clergie, but ſhould vtterlie be excluded thereof and ſuffer death, in ſuch maner and forme, as they ſhould haue doone for anie the cauſes or offenſes aboue ſaid, if they were no clerks, which act extended but onelie where ſuch offendor was conuicted in ſuch countie or place, where ſuch offenſe was ſo committed and doone, and not where he or they did ſuch offenſe in one countie, and were taken with the maner in an other countie. Wherefore it was conſidered, that for aſmuch as diuerſe and manie felons and robbers, that commit, and doo diuerſe and manie great heinous robberies, and burglaries in one ſhire, and conueie the ſpoile and robberie into anie other ſhire, and there be taken, indicted, & arreigned of fellonie, of the felonious ſtealing of the ſame goods, in the ſame other ſhire, then where the ſame robberies, or burglaries, were doone and committed, and not of the ſame robberie nor burglarie, for that it was not doone, nor committed in the ſame ſhire, where they be ſo indicted, and arreigned, & that by reaſon thereof, ſuch fellons, robbers, and burglaries, had, and inioied the priuilege, and aduantage of their clergie.

For the redreſſe whereof it was enacted in the ſaid parlement holden in the ſaid fiue and twentie yéere of the ſaid late king, that if anie perſon or perſons, after that time, after ſuch robberie or burglarie, by him, or them doone in one countie, ſhould be indicted of fellonie for ſtealing of anie goods or chattels, in anie other countie within this realme, and there vpon arreigned and found guiltie, or ſtand mute of malice, or chalenge peremptorie aboue the number of twentie perſons, or would not vpon his or their ſaid arreignement directlie anſwer to the ſame fellonie, that then the ſame perſon and perſons, ſo arreigned, and found guiltie, or ſtanding mute of malice, or challenging peremptorie aboue the number of twentie perſons, or that would not directlie anſwer to the law, ſhould loſe and be put from the benefit of his or their clergie, in like maner and forme, as they ſhould haue béene, if they had béene indicted, arreigned, and found guiltie in the ſame countie where ſuch robberie or burglarie, as is aforſaid, was doone or committed, if it ſhould appéere to the iuſtices before whome anie ſuch fellons or robbers ſhould be arreigned by euidence giuen before them or by examination, that the ſame fellons & burglaries ſhould haue béene put from their clergie, in caſe they had béene indicted, arreigned, & found guiltie in the ſame countie, where the ſame robberies or burglaries were committed or done, as in the ſame ſtatute made in the ſaid fiue and twentie yéere among other things more plainelie appéereth. And where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the fourth daie of Nouember, in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is.

It is ordeined and enacted amongſt other things, that no perſon or perſons, that before that time had béene or at anie time after ſhould be in due forme of the lawes atteinted, or conuicted of murder, of malice prepenſed, or of poiſoning of malice prepenſed, or of breaking of anie houſe, by daie or by night, anie perſon being then in the ſame houſe, where the ſame breaking had béene, or after time ſhould be committed, being put in feare or dread, or of, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in the high waie, or néere to the high waie, or for fellonious ſtealing of horſſes, geldings, or mares, or of fellonious taking of anie goods out of anie pariſh church, or other church or chapell, or being indicted or appealed of anie of the ſame offenſes, and there vpon found guiltie, by verdict of twelue men, or ſhould confeſſe the ſame vpon his or their arreignement, or would not anſwer directlie according to the lawes of this realme, or ſhould ſtand wilfullie, or of malice mute, ſhould not be admitted to haue, or inioy the priuilege or benefit of his or their clergie, or ſanctuarie, but ſhould be put from the ſame. And that in all other caſes of fellonie other then ſuch as be before mentioned, all and ſingular perſon and perſons, which after the firſt daie of March then next following, ſhould be arreigned or found guiltie vpon his or their arreignement, or ſhould confeſſe the ſame, or ſtand mute in forme aforſaid, or would not anſwer directlie in forme aboueſaid, ſhould haue and inioy the priuilege and benefit of his or their clergie, and the libertie and priuilege of ſanctuarie, in like maner and forme, as he or they might or ſhould haue doone, before the foure and twentie daie of Aprill, in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henry the eight, as in the ſaid act made in the ſaid firſt yéere among other things more plainelie appéereth. By reaſon of which article and clauſe, conteined in the ſaid act, made in the firſt yéere, the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid fiue and twentie yéere of the ſaid late king, which did put ſuch fellons and burglaries from their clergie, that doo ſuch offenſe in one countie, and after are taken with the goods ſtolen in another countie, and there endicted, arreigned, and found guiltie, was made void. By reaſon whereof, diuerſe and manie perſons that ſithen the ſaid firſt yéere haue committed ſuch robberies and burglaries, in one countie, and after hath béene taken with the maner in another countie, and there endicted, arreigned, and found guiltie, haue had and inioied their clergie, which they could not haue had in caſe the ſaid act, made in the ſaid fiue and twentith yeere, had ſtand in force, to the great boldening and comfort of ſuch offendors.

For redreſſe whereof from henſefoorth to be had, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid act made in the ſaid fiue and twentith yeere touching the putting of ſuch offendors from their clergie and euerie article, clauſe and ſentence conteined in the ſame, touching clergie, ſhall from henſefoorth, touching ſuch offenſes, from henſefoorth to be committed and doone, ſtand, remaine, and be in full ſtrength and vertue, in ſuch maner and forme, as it did before the making of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoucreigne lord the king that now is, anie clauſe, article, or ſentence, compriſed in the ſaid act made in the ſaid firſt yéere, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the puniſhment of diuerſe treaſons.

Foraſmuch as it is moſt neceſſarie, both for common policie, and dutie of the ſubiects aboue all things to prohibit, reſtreine, and extinct, all maner of ſhamefull ſlanders, which might grow, happen, or ariſe to their ſoucreigne lord the kings maieſtie, which when they be heard, ſéene or vnderſtand, cannot be but odible, and alſo abhorred of all thoſe ſorts that be true and louing ſubiects, if in anie point they maie doo, or ſhall touch his maieſtie, vpon whome dependeth the whole vnitie, and vniuerſall weale of this realme, without prouiding wherefore, too great a ſcope of vnreaſonable libertie ſhould be giuen to all cankered and traiterous harts, and the kings louing ſubiects, ſhould not declare vnto their ſoucreigne lord now being, which vnto them hath béene and is, moſt both entierlie beloued and eſteemed, their vndoubted ſinceritie and truth. Chap.xii.

Be it therefore enacted by the aſſent and conſent of our ſoucreigne lord the king, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons after the firſt daie of Iune next comming by open preachings, expreſſe words or ſaiengs, doo expreſlie, directlie, and aduiſedlie ſet foorth, and affirme, that the king that now is, is an heritike, ſchiſmatike, tyrant, infidell, or vſurper of the crowne, or that anie his heires or ſucceſſors, to whome the crowne of this realme is limited by authoritie of parlement, holden in the fiue and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the late king Henrie the eight being in lawfull poſſeſſion of the crowne is an heretike, ſchiſmatike, tyrant, infidell, or vſurper of the crowne, that then euerie ſuch offendor, being thereof dulie conuicted, or atteinted by the lawes of this realme, their abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, and all and euerie their aidors and comfortors, knowing the ſaid offenſes, or anie of them to be doone, for his or their ſuch firſt offenſe, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the king, all his and their goods and chattels, and alſo ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment of his and their bodies at the kings will and pleaſure. And if anie perſon being once conuicted or atteinted of anie of the ſaid offenſes, ſhall after his ſaid conuiction or atteindor, eftſoones commit or perpetrate anie of the offenſes before mentioned, in forme aforeſaid committed, and ſhall be thereof dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes of this realme, that then euerie ſuch offendor and offendors, their abbettors, procurors, & counſellors, and all and euerie their aidors and comfortors, knowing the ſaid offenſes or anie of them to be doone, for his or their ſecond offenſe or offences, ſhall loſe and forfeit vnto the king the whole iſſues & profits of all his and their lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, benefices, prebends, and other ſpirituall promotions, for terme of the life of ſuch offendor or offendors, and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit vnto the king all his and their goods and chattels, and alſo ſuffer during his and their liues perpetuall impriſonment of his and their bodies.

Prouided alwaies, that ſuch of the ſaid ſpirituall promotions, as ſhall be charged with cure, be alwaies by the kings maieſtie, and his heires and ſucceſſors ſufficientlie furniſhed of a curate, for the diſcharge of the ſame. And if anie perſons, being two times hereafter conuicted or atteinted of anie of the ſame offenſes, in forme aforeſaid committed, ſhall after the ſecond conuiction or atteindor, eftſoones commit or perpetrate againe, anie of the ſaid offenſes in forme aforeſaid, & be thereof dulie conuicted, or atteinted by the lawes & ſtatutes of this realme, that then euerie ſuch third offenſe or offenſes, ſhall be déemed & adiudged high treaſon, & the offendor or offendors therein, their abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, and all and euerie their aidors and comfortors, knowing the ſaid offenſes, or anie of them to be doone, being thereof conuicted, or atteinted according to the lawes and ſtatuts of this realme, ſhall be adiudged and déemed high traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe and forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands, and tenements, whereof he or they ſhall be ſeized of an eſtate of inheritance, in his or their owne right, to the king, as in caſes of high treaſon.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of Iune next comming by writing, printing, painting, caruing, or grauing, doo directlie expreſlie, and aduiſedlie publiſh, ſet forth and affirme, that the king that now is, or anie his heires or ſucceſſors limited, as is aforeſaid, is an heretike, ſchiſmatike, tyrant, infidell, or vſurper of the crowne, that then euerie ſuch offenſe and offenſes ſhall be deemed, and adiudged high treaſon, and the offendor and offendors, their abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, and all and euerie their aidors and comfortors, knowing the ſaid offenſes or anie of them to be doone, being thereof conuicted or atteinted, according to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe and forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands and tenements to the king, as in caſes of high treaſon.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt daie of Iune next comming, rebelliouſlie doo deteine, keepe, or withhold from our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his ſaid heires and ſucceſſors, anie of his or their caſtels, fortreſſes, fortileſſes or holds within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions or marches, or rebelliouſlie keepe, deteine, or withhold from the kings ſaid highneſſe, his ſaid heires or ſucceſſors, anie of his or their ſhips, ordinances, artillerie, or other munitions or fortifications of warre, and doo not obedientlie render and giue vp to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his ſaid heires or ſucceſſors, or to ſuch perſons, as ſhall be deputed by them or anie of them, ſuch caſtels, fortreſſes, fortileſſes, holds, ſhips, ordinances, artillerie, or other munitions and fortifications of warre, rebelliouſlie kept and deteined within ſix daies next after they ſhall be commanded by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord his ſaid heirs or ſucceſſors, by open proclamation vnder the great ſeale, the ſame proclamation to be made in ſuch place and order, ſo as the partie and parties to be charged by this act maie conuenientlie haue notice or knowledge thereof: that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending in anie the premiſſes, after the ſaid firſt daie of Iune, their abbettors, procurors, and counſellors, and all and euerie their aidors and comfortors knowing the ſaid offenſes, or anie of them, to be doone, being lawfullie conuicted, of the rebelliouſlie keeping, and deteining thereof, according to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, ſhall be adiudged traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe and forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands and tenements, vnto the king as in caſes of high treaſon.

And ouer that be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the kings ſubiects, denizens or other, doo commit, or practiſe out of the limits of this realme, in anie outward parts, anie the offenſes which by this act are made, or heretofore now ſtanding in force, haue beene made treaſon, that then ſuch treaſons whatſoeuer they be, or wheresoeuer they ſhall happen ſo to be doone or committed, ſhall be inquired, and preſented by the othes of twelue good and lawfull men vpon good and probable euidence and witneſſe, in ſuch ſhire and countie of this realme, and before ſuch perſons, as it ſhall pleaſe the king, his ſaid heires and ſucceſſors to appoint by commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, in like maner and forme, as treaſons committed within this realme, haue beene vſed to be inquired of, and preſented. And that vpon euerie indictment and preſentment, founden and made of anie ſuch treaſons, and certified into the kings bench, like proceſſe, and other circumſtance ſhall be there made, and had againſt the offendors, as if the ſame treaſon ſo preſented, had beene lawfullie found to be doone, and committed, within the limits of this realme. And that all proceſſe of outlawrie, heereafter to be made & had within this realme, againſt anie offendors in treaſon, being reſiant, or inhabitant, out of the limits of this realme, or in anie the parts beyond the ſea, at the time of the outlawrie pronounced againſt them, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law, to all intents and purpoſes, as if anie ſuch offendors, had beene reſident, and dwelling within this realme, at the time of ſuch proceſſe awarded, and outlawrie pronounced.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the partie ſo heereafter to be outlawed, ſhall within one yeere next after the ſaid outlawrie pronounced, or iudgement giuen vpon the ſaid outlawrie, yeeld himſelfe vnto the cheefe iuſtice of England, for the time being, and offer to trauers the inditment or appeale, whereupon the ſaid outlawrie ſhall be pronounced, as is aforeſaid, that then he ſhall be receiued to the ſaid trauers, and being thereupon found not guiltie by the verdict of twelue men, he ſhall be cleerelie acquited, and diſcharged of the ſaid outlawrie, & of all penalties and forfeitures, by reaſon of the ſame, in as large and ample maner and forme, as though no ſuch outlawrie had beene made, anie thing herein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie offendor or offendors, being heereafter lawfullie conuict of anie maner of high treaſon, by preſentment, confeſſion, verdict, or proceſſe of outlawrie, according to the due courſe, and cuſtome of the lawes of this realme, ſhall loſe & forfeit to the kings highnes, his heires and ſucceſſors aforeſaid, all ſuch lands, tenements, & hereditaments which anie ſuch offendor or offendors ſhall haue, of anie eſtate of inheritance, in his owne right, in vſe, or poſſeſſion, within this realme of England, or elſwhere, within anie the kings dominions, at the time of anie ſuch treaſons committed, or at anie time after.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, ſhall in anie wiſe be impeached, for any of the offenſes aboueſaid, committed onlie by open preaching or words, vnles the offendor or offendors, be thereof accuſed, within three moneths next after the ſame open preaching and words, and that the ſame accuſation or accuſations, be had, made, and declared, to one of the kings counſell, or to one of the kings iuſtices of aſſiſe, or els to one of the kings iuſtiſes of the peace, being of the Quorum, or to two iuſtices of the peace within the ſhire where the ſame offenſe or offenſes ſhall happen to be doone or commited: anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie thereof, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it declared and enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that concealement or keeping ſecret of anie high treaſon, be déemed and taken, onelie miſpriſion of treaſon, and the offendor therein to forfeit and ſuffer, as in caſes of miſpriſion of treaſon, as héeretofore hath béene vſed, anie thing aboue mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, after the firſt daie of Iune next comming, ſhall be indicted, arraigned, condemned, conuicted or atteinted, for anie of the treaſons or offenſes aforeſaid, or for anie other treaſons, that now be, or héereafter ſhall be, which ſhall héereafter be perpetrat, committed, or doone, vnleſſe the ſame offendor or offendors be thereof accuſed by two lawfull accuſers, which ſaid accuſers at the time of the arreignement of the partie accuſed, if they be then liuing, ſhall be brought in perſon before the partie ſo accuſed, and auow and mainteine that, that they haue to ſaie againſt the ſaid partie, to proue him guiltie of the treaſons or offenſes conteined in the bill of indictment laid againſt the partie arreigned, vnleſſe the ſaid partie arreigned ſhall willinglie without violence confeſſe the ſame. Sauing to euerie perſon and perſons, their heires and ſucceſſors, other then the offendors and their heires, and ſuch perſon and perſons, as claime to anie their vſes, all ſuch rights, titles, intereſt, poſſeſſions, leaſes, rents, reuerſions, offices, and other profits, which they or anie of them ſhall haue, at the daie of committing ſuch treaſons, or at anie time after, in as large and ample maner, as if this act had neuer béene had nor made.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the wife or wiues, whoſe husband or husbands héereafter ſhall be atteinted of treaſons ſpecified in this act, or of anie other treaſons whatſoeuer they be, ſhall in no wiſe be receiued, or aſke, challenge, demand, or haue dowrie of anie the lands, tenements or hereditaments, of anie the perſon or perſons, to be atteinted of treaſon, as is aforeſaid, during the ſaid atteindor in his force, anie thing before mentioned to the contrarie, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the declaration of a ſtatute made for the mariage of preeſts, and for the legitimation of their children.

Chap. 1[illegible]

Albeit, that at the ſeſſion of this parlement holden by prorogation at Weſtminſter, the fourth daie of Nouember, in the ſecond yéere of the reigne of the kings maieſtie that now is, it was ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that all and euerie law and lawes poſitiue, canons, conſtitutions, and ordinances, before that made, by the authoritie of man onelie, which then did prohibit, and forbid mariage to anie eccleſiaſticall and ſpirituall perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition, or degrée they then were, or by what name or names ſoeuer they then were called, which by Gods law might lawfullie marrie, and all and euerie article, branch, and ſentence, concerning onelie the prohibition for the mariage of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhould be vtterlie void and of none effect: and that all manner of forfeitures, paines, penalties, crimes, or actions, which were in the ſaid lawes conteined, or of the ſame did follow, concerning the prohibition, for the mariage of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhould be cléerelie and vtterlie void, fruſtrate, and of none effect, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, aſwell concerning mariage afore that time made by anie of the eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall perſons aforeſaid, as alſo ſuch, which thereafter ſhould be dulie and lawfullie had, celebrated and made, betwixt the perſons which by the lawes of God might lawfullie marrie: yet ſinc[illegible] making of the ſaid act, diuerſe euill diſpoſed perſons peruerſlie taking occaſion of certeine w[illegible]s and ſentences, in the ſame act compriſed, haue, and doo vntrulie, and verie ſlanderouſlie report of préeſts matrimonie, ſaieng that the ſame ſtatute is but a permiſſion of préeſts matrimonie, as vſurie, and other vnlawfull things be now permitted, for the eſchewing of greater inconuenience, and euils, ſo that thereby the lawfull matrimonie of préeſts, in the opinion of manie, and the children procreate, and borne in ſuch lawfull matrimonie, rather be of a great number of the kings ſubiects accompted as baſtards, then lawfullie borne, to the great ſlander, perill, and diſheriſon of ſuch children. Which vntrue ſlanderous reproch of holie matrimonie, dooth not onelie redound to the high diſhonour of almightie God, but alſo to the kings maieſties diſhonour, and his high court of parlement, and the learned clergie of this realme, who haue determined the ſame to be moſt vnlawfull, by the law of God in their conuocation, aſwell by their common aſſent, as by the ſubſcription of their hands. And that moſt of all is to be lamented through ſuch vncomelie railings of matrimonie, and ſlanderous reproches of the cleargie, the word of God is not heard with reuerence, followed with diligence, the godlie procéedings of the kings maieſtie, not receiued with due obedience, and thereby the wealthie men of this realme diſcouraged, to nouriſh and bring vp their children in learning, ſo as it is to be feared, leaſt in place of good learning and knowledge, ſhall créepe in ignorance, and for learned men, vnlearned ambicious men, and flatterers, to the great diſpleaſure of almightie God, and to the perill of the whole ſtate of Gods true religion within this realme, if ſpéedie remedie be not prouided héerein.

Therefore it is enacted, by the king our ſoueréigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that the matrimonie of all, and euerie préeſt, and other eccleſiaſticall and ſpirituall perſons, and perſon heeretofore had, celebrated and made, and the matrimonie of euerie préeſt, and other eccleſiaſticall and ſpirituall perſon, which ſhall heereafter duelie be had, celebrated and made, ſhall be adiudged, déemed, and taken for true, iuſt and lawfull matrimonie, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes. And that all and euerie children and child, borne in anie ſuch matrimonie, ſhall be déemed, iudged, reputed, and taken to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, to be borne in lawfull matrimonie, and to be legitimate, and inheritable to lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, from, and by anie of their fathers, mothers, and other anceſtors, in like maner and forme to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as anie other children, borne in lawfull matrimonie betwixt anie of the kings laie ſubiects be inheritable, and that by the authoritie aforeſaid, aſwell all and euerie préeſt, and other eccleſiaſtisall and ſpirituall perſon and perſons, be and ſhall be inhabled to be tenants by the curteſie, after the death of their wiues, of ſuch lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, as their wiues ſhall happen to be ſeized of, of eſtate in fée ſimple, or eſtate in fée taile generall, during the ſpouſals, as alſo euerie wife of euerie ſuch préeſt, and other eccleſiaſticall perſon, ſhall be inhabled to claime, demand, haue and inioie dower of the lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, whereof hir huſband, during the eſpouſals betwéene them, was ſeized of eſtate in fée ſimple, or fée taile, generall in his owne right, in like maner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as anie other huſband or wiſe, may or might claime, demand, haue, or inioy. Anie law, ſtatute, ordinance, canon, conſtitution, preſcription, or cuſtome, had, made, exerciſed or vſed in this realme to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to giue libertie to anie perſon to marrie, without aſking in the church, or without the ceremonies, according to the booke of common praier, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, nor ſhall make anie ſuch matrimonie alreadie made, or héereafter to be made good, which are prohibited by the law of God for anie other cauſe.

Prouided alſo that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to alter, change, reuoke, repeale, or otherwiſe doo diſanull anie decrée, iudgement or ſentenſe of diuorſe, héeretofore had or made, or to change or alter the poſſeſſion or inheritance of anie lands or tenements, alreadie diſcended, but that they and euerie of them ſhall remaine, continue, and be of ſuch like force, effect, ſtrength, and degrée, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as they were before the making of this act. This act or aniething therein conteined, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the declaration of a ſtatute made in the one and thirtith yeere of king Henrie the eight, touching religious perſons.

Chap.13.

WHere by an act of parlement, made the one and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the moſt noble prince of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, for, and concerning the vnablement of profeſſed and religious perſons, to purchaſe to them and to their heires, in fée ſimple, fée taile, for terme of life, for yéeres, or at will, manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, and other hereditaments and things whatſoeuer: and that they and euerie of them, ſhould or might, from thenſefoorth vſe and exerciſe, receiue, take, haue and inioy, all, and euerie lawfull thing and things, to be growne, fallen, or happened to them, or anie of them, after the ſame deraignement, or departing out of religion. And in which ſaid act of parlement, there is a prouiſo conteined, that none of the ſame religious perſons, ſhould or might at anie time after the making of the ſame act, be taken, déemed, or iudged, for, or as heire or heirs, or inheritable to anie perſon or perſons, to anie purpoſe, reſpect, conſtruction, or intent in the law, as by the ſame act among other things therein conteined, more fullie at large it maie and dooth appeare. And foraſmuch as ſith the time of the making of the ſaid act, there hath béene certeine ambiguities & doubts growne and ariſen, and héereafter are like to grow and ariſe, vpon the expoſition of the ſaid act, whether the ſaid late religious and profeſſed perſons ſhould or might be adiudged, able to inherit, and to be inheritable as heire or heires, to anie of his or their anceſtor, or anceſtors, and to haue and inioy all and euerie thing and things, diſcended, growne, fallen or happened to them, or anie of them, after the ſaid deraignement, or departing out of religion, yea or no. For the full and plaine declaration whereof, be it enacted, declared, and expounded, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie of the ſame late religious, and profeſſed perſon and perſons, ſhall and maie, by authoritie of this act, be inhabled to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, at all time and times héereafter to be taken, déemed, and adiudged, as heire or heires, and inheritable to all and euerie their anceſtor or anceſtors, and to haue, challenge, or inioy receiue, and take, all manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and euerie other thing & things to them or anie of them fallen, come, growne, or diſcended, from anie their anceſtors, by anie maner of waies, ſince the time of their ſeuerall deraignements, or departing out of their religion, in as ample and large manner, forme, and condition, as they had neuer béene profeſſed, nor entred into religion, the ſame profeſſion or religion, or anie law, cuſtome, or vſe, within this realme, to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, & be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that none of the ſaid religious perſons, ſhall or may, by vertue of this act, at anie time héereafter be taken, déemed, or iudged for heire or heires, or inheritable to anie perſon or perſons, to anie conſtruction or intent in the law, by reaſon of anie former right, title, intereſt, matter, or cauſe, had, made, done, deſcended, or growen to anie reſpect or purpoſe, before their ſaid ſeuerall dereignments, or departing out of their religion, anie thing before in this act or in the ſaid former act conteined to the contrarie hereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act againſt regrators, foreſtallers, and ingroſſors.

Chap.14.

ALl be it, diuerſe good ſtatutes, heretofore haue béene made againſt foreſtallers of merchandizes, and vittels: yet for that good lawes and ſtatutes, againſt regrators, and ingroſſors of the ſame things, haue not béene heretofore ſufficientlie made, and prouided, and alſo for that it hath not béene perfectlie knowen, what perſon ſhould be taken for a foreſtaller, regrator, or ingroſſer, the ſaid ſtatutes haue not taken good effect, according to the minds of the makers thereof: therefore, be it enacted and declared by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame: that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, that after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhall buie, or cauſe to be bonght, anie merchandize, vittell, or anie other thing whatſoeuer, comming by land or by water, toward anie market, or faire, to be ſold in the ſame, or comming toward anie citie, port, hauen, créeke, or road of this realme, or Wales, from anie parts beyond the ſea, to be ſold, or make anie bargaine, contract, or promiſe, for the hauing, or buieng of the ſame, or anie part thereof, ſo comming, as is aforeſaid, before the ſaid merchandize, vittels, or other thing, ſhall be in the market, faire, citie, port, hauen, créeke, or road, readie to be ſold, or ſhall make anie motion by word, letter, meſſage, or otherwiſe to anie perſon or perſons, for the inhanſing of the price, or déerer ſelling of anie thing or things aboue mentioned, or elſe diſſuade, moue, or ſtir anie perſon, or perſons, comming to the market or faire, to abſteine or forbeare, to bring, or conueigh anie of the things aboue rehearſed, to anie market, faire, citie, port, hauen, créeke, or road to be ſold, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be déemed, taken, and adiudged, for a foreſtaller.

Further be it enacted, and declared by the authoritie aforeſaid, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, that after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall by anie meanes regrate, obteine, or get, into his or their hands or poſſeſſion, in anie faire or market, anie corne, wine, fiſh, butter, chéeſe, candels, tallow, ſhéepe, lambes, calues, ſwine, pigs, géeſe, capons, hens, chickens, pigeons, conies, or other dead vittell, whatſoeuer, that ſhall be brought to anie faire or market, within this realme or Wales, to be ſold, and doo ſell the ſame againe in anie faire or market, holden or kept in the ſame place, or in anie other faire or market within foure miles therof, ſhall be accepted, reputed, and taken for a regrator or regrators.

And be it alſo enacted, and declared by the authoritie aforeſaid, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, that after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall ingroſſe, or get into his or their hands, by buieng, contracting, or promiſe taking, other then by demiſe, grant or leaſe of land, or tith: anie corne, growing in the fields, or anie other corne, or graine, butter, chéeſe, fiſh, or other dead vtitels whatſoeuer, within the realme of England, to the intent to ſell the ſame againe, ſhall be accepted, reputed, and taken an vnlawfull ingroſſer, or ingroſſers.

And if anie perſon or perſons, ſhall at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, offend in anie of the things before recited, and being thereof dulie conuicted, or atteinted by the lawes of this realme, or after the forme hereafter mentioned, ſhall for his or their firſt offenſe, haue, or ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of two moneths, without baile or mainpriſe, and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit the value of the goods, cattell and vittell, ſo by him or them bought or had.

And if anie perſon, lawfullie conuicted or atteinted, of, or for anie the offenſes aboueſaid, be thereof eftſoones lawfullie conuicted or atteinted, that then euerie perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall haue and ſuffer for his ſaid ſecond offenſe, impriſonment by the ſpace of one halfe yeere, without baile or mainpriſe, and ſhall loſe the double value of all the goods, cattell and vittell, ſo by him bought or had, as is aforeſaid.

And if anie perſon being lawfullie twiſe conuicted or atteinted, of, or for anie of the ſaid offenſes, ſhall eftſoones offend the third time, and be thereof lawfullie conuicted or atteinted, that then euerie ſuch perſon, for the ſaid third offenſe, ſhall be ſet on the pillorie in the citie, towne, or place, where he ſhall then dwell and inhabit, and loſe and forfeit all the goods and cattell, that he or they haue to their owne vſe, and alſo be committed to priſon, there to remaine, during the kings maieſties pleaſure.

Prouided alwaie, and it is enacted and declared by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the buieng of anie ſuch barleie, big, or otes, as anie perſon or perſons (not foreſtalling) ſhall buie, to conuert into malt or otemeale in his or their owne houſe or houſes, and ſo ſhall be conuerted in déed, or the buieng of anie ſuch thing, by anie ſuch fiſhmonger, boucher, or poulter, as concerne his or their owne facultie, craft, or myſterie (otherwiſe then by foreſtalling) which ſhall ſell the ſame againe vpon reaſonable priſes by retaile, or the taking of anie cattell, corne, graine, butter, chéeſe, or anie other thing aboue mentioned reſerued without fraud or couin, vpon anie leaſe for terme of life or liues, yeere or yéeres, heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, or the buieng of anie wine or other dead vittell aboue mentioned, being apt and méet for mans ſuſtenance, by anie inholder, or other vitteller, to ſell the ſame by retaile within his houſe, or to anie of his neighbors for their ſuſtinance, for reaſonable prices, or the buieng of anie dried or ſalted fiſh, hering or ſprots (not foreſtalled) and ſold for reaſonable priſes, or the buieng of anie corne, fiſh, butter, or chéeſe, by anie ſuch badger, lader, kiddier or carier, as ſhall be aſſigned and allowed to that office, or doing, by thrée iuſtices of peace of the countrie, where the ſaid badger, lader, kiddier, or carier ſhall dwell, which ſhall ſell or deliuer in open faire or market, or to anie other vitteller, or to any other perſon or perſons, for the prouiſion of his or their houſe or houſes, all ſuch corne, graine, butter and chéeſe, as anie ſuch perſon ſhall buie or cauſe to be bought, and that within one moneth next after, he ſhall ſo buie anie ſuch corne, graine, butter, or chéeſe, ſo that the ſame ſhall be bought without foreſtalling: or elſe that anie common prouiſion made or héereafter to be made without fraud or couin, by anie perſon or perſons, of anie of the things aboueſaid, for anie citie, borough or towne corporat, or for prouiſion of vittelling of anie ſhip, caſtell or fort, within the kings dominions, without foreſtalling, which ſhall be imploied onelie to that vſe and purpoſe: or the buieng and prouiſion of anie of the vittels aboue mentioned, neceſſarie, and requiſit for the furniture and prouiſion of the inhabitants of Calis, Guiſnes, and other the marches of the ſame, or of the towne of Barwike, Holie Iſland, or the marches of England againſt Scotland, which without fraud, or couin ſhall be tranſported, and conueied, aſſoone as wind and weather maie ſerue to ſuch of the places aforeſaid, for the which the ſame ſhall be ſo prouided, ſhall not be in anie wiſe deemed, adiudged, or taken anie offenſe contrarie to this act.

And it is alſo further enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie next comming, hauing ſufficient corne, and graine, for the prouiſion of his, or their owne houſe or houſes, and ſowing of their grounds, for one yéere doo buie anie corne in anie faire or market, for the change of his or their ſéed, & doo not bring to the ſame faire, or market the ſame daie ſo much corne as he ſhall fortune to buie for his ſéed, and ſell the ſame if he can, as the price of corne then goeth in the ſaid market or faire, that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo buieng corne for ſéed, ſhall forfeit and loſe the double value of the corne ſo bought. Or if anie perſon or perſons after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall buie anie maner of ox, runts, ſtires, kine, heifers, calues, ſhéepe, lambes, goates, or kids, liuing, and ſell the ſame againe aliue, vnleſſe he or they doo kéepe and féed the ſame, by the ſpace of fiue wéekes, in his or their owne houſes, ground, farme ground, or elſe in ſuch ground or grounds where he or they haue the herbage or common of paſture by grant or preſcription: that then euerie perſon or perſons, ſo buieng and ſelling againe, ſhall loſe the double value of the cattell, or things ſo bought & ſold againe. The moitie of all which forfeitures afore rehearſed ſhall be to the king, and the other moitie to him or them, that will ſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, in the which bill, plaint, action, or information, no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be admitted.

Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the iuſtices of the peace in euerie countie within this realme, or Wales, at their quarter ſeſſions, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by vertue of this act, to inquire, heare and determine, all & euerie the defaults and offenſes, perpetrated, committed or doone, contrarie to this act, within the countie where any ſuch ſeſſions ſhall be kept, by inquiſition, preſentment, bill, or information before them exhibited, & by examination of two lawfull witneſſes, or by anie of the ſame waies or meanes, by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices, and to make proceſſe therevpon, as though they were indited before them by inquiſition, or by verdict of twelue men or more: & vpon the conuiction of the offendor by information or ſute of anie other then the king, to make extracts of the one moitie of the forfeitures to be leuied to the kings vſe, as they vſe to doo of other fines, iſſues & amerciaments growen in the ſeſſions of peace, & to award execution of the other moitie for the complainant, or informer againſt the offendor, by Fieri facias, or Capias, as the kings iuſtices at Weſtminſter maie doo, and vſe to doo. And if anie ſuch conuiction, or atteindor, ſhall héereafter happen to be at the kings ſute onelie, that then the whole forfeitures to be extracted and leuied to the kings vſe onelie.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that whatſoeuer perſon, ſhall at anie time héereafter be puniſhed by vertue of this act for anie thing mentioned in this act, that then the ſame perſon ſhall not otherwiſe be vexed, troubled, ſued, or put to anie paine or puniſhment for that thing, wherefore, he or they ſhall haue béene ſo puniſhed.

Prouided alſo that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie bargaine, ſale, gift, grant, nomination, bond, couenant, promiſe, agreement, or aſſurance whatſoeuer it be, of or for anie the office or offices, deputation or deputations aforeſaid, or anie part of anie of them, had, made, doone, concluded, or agreed, before the firſt daie of March next comming, but that the ſame bargaine, ſale, gift, grant, nomination, bond, couenant, promiſe, agreement, or aſſurance, had, made, concluded, or agreed, before the ſaid firſt daie of March, ſhall alwaies remaine, continue, and be in ſuch force, ſtrength, and effect, as if this act had neuer bin had or made; anie thing before in this act mentioned to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act or anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie of the cheefe iuſtices of the kings courts, commonlie called the kings bench, or common place, or to anie of the iuſtices of aſſiſe, that now be, or heereafter ſhall be, but that they and euerie of them, maie doo in euerie behalfe, touching or concerning anie office or offices, to be giuen or granted, by them, or any of them, as they, or anie of them might haue doone, before the making of this act, anie thing aboue mentioned to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Chap.17.

WHere in the parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentith yeere of the reigne of our late moſt dread ſouereigne lord, of moſt famous memorie king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiurned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers prorogations, vnto the diſſolution therof, one act was make and eſtabliſhed, for the reſtreint of carieng, and conueieng of horſſes & mares out of this realme: and alſo one other act was there made in the ſaid parlement, for the true making of cables, halters, and ropes: and alſo one other act was there made for the true winding of wools: and one other act to reſtreine killing of weinlings, bullocks, ſteers, and heifers, being vnder the age of two yeeres, which ſaid ſeuerall acts were then made to indure and continue vnto the next parlement, as by the ſame three ſeuerall acts more plainelie appeareth: and where alſo in the ſame parlement, one other act was was made and eſtabliſhed, for attaints to be ſued, for the puniſhment of periurie, vpon vntrue verdicts, which act laſt before rehearſed, was then made, and ordeined to continue and indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act more plainlie at large is ſhewed, and maie appeere: and where alſo in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter the eight daie of Iune, in the eight and twentith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued and kept vntill the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined and enacted that all and ſingular the ſaid acts aboue remembred, and euerie of them, ſhould continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued and kept, vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined more plainlie appeereth.

And where alſo in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter the eight and twentith daie of Aprill, in the one and thirtith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued vntill the eight and twentith daie of Iune then next following: It was ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue remembred, and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions in them, and euerie of them conteined ſhould continue and indure in their force & ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined, more plainelie appeareth.

And where alſo in the laſt ſeſſion of the ſame parlement, begun at Weſtminſter the twelfe day of Aprill in the ſaid one and thirtith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, and there by diuerſe prorogations continued vntill the foure and twentith daie of Julie in the two and thirtith yeere of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, there was one other act made and eſtabliſhed concerning buieng of fiſh vpon the ſea. And alſo another act was there made in the ſaid parlement for reaſonable priſes of wines to be ſet, as by the ſame two acts laſt recited more plainelie doth appeare.

And where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the fiue & thirtith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, one act was made for the preſeruation of woods, to indure for ſeuen yeeres then next following, and from thenſe to the end of the next parlement, as by the ſame act more plainelie it doth and maie appeare.

And where alſo at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the ſeuen and thirtith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued, and kept vntill the diſſolution thereof: It was ordeined, and enacted that all & ſingular the ſaid acts aboue mentioned, and euerie of them, except the ſaid act made for the preſeruation of woods, as is aforeſaid, ſhould continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined more plainelie appeareth.

And where alſo in the ſeſſion of the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fourth daie of Nouember, in the third yeere of the reigne of our now moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Edward the ſixt, one other act was made in the ſame parlement againſt vnlawfull hunting in anie parke, foreſt, chaſe, or other incloſed ground, which act was then made to indure the ſpace of three full yeeres to be complet and fullie ended, from the firſt daie of Maie then next comming, as by the ſame act more plainelie appeareth. And foraſmuch as all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue mentioned, be good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme:

Be it therefore enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritis of the ſame, that all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts & ſtatutes aboue mentioned or rehearſed, and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles and prouiſions in them, and euerie of them conteined, and alſo all and euerie other branch, article and ſentence conteined in the ſaid act, made in the ſaid ſeuen and thirtith yeere of the ſaid late king of moſt famous memorie Henrie the eight, touching, or in anie wiſe concerning the ſetting of priſes of wine, or the ſale of the ſame, ſhall be reuiued, continued, ſtand, and indure in their force and ſtrength, to all intents, constructions, and purpoſes, and ſhall be obſerued, and kept in all things vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act repealing a ſtatute made in the fourth yeere of king Henrie the ſeuenth againſt the bringing in of wine, and woad in ſtrange bottoms.

Chap.18.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the thirteenth daie of Januarie in the fourth yeere of the reigne of the famous prince of worthie memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth after the conqueſt, grandfather to our now moſt gratious & naturall ſoueraigne leege lord, it was amongſt other things ordeined, ſtabliſhed, & enacted, that no maner of perſon, of what degree, or condition that he were, ſhould conueie, or bring into this realme, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or the marches thereof, or Barwike, from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt, that after that was in the yeere of our Lord God 1490, anie maner wines, growing of the duchie of Guien, or Gaſcoigne, or woad, called tholouſe woad, but ſuch as ſhould be conueied, adventured, and brought in ſhip or ſhips, whereof the ſaid late king, or ſome of his ſubiects of this realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calis, or Barwike, were owners, poſſeſſors and proprietaries, and the maiſter vnder God, and the mariners of the ſame ſhip or ſhips, Engliſh, Iriſh, Welſh, or men of Barwike, or men of Calis, or of the marches of the ſame, for the more partie, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame wine or woad, ſo brought contrarie to the ſaid act, as in the ſaid act more at large, it doth and maie appeare.

The which act was ſuppoſed to be made for the maintenance of the nauie of this realme. And alſo to the intent, and vpon good hope and truſt to haue had the ſame wines and woad at more eaſie priſes than before they had beene, the experience whereof hath euer ſithen (and now of late moſt of all) appeared to the contrarie, for that the ſaid wines and woad be dailie ſold at ſuch exceſſiue priſes, as hath not before beene ſeene within this realme, and the nauie of the realme thereby neuer the better mainteined.

In conſideration whereof, be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the lords, and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame: that from the firſt day of Februarie next comming, after the ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, vnto the firſt daie of October then following, and ſo yeerelie, and from yeere to yeere, beginning at and betweene the firſt daie of Februarie, and the firſt daie of October, it ſhall and maie be lawfull to all and euerie perſon and perſons, being of the parts or countries in amitie with our ſouereigne loꝛd the king, to conueie oꝛ bꝛing into this realme, Ireland, Wales, Callis, oꝛ the marches of the ſame, oꝛ Barwike, anie maner of wines of the growing of the duchie of Guien, oꝛ Gaſcoine, oꝛ of anie other part of France and Tholouſe woad, oꝛ anie of them in whatſoeuer ſhip oꝛ ſhips, craier, oꝛ craiers, bote oꝛ botes, oꝛ by anie other meane whoſoeuer be, oꝛ ſhall be thereof owner, poſſeſſoꝛ oꝛ pꝛopꝛietarie, being of the parts oꝛ countries in amitie of our ſouereigne loꝛd, oꝛ whoſoeuer be thereof maiſter, mariner, oꝛ mariners in the ſame, without anie foꝛfeiture oꝛ penaltie thereof to be had: the ſaid ſtatute oꝛ anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act touching the exchange of gold and ſiluer.

Chap.19. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fiue and twentie yeere of the reigne of king Edward the third, it was accoꝛded that it ſhould be lawfull foꝛ euerie man to exchange gold foꝛ ſiluer, oꝛ ſiluer foꝛ gold, oꝛ foꝛ gold and ſiluer, ſo that no man did hold the ſame as exchanged, noꝛ take no pꝛofit foꝛ making of ſuch exchange, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of the monie ſo exchanged, except the kings exchangers, which take pꝛofit of ſuch exchange, accoꝛding to an oꝛdinance befoꝛe that time made. Which ſtatute notwithſtanding diuers couetous perſons of their owne authoꝛities haue of late taken vpon them to make exchanges, as well of coined gold, as of coined ſiluer, receiuing and paieng therefoꝛe moꝛe in value then hath beene declared by the kings pꝛoclamation to be currant foꝛ within this realme and other his dominions, to the great hinderance of the common wealth of this realme.

Be it therefoꝛe enacted by the king our ſouereigne loꝛd, by the aſſent of the loꝛds and commons in this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoꝛitie of the ſame, that if anie perſon oꝛ perſons after the firſt daie of Apꝛill next comming, exchange anie coined gold, coined ſiluer oꝛ monie, giuing, receiuing, oꝛ paieng anie moꝛe in value, benefit, pꝛofit, oꝛ aduantage foꝛ it, then the ſame is oꝛ ſhall be declared by the kings maieſties pꝛoclamation to be currant foꝛ within this his highneſſe realme, and other his dominions, that then all the ſaid coined gold, ſiluer, and monie ſo exchanged, and euerie part and parcell thereof ſhall be foꝛfeit, and the parties ſo offending, ſhall ſuffer impꝛiſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere, and make fine at the kings pleaſure: the one moitie of the ſaid gold, ſiluer oꝛ coine ſo foꝛfeited, to be to the king our ſouereigne loꝛd, and the other moitie to be to the partis that ſeizeth the ſame, oꝛ will ſue foꝛ it by bill, plaint, oꝛiginall, action, of debt, infoꝛmation oꝛ otherwiſe, in anie of the kings courts of recoꝛd, in which ſute no eſſoine pꝛotection oꝛ wager of law ſhall lie, be allowed, oꝛ admitted.

An act againſt vſurie.

Chap.20. WHere in the ſeuen and thirtith yeere of the reigne of the late king of famous memoꝛie king Henrie the eight, father to our ſouereigne loꝛd the king that now is, amongſt other acts and ſtatutes then made, it was enacted by the authoꝛitie of parlement, that no perſon oꝛ perſons at anie time after the laſt daie of Januarie in the ſeuen and thirtith yeere, ſhould haue, receiue, accept, oꝛ take in lucre oꝛ gains foꝛ the lone, foꝛbearing, oꝛ giuing daie of paiment of anie ſumme of monie, foꝛ one whole yeere aboue the ſumme of twentie pound in the hundꝛed, and ſo after that rate, and not aboue, of, and foꝛ a moꝛe oꝛ leſſe ſumme, oꝛ foꝛ a longer oꝛ ſhoꝛter time, vpon the pains and foꝛfeitures in the ſaid act mentioned and conteined. The which act was not ment oꝛ intended foꝛ the maintenance and allowance of vſurie as diuers perſons, blinded with inoꝛdinat loue of themſelues, haue and yet doo miſtake the ſame, but rather was made and intended againſt all ſoꝛts and kinds of vſurie, as a thing vnlawfull, as by the title and pꝛeamble of the ſaid act it doth plainlie appeere, and yet neuertheleſſe the ſame was by the ſaid act permitted, foꝛ the auoiding of a moꝛe euill and inconuenience that befoꝛe that time was vſed and exerciſed. But foꝛaſmuch as vſurie is by the woꝛd of God vtterlie pꝛohibited as a vice moſt odious and deteſtable, as in diuers places of the holie ſcripture it is euident to be ſeene, which thing by no godlie teachings and perſuaſions can ſinke into the harts of diuers greedie, vncharitable and couetous perſons of this realme, noꝛ yet by anie terrible thꝛeatnings of Gods wꝛath and vengeance that iuſtlie hangeth ouer this realme foꝛ the great and open vſurie therein dailie vſed and pꝛactiſed, they will foꝛſake ſuch filthie gaine and lucre, vnleſſe ſome tempoꝛall puniſhment be pꝛouided and oꝛdeined in that behalfe. Foꝛ refoꝛmation thereof, be it enacted by the authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement, that from the firſt daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Loꝛd God 1552, the ſaid act and ſtatute concerning onlie vſurie, lucre oꝛ gains, of, oꝛ foꝛ the lone, foꝛbearing, oꝛ giuing daies of anie ſumme oꝛ ſummes of monie, be vtterlie abꝛogated, void, and repealed.

And furthermoꝛe be it enacted by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that from and after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie next comming no perſon oꝛ perſons of what eſtate, degree, qualitie oꝛ condition ſoeuer he oꝛ they be, by anie coꝛrupt, coloꝛable oꝛ deceitfull conueiance, ſleight oꝛ engine, oꝛ by anie waie oꝛ meane, ſhall lend, giue, ſet out, deliuer, oꝛ foꝛbeare any ſum oꝛ ſums of monie, to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, oꝛ to anie coꝛpoꝛation oꝛ bodie politike, to, oꝛ foꝛ any maner of vſurie, increaſe, lucre, gaine, oꝛ intereſt to be had, receiued, oꝛ hoped foꝛ, ouer ⁊ aboue the ſum oꝛ ſums ſo lent, giuen, ſet out, deliuered oꝛ foꝛboꝛne, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture the value, as well of the ſum oꝛ ſums ſo lent, giuen, ſet out, deliuered oꝛ foꝛboꝛne, as alſo of the vſurie, increaſe, lucre, gaine, oꝛ intereſt thereof. And alſo vpon paine of impꝛiſonment of the bodie oꝛ bodies of euerie ſuch offendoꝛ oꝛ offendoꝛs, ⁊ alſo to make fine and ranſome at the kings will and pleaſure. The moitie of which forfeiture of the ſaid paine, ſhall be to the king, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection, ſhall be allowed or admitted.

An act againſt tinkers and pedlers.

Chap.21. FOraſmuch as it is euident that tinkers, pedlers, and ſuch like vagarant perſons, are more hurtfull then neceſſarie to the common wealth of this realme: be it therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from and after the feaſt of the natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, no perſon or perſons commonlie called pedler, tinker, or petie chapman, ſhall wander or go from one towne to another, or from place to place out of the towne, pariſh or village where ſuch perſons ſhall dwell, and ſell pins, points, laces, gloues, kniues, glaſſes, tapes, or anie ſuch kind of wares whatſoeuer, or gather conie ſkins or ſuch like thing, or vſe or exerciſe the trade or occupation of a tinker, but onlie ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be therevnto licenſed, and that in ſuch circuit or compaſſe as ſhall be to him or them aſſigned, by two iuſtices of peace or mo, of the ſhire where he or they ſhall dwell, by writing vnder their hands and ſeales, vpon paine that euerie perſon which ſhall offend contrarie to the meaning of this act, ſhall by anie iuſtice of the ſhire where the ſame offenſe ſhall be committed, vpon complaint and due proofe had, by witneſſe or otherwiſe, be impriſoned by the ſpace of fourteene daies at the leaſt.

An act for the putting downe of gig mils.

Chap.22. FOraſmuch as true draperie of woollen cloth is to be commended as well in forren realmes, as in this realme of England, and all waies and means vſed to the contrarie are to be eſchewed and taken awaie: and foraſmuch as in manie parts of this realme is newlie and latelie deuiſed, erected, builded, and vſed, certeine mils called gig mils, for the perching and burling of cloth, by reaſon whereof, the true draperie of this realme is wonderfullie impaired, and the cloth therof deceitfullie made by reaſon of the vſing of the ſaid gig mils. For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no maner perſon or perſons, after the laſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhall vſe or occupie anie of the ſaid gig mils for the working of anie woollen cloth or clothes made or to be made within this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie cloth ſo wrought in, or by anie of the ſaid mils, called gig mils, fiue pounds, the moitie of all and euerie ſuch forfeiture and forfeitures, penaltie and penalties, to be to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and his heires, and the other moitie to the vſe of him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, be it by writ, bill, plaint, or information, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection, eſſoine, or iniunction ſhall be to him allowed.

An act for the true ſtuffing of fetherbeds, matreſſes, and cuſhions.

Chap.23. FOr the auoiding the great deceit vſed and practiſed in ſtuffing of fetherbeds, bolſters, pillowes, matreſſes, cuſhions and quilts: be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from and after the laſt daie of Iune next comming, no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, ſhall make (to the intent to ſell or offer to be ſold, anie fetherbed, bolſter or pillow, except the ſame be ſtuffed with drie pulled fethers, or cleane downe onlie, without mingling of ſkalded fethers, fendowne, thiſtledowne, ſand, lime, grauell, vnlawfull or corrupt ſtuffe, haire or anie other, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch fetherbeds, bolſters and pillowes, and euerie of them ſo offred to be ſold, or the value thereof.

And be it further enacted by the ſame authoritie, that from and after the ſaid daie, no perſon or perſons ſhall make (to the intent to ſell or offer, or put to ſale) anie quilt, matreſſe, or cuſhions, which ſhall be ſtuffed with anie other ſtuffe then fethers, wooll, or flocks alone vpon paine of forfeiture of all, and euerie ſuch quilts, matreſſes, or cuſhions ſo ſold or offered to be ſold, or the value thereof. The moitie of all which forfeitures ſhall be to the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie thereof to anie ſuch perſon or perſons as will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, or in anie other court, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant or defendants.

An act for the making of hats, dornecks, and couerlets at Norwich, and in the countie of Norfolke.

Chap.24. WHere the making of hats, dornecks, and couerlets, haue of late beene begun to be practiſed within the citie of Norwich, in which citie there be good and profitable ordinances, and conſtitutions, prouided, and ordeined for the preſeruation, and continuance of the good making of the ſame hats, dornecks, and couerlets, by reaſon whereof the yoong and idle people of the ſaid citie, to a great number haue béene and yet be well occupied, mainteined and ſet on worke: and foraſmuch as diuerſe euill and couetous diſpoſed perſons exerciſing the myſteries of making of hats, and weauing of couerlets and dornecks within the ſaid citie, and not being brought vp, or practiſed in the ſaid arts or myſteries, to the intent they might occupie and exerciſe the ſaid myſteries out of the ſaid citie of Norwich, where no ſuch ordinances and conſtitutions be made or prouided, haue withdrawen themſelues from the ſaid citie, into certeine townes nigh about the ſame citie, where they doo, and maie occupie and exerciſe the making of hats, weauing of couerlets, and dornecks, deceiptfullie, & inſufficientlie, without controlment, to the vtter decaie, aſwell of the ſaid crafts and myſteries, as of the ſaid citie if remedie be not therein prouided.

It maie therefore be enacted by the kings maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon by himſelfe, or by his ſeruant or apprentice, ſhall from and after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, make or worke anie felts, or thrummed hats, or weaue or make anie couerlets or dornecks, or occupie, vſe, or exerciſe the myſteries or occupations of making of felts, or thrummed hats, or weauing of dornecks and couerlets, or any of them, within the ſame citie of Norwich, or within the countie of Norfolke, vnleſſe he or they that ſhall ſo make or worke anie ſuch felts or hats, or ſo occupie the occupation or myſterie of making of felts or hats as aforeſaid, within the ſaid citie or countie be licenced & admitted ſo to doo by the maior, recorder, ſteward, and two iuſtices of the peace of the ſaid citie, or by foure of them, or that haue beene apprentice to the ſame occupation and myſterie of felts & hats making by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, and in like caſe vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſo make or weaue dornecks, or ſo occupie the occupation or myſterie of dornecks weauing, within the ſaid citie or countie be licenced or admitted ſo to doo by the maior, recorder, ſteward, and two iuſtices of the peace of the ſaid citie, or by foure of them, or that haue beene apprentice to the ſaid myſterie, and occupation of dornecks weauing by the terme of ſeuen yeeres. And vnleſſe he or they that ſhall ſo make or weaue couerlets, or ſo occupie the arts or myſterie of couerlets weauing or making, be licenced and admitted ſo to doo, by the maior, recorder, ſteward, & two iuſtices of the peace of the ſaid citie, or by foure of them, or that haue beene apprentice to the occupation and myſterie of couerlets weauing or making, by the ſpace or terme of ſeuen yeeres.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, ſhall from henſeforth make anie felts or hats, or weaue or make anie dornecks or couerlets as aforeſaid, or occupie, exerciſe, or vſe the occupation, arts or myſteries of making of hats or felts, or weauing or making of dornecks or couerlets, or anie of them as aforeſaid in anie place out of the ſaid citie of Norwich, within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, but onelie in a corporat or market towne, vpon paine of forfeiting, aſwell of the felts, hats, dornecks, and couerlets, and euerie of them, which ſhall be made, wrought, or wouen contrarie to the forme, effect, and tenor of this act, or of anie part or clauſe therof, as alſo x.s. for euerie halfe douzen of the ſaid felts or hats, and of iij.s.iiij.d. for euerie couerlet, and of vj.s.viij.d. for euerie ſix yards of dornecks, ſo as is aforeſaid to be made, wouen or wrought contrarie to this act, the one halfe of which forfeitures to be to the king our ſoureigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof to the perſon or perſons that ſhall or will ſeize the ſame, or that will or ſhall ſue for the ſame, or for anie part therof, in the kings court of the Guild hall, within the ſaid citie of Norwich, or in anie other of the kings courts of record within this realme of England, by action of detinue, debt, plaint, bill, or information, or otherwiſe, in which ſaid action or actions, ſute, bill, plaint, or information, no eſſoine, wager of law, protection, or forren plee to the iuriſdiction of the court, ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Prouided alwaies, that all and euerie ſuch perſon or perſons as doo now dwell, or heereafter ſhall dwell and exerciſe the myſterie of dornecks & couerlets making within the towne or pariſh of Pulham, in the ſaid countie of Norfolke, ſhall and maie occupie and exerciſe the making of dornecks and couerlets within the ſaid towne of Pulham, as they haue heeretofore vſed to doo: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the maior, recorder, ſteward, or iuſtices of peace of the ſaid citie, for the time being, or anie of them ſhall take anie ſum of monie, or reward for admitting of anie perſon to occupie or vſe anie of the arts or myſteries aforeſaid, that for euerie ſuch time, and euerie ſuch caſe the perſon ſo offending, ſhall looſe and forfeit fiue pounds; the one part of which forfeiture to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame as is aforeſaid.

An act for keepers of alehouſes, to be bound by recogniſance.

Chap. 25. Foraſmuch, as intollerable hurts and troubles to the commonwealth of this realme, dailie doo grow and increaſe through ſuch abuſes and diſorders as are had & vſed in common alehouſes, and other houſes called tipling houſes: It is therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the iuſtices of peace within euerie ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe or libertie within this realme, or two of them at the leaſt (whereof one of them to be of the Quorum) ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, within euerie ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe & libertie where they be iuſtices of peace, to remooue, diſcharge and put awaie common ſelling of ale and beare in the ſaid common alehouſes, and tipling houſes, in ſuch towne or townes, and places, where they ſhall thinke meet and conuenient. And that none after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhall be admitted or ſuffered to keepe anie common alehouſe, or tipling houſe, but ſuch as ſhall be thereunto admitted, and allowed in the open ſeſſions of the peace, or elſe by two iuſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum. And that the ſaid iuſtices of the peace, or two of them (whereof the one to be of the Quorum) ſhall take bond and ſuretie from time to time by recogniſance, of ſuch as ſhall be admitted, and allowed héereafter to kéepe anie common alehouſe, or tipling houſe, aſwell for, and againſt the vſing of vnlawfull games, as alſo for the vſing and maintenance of good order and rule, to be had and vſed within the ſame, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought neceſſarie & conuenient, for making of euerie which recogniſance, the partie or parties, that ſhall be ſo bound, ſhall paie but xij. d. And the ſaid iuſtices ſhall certifie the ſame recogniſance, at the next quarter ſeſſions of the peace to be holden within the ſame ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe or libertie, where ſuch alehouſe, or tipling houſe ſhall be. The ſame recogniſance there to remaine of record before the iuſtices of peace of that ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe or libertie, vpon paine of forfeiture to the king for euerie ſuch recogniſance taken and not certified iij.li.vj.s.viij.d.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the iuſtices of peace of euerie ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe and libertie, where ſuch recogniſance ſhall be taken, ſhall haue power and authoritie by this act, in their quarter ſeſſions of the peace by preſentment, information, or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, to inquire of all ſuch perſons, as ſhall be admitted and allowed to kéepe anie alehouſe, or tipling houſe, and that be bound by recogniſance, as is abouesaid, if they or anie of them haue doone anie act or acts, whereby they or anie of them haue forfeited the ſame recogniſance. And the ſaid iuſtices of euerie ſhire, & places where they be iuſtices, ſhall vpon euerie ſuch preſentment or information, award proceſſe againſt euerie ſuch perſon ſo preſented, or complained vpon before them, to ſhew whie he ſhould not forfeit his recogniſance, and ſhall haue full power & authoritie by this act, to heare and to determine the ſame by all ſuch waies & meanes, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought good.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be héereafter admitted and allowed by the ſaid iuſtices, ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of Maie, obſtinatlie, and vpon his owne authoritie, take vpon him or them, to kéepe a common alehouſe, or tipling houſe, or ſhall contrarie to the commandement of the ſaid iuſtices, or two of them, vſe commonlie ſelling of ale or béere: that then the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or two of them (whereof one to be of the Quorum) ſhall for euerie ſuch offenſe, commit euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending to the common gaole, within the ſame ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe or libertie, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, by the ſpace of thrée daies. And before his or their deliuerance, the ſaid iuſtice ſhall take recogniſance for him or them ſo committed, with two ſureties that he or they ſhall not kéepe anie common alehouſe, tipling houſe, or vſe commonlie ſelling of ale or béere, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices ſhall be ſéene conuenient. And the ſaid iuſtices ſhall make certificat of euerie ſuch recogniſance and offenſe, at the next quarter ſeſſions that ſhall be holden within the ſame ſhire, citie, borough, towne corporat, francheſſe or libertie, where the ſame ſhall be committed or doone. Which certificat ſhall be a ſufficient conuiction in the law, of the ſame offenſe. And the ſaid iuſtices of peace vpon the ſaid certificat made, ſhall in open ſeſſions aſſeſſe the fine for euerie ſuch offenſe, at twentie ſhillings.

Prouided alwaies, that in ſuch townes and places, where anie faire or faires ſhall be kept, that for the time onelie of the ſame faire or faires, it ſhall be lawfull for euerie perſon or perſons, to vſe common ſelling of ale or béere in booths or other places there, for the reléeſe of the kings ſubiects, that ſhall repaire to the ſame, in ſuch like maner & ſort as hath béene vſed, and doone in times paſſed. This act or anie thing therein contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for writs vpon proclamations and exigents, to be currant within the countie palantine of Lancaſter.

Chap.26.

WHere the countie of Lancaſter is, and of long time hath beene, one ancient countie palantine of it ſelfe, in which countie the kings writ hath not, nor yet dooth not ren, ſo that the writ of proclamation awarded vpon anie exigent, againſt anie perſon or perſons, inhabiting within the ſame countie, in anie action wherein proceſſe of outlawrie dooth lie, according to the ſtatute made in the firt yéere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne lord of famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, cannot be directed to the ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie palantine, but vnto the ſhiriffe of the countie next adioining vnto the ſaid countie palantine, ſo that the partie dwelling within the ſaid countie palantine, againſt whom any ſuch exigent and proclamation hath béene, or ſhall be awarded, hath not had, nor héereafter can haue anie knowledge of the ſame ſute, or proceſſion, by reaſon wherof manie perſons inhabiting within the ſaid countie palantine, without knowledge haue béene outlawed, and heerafter be in like maner like to be outlawed, to their vtter vndoings, if ſome ſpéedie remedie be not the ſooner prouided.

Be it therefore, & for diuerſe other good conſiderations enacted, ordeined, & eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if, and whenſoeuer anie writ of exigent, at anie time after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, ſhalbe awarded at the ſute of the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, or at the ſute or ſutes of anie other perſon or perſons, plaintife or plaintifs in anie action or ſute in anie of the courts of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, commonlie called the kings bench, and the common place, againſt anie perſon or perſons dwelling within the ſaid countie Palantine, that then immediatlie vpon the awarding of euerie ſuch exigent, the iuſtice or iuſtices before whom anie ſuch writ of exigent vpon ſuch ſute or action ſhall be ſued, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to award one writ of proclamation according to the tenor and effect of writs of proclamation awarded vpon exigents, and commonlie directed out of anie of the ſaid courts into London, or into anie other ſhires of this realme, againſt anie perſon or perſons, dwelling in other ſhire or ſhires of this realme where the kings writ doth ren, according to the order and forme of the ſaid ſtatute made in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, to be directed to the ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine of Lancaſter, where it ſhall happen the ſaid defendant againſt whome anie ſuch action ſhall be ſued as is aforeſaid, to be dwelling, and not to the ſhiriffe of anie other ſhire next adioining to the ſaid countie Palantine, anie law, cuſtome, or vſage, héeretofore vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that euerie ſuch writ of proclamation ſo to be héereafter awarded to the ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine, ſhall haue the ſame Teſte and daie of returne, as the exigents where vpon euerie ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall be awarded, ſhall haue. And that euerie ſuch ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine of Lancaſter, to whome anie ſuch writ of writs of proclamation ſhall be directed ſhall make proclamations of the ſaid writ and writs of proclamation, according to the tenor of the ſame, and ſhall make true returnes of the ſame, in ſuch court and courts, and before ſuch iuſtices as the tenor of the ſame writ and writs of proclamations, ſhall require and demaund, and that all outlawries héereafter to be promulged or pronounced againſt anie perſon or perſons, vpon anie ſuch exigent or exigents awarded againſt anie perſon or perſons dwelling in the ſaid countie Palantine of Lancaſter, and no writ of proclamations awarded in forme aboueſaid, to the ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine of Lancaſter where the partie defendant ſhall be as is aforeſaid, dwelling or not returned, to be cléerelie void and of none effect nor force in the law.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine for the time being, ſhall haue in euerie of the ſaid courts of the kings bench, and of the common place, one ſufficient deputie at the leaſt, to receiue all ſuch writs of proclamations, which ſhall be héereafter directed to euerie ſuch ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine, for whom the ſame deputie or deputies ſhall be appointed in like maner and forme, and vpon like paine as by the former ſtatutes and lawes of this realme, other ſhiriffs of other ſhires, or counties within this realme of England, be bounden to haue in either of the ſame courts. And that all ſuch writs of proclamations aforeſaid, ſhall be deliuered vnto euerie ſuch deputie or deputies of record in the ſame courts, and either of them, and alſo like fées ſhall be paid for making euerie ſuch writs of proclamations, and for enrolling the ſame of record as is limited in the ſame ſtatute, made in the ſaid firſt yeere of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight.

Be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ſuch writ or writs of proclamations héereafter to be directed to anie ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine of Lancaſter, be deliuered vnto anie of the ſhirifs of the ſaid countie Palantine for the time being, or to his or their deputie or deputies, in maner and forme aforeſaid, and the ſame ſhiriffe or ſhiriffs, doo not make true returne of euerie ſuch writ and writs of proclamations into ſuch court and courts, out of which the ſaid writ or writs of proclamations ſhall be awarded, that for euerie ſuch default of non returne, euerie ſuch ſhiriffe for the time being, ſhall loſe and forfeit fiue pound, the one halfe whereof ſhall be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof, to anie ſuch perſon or perſons as will ſue for the ſame, in one action of debt to be grounded vpon this act in anie of the kings courts of record, wherein none eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

Prouided alwaies that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall to the ſame countie Palantine of Lancaſter, for, or concerning ſuch liberties, franchiſes, or priuileges as belong to the ſame, or to anie miniſters or officers of the ſame countie Palantine, otherwiſe or in anie other maner then by the true meaning of this act is before prouided and declared, anie thing in this act mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo and be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons dwelling within the ſaid countie Palantine after the aforeſaid firſt daie of Aprill, ſhall be outlawed in anie ſuch ſute or action as is aforeſaid, that then all writs of ſpeciall Capias vtlagatum, ſingule Capias vtlagatum non moleſtandum, and all other proceſſe, for, or againſt anie perſon or perſons ſo outlawed, ſhall and maie from henſeforth be directed from time to time to the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter, who ſhall make like writs & proceſſe thereupon, and of like effect, ſealed with the ſeale of the ſaid countie Palantine of Lancaſter, to be directed to the ſhiriffe of the ſaid countie Palantine for the time being, as héeretofore hath bin vſed and accuſtomed in ſuch caſes.

Anno ſeptimo Edwardi ſexti, at Weſtminſter the firſt of March, and holden till the diſſolution, the laſt daie of the ſame moneth.

An act for the true anſwering of the kings maieſties reuenues.

The firſt chapter.

FOraſmuch as the kings maieſties treaſurors and generall and particular receiuers, and bailifs of his honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, and tenements, reuerſions, poſſeſſions, and other his hereditaments in England, Wales, and Callis, and the marches of the ſame, or elſewhere within the kings dominions, haue not ſo iuſtlie, ſpéedilie, neither dulie made yéerelie paiments of ſuch ſumme and ſummes of monie, as hath béene by them and euerie of them receiued of the kings maieſties reuenues, poſſeſſions, and profits into the kings maieſties treaſorie, according to their duties, but yéerelie doo deteine and kéepe the ſame to their owne gaine, profit and lucre, contrarie to all right, truth, and equitie, and to the manifeſt iniurie, wrong and hinderance, of, and to the king our ſoueraigne lord: Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that euerie treaſuror and generall, and particular receiuer, collector and bailiffe, and other miniſter accountant which now is charged, or chargeable with, or for the receipt of anie of the kings maieſties monie, rents or reuenues whatſoeuer, not being bound with ſuretie or ſureties by obligation, recogniſance, or otherwiſe to our late ſoueraigne lord the king, or to our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, for, or concerning their office, or offices, before ẏ twentith daie of December next comming, or at anie time or times before the ſame twentith daie of December, if they, or anie of them be reaſonablie required, ſhall vpon paine of forfeiture of his office, be bound to the kings maieſtie by ſufficient writing obligatorie in reaſonable ſumme or ſummes of monie, the ſame writing obligatorie to be made with, or vpon condition, that the perſon which ſo ſhall be bounden, his heires, executors, adminiſtrators, deputie or deputies, or one of them, from time to time ſhall yéeld a perfit and true account of all ſummes of monie, and other things that the ſame treaſuror and generall, and particular receiuer, collector, bailiffe, or other miniſter accountant, ſhall, maie, or reaſonablie might be charged with, concerning, or by reaſon of his or their office, or offices, and alſo ſhall make paiments of the ſame ſummes of monie at ſuch daies & times, and in ſuch maner and forme as hereafter in this act is expreſſed and declared.

Chap.3.

Where in the ſeuen and twentith yeere of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, father to the kings maieſtie that now is, there was ordeined, made, ſtabliſhed, and enacted by authoritie of parlement, a certeine court, commonlie called the court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne. And where alſo in the two and thirtith yeere of the ſaid late king, there was made and erected by authoritie of parlement two ſeuerall courts, the one commonlie called the court of the firſt frutes, and tenths: and the other the court of the kings wards. And where alſo in the three and thirtith yeere of the ſaid late king, there was made, ſtabliſhed, and erected by authoritie of parlement, one court commonlie called the court of the generall ſurueiors of the kings lands. And where there is one one court, commonlie called, the court of the duchie of Lancaſter: after which ſaid ſeuerall courts ſo erected, as is aforeſaid, the ſaid late king did repeale, and diſſolue, extinguiſh, and determine, aſwell the ſaid court of augmentation of the reuenues of the kings crowne, as alſo the ſaid court of generall ſurueiors of the kings lands, and the officers of the ſaid late courts of the augmentations of the kings crowne, and generall ſurueiors of the kings lands, did ſurrender their patents, and offices into the ſaid late kings hands. And after the ſaid late king did, by his letters patents, erect one other court, called the court of augmentation, and reuenues of the kings crowne, and did, by the ſame his letters patents, conſtitute, and appoint diuerſe officers, and miniſters for the ſupplieng thereof, as by the ſame letters patents, more plainelie, and at large it maie, and doth appeare. And forasmuch as ſince the erection of the ſaid court of augmentation, and reuenues of the kings crowne ſtabliſhed, and erected by letters patents, as is aforeſaid, diuerſe ambiguities, and doubts haue riſen, and growen among ſuch as be learned in the lawes of the realme, whether the diſſoluing, extinguiſhing, and repealing of the ſaid late courts erected by authoritie of parlement, as is aforeſaid, might by the order of the law be diſſolued, extinguiſhed, and repealed by letters patents, conſidering that the commenſement of them were firſt had, and made by authoritie of parlement, yea, or no: wherevpon great inconueniences might inſue, aſwell to the kings maieſtie, as to diuerſe of his graces moſt louing and obedient ſubiects, who haue had by exchange, purchaſe, gift, or otherwiſe, diuerſe manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments: for remedie, and declaration whereof: be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords, and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid letters patents ſo made by the ſaid late king, and all, and euerie thing, and article therein conteined, ſhall be as good, auailable, and effectuall in the law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame had béene made, and doone by authoritie of parlement.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings maieſtie ſhall, or maie at anie time during his naturall life (which God long preſerue) by his graces letters patents, vnder his great ſeale of England, at his moſt gratious will and pleaſure, alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue, or determine, all, or anie of the ſaid court, or courts, and to reduce the ſame courts, or anie of them, into one, two, or more court, or courts, or to vnite, and annex the ſaid courts, or anie two, or more of them togither, or to anie other of his maieſties courts of record: or to erect anie other new court or courts, as to his highneſſe ſhall be thought moſt conuenient, and beſt, for the better, ſurer, and more ſpéedie anſwering of his peerelie reuenues, caſualties, or profits now anſwerable in the ſaid courts, or anie of them. And that all and ſingular ſuch alterations, changings, vnitings, annexings, tranſpoſings, diſſoluings, or determinations of the ſaid courts, or of anie of them ſo to be altered, changed, vnited, annexed, tranſpoſed, diſſolued, or determined, or otherwiſe newlie to be erected, as is aforeſaid, and concerning an order for the true paiment of the reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, and profits of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, as ſhall be ſet forth, and declared in anie ſuch letters patents, or writings, vnder his great ſeale of England, héereafter to be made, ſet forth, and declared, ſhall be of ſuch like, and of the ſame force, and ſtrength to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame were, or ſhould haue béene ſet forth, or declared by authoritie of parlement, the ſaid ſeuerall erections, or anie other thing héeretofore had, or made to the contrarie thereof, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that anie thing conteined in the ſaid letters patents made by the ſaid late king, or in the letters patents héereafter to be made by the kings highneſſe that now is, concerning anie paines, penalties, rules, or orders made or to be made, for the lenieng of the kings reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, or profits, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to charge anie of the kings ſubiects in anie other maner, or forme, than they, or anie of them ought lawfullie to haue béene charged by the lawes of the realme, before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, or by anie ſtatute made, or to be made in this preſent ſeſſion of parlement.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid letters patents, made in the time of the ſaid late king, or anie other letters patents héereafter to be made by the kings highneſſe that now is, or anie thing, or matter conteined in this act, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to giue anie power, or authoritie to the chancellor, and generall ſurueiors of the ſaid court of the augmentation, and reuenues of the kings crowne, or to anie officer or officers of the ſame court, or to anie other court or courts héereafter to be erected by the kings maieſtie, as is aforeſaid, or to anie other officer or officers to be appointed in anie of the ſame courts héereafter to be erected by the kings highneſſe, as is aforeſaid, to heare or determine anie plée, matter, or cauſe betwéene anie of the kings ſubiects, but onelie in ſuch caſe, where the kings highneſſe is onelie a méere, and a ſole partie: ſauing to all and euerie perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporat, and to euerie of them ſuch offices of ſtewardſhips, offices of maiſterſhips of anie game or games, kéepers of forreſts, chaſes, parks, houſes, and caſtles, and the profits therevnto belonging, and all rents, annuities, and fées, as they, or anie of them haue, or ought to haue, if this act had neuer béene had, ne made.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act nor anie thing therin conteined ſhall in anie wiſe extend or be conſtrued to take awaie, extinct, or determine from anie perſon or perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſigns, or from anie of them, anie fées, annuities, penſions, ſtipends, or annuall paiments of anie ſums of monie which they or anie of them haue, or of right might, or ought lawfullie to haue by anie letters patents or other ſufficient writing made before the ſix & twentith daie of March, in the ſeuenth yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, but that all and euerie perſon and perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors, and aſſignes, and euerie of them, which haue or héereafter ſhall haue anie fée, annuitie, ſtipend, penſion, or annuall paiment of anie ſum or ſums of monie paiable yéerlie in anie of the ſaid courts, or by the hands of anie officer, or officer of anie of the ſame courts, ſhall, and maie perceiue, take, and receiue the ſame, and ſhall yéerlie therof be paid of the kings treaſure at the daies and times compriſed in ſuch letters patents, or other writings of anie in the ſaid courts where now the ſame is, or ought to be paiable as long as the ſaid court ſhall remaine and haue anie being: and after in ſuch court or courts as ſhall pleaſe the king newlie to erect by the hands of the officers of the ſame court, and for default thereof in anie of the kings courts, wherein ſufficient reuenue ſhall be to anſwer the ſame of the kings treaſure there, by the hands of the officers of the ſame court, in ſuch like maner and forme as the ſame perſon and perſons, their heires, executors and aſſignes, or anie of them ſhould and might haue doone, or be paid in anie other place or court, if this act had neuer béen had or made, anie thing in this act conteined, or anie other thing héereafter to be doone, by reaſon, colour, or authoritie of this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the confirmation of the kings maieſties letters patents of bargains and ſales, notwithſtanding the lacke, or loſſe of the particulars, or the bill aſſigned of the patentee.

Chap.3.

Whereas in the ſeſſion of the parlement holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter, the two & twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the foure & thirtith yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, and there continued & kept vntill the twelfth daie of Maie in the fiue and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king amongſt diuers and ſundrie, and manie ſtatutes, there was then one ſtatute made for the confirmation of letters patents, notwithſtanding any miſnaming, miſpriſion, or miſrehearſall, or anie other default conteined, or rehearſed in the ſame act: wherin it was prouided and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that all and ſingular ſuch patentées, grantées, and donées, as at anie time from the making of the ſame ſtatute during ſeuen yéeres then next following, ſhould fortune to haue, or obteine anie caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments of the gift, grant, ſale, or exchange of the kings maieſtie, or of the onlie gift of the kings maieſtie, of his moſt liberall diſpoſition, and not ſold, which at the daie of the date of the letters patents thereof made, ſhould be of more and better yéerelie value to the king in yéerelie rent and farme, then ſhould be conteined, mentioned, or ſpecified in anie ſuch letters patents, and particulars thereof made by the auditor or auditors, and in ſuch bill or bils as ſhould be ſigned and ſealed with the hand or hands of the patentée or patentées thereof to be exhibited to the kings maieſtie, or his officer or officers, within whoſe ſuruei e the ſaid manors, lands, and tenements, and other the premiſſes, or anie part thereof ſhould be, or within anie of them, which bill ſhould be ſigned, ſealed, had and made, as is aforeſaid, before anie bils ſhould be thereof ſigned by the kings maieſtie, that then euerie of the ſaid patentées, grantées, and donées, their heires, executors, and adminiſtrators, within one yéere next after due proofe, and decrée thereof had and made in the court within whoſe ſuruei e the ſame caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or anie parcell thereof then ſhould be, ſhould content and paie vnto the king for the ſame ouerplus, and more value for the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments to him ſold or exchanged after ſuch rate as the other lands and tenements were before to him ſold or exchanged, and for the ouerplus and more value of ſuch lands and tenements as ſhould happen to be giuen by the kings maieſtie and not ſold as is aboueſaid: the ſaid patentée, his heires, executors or adminiſtrators ſhould content and paie to the king after the rate of twentie yéeres purchaſe, ſo that the ſame proofe and decrée were had and made in forme aboueſaid, within ten yéeres next after the date of the ſaid letters patents, as by the ſtatute more at large it dooth and maie appéere.

And alſo whereas in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the fourth daie of Nouember, in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord the king that now is, king Edward the ſixt, and from thenſe continued to the foure & twentith daie of December then next inſuing: That is to ſaie, the firſt ſeſſion of the ſame parlement, amongſt diuers and ſundrie ſtatutes, there was then alſo one other ſtatute made for the confirmation of letters patents, notwithſtanding anie miſnaming, miſrehearſall, or anie other default conteined, or rehearſed in the ſame act: wherein it was alſo prouided and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that all and ſingular ſuch patentées, grantées and donées, as at anie time after the ſaid parlement, and during the life of our ſaid ſouereigne lord king Edward the ſixt, ſhould fortune to haue or obteine anie caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions or other hereditaments, of the gift, grant, ſale, or exchange of the kings maieſtie, or of the onelie gift of the kings maieſtie of his moſt liberall diſpoſition, and not ſold, which at the date of the letters patents thereof made, ſhould be of more or better yéerelie value to the king in yéerelie rent and farme, then ſhould be conteined, mentioned and ſpecified in anie ſuch letters patents, and particulars thereof made by the particular ſurueior or ſurueiors thereof, and in ſuch bill or bils as ſhould be ſigned and ſealed with the hand or hands of the patentée or patentées, thereof to be exhibited to the kings maieſtie, or his officer or officers, within whoſe ſuruei e the ſaid manors, lands and tenements, and other the premiſſes, or anie part thereof ſhould be, or within anie of them, which bill ſhould be ſigned, ſealed, had and made as is aforeſaid, before anie bill ſhould be thereof ſigned by the kings maieſtie, that then euerie of the ſaid patentées, grantées, and donees, their heires, executors, or adminiſtrators, within one yeere next after due proofe, and decrées thereof made and had in the court, within whoſe ſuruei e the ſame caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or anie parcell thereof before the ſaid gifts and grants were, ſhould content and paie to the king for the ſame ouerplus, and more value of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments, to him ſold and exchanged, after ſuch rate as other lands and tenements were before to him ſold or exchanged, and for the ouerplus and more value of ſuch lands and tenements as ſhould happen to be giuen by the kings maieſtie, and not ſold as is abouesaid, the ſaid patentée, his heires, executors, or adminiſtrators ſhould content and paie to the king after the rate of twentie yeeres purchaſe, ſo that the ſame proofe and decrée were had and made in maner and forme aforeſaid, within ten yeeres next after the date of the ſame letters patents, as by the ſame ſtatute more at large it doth, and maie appeere: ſithens the making of which ſtatutes, diuers of the ſaid patentées, grantées, and donées, according to the true meaning and intent of the ſaid ſtatutes, and prouiſions of the ſame, haue by their bils ſeuerall ſigned and ſealed with the hands and ſeales of the ſaid patentées exhibited to the kings maieſtie, or to his officer mentioned in the ſaid ſeuerall acts and prouiſions, before the ſame bill were ſigned by the ſaid late king, or by the kings highneſſe that now is, which bils ſigned by the ſaid patentées, ſometime by the negligence of the ſame officers or their clerks, ſometime by the death of the ſame officers, and ſometime by the alteration and change of the ſaid officers, manie of the ſaid bils ſo ſigned and ſealed, be now by negligence embezelled and loſt, and manie times there haue béene no ſuch bils made, but omitted and forgotten. By reaſon whereof, diuers queſtions, ambiguities and doubts maie ariſe, as well for the kings ſuretie and ſatiſfaction, as for the patentées, their heires and aſſignes.

For the auoiding of all which ambiguities, queſtions and doubts: be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that as well all and ſingular letters patents made by the ſaid late king, as by the kings maieſtie that now is, ſithens the making of the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes and acts, or that héereafter ſhall be made by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, during his life (whoſe life God long preſerue) ſhall be good and effectuall to all and euerie patentée, their heires and aſſignes, the lacke or want of anie ſuch bill or bils, or whether the particular or particulars were had or made, or héereafter to be had or made by anie of the kings auditor or auditors, ſurueior or ſurueiors, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that the ſame patentées, grantées, and donées, their heires and aſſignes, and euerie of them ſhall from henſeforth haue, and take, all and ſingular ſuch profits, benefits, commodities and aduantages, mentioned in the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes, as though the ſaid bils had béene ſigned and ſealed, and were readie to be ſhewed, according to the true intent of of the ſaid ſtatutes, or anie of them.

And to the intent the king ſhall be trulie anſwered of the ouerplus of the yéerelie value of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments conteined or to be conteined in anie ſuch letters patents as is aforeſaid, according to the true meaning of the ſaid act or acts, and the prouiſions of the ſame: be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular ſuch patentées, grantées and donées, as at anie time from the making of the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes haue obteined or gotten, or héereafter ſhall obteine or get anie caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments of the gift, grant, ſale, or exchange of the ſaid late king, or of the king that now is, or of the onelie gift of the ſaid kings, or of anie of them, of his or their moſt liberall diſpoſition, or of anie of them, and not ſold, which at the date of the letters patents thereof made or héereafter to be made, ſhall be of more or better yéerelie value to the ſaid late king, or to the king that now is in yéerelie rent and farme, then is, or ſhall be conteined, mentioned, or ſpecified in anie ſuch letters patents or particulars thereof made by the ſaid auditor or auditors, ſurueior or ſurueiors, or other officers, that then euerie of the ſaid patentées, grantées, and donées, their executors and aſſignes, within one yéere next after due proofe and decrée thereof made and had in the court, within whoſe ſuruei e the ſame caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or anie parcell thereof then were or ſhall be, ſhall content and paie vnto the king for the ſame ouerplus and more value for the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments to him or them ſold or exchanged, or héereafter to be ſold or exchanged, after ſuch rate as the other lands and tenements were before to him ſold or exchanged, or that héereafter ſhall be ſo ſold, or exchanged, and for the ouerplus, and more value of ſuch lands and tenements as hath béene giuen by the ſaid late king, or the kings maieſtie that now is, or that héereafter ſhall be giuen by the king that now is, and not ſold, as is aboueſaid, the ſaid patentée and patentées, and his and their heirs, executors and aſſignes, ſhall content, and paie to the king after the rate of twentie yéeres purchaſe, ſo that the ſame proofe, and decrée be, or ſhall be made, in forme aforeſaid, within ſixtéene yéers next after the date of ſuch, and the ſame letters patents made, or to be made, in forme aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie prouiſion therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to confirme, ratifie, or make good anie leaſe or leaſes, made, or héereafter to be made for terme of life, liues, or yéeres, wherevpon the old and accuſtomed rents, or more be not, or héereafter ſhall not be reſerued, and yéerelie paiable during the time and terme of the ſaid leaſe, and leaſes, nor to anie leaſe or leaſes, made in reuerſion of anie part or parcell of anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, parcell of the duchie of Lancaſter, or within the ſurueie of the ſame duchie.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to confirme, ratifie, or make good anie letters patents héeretofore made, or héereafter to be made of eſtate of inheritance, by anie king or kings of this realme, but to ſuch letters patents as were made by the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, ſince the ſaid fourth daie of Februarie, in the ſaid ſeuen and twentith yéere of his reigne, or hath béene, or héereafter ſhall be made by the kings maieſtie that now is during his life (which God long preſerue) anie thing or matter conteined in this act, or in anie of the prouiſions before rehearſed to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And where alſo the late king of famous memorie Henrie the eight, and alſo our ſouereigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is, aſwell by diuerſe bargaines, and ſales, for diuerſe great ſummes of monie, as by gifts, exchanges, or otherwiſe haue giuen, and granted by their ſeuerall letters patents, vnder the great ſeale of England, or vnder the great ſeale of the duchie of Lancaſter, diuerſe manours, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, with the appurtenances to diuerſe, and ſundrie their louing ſubiects, of anie eſtate of inheritance to hold in ſocage onelie, and not in Capite, for all maner of ſeruices, and without reſeruation of anie tenths, or rents in the ſame letters patents, as by the ſame ſeuerall letters patents maie appeare. And foraſmuch as by certeine ſtatutes héeretofore made, doubts, and ambiguities maie ariſe vpon ſuch letters patents for lacke of tenures in Capite, or reſeruations of tenths or rents, which might be héereafter to the vnquietneſſe of ſuch patentées, their heires, aſſignes, or ſucceſſors, contrarie to the intents, and minds, of the ſaid late king, and of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is.

For the auoiding of all doubts, and ambiguities, and for the quietneſſe of the kings louing ſubiects: be it alſo enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all letters patents ſealed, or héereafter to be ſealed with the great ſeale of England, or with the great ſeale of the duchie of Lancaſter, ſhall be good, perfect, and auailable in law to all intents and purpoſes, according to the ſaid letters patents, the nonage of our ſouereigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is, as duke of Lancaſter, albeit alwaies as king he is of full age, or anie act, ſtatute, or lawes, for or concerning anie tenures, or reſeruations of rents, or tenths, to the contrarie notwithſtanding: ſauing to all and euerie perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, their heirs, ſucceſſors, executors, and aſſignes, and to euerie of them, other than the kings maieſtie, his heires, and ſucceſſors, as kings of this realme, or as dukes of Lancaſter, all & euerie ſuch rights, titles, leaſes, conditions, rents, and intereſts whatſoeuer, as they, or anie of them ſhould, ought, or might haue had, if this act had neuer béene had or made: this act, or any thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act that all patentees of collectorſhips of tenths, ſhall be bound for their collections.

Chap.4. WHere the archbiſhops, and biſhops of this realme of England are bound to the kings maieſtie for the collecting, and true paiment of the diſmes, or tenths due to his highneſſe for all and ſingular benefices, and other eccleſiaſticall promotions whatſoeuer being within their ſeuerall dioceſſe: for the collection whereof, diuerſe of the predeceſſors of the ſaid archbiſhops, and biſhops haue by their letters patents confirmed with chapter ſeale giuen, and granted to ſundrie perſons without prouiſion of ſufficient bonds for the true collection, and paiment of the ſaid diſmes or tenths, to our ſouereigne lord, or otherwiſe, to diſcharge the grantors of the ſaid patents, and their ſucceſſors, wherby the kings maieſtie hath béene greatlie defrauded of his ſaid duties, and manie of the ſaid biſhops ſore troubled, to their great hinderance, and vtter vndoing.

Be it therefore enacted by our ſouereigne lord the king, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all collectors of the ſaid tenths vnder anie archbiſhop, or biſhop within this realme of England, or other the kings dominions, hauing letters patents, or other writings of their ſaid offices of collectorſhip of the ſaid tenths, ſhall before the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, be bound by their ſufficient writing obligatorie, or recogniſance, ſance,in the court of the firſt fruits,and tenth, or in anie other court, where the kings reuenues of the tenth ſhall be anſwerable, in ſuch ſumme or ſummes of monie, as ſhall be due and growing yéerelie to our ſouereigne lord the king, within their ſaid collection, or office, to ſaue and keepe the ſaid archbiſhops, or biſhops, and euerie of them harmleſſe, and without hurt,or damage, againſt the kings maieſtie, his heires, and ſucceſſors, of and for all maner of accounts, and paiments of monie, which they, or anie of them ſhall haue or maie conuenientlie receiue, during the terme of their ſeuerall collections, and that maie be lawfullie demanded,or required of the ſaid archbiſhops, or biſhops, or anie of them, for or concerning the ſaid tenths, by reaſon of the ſtatute of the firſt frutes and tenth, or elſe their ſaid letters patents, and other writings to be vtterlie void, and of none effect. And for that the parſons, vicars, and curats within this realme, for the moſt part, be not able to paie their tenths, before that they ſhall haue receiued the profits of their benefices, which yéerelie groweth, and reneweth to them at the feaſt of Eaſter, which feaſt in manie yéeres falleth after the firſt daie of Aprill, which ſaid firſt daie of Aprill is now the daie that is ſtalled, and appointed to the ſaid archbiſhops, and biſhops, to make paiment to the kings maieſtie of the ſaid tenths: Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid archbiſhops, and biſhops, and euerie of them, ſhall from henſeforth make yéerelie paiment of the ſaid tenths,vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord,his heires, and ſucceſſors, in the court of the firſt frutes,and tenth, or elſe where it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to appoint the paiment of the ſame, before, or at the laſt daie of Maie, and not otherwiſe. And that the certificat of recuſants made by anie of the ſaid archbiſhops, or biſhops, or anie of them, before, or at the ſaid laſt daie of Maie yéerelie, ſhall be as good, and effectuall in the law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though it had béene made at the daies, and times héeretofore limited, and appointed by the ſtatute made in the ſix and twentith yéere of the reigne of his moſt noble father of famous memorie king Henrie the eight for paiments of tenths, and firſt fruits, anie law or ſtatute héeretofore had or made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie promotion ſpirituall be now, or ſhall chance héereafter to be or remaine in ſuch ſort void,that no incumbent is, or can be conuenientlie prouided for the ſame: that then the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops,and euerie of them ſhall, and maie certifie yéerelie before the laſt daie of Maie the ſame vacations ſpeciallie, and according to the truth of the matter, into the ſaid court of the firſt frutes, and tenth, or in anie other court, where the kings reuenues of tenths ſhall be anſwerable, vpon which certificat,the ſaid archbiſhops, and biſhops, and euerie of them, ſhall be diſcharged towards, and againſt the kings maieſtie, his heires, and ſucceſſors, in like ſort as they now be, vpon their certificat of the recuſants: and that then, and from thenſeforth, it ſhall be lawfull to the kings maieſtie,his heirs, and ſucceſſors, to leuie, and take all the glebe lands, tithes, iſſues, or profits of the ſaid benefice, or ſpirituall promotion ſo eſpeciallie certified, as is aforeſaid, vntill his grace, his heires, and ſucceſſors maie be fullie anſwered, ſatiſfied, and paied of the whole arrerages of the ſaid tenths then due to his maieſtie, and the ſaid archbiſhops, and biſhops, and euerie of them to be from the time of the ſaid eſpeciall certificat, cléerelie exonerated, and diſcharged againſt the king, his heires, and ſucceſſors of the ſame arrerages, anie law, or ſtatute héeretofore had, or made, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all, and euerie grant,patent, or writing whatſoeuer, that ſhall héereafter be made to anie perſon or perſons, by anie archbiſhop or biſhop, by themſelues, or elſe by anie archbiſhop, or biſhop confirmed by chapter ſeale, within this realme of England, or elſewhere within the kings dominions, of the office of collectorſhip of the tenths, growing and ariſing yéerelie to be due vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, within the dioceſſe, and biſhoprike of anie ſuch granter, by the reaſon of the ſtatute of the firſt frutes and tenths,ſhall ſtand, abide, and indure in his, or their force, ſtrength, and effect no more, nor longer time, than the ſaid granter ſhall be, and remaine archbiſhop, or biſhop of the ſame ſée and biſhoprike, whereof he was poſſeſſed at the time of his ſaid grant, anie confirmation of the ſaid grant, or anie cuſtome, vſage, law,or ſtatute at anie time héeretofore had, vſed, or made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act to auoid the great priſes and exceſſe of wines.

Chap. 5.

FOr the auoiding of manie inconueniences, much euill rule, and common reſort of miſruled perſons vſed, & frequented in manie tauerns of late newlie ſet vp in verie great number, in backe lanes, corners, and ſuſpitious places within the citie of London, and in diuerſe other townes, and villages within this realme: be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer,inhabiting within any of the kings maieſties dominions of England and Wales,ſhall after the feaſt of S. Michael the archangell next comming, vtter by retaile,by ſmall meaſure: that is to ſaie by gallon, or anie other meaſure of greater, or leſſe quantitie,anie wines called Gaſcoigne, Guion,or French wines, but after the rate of eight penſe the gallon at the moſt, by anie maner of meanes,colour, engine, or craft: nor anie Rochell wines at greater priſes, or valuation then after the rate of foure penſe the gallon at the moſt, nor anie other wine, or wines, at greater priſe, or valuation, then after the rate of twelue pence the gallon at the moſt, vpon paine that euerie perſon doing the contrarie,ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe fiue pounds of lawfull monie of England.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall not be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons, within anie the dominions aforeſaid, except he, or they ſhall, and maie diſpend in lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other yéerelie profits certeine, the ſumme of one hundred markes of lawfull monie of England, or elſe be worth of his owne proper goods and chattels, one thouſand markes, or ſhall be the ſonne of a duke, marques, earle, vicount, or baron of this realme, to haue, or kéepe after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, in his houſe, or cuſtodie, anie péece, or veſſell of anie of the ſaid wines of Gaſcoigne, Guion, French, or Rochell wines, conteining aboue the quantitie of ten gallons, to the intent to ſpend, or drinke the ſame in his, or their houſe, or houſes, by anie colour, or meanes, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe ten pounds of lawfull monie of England.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon, or perſons whatſoeuer, from, and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, ſhall ſell, or vtter by retaile anie kind of wine, or wines to be drunke, or ſpent in his, or their manſion houſe, or houſes, or other place in his, or their tenure, or occupation by anie colour, craft, ingine, or meane, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe ten pounds of lawfull monie of England, the one halfe of all which forfeitures ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint,or information in anie of the kings courts of record,in which action, or ſute, no eſſoine wager of law, or protection ſhall be allowed.

Prouided alwaies that it ſhall be lawfull for all,and euerie merchant,and merchants aduenturing for the ſame,at his, or their owne coſts and charges, to haue, and keepe to ſpend in his, or their houſe or houſes,ſuch wine or wines,as he ſhall tranſport,or cauſe to be tranſported into this realme,or anie part thereof,not taking anie monie,or other recompenſe for the ſame that ſhall be ſo ſpent in his,or their houſes, and that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie high ſhiriffe of euerie countie, maior,bailiffe,and ſhiriffe of euerie citie,and towne corporat,within this realme of England,and other the ſaid dominions for the time being,during his,or their office of charge,and to euerie other perſon inhabiting,or dwelling in anie of the kings maieſties forts, or townes fortified, and kept for the wars,during his, or their dwellings in anie ſuch fort, or towne of warre, to haue wine in their houſes by the veſſell,to ſpend the ſame in his, or their houſes without taking anie monie, or other recompenſe for the ſame ſo ſpent in his, or their houſe or other place, in their tenure or occupation, this act, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie,in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the iuſtices of peace of euerie ſhire, or countie, citie, and towne corporat in their ſeuerall ſeſſions, and the ſteward in euerie lete,and the ſhiriffe in his turne,and euerie exchetor ſhall haue full power, & authoritie by this preſent act to inquire by the othes of twelue lawfull men of all,and euerie offenſe, and offenſes perpetrated, or doone contrarie to the forme of this act. And that euerie inquirie, and preſentment taken, and had by the othes of twelue lawfull men, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be of ſuch force, and effect, as if the ſame were taken,or had before the king in his maieſties bench. And that euerie of the paines, penalties,and forfeitures aforeſaid,to be due by force of this act,for anie offenſe to be committed or doone by anie perſon or perſons,contrarie to the forme of this preſent act,as ſhall be found by preſentment before the ſaid iuſtices of peace,exchetors,ſhiriffe, or ſteward by verdict of twelue men, as is aforeſaid,and no bill,plaint,action,or information thereof commenſed in anie of the kings courts of record,ſhall be diuided equallie in two parts,whereof the one ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other to be to the poore people of the towne,or place, where ſuch preſentment ſhall be found.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to charge anie perſon, or perſons with anie penaltie or forfeiture, for, and concerning anie offenſe to be doone contrarie to the tenor of this act, vnleſſe he,or they ſo offending be ſued, indicted, or preſented for the ſame within one yéere next after the ſame offenſe be doone,and committed,as is aforeſaid,any thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie,that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie of the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge,or to the chancellor,or ſcholers of the ſame,or their ſucceſſors,or anie of them to impaire, or take awaie anie of the liberties, priuileges,franchiſes,iuriſdictions,powers,or authorities to them,or anie of them apperteining,or belonging,but that they,and euerie of them,& their ſucceſſors,maie haue,hold,vſe,& inioy all their liberties,priuileges,franchiſes,iuriſdictions,powers,and authorities, in ſuch large & ample wiſe, as though this act had neuer béene had,ne made, ſo alwaies that there be not anie more, or greater number of tauernes kept, or mainteined, within anie of the ſaid townes of Oxford,or Cambridge, then maie be lawfullie kept and mainteined by the prouiſion, true meaning, and intent of this ſtatute,anie thing in this prouiſo mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act reuiuing a ſtatute made in the ſeuenteenth yeere of king Edward the fourth, touching the carieng of gold and ſiluer out of the realme.

Chap.6.

WHere in the parlement begun,and holden at Weſtminſter the ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie, in the ſeuentéenth yéere of king Edward the fourth,amongſt other it was ordeined by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that no perſon ſhould carie, or make to be caried out of this realme, or Wales from no part of the ſame, anie maner of monie of the coine of this realme, nor monie of the coine of other realmes, lands, or lordſhips, nor plate, veſſell, bullion, or iewell of gold garniſhed,or vngarniſhed,or of ſiluer,without the kings licence,but ſuch perſons as be diſpenſed within the ſtatute made in the ſecond yéere of king Henrie the ſixt, and other diuerſe ſtatutes made vpon paine of fellonie, as in the ſaid ſtatute, & ordinance more plainelie doth appéere,the which ſtatute & ordinance was made to indure from the feaſt of Eaſter,in the eightéenth yéere of the ſaid king Edward the fourth,vnto the end of ſeuen yéeres then next inſuing,which ſtatute & ordinance before rehearſed,by authoritie of the parlement holden in the fourth yéere of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth,was affirmed & enacted to be good,& effectuall from the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie,in the yéere of our Lord God 1489,and to indure to the end of twentie yéeres then next inſuing, as by the ſame ſtatute alſo more plainelie appéereth: ſithence the which twentie yéeres ſo expired, the gold, and ſiluer of the coine of this realme, hath, and dailie is, and be caried, and conueied into Flanders, France, Normandie, Brittaine, Ireland, and other parties beyond the ſea, aſwell by merchant ſtrangers, as by denizens, to the great impoueriſhing of this realme,and greater is like to be, vnleſſe remedie therefore ſpéedilie be prouided, be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this parlement, that the ſaid ſtatute, and ordinance before rehearſed, made in the ſaid ſeuentéenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, and euerie article, clauſe, ſentence, or prouiſion therein conteined, ſhall be affirmed, and enacted to be good, and effectuall from the firſt daie of Maie next comming, and to indure to the end of twentie yéeres then next inſuing.

Prouided alwaies, that if anie of the lords of the parlement, or anie of the péeres of this realme for the time being, ſhall fortune to be indicted of anie of the offenſes limited in the ſaid act, made in the ſaid ſeuentéenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, that then they, and euerie of them, ſhall haue his or their triall by their péeres, as hath béene vſed héeretofore in caſes of high treaſon.

An act for the aſſiſe of fuell.

Chap. 7.

WHere the aſſiſe and meaſure of tallwood, billet, fagot, coles, and other fuell, appointed, and aſſiſed by an act of parlement made at Weſtminſter, the two and twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the foure and thirtith yéere of the reigne of our late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, is the ſame aſſiſe that was kept in the time of king Edward the fourth, which aſſiſe hath not béene kept, ne could conuenientlie be kept theſe ſixtie yéeres, nor at theſe daies can be kept by reaſon of the great ſcarcitie of woods that is happened ſince the time of the ſaid king Edward the fourth. And alſo by reaſon of the greatneſſe of the ſaid aſſiſe, the ſame fuell, nor coles, cannot be caried at theſe daies without alteration of the carts, wherein ſuch fuell and coles are now caried, by reaſon whereof, and for that in the ſaid ſtatute, the penaltie which is the forfeiture of the ſaid fuell, or coles, lacking the ſaid aſſiſe conteined in the ſaid act, dependeth vpon the buier thereof, and not vpon the ſeller, ne maker, marker, or feller of the ſame. By reaſon whereof diuerſe cities and countries are like preſentlie to lacke fuell, and coles, vnleſſe ſpéedie remedie be ſhortlie had in this behalfe. For redreſſe whereof: be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons, ſhall ſuſteine anie loſſe, paine, or penaltie, for buieng or ſelling of anie tallwood, billet, or fagot, now cut and made, although the ſame be not of the aſſiſe conteined in the ſaid act, anie thing conteined in the ſame act notwithſtanding. And that all tallwood, billet, fagot, and coles, to be made and put to ſale in the cities of London, or Weſtminſter, or in the ſuburbs of the ſame, after the laſt daie of September next comming, ſhall kéepe the aſſiſes héereafter expreſſed, that is to wit, that euerie ſacke of coles, conteine foure buſhels of good or cleane coles. And that euerie tall ſhide, conteine in length foure foot beſides the carfe. And euerie tall ſhide named of one, to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt ſixtéene inches about. And euerie tall ſhide named of two, to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt thrée and twentie inches about. And euerie tall ſhide named of thrée, to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt, eight and twentie inches about. And euerie tall ſhide named of foure, to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt, thrée and thirtie inches about. And euerie tall ſhide named of fiue to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt, eight and thirtie inches about. And euerie billet to conteine in length thrée foot and foure inches. And euerie billet named a ſingle, to conteine ſeuen inches & a halfe about. And euerie billet named to be a caſt, to conteine ten inches about. And euerie billet named of two caſt, to conteine fouretéene inches about. And euerie fagotbed to conteine in length thrée foot. And the band of euerie ſuch fagot, to be of foure & twentie inches about, beſides the knot, which aſſiſes are little leſſe then the aſſiſes conteined in the ſaid former act, and alſo are much greater then anie aſſiſe that now is, or of long time hath béene commonlie kept.

And be it further enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull from henſeforth, for euerie owner, without danger of anie forfeiture, to make billets of two caſts. And that all billets of two caſts, from henſeforth to be made and put to ſale, ſhall be of the aſſiſe héerein compriſed, or more, & ſhall be marked onelie within ſix inches of the middeſt thereof. And that euerie billet of one caſt, from henſeforth to be made and put to ſale, ſhall be onlie marked within foure inches of the end thereof, vpon paine that euerie marker, & euerie ſeller, that ſhall make anie ſuch fuell or coles, and put the ſame to ſale, to forfeit for euerie ſhide of tallwood, billet, fagot, or ſacke of coles, from henſeforth put to ſale, lacking of the aſſiſe aforeſaid, thrée ſhillings foure penſe. And that this preſent ſtatute onelie, & no other ſtatute of aſſiſe of fuell, or coles, ſhall from henſeforth ſtand in force, ne take place. And foraſmuch as by the gréedie appetite. and couetouſneſſe of diuerſe perſons, fuell, coles, and wood runneth manie times through foure or fiue ſeuerall hands, or mo, before it commeth to the hands of them, that for their neceſſitie doo burne or retaile the ſame.

Be it further enacted, that from the firſt daie of Maie next comming, no perſon or perſons, ſhall buie anie ſuch wood, coles, or fuell, but onelie ſuch as will burne, or conſume the ſame, or ſuch perſons, as ſhall ſell the ſame againe by retaile, to ſuch as ſhall burne or conſume the ſame for their owne occupieng, without fraud or couin, or wharfingers, or bargemen, vpon paine to forfeit the treble value of all ſuch wood, coles, and fuell, as ſhall be otherwiſe bought for anie lucre or gaine. And that no perſon or perſons, ſhall alter anie marke or aſſiſe, of anie the ſaid fuell, marked, or ſiſed, according to this ſtatute, in paine of like forfeiture, as is aforeſaid: the one halfe of all which forfeiture héerein conteined, ſhall be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in anie of the kings courts of record, wherein no eſſoine, protection, nor wager of law, to be allowed, or admitted for the defendants.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhall yéeld, ne forfeit anie penaltie heerein conteined,vnleſſe action or ſute be commenced for the ſame within one whole yéere next after the offenſe thereof committed or done. And that if anie cutter,or maker,as aforeſaid,or other that ſhall forfeit anie ſum heerein conteined,ſhall not be able to yeeld ſuch forfeiture or ſum, as is aforeſaid, that then ſuch perſon thereof conuicted by witneſſes, or otherwiſe, to be ſet on a pillorie in the next market towne to the place where he ſhall ſo offend,by a iuſtice of the peace, or anie other of the kings officers,at eleauen of the clocke vpon the market daie, with a billet or fagot bounden to ſome part of his bodie, and ſo to be diſcharged of the ſaid forfeiture.

Prouided alſo,and be it enacted,that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons, to buie, ſell,make,and cut billets for the onlie ſeruing of the towne of Calis,and the marches of the ſame, ſo that they conteine in length thirtie inches at the leaſt, as hath béene there moſt accuſtomed fortie yeeres laſt paſt,without forfeiture of anie penaltie heerein conteined,anie thing héerein conteined to the contrarie,in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the true fulling and thicking of caps.

Chap.8. Whereas in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the two & twentith yéere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, great graundfather to the king our ſoueraigne lord that now is,it was eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that no maner of perſon or perſons,after the feaſt of Eaſter then next following,ſhould full, or thicke, or cauſe to be fulled, or thicked, anie bonets, or caps, double or ſingle, in anie fulling mill, or by the meane of anie fulling mill,vpon paine to forfeit and loſe 40 s. for euerie cap ſo thicked,contrarie to the ſame act. And alſo that no perſon, hatmaker, capper,or other whatſoeuer he were, after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter,ſhould ſet,or cauſe to be ſet anie bonets or caps,double or ſingle, to be fulled or thicked,to anie ſuch mill,or by the meane of anie ſuch mill,or ſet to ſale anie ſuch hats,bonets,or caps,double or ſingle, which after the ſaid feaſt ſhould be ſo made, fulled, or thicked , vpon paine to forfeit and loſe the bonets and caps ſo ſet,as afore is ſaid,to anie ſuch mill,to be fulled,or thicked,or otherwiſe put to ſale contrarie to the ſaid act : and alſo to forfeit and loſe fortie ſhillings,as often as anie ſuch perſon ſhall ſet to fulling or thicking,or to ſale,anie ſuch hats, bonets, or caps ſo thicked, or put to ſale,contrarie to the ſame act : the one halfe of the ſaid forfeitures and penalties, and euerie of them to the ſaid late king,and the other halfe to him or them of the kings ſubiects,which ſhould ſeize the ſame,or ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record,by information,or elſe in anie other court by action of debt,by writ at the common law,or by bill, or plaint, after the cuſtome of the citie or towne where anie ſuch forfeitures ſhall happen to fall or be. And the defendant in anie ſuch action not to be admitted to wage his law ; nor protection,nor eſſoine for anie ſuch defendant ſhall be allowed : which ſaid act was made to indure from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter,vntill the end of two yéeres then next following, and no longer, as by the ſame act more plainelie may appeare. Whereas ſince the time of the expiration of the ſaid good & laudable ſtatute, certeine of the ſubiects of this realme, for their ſingular lucre and auaile, haue cauſed the moſt part of bonets and caps made within this realme,to be fulled and thicked in fulling mils : by reaſon whereof, not onelie the ſaid caps and bonets ſo thicked, and fulled in fulling mils, be for the moſt part broken and deceiptfullie wrought, for that they cannot in anie waies, by anie ſuch means of fulling and thicking,in ſuch mils be well and trulie wrought, to the great loſſe of the kings moſt louing ſubiects, but alſo a great number of the kings maieſties moſt louing ſubiects, by whome ſuch caps and bonets were in time paſt faithfullie and trulie made,wrought,fulled, and thicked, by mens ſtrength, that is to ſaie, with hands and féet, haue honeſtlie before this time gained their liuing, and kept manie apprentiſes and ſeruants in worke of that onlie occupation, to the great commoditie of this realme,and the ſubiects of the ſame,which now be vtterlie decaied . And foraſmuch as the ſaid ſtatute is good and profitable for the common wealth of this realme, our ſoueraigne lord the king by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame hath ordeined,prouided,and enacted, that the ſaid act, made in the ſaid two and twentith yéere of the ſaid late king, from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next inſuing, ſhall be reuiued,ſtand, and remaine, in full force, ſtrength, and effect, in all and euerie clauſe,ſentence, penaltie, and thing conteined in the ſame, according to the tenor and effect of the ſame act, this act to indure for fiue yéeres next following the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt.

An act for the making of white plaine ſtreights,and pinned white ſtreights in Deuon and Cornewall.

Chap.9. Where in the parlement vpon prorogation holden at Weſtminſter,the thrée and twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the fift yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is,and there continued vnto the fiftéenth daie of Aprill,in the first yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, and then diſſolued one act, ordinance, or law, was then and there made,touching and concerning the true making of woollen clothes,by the which ſaid act,amongſt other branches and ordinances therein conteined, it was enacted, that from,and after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next inſuing the making of the ſaid act, no perſon, or perſons,ſhould put anie haire, flocks, or anie yarne made of lambes wooll, into anie cloth,carſeie,frize,or cotton, ſo made and ſold,or offered to be ſold,vpon paine to forfeit euerie ſuch cloth,carſie,frize, and cotten, wherein anie ſuch yarne, haire,or flocks, ſhall be put, or the value of ſuch cloth, karſeie, frize, or cotton, as by the ſaid ſtatute it doth and maie appeare. And where in the counties of Deuon, and Cornewall in diuerſe parts thereof, there be made certeine kinds of clothes of the nature of Taueſtocke clothes, the one called white plaine ſtreights, and the other called pinned white ſtreights, which ſort of clothes be made with the refuſe, and courſe wools, flocks, lambs wooll, and hairie wools, which kind of clothes, called white plaine ſtreights, and pinned white ſtreights, are tranſported, and caried into the parts of Britaine beyond the ſea, and there vttered by the merchants thereof by exchange, and bartrie for linnen cloth called doulaſſe, lokeram, and canuaſe, which the ſame merchants doo afterwards bring into this realme to ſerue the kings maieſties ſubiects therewith, aſwell dwelling in the ſaid counties of Deuon, and Cornewall, as in diuerſe other parts of the realme. And forasmuch as in the foreſaid act there is no remedie prouided for the true making of the ſaid clothes, nor anie mention made of the ſame kinds of clothes in the ſaid act, and therefore doubted whether they of the ſame counties of Deuon, and Cornewall, maie make the ſaid kinds of clothes or not, without danger of the foreſaid law, for that it is reſtreined, and prohibited by the ſaid act, that no perſon, or perſons, ſhould put anie haire, flocks or anie yarne made of lambs wooll, into anie cloth, frize, or cotton ſo made, and ſold, or offered to be ſold, vpon paine afore ſpecified. And for that the ſaid kind of clothes called white plaine ſtreights, and pinned white ſtreights, are made with Cornish wooll, which is for the moſt part thereof all hairie wools.

And to the intent that from henſeforth the ſaid clothes called white plaine ſtreights, and pinned white ſtreights, maie be trulie made and to conteine a certentie in length, breadth, and weight: be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from, and after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, euerie peece of the ſaid clothes, called white plaine ſtreights, made after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall conteine in length, being readie dreſſed to put to ſale twelue yards at the leaſt, and in breadth, one yard at the leaſt, in weight eleuen pounds at the leaſt vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, or the value thereof. And that euerie peece of the ſaid cloth, called white pinned ſtreights, made after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, being readie dreſſed to put to ſale, ſhall conteine in length eleuen yards at the leaſt, and in breadth thrée quarters of a yard at the leaſt, and in weight eight pounds at the leaſt, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid clothes, or the true value thereof: the one moitie of all which forfeits to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, detinue, bill, plaint, or information, in anie of the kings courts, wherein no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be admitted, or allowed for the defendant.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall and maie be lawfull, to and for anie perſon, or perſons whatſoeuer, inhabiting, or dwelling within the ſaid counties of Deuon, and Cornewall, or either of them, to make the foreſaid ſorts of clothes with haire, flocks, or yarne made of lambs wols, or otherwiſe without anie penaltie or forfeiture thereof, the foreſaid act made in the ſaid laſt parlement, or anie other law, or ſtatute afore this parlement had, or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the owner, or owners of all, and euerie ſuch cloth, and clothes ſo wrought, and made, ſhall bring, or cauſe to be brought the ſame cloth, or clothes to the next citie, borough, or towne corporat, where the ſame ſhall be fulled, dreſſed & made, there to be meaſured, weied, & ſealed with a ſeale of lead fixed to euerie of the ſaid péeces of cloth: in which ſeale, the armes, or name of euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne corporat ſhall be grauen, and that the maior of euerie citie, borough, or towne corporat where the ſame cloth, or clothes ſhall be brought, ſhall appoint, and ſweare two officers for the true weieng, meaſuring, and ſealing thereof: and that the ſame officers ſhall haue for their weieng, meaſuring, and ſealing of euerie péece of the ſaid clothes, one halfe penie and no more.

Be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euer clothier, or clothiers, which ſhall put anie of the clothes aforeſaid to ſale, or offer the ſame to be ſold, before the ſame be weied, meaſured, and ſealed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch default, the cloth, or clothes, ſo by him, or them ſold, or offered to be ſold, the one moitie whereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, detinue, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts, wherein no eſſoine, protection or wager of law, ſhall be admitted, or allowed for the defendant.

An act for the vniting, and annexing of the towne of Gateſide to the towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine.

Chap.10.

WHere the quiet order, regiment, and gouernance of the corporation, and bodie politike of the towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine, hath béene not a litle diſturbed, and hindred to a much great, and manifeſt impouerishment, ruine, and decaie of the ſaid corporation: by reaſon aſwell that in the towne of Gateſide parcell both of the poſſeſſions of the biſhoprike of Durham, and alſo of the liberties, and countie Palantine of Durham aforeſaid, next adioining vnto the ſaid hauen towne of Newcaſtell on the ſouthſide of the ſaid riuer of Tine, doo inhabit, and béene from time to time a great number of carpenters, colliers, fiſhers, mariners, and other handicrafts men, which by their handiworks gaine, and haue their chéefe, and in maner whole liuing in the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell, where they dailie commit manifold inormities, and diſorders, which eſcape vnpuniſhed, to a verie euill example in the hinderance of iuſtice, by reaſon that ſuch offendors by repairing into the ſaid towne of Gateſide, being without the iuriſdiction of the ſaid hauen towne of Newcaſtell, find euaſions, ⁊ means to eſcape the condigne correction, and puniſhment of their ſaid miſbehauiors: as alſo for that no ſmall number of the inhabitants of Gateſide without anie reſpect to the conſeruation of the hauen of the ſaid port towne of Newcaſtell being the chéefe maintenance, and vphold of the ſame, doo caſt into the ſaid hauen rubbiſh, with all the refuſe of their buildings, beſides the other clenſing of their houſes, and ſtréets, without anie correction, or puniſhment extended vnto them for the ſame, by reaſon that the ſaid towne of Gateſide is parcell of the ſaid countie Palantine of Durham, and without the liberties of the ſaid hauen towne, as is aforeſaid, without remedie whereof, the ſaid hauen ſhould periſh, and thereby the towne ſhould be in great ieopardie of ruine, and decaie.

And furthermore, foraſmuch alſo as a part of the bridge ouer the ſaid riuer of Tine perteining to the ſaid towne of Gateſide, is ſo far in ruine, and decaie for lacke of reparation, that no carts, or cariages may be ſuffered to paſſe ouer the ſame: for remedie whereof, and ſundrie other inormities here not recited, be it by the kings maieſtie our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſents of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that the towne of Gateſide aforeſaid, and all the inhabitants of the ſame towne that now be, or héereafter ſhall be, and a parcell of ground called the ſalt medows ioining to the towne of Gateſide aforeſaid and hard vpon the riuer there, and the whole water, and bridge belonging, or apperteining to the ſame towne of Gateſide, ſhall be from henſeforth ſeuered, and diuided from the biſhoprike of Durham, and from the liberties, and countie Palantine of the ſame. And from henſeforth ſhall be vnited, and annexed to the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine, and to be taken, déemed, and adiudged to be within the countie, and ſhire of the ſame towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine, and be reputed, and taken as part, parcell, and member of the ſame towne of Newcaſtell. And the inhabitants of the ſame towne of Gateſide ſhall be vnder the rule, gouernement, and correction of the maior, and burgeſſes, as other of the inhabitants of the ſame towne of Newcaſtell, now béene, or of right ought to be, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, and that the ſaid maior of Newcaſtell, and burgeſſes of the ſame towne, and their ſucceſſors from henſeforth euer ſhall haue the ſame, and like liberties, franchiſes, priuileges, iuriſdictions, puniſhments, obedience, and corrections in the ſaid towne of Gateſide aforeſaid, and the medow called the ſalt medow, and the waters, and bridge belonging to the ſame towne of Gateſide, and of the inhabiters, dwellers, and occupiers of the ſame, as the ſaid now maior, and burgeſſes hath, or maie lawfullie doo in all things, and to all intents in the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell.

Prouided alwaie, ⁊ be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to take awaie anie ſuch title of common from the inhabitants of the ſaid towne of Gateſide, which they haue, or of right ought to haue within the biſhoprike of Durham aforeſaid, but that they, and euerie of them, their heires, and ſucceſſors maie haue, vſe, and occupie the ſame, as they might haue doone before the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer béene had, ne made, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the maior and burgeſſes of Newcaſtell, and their ſucceſſors for euer, ſhall haue towards the reparations of the ſouthſide of the bridge, their ſufficient wood for the reparations of the ſame bridge, and alſo for the reparations of the houſes of Gateſide aforeſaid to be taken, and had out of the woods of the parke of Gateſide, in like maner and forme as the ſaid towne of Gateſide, and the inhabitants of the ſame, hath afore time had the ſame to the ſame intent, ⁊ to be deliuered vnto them by the aſſignement of the lord, or owner, or his ſufficient deputie, or deputies of the ſaid manor, and parke of Gateſide aforeſaid, for the time being, as often as néed ſhall require the ſaid bridge to be repaired by the ſaid maior, and burgeſſes, and their ſucceſſors at the coſts, and charges of the ſaid maior, and burgeſſes, and their ſucceſſors for euer.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the biſhop of Durham, and his ſucceſſors for euer, for all ſuch things as he, or they ſhall buie, bring, or carie into the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell or Gateſide, or buie in them, or in anie of them for the maintenance of their houſhold, or familie, ſhall go frée without paieng anie toll, picage, ſtallage, wharfage, or other dutie, or cuſtome for the ſame, in the ſame towne of Newcaſtell, and Gateſide: ſauing to all, and euerie perſon and perſons, bodies politike, and corporat, their heires, and ſucceſſors, ⁊ to the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, poſſeſſion, leaſes, annuities, rents, ſeruices, reuerſions, remaindors, offices, fées, commons, commodities, profits, entrées, conditions, petitions, ſute, or action, which they now haue, or héereafter ought to haue, of, in, or to anie manors, meſuages, lands, tenements or hereditaments, lieng, ⁊ being within the ſaid towne of Gateſide, other then the liberties, franchiſes, priuileges, iuriſdictions, vnitings, ⁊ annexions, puniſhments, obediences, corrections, intereſts belonging to the ſaid biſhoprike of Durham, or of the countie Palantine aforeſaid, heretofore claimed, and vſed within the ſaid towne of Gateſide, and in the ſalt medow, bridge, ⁊ waters aforeſaid, and the timberwood from time to time neceſſarie to be taken, and had in Gateſide parke for the reparations aſwell of the ſaid bridge, as alſo of the houſes in Gateſide aforeſaid, in forme afore rehearſed, which ſaid towne of Gateſide, the ſalt medow, bridge, and waters aforeſaid, togither with the aboueſaid timber, for the reparations of the ſaid bridge and houſes, to be taken in Gateſide parke aforeſaid, are vnited and annexed to the ſaid towne of Newcaſtell vpon Tine, as afore mentioned, in ſuch like manner and forme, as they, or anie of them haue had, ſhould, or might haue had, if this act had neuer béene had ne made: anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for the continuance of certeine ſtatutes.

Chap.11.

WHere in the parlement begun, and holden at London, the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentith yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord of moſt famous memorie, king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuerſe prorogations vnto the diſſolution thereof, one act was made and eſtabliſhed for the reſtreint of cariage, and conueieng of horſſes and mares out of this realme: and alſo one other act was there made in the ſaid parlement, for the true making of cables, halſers, and ropes. And alſo one other act was there made in the ſaid parlement, for the true winding of wools: and one other act was there made to reſtreine killing of wainelings, bullocks, ſtiers, and heifers, being vnder the age of two yéeres, which ſaid ſeuerall acts were then made to indure and continue vnto the next parlement, as by the ſame thrée ſeuerall acts more plainelie appeareth. And where alſo in the ſame parlement, one other act was made ⁊ eſtabliſhed, for atteints to be ſued for the puniſhment of periurie vpon vntrue verdicts, which acts laſt before rehearſed were then made and ordeined to continue and indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame ſeuerall acts more plainelie at large is ſhewed, and maie appeare.

And where alſo in the parlement begun, and holden at Weſtminſter, the eight daie of Iune, in the eight and twentith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued and kept, vntill the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined and enacted, that all and ſingular the ſaid acts aboue remembred, and euerie of them, ſhould continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined, more plainelie appeareth.

And where alſo in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the eight and twentith daie of Aprill, in the one and thirtith yéere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued vntill the eight and twentith daie of Iune then next following, it was ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of the ſame parlement, that all, and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue remembred, and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions in them, and euerie of them conteined, ſhould continue and indure in their force ⁊ ſtrength, and alſo to be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined more plainelie appeareth.

And where alſo in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter, the ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie in the two and thirtith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, and there continued vntill the firſt daie of Aprill in the thrée and thirtith yéere of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord, there was one other act made and eſtabliſhed, concerning buieng of fiſh vpon the ſea, as by the ſame act laſt recited more plainelie doth appeare.

And where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the fiue and thirtith yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, one act was made for the preſeruation of woods, to indure for ſeauen yéeres then next following, and from thenſe vnto the end of the next parlement, as by the ſame act more plainelie doth and may appeare.

And where alſo at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the 37 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued ⁊ kept, vntill the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined and enacted, that all and ſingular the ſaid acts aboue mentioned, and euerie of them, except the ſaid act made for the preſeruation of woods, as is aforeſaid, ſhould continue ⁊ indure in their force ⁊ ſtrength, ⁊ alſo to be obſerued ⁊ kept, vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therin conteined, more plainlie appeareth.

And where alſo in the ſeſſion of a parlement, begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the fourth daie of Nouember, in the third yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, one ſtatute made in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the one ⁊ thirtith yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, touching vnlawfull hunting in anie parke, forreſt, or chaſe.

And where alſo one other act was made in the ſeſſion of a parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the 32 yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, touching wrongfull taking, killing, or ſlaieng of anie déere within anie parke, chaſe, or ground, incloſed or vſed for déere, which ſaid ſeuerall acts were by the ſaid act made in the ſaid 4 daie of Nouember in the ſaid third yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne the king that now is, reuiued to continue for 3 yeers next following, after the firſt daie of Maie then next inſuing, as by the ſame ſeuerall acts, more plainlie doth ⁊ maie appeare.

And where alſo at the ſeſſion of the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, the fourtéenth daie of March, in the third yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord the king, that now is, one act was made for the true currieng of lether, and at the ſame parlement, one other act was made, for the true making of malt: and alſo one other act was then and there made, touching the true making of lether, which thrée ſeuerall acts were made to indure to the end of the next parlement, as by the ſame thrée ſeuerall acts more plainelie appeareth.

And where alſo at a ſeſſion of a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the firſt daie of Februarie, in the fourth yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, one other act was made for the puniſhment of vnlawfull aſſemblies, and riſings of the kings ſubiects: and alſo one other act was there made, concerning the repeale of a branch of the ſaid act of parlement before mentioned, touching and concerning the buieng of tanned lether: and alſo one other act was then and there made, againſt fond and fantaſticall propheſies. And alſo one other act was then and there made, concerning the buieng of Roather beaſts; and alſo one other act was then and there made, touching buieng and ſelling of butter and chéeſe, which ſaid ſeuerall acts were then and there made to indure and continue vnto the end of the next parlement, as by the ſame ſeuerall acts more at large it may and doth appeare.

And where alſo at the ſeſſion of a parlement by prorogation holden at Weſtminſter, the thrée and twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the fift yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, one act was then and there made touching the prouiſion and reléefe of the poore, to indure to the end of the ſeſſion of the next parlement. And where alſo at the ſame ſeſſion of parlement laſt before mentioned, one other act was then and there made againſt regratours, and foreſtallers, which act was made to indure to the end of the next parlement: and foraſmuch as all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue mentioned, be good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts and ſtatutes aboue mentioned or rehearſed, and euerie of them, and alſo the ſaid act, concerning the preſeruation & kéeping of woods, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions in them, and euerie of them conteined, ſhall be reuiued, continued, ſtand, and indure in their force and ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, and ſhall be obſerued and kept in all things, vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the atteindor, or conuiction of anie perſon or perſons, to be had or made, for anie the offenſes conteined in the ſaid acts, made in the one and thirtith and two and thirtith yéeres of our ſaid late ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, concerning hunting, or killing of déere or conies, or in either of them, ſhall not extend to cauſe anie perſon or perſons to loſe or forfeit anie inheritance or dower, nor to make anie corruption of bloud: but that after the death of euerie ſuch offendor, and offendors, the heire, and heires, wife, and wiues of them, and euerie of them, ſhall and may inherit, and haue their dowers, and be deemed, adiudged, and inhabled to haue, and take the ſame, in ſuch maner and forme, as if no ſuch atteindor or conuiction had béene had or made. This act, or the ſaid former acts, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act of a ſubſidie and two fifteenes, and tenths, granted to the kings maieſtie by the temporaltie.

Chap. 12. WE the kings highneſſe moſt faithfull and obedient ſubiects, the lords & commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, conſidering and certeinlie perceiuing by diuerſe means, the earneſt good will and purpoſe, that our ſaid ſoueraigne lord hath to preſerue, mainteine, and continue vs his naturall ſubiects, in this moſt fortunate peace, whereunto after manie ſtormes and tempeſts of the wars, his maieſtie hath by the goodneſſe of God reſtored vs, do alſo, notwithſtanding his maieſties great care and politike means vſed for the recouerie thereof, eaſilie perceiue how hard it ſhall be for his highneſſe, to continue and kéepe vs therein, during the time of this troubleſome ſtate of chriſtendome, being, as it were, lamentablie cut, & torne into péeces, and factions of war, except his highneſſe be reſtored to a further eſtate and furniture of treaſure, méet for the defenſe of theſe his realmes, dominions, and ſubiects: and like to other princes, hauing ſuch large realmes, dominions, and people. The lacke and want whereof (as we know) ſhall chéefelie redound to all our loſſes and detriments, which muſt be defended and preſerued, by the puiſſant power and might of our ſoueraigne lord and head: and not by the multitude of our priuat richeſſe, and ſtrengths at home. So alſo haue we ſéene of late yéeres, plainlie before our eies, and felt in a great part of our ſorowfull harts, the verie principall, chéefe, and firſt cauſes of this lacke, during the time of the wilfull miſgouernance of this noble realme, and other the kings dominions, by the late protector duke of Summerſet (to whome almightie God grant his mercie) who firſt of his inſaciat ambition, contrarie to the aduiſes of all wiſe and good counſellors, hauing gotten into his hands the ſole gouernance of the moſt ſacred perſon of our ſoueraigne lord, and conſequentlie the protectorſhip of all his highneſſe realmes and dominions, immediatlie to laie a fit foundation for his vnhappie and vnſkilfull gouernment, brought the kings maieſtie (whome he tooke by pretenſe to gouerne, being left by his highneſſe father of moſt famous memorie in tender yéeres, but yet in peace) ſuddenlie into open hoſtilitie and wars, againſt two puiſſant realmes at once, conſidering neither the abilitie to begin, nor means to continue them; wherein following alwaies his owne ſingularitie, by ſtirring and increaſing of new quarels, and cauſes of war, by vnaduiſed inuaſions, by deſperate enterpriſes and voiages, by ſumptuous, endleſſe, vaine fortifications, both in forren realmes, and in the ſeas, by bringing into the realme of coſtlie, and great numbers of ſtrangers men of war, and ſuch other innumerable vaine deuiſes, he did not onlie exhauſt, and vtterlie waſte the kings maieſties treaſure and reuenues of his crowne, & of vs his highneſſe ſubiects,but alſo indangered his maieſties credit beyond the ſeas,with diuers ſtrange merchants by taking vp, and boꝛrowing great ſums of monie, growing from time to time moꝛe and moꝛe indurablie, which gate of miſerie being ſo wide opened, we all know, and the beſt part of vs felt, that a heape of calamities fell vpon all the realme immediatlie, yea, and to this daie what pꝛeſſe and memoꝛie thereof remaineth,not wholie yet filled vp.

Firſt,the kings maieſties treaſure of all ſoꝛts waſted,the great ſubſtance of the monies molted and altered in baſe coine, foꝛ the ſeruing of the charges of theſe wars: the lawes,and ancient policies of this noble realme diſſolued and vniointed,& by example hereof,the ſtate of Ireland endangered with factions and rebellions,wherein no ſmall ſums of treaſure were alſo waſted in armies,and foꝛtifications,part whereof remaine vnto this pꝛeſent daie of neceſſitie. In the middeſt of all theſe miſeries,by ſuffering of the ſaid late pꝛotectoꝛ,roſe vp a monſtrous and dangerous rebellion of the lewd numbers,and baſer multitude againſt their heads. The withſtanding and happie ſtaie whereof,although it came thꝛough the mercifulneſſe of God, by the laboꝛ and foꝛtitude of others woꝛthie eternall pꝛaiſe, ſubduing the headleſſe raging people in ſundꝛie parts of the realme,deliuering vs the kings maieſties naturall ſubiects, out of our vnnaturall ſubiection to him that ruled vs with diſoꝛder, & finallie reſtoꝛing the roiall perſon of the kings highneſſe to the freedome of his pꝛincelie eſtate,& conſequentlie to an honoꝛable peace with his enimies:yet could not hitherto the great bꝛeach & ruine of the kings maieſties eſtate,touching his treaſure,be repaired oꝛ reenfoꝛced, which conſequentlie followed vpon the firſt foundations bꝛoken, although in other points of the decaie(thanked be God)the kings maieſties owne maruellous intelligence,with the induſtrie of good counſelloꝛs, hath notablie ſupplied & amended the defaults. And as theſe foꝛmer erroꝛs bꝛought his maieſtie into vtter waſts of his owne treaſure & riches, into the expenſes of our ſubſidies granted foꝛ the ſame wars, though nothing anſwerable to the expenſes of the ſame,finallie into notable & vnmeaſurable charges beyond the ſeas, foꝛ pꝛouiſions of monie taken vp in time of wars:ſo yet to the increaſe of this foꝛmer ſoꝛe,we remember & perceiue alſo that there were verie great charges left by the late king of famous memoꝛie,by reaſon of his wars to be diſcharged aſwell beyond the ſeas towards ſtrangers, as on this ſide towards his owne ſubiects, which of their nature beyond the ſeas, foꝛ lacke of paiment did grow exceſſiuelie, beſides the late euident great charge & loſſe ſuſteined by the kings maieſtie,foꝛ the onlie pꝛofit of his publike weale,in the reducing of part of his coine,from a notable baſenes to a fine ſtandard, by the which his maieſtie lacketh a great pꝛiuat gaine in his mints, being now woꝛth no reuenue at all,but rather chargable,& the reſt of which coine we truſt he will ſhoꝛtlie reduce to like fineneſſe. All which things,we his maieſties faithfull & naturall louing ſubiects, weighing with our ſelues, & conſidering diuers great weightie matters hereupon depending, foꝛ the pꝛeſeruation of this ancient noble imperiall crowne: albeit we ſee manifeſtlie befoꝛe our eies, our ſouereigne loꝛd the kings maieſtie,diſpoſed of his good nature, rather dailie to diminiſh the reuenue of his crowne latelie augmented by his father of moſt famous memoꝛie, towards the vnburthening of his great intollerable weights, & charges lieng and growing in ſtrangers hands beyond the ſeas, then to call vpon vs his naturall ſubiects and people,like as dailie we heare and know, that all other moſt chꝛiſtian princes doo in cauſes of leſſe impoꝛtance, and like his maieſties noble pꝛogenitoꝛs haue alwaies done in ſuch caſes heretofoꝛe: yet foꝛ the pꝛeſeruation of our ſelues, & our poſteritie in this peace & wealth,whereunto we haue by the great charges of our ſouereigne loꝛd beene bleſſedlie bꝛought, foꝛ the maintenance and vpholding of the crowne and dignitie imperiall of this noble realme in honoꝛ and might,againſt all attempts of foꝛren & ancient enimies foꝛ the reſtauration of this decaied houſe of the commonwealth,hauing ſuffered violation & ruine by exile of iuſtice, in the foꝛmer time of the foꝛeſaid euill gouernance, foꝛ the comfoꝛting & encoꝛaging of our moſt chꝛiſtian king, in his bleſſed and famous purpoſes and pꝛoceedings, to the eſtabliſhing both of true chꝛiſtian religion in this his church of England and Ireland, and of a chꝛiſtian policie in the ciuill ſtate of the ſame: and finallie foꝛ ſome manifeſt demonſtration of our naturall bounden duties and loues towards our ſouereigne loꝛd, and ſupꝛeme head the kings moſt excellent maieſtie, to be in ſome part like and comparable to the good wils of other ſtrange people, and ſubiects to their heads and kings: we doo offer moſt humblie with our right, good, franke and free wils, this our ſimple gift,beſeeching his highneſſe, to caſt the eies of his mind,rather vpon our lowlie, good, true harts and good wils, than vpon the ſimpleneſſe and baſeneſſe of the gift: offering therewithall our naturall duties obeiſance, and allegiance to the vttermoſt of our power in bodies and ſubſtance, foꝛ the maintenance of his maieſties eſtate and roiall crowne, vnder the defenſe whereof, the ſafetie of vs all and our poſteritie conſiſteth. Wherefoꝛe we the ſaid loꝛds and commons, doo by our mutuall aſſents and agreements,with one whole voice and hartie good will, by the authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement,giue and grant to the kings highneſſe, towards his foꝛeſaid great coſts and ineſtimable charges,two whole fifteenes and tenths,to be had,paid,taken,and leuied of the moueable goods,chattels, and other things vſuall to ſuch fifteenes and tenths, to be contributoꝛie and chargeable within the ſhires, cities, boꝛoughs, townes, and other places of this his realme, in manner and foꝛme afoꝛetime vſed. Except the ſumme of twelue thouſand pounds therof fullie to be deducted (that is to ſaie) ſix thouſand pounds of either of the ſaid whole fiteenes and tenths of the ſumme that a fifteene oꝛ tenth attaineth vnto, in releefe, comfoꝛt, and diſcharge of the poꝛe towns, cities and boroughs of this his ſaid realme waſted, deſolat, and deſtroied, or ouer greatlie impoueriſhed, after ſuch rate, as was, and hath afore this time béene had and made vnto euerie ſhire, and to be diuided into ſuch maner and forme, as héeretofore for one whole fiftéene and tenth was had, and diuided, and the ſaid two whole fiftéenes and tenths, the exceptions and deductions aforeſaid thervpon had, deducted and allowed, to be paid in maner and forme following, (that is to ſaie) the firſt whole fiftéene and tenth (except before excepted) to be paid to his highneſſe in the receipt of his excheker, at, or before the nine and twentith daie of Iune next comming, and the ſecond whole fiftéene and tenth (except before excepted) to be paid to his highneſſe at the receipt of his ſaid excheker, at, or before the feaſt of ſaint Andrew the apoſtle, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God a thouſand fiue hundreth fiftie and fiue.

¶ I ſhall trulie inquire with my fellowes that ſhall be charged with me, of the hundred, wapentake, ward, towne, or other place of the beſt, and moſt value of the ſubſtance of euerie perſon dwelling and abiding within the limits of the places, that I and my fellows ſhalbe charged with, and of other which ſhall haue his or their moſt reſort vnto anie of the ſaid places, and chargeable with anie ſum of monie, by this act of this ſaid ſubſidie, ⁊ of all other articles that I ſhall be charged with touching the ſaid act, and according to the intent of the ſame: and therevpon as néere as it maie, or ſhall come to my knowledge trulie to preſent and certifie before you the names, ſurnames, and the beſt and vttermoſt ſubſtance and values of euerie of them, as well of lands, tenements, and other heriditaments, poſſeſſions, and profits, as of goods, chattels, debts, and other things chargeable by the ſaid act, without anie concealement, fauor, loue, affection, dread, feare, or malice, ſo helpe me God, and the holie contents of this booke.

And euerie other perſon that ſhall appeare there yéerelie by the ſaid precepts, ſhall make like oth: ⁊ vpon the oth ſo taken, as is aforeſaid, by the inhabitants ⁊ officers of euerie hundred, ward, wapentake, towne or other place, the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall yéerlie there read, or cauſe to be read vnto them the ſaid rates, and openlie declare the effect of their charge vnto them, in what maner ⁊ forme they ought and ſhould make their certificats, according to the rates and ſums thereof aboue ſaid, and of all maner of perſons, aſwell of aliens and ſtrangers, denizens or not denizens inhabited within this realme, as of ſuch perſons as be borne within the kings obeiſance, chargeable to this act, and of the poſſeſſions, goods and chattels of fraternities, guilds, corporations, brotherhoods, myſteries and communalties, and other as is aboueſaid, and of perſons being in the parties of beyond the ſeas, hauing goods or chattels, lands, or tenements, within this realme, as is beforeſaid: and of all goods being in the cuſtodie to the vſe of anie other, as is aboueſaid, by the which information and ſhewing, the ſaid perſons ſhall haue ſuch plaine knowledge of the true intent of this preſent act, ⁊ of the maner of their certificat, that the ſame perſons ſhould haue no reaſonable cauſe to excuſe them by ignorance. And after ſuch oths, ⁊ the ſtatute of the ſaid ſubſidie, and the maner of the ſaid certificat to be made in writing, conteining the names and ſurnames of euerie perſon, and whether he be borne without the kings obeiſance or within, ⁊ the beſt value of euerie perſon in euerie degrée, aſwell of yéerlie value of lands ⁊ tenements, and of ſuch like poſſeſſions and profits, as the value of goods ⁊ chattels, debts, and euery thing to their ſaid certificat requiſit and neceſſarie to them declared, the ſaid commiſſioners there being, ſhall by their diſcretions appoint ⁊ limit vnto the ſaid perſons another daie, and place to appéere before the ſaid commiſſioners: and charging the ſaid perſons, that they in the meane time ſhall make diligent inquirie by all waies and means, of the premiſſes. And then ⁊ there euerie of them, vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.s. to the king, to appeare at the ſaid new prefixed daie and place, there to certifie vnto the ſaid commiſſioners in writing according to their ſaid charge, and according to the true intent of the ſaid grant of ſubſidie, and as to them in maner aforeſaid, hath béene declared and ſhewed by the commiſſioners: at which daie and place ſo to them prefixed, if anie of the ſaid perſons make default, or appéere and refuſe to make the ſaid certificat: that then euerie of them ſo offending, to forfeit to the king fortie ſhillings, except onelie a reaſonable excuſe for his default by reaſon of ſickeneſſe, or otherwiſe, by the oths of two credible perſons there witneſſed, be had. And of ſuch as appeare readie to make certificat, as is aforeſaid, the ſaid commiſſioners there being ſhall take, and receiue the ſame certificat, and euerie part thereof: and the names, values, and ſubſtance of euerie perſon ſo certified. And if the ſame commiſſioners ſée cauſe reaſonable, they ſhall examine the ſaid preſenters thereof, and therevpon the ſaid commiſſioners, at the ſaid daies and place, by their agréement among themſelues, ſhall yéerelie during the ſaid two yéeres, openlie there prefixe a daie at a certeine place, or places within the limits of their commiſſion, by their diſcretion, for their further proceeding to the ſaid aſſeſſing of the ſame ſubſidie. And therevpon at the ſaid daie of the ſaid certificat, as is before ſaid, taken, the ſame commiſſioners ſhall make their precept, or precepts to the conſtables, ſubconſtables, bailiffs, or other officers of ſuch hundreds, wapentakes, townes, or other places aforeſaid, as the ſame commiſſioners ſhall be of, compriſing and conteining in the ſame precept the names, and ſurnames of all perſons preſented before them in the ſaid certificat, of whome, if the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them, as ſhall be therevnto appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall then haue vehement ſuſpect to be of more greater value, or ſubſtance in lands, goods, chattels, or ſummes of monie owing to them or other ſubſtance before ſaid, then vpon ſuch perſon, or perſons ſhall be certified: The ſame commiſſioners ſhall make their precept, or precepts directed to the conſtable, bailiffs, or other officers, commanding the ſame conſtables, bailiffs, or other officers, to whome ſuch precept ſhall be directed, to warne ſuch perſons, whoſe names ſhall be compriſed in the ſaid precept, at their manſions, or to their perſons, that the ſame perſons named in ſuch precepts, and euerie of them, ſhall perſonallie appeere before the ſaid commiſſioners at the ſame new prefixed daie, and place, there to be ſworne, and examined by all waies and meanes by the ſaid commiſſioners, of their greateſt ſubſtance and beſt value, and of all and euerie ſummes of monie owing to them, and other whatſoeuer matter concerning the premiſſes, or anie of them, according to this act. At which daie and place ſo prefixed, the ſaid commiſſioners then there being, or as manie of them, as ſhall be therevnto appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall cauſe to be called the ſaid perſons, whoſe names ſhall be compriſed in the ſaid precept, as is before ſaid, for their examination. And if anie of thoſe perſons which ſhould be warned, as is before ſaid, to be examined, which at anie time after the warning, & before the prefixed daie, ſhall be within ſuch place, where he maie haue knowledge of his ſaid apparance to be made, make default, and appeare not, vnleſſe a reaſonable cauſe, or els a reaſonable excuſe, by the othes of two credible perſons, before the ſaid commiſſioners be truelie alledged for his diſcharge: That then euerie of them ſo making default, to be taxed and charged to the king, with and at the double ſummes of the rate, that he ſhould, or ought to haue beene ſet at, for, and after the beſt value of his lands, or ſubſtance vpon him certified, if he had appeared by the diſcretion of the commiſſioners there being. And in like maner, if anie of them ſuſpected, as is before ſaid, appeare, and refuſe to be ſworne, in forme following: then euerie ſuch offendor to be taxed and charged to the king, with, and at the double ſumme of the rate, that he ſhould, or ought to haue beene ſet at, for, and after the beſt value of his ſubſtance vpon him certified by the ſame perſon that made the certificat, as is beforeſaid, by the diſcretions of the ſaid commiſſioners there then being. And euerie of the perſons ſo then and there appearing whoſe names ſhall be expreſſed in the ſaid precept, or precepts, and in whome anie vehement ſuſpect was, or ſhall be had, in forme aboueſaid, ſhall trauell with the ſame perſon ſo ſuſpect, by all ſuch waies and meanes they can. And further the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them, as ſhall be herevnto appointed by the ſaid commiſſion, by their diſcretions ſhall openlie ſweare the ſame perſon in this maner and forme following.

¶ I ſhall faithfullie, truelie, and plainlie, according to my knowledge, ſhew vnto you the kings commiſſioners, and to other by you aſſigned, the beſt and greateſt value, or aboue, of all my yeerelie profits in lands, tenements, rents, or ſuch other like poſſeſſions, yeerelie profit, and fee, and the beſt and greateſt value of all my goods, and chattels, and ſummes of monie to me owing, according to the grant of this act and ſubſidie, and truelie anſwer to that I ſhall be examined of, touching the premiſſes, without couin or deceipt: ſo helpe me God, and the holie contents of this booke.

And if anie perſon that ſhould appeare be excuſed, in forme aforeſaid, by witneſſe of credible perſons, the ſame perſons ſhall be examined by their oths, of his, or their greateſt and beſt value and ſubſtance ſo lacking, and excuſed, and by the beſt of their certificat, or knowledge, or of the other firſt certificat vpon him, or them made, the ſame perſon ſo lacking and excuſed of his apparance, to be ſet and rated by the ſaid commiſſioners, or otherwiſe to be ſet and rated in this caſe, as ſhall ſeeme beſt by the diſcretions of the ſaid commiſſioners. And if it happen to be proued by witneſſe, his owne confeſſion, or other lawfull waies, or meanes, within one yeere after anie ſuch oth made, that the ſame perſon ſo taxed, and ſworne, was of anie greater, or better value in lands, goods, or other things aboue ſpecified, at the time of his ſaid oth, then the ſame perſon ſo ſworne did declare vpon his oth: That then ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall loſe, and forfeit to the king, foure times ſo much in lawfull monie of England, as the ſame perſon ſo ſworne was ſet, and taxed at to paie for the ſaid ſubſidie.

And that euerie ſpirituall perſon, during the ſaid two yeeres ſhall be rated and ſet, according to the rate aboueſaid, of, and for euerie pound that the ſame ſpirituall perſon, or anie other to his vſe hath by diſcent, bargaine, or purchaſe in fee ſimple, fee taile, terme of life, terme of yeeres, by execution, by ward, or by copie of court roll in anie manors, lands tenements, rents, ſeruices, offices fees, corrodies, annuities, or hereditaments, after the true, iuſt, and yeerelie value thereof, after and according as other the kings ſubiects borne within this realme be charged, in forme aboue remembred: So that it extend to the yeerelie value, of twentie ſhillings or aboue.

And if anie perſon certified, or rated by vertue of this act, be he commiſſioner or other, to anie maner of value, doth find himſelfe greeued with the ſame preſentment, ſeſſing or taxing, & thervpon complaine to the commiſſioners, before whome he ſhall be rated, ſeſſed or taxed, or before two of them: that then the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall by all waies and means examine particularlie and diſtinctlie, the perſon ſo complainant, & other his neighbors, by their diſcretion, of euerie his lands and tenements aboue ſpecified, and of euerie his goods, chattels, and debts aboue mentioned and after due examination and perfect knowledge thereof had, and perceiued by the ſaid commiſſioners which ſhall haue power by authoritie aforeſaid, the ſaid commiſſioners, or two of them, to whome anie ſuch complaint ſhall be made, by their diſcretions, vpon the oth of the ſaid perſon ſo complaining, maie abate, defalke, increaſe or inlarge the ſame aſſeſſement, according as it ſhall appeare to them iuſt vpon the ſame examination: and the ſame ſumme ſo abated, defalked, increaſed or inlarged, to be eſtreated in forme as héereafter inſueth, ſo that he commeth before the eſtreats of the ſame aſſeſſing be deliuered by the ſaid commiſſioners into the kings excheker. And if it be proued by witneſſe, his owne confeſſion, or other lawfull waies or means, within a yeere after anie ſuch oth made, that the ſame perſon ſo taxed and ſworne was of anie better or greater value in lands, goods, or other things aboue ſpecified, at the time of his ſaid oth, then the ſame perſon ſo ſworne, did declare vpon his ſaid oth, that then euerie ſuch perſon ſo offending, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the king foure times ſo much in lawfull monie of England, as the ſame perſon ſo ſworne was ſet at, or taxed to paie. And all perſons ſet, rated, and taxed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be bound and charged by the ſame, and the ſumme or ſummes vpon him ſet, to be due towards the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, and to be leuied, as héereafter ſhall be ſpecified.

And it is alſo enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that euerie perſon yeerlie during the ſaid two yeers (as is aforeſaid) ſhall be rated, taxed and ſet, and the ſumme on him ſet, to be leuied at ſuch place where he and his familie, at the time of the ſame preſentment to be made, ſhall kéepe his houſe, or dwelling, or where he then ſhall be moſt conuerſant, abiding or reſiant: or ſhall haue his moſt reſort, and ſhall be beſt knowne at the time of the ſaid certificat to be made and no where elſe. And that no commiſſioner for this ſubſidie ſhall be rated or taxed for his goods or lands, but in the ſhire, or other place where he ſhall be commiſſioner. And that if anie perſon chargeable to this act, the time of the ſaid aſſeſſing, happen to be out of this realme, and out of Wales, or farre from the place where he ſhall be knowne, then he to be ſet where he was laſt abiding in this realme, or within Wales, and beſt knowne, and after the ſubſtance, value, & other profits of euery perſon knowne by the examination, certificat, and other maner of wiſe, as is aforeſaid. The ſaid commiſſioners or as manie of them as ſhall be appointed by the kings commiſſion, ſhall after the rate aforeſaid, ſet, and tax euerie perſon according to the rate of the ſubſtance and value of his lands, goods, and other profits, whereby the greateſt and moſt beſt ſumme according to his moſt ſubſtance, by reaſon of this act might, or maie be ſet or taxed.

Prouided alwaies, that euerie ſuch perſon which ſhall be ſet or taxed for paiment of and to this ſubſidie, for and after the yéerelie value of his lands, tenements, or other reall poſſeſſions or profits in anie of the ſaid two yéeres, ſhall not be ſet and taxed for his goods and chattels, or other moueable ſubſtance in the ſame yéere. And he that ſhall be charged or taxed for the ſame ſubſidie, for his goods, chattels, and other moueables in anie of the ſaid two yéeres, ſhall not be charged, taxed, or chargeable for his lands or other reall poſſeſſions, and profits aboue ſaid in the ſame yéere: nor that anie perſon be double charged for the ſaid ſubſidie, neither ſet or taxed at ſeuerall places by reaſon of this act, anie thing conteined in this preſent act notwithſtanding.

And that it be ordeined be the ſaid authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon hauing two manſions, or two places to reſort vnto, or calling himſelfe houſhold ſeruant, or waiting ſeruant to the kings highneſſe, or other lord or ladie, maiſter or miſtreſſe be excuſed vpon his ſaieng, from the tax of the ſaid ſubſidie, in neither of the places where he maie be ſet, vnleſſe he bring a certificat in writing from the commiſſioners, where that he is ſo ſet indéed at one place. And if anie other than commiſſioner happen to be ſet in two places, vpon certificat thereof made, the beſt and moſt ſumme vpon him ſo taxed, to be taken and abide, and the other to be diſcharged: ſo that the ſame certificat of his aſſeſſings, and paiment to be made thereof in writing vnder the ſeales of the commiſſioners, or of as manie of them, as ſhall be appointed by the kings commiſſion: which certificat ſo made, ſhall be at all times a ſufficient diſcharge for him and the collector of the ſame, as well againſt anie collector that ſhall demand the ſame vpon him rated or taxed, as againſt the king and all other perſons.

And if anie perſon that ought to be ſet, by reaſon of his remoouing or reſorting to two places, or by reaſon of his ſaieng, that he elſewhere was taxed, or by reaſon of anie priuilege, by his dwelling or abiding in anie place, not being forpriſed in this act, or anie otherwiſe by his couin or craft, happen to eſcape from the yéerelie aſſeſſing, and be not ſet, and that proued by preſentment examination, or information before the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhall be by the ſame commiſſion appointed, or by the barons of the kings excheker, or two iuſtices of the peace of the countie where ſuch perſon dwelleth: then euerie ſuch perſon that by ſuch means, or otherwiſe willinglie by couin, ſhall happen to eſcape from the aſſeſſing of the ſaid ſubſidie or of anie of them, & not be rated, taxed & ſet, ſhalbe charged vpon the knowledge & proofe therof, with, & at the double value that he ſhould or ought to haue bin ſet at afore, according to his behauior. The ſame double value to be leuied, gathered, & paid of his goods & chattels lands, & tenements, towards the ſaid ſubſidie: & further to be puniſhed, according to the diſcretions of the barons, iuſtices, or commiſſioners, before whome he ſhall be conuicted for his offenſe and deceipt in that behalfe.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners of euerie commiſſion, ſhall according to their diuiſions, and after they be diuided, haue full power and authoritie by this act, to ſet, tax, and ſeſſe euerie other commiſſioner ioined with them, in euerie ſuch commiſſion, and diuiſion, and ſhall alſo aſſeſſe euerie aſſeſſor within their diuiſion, for his, and their goods, lands, and other premiſſes, as is aboue ſaid: by the which ſaid commiſſion, the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall indifferentlie, ſet, tax, and ſeſſe themſelues, and the ſaid aſſeſſors. And that aſwell the ſums vpon euerie of the ſaid commiſſioners, and aſſeſſors ſo ſeſſed, rated, and taxed, as the ſummes made, and preſented by the preſentors ſworne, as is aboueſaid, ſhalbe written, certified, ſet and extreated, and the extreats thereof to be made with other the inhabitants of that parties, within the limits of the ſame commiſſion, and diuiſion, and ſo to be gathered, and leuied in like maner, as it ought, or ſhould haue béene, if the ſaid commiſſioner had not béene in the ſaid commiſſion, and that all perſons of the ſtate of a baron, or baroneſſe, and euerie eſtate aboue, ſhalbe charged with their frée hold, and values, as is aforeſaid, before the chancellor, treaſuror of England, lord preſident of the kings priuie counſell, and lord priuie ſeale for the time being, or other perſons by the kings authoritie to be limited, and they to be charged yéerelie, during the ſaid two yéeres, after the forme of the ſaid grant, according to the taxation aforeſaid, and the ſummes vpon them ſet, with the names of the collectors appointed for the gathering, and paieng of the ſame, to be extreated, deliuered, and certified, at daies and places aboue ſpecified, by the lord chancellor, treaſuror, lord preſident of the counſell, and lord priuie ſeale, for the time being, or ſuch other perſons as ſhalbe limited by the kings highneſſe, and after the taxes, and aſſeſſes of the ſaid ſummes, vpon, and by the ſaid aſſeſſing, and certificat, as is aforeſaid, made, the ſaid commiſſioners, or as manie of them as ſhalbe therevnto appointed by the kings commiſſion, before the firſt daie of December, during the ſaid two yéeres, by the writing extreated of the ſaid tax thereof vnder the ſeale, and ſigns manuel of the ſaid commiſſioners, or of as many of them, as ſhall be appointed, at the leaſt, to be made, ſhall be deliuered vnto ſufficient and ſubſtantiall inhabitants, conſtables, ſubconſtables, bailiffs, and other officers iointlie of hundreds, townes, pariſhes, and other places aforeſaid within their limits, or to other ſufficient perſons inhabitants of the ſame, onelie by the diſcretion of the ſame commiſſioners, and as the place and parties ſhall require, aſwell the particular names & ſurnames, as the remembrance of all ſums of monie taxed and ſet, of, and vpon euerie perſon, aſwell man as woman chargeable to this act, houſholder, and all other inhabitants, and dwellers within the ſaid pariſh, townes, & places contributorie to this act of ſubſidie, by authoritie of which writing, or extreat ſo deliuered, the ſaid officers, or other perſons ſo named and deputed ſeuerallie, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by vertue of this act, immediatlie after the deliuerie of the ſaid writing, or extreat, to demand, leuie, and gather of euerie perſon therein ſpecified, the ſumme, or ſummes in the ſame writing, or extreat compriſed: and for non paiment thereof, to diſtreine the ſame perſon, or perſons ſo being behind, by their goods, and chattels, and the diſtreſſes ſo taken to kéepe by the ſpace of eight daies, at the coſts and charges of the owner thereof: and if the ſaid ownerd o not paie ſuch ſumme of monie, as ſhalbe taxed by this act, within the ſame eight daies, then the ſaid diſtreſſe to be appraiſed by foure, thrée, or two, of the inhabitants, where ſuch diſtreſſe is taken, and alſo to be ſold by the ſaid conſtable, and other collector for the paiment of the ſaid monie, and the ouerplus comming of the ſale and kéeping thereof, if anie be, to be immediatlie reſtored to the owner of the ſame diſtreſſe: which ſaid officers, and other perſons ſo deputed to aſke, take, gather, and leuie the ſaid ſummes, ſhall anſwer and be charged for their portion onelie to them aſſigned, or limited to be gathered, leuied, and compriſed in the ſaid writing, or extreat to them, as is beforeſaid, deliuered vnto the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, his heires, and ſucceſſors, and the ſaid ſumme in that writing, or extreat compriſed to paie vnto the high collector or collectors of that place for the collection of the ſame, in maner and forme vnder written, thervnto to be named and deputed: And the ſame inhabitants, and officers ſo gathering the ſame particular ſums, for their collection thereof ſhall reteine for euerie twentie ſhillings ſo by them receiued and paid, two penſe, and that to be allowed at the paiment of their collection by them to be made to the high collector, or collectors.

And further be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid commiſſioners, or the more part of them as ſhall take vpon them the execution, and buſineſſe of the ſaid commiſſion, ſhall yéerelie, during the ſaid two yéeres, name ſuch ſufficient, & able perſons, which then ſhall haue, and poſſeſſe land, and other hereditaments in their owne right, of the yéerelie value, of ten pound, or goods to the value of one hundred marks at the leaſt: And the ſame perſons ſeuerallie, by the diſcretions of the ſame commiſſioners, in ſhires, ridings, lathes, wapentakes, rapes, cities, townes corporat, and other whatſoeuer places, aſwell within places priuileged, as without, not being forpriſed within this act, to be high collectors, and haue the collection and receipt of the ſaid ſums ſet, and leuiable within the precinct, limits, and bounds, where they ſhall be ſo limited to gather, and receiue: To euerie of the which collectors ſo ſeuerallie named, the ſaid commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, yéerelie during the ſaid two yéeres before the twelfe daie of December, or within one moneth next after the ſaid whole ſummes of the ſaid ſubſidie be ſet, by all the limits of the ſame their commiſſion, or in ſuch limits, as the high collectors ſhall be ſo ſeuerallie aſſigned, ſhall vnder their ſeales, and ſignes manuell, deliuer one extreat indented in parchment, to euerie of the ſame high collectors, compriſing it in the names of all ſuch perſons, as were aſſigned to leuie the ſaid particular ſums, & the ſums of euerie hundred, wapentake, towne, or other place aforeſaid, with the names and ſurnames of the perſons ſo chargeable, according to the extreat ſo firſt thereof made, as is aforeſaid, & deliuered, and the collector ſo to be aſſigned, ſhall be charged to anſwer the whole ſumme compriſed in the ſaid extreat limited to his collection, as is aforeſaid.

And it is alſo by the ſaid authoritie enacted, that if anie inhabitant, or officer, or whatſoeuer perſon, or perſons charged to, and for the collection, or receipt of anie part, or portion of the ſaid ſubſidie, in anie of the ſaid two yéeres, by anie maner of means, according to this act, or anie perſon, or perſons for themſelues, or as kéeper, gardian, deputie, factor, or attorneie of, and for FINIS.

ANNO MARIAE PRIMO.

Acts made in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter the fift daie of October, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of our moſt gratious ſouereigne ladie, Marie by the grace of God, queene of England, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, and of the church of England and of Ireland, in earth the ſupreme head, and there continued to the one and twentith daie of the ſame moneth, that is to ſaie, in the firſt ſeſſion of the ſame parlement, as followeth.

An act repealing certeine treaſons felonies, and priminire.

The firſt Chapter.

Foraſmuch as the ſtate of euerie king, ruler, and gouernor of anie realme, dominion, or communaltie ſtandeth, and conſiſteth more aſſured by the loue and fauor of the ſubiect toward their ſouereigne ruler, & gouernor, then in the dread and feare of lawes made with rigorous pains, and extréeme puniſhment for not obeieng of their ſouereigne ruler & gouernor: and lawes alſo iuſtlie made for the preſeruation of the common weale without extreme puniſhment or great penaltie, are more often for the moſt part obeied and kept, than lawes and ſtatutes made with great and extreme puniſhments. And in ſpeciall ſuch lawes and ſtatutes ſo made, whereby not onlie the ignorant and rude vnlearned people, but alſo learned, and expert people, minding honeſtie, are often, and manie times trapped, and ſnared, yea, manie times for words onlie without other fact or déed doone or perpetrated. Chap.1.

The quéenes moſt excellent maieſtie, calling to remembrance that manie aſwell honorable & noble perſons, as other of good reputation within this hir graces realme of England, haue of late (for words onlie without other opinion, fact, or déed) ſuffered ſhamefull death, not accuſtomed to nobles, hir highneſſe therefore of hir accuſtomed clemencie, and mercie, minding to auoid and put awaie the occaſion, and cauſe of like chances héereafter to inſue, truſting hir louing ſubiects, will for hir clemencie to them ſhewed, loue, ſerue, and obeie hir grace the more hartilie, and faithfullie, then for dread or feare of paines of bodie: is contented and pleaſed that the ſeueritie of ſuch like extreme, dangerons, and painefull lawes, ſhall be aboliſhed, adnulled, and made fruſtrat, & void.

Be it therefore ordeined, and enacted, by the quéene our ſouereigne ladie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall, and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame: that from henſefoorth none act, déed, or offenſe, being by act of parlement or ſtatute made treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, by words, writing, ciphering, déeds, or otherwiſe, whatſoeuer, ſhall be taken, had, déemed, or adiudged, to be high treaſon petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, but onlie ſuch as be declared, and expreſſed to be treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, in, or by the act of parlement, or ſtatute, made in the fiue & twentith yéere of the reigne of the moſt noble king, of famous memorie king Edward the third, touching, or concerning treaſon, or the declarations of treaſons, and none other. nor that anie paines of death, penaltie, or forfeiture in anie wiſe, inſue, or be to anie offendor or offendors for the dooing or committing anie treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, other than ſuch as be in the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid fiue and twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid king Edward the third, ordeined, and prouided, anie act or acts of parlement, ſtatute or ſtatutes had, or made at anie time heretofore, or after the ſaid fiue and twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Edward the third, or anie other declaration or matter to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act of parlement, or anie thing therein mentioned, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend, to giue anie maner of benefit, aduantage, or commoditie to anie perſon or perſons, being the laſt daie of September laſt paſt, arreſted, or impriſoned for treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, or to anie perſon or perſons, heretofore being indicted of treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, or being outlawed, or atteinted of treaſon, petit treaſon or miſpriſion of treaſon before the ſaid laſt daie of September laſt paſt, or being commanded to kéepe his or their houſe or houſes, or other mens houſes, or otherwiſe excepted out of the quéenes highnes moſt gratious pardon giuen the daie of hir coronation, but that they, & euerie of them, for anie the offenſes before mentioned, perpetrated, committed, or doone by them, or anie of them, before the ſaid laſt daie of September, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, loſſes, and forfeitures of lands, and goods, as in caſes of treaſon, as though this act had neuer béene had ne made, anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all offenſes made felonie, or limited, or appointed to be within the caſe of preminire, by anie act, or acts of parlement, ſtatute, or ſtatutes, made ſithens the firſt daie of the firſt yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, not being felonie before, nor within the caſe of preminire, and alſo all and euerie branch, article, and clauſe mentioned, or in anie wiſe declared in anie of the ſame eſtatutes, concerning the making of anie offenſe or offenſes to be felonie, or within the caſe of preminire, not being felonie, nor within the caſe of preminire before, and all paines and forfeitures concerning the ſame, or anie of them, ſhall from henſeforth be repealed, and vtterlie void, and of none effect.

Seſſio ſecunda anno Mariæ primo, at Weſtminſter by prorogation the foure and twentith daie of October, and there continued and kept to the diſſolution of the ſame, being the ſixt daie of December.

An act declaring the quéenes highneſſe to haue béene borne in a moſt iuſt and lawfull matrimonie, and alſo repealing all acts of parlement, and ſentences of diuorſe had and made to the contrarie.

The firſt Chapter.

Chap.1. FOraſmuch as truth (being of hir owne nature of a moſt excellent vertue, efficacie, force, and working) can not but by proceſſe of time breake out, and ſhew hir ſelfe, howſoeuer for a while ſhe maie by the iniquitie and frailtie of man be ſuppreſſed and kept cloſe: and being reuealed and manifeſted, ought to be imbraced, acknowleged, confeſſed and profeſſed in all caſes, and matters, whatſoeuer, and whomſoeuer they touch or concerne, without reſpect of perſons, but in ſuch caſes and matters ſpeciallie, as whereby the glorie and honor of God, in heauen (who is the author of truth, and truth it ſelfe) is to be ſpeciallie ſet forth, and whereby alſo the honor, dignitie, ſuertie, and preſeruation of the prince, and ruler vnder God in earth, dependeth, and the welfare, profit, and ſpeciall benefit of the vniuerſall people, and bodie of a realme, is to be continued and mainteined.

We your highneſſe moſt louing, faithfull, and obedient ſubiects, vnderſtanding the verie truth of the ſtate of matrimonie betwéene the two moſt excellent princes of moſt worthie memorie, king Henrie the eight, and quéene Katherine, his louing, godlie, and lawfull wife, your highneſſe lawfull father and mother, can not but thinke our ſelfe moſt bounden, both by our dutie of allegiance to your maieſtie, and of conſcience towards God, to ſhew vnto your highneſſe firſt how that the ſame matrimonie, being contracted, ſolemnized, and conſummated, by the agréement and aſſent of both their moſt noble parents, by the counſell and aduiſe of the moſt wiſe and graueſt men of both their realmes, by the deliberate and mature conſideration and conſent of the beſt and moſt notable men in learning in thoſe daies of chriſtendome, did euen ſo continue by the ſpace of twentie yéeres, and more betwéene them, to the pleaſure of almightie God, and ſatiſfaction of the world, the ioy and comfort of all the ſubiects of this realme, and to their owne repoſe and good contentment, God giuing for a ſure token and teſtimonie of his good acceptation of the ſame, not onelie godlie frute, your higneſſe moſt noble perſon (whome we beſéech the almightie and euerliuing God, long to proſper and preſerue here amongſt vs) and other iſſue alſo, whome it hath pleaſed God to take out of this tranſitorie life, vnto his eternall glorie, but alſo ſending vs a happie floriſhing, and moſt proſperous commonwealth in all things: and then afterward, how that the malitious, and peruerſe affections of ſome (a verie few perſons) enuieng the great felicitie, wherein by the goodneſſe of God your ſaid moſt noble father and mother, and all their good ſubiects liued and continued in manie yéeres, did for their owne ſingular glorie, and vaine reputation conceiue ſundrie ſubtill and diſloiall practiſes, for the interruption & breach of the ſaid moſt lawfull and godlie concord. And trauelling to put the ſame in vre, deuiſed firſt to inſinuat a ſcruple into the king your fathers conſcience, of an vnlawfull mariage betwéene him and his moſt lawfull wife the quéene,your highneſſe mother,pretending for the ground thereof, that the ſame was againſt the word of God , and thereupon ceaſed not to perſuade continuallie vnto the ſaid king your father,that he could not without danger of the loſſe of his ſoule,continue with his ſaid moſt lawfull wife,but muſt be ſeparated and diuorſed from hir. And to this intent cauſed the ſeales, as well of certeine vniuerſities in Italie and France, to be gotten (as it were for a teſtimonie) by the corruption with monie of a few light perſons, ſcholers of the ſame vniuerſities, as alſo the ſeales of the vniuerſities of this realme to be obteined by great trauell, ſiniſter working, ſecret threatnings,and intreatings of ſome men of authoritie,ſpeciallie ſent at that time thither for the ſame purpoſes, and how that finallie Thomas Cranmer then newlie made archbiſhop of Canturburie, moſt vngodlie and againſt all lawes,equitie,and conſcience, proſecuting the ſaid wicked deuiſe of diuorſe,and ſeparation of the ſaid king your father,and quéene your mother,called before him ex officio, the hearing of the ſaid matter of mariage, and taking his foundation partlie vpon his owne vnaduiſed iudgement of the ſcripture, ioining therewith the pretended teſtimonies of the ſaid vniuerſities,and partlie vpon bare and moſt vntrue coniectures,gathered and admitted by him vpon matters of no ſtrength or effect,but onlie by ſuppoſall,and without admitting or hearing anie thing that could be ſaid by the quéene your mother, or by anie other on hir behalfe, in the abſence of the ſaid late quéene your mother,procéeded,pronounced,diſcerned,declared,and gaue ſentence, the ſame moſt lawfull and vndoubted matrimonie to be naught, & to be contracted againſt Gods law,and of no value,but lacking the ſtrength of the law. And the ſaid moſt noble king your father, and the ſaid noble quéene your mother,ſo maried togither, did ſeparat, and diuorſe, and the ſame your moſt noble father king Henrie the eight, and the ſaid noble quéene your mother, from the bands of the ſame moſt lawfull matrimonie, did pronounce and declare by the ſame his vnlawfull ſentence,to be frée diſcharged and ſet at libertie. Which ſentence and iudgement ſo giuen by vnlawfull and corrupt means and waies, by the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie, was afterwards vpon certeine affections ratified and confirmed by two ſeuerall acts, the one made in the fiue and twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid king your highneſſe father,and intituled, an act declaring the ſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie of the imperiall crowne of this realme.The other act of parlement made in the eight and twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid king your highneſſe father,intituled,an act for the ſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the imperiall crowne of the realme. In the which ſaid two acts was conteined the illegitimations of your moſt noble perſon,which your ſaid moſt noble perſon being borne in ſo ſolemne a mariage,ſo openlie approued in the world, and with ſo good faith both firſt contracted, and alſo by ſo manie yéeres continued betwéene your moſt noble parents, and the ſame mariage in verie déed not being prohibited by the law of God,could not by anie reaſon or equitie in this caſe be ſo ſpotted . And now we your highneſſe ſaid moſt louing,faithfull and obedient ſubiects, of a godlie hart and true meaning,fréelie and franklie,without feare,fanſie, or anie other corrupt motion or ſenſuall affection, conſidering that this foreſaid mariage had his beginning of God,and by him was continued,and therefore was euer and is to be taken for a moſt true, iuſt, lawfull,and to all reſpects,a ſincere and perfect mariage, nor could ne ought by anie mans power, authoritie or iuriſdiction, be diſſolued, broken or ſeparated, (for whome God ioineth, no man can ne ought to put aſunder) and conſidering alſo,how during the ſame mariage in godlie concord,the realme in all degrées floriſhed to the glorie of God,the honor of the prince, and the great reputation of the ſubiects of the ſame, and on the other ſide vnderſtanding manifeſtlie that the ground of the ſaid deuiſe, and practiſe for the diuorſe,procéeded firſt of malice and vaine glorie,and after was proſecuted and followed of fond affection and ſenſuall fantaſie, and finallie executed and put in effect by corruption, ignorance and flatterie: and féeling to our great ſorow, domage,and regret,how ſhamefull ignominies,rebukes, ſlanders,contempts,yea,what death,peſtilence,wars,diſobediences,rebellions,inſurrections, and diuers other great and gréeuous plagues,God of his iuſtice hath ſent vpon vs, euer ſithens this ſaid vngodlie purpoſe was firſt begun and practiſed, but alſo ſéeing euidentlie before our eies, that vnleſſe ſo great an iniuſtice as this hath béene,and yet continueth, be redubbed, and that the ſaid falſe and wrongfull proceſſe, iudgement and ſentence, with their dependences be repealed and reuoked, nothing is leſſe to be doubted, than that greater plagues and ſtrokes are like to increaſe,and continue dailie more and more within this realme, do beſéech your moſt excellent maieſtie,as well in reſpect of your owne honor, dignitie, and iuſt title,as for truths ſake, wherewith (we doubt not) but your highneſſe alſo will be ſpeciallie moued in conſcience, and alſo for the entire loue, fauor and affection, which your maieſtie beareth to the commonwealth of this your realme,and for the good peace,vnitie,and reſt of vs your moſt bounden ſubiects,and our poſteritie, that it maie be enacted by your highneſſe with the conſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled.

And be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and euerie decrée, ſentence and iudgement of diuorſe, and ſeparation betwéene the ſaid king your father, and the ſaid late quéene your mother,& all the proceſſe commenſed,followed,giuen, made or promulged by the ſaid Thomas Cranmer then archbiſhop of Canturburie, or by anie other perſon or perſons whatſoeuer,wherby the ſame moſt iuſt,pure, & lawfull mariage, betwixt the ſaid late king your father & the ſaid late quéene your mother was or is pronounced, or in anie wiſe declared to be vnlawfull, or vniuſt, or againſt the law of God, be and ſhall be from the beginning, and from henſefoorth of no force, validitie, or effect, but be vtterlie naught, void, fruſtrat, and adnihilat to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if the ſame had neuer béene giuen or pronounced.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well the ſaid act of parlement, intituled, an act declaring the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie of the imperiall crowne of this realme, made in the fiue and twentith yéere of the reigne of the king your father, be repealed, and be void and of none effect, as alſo all and euerie ſuch clauſes, articles, branches, and matters conteined and expreſſed in the foreſaid act of parlement, made in the ſaid eight and twentith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king your father, or in anie other act or acts of parlement, as whereby your highneſſe is named or declared to be illegitimat, or the ſaid mariage betwéene the ſaid king your father, and the ſaid quéene your mother, is declared to be againſt the word of God, or by anie means vnlawfull, ſhall be, and be repealed, and be void and of no force nor effect, to all intents, conſtructions & purpoſes, as if the ſame ſentence, or acts of parlement had neuer bin had ne made. And that the ſaid mariage had & ſolemnized betwixt your ſaid moſt noble father king Henrie & your ſaid moſt noble mother quéene Katharine, ſhall be diffinitiuelie, cléerelie, and abſolutelie declared, déemed, & adiudged to be and ſtand with Gods law & his moſt holie word, and to be accepted, reputed, and taken of good effect and validitie, to all intents and purpoſes.

An act for the repeale of certeine ſtatutes made in the time of the reigne of king Edward the ſixt.

Chap.3. FOraſmuch as by diuers and ſeuerall acts héereafter mentioned, as well the diuine ſeruice and good adminiſtration of the ſacraments, as diuers other matters of religion, (which we and our forefathers found in this church of England to vs left, by the authoritie of the catholike church) be partlie altered and in ſome part taken from vs, and in place thereof new things imagined and ſet foorth by the ſaid acts, ſuch as a few of ſingularitie haue of themſelues deuiſed, whereof hath inſued amongſt vs in verie ſhort time numbers of diuers and ſtrange opinions and diuerſities of ſects, and thereby growen great vnquietneſſe and much diſcord, to the great diſturbance of the commonwealth of this realme, and in verie ſhort time like to grow to extreme perill and vtter confuſion of the ſame, vnleſſe ſome remedie be in that behalfe prouided, which thing all true louing and obedient ſubiects, ought, and are bounden to foreſée and prouide to the vttermoſt of their power.

In conſideration whereof, be it enacted & eſtabliſhed by the quéenes highnes, the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this ſame preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that an act made in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the fourth daie of Nouember, in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the late king Edward the ſixt, and from thenſe continued to the foure and twentith daie of December then next inſuing; that is to ſaie, in the firſt ſeſſion of the ſame parlement, intituled, an act againſt ſuch perſons as ſhould vnreuerentlie ſpeake againſt the ſacrament of the bodie and bloud of Chriſt, commonlie called the ſacrament of the altar, and for the receiuing thereof in both kinds, and alſo an other act in the ſame ſeſſion, which is intituled, an act for the election of biſhops, & what ſeales & ſtiles they and other ſpirituall perſons exerciſing iuriſdiction eccleſiaſticall ſhould vſe. And alſo one other act made in one other ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter, the fourth daie of Nouember, in the ſecond yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Edward the ſixt, and there continued and kept to the fouretéenth daie of March, in the third yéere of the ſaid late kings reigne, intituled, an act for the vniformitie of ſeruice, & adminiſtration of the ſacraments throughout the realme. And alſo one other act made in the ſeſſion laſt before mentioned, which is intituled, an act to take awaie all poſitiue lawes made againſt the mariage of préeſts. And alſo one other act made in one other ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter, the fourth daie of Nouember, in the third yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Edward the ſixt, and there continued and kept to the firſt daie of Februarie in the fourth yéere of his reigne, intituled, an act for the aboliſhing and putting awaie of diuers books and images. And alſo one other act made in the ſame ſeſſion laſt before mentioned, intituled, an act made for the ordering of the eccleſiaſticall miniſters. And alſo one other act made in one other ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the thrée and twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the fift yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Edward the ſixt, and there continued and kept, till the fiftéenth daie of Aprill in the ſixt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king, intituled, an act for the vniformitie of common praier, and the adminiſtration of the ſacraments. And one other act made in the ſame laſt ſeſſion, intituled, an act for the kéeping of holie daies and faſting daies. And one other act made in the ſeſſion laſt recited, intituled, an act made for the declaration of a ſtatute made for the mariages of préeſts, and for the legitimation of their children, and euerie clauſe, ſentence, branch, article and articles, mentioned, expreſſed, or conteined in the ſaid eſtatutes, and in euerie of them, ſhall be from henſefoorth vtterlie repealed, void, and adnihilat, and of none effect, to all purpoſes, conſtructions and intents, anie thing or things conteined or ſpecified in the ſaid eſtatutes, or anie of them to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch diuine ſeruice and adminiſtration of ſacraments, as were moſt commonlie vſed in the realme of England, in the laſt yéere of the reigne of our late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, ſhall be from, and after the twentith daie of December, in this preſent yéere of our Lord God 1553, vſed and frequented through the whole realme of England, and all other the quéenes maieſties dominions. And that no other kind nor order of diuine ſeruice, nor adminiſtration of ſacraments, be after the ſaid twentith daie of December, vſed, or miniſtred in anie other maner, forme, or degrée, within the ſaid realme of England, or other the quéens dominions, than was moſt commonlie vſed, miniſtred, and frequented in the ſaid laſt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon ſhall be impeached, or moleſted, in bodie, or goods, for vſing héeretofore, or vntill the ſaid 20 daie of December, the diuine ſeruice mentioned in the ſaid acts, or anie of them, nor for the vſing of the old diuine ſeruice and adminiſtration of ſacraments, in ſuch maner and forme, as was vſed in the church of England, before the making of anie of the ſaid acts.

An act againſt offendors of preachers, and other miniſters in the church.

Chap.3.

Forasmuch as it is moſt neceſſarie in euerie chriſtian commonwealth, to prouide that tranquilitie and peace maie be preſerued and continued amongſt the people, and ſpeciallie in holie church, in the time of diuine ſeruice, and adminiſtration of the ſacraments, and ſacramentals, as before this time it hath béene accuſtomed in holie church within this realme, and that all things being contrarie therevnto, or that are, or maie be in diſturbance thereof, maie by foreſight be eſchued and auoided, and remedie therefore in due time prouided, aſwell for the preſeruation of the quéenes highneſſe peace, as for an vniuerſall quietneſſe, and order to be vſed within this realme.

Be it therefore enacted by the quéene our ſouereigne ladie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons of their owne power and authoritie, at anie time or times after the twentith day of December next comming, doo, or ſhall willinglie, and of purpoſe, by open and ouert word, fact, act, or déed, maliciouſlie, or contemptuouſlie, moleſt, let, diſturbe, vexe, or trouble, or by anie other vnlawfull waies, or meanes, diſquiet, or miſuſe anie preacher or preachers, that now is, or that at anie time or times héereafter ſhall be licenſed, allowed, or authorized to preach by the quéens highneſſe, or by anie archbiſhop, or biſhop of this realme, or by anie other lawfull ordinarie, or by anie of the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or otherwiſe lawfullie authorized or charged by reaſon of his or their cure, benefice, or other ſpirituall promotion or charge, in anie of his or their open ſermon, preaching, or collation, that he or they ſhall make, declare, preach, or pronounce in anie church, chapell, churchyard, or in anie other place or places, vſed, frequented, or appointed, or that héereafter ſhall be vſed or appointed to be preached in.

Or if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twentith daie of December next comming, ſhall maliciouſlie, willinglie, or of purpoſe, moleſt, let, diſturbe, vexe, diſquiet, or otherwiſe trouble anie parſon, vicar, pariſh préeſt, or curat, or anie lawfull préeſt, preparing, ſaieng, dooing, ſinging, miniſtring, or celebrating the maſſe, or other ſuch diuine ſeruice, ſacraments, ſacramentals, as was moſt commonlie frequented and vſed in the laſt yéere of the reigne of the late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, or that at anie time héereafter ſhall be allowed, ſet foorth, or authorized by the quéenes maieſtie.

Or if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time or times, after the ſaid twentith daie of December, ſhall contemptuouſlie, vnlawfullie, or maliciouſlie, of their owne power or authoritie, pull downe, deface, ſpoile, abuſe, breake, or otherwiſe vnreuerentlie handle, or order the moſt bleſſed, comfortable, and holie ſacrament of the bodie and bloud of our ſauior Ieſus Chriſt, commonlie called the ſacrament of the altar, being, or that ſhall be in any church or chapell, or in anie other decent place, or the pix or canapie, wherein the ſame ſacrament is, or ſhall be, or vnlawfullie, contemptuouſlie, or maliciouſlie, of their owne power and authoritie, pull downe, deface, ſpoile, or otherwiſe breake anie altar or altars, or anie crucifix, or croſſe, that now, or héereafter ſhall be in anie church, chapell, or churchyard. That then euerie ſuch offendor and offendors in anie the premiſſes, his or their aider, procurer, or abbettor, aiders, procurers, or abbettors, immediatlie, and foorthwith, after anie of the ſaid act or acts, or other the ſaid miſdemeanors ſo committed, doone, or made, or anie time or times after, ſhall be apprehended, arreſted, and taken by anie conſtable or conſtables, churchwarden or churchwardens of the ſaid pariſh, towne, or place where the ſaid offenſe or offenſes ſhall be ſo committed, made, or doone, or by anie other officer or officers, or by anie other perſon or perſons, then being preſent, at the time of the ſaid offenſe or offenſes ſo vnlawfullie committed, made, or doone. Which perſon or perſons ſo apprehended, taken, or arreſted, with conuenient ſpéed, ſhall be brought and carried to anie iuſtice of peace within the ſaid ſhire, or within anie citie, borough, libertie, or towne corporat, wherein iuſtices of peace be, where the ſaid offenſe or offenſes ſhall be ſo committed, doone, and made, and that the ſaid iuſtice of peace, vpon due accuſation therevpon had and made by the apprehendor or apprehendors, or other perſon or perſons or anie of the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo offending, foorthwith ſhall commit the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo apprehended, arreſted, and taken to ſafe kéeping and cuſtodie, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtice ſhall be thought moſt méet and conuenient, and within ſix daies next and immediatlie after the ſaid accuſation ſo had and made to the ſaid iuſtice, the ſaid iuſtice, with one other iuſtice of peace in the ſaid ſhire, citie, borough, row, libertie, or towne corporat, ſhall diligentlie examine the act or acts, offenſe or offenſes aforeſaid. And if they the ſaid two iuſtices of peace, ſhall vpon their ſaid examination, find or perceiue the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo accuſed, giltie of anie of the ſaid offenſe or offenſes, whereof he or they ſhall be ſo accuſed, and that by two ſufficient witneſſes, or by his or their owne confeſſion or confeſſions, that then, and immediatlie with conuenient ſpéed, the ſaid two iuſtices ſhall commit and award the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo accuſed, as is aforeſaid to the gaole, of or for the ſaid ſhire, citie, borough, libertie, or towne corporat, where the ſaid offenſe or offenſes was ſo committed, made or doone, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, by the ſpace of thrée moneths, then next inſuing, and further to the next quarter ſeſſions, to be holden within the ſaid ſhire, citie, borough, libertie, or towne corporat, next after the end of the ſaid thrée moneths, at which ſaid quarter ſeſſions, the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo committed to the gaole, as is aforeſaid, vpon his or their reconciliation, ⁊ repentance in that behalfe, before the ſaid iuſtices of peace, at the ſaid ſeſſions, ſhall be deliuered, and diſcharged out of priſon and gaole, vpon ſufficient ſuretie of his good abearing and behauior, to be then and there taken by the ſaid iuſtices for one whole yéere, then next inſuing, as by the diſcretion or diſcretions of the ſaid iuſtices, then, ⁊ there being, or of the more part of them, ſhall be thought méet and conuenient. And if the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo in gaole, as is aforeſaid, will not be reconciled, and repent at the ſaid quarter ſeſſions, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons immediatlie in time conuenient, ſhall be further awarded and committed to the ſaid gaole, by the ſaid iuſtices, or by the more part of them, there to remaine, without baile or mainpriſe, vntill he or they ſo committed and awarded to gaole, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be reconciled, and be penitent for his or their ſaid offenſe or offenſes.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time or times, after the ſaid twentith daie of December, of their owne authoritie and power, willinglie and vnlawfullie doo reſcue anie offendor or offendors ſo apprehended, taken or arreſted, as is aforeſaid, or will diſturbe, hinder, or let the ſaid offendor or offendors ſo offending, as is aforeſaid, to be apprehended, taken, or arreſted, that then euerie one of the ſaid reſcuers or diſturbers, ſhall ſuffer like impriſonment, as is aforeſaid, and further ſhall paie, forfeit, and looſe for a fine, for euerie of his or their ſaid offenſes fiue pounds to the quéenes maieſtie hir heirs and ſucceſſors.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the offendors aforeſaid, be not taken, apprehended, or arreſted immediatlie in time conuenient, as is aforeſaid, but doo eſcape, or go awaie, that then the ſaid eſcape ſhalbe lawfullie preſented before the iuſtices of peace in the ſaid ſhire, citie, borough, libertie, or towne corporat, at the next quarter ſeſſions to be holden, where the ſaid eſcape was made and ſuffered, and that then the inhabitants of the pariſh, where the ſaid eſcape was ſo ſuffered, ſhall forfeit ⁊ looſe to the quéens maieſtie, hir heirs, and ſucceſſors, for euerie ſuch eſcape fiue pounds, to be leuied and taken as other like amerciaments ⁊ fines before this time hath, and bée leuied and taken vpon anie village, hundred, or towne, for the eſcape of anie murderer, or other felon, for not making purſute vpon hue and crie according to the eſtatute of Wincheſter, and the eſtatute made ⁊ prouided in the third yéere of the worthie king Henrie the ſeuenth.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular iuſtices of peace, iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of Oier & determiner, and all and ſingular maiors, bailifs, and iuſtices of peace, within the citie, borough, or towne corporat, in anie parts within this realme, within the limits of their commiſſion or commiſſions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act after the ſaid twentith daie of December, to inquire of all and ſingular the offenſes and miſdemenors aforeſaid, and to heare and determine the ſame, and to ſet the fines and amerciaments of the ſaid offendor or offendors, as is aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to abrogat, and take awaie the authoritie, iuriſdiction, power, and puniſhments of the eccleſiaſticall lawes, now ſtanding ⁊ remaining in their force, of or for the puniſhment of anie the offenſes and miſdemenors aforeſaid, but that the authoritie, power, iuriſdictions, and puniſhments of the ſaid eccleſiaſticall lawes, of and for anie of the offenſes and miſdemeanors aforeſaid, ſhall ſtand in full power and ſtrength, and to be vſed and exerciſed in all, and in euerie thing, as though this act had neuer béene had and made. That preſent act, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie héereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that whatſoeuer perſon offending in the premiſſes, ſhall for anie of the offenſes afore recited, receiue puniſhment of the ordinarie, hauing a teſtimoniall thereof, vnder the ſaid ordinaries ſeale, ſhall not for the ſame offenſe, eftſoones be conuicted before the iuſtice: and in likewiſe receiuing for the ſaid offenſes, puniſhment by the iuſtice, he ſhall not for the ſame offenſe eftſoones receiue puniſhment of the ordinarie: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act touching writings made from the ſixt daie of Iulie laſt paſt, and before the firſt daie of Auguſt, then next inſuing.

Chap.4. WHere it hath pleaſed almightie God, the ſixt day of Iulie laſt paſt, to call out of this tranſitorie life vnto his mercie, our late ſoucreigne lord king Edward the ſixt, by and immediatlie after whoſe deceſſe, the imperiall crowne of this realme, with all the dignities, dominions, honours, preheminences, prerogatiues, ſtiles, authorities, and iuriſdictions, to the ſame vnited,annexed,or belonging,did not onlie diſcend,remaine,and come vnto our moſt dread ſouereigne ladie the quéenes maieſtie, but alſo the ſame was then immediatlie and lawfullie inueſted,déemed,and iudged in hir highnes moſt roiall perſon,by the due courſe of inheritance, and by the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme. Neuertheleſſe, the ſame hir highneſſe moſt lawfull poſſeſſion was for a time diſturbed and diſquieted by the traiterous rebellion and vſurpation of the ladie Iane Dudleie, wife vnto Guilford Dudleie eſquire, otherwiſe called the ladie Iane Greie,and other hir complices,during the time of the which ſaid rebellion and vſurpation, diuers eſtatutes,recogniſances,indentures,obligations,acquitances,grants,patents,euidences, and other writings were made and deuiſed betwéene,and to ſundrie of the ſubiects of this realme,wherevpon diuers queſtions,ſutes and doubts maie héereafter ariſe, grow and inſue to manie of the quéenes highneſſe true louing ſubiects. For the auoiding of all which ambiguities and doubts, which by reaſon thereof maie be ſtirred or moued.

Be it ordeined and enacted,that all eſtatutes,recogniſances,indentures, and other writings, whatſoeuer,knowledged or made, by,or to anie perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, being the quéenes ſubiects, ſince the firſt daie of Iulie laſt paſt, and before the firſt daie of Auguſt, then next following, vnder the name of the reigne of anie other perſon, than vnder the name of our ſouereigne ladie the quéene,ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law, to all intents, purpoſes, conſtructions,and meanings,as if vpon the making thereof,the name of our ſouereigne ladie the quéenes maieſtie with hir ſtile appropriat, and vnited vnto hir maieſties imperiall crowne, had béene fullie and plainlie expreſſed and conteined in the ſame obligations, recogniſances, indentures,eſtatutes and other writings,and that the ſame obligations, recogniſances, indentures, eſtatutes,and other writings,ſhall and maie be ſued and miniſtred in bar,exhibited, auerred, vſed, and pleaded in the name,title,and ſtile of our ſouereigne ladie the quéenes maieſtie,in ſuch and the ſame maner and forme,as though the name of the ſame our ſouereigne ladie the quéene, with hir graces vſuall ſtile had beene expreſſed,written,and conteined in the ſame,the lacke of the naming or mentioning of the name of our ſouereigne ladie the quéene,of hir maieſties ſtile, in the date or time of the making of the ſaid eſtatutes,recogniſances,indentures,and other writings in the ſaid eſtatutes,recogniſances or other writings,in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Chap.5.

Where at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the foure and twentith daie of Iulie, in the two & thirtith yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the eight, it was enacted that no maner of perſon nor perſons,ſhould from thenſeforth ſue, haue, or mainteine anie writ of right, or make anie preſcription, title, or claime,of,to,or for anie manors,lands,tenements,rents,annuities,commons, penſions,portions,corrodies,or other hereditaments of the poſſeſſion of his or their anceſtor, or predeceſſor,and declare and alleage anie further ſeizon or poſſeſſion of his or their anceſtor or predeceſſor,but onelie of the ſeizon or poſſeſſion of his anceſtor or predeceſſor,which hath béene or then was or ſhall be ſeized of the ſaid manors,lands,tenements,rents,annuities,commons,penſions, portions,corrodies, or other hereditaments, within thrée ſcore yéeres next before the teſt of the ſame writ,or next before the ſaid preſcription,title or claime,ſued,commenſed,brought,made, or had after the making of the ſame act.

And where alſo it was further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, amongſt other things, that no perſon or perſons ſhould after that make anie auowrie or cogniſance for anie rent, ſute or ſeruice,and alleage anie ſeaſon of anie rent, ſute, or ſeruice in the ſame auowrie or cogniſance in the poſſeſſion of his or their anceſtors,or predeceſſor or predeceſſors,or in his owne poſſeſſion,or in the poſſeſſion of anie other, whoſe eſtate he ſhould after that pretend or claime, to haue aboue fiftie yéeres next before the making of the ſaid auowrie or cogniſance.

And where by the ſame act it was alſo further enacted amongſt other things,that if anie perſon or perſons,at anie time after that,did ſue anie of the ſaid actions or writs,for anie manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments,or make anie auowrie,cogniſance,preſcription,title or claime, of,or for anie rent,ſute,ſeruice,or other hereditaments,and could not proue that he or they,or his, or their anceſtors,or predeceſſors were in actuall poſſeſſion or ſeaſon, of, and in the ſame manors, lands,tenements,rents, ſutes, ſeruices, annuities, commons,penſions,portions,corrodies,or other hereditaments, at anie time or times, within the yéeres before limited and appointed in the ſame act, in maner and forme as is aforeſaid, that if the ſame ſeaſon were trauerſed or denied by the partie plaintife demandant or auowant, or by the partie tenant or defendant, that then,and after ſuch triall therein had, all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, and their heires, ſhould from thenceforth be vtterlie barred for euer,of all and euerie the ſaid writs, actions, auowries, cogniſance,preſcription,title & claime after that to be ſued,had,or made,of,& for the ſame manors,lands, tenements,hereditaments,or other premiſſes,or anie part of the ſame, for the which the ſame action,writ,auowrie,cogniſance,preſcription,title or claime that ſhould at anie time be had, ſued, or made, vpon which ſaid act, doubt and ambiguitie hath riſen, and béene moued whether A writ of right,of aduouſon,a quare impedit,iure patronatus,or aſſiſe darrenpreſentment, maie be mainteined by anie perſon or perſons,bodies politike or corporat,where as the ſame perſon or perſons,bodies politike or corporat,their anceſtor or predeceſſor,or he or they by whome he or they doo claime, cannot laie the eſſples ſeizon, or preſentment in him or their ſelues, or the anceſtor or predeceſſor of them or anie of them,or in him or them,by whom he or they doo claime, within thrée ſcore yéeres next before the teſt of the ſame writ of aduouſon, quare impedit, or aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment, and iure patronatus. And alſe whether anie perſon or perſons,bodies politike or corporat, hauing a ſeignorie by reaſon of anie caſtels,honors,manors,lands,tenements or hereditaments, of him or them holden by knights ſeruice,maie mainteine a writ of right or ward, or a writ of rauiſhment ward for anie caſtles, honors, manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments , holden by knights ſeruice,or for the bodie of anie ward that he or they claime by reaſon of any ſuch tenure by knights ſeruice,whereas he or they haue not béene ſeized of the ſame ſeruices,within thrée ſcore yéeres next before the teſt of anie ſuch writs. For the explanation and plaine declaration whereof,and in auoiding of the ſaid ambiguities and doubts.

Be it enacted and declared by the quéenes highneſſe,with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid former act made in the ſaid two and thirtith yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie,or anie article,clauſe,ſentence or matter therein conteined, ſhall not extend to anie writ of right of aduowſon,quare impedit,or aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment,nor iure patronatus,nor to any writ of right of ward,writ of rauiſhment of ward,for the wardſhip of the body,or for the wardſhip of anie caſtles,honors,manors,lands,tenements,or hereditaments holden by knights ſeruice nor to the ſeizer of the wardſhip of the bodie of any ward or wards,or to the ſeizer or wardſhip of anie caſtles honors.manors,lands,tenements,or hereditaments holden by knights ſeruice,but that all and euerie perſon & perſons,bodies politike and corporat, their heires & ſucceſſors, the heires & ſucceſſors of euerie of them,ſhall & maie haue, mainteine and purſue all and ſingular the ſeid writs of right,of aduowſon, quare impedit, aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment, iure patronatus, writs of right of ward,rauiſhment of ward,& alſo ſeize the wardſhip both of the bodie and of the caſtles,honors,manors.lands,tenements,& hereditaments holden by knights ſeruice in like maner and forme,to all intents,conſtructions,& purpoſes,as they or any of them ſhould or might haue doone,made,or purſued before the making of the ſaid act made in the ſaid two and thirtith yéere,as though the ſame act had neuer béene had or made,anie thing in the ſaid former act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act againſt counterfeiting of ſtrange coines being currant within this realme, or of the queenes highneſſe ſigne manuell,ſignet,or priuie ſeale.

Chap.6. FOrasmuch as by the lawes of this realme, ſmall and no due and condigne puniſhment is at this preſent time prouided for ſuch euill diſpoſed perſons as ſhall counterfeit or forge ſuch kind of gold or ſiluer of other realmes, as is not the proper coine of this realme,and yet permitted and ſuffered by the quéene our ſoueraigne ladies conſent,and héeretofore hath béene permitted and ſuffered by the conſent of hir moſt noble progenitors, to be currant in paiment,within this hir realme, nor for ſuch perſons as ſhall counterfeit the quéenes highneſſe ſigne manuell, hir priuie ſignet or priuie ſeale. By reaſon whereof, diuers euill diſpoſed perſons are incouraged & boldened dailie to perpetrat and commit the ſaid ſeuerall offenſes.

For remedie whereof,be it enacted by our ſaid ſoueraigne ladie the quéene, the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame,that if anie perſon or perſons héereafter,falſlie forge and counterfeit anie ſuch kind of coine of gold or ſiluer, as is not the proper coine of this realme, and is,or ſhall be currant within this realme by the conſent of the quéene hir heires or ſucceſſors. Or if anie perſon or perſons at anie time héereafter doo falſlie forge or counterfeit the quéenes ſigne manuell, priuie ſignet, or priuie ſeale,that then euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be déemed and iudged high treaſon,and the offendors therein,their counſellors,procurors, aiders, and abettors, being conuict according to the lawes of this realme, of anie of the ſaid offenſes, ſhall be likewiſe déemed and adiudged traitors againſt the quéene,hir heires and ſucceſſors,and the realme,and ſhall ſuffer and haue ſuch pains of death, forfeiture of lands.goods and chattels, and alſo looſe the priuilege of all ſanctuarie,as in caſe of high treaſon it is vſed and ordeined.

An act touching proclamations vpon fines.

Chap.7. WHere as vpon fines leuied with proclamations,doubts haue of late riſen by occaſion of adiornment of termes,in which proclamations ſhould haue bin made according to the forme, limited for proclamations vpon fines,by the ſtatute made in the fourth yéere of king Henrie the ſeuenth,and were not by reaſon of ſuch adiornements had, ne made, according to the purueie of the ſame eſtatute.

Be it therefore enacted,that all fines, aſwell héeretofore leuied, as héereafter to be leuied, before the iuſtices of the common place,of anie manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, wherevpon the proclamations hath not, or ſhall not by reaſon of adiurnement of anie terme by writ,be dulie made, ſhall be of as good force, effect, and ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if anie terme héeretofore ſo adiurned, or that at anie time héereafter ſhall be ſo adiurned, hath béene holden and kept from the beginning to the end thereof, not adiurned, and proclamations therein made,according to the forme and effect of the ſaid eſtatute.

Prouided alwaies, that this act ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to anie fine héeretofore leuied of anie manors,lands,tenements,or hereditaments now in ſute, demand,or variance in anie of the quéenes courts,or whereof anie charters,euidences,or muniments concerning the ſame, be now in demand in the quéenes high court of chancerie, nor to anie fine or fines héeretofore leuied, of anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement haue béene recouered, gotten, or obteined by reaſon of anie iudgement, entrie,decrée, arbitrement,or other lawfull means, contrarie to the purport,intent,or effect of anie ſuch fine or fines thereof,héeretofore leuied.

An act that ſhirifs ſhall not be iuſtices of peace during that office.

Chap.8. Where in one act of parlement,intituled,An act for the continuance of actions,after the death of anie king, made in the firſt yéere of our late ſouereigne lord, king Edward the ſixt: amongſt other things, it is ordeined, and enacted, that albeit anie perſon or perſons, being iuſtice of aſſiſe, iuſtice of gaole deliuerie, or iuſtice of peace, within anie of the kings dominions, or being in anie other of the kings commiſſions,whatſoeuer,ſhall fortune to be made duke, archbiſhop,marques, earle,vicount, baron, biſhop, knight, iuſtice of the one bench,or of the other, or ſeriant at the law,or ſhiriffe, yet that notwithſtanding, he and they ſhould remaine iuſtice and commiſſioner, and haue full power and authoritie to execute the ſame,in like maner and forme, as he or they might, or ought to haue doone before the ſame, as in the ſaid act more plainelie appeareth . Sithens the making of the which act, diuerſe perſons being in the commiſſion of the peace in one countie,haue béene made ſhirifs of the ſame countie,and haue exerciſed either of the ſaid offices,which ſéemeth not to be conuenient.

Wherefore be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner of perſon or perſons, hauing, vſing, or exerciſing the office of the ſhiriffe of anie countie or counties, ſhall vſe or exerciſe the office of the iuſtice of the peace,by force of anie commiſſion, or otherwiſe in anie countie or counties, where he or they ſhall be ſhiriffe, during the time onelie, that he or they ſhall vſe or exerciſe the ſaid office or ſhirifwike: anie thing in the ſaid former act to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding . And that all and euerie act and acts, to be doone by anie ſuch ſhiriffe or ſhirifs, by authoritie of anie commiſſion of the peace, during the time aboueſaid,ſhall be void and of none effect: the ſaid former act notwithſtanding.

An act touching the incorporation of the phyſicians in London.

Chap.9. Where as in the parlement holden at London the fiftéenth daie of Aprill , in the fouretéenth yéere of the reigne of our late ſouereigne lord, king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiurned to Weſtminſter the laſt day of Iulie,in the fiftéenth yeere of the ſame king,and there holden: it was enacted,that a certeine grant,by letters patents,of incorporation, made and granted by our ſaid late king, to the phyſicians of London, and all clauſes and articles,conteined in the ſame grant,ſhould be approoued,granted,ratified,and confirmed by the ſame parlement:

And for the better reformation of diuerſe inormities , hapning to the commonwealth , by the euill vſing,and vndue adminiſtration of phyſike,and for the inlarging of further articles for the better execution of the things conteined in the ſaid grant enacted :

Be it therefore now enacted , that whenſoeuer the preſident of the college, or commonaltie of the facultie of phyſike of London, for the time being, or ſuch as the ſaid preſident and college, ſhall yéerelie, according to the tenor and meaning of the ſaid act, authorize to ſearch, examine, correct, and puniſh all offendors & tranſgreſſors, in the ſaid facultie, within the ſame citie and precinct, in the ſaid act expreſſed, ſhall ſend or commit anie ſuch offendor or offendors for his or their offenſes or diſobedience, contrarie to anie article or clauſe conteined in the ſaid grant or act, to anie ward, gaole, or priſon, within the ſame citie and precinct (the Tower of London except) that then from time to time, the warden, gaoler, or kéeper, wardens, gaolers, or kéepers of the wards, gaoles, and priſons, within the citie or precinct aforeſaid (except before excepted) ſhall receiue into his or their priſons, all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, ſo offending, as ſhall be ſo ſent or committed to him or them, as is aforeſaid, and there ſhall ſafelie kéepe the perſon or perſons, ſo committed, in anie of their priſons, at the proper coſts and charges of the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo committed, without baile or mainepriſe, vntill ſuch time, as ſuch offendor or offendors, or diſobedience be diſcharged of the ſaid impriſonment, by the ſaid preſident, and ſuch perſons, as by the ſaid college ſhall be therevnto authorized, vpon paine, that all and euerie ſuch warden, gaoler, or kéeper, dooing the contrarie, ſhall looſe and forfeit the double of ſuch fine and amerciament, as ſuch offendor and offendors, or diſobedients, ſhall be aſſeſſed to paie, by ſuch as the ſaid preſident and college, ſhall authorize, as aforeſaid, ſo that the ſame fine and amerciament, be not at anie one time aboue the ſum of twentie pounds. The moitie thereof to be imploied to the vſe of our ſouereigne ladie the quéene, hir heirs and ſucceſſors, the other moitie vnto the ſaid preſident and college. All which forfeitures to be recouered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the quéens, hir heirs and ſucceſſors, courts of record, againſt anie ſuch warden, gaoler, or kéeper ſo offending. In which ſute no eſſoine, wager of law, nor protection ſhall be allowed, ne admitted for the defendant.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, for the better execution of the ſearch, and view of poticarie wares, drugs, and compoſitions, according to the tenor of a ſtatute made in the 32 yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the eight, that it ſhall be lawfull for the wardens of the grocers, or one of them, to go with the ſaid phyſicians in their view & ſearch, that if the ſaid warden or wardens doo refuſe, or delaie his or their comming thervnto, foorthwith and immediatlie, when the ſaid preſident, or foure of his college elect, as aforeſaid, doo call vpon him or them, that then the ſaid phyſicians, maie and ſhall execute that ſearch, and view, and the due puniſhment of the poticaries, for anie their euill, and faultie ſtuffe, according to the ſtatute laſt before mentioned, without the aſſiſtance of anie of the ſaid wardens. Anie clauſe in the aforenamed ſtatute to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding. And euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as will, or ſhall reſiſt ſuch ſearch, ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch reſiſtance ten pounds: the ſame penaltie to be recouered in forme aforeſaid, without anie of the delaies aforeſaid to be had in ſute thereof.

And further be it enacted, that all iuſtices, maiors, ſhiriffs, bailiffs, conſtables, and other miniſters and officers, within the citie and precincts aboue written, vpon requeſt to them made, ſhall helpe, aid, and aſſiſt the preſident of the ſaid college, and all perſons by them (from time to time) authorized, for the due execution of the ſaid acts or ſtatutes, vpon paine, for not giuing of ſuch aid, helpe, and aſſiſtance, to run in contempt of the quéenes maieſtie, hir heirs and ſucceſſors.

An act for the vniting, diſſoluing, or new erecting of courts.

Chap.10. WHere as in the ſeſſion of the parlement holden, and begun at Weſtminſter the firſt daie of March, in the ſeuenth yéere of the reigne of our late ſouereigne Lord, of moſt famous, and woorthie memorie, king Edward the ſixt, and there continued to the diſſolution of the ſame, being the laſt day of the ſaid moneth of March, amongſt other acts it was enacted by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that the kings maieſtie, ſhould, or might at anie time, during his naturall life, by his graces letters patents, vnder his great ſeale of England, at his moſt gratious will and pleaſure, alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue, or determine, all, or anie of the courts commonlie called the court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne, the court of the firſt frutes and tenths, the court of the kings wards, the court of the generall ſurueiors of the kings lands, and the court of the duchie of Lancaſter, and to reduce the ſame courts or any of them into one, two, or more court or courts, or to vnite and annex the ſaid courts, or anie two or more of them togither, or to anie other his maieſties courts of record, or to erect anie other new court or courts, as to his highneſſe ſhould haue béene thought moſt conuenient, and beſt, for the better, ſurer, and more ſpéedie anſwering of his yéerelie reuenues, caſualties, or profits, anſwerable in the ſaid courts, or in anie of them. And that all and ſingular ſuch alterations, changings, vnitings, annexings, tranſpoſings, diſſoluings, or determinations of the ſaid courts, or of anie of them ſo by his highneſſe to be altered, changed, vnited, annexed, tranſpoſed, diſſolued, or determined, or otherwiſe ſo to haue béene erected by the ſaid king, concerning order for the true paiment of his reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties & profits, as ſhould be ſet foorth, & declared in anie ſuch his letters patents, or writings vnder his great ſeale of England, by his highneſſe to be made, ſet foorth, & declared, ſhould haue béene of ſuch like, and of the ſame force & ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame were, or ſhould haue béene ſet foorth, or declared by the authoritie of parlement, the erection of the ſaid ſeuerall courts, or anie other thing had or made, before the making of the ſaid act, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid act more plainelie it dooth, & maie appeare. Sithens the making of which act, it hath pleaſed almightie God to take vnto his mercie, our ſaid late ſouereigne lord king Edward the ſixt, before any alteration, vniting, tranſpoſing, diſſoluing, or determining of anie of the ſaid courts, by his letters patents, according to the tenor of the ſaid act. In conſideration whereof, & to the intent that the quéens highneſſe may at all times héereafter, during hir highneſſe life (which almightie God long preſerue) alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue, determine, or reduce the ſame courts, or anie of them, into one, two, or more courts at hir highneſſe frée will and pleaſure: be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the quéenes highneſſe ſhall or maie at anie time héereafter, during hir naturall life, by hir graces letters patents, vnder hir great ſeale of England, at hir moſt gratious will and pleaſure, alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue, or determine, all, or anie of the ſaid court, or courts, and to reduce the ſame courts, or anie of them, into one, two, or more court or courts, or to vnite, and annex the ſaid courts, or anie two or more of them togither, or to anie other of hir maieſties

And that all and ſingular ſuch alterations, changings, vnitings, tranſpoſings, diſſoluings, or determinations of the ſaid courts, or of anie of them ſo to be altered, changed, vnited, annexed, tranſpoſed, diſſolued, or determined, or otherwiſe newlie to be erected, as is aforeſaid, and concerning all and euerie order for the true paiment of the reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, and profits of our ſaid ſouereigne ladie the queene, now anſwerable in the ſaid courts, or in anie of them, as ſhall be ſet forth, and declared in anie ſuch letters patents, or writings vnder hir highnes great ſeale of England, heereafter to be made, ſet forth, & declared, ſhall be of ſuch like, & of the ſame force & ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame were or ſhould haue beene ſet forth, or declared by authoritie of parlement, the ſaid ſeuerall erections, or anie other thing heeretofore had or made to the contrarie heereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the auththoritie aforeſaid, that anie thing conteined, or to be conteined in the ſaid letters patents, heereafter to be made by the queens highneſſe that now is, concerning anie paines, penalties, rules, or orders made, or to be made for the leuieng of the queens reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, or profits, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to charge anie of the queens ſubiects in any other maner or forme than they or anie of them, ought lawfullie to haue bin charged by the lawes of this realme, before the ſecond day of this preſent ſeſſion of parlement.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe extend, or be conſtrued, to take awaie, extinct, or determine from anie perſon or perſons, their heirs, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, or from anie of them, anie fees, annuities, penſions, ſtipends, or annuall paiments, of anie ſums of monie, which they or anie of them of right might or ought lawfullie to haue by anie letters patents, or other ſufficient writing vnder the ſeale of the ſaid court of the augmentations, made before the ſeuenth daie of Iulie laſt paſt, but that all and euerie perſon and perſons, their heirs, ſucceſſors, executors, and aſſignes, and euerie of them, which of right haue, or ought to haue, or heereafter ſhall haue anie fee, annuitie, ſtipend, penſion, or annuall paiment of anie ſum or ſums of monie vnder the ſaid ſeale of the court of the augmentations, or being lawfullie allowed, and paied in the ſame court, ſhall, and maie according to the tenor of the ſame grant, perceiue, take, and receiue the ſame, and ſhall yeerelie thereof be paied of the queenes treaſure, hir heirs, and ſucceſſors, at the daies, & times, compriſed in ſuch letters patents, or other writings, in anie ſuch court or courts, whereunto the ſame court, where the ſame annuities, or yeerelie ſums of monie was paied, ſhall be ſo vnited and annexed, or in ſuch court or courts, as ſhall be by authoritie of this act of parlement newlie erected, and made in the place of anie of the ſaid courts, ſo being diſſolued, as long as the ſame court ſhall remaine, & haue anie being, and after in ſuch court or courts, as ſhall pleaſe the queene newlie to erect, by the hands of the officers of the ſame court, and for default thereof, in any of the queenes courts, wherein ſufficient reuenue ſhall be to anſwer the ſame of the queenes treaſure, there by the hands of the officers of the ſame court, in ſuch like maner and forme, as the ſame perſon and perſons, their heirs, executors, and aſſignes, or anie of them, ſhould or might haue doone, or beene paied in anie other place or court, if this act had neuer beene or made, anie thing in this act conteined, or any other thing heereafter to be doone by reaſon, colour, or authoritie of this act, to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding.

An act for the ſale of hats and caps made beyond the ſea.

Chap.11. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter,in the one and twentith yéere of the reigne of our late ſoucreigne lord, king Henrie the eight, father vnto our ſoucreigne ladie the quéene. It was amongſt other things ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted,that no maner of perſon nor perſons,whatſoeuer he or they were, ſhould from the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie then next following, after the making of the ſaid act, ſell, or cauſe to be ſold within this realme of England,to anie perſon or perſons, anie wollen hats or bonets, or wollen hat or cap, made,or to be made, in anie place or places,out of this relme of England,in anie of the parties beyond the ſea,ouer and aboue the priſes limited in the ſaid act, that is to ſaie, that no ſuch cap or bonet, ſhould be ſold aboue the ſum of two ſhillings ſterling: and that no ſuch hat ſhould be ſold aboue the ſum of ten penſe: and that no ſuch ſingle crowned cap,nor ſingle night cap ſhould be ſold aboue the ſum of ſix penſe, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch bonet, cap, or hat, that at anie time after the ſaid feaſt ſhould be ſold ouer the priſe abouesaid, contrarie to the tenor of the ſaid act fortie ſhillings ſterling,as by the ſaid act more at large doth appeare.

Since the making of which act,for lacke and want of the due execution of the ſame,great number and plentie of the ſaid bonets,hats, and caps, haue béene, and yet be ſold within this realme, at great and vnreaſonable priſes,much ouer and aboue the priſes limited and appointed by the ſaid act, not onelie to the great and manifeſt deceit of the commons of this realme,but alſo to the great impoueriſhment of the ſubiects of the ſame.

Wherefore be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the quéenes highneſſe, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame,that the ſaid act made in the ſaid one and twentith yéere,and euerie thing,article,clauſe, branch,and prouiſo therein mentioned,ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength,force,and effect.

And for the better, and more perfect, due, and iuſt execution of the ſaid act, héereafter to be had, according to the true meaning and intent of the makers thereof,be it now further by the authoritie aforeſaid, prouided,eſtabliſhed,and enacted, that if anie ſuch bonets, caps,or hats, fortune héereafter to be brought from anie of the parties beyond the ſea, into anie place or places within this realme, or anie the quéenes dominions,after the laſt daie of Maie next comming,that then all ſuch bonets,caps,and hats, ſhall be brought by the owner of them,or his ſeruant, to the cuſtomer,or cuſtomers of euerie citie,borough,towne,place,or port within this realme,where ſuch hats or bonets ſhall be laid on land , or diſcharged, there to enter into the cuſtomer or cuſtomers books, the cuſtome for them,and to paie ſuch cuſtome for them,as by the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme,they or anie of them haue vſed, or ought héeretofore to doo, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch caps and hats,as ſhall ſo be brought in,and not preſented to the cuſtomer,as is aforſaid,or the value of them.

And be it further enacted , that no perſon , ſo bringing into this realme , or other the quéenes highneſſe dominions,anie ſuch hats or caps,ſhall in anie wiſe remooue, carrie or conueie ſuch hats and caps, or anie of them, from the place, where they ſhall ſo be laid on land, till ſuch time as they ſhall be ſold,in maner and forme,as is héereafter expreſſed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie hat or cap remooued or ſold contrarie to the meaning of this act,fortie ſhillings.

And be it enacted, that the cuſtomer or cuſtomers, his or their deputie or deputies,of euerie citie,borough,towne, port, hauen, or créeke, where ſuch bonets, caps or hats ſhall be ſo brought into this realme,or other the quéens dominions ſhall within two daies after the entrie of the ſame caps or hats in the cuſtomers books,giue notice,and make relation of the ſaid hats,bonets,or caps,to the maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, conſtables, reues, or other the chéefe officers of the ſaid cities, boroughs, townes,or ports,and that vpon paine of forfeiture of their offices.

And be it further enacted,that the ſaid cuſtomer or cuſtomers,or their deputie or deputies togither,with the maior , or ſuch other perſon as the maior ſhall aſſigne or appoint, or with the ſhirifs, bailifs, conſtables, reues, or other the chéefe officer or officers of anie ſuch place, or anie of them, where ſuch hats or caps ſhall ſo be laid on land,in the preſence of the owners of them(if they will be preſent,or in their abſence if they will not) ſhall ſell the ſaid bonets, caps and hats, and euerie of them, to ſuch perſon or perſons as will buie them at ſuch priſe and priſes as is limited and appointed by the ſaid act made in the ſaid one and twentith yeere, and not aboue, and ſhall paie and deliuer the monie that the ſaid bonets, caps, and hats ſhall be ſold for, to the owners of ſuch hats, bonets and caps, in ſuch conuenient time, as the owners will receiue the ſame, vpon paine and forfeiture of twentie pounds for euerie time that ſuch cuſtomer or cuſtomers, maiors, ſhiriffs, bailiffes, or other head officers, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be remiſſe or negligent to make ſale as is aforeſaid.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no one perſon, by anie fraud, couin, color or colluſion, ſhall buie or bargaine for anie more hats or caps, being made out of the realme, at one time, or of one man, then one douzen, vpon paine for euerie cap or hat, bought contrarie to the meaning of this act, fortie ſhillings, the one halfe of all ſuch forfeitures or ſums of monie to be to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, or information in anie of the queenes courts of records, wherein there ſhall lie no eſſoine, wager of law or protection, and the other halfe thereof to be to the queene hir highneſſe, hir heires or ſucceſſors.

Prouided that the ſaid cuſtomer and cuſtomers, maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, conſtables, reues, or other the head and cheefe officers ſhall not ſell nor otherwiſe vtter aboue one douzen of the ſaid bonets, caps, or hats, to anie one perſon or perſons.

An act againſt vnlawfull and rebellious aſſemblies.

Chap.13.

FOraſmuch as it is moſt neceſſarie in a commonwealth to prouide that tranquillitie and peace maie be continued in the realme, and that all things being contrarie therevnto, maie by foreſight be eſchewed. Therefore it is ordeined and enacted by the queene our ſoueraigne ladie, with the aſſent of the lords and commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſons to the number of twelue or aboue, being aſſembled togither at anie time after the twentith daie of December next comming, ſhall intend, go about, practiſe or put in vre with force of armes vnlawfullie, and of their owne authoritie, to alter or change anie lawes made or eſtabliſhed for religion by authoritie of parlement, which ſhall ſtand in force after the ſaid xx. daie of December, or anie other lawes or eſtatutes of this realme or anie of them, the ſame number of twelue or aboue, being commanded or required by the ſhiriffe of the ſhire, or by anie iuſtice of peace of the ſame ſhire, or by the maior, ſhiriffe, iuſtices of peace, or bailifs of anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, where anie ſuch aſſemblies ſhall be vnlawfullie had or made by proclamation in the queenes name, to retire and repaire to their owne houſes, habitations or places from whenſe they came, and they or anie of them, notwithſtanding ſuch proclamation, ſhall remaine & make their abode, or continue togither by the ſpace of one whole hower after ſuch commandement or requeſt made by proclamation, or after that ſhall willinglie, in forceable and riotous maner, attempt to doo or put in vre anie the things aboue ſpecified, that then, as well euerie ſuch abode or continuing togither, as euerie ſuch act or offenſe, that after ſuch commandement or requeſt by proclamation had or made, ſhall be attempted to be doone, practiſed or put in vre by anie perſons, being of the number aforeſaid, ſhalbe iudged felonie in all & ſingular thoſe perſons that ſo ſhall make their abode, or continue togither, or ſhall attempt or commit anie ſuch act, and the offendors therein to be adiudged felons, and ſhall ſuffer onlie execution of death as in caſe of felonie.

And furthermore it is enacted, ordeined, & eſtabliſhed by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſons, to the ſaid number of twelue or aboue, after the ſaid xx. daie of December, ſhall intend, go about, practiſe or put in vre in maner and forme aforeſaid, to ouerthrow, cut, breake, caſt downe or dig vp the pales, hedges, ditches, or other incloſure, of any parks, parke or other grounds or ground incloſed, or the banks of anie fiſhpond, or poole, or anie conduits for water, conduit heads, or conduit pipes, hauing courſe of water, to the intent that the ſame or anie of them, from thenſefoorth, ſhould remaine open, not incloſed or void, or vnlawfullie to haue common or waie in the ſaid parks or parke, or other grounds or ground incloſed, or in anie of them, or deſtroie in maner and forme aforeſaid, the deere in anie maner of parks or parke, or anie warrens or warren of conies, or anie doouehouſes, or anie fiſh in anie fiſhpond or poole, or to pull or cut downe anie houſes, barns mils, or baies, or to burne anie ſtacks of corne or graine, or to abate, defalke, or diminiſh the rents or yeerlie value of anie manors, lands, or tenements, or the priſe of anie vittell, corne or graine, or anie other thing vſuall for the ſuſtenance of men, & being required or commanded by anie iuſtice of peace, or by the ſhirife of the countie, or by the maior, bailife or bailifs, or other head officers of anie citie or towne corporat where ſuch aſſemblie ſhall be had, by proclamation to be made in the queens name, to retire or returne in peaceable maner to their habitations, places, and houſes from whenſe they came, and they or anie of them notwithſtanding ſuch proclamation, ſhall remaine or make their abode, or continue togither by the ſpace of one whole houre after ſuch commandement or requeſt made by proclamation, or after that ſhall in forceable maner doo or put in vre any of the things laſt before mentioned, that then aſwell euerie ſuch abode or continuing togither, as euerie ſuch act that after ſuch commandement or requeſt by proclamation had or made, ſhall be doone, practiſed or put in vre by anie perſons, being aboue the number of twelue, ſhall be adiudged felonie, and the offendors therein to be adiudged felons, and ſhall ſuffer onlie the execution of death as in caſe of felonie.

And alſo it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twentith daie of December, vnlawfullie and without authoritie by ringing of anie bell or bels, ſounding of anie trumpet, drum, horne, or other inſtrument whatſoeuer, or by firing of anie beacon, or by malicious ſpeaking or vttering of anie words, or making anie outcrie, or by ſetting vp or caſting of anie bils or bill, or writing whatſoeuer, or by anie other deed or act, ſhall raiſe or cauſe to be raiſed or aſſembled anie perſons to the number of twelue, or aboue, to the intent that the ſame perſons ſhould doo, commit, or put in vre, any of the acts or things aboue mentioned, and that the perſons to the number of twelue or aboue, ſo raiſed and aſſembled, after requeſt or commandement had or giuen in forme aforeſaid, ſhall make their abode, or continue togither as is aforeſaid, or vnlawfullie and in forceable maner, perpetrat, doo, commit, or put in vre anie of the acts or things abouesaid, that then all and ſingular perſons, by whoſe ſpeaking, deed, act or anie other the means aboue ſpecified, anie perſons to the number of twelue or aboue, ſhall be raiſed or aſſembled for the dooing, committing, or putting in vre anie of the acts or things aboue mentioned, ſhall be adiudged for his ſo ſpeaking or dooing, a felon, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death, as in caſe of felonie.

And alſo it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie wife or ſeruant of anie the ſame perſons, or anie other perſon whatſoeuer, ſhall willinglie and without compulſion, bring, ſend, deliuer or conueie anie monie, harneſſe, artillerie, weapon, meat, bread, drinke, or other vittell, to anie perſon or perſons ſo being aſſembled, as is aforeſaid, during ſuch time as he or they ſhall ſo be aſſembled, or be togither as is aforeſaid, that then euerie wife, ſeruant or other perſon ſo bringing, ſending, deliuering, or conueieng anie monie, harneſſe, artillerie, weapon, meat, bread, drinke, or vittell to the ſame perſons ſo being aſſembled togither in forceable maner, or to anie of them, & not departing to their houſes or dwelling places, vpon requeſt, or commandement made vnto them, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be adiudged a felon, and ſhall ſuffer execution of death, as in caſe of felonie.

And furthermore it is ordeined and enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that if anie perſons aboue the number of two, and vnder the number of twelue, being aſſembled togither at anie time after the ſaid twentith daie of December, ſhall intend, go about, practiſe or put in vre, with force of armes vnlawfullie and of their owne authoritie to murder, kill, or ſlea anie of the quéenes maieſties ſubiects, or to ouerthrow, cut, breake, or caſt downe, or dig vp the pales, hedges, ditches, wall, or other cloſure of anie parks, parke, or other ground incloſed, or the banke of anie fiſh pond or poole, to the intent that the ſame, or anie of them, from thenſeforth ſhould remaine open, not incloſed or void, or to haue common or waie in the ſame parks or parke, or other grounds or ground incloſed, or in anie of them, or to deſtroie anie maner of parks, or parke, or fiſhpond or poole, or anie warrens or warren of conies, or anie doouehouſes, or to pull or cut downe anie houſe, barne, mill, or to burne anie ſtacks of corne or graine, or alter, defalke, or abate the rents of yéerelie value of anie manors, lands, or tenements of anie the quéenes ſubiects, or the priſe of anie vittell, corne or graine, or anie other thing vſuall for the ſuſtenance or apparell of men, and being required or commanded by anie iuſtice of the peace, or the ſhiriffe of the countie, or by anie maiors, bailiffs, or bailiffe, or other head officer of anie citie or towne corporat, where ſuch aſſemblie ſhall be had, by proclamation to be made in the quéenes name to retire or returne to their habitations, places, or houſes, and they ſo required by ſuch proclamation, ſhall not ſo doo, but after that ſhall in forceable maner, in forme aforeſaid, attempt to doo, or put in vre anie of the things laſt aboue mentioned. That then euerie of the ſame perſons, being aboue the number of two, and vnder the number of twelue, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies, by the ſpace of one yéere, without baile or mainpriſe.

And alſo that if anie perſon or perſons at any time after the ſaid twentith daie of December, ſhall be damnified or hurted by the dooing, committing, or putting in vre of anie vnlawfull act, or thing aboue mentioned, that then all and ſingulat perſons ſo damnified and hurt, ſhall recouer and haue damages with the coſts of their ſute ſuſteined in that behalfe, trebled againſt the offendors therein.

And forasmuch as ſuch euill diſpoſed perſons which of late time made commotions & rebellion in certeine places within this realme, being but few in number, at ſuch time as they did begin the ſame commotion, were not in ſhort time after the beginning thereof ſuppreſſed by ſtrength, for that the louing ſubiects at that time, for feare to incur in danger of the lawes of this realme, durſt not take vpon them ſo to doo, a great number of euill diſpoſed perſons, did come, and ioine themſelues to the ſaid ſmall number, whereby the ſame euill diſpoſed perſons tooke vpon them ſuch boldneſſe, that they would not be reduced to obedience without much bloudſhedding, to the great danger of the perſon of the prince, where if the ſaid ſubiects durſt haue taken vpon them to haue ſuppreſſed them at the beginning, ſuch inconuenience, and bloudſhed ſhould not haue followed. Therefore it is alſo ordeined & enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſons aboue the number of two, that at any time after the ſaid twentith daie of December, ſhalbe vnlawfullie and of their owne authoritie, aſſembled togither, to the intent with force & armes to doo, practiſe or put in vre, anie of the things aboue mentioned, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie iuſtice of peace, and to euerie ſhiriffe in anie countie, being within the quéenes dominions, and to euerie maior, bailiffe, and other head officer of anie citie or towne corporat, for the time he ſhall be in office, or anie other perſon or perſons hauing the quéenes commiſſion or letters from hir highneſſe, aſwell to raiſe and aſſemble the quéenes louing ſubiects, in maner of war, to be arraied in ſuch great number as he or they then ſhall thinke méet or able, to the intent by violence and ſtrength, to ſuppreſſe, apprehend, and take the ſaid perſons that ſo ſhall be vnlawfullie aſſembled, and that if the ſaid perſons ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled, after ſuch commandement or requeſt by proclamation made, ſhall continue togither, and not indeuor themſelues to returne towards their habitations, houſes, or places, from whenſe they came, in ſuch ſhort time as they maie conuenientlie, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euerie iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffe, and alſo euerie maior, bailiffe, and other head officer of anie citie, or towne corporat, and to euerie other perſon, hauing authoritie, as is aforeſaid, after ſuch commandement or requeſt by proclamation made, and to ſuch perſons as ſhall be aſſembled with anie iuſtice of peace, or ſhiriffe, or with anie maior, bailiffe, or other head officer of anie citie, or towne corporat, and with euerie other perſon hauing authoritie, as is aforeſaid, to ſuppreſſe, apprehend, and take thoſe perſons ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled, which after ſuch proclamation made, ſhall continue togither, and not indeuor themſelues to returne toward their habitations or places from whenſe they came, and that if the ſaid perſons ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled togither, or anie of them ſhall fortune to be killed, ſlaine, maimed, or hurt, in or about the ſuppreſſing or taking of them, that then euerie ſuch iuſtice of peace, ſhiriffe, maior, bailiffe, and other head officer, and euerie other perſon, hauing authoritie, as is aforeſaid, and all and ſingular perſons, by him or them aſſembled, ſhall be frée diſcharged, and vnpuniſhable, aſwell againſt the quéene, as againſt all and euerie other perſon and perſons, of, for or concerning the killing, ſlaieng, maiming, and hurting of anie perſon or perſons, ſo vnlawfullie aſſembled, that ſhall fortune to be killed, ſlaine, maimed, or hurt, about, or by occaſion of ſuppreſſing or taking of them.

And furthermore, be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie copieholder, or cuſtomarie holder, being yeoman, artificer, huſbandman, or laborer, and being of the age of eightéene yéers, or more, and vnder the age of thrée ſcore yéers, not ſicke, impotent, lame, maimed, ne hauing anie other iuſt or reaſonable excuſe, or cauſe to the contrarie, and being required by the ſhiriffe, iuſtice or iuſtices of peace, or other, hauing authoritie by this act, or by commiſſion, or letters, as is abouesaid, in that behalfe, they declaring their ſaid authoritie, or being required by the immediat lord or lords, of whom ſuch copieholds, or cuſtomarie holds then ſhall be holden, to ſerue the quéens maieſtie for anie the cauſes aboue rehearſed, and refuſe ſo to doo, ſhall onelie during the life of ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo refuſing, forfeit, and loſe to his or their lord or lords, of whom ſuch copie or cuſtomarie holds then ſhall be immediatlie holden, and ſhould be holden, during the life of ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo refuſing in caſe he or they had not ſo refuſed all their copieholds, and cuſtomarie holds. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch lord or lords, their heires, or aſſignes, of whom ſuch copieholds, or cuſtomarie holds ſhall be immediatlie holden, and ſhould haue béene holden, in caſe that ſuch perſon or perſons had not ſo refuſed, by vertue of this preſent act, to enter and take into his or their hands, or poſſeſſion, all ſuch copieholds, and cuſtomarie holds, ſo holden of them, or anie of them immediatlie, and to reteine the ſame, during onelie the life of euerie ſuch offendor or offendors, in ſuch maner and forme, as he or they ſhould haue had the rents, or ſeruice of ſuch copiehold, and cuſtomarie hold in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing, had not refuſed.

And that all and euerie farmar, being a yeoman, huſbandman, artificer, or laborer, and being of the age of eightéene yéers, or more, and vnder the age of thrée ſcore yéeres, not ſicke, impotent, lame, maimed, ne hauing anie other iuſt reaſonable excuſe, or cauſe to the contrarie, and being required by the ſhiriffe, iuſtice or iuſtices of the peace, or other hauing authoritie by this act, or by commiſſion, or letters, as is aforeſaid, in this behalfe, they declaring their ſaid authoritie, or being required by their landlord or landlords, for the time being, to whom the rents of ſuch farmes ſhall be then riſing, comming, or growing, to ſerue the quéenes maieſtie for anie the cauſes aboue rehearſed, and refuſe ſo to doo, ſhall during onelie the life of ſuch farmar or farmars, ſo refuſing, forfeit and loſe to ſuch landlord and landlords, as ſhould haue had the rent of ſuch farmars, during the life and liues of ſuch perſon and perſons ſo refuſing, all their ſaid farmes, and that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch landlord and landlords, their heirs and aſſignes, to whom the rents of ſuch farms ſhould haue béene due, during the life of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing, in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons had not ſo refuſed, by vertue of this preſent act, to enter and take into his or their hands or poſſeſſion, all ſuch farmes, and to reteine the ſame, during onelie the life of euerie ſuch offendor or offendors.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the death, expiration, or determination of the intereſt, or terme of yéeres, of euerie ſuch copieholder, cuſtomarie holder, or farmar, as ſo ſhall offend, and forfeit any of the ſaid copieholds, cuſtomarie holds, or farmes, as is aforeſaid, that then all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhould, or ought to haue had the ſaid copieholds, cuſtomarie holds, or farmes, after, or by the death, expiration, or determination of the intereſt, or terme of yéeres of ſuch copieholder, cuſtomarie holder, or farmar, in caſe ſuch copieholder, cuſtomarie holder, or farmar had not ſo offended, ne forfeited, ſhall and maie haue the ſame copieholds, cuſtomarie holds, and farmes, by entrie, action, admiſſion, or otherwiſe, in like maner, forme, and condition, and by ſuch waies and meanes as they and euerie of them, ſhould, might, or ought to haue had, if no ſuch forfeiture or offenſe had béene had, doone, or committed.
